(d) Nominations must be lodged with the Returning Officer before the close of nominations at the address and by the methods specified on the notice of election. Nomination forms shall be signed by the candidate and by at least ten (in the case of those offices in (a)(vi) above for which 3 years continuous financial membership is required) and five (in all other cases) financial members of the Divisional Branch.

(e) Nominations shall be closed at 4 pm on the second last Friday of September, 1996 and each four years thereafter following that date. Nominations must be received by the Returning Officer by that time on the date to be eligible.

A member having nominated for any office in accordance with this Rule may withdraw the nomination by notifying the Returning Officer in writing of an intention to do so at any time up to seven (7) days after the closing of nominations. The Returning Officer on receipt of a notification from a member wishing to withdraw a nomination shall immediately take the appropriate steps to withdraw the member's name from the ballot papers prior to their distribution.

(f) Candidates may include with their nomination form, a statement not exceeding 200 words and in respect of Divisional Branch Councillor 50 words, containing only the candidate's personal history and only the candidate's policy statement.

(g) The Returning Officer shall examine all nominations to ensure that they are in order and if any nominations are found to be defective, the Returning Officer, before rejecting the nominations, shall notify the person concerned of the defect and where practicable to do so give them the opportunity of remedying the defect within a period of not less than seven days after being so notified.

(h) If at the closing date for nominations only sufficient nominations have been received by the Returning Officer to fill any vacancy or vacancies the Returning Officer shall thereupon declare person or persons so nominating elected and supply forthwith a report of the declaration of the ballot to the Divisional Branch Management Committee and candidates by submitting a Returning Officers' report to the Divisional Branch Secretary.

(j) If all nominations are received and there are more nominations than there are vacancies the Returning Officer shall conduct a draw for positions on the ballot paper and shall notify candidates of the time and place of the draw in sufficient time for a candidate or his nominee to attend the draw; such attendance shall be at the candidate's own costs and expense.

(k) The Returning Officer shall forthwith have printed ballot papers in sufficient quantities to enable him to supply a ballot paper for each member eligible to vote in the election and secure a certificate from the printer as to the number printed.

(l) Such ballot papers shall have printed thereon only the title of the office to be filled, method of voting and the name of the candidates for such office and a space for the required vote to be registered, provided however that where more than one candidate is required to be elected the number to be elected shall, be printed on the ballot paper. The position of the names of each candidate on the ballot paper shall be in order of the draw of positions for that ballot.

(m) Where a ballot is required, the Divisional Branch Secretary shall provide, within one day of the closing of nominations, a certified list of financial members entitled to vote to the Returning Officer.

(n) The Returning Officer shall, on a date which will enable the ballot paper to be posted not later than fourteen clear days before the closing date of the ballot, send by registered post to each member eligible to vote in the election at their address appearing on the list of members eligible to vote supplied to the Returning Officer by the Divisional Branch Secretary the following documents/materials only: -

(i) a ballot paper initialled by the Returning Officer in respect of each office to be filled at the election for which the member is eligible to vote.

(ii) a declaration envelope in such form as is prescribed by Regulation 5 of the Workplace Relations (Registration and Accountability of Organisations) Regulations 2003.

(iii) a prepaid envelope in such form as is prescribed by Regulation 6 of the Workplace Relations (Registration and Accountability of Organisations) Regulations 2003.

(iv) such printed instructions necessary for the completion of each of the ballot papers enclosed and any other instructions that the Returning Officer may consider necessary.

(v) the candidates statement provided for in accordance with sub-rule (f) of this rule.

(vi) provided that the Returning Officer shall post to each member eligible to vote by pre-paid post all ballot papers. The ballot papers shall be posted to ensure eligible members receive them not less than 14 days before the closing of the ballot.

(o) All financial members as defined in this rule shall be entitled to vote for all positions. Provided that in respect of voting for councillors members shall only be entitled to vote to elect the Councillor or Councillors within their Trade District or if they are not a member of a trade district, for the councillors within the zone district that they are attached to.

The zone that a member is attached to for the purpose of this rule shall be the zone that the member resides in according to the Divisional Branch records which shall be based upon the last address supplied to the Divisional Branch by the member up to and including the last working day of September in the year of the election.

(p) For the purpose of the election, the books of the Divisional Branches shall be deemed to have closed eight (8) days before the date on which nominations open (the electoral roll closure date). Only members who are shown in the records at the office of the Divisional Branch as having paid all contributions, levies and fines as at the electoral roll closure date shall be entitled to vote.

(q) The opening date of the ballot shall be at the 12th day of November and the closing date shall be noon on the 26th day of November in each year in which the ballot is held. All ballot papers shall be returned to the Returning Officer, c/- the post office box named on the reply envelope. The post office box to which the ballot papers are returned shall be hired by the Returning Officer prior to the dispatch of the ballot papers or if a box has been previously used by the union, they shall cause the lock to be changed.

(r) The Returning Officer shall collect the returned ballot papers and keep them securely under their custody until the commencement of the count.

(s) The Returning Officer shall advise scrutineer/s of a secure space and location where the count shall occur. If the AEC is conducting the election, the counting of the ballot shall take place on AEC premises. If it is necessary to interrupt the count for any purpose the papers shall be sealed in the ballot box to which any seals may be fixed by a scrutineer.

(t) Any candidate at their own expense, may appoint a financial member of the union to act as their scrutineer by notification in writing to the Returning Officer. Any scrutineers so appointed may be present at any stage of the counting of the ballot provided that the Returning Officer is also present.

(u) (i) The Returning Officer shall proceed to count the ballot on the preferential system provided for in Rule 3, Definitions, and the candidate or candidates receiving the necessary votes shall be declared elected. The counting of the ballot shall be completed not later than the first day of December following the closing of the ballot.

(ii) In any election for trade and/or zone councillors of the Divisional Branch Council the method of counting shall be that the candidate receiving the highest number of votes amongst candidates from the same trade in respect to trade councillors and amongst candidates who are from the relevant classifications relating to the respective representatives of each zone in respect to zone councillors, shall be declared elected.

(iii) In any election for the Divisional Branch Council where there is no candidate to fill the trade position of Bridge & Wharf Carpenters or Tilelayers or Slater & Tilers, Plate, Sheet and Ornamental Glass Worker or Stonemason, Marble Mason, Terrazzo Workers or where there are insufficient candidates to fill all the positions in any zone, any such position shall be filled by an election held in accordance with the provision for casual vacancies contained in Rule 38 sub-rule (cc), of which election shall be held not earlier than 6 weeks and not later than 6 months following the declaration of the poll for the election of other Divisional Branch Councillors.

(iv) In any election for the Divisional Branch Management Committee where there is no candidate or insufficient candidates to fill the positions, any such position shall be filled by an election held in accordance with provisions for casual vacancies contained in Rule 38 sub-rule (cc), of which elections shall be held not earlier than 6 weeks and not later than 6 months following the declaration of the poll for the election of other Divisional Branch Management Committee Members.

(w) In the case of equality of votes for any 2 or more candidates the Returning Officer shall determine which of the candidates is elected by their casting vote by casting lots.

(y) The Returning Officer shall declare the successful candidates elected and notify the Divisional Branch Management Committee of the result of the ballot and the Divisional Branch Management Committee shall issue instructions for the publication of same in their minutes.

The officer shall also notify each successful candidate by post.

The Returning Officer's report to the Divisional Executive shall contain all relevant information including the number of ballot papers printed, the number posted, the number returned, the number unused, the number of votes received by each candidate, the names of those nominated for each office and their proposers.

(z) The successful candidates shall take up their respective duties not later than the 2nd day of January following the conclusion of the ballot, or otherwise in accordance with rule 38(b), and shall remain elected until their successors take up office.

(aa) Any accidental or unavoidable omission or error in the carrying out or observance of this rule shall not invalidate an election if such omission or error appears not to have affected the result of an election.

(bb) In any election the Returning Officer and any Scrutineer shall do all things necessary to preserve the secrecy of the ballot and shall conduct themselves in a sober, proper and impartial manner. Scrutineers shall, as far as practicable, be present at all stages of the ballot.

They shall obey any directions given to them by the Returning Officer. If any Scrutineers or Scrutineer are not present at any stage or stages of the ballot the Returning Officer may proceed nonetheless.

(cc) Where a casual vacancy occurs in any office under these rules as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason, such vacancy may be filled by appointment by the Divisional Branch Management Committee provided that the person so appointed shall hold office for as much of the unexpired part of the term of the office as does not exceed -

(1) 12 months or

(2) three quarters of the term of the office, whichever is the greater.

Where the unexpired part of the term of office exceeds that specified in these rules, the Returning Officer shall conduct an election in accordance with the rules, with any necessary modifications to fill the vacant position, the person elected shall hold office for the remaining term of office.

(dd) In the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch only, where a casual or extraordinary vacancy occurs in a Zone Delegate's position which has the effect of reducing the number of tradesperson or labourer delegates below the minimum number of tradesperson or labourer delegates for that zone, such vacancy shall be filled by a member with the same designated classification in accordance with sub-rule 30 (iii) as the Zone Delegate who previously held the position.

39 – PLACE OF MEETING OF THE DIVISIONAL BRANCH

(c) The Divisional Branch Management Committee shall meet at least once each month and, subject to a review of their actions by the Divisional Branch Council shall have the care, control, superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, funds and property of the Divisional Branch and shall have all the powers of the Divisional Branch Council including, without limiting, the power, subject to rule 16 hereof, to amend or add to the rules.

Meetings of the Divisional Branch Management Committee shall be held at such time and place as shall be decided by the Divisional Branch Secretary and the Divisional Branch President, subject to the provisions of these rules.

The Divisional Branch Secretary shall arrange for notice of meetings to be given to each Divisional Branch Management Committee member by letter or any electronic means or telephone or verbally, provided that in the latter two instances, such is confirmed by letter, facsimile or electronic means.

(d) The Committee shall carry out any duties which they have been directed to perform by the Divisional Branch Council under Rule 13.

(e) They shall be responsible for the control and supervision of all officers. They may delegate this responsibility in respect to nominated classes of officers to the Divisional Branch Secretary for the exercise of this responsibility on a daily basis in between meetings of the Divisional Branch Management Committee on a temporary or ongoing basis and upon any terms or conditions they see fit; provided that such delegation may be revoked at any time by a subsequent meeting of the Divisional Branch Management Committee. They shall also deal with the proposed Divisional Branch Council Agenda prepared by the Divisional Branch Secretary.

(f) They shall deal with applications for membership, claims for Tool and Funeral Benefit, also grants from Contingent Funds.

