Subject: RE: CFMMEU Meeting Request

Dear Ms Bancroft,

The CFMEU position in regards to OIR still remains as it was as per our correspondence 13 January 2023 regarding OIR's temporary assessment process that OIR had implemented without any consultation with the CFMEU, ETU or PPTEU Qld. The CFMEU's position is that this process remains Status Quo as it was prior to your changes and we will continue to direct all our health and safety concerns to yourself.

So at the this point in time we decline your invitation to this matter.

Subject: CFMMEU Meeting Request

Dear Kurt

Following on from our recent communications regarding the temporary assessment process currently in place for health and safety matters, I invite the CFMMEU to meet with myself to contribute to the establishment of a permanent assessment process for incoming Health and Safety matters. I am also extending this invite to ETU and Plumbers Union.

I have proposed some meeting options below, however please suggest alternatives dates and times if these do not suit.

- Thursday 2 February – available between 9am and 12 noon
- Friday 3 February – 11am onward
- Monday 4 February – available from 9am

Regards