(g) They shall issue instructions for prosecution for recovery of arrears and fines of members if, after due consideration such prosecution is deemed warranted; also for breaches of legislation, Awards, agreements and all matters in connection with Worker's Compensation Act.

(h) They shall make provision for the registration of members for employment and issue instructions to the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary for the supervision of the engagement of labour.

(j) They shall be responsible for convening and conducting general meetings of the members, as provided for in the Rules.

(k) They shall be responsible for the calling of any meetings necessary for the proper administration of the Divisional Branch, including meetings of members or stewards.

(l) (i) They may impose penalties, including fines not exceeding the sum of $100.00 on Divisional Branch Officers, councillors, members, committee persons or delegates representing the Divisional Branch for knowingly refusing to comply with the Rules, or the decisions of Divisional Branch Council or the Divisional Branch Management Committee, or knowingly refusing to carry out the policy of the Divisional Branch, provided that the Rules, decisions of Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee are available to members in the minutes of the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee at the Divisional Branch Office.

(ii) They may suspend, expel or dismiss from office, divisional branch officers, divisional branch councillors, members, committee members or delegates representing the Divisional Branch for misappropriation of the funds of the Divisional Branch or for a substantial breach of the rules of the Divisional Branch or for gross misbehaviour or gross neglect of duty.

(m) Upon a petition being forwarded to the Divisional Branch Secretary, signed by 10% of the financial members, in respect of any district or any zone, except in the case of the Sydney zone where the petition must be signed by 5% of the financial members convene a special meeting of the membership, in that zone or trade district. The financial members, signing the petition must come from the zone or craft district for which a special meeting is being petitioned.

(b) They may receive contributions from members in such shops or jobs and issue a receipt from a receipt book provided by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(c) They shall be responsible for the payments of all monies received by them to the Divisional Branch fortnightly.

(d) They shall from time to time furnish written reports to the Divisional Branch Management Committee of the industrial conditions pertaining in such shop or job.

(e) Immediately on conclusion of his employment as a shop steward/job delegate shall return the receipt book to the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary and obtain an acknowledgement of same.

Shop stewards/job delegates shall return the receipt book for audit twice each year in the months of January and July, or when so required by the Divisional Branch Management Committee to the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary.

58 – VICTIMISATION

Should any District Secretary, Town Steward, Shop or Job Steward be victimised or reasonably supposed to be victimised for carrying out any duties of the Union, the Divisional Branch Management Committee shall take all necessary steps to see that his interests are protected.

59 – ALLOWANCES

The Divisional Branch Council may determine in any year the allowances, if any, to be paid to persons representing the Divisional Branch or attending meetings at the request of the Divisional Branch or for its purposes.

60 – TOOL BENEFIT

The Divisional Branch Council may establish a tool benefit for the compensation of members whose tools are lost by fire, theft or accident.

61 – FUNERAL BENEFIT

The Divisional Branch may pay out of its funds a funeral benefit to representatives of deceased members. The criteria for eligibility of the funeral benefit to be determined by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

62 – CONTINGENT FUND

If the Divisional Branch establishes a Contingent Fund, it may be used for the payment of contributions of members who have been financial members for a period of 12 months, and whose payments have not been met due to unemployment, sickness or other reasonable cause.

63 – RULES OF DIVISIONAL BRANCHES AND BY-LAWS

1. Any Divisional Branch may make By-Laws in furtherance of any of the rules contained herein or for the proper functioning of the Divisional Branch or for the proper functioning of any District or Divisional Sub-Branch thereof.

2. Such By-Laws shall be effective and binding on any member to which they would apply.

3. Such By-Laws shall not be inconsistent with any of the rules of the union and shall, to the extent of any inconsistency, be void, ineffective and inoperative.

64 – STANDING ORDERS AND RULES OF DEBATE – GENERAL MEETINGS

(a) Order of Business:

1. Opening of meeting.
2. Reading and adoption of minutes of previous meeting.
3. Admission of new members.
4. Election of Officers.
5. Divisional Branch Management Committee minutes.
6. Adjourned business.
7. Reading of Correspondence.
8. Auditor's Report.
9. Report of delegates.
10. Secretary's Cash Account.
11. New business.

(b) The first member who attracts the attention of the Divisional Branch President shall have precedence in speaking.

(c) Members addressing the meeting shall direct their speech to the Presiding Officer and remain standing while so doing.

(d) No discussion shall be permitted unless there is a motion before the meeting. Any such motion shall be duly proposed and seconded. Any number of amendments may be proposed and discussed simultaneously with the original motion.

(e) When a motion shall have been duly proposed and seconded, the Divisional Branch President shall proceed at once to take the votes thereon unless some member rises to oppose or to propose an amendment, but no amendment shall be in order unless notice is given to move the same before the proposer of the resolution has replied.

(f) No more than two members shall speak in succession on one side, either for or against any question before the meeting, and if at the conclusion of the second speaker's remarks no member rises to speak on the other side, the motion or amendment shall be put at once to the meeting.

(g) It shall be competent at any time during a debate for a member to move, without discussion, "That the question be now put," which, on being duly seconded and carried, shall necessitate the submission of the motion at once to the meeting after the mover has replied.

(h) In the event of a number of amendments being proposed and discussed the Divisional Branch President shall put them to the vote in the following order: The first amendment shall be voted on, if carried it becomes the motion. If defeated, the original motion stands. The second amendment is then voted on, if carried it becomes the motion. If defeated, the motion stands, that is, the original motion or the first amendment, if carried.

All subsequent amendments shall be dealt with in this order. After the vote on each succeeding amendment has been taken, the surviving proposition shall be put to the vote as the motion, and if carried, becomes a resolution of the meeting.

(i) No member shall be allowed to speak more than once on the motion, except strictly in explanation, excepting the mover of the original motion, who shall have the right of reply. The mover of the motion shall be allowed 10 minutes to move the motion and 5 minutes to reply. No other speaker shall occupy a longer period than 5 minutes.

The meeting may, however, grant an extension of time to any speaker. No further discussion shall take place nor shall questions be allowed after the mover has replied.

(j) A resolution may, during the meeting at which it was passed be recommitted on the affirmative vote of two-thirds of those present at such meeting. A resolution may be rescinded by the giving of one month's notice and a majority vote being cast at the meeting subsequent to the expiry of the month's notice.

(k) On any member rising to a point of order during discussion, the speaker shall sit down and such member on rising shall state the point of order when the Divisional Branch President shall rule thereon. Such ruling shall be final, provided that it is not disagreed with by a majority of those present.

(l) Questions of order shall be decided by the Chairman, whose ruling shall be final, unless it is challenged by a formal motion for that purpose.

(m) The Divisional Branch President or Chairman for the time being may speak only on questions in which the interests of the office they represent are directly involved. In the event of the Divisional Branch President or Chairman desiring to speak on any question they shall vacate the chair.

(n) Should any question have occupied the attention of the meeting for thirty (30) minutes, the discussion on such question shall be deemed to have closed, and the Divisional Branch President shall forthwith call on the mover to reply, unless the meeting decides by resolution (carried by a majority of the members present) to continue the discussion of the matter in question.

(o) At any meeting of the Divisional Branch any member entitled to be present may give notice of motion for a future meeting by (1) reading such notice to the meeting, or (2) handing a copy thereof to the Divisional Branch President. Such notice of motion shall take precedence in the order in which it stands in the minutes book in relation to other similar notices, unless otherwise ordered, and shall lapse if the member, or some member on their behalf, be not present when the order of the day for such notice is read.

No motion for the adjournment of the meeting shall be received while there is business before the Divisional Branch President.

MOVING DISSENT FROM CHAIRPERSON'S RULING

(p) Any member dissatisfied with the ruling of the Chairperson may move a motion of dissent as follows: "That the Chairperson's ruling be dissented from."

The motion shall then be put to the meeting by the Vice-Chairperson, without discussion, in the following manner. The question is, "That the Chairperson's ruling be upheld." Those in favour of upholding the Chairperson's ruling, say "Aye." Those against the Chairperson's ruling being upheld, say "No."

The mover only shall speak to the motion, except the Chairperson, who may explain the reasons for the ruling given.

The Vice-Chairperson shall not give a ruling on the question involved in the Chairperson's ruling.

The Vice-Chairperson's ruling shall only be dissented from by a direct appeal to the meeting, the question being put by the Vice-Chairperson without discussion.

(q) This Rule shall apply only to general meetings of members of the Divisional Branch and shall not apply to Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Committee of Management.

65 – INSPECTION OF BOOKS

The books of the Divisional Branch shall be available for inspection at any reasonable time by any member having an interest in the funds of the Divisional Branch on application being made to the Divisional Branch Secretary

66 – deleted

67 – DIVISIONAL BRANCH COUNCILLORS

In addition to powers elsewhere provided in the Rules, a Divisional Branch Councillor shall have the powers of a shop steward and in respect of Country Councillors powers of a Town Steward.

68 – REFERENDA

(a) On receipt of a petition signed by not less than 1000 financial members of the Divisional Branch, Divisional Branch Council shall take a referendum of the whole of the financial members of the Divisional Branch in respect of any matter determined by Divisional Branch Council.

Such referendum shall take place within 2 months of the receipt of the petition.

The decision reached by majority of the actual votes recorded shall be binding on the Divisional Branch Council and the members of the Divisional Branch and on the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(b) Divisional Branch Council may at any time, by its own motion, take a referendum of the whole of the financial members of the Union upon any matter it thinks fit.

(c) The referendum referred to in this rule shall be conducted as follows:

The Divisional Branch Council shall:

Determine the question to be submitted to the members and the form of the ballot paper.

Fix the times for the despatch and return of ballot papers and give the necessary instructions for printing of same.

Appoint a Divisional Branch Returning Officer and Divisional Branch Scrutineer to conduct the ballot.

In all other respects the referendum shall be held as nearly as practicable in the manner provided for the holding of elections of Divisional Branch Officers.

CONSTRUCTION AND GENERAL DIVISION RULES

1 – NAME

The name of the Division shall be "the Construction and General Division".

2 – ELIGIBILITY FOR DIVISION

Every member who is a member of the union by virtue of Rule 2 Sub-rules (A), (B) and (N) of the National Rules shall belong to this Division.

Further, every member who is a member of the Union by virtue of Rule 2 sub-rule (E) of the National Rules, shall also be eligible for membership of this Division.

Further provided that in the State of South Australia, every member who is a member of the Union by virtue of Rule 2(D) shall belong to this Division.

3 – DEFINITIONS

Unless the context otherwise indicates, in these Rules:

"BRANCH" shall mean a Branch of the Union set up in accordance with the rules of the Union.

“commencement day” means the date provided by rule 69(iB)(c)

"CONSTRUCTION AND GENERAL DIVISIONAL BRANCH" or "DIVISIONAL BRANCH" shall mean a branch of this division established in accordance with these rules.

"FINANCIAL MEMBER" shall mean any member who has paid all subscriptions, fines, levies and dues in accordance with the rules of the Union and in relation to Construction and General Division is a member of this Division.

"MEMBER" shall mean a member of Construction and General Division and membership shall have a corresponding meaning.

"MEMBERSHIP YEAR" shall, for the purpose of Divisional Rule 19 herein, mean the period encompassing the two consecutive six month periods to which membership contributions are ordinarily attributable (i.e. 1 April to 30 September and 1 October to 31 March).

"C.O.M." (Committee of Management) or "Executive" shall be synonymous and shall mean in relation to a divisional branch the controlling and administrative body of such Divisional Branch.

"PREFERENTIAL VOTING" shall mean a system of voting in which the voter shall place the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom the member votes as first preference and shall place the number 2, 3, 4 (and so on, as the case requires) in the squares opposite the names of all the remaining candidates so as to indicate the order of the members preference for them.

In a ballot by the preferential system the valid ballot papers shall be separated into separate parcels, each such parcel containing all those papers on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate.

If on the first count a candidate receives an absolute majority of first preference votes of total valid votes cast the candidate shall be declared elected.

If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the candidate with the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded and the ballot papers on which a first preference is indicated for such candidate shall be counted to the remaining candidates next in the voters' order of preference.

If a candidate has then an absolute majority of votes he shall be elected, but if no candidate then has a majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and the distribution of the voters' preferences shall continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.

In cases where more than one position is to be filled the numbers placed opposite the candidates' names up to the number of positions to be filled shall be first preference votes and the procedure in respect to the distribution of preferences shall be the same as is above prescribed where a ballot is for a single position.

The candidate or candidates as the case may be, who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

"QBLDB" means the Queensland Builders Labourers Divisional Branch.

"QNTDB" means the Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch.

"UNFINANCIAL DIVISIONAL BRANCH" shall mean a Branch of the Division that has more than two of the monthly capitation payments or part thereof outstanding to the Divisional Office as at the relevant date applicable in the rule where that expression is used in these Rules.

4 – MEMBERSHIP

(i) A candidate for membership of the Division may make application to the Divisional Branch covering the area in which he or she resides or is employed, and such application shall be made and dealt with in the manner and subject to the conditions including conditions as to any probationary period required by the rules of the Divisional Branch to which it is made. Notwithstanding anything herein prescribed Divisional Branch rules may provide other methods of applying for membership.

(ii) (a) Candidates shall supply such information as to their identity and occupation, and such other particulars as to their eligibility for membership and the benefits of membership as the Divisional Branch may require, and shall, when requested, fill in and sign such application form as may be provided.

(b) The application form referred to above may be the form previously used by any union which has amalgamated to form this Union.

(iii) The Divisional Branch Secretary or other officer authorised under these or any other rules may refer any application for membership to the Divisional Executive for consideration or decision. Where in any case the admission to membership of any person applying is rejected such person shall have the right to appeal to the Divisional Executive the decision of which shall be final.

(iv) A member shall be deemed to be attached to the Divisional Branch covering the locality in which he resides, or, in the case of members employed in an industry for which a Divisional Branch has been established, then to such Divisional Branch. Where there is not a Divisional Branch covering the locality in which a member resides or the industry in which the member is employed, the member shall be attached to such Divisional Branch in either this Division or any other Division as the Divisional Executive of this Division may direct.

Any person who, as at 1 April 2010, is a member of the Brick, Tile, Pottery, Construction Materials and Related Products Industry Divisional Branch of the Construction and General Division shall be and become a member of the Divisional Branch of the Construction and General Division covering the locality in which they reside and shall have the same financial membership status within that Divisional Branch as they did within the Brick, Tile, Pottery, Construction Materials and Related Products Industry Divisional Branch at the time of the transfer. Any outstanding membership contributions owing to the Brick, Tile, Pottery, Construction Materials and Related Products Industry Divisional Branch as at 1 April 2010 shall become an amount owing to the Divisional Branch into which such members are transferred pursuant to this rule. Further, the period of membership of the Divisional Branch into which any such members are transferred shall be the length of time that such persons have been members of the Brick, Tile, Pottery, Construction Materials and Related Products Industry Divisional Branch and the former The Federated Brick Tile and Pottery Industrial Union of Australia (FBTPU). Further, life membership or honorary membership validly conferred by the Brick, Tile, Pottery, Construction Materials and Related Products Industry Divisional Branch or the FBTPU upon a member shall be recognised as such within the Divisional Branch into which such members are transferred.

(v) Any person who at the date of the certification of this Sub-Rule is a member of the Australian Building Construction Employees and Builders Labourers Federation, Tasmanian Branch (herein referred to as the BLF (Tasmania)), a Union of employees registered as such under the Industrial Relations Act (Tasmania) shall be and become a member of the Union without payment of any entrance fee and while financial in the BLF (Tasmania) shall be treated as financial in the Union and such membership shall commence on and from the date of the establishment of the Construction Labourers Divisional Branch.

Further, the length of membership of said member shall be the length of time that member has been a member of the BLF (Tasmania) except in the case of persons who have transferred to the BLF (Tasmania) from another Branch of the CFMEU covering labourers, in which case the length of membership shall be the length of time in the BLF (Tasmania) and the other CFMEU Divisional Branch, together.

Provided further that any member of the BLF, Tasmania may, within twenty one (21) days of the certification of this Sub-Rule, opt not to join the CFMEU, by notice, in writing, addressed to the Secretary of the Building Unions Divisional Branch in the State of Tasmania.

All persons who were previously members of the BLF, Tasmania and have been admitted to membership in accordance with this Sub-Rule shall be advised in writing of their admission to membership as soon as practicable thereafter and shall be informed of the financial obligations arising from membership and the circumstances, and the manner, in which such member may resign from the organisation.

(vi) Any person who at 31 March 1994 is a member of the Australian Building Construction Employees and Builders Labourers Federation (Victorian Branch) (BLF Victoria), the Australian Builders' Labourers' Federated Union of Workers - Western Australian Branch (ABLF WA), the Australian Building and Construction Workers' Federation (BLF SA), or the Australian Building, Construction Employees and Builders' Labourers' Federation (Queensland Branch) Union of Employees (BLF QLD) shall, to the extent that such person is eligible, be and become a member of the Union without payment of any entrance fee and while financial in any of the aforesaid unions or branches of the BLF shall be treated as financial in the Union and such membership shall commence on and from 31 March 1994. Further, the length of membership of the said member shall be the length of time that such member has been a member of any of the aforesaid unions or branches of the BLF together with any continuous membership of the Union which membership was continuous with the period of membership of any of the aforesaid unions or branches of the BLF either before or after the date of transfer. Provided that no member transferring by virtue of this rule shall by reason only of that transfer enjoy any right or suffer any liability conferred on a member of the CFMEU by reason of membership at a particular date prior to 31 March 1994.

All persons who were previously members of the BLF, the ABLF WA, the BLF SA, the BLF QLD and are admitted to membership in accordance with this Sub-Rule shall be advised in writing of their admission to membership as soon as practicable thereafter and shall be informed of the financial obligations arising from membership and the circumstances, and the manner, in which such member may resign from the organisation. A person who is notified of their admission to membership in accordance with the Sub-Rule may, in writing, within seven days of the notification thereof, signify their desire not to be a member of the Union and, on receipt of such signification, they shall not be treated as a member of the CFMEU, but, to the extent that moneys are owed to the BLF, such money shall be a debt owing to the CFMEU.

(vii) Any person who, as at 1 April 2012, is a member of the South Australian District Branch of the Mining and Energy Division shall be and become a member of the South Australian Divisional Branch of the Construction and General Division and shall have the same financial membership status within that Divisional Branch as they did within the South Australian District Branch of the Mining and Energy Division at the time of the transfer. Any outstanding membership contributions owing to the South Australian District Branch of the Mining and Energy Division as at 1 April 2012 shall become an amount owing to the South Australian Divisional Branch of the Construction and General Division pursuant to this rule. Further, the period of membership of the South Australian Divisional Branch of the Construction and General Division shall be the length of time that such persons have been members of the South Australian District Branch of the Mining and Energy Division. Further, life membership or honorary life membership validly conferred by the South Australian District Branch of the Mining and Energy Division upon a member shall be recognised as such within the South Australian Divisional Branch of the Construction and General Division.

Note: On and from 25 January 2025, or the declaration of the Divisional Branch elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is the later, this rule is affected by operation of Schedule 1.

(viii) [Deleted]

(ix) Any person who, at the date of certification of this sub-rule, is a member of the QBLDB shall become a member of the QNTDB and shall have the same financial membership status within that Divisional Branch as they did within their former Divisional Branch at the time of their transfer. Any outstanding membership contributions owing to the QBLDB as at the date this rule takes effect shall become an amount owing to the QNTDB. Further provided that the period of membership of the QNTDB shall be the same as that held by such members within the QBLDB.

5 – ENTRANCE FEES

Applicants for membership of Construction and General Division shall pay on application an entrance fee in accordance with Divisional Branch rules.

6 – CONTRIBUTIONS

1. The annual contribution payable by each member shall be fixed by the Divisional Executive on the basis that such contribution shall be no less than 1% of the carpenter base rate in the Building and Construction General On-Site Award 2020 or any award of the Fair Work Commission or any successor Commonwealth Tribunal replacing same, multiplied by 52, provided that the Divisional Executive may fix some other rate.

   For the purposes of the immediately preceding sentence and Rule 32(b) herein, base rate shall mean the sum of the award base rate, supplementary payment and arbitrated safety net adjustments as determined by the relevant industrial body or tribunal.

2. Any member who has failed to pay the entrance fee, all contributions, levies and fines imposed in accordance with these or the Divisional Branch rules on or before the date specified in the Divisional Branch rules, shall be deemed to be unfinancial, and shall not be eligible, provided that Divisional

Branch rules may provide that such members or some class or classes of such members may vote in a ballot, to receive any benefits, participate in any deliberations, propose or second any new applicant member for admission, or exercise any authority or any membership rights.

A member shall be deemed to be financial immediately upon payment of all arrears outstanding. Divisional Branch rules may provide that unfinancial members shall not be entitled to funeral, accident or any other benefits or to exercise any of the rights of members under Divisional Branch rules.

7 – SPECIAL MEMBERS

1. The Divisional Executive or the Divisional Branch Executive may fix a special or different rate of contribution and/or entrance fee for any class of members and any member within that class shall, on compliance with those conditions and subject to any rule, other than rules 5, 6 and/or 32(b), be entitled to all the benefits of membership.

8 – SUPREME GOVERNING BODY IN DIVISION

(i) The supreme governing body of the Division shall be the Divisional Conference.

(ii) The Divisional Conference shall consist of delegates including full time Divisional Officers elected as delegates. Provided that Divisional Branch Secretaries by virtue of being elected as such shall automatically be the Divisional Branch delegate or one of the Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference.

Provided further that existing elected officers of the Divisional Executive who are retiring from office and who have not been re-elected as delegates to Divisional Conference shall be entitled to attend the Divisional Conference which elects their successors and shall be entitled to all rights of a Conference delegate other than nominating and voting on any matter. Further provided that, if not otherwise a delegate to Divisional Conference by virtue of this sub-clause, members of the Divisional Executive shall, ipso facto, be delegates to the Divisional Conference and treated, in all respects, as delegates in the same way as any other member of the Divisional Executive.

Provided that any Delegate to the Divisional Conference from a Divisional Branch that has more than two of the monthly capitation payments or part thereof and/or interest thereon for which the Divisional Branch is liable under sub-rule 14(i) outstanding to the Divisional Office as at the date of any meeting of the Divisional Conference, shall not be entitled to attend any Divisional Conference (unless at the express invitation of one of the Divisional Officers), and in any event, shall not be entitled to move, amend or vote at any such meeting.

Any Assistant Divisional Branch Secretary designated for Painters shall be delegates to the Divisional Conference.

The Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary of the South Australian Divisional Branch shall, by virtue of the holding of such office, be a member of the Divisional Conference.

After 2 January 1997 the Assistant Secretary (Plasterers) of each Divisional Branch which has such a position shall by virtue of that office be a delegate to Divisional Conference.

Provided that if at any time there is no longer an office of Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary (Plasterer) in the Australian Capital Territory Divisional Branch, either of the following as determined by the ACT Branch Committee of Management at least three (3) months prior to the opening of nominations as prescribed by r.38 of these Rules, shall be a delegate to Divisional Conference:

- the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary; or
- a delegate to be elected at the divisional branch elections as prescribed by r.38 of these rules.

For the avoidance of doubt, on and from the date of certification of this sub-rule, any casual vacancy occurring in the relevant National Conference Delegate position as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason shall be filled either ex officio or via an election under Divisional Rule 38(cc) at the discretion of the ACT Branch Committee of Management.

The Brick, Tile, Pottery, Construction Materials and Related Products Industry Divisional Branch (and its predecessor) shall, until 1 January 2013 only, be entitled to two delegates to the Divisional Conference of the Construction and General Division. The two delegates shall be the persons holding the offices of Industry Divisional Branch Secretary and the Industry Divisional Branch President (honorary) of the Brick, Tile, Pottery, Construction Materials and Related Products Industry Divisional Branch immediately prior to the date of certification of this paragraph of sub-rule (ii).

(iii) Except as provided for in sub-clause (vi) and in sub-rule (viA) Divisional Branches shall be entitled to elect, including the Divisional Branch Secretary, one delegate for the first two (2) thousand members or part thereof and one delegate for each succeeding two (2) thousand members or part thereof.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(iv) For the purpose of this Rule the formula which shall apply to determine the number of members of a Divisional Branch shall be to divide the amount of Divisional Branch income referred to in Rule 14 (i) received each of the three years prior to the elections by the amount of the annual contribution for that year. Those amounts to be totalled then divided by three to obtain the average number of members on which the Divisional Branch is entitled to elect delegates.

Provided that where the Divisional Branch has not existed for three (3) years the divisor shall be twice the number of half years up to a maximum of six (6) that the Divisional Branch has existed and the Divisional Branch income referred to shall be for the corresponding period.

Further provided that where a Divisional Branch has been the subject of changes in its structure or membership by virtue of a restructuring in whole or part, or an amalgamation, which restructuring or amalgamation has occurred less than three years prior to the elections referred to in the first paragraph of this sub-rule, the Divisional Branch shall be treated, for the purposes of this sub-rule, as if it came into existence on the last such change in structure or amalgamation, and the calculation shall be made in accordance with the immediately preceding proviso.

The Divisional Secretary and the Divisional Assistant Secretary/s shall have the same voting and other rights as other delegates to the Conference.

The existing elected officers of the Divisional Executive shall remain in office until the election of their successors.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(v) Should any delegate die or resign or otherwise cease to be a delegate, or for any other reason a Divisional Conference delegate's position is not filled, thus causing an extraordinary vacancy, the Divisional Branch Executive of the Divisional Branch of which the member is a delegate may forthwith cause an election for another member or where the unexpired part of the term of that vacant or unfilled office does not exceed three quarters of the term of office the Divisional Branch Executive may appoint another member to be the delegate of the Divisional Branch in place of the delegate who is deceased or has resigned or otherwise ceased to be a delegate or to fill the otherwise vacant position. Provided such delegate so elected shall hold office only for the residue of the term of the predecessor.

(vi) Divisional Branches, may where elected delegates to Divisional Conference agree, arrange multiple voting representation at a Divisional Conference by notifying the Divisional Secretary prior to the beginning of the Divisional Conference of the number of delegates to be credentialled and of the arrangements for proxy voting to be adopted by that/those delegate/s to Divisional Conference.

Where a delegate is unable to attend a meeting of the Divisional Conference or any part thereof that delegate may appoint another elected delegate to Divisional Conference from the same Divisional Branch as proxy to act in his stead. Where a delegate is the only representative of a Divisional Branch and is to be absent from Divisional Conference the delegate may appoint an elected delegate from another Divisional Branch of this Division, or any other Divisional Conference member as the delegate's proxy.

(viA) For the purposes only of elections for the Australian Capital Territory Divisional Branch offices of delegates to Divisional Conference the electorate in respect of the delegate to Divisional Conference provided for in this sub-rule comprises all of the members of the Division who are residing or employed in the Northern Territory and who are members of the Australian Capital Territory Divisional Branch. For the avoidance of doubt it is provided that for the purposes of calculating the entitlement of the Australian Capital Territory Divisional Branch pursuant to sub-rules (iii) and (iv) of this Rule the members of that Branch who are residing or employed in the Northern Territory shall not be included and all other provisions affecting the entitlement of that Branch to delegates to Divisional Conference shall continue to apply.

Forthwith after the commencement of this sub-rule an election shall be conducted by and from the members of the Australian Capital Territory Divisional Branch who are residing or employed in the Northern Territory for the office of "ACT Divisional Branch Northern Territory delegate to Divisional Conference". On and from the declaration of that election the delegate elected shall have all the rights and responsibilities of delegates to Divisional Conference who took office on 1 January 2005 and shall hold office until the expiry of the terms of office of all other delegates to Divisional Conference under these Rules. Thereafter the delegate elected pursuant to this sub-rule shall hold office for the same term as all other delegates to Divisional Conference.

From 2 January 2009 or the declaration of the Divisional Branch elections in 2008, whichever is the later, the office of ACT Divisional Branch Northern Territory delegate to Divisional Conference shall cease to exist and a new office of Western Australian Divisional Branch (Northern Territory) delegate to Divisional Conference shall be created in lieu thereof. The provisions of the preceding two paragraphs of this sub-rule shall apply, mutatis mutandis, with respect to the office of Western Australian Divisional Branch (Northern Territory) delegate to Divisional Conference.

From 2 January 2013 or the declaration of the Divisional Branch elections in 2012, whichever is the later, the office of Western Australian Divisional Branch (Northern Territory) delegate to Divisional Conference shall cease to exist and a new office of Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch (Northern Territory) delegate to Divisional Conference shall be created in lieu thereof. The provisions of the first two paragraphs of this sub-rule shall apply, mutatis mutandis, with respect to the office of Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch (Northern Territory) delegate to Divisional Conference.

(vii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding sub-rules, in the case of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch the Divisional Branch Secretary and the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary (FEDFA) shall, by virtue of being elected or otherwise holding such offices, automatically be among the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference. These ex-officio positions shall occupy the first two of the allocated number of delegates for the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch calculated in accordance with sub-rule (iii) hereof.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(viiA) Those members of the QNTDB and the QBLDB who held office as Divisional Conference Delegates on the day preceding the commencement day shall continue in office and be Divisional Conference Delegates for the QNTDB.

(viii) The method of calling nominations and the election of Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall be under the provisions of Rule 17 of the National Rules.

Full time Divisional Officers, (Divisional Secretary, Divisional Assistant Secretaries) and Divisional President and full-time National Officers, may nominate in such elections, either in the Divisional Branch first elected from, or another Divisional Branch provided that each Divisional Officer shall notify his/her intentions in writing to the Divisional Branch Secretary concerned prior to the date of calling for nominations in such elections.

Provided further that the number of Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall, in relation to any Divisional Branch in which an officer or officers referred to in the immediately preceding subparagraph nominates, be increased by the number of such officers nominating in that Divisional Branch.

(ix) Six (6) delegates shall form a quorum of the Divisional Conference.

(x) Unless otherwise determined by the Divisional Executive, the Divisional Executive shall meet the cost of an economy plane fare for delegates and Divisional Officers attending Divisional Conference. All other expenses for delegates other than full time Divisional Officers shall be met by the Divisional Branches concerned.

(xi) The Divisional Conference shall have power:

(a) To take such steps, subject to the rules of the Union, as it shall think fit to carry out all or any of the objects of the Union as they relate to the Division and to raise or spend such funds as are necessary to carry out the objects.

(b) To decide the general policy of the Division and to take steps to enforce the carrying out of such policy.

(c) Subject to any other rule to impose penalties, (i.e. fines not exceeding the sum of twenty dollars, suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office), on officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates of the Division, for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules of the Union or decisions of the Divisional Conference, Divisional Executive or any Divisional Branch relevant to such person.

Provided that a copy of the rules, the decisions of Divisional Conference, Divisional Executive or relevant Divisional Branch are available to members at each Divisional Branch office.

No penalty shall be imposed unless -

(i) The officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting at least seven (7) days prior to the meeting;

(ii) Particulars are given in the summons of the offence alleged, including the time and place it is alleged the offence was committed;

(iii) He/she is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in their own defence, including an opportunity to cross-examine and to give and call evidence.

Period of suspension imposed under this rule shall not exceed six (6) months.

(d) To hear and decide any appeal from a Divisional Branch on an issue concerned solely with a matter affecting this Division, from a Divisional Branch or Sub-Branch or member. Any appeal from a member must be forwarded through the Divisional Branch Committee.

Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard. Provided that in the case of an appeal from a Branch of the Union, the Branch shall have the right to appeal any decision of the Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive to the National Executive.

(e) To settle disputes between Divisional Branches. Any Divisional Branch concerned shall be given reasonable notice of the meeting and an opportunity of being heard before any settlement is effected.

(f) To deal with and decide any matter submitted to it by any Divisional Branch of the Division.

(g) To confirm, over-rule or otherwise deal with decisions of the Divisional Executive or Divisional Branches of this Division.

(h) To establish Divisional Branches of the Division and subject to Rule 11 to close any Divisional Branch and deal with any Divisional Branch in a like manner as the Divisional Executive may.

(j) To hear and decide any appeal from the Divisional Executive. Reasonable notice of the time of the place of the hearing of such appeal shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard and/or placing submissions before the Divisional Conference.

(k) To make, alter and rescind rules of this Division or any Divisional Branch of this Division

(xii) A Divisional Conference shall be held biennially at such place and time as the Divisional Executive shall decide.

(xiii) The business to be dealt with by Divisional Conference shall be shown on the agenda paper, but matters may be added to the agenda paper if agreed to by the Divisional Conference in session. Any matter appearing on the agenda paper may be amended by Divisional Conference.

(xiv) Notice of every Divisional Conference, together with a copy of the agenda paper, shall be posted by the Divisional Secretary to each Divisional Branch Secretary at least one (1) week before the date of such meeting but failure to notify will not of itself vitiate a meeting. Notice shall also be posted to all delegates so as to give them at least the notice provided for herein.

(xv) A copy of the minutes containing all decisions and business of the Divisional Conference shall be forwarded to each Divisional Branch Secretary within one month of the conclusion of each Divisional Conference. Any member of the division may, upon request to the Divisional Branch Secretary, inspect a copy of the minutes of each Divisional Conference at the Divisional Branch Office during the ordinary hours in which the Divisional Branch Office is open.

(xvi) The Divisional Secretary on receipt of resolutions from a majority of Divisional Branches or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10 percent of the financial members of the Division calling for a Special Divisional Conference shall call such Divisional Conference within thirty (30) days. Members of Divisional Conference shall be given seven (7) days' notice if practicable.

Notice shall be given by telephone, letter, facsimile, email and/or any other form of communications.

The Divisional Secretary may at any time thought fit conduct a postal, telephonic, facsimile, electronic and/or any other form of vote of members of Divisional Conference to obtain a decision on any matter provided that any Delegate from a Divisional Branch that is an Unfinancial Divisional Branch as at the date of the vote or the date of conclusion of a vote, by the above manners of obtaining a decision shall not have his or her vote counted or shall not be able to vote, as the case may be.

(xvii) The Divisional Conference shall have and exercise all of the powers of the Divisional Executive and shall deal with any matter or matters referred to it by the Divisional Executive.

Where any matter or matters is/are referred to the Divisional Conference by the Divisional Executive in accordance with this sub-paragraph, the Divisional Secretary may call a Special Divisional Conference in the same way as if he/she had received a resolution from a majority of Divisional Branches or a petition signed by not less that 10 per cent of the financial members of the Division calling for such Conference, in accordance with sub-paragraph xv) herein. In all other respects the provision of sub-paragraph xv) herein shall apply.

9 – DIVISIONAL EXECUTIVE

1.A For the purpose of the quadrennial Divisional elections to be held in 2013 and thereafter, the Divisional Executive shall be composed of one (1) Divisional President, one (1) Divisional Senior Vice President, one (1) Divisional Vice President, one (1) Divisional Secretary, two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries and such Divisional Branch Secretaries who are not elected to any of the aforementioned positions on the Divisional Executive.

Provided that where a Divisional Branch Secretary also holds the office of Divisional Secretary, the position he or she otherwise would have held on the Divisional Executive as Divisional Branch Secretary shall be held by a Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary from that Divisional Branch.

Further, provided that in addition to the Divisional Executive members referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph, there shall be an additional Divisional Executive member for any Divisional Branch with a financial membership exceeding 10,000 members, for each succeeding 10,000 financial members or part thereof within that Divisional Branch. For the purpose of this sub-rule the number of financial members shall be the number of such members as at 31 March in the year of the election. Such additional Divisional Executive members shall, notwithstanding sub-rule 2 herein, be nominated and elected by and from the Divisional Conference delegates from the relevant Divisional Branches to which those offices relate, such election to be conducted at the same time as the election of the Divisional Executive members referred to in the preceding paragraph.

Further provided that immediately following the declaration of the result of the election/ballot in accordance with sub-rules 7 or 11 herein, as the case may be, the Divisional Returning Officer shall call for nominations from the newly elected Divisional Executive members, other than the Divisional President, Divisional Senior Vice President, Divisional Secretary and Divisional Assistant Secretaries, for the office of Divisional Vice-President, and if necessary, conduct a ballot to determine that position.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

2. Except for the filling of extraordinary vacancies and the office of Divisional Vice-President, the Divisional Executive members and Divisional Officers shall be elected by and from the Divisional Conference held in 1993 and every subsequent four (4) years thereafter and shall hold office until the date referred to in sub-rule 9.13(a) hereof.

3. deleted.

4. Preceding such conferences the Divisional Executive shall appoint a person as Divisional Returning Officer, who shall not be the holder of any office in, and shall not be an employee of, the union or of any Branch, sub-Branch or section of the union. Such Divisional Returning Officer shall have the conduct of the election of the Divisional Executive members and Divisional Officers and three Divisional Trustees in accordance with these rules.

4A. In addition, the Divisional Returning Officer shall have the conduct of the election of two (2) members of the National Women's Committee in accordance with rule 13B of the National Rules of the Union and according to the process set out in sub-rules (5)-(12) below.

The two (2) National Women's Committee member positions must be held by women and shall be elected by and from the Divisional Conference held in 1993 and every subsequent four (4) years thereafter, and shall hold office until the date referred to in sub-rule 9.13(a) hereof.
To be clear, the two (2) National Women's Committee members are not members of the Divisional Executive.

5. Nominations shall be called for by the Returning Officer on a date fixed by the Returning Officer following the fixing by Divisional Executive pursuant to Divisional Rule 8 (xi) of a date and place for the holding of elections required under this rule and shall close fourteen days after nominations are called. Nominations shall be called by posting to each member of the Divisional Conference a notice of the opening of nominations. The Divisional Returning Officer shall call for nominations for all positions at the one time.

Nominations shall be made in writing by any member to Divisional Conference and submitted in accordance with these rules, by any delegate to Divisional Conference and such nominations must be agreed to by the candidate in writing.

The Divisional Returning Officer shall have the power in accordance with these rules to accept or reject such nominations, provided that if the Divisional Returning Officer rejects any nominations the following provisions shall have effect -

(a) The Divisional Returning Officer shall notify the person concerned of the defect in the nomination; and

(b) The Divisional Returning Officer shall, where it is practicable to do so, give the person concerned the opportunity if possible, of remedying the defect.

In any year in which an election under this rule is due the Divisional Executive, pursuant to its power under sub-rule 8 (xi) to fix the time and place for the holding of a Divisional Conference, shall fix the time and place for the Biennial Divisional Conference on any date in that year, provided that:

(i) any elections required in that year may be conducted at the Biennial Divisional Conference with the persons elected taking office on the date referred to in sub-rule 9.13(a) of these rules;

(ii) Divisional Executive may determine that the elections will be conducted at a Special Divisional Conference and may fix a time and place for the holding of a Special Divisional Conference for the purpose of conducting those elections with the persons elected taking office on the date referred to in sub-rule 9.13(a) of these rules; and

(iii) in the event that Divisional Executive determines to hold a Special Divisional Conference for the purpose of conducting elections under paragraph (ii) above, Divisional Executive shall also determine a date and place for the holding of Biennial Divisional Conference in that year.

(iv) Where the Biennial Divisional Conference or any Special Divisional Conference is to be held and/or fixed pursuant to this rule and the said Conference is to be conducted over more than one day, the Divisional Executive may fix the day of the Divisional Conference on which the election shall be held.

6. The ballot for Divisional Secretary shall be dealt with and completed. The ballot for the Divisional Assistant Secretaries shall be dealt with and completed. The ballot for the Divisional President shall be dealt with and completed. The ballot for the Divisional Senior Vice President shall be dealt with and completed. -The confirmation of election of such Divisional Branch Secretaries and Plasterers representatives who are not elected to any of the aforementioned positions on the Divisional Executive shall be dealt with and completed.

The ballot for the Additional Divisional Executive members as defined in sub-rule 1A hereof shall be dealt with and completed.

The ballot for the three (3) Divisional Trustees shall be dealt with and completed. Where a particular ballot is delayed subject to the operation of sub-clause (10) other ballots shall be proceeded with at Divisional Conference.

Following the election of three (3) trustees the Returning Officer shall call nominations to determine which of the two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries will be the designated Divisional Assistant Secretary and if necessary conduct a ballot to determine the election.

The ballot for the two (2) members of the National Women's Committee shall be dealt with and completed.

7. If the nominations are equal to the number of positions to be filled the Divisional Returning Officer shall forthwith declare to the Divisional Conference that such candidates are elected. An officer shall not hold more than one position on the Divisional Executive except the position of Trustee may be held by a member of the Divisional Executive other than a full-time Divisional Officer, and the Divisional Secretary may concurrently hold a full-time office in a Divisional Branch.

8. If there are more candidates than the number required for filling the office/s the Divisional Returning Officer shall prepare voting papers and conduct the ballot.

9. The election shall be by secret ballot and any candidate may appoint a Scrutineer by notification in writing to the Divisional Returning Officer prior to the commencement of the ballot whose duty it shall be to watch the interest of the candidate at all stages of the ballot. Such a scrutineer shall represent and may be present at any stage of the counting of the ballot provided that the Divisional Returning Officer is also present and shall do all things necessary to preserve the secrecy of the ballot and conduct themselves in a sober, proper and impartial manner and obey any directions given to them by the Divisional Returning Officer. If any scrutineer or scrutineers are not present at any stage or stages of the ballot the Divisional Branch Returning Officer may proceed nonetheless.

10. Any delegate to Divisional Conference who will not be present, either personally or by proxy, at the meeting at which an election is to be held, may lodge with the Divisional Returning Officer a request for an absentee vote together with an address where he can receive communications and, if any delegate has done so, the Divisional Returning Officer shall not declare the result of the ballot until he has given such delegates a reasonable opportunity to vote.

11. The Divisional Returning Officer shall declare to Divisional Conference the result of the ballot as soon as the count is completed. In the event of a tie, the Divisional Returning Officer shall determine the result by casting lots.

12. Except insofar as any Act from time to time provides otherwise, whenever any member has been declared elected to any office the member declared to be elected to such office, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity which may have occurred in or in connection with the calling for and dealing with nominations or the conduct of the ballot shall be recognised as validly entitled to hold such office on and from the date referred to in 13(a) of this rule.

13. (a) A Divisional Executive member shall hold office until 15 October in a year in which an election is required in accordance with these rules or until the Sunday immediately following the declaration of their successor's election at Divisional Conference (whichever is later).

14. (a) Where a casual vacancy occurs in any office under these rules as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason, such vacancy may be filled by appointment by the Divisional Executive provided that the person so appointed shall hold office for as much of the unexpired part of the term of the office as does not exceed -

(1) 12 months or

(2) three quarters of the term of the office whichever is the greater.

(b) Where the unexpired part of the term of office exceeds that specified in 14 (a) of this rule, the Divisional Returning Officer shall conduct an election of Divisional Conference delegates to fill the vacant position, the person elected shall hold office for the remaining term of office.

The Divisional Executive may decide that where sub-rule (b) applies such an election be conducted at a Special Divisional Conference or by a secret postal ballot of delegates t Divisional Conference in terms of Rule 17 of the National Rules of the Union as modified to suit the requirements of the election.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, on and from the date of certification of this sub-rule 14(c), the provisions of this sub-rule 14 shall apply to the filling of any casual vacancy occurring in the office of Senior Vice-President as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, on and from the date of certification of this sub-rule 14(d), the provisions of this sub-rule 14 shall apply to the filling of any casual vacancy occurring in the National Women's Committee positions as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason.

15. The Divisional Executive shall, have and may exercise, subject to the review of its actions by Divisional Conference, the care, control, superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business, Divisional funds and property of the Division and have and exercise all of the powers of the Divisional Conference, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing it may -

(a) Interpret and enforce the general policy of the Division.

(b) Control and conduct the business and affairs of the Division.

(c) Appoint the editor of any Divisional journal and manage and control the policy of the journal.

(d) Hear and decide any appeal from any Divisional Branch. Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

(e) Settle disputes between Divisional Branches. Any Divisional Branch concerned shall be given reasonable notice of the meeting and an opportunity of being heard before any settlement is effected.

(f) Expend such moneys by way of ordinary expenditure of the Division as may be necessary.

(g) Submit any matter to the members for decision by ballot.

(h) Ensure that officers, committee members, delegates or members of the Division and Divisional Branches carry out the rules and decisions of the union and subject to Rule 11 impose penalties (i.e., fines not exceeding the sum of twenty dollars, suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office,) on officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates of or to the Division for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules or the decisions of the Divisional Executive. Provided that the rules or the decisions of the Divisional Executive are available to members in the minutes of the Divisional Executive and the registered rules of the union and the Division are available at each Branch office. No penalty shall be imposed unless –

(i) The officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting seven (7) days prior to the meeting;

(ii) Notice of the charge or allegation is given sufficient to enable a reply.

(iii) He/she is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in their own defence, including an opportunity to cross-examine and to give and call evidence.

Period of suspension imposed under these rules shall not exceed six months.

(j) Take such action as may be necessary to secure the satisfactory working of any Divisional Branch of this Division and, subject to Rule 11, suspend or dismiss all or any members holding positions in, or for, a Divisional Branch and the appointment of a member of the Divisional Executive or any other member or members of the Union to conduct the affairs of such Divisional Branch. Provided that an election or appointment shall be held within three (3) months therefrom.

Reasonable notice of the time and place of the meeting shall be given to the Divisional Branch and to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard before any action is taken.

(k) Control and supervise the work of the Divisional Officers.

(l) (i) All decisions of the Divisional Executive shall be made by a majority of the members present at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules.

(ii) Where two (2) members of the Divisional Executive request, prior to a matter being put to a vote, that a card vote be conducted with respect to any matter, such a card vote shall be conducted in accordance with this rule. In the absence of such a request, the provisions of (i) above shall apply.

(iii) Where a card vote is requested in accordance with (ii) above, each member of the Divisional Executive shall be entitled to exercise one vote provided however that any Divisional Branch Secretary shall be entitled to exercise additional ordinary votes based on the principle of one additional ordinary vote for each 2000 members or part thereof over and above the first 2000 members of the Divisional Branch from which the Divisional Branch Secretary derives.

(iv) The manner of determining the number of members of any Divisional Branch for the purposes of (iii) above, shall be the same as the formula which applies in respect of membership numbers for the purposes of determining Divisional Branch representation to Divisional Conference as set out in rule 8(iv) of these Divisional rules.

(v) Where a card vote is conducted, the matter shall be determined by a majority of votes cast including additional votes as provided for in (ii) to (iv) herein.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(m) A loan, grant or donation of an amount exceeding $1,000 shall not be made by this Division unless the Divisional Executive -

(i) has satisfied itself -

(a) that the making of the loan, grant or donation would be in accordance with the other rules of the Union; and

(b) in relation to a loan - that, in the circumstances, the security proposed to be given for the repayment of the loan is adequate and the proposed arrangements for the repayment of the loan are satisfactory; and

(ii) has approved the making of the loan, grant or donation.

(n) To make, alter and rescind rules.

(o) Notwithstanding that a Divisional Executive member may occupy more than one office each of which would entitle them to be a member of the Divisional Executive, a member of the Divisional Executive shall be entitled to exercise one vote only (except where additional ordinary votes are cast in accordance with sub-rule (1) above).

Further provided that where a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary is also a member of the Divisional Executive by virtue of holding office as Divisional Branch Secretary, such Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary shall exercise their vote on the Divisional Executive in their capacity as a Divisional Officer only and any vote of such person as Divisional Branch Secretary [and, where applicable, any additional ordinary votes of the Divisional Branch], shall be exercised by the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary from that Divisional Branch provided that person is otherwise a member of the Divisional Executive.

16. Any member of the Divisional Executive (other than the Divisional Secretary, Divisional President, Divisional Assistant Secretaries, Divisional Senior Vice-President and Divisional Vice-President) from a Divisional Branch that has more than two of the monthly capitation payments or part thereof and/or interest thereon for which the Divisional Branch is liable under sub-rule 14(i) outstanding to the Divisional Office as at the date of any meeting of the Divisional Executive shall not be entitled to attend any Divisional Executive (unless at the express invitation of one of the Divisional Officers) and in any event, shall not be entitled to move, amend or vote at any such meeting.

17. Meetings of the Divisional Executive shall take place at least twice per year provided however that a meeting of the Divisional Conference shall be counted as a meeting of Divisional Executive for the purpose of this rule. Further, the members of the Divisional Executive may be summoned by the Divisional Secretary to a meeting to be held at such time and place as shall be decided by the Divisional Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the Divisional Executive may demand a meeting of such Divisional Executive which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members of the Divisional Executive. The quorum for any meeting shall be six.

Notice of meetings may be given by letter, facsimile, email or other electronic means or otherwise in writing or by telephone or verbally, provided that in the latter two instances such is confirmed by letter or telegram or telex or facsimile or other writing.

10 – REFERENDA

(i) On a decision of a majority of Divisional Branches that are not Unfinancial Divisional Branches as at the date of the decision, or Divisional Branches that are not Unfinancial Divisional Branches and whose membership constitutes a majority of the members of the Division or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10 per cent of the financial members of the Division, Divisional Executive shall take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Division upon the matter or matters submitted by the Divisional Branches or members. A decision reached by a majority of the actual votes recorded shall be binding on the Divisional Conference Divisional Executive and the members of the Division.

Divisional Executive may at any time by its own motion take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Division upon any matter it thinks fit.

(ii) The referendum referred to in this rule shall be conducted as follows:

Divisional Executive shall:

(a) Determine the question to be submitted to the members and the form of the ballot paper.

(b) Fix the times for the despatch and return of ballot papers and give the necessary instructions for printing of same.

(c) Appoint a Divisional Returning Officer and Divisional Scrutineer in conjunction with Divisional Branch Returning Officers to conduct the ballot.

(d) No material other than that authorised by the Divisional Executive shall be enclosed in the envelope in which the ballot paper is posted to the member.

(e) In all other respects the referendum shall be held as nearly as practicable in the manner provided for the holding of elections of Divisional Branch Officers.

11 – REMOVAL OF OFFICERS

(a) (i) Any Divisional or Divisional Branch Officer may be removed from office by majority decision of the Divisional Executive of the Division in which the Officer holds office, provided that such officer shall not be dismissed from office unless the officer has been found guilty, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, of misappropriation of funds of the Union or a substantial breach of the Rules of the Union or gross misbehaviour or gross neglect of duty or has ceased according to the Rules of the Union to be eligible to hold office.

(ii) An officer may be charged by any member of the Division with the offences referred to 11(a)(i) above, whether the offence occurred before or after this sub-rule came into effect, and where the Divisional Executive is to consider whether or not any Divisional or Divisional Branch Officer is to be removed from office under sub-paragraph i) herein, the procedure to be adopted shall be as follows:

a) The officer is to be summoned to attend the meeting at least 7 days prior to the meeting,

b) Notice of the charge or allegation is to be given sufficient to enable a reply,

c) The officer is to be afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in his/her own defence, including an opportunity to cross-examine and to give and call evidence.

(b) Should any officer be removed from office the Divisional Executive may appoint a member to fill the vacancy until the next elections are held and a successor takes office in accordance with the rules, but no person shall be appointed to an office, otherwise than temporarily, where the remainder of the term of office is twelve (12) months or three quarters of the term whichever is the greater.

(c) Any officer so removed from office shall have the right of appeal to the Divisional Conference and therefrom to the National Executive or National Conference.

In the event of the appeal being upheld the Divisional Conference, National Executive or National Conference may order reinstatement to apply on such conditions as it considers the circumstances warrant.

(d) In the event of the re-election of an Officer removed from office under this rule, such officer shall be reimbursed by a payment of monies that represent the difference between such salary that would have received had the officer not been removed from office and the amount of salary the officer received during the period that the officer was removed from office.

12 – VACANCIES IN OFFICE

Subject to the Act and other rules dealing with this subject, if any vacancy shall occur by death, resignation or otherwise in any Divisional or Divisional Branch office such office may be filled by the Divisional Executive until a ballot can be held to fill the vacancy.

13 – DUTIES OF OFFICERS

(i) Divisional President:

The Divisional President shall preside at meetings of Divisional Executive and meetings convened by Divisional Executive.

The Divisional President shall have a deliberative vote only.

The Divisional President shall carry out such other functions as shall be determined from time to time by the Divisional Executive. In cases where he is a full time officer he shall be under the control of the Divisional Secretary.

(ii) Divisional Secretary:

The Divisional Secretary shall be responsible for the general correspondence of the Division, Divisional finance, filing of documents for the Division, industrial returns that are required to be made by the Division and the carrying out of decisions made by the Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive or by the National Conference or National Executive.

The Divisional Secretary shall have the power, subject to decisions of the Divisional Executive, Divisional Conference, National Executive and/or National Conference, to appoint, control and dismiss the staff of the Divisional Office.

The Divisional Secretary shall have prepared a properly audited financial statement of receipts and payments and all the funds and effects of the Divisional Office, together with a statement of the assets and liabilities of the Divisional Office for the year ending 31st December in each financial year. Such financial statement to be made available to Divisional Conference, Executive, National Conference, National Executive, National Secretary and Divisional Branches of this Division. Provided however that the financial year for the Division shall, on and from 1 April 2017, and for each year thereafter, commence on and from 1 April each year and end on 31 March of each following year.

The Divisional Secretary shall carry out such other functions as shall be determined from time to time by the Divisional Executive, National Conference or National Executive and allocate the duties of Divisional Officers.

The Divisional Secretary may concurrently hold a full-time office in a Divisional Branch.

(iii) Divisional Assistant Secretaries:

Divisional Assistant Secretaries and any other full-time Divisional Officer at the Divisional level shall perform all duties assigned to them by the Divisional Executive, National Conference or the National Executive.

They shall be under the control of the Divisional Secretary. They shall attend all meetings of Divisional Executive, National Conference and National Executive.

The Divisional Assistant Secretary who has been designated as the Divisional Senior Assistant Secretary in terms of Rule 9 sub-rule 6 shall fulfil all duties and responsibilities of the Divisional Secretary while on approved leave of absence except in respect of those duties decided otherwise by the Divisional Executive.

The office of Divisional Assistant Secretary may be resolved to be either a full-time or honorary office, by decision of the Divisional Executive made not less than 70 days prior to the calling of nominations for that office. Where a casual vacancy arises in that office, Divisional Executive may, prior to filling the vacancy under rule 12, resolve whether the office is to be filled on an honorary or full-time basis.

(iv) Divisional Senior Vice-President:

The Divisional Senior Vice-President shall assist the Divisional President in the conduct of meetings and shall preside in the absence of the Divisional President, and shall carry out such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Divisional Executive.

One of the Divisional Senior Vice-Presidents shall until the election of Divisional Officers after 2 January 1997 be a representative of Painters and that Divisional Senior Vice-President shall be a full-time officer of the Division.

(v) Divisional Vice-President:

The Divisional Vice-President shall assist the Divisional President or Senior Vice-President in the conduct of meetings and, in the absence of both the abovementioned officers, shall act as President.

The Divisional Vice-President shall carry out such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Divisional Executive.

(vi) Divisional Trustees:

The Divisional Trustees shall, subject to control by the Divisional Executive, be responsible, together with the Divisional Secretary, for the finance, property and investments of the Division.

(vii) Members of Divisional Executive:

Other members of Divisional Executive shall attend meetings of the Divisional Executive when summoned so to do and perform functions allocated by the Divisional Executive.

14 – FUNDS AND PROPERTY

(i) Each Divisional Branch shall forward to the Divisional Office such percentage of the Divisional Branch income as may be apportioned from time to time by the Divisional Executive.

A Divisional Branch that does not remit to the Divisional Office the moneys or part thereof owed by it by the time after such moneys are due and payable so that it becomes an Unfinancial Divisional Branch within the meaning of rule 3, shall in addition to those moneys, also be liable to pay to the Divisional Office interest on the unpaid amount at the percentage rate for 90-day bank bills as at the date that Divisional Branch becomes an Unfinancial Divisional Branch, on and from the said date. Such a Branch will remain an Unfinancial Divisional Branch for all purposes under these Rules until the principal sum and interest thereon specified in this sub-rule are paid to the Divisional Office.

If the Divisional Executive is of a view that the reasons for the non-payment are genuine reasons of incapacity to pay, then such interest shall not be levied.

(ii) Banking and Withdrawal: All moneys received by the Divisional Office shall be paid to the credit of the Division on current account with a bank or financial institution approved by the Divisional Executive. All funds drawn from the bank shall be authorised in writing by the Divisional Secretary, Assistant Secretaries or Divisional President and one Divisional Trustee.

(iii) All expenditure for ordinary purposes, i.e., incurred in directly furthering the objects of the Union for members of this Division or in the expenses of management of this Division or in satisfying any debt to or of the National Office, may be disbursed by decision of the Divisional Secretary and one of the Assistant Divisional Secretaries.

Expenditure for other purposes authorised by the rules may be disbursed by a majority decision of the Divisional Executive, National Conference or National Executive.

(iv) Investment of Funds: The funds of the Division shall be invested wherever possible in the name of the Union. Where this is not possible, investments shall be made in the name of the Divisional Trustees.

The funds of the Division may be invested in such securities as are permitted by the laws of any State of the Commonwealth for the investment of funds by trustees.

(v) The property of the Division shall be under the control of the Divisional Executive and shall be in the name of the Union.

15 – AUDITOR

The Divisional Executive shall appoint an approved auditor who shall each financial year for the period ending 31 December audit the books and accounts of the Division and draw up a correct report on same. Provided however that the financial year for the Division shall, on and from 1 April 2017, and for each year thereafter, commence on and from 1 April each year and end on 31 March of each following year.

The auditor shall, in the report, draw attention of the Divisional Executive, National Conference and National Executive to any deficiencies or other matters which the auditor may think proper. The auditor shall have full and complete access to all the books and documents of the Division.

Upon receipt by the Divisional Secretary of a petition, signed by not less than 5% of the members of the Division, requesting that a general meeting of members of the Division be called for the purpose of considering the auditor's report, the general purpose financial report and the operating report of the Division, the Divisional Secretary shall convene such meeting as soon as is practicable.

16 – ALTERATION OF RULES

These Divisional Rules and any Divisional Branch Rules of this Division may be altered or rescinded or new rules made by the Divisional Executive. Proposals for alterations of such rules may also be proposed by Divisional Branches and shall be forwarded with the notice calling the Divisional Executive.

Provided that Divisional Executive in session may alter such rules although previous notice has not been given.

Nothing in this rule affects the right of the Divisional Executive to vote on any matter, including rules, otherwise than at a meeting assembled.

17 – RULES BINDING ON MEMBERS AND DIVISIONAL BRANCHES

These Divisional Rules, and all alterations, additions or rescissions thereof or thereto, shall apply to and be binding on all Divisional Branches of this Division and on all members who now, or who may hereafter, belong to the Division until they are made or become null and void according to law.

18 – DIVISIONAL BRANCHES

(a) There shall be Divisional Branches of the Division in each of the States and in the Australian Capital Territory, and in such other States or places as may be decided. The Divisional Executive may establish more than one Divisional Branch in any area and may do so on occupational or sub-industry bases, or may establish a single Divisional Branch for two or more States, Territories or places.

Such Divisional Branches shall be known as the Construction and General Division, New South Wales Divisional Branch, or as the case may be; or, with the approval of the National Executive or National Conference the Divisional Branch may be known by some other name.

(b) (i) In Victoria and Tasmania, the Divisional Branch shall be known as the Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch. Further, in the State of Tasmania there shall be a sub-branch of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch which shall be known as the Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch, Tasmania Sub-Branch.

(ii) [Deleted]

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(c) In Western Australia, as a result of an agreement between the two Divisional Branch Secretaries prior to integration, the Divisional Branch Secretary of the integrated Divisional Branch shall be the principal officer and spokesperson for the Divisional Branch.

(d) Victoria

(i) The Victorian Divisional Branch shall have the control and management of all funds, assets and liabilities that had been controlled, held or managed by the Victorian FEDFA Divisional Branch and the Victorian Building Unions Divisional Branch immediately prior to the certification of this sub-rule.

(ii) The transfer of funds, assets and liabilities mentioned in the preceding sub-rule shall occur subject to any transfer of funds, assets and liabilities from the Victorian FEDFA Divisional Branch to the Mining and Energy Division in accordance with the rules of the CFMEU.

(e) All Divisional Branches mentioned herein shall for all purposes be and remain an inseparable part of the Division by which they are established.

19 – DIVISIONAL BRANCH RULES

(i) Divisional Branches shall have rules set out herein. Divisional Branches may in accordance with the Divisional Branch rules hereto, make By Laws not inconsistent with these Rules or the National Rules and not inconsistent with the Laws of the Commonwealth. In the event of any such inconsistency the Divisional Branch By Law shall be void to the extent of such inconsistency.

Where any rule of a Divisional Branch allows for representation for different classifications of membership within the union such representation shall be reviewed by the Divisional Secretary no later than two months prior to the calling of nominations in that election so that representation of the classifications is based on the principle that the will of the majority shall not be thwarted and that there is appropriate representation of each such classification in the decision making bodies of the Divisional Branch concerned.

For the purpose of determining the two principles outlined in paragraph two herein, the aggregate membership over the 4 completed membership years immediately preceding the opening of nominations shall be averaged for the purpose of calculating the percentage of membership belonging to that classification. The proportion and representation decided upon in the manner outlined herein shall be reflected in the positions outlined in the rules for which nominations are called and shall remain the same (subject to any further decision of the Divisional Executive) for the period of office of the persons elected thereat.

Provided that where the classification has existed for less than four (4) years such lesser time shall be used for the purposes of the calculation.

(ii) (a) Subject to sub-rule (c) hereof, unless expressly authorised by Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive, the powers and duties conferred by these Rules on Divisional Branch Council and Divisional Branch Executive Committees and the officers, organisers, full-time paid officials and employees thereof are exercisable only in respect of the members of those Divisional Branches and persons within the geographic area and occupational categories within the State or Territory for which the Divisional Branch is responsible.

(b) Subject to sub-rule (c) hereof, unless expressly authorised by Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive, no officer, organiser, full-time paid official or employee of any Divisional Branch shall be authorised or permitted to perform any of the functions or duties conferred on such officers, organisers, full-time paid officials or employees by these rules, or to hold themselves out as an officer, organiser, full-time paid official or employee of the Union, other than within the geographic area and occupational categories within the State or Territory for which the Divisional Branch is responsible.

(c) Nothing in sub-rules (a) and (b) hereof shall limit the rights of office holders to perform their duties as members of Divisional or National governing bodies in accordance with the rules, being those matters specified in rule 13 of these Rules and rule 22 of the National Rules of the Union. Further provided that sub-rule (b) hereof shall not apply where Divisional Branch officers, organisers, full-time paid officials or members carry out work in a Divisional Branch (other than a Divisional Branch in which such person is elected, appointed or engaged) pursuant to a resolution of the Divisional Branch Management Committee of the Divisional Branch in which such work is undertaken, and in accordance with the terms of that resolution.

20 – EXECUTION OF AGREEMENTS, ETC

Industrial Agreements and other instruments that may be needed by or on behalf of the Division shall be executed by the Divisional Secretary or such other Divisional Officer as authorised by the Divisional Executive.

21 – SUBMISSION OF INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES

An industrial dispute affecting the members of this Division may be submitted to conciliation or arbitration upon a resolution in favour of submitting such dispute carried by a majority of the members of the Divisional Executive or by the Divisional Secretary.

The Divisional Executive and the Divisional Secretary shall have full power to transact all business and do or authorise all acts and things in connection with such dispute and it or he may delegate it or his functions either generally or specifically.

22 – DIVISIONAL OFFICE

The office of the Division shall be the office of the Divisional Secretary and shall be at 12/276 Pitt Street, Sydney, or such place as Divisional Executive shall decide.

There shall be an annexe at 500 Swanston Street, Melbourne in the State of Victoria.

23 – PRINCIPAL OFFICER

(i) The Divisional Secretary shall be the Principal Officer of the Division.

(ii) In the case of a breach of legislation, Award or Agreement or other matter affecting a member of the Division, the Divisional Secretary or any Divisional Branch Secretary or other person or body authorised by Divisional Branch Rules to which the member belongs shall have the power to take such legal proceedings as are necessary to enforce the legislation, Award or Agreement, or to seek penalties against an employer for such breaches.

24 – RECOVERY OF DUES

All claims for contributions, levies, fines, fees or liabilities of any kind due or payable to the Union by members of the Division may be sued for in the name of the Union by the Divisional Secretary or by the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Branch to which the member is attached or by any person or body authorised by these rules or the rules of the Divisional Branch.

25 – LEVIES

(i) Levies may be imposed for the purpose of carrying out any of the objects of the Union and for assisting the members of this or any other Union or body having objects similar in whole or in part to those of this Union.

(ii) The amount of any levy may be decided by a majority of the Divisional Executive and when so decided shall be binding on all members or sections of members as the Divisional Executive may decide.

(iii) A Divisional Branch may impose a levy on its members.

(iv) A levy may be of one specific sum, payable at one specific time, or may be for a weekly, fortnightly or monthly period, payable for a certain specific period.

All levies shall be added to contributions and shall be a first charge against all payments made by members of the Divisional Branch.

26 – VOTING OTHER THAN AT MEETINGS

(a) If the Divisional Secretary shall consider it advisable to submit any matter, including the imposition of a levy or the alteration, rescission or making of rules to a vote of Divisional Executive members at any time he may submit a resolution dealing with such matter to the members by letter, facsimile, telephone, email, verbally and/or any other means of communication or any combination thereof.

(b) A copy of such resolution shall be sent at the same time to each Divisional Branch Secretary.

(c) The votes on such resolution shall be returnable to the Divisional Secretary at such time as the Divisional President and the Divisional Secretary shall fix. The result of such vote shall be binding and enforceable in the same manner as a decision arrived at in meeting assembled.

(d) No amendment shall be allowed on any such resolution, but if it is negatived any member may request the Divisional Secretary to submit in a like manner a further resolution bearing on the same matter. In the event of the Divisional Secretary being requested to submit more than one such resolution the order in which same shall be submitted shall be in his absolute discretion.

(e) The Divisional Secretary shall keep a register of names and addresses of delegates to Divisional Conference.

(f) Divisional Branch Secretaries shall within fourteen days of the election of delegates to Divisional Conference notify the Divisional Secretary of their names and addresses.

27 – STANDING ORDERS FOR MEETINGS

This Rule shall apply to all meetings in the Division, including Divisional Branch Management Committee meetings, but shall not apply to general Divisional Branch meetings and/or rank-and-file meetings to which Rule 64 shall apply.

This Rule operates as a guideline only and any meeting may expressly or impliedly determine a course and procedure not in accordance with these Standing Orders for Meetings. No departure from any or all parts of these Standing Orders, whether in form or substance, shall vitiate the calling of any meeting, or any resolution, discussion and decision made at any meeting or the continuation of any meeting.

(a) Motions - How Dealt With:

(i) All motions shall be of an affirmative character and must be moved and seconded by delegates. Such motions become the property of the meeting and can only be withdrawn by leave thereof. The discussion on any motion shall not exceed 60 minutes unless a majority of delegates present agree to an extension of time.

(ii) Unless a delegate rises to oppose a motion or propose an amendment thereto, the motion shall be immediately put to the meeting for decision.

(iii) A motion may be superseded at any time by another motion "that it be discharged from the agenda paper" or "that the next business be proceeded with" being resolved in the affirmative.

(iv) A motion may be amended at any time during the debate thereon always provided that the substance of the original motion be retained. If the amendment is carried it then takes the place of the motion.

(v) Any number of amendments may be proposed and discussed with the motion. For the purpose of the debate the motion shall be the question before the chair. Amendments shall be put to the vote in the order in which they are received. If there is no further discussion, or if the motion "that the question be now put" is carried, the mover of the original motion may reply.

(vi) All motions shall be put to the meeting by the chairperson in a clear manner by asking for the "ayes" to vote first and then the "noes". The chair's decision as to which has the majority will be final unless a show of hands is called for. The chairperson shall then count the votes for and against the question.

If the votes are equal the question is resolved in the negative.

(vii) A mover of a motion to be allowed 15 minutes to introduce and five minutes to reply. Other speakers 10 minutes unless a majority of the delegates present agree to an extension of time.

(viii) Right of Speaker: Any delegate desiring to speak shall rise and address the chairman. If two or more delegates rise at the same time the chairman shall call upon the one who, in his opinion, first rose.

Provided that no delegates can speak more than once upon any question (which shall include the original motion and all amendments thereto) before the meeting, except -

(a) In reply as the mover of the original motion.

(b) In explanation or correction of some matter during the debate.

(c) Upon a point of order raised during the debate.

(d) Upon a resolution being carried "that he now be heard".

(ix) A delegate will not be held to have spoken who simply used the words "I second the motion" or "amendment", as the case may be; but for the purpose of debate shall be considered the second speaker in favour of the proposal seconded by him.

(x) No more than two delegates shall be allowed to speak for or against any question in succession. If at the conclusion of the second speaker's remarks no member rises to speak on the other side of the motion or amendment, it shall be put to the vote.

(xi) Any delegate speaking shall at once resume his seat

(a) If the chairman rises to speak; or

(b) If a point of order is raised.

and shall not resume his speech until the point of order is decided.

(xii) No delegate may speak to any question after it has been put by the chairman or during the taking of the vote.

(b) REPORTS

A report containing a recommendation may be discussed on a motion being moved for its adoption which, upon being carried, will signify the will of Conference thereon.

If the report contains any recommendation it shall be competent for a delegate to move a resolution arising out of and relative to the report to obtain the opinion of the meeting on the matter.

(c) ADJOURNMENT OF MEETING OR DEBATE

A motion for the adjournment of the meeting may be proposed at any time or for the adjournment of the debate, and shall be at once put to the meeting by the chairman unless time is mentioned. An amendment to alter the time can be proposed upon a motion for adjournment only if time is mentioned as part of such motion and can apply thereto.

(d) ADJOURNMENT OF STATED TIME

When a motion for the adjournment of a debate to any stated day or time has been carried, such motion shall not be abrogated unless with the consent of the meeting.

(e) CHAIR'S RULINGS

The chair's rulings on all points of order shall be final unless at the time a motion is carried that such ruling be disagreed with. When a motion to disagree with the ruling of the chairperson has been duly proposed and seconded, the chairperson shall leave the chair until the motion has been disposed of by the meeting. The mover only shall speak to the motion and the chairperson may explain the reasons for the ruling given. The motion shall then be put to the meeting by the Vice-Chairperson.

(f) SUSPENSION OF ORDER OF BUSINESS

It shall be competent by a majority vote of the members present for the meeting to suspend the order of business.

(g) SITTING AS A COMMITTEE

Divisional Executive may at any time, by a resolution agreed to by a majority of members present, resolve itself into a committee of the whole. The rules governing the business of Divisional Executive shall be observed when in Committee.

(h) DEFINITION:

In this rule "delegate" shall include any person attending a meeting.

DIVISIONAL BRANCH RULES

28 – NAME

The name of the Divisional Branches of this Division shall be as follows:-

(a) In New South Wales, South Australia, Western Australia, and the Australian Capital Territory, "The Construction and General Division, X Divisional Branch" where X is the State or Territory concerned;

(b) In Tasmania and Victoria "The Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch".

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(c) In Queensland in accordance with Rule 18 of these rules.

29 – ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP

All persons who are members of or apply for membership in the Construction and General Division of the Union residing or employed in the State or Territory concerned shall be and remain members of the Divisional Branch or Divisional Branches within that State or Territory.

Provided that notwithstanding the provisions of any other rule, all persons who are members of or apply for membership of the Division, who are residing or employed in the Northern Territory shall, on and from 1 January 2012, be and remain members of the Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

30 – MEMBERSHIP

(i) General Section

(a) Applications for membership of the Union and/or Divisional Branch shall be on a form published by the Divisional Branch and shall be signed by the applicant. Divisional Branches may publish applications for membership on the internet.

No omission, irregularity or want of form shall invalidate an application for membership provided that the person applying intended the document to be so treated and the union treated the document as an application form for membership.

(b) A person applying for membership shall, on the membership application form, state which classification the applicant for membership considers to be his or her appropriate classification. All applications for membership shall be lodged with the Divisional Branch Secretary or such other person authorised by the Divisional Branch Council and such applications may be lodged via the internet or email. Applications for membership shall be dealt with by the Divisional Branch Management Committee or another committee authorised by Divisional Branch Council, who shall, if satisfied with the bona-fides and qualifications of the applicant, admit him or her to membership of the Divisional Branch and the Union.

The classification determined in accordance with this sub-rule:

(i) shall be solely for the purpose of determining the eligibility of each member to nominate for election to any office within the Division or Divisional Branch where election to such office is dependent upon the members falling into one or other classification;

(ii) shall be conclusive; and

(iii) shall bind the Divisional Branch Returning Officer.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(c) On being admitted to membership of the Divisional Branch a member shall, ipso facto, be and be deemed to be a member of the Construction and General Division, the Divisional Branch, and the Union.

(d) A period of thirteen weeks, together with any period from the date of admission that the member has not been working at the trade, shall be allowed for the purpose of any member objecting to the continuance of membership of new members. Any objection to the continuance of membership of a new member shall be lodged in writing with the Divisional Branch Secretary or authorised person entitled to receive such application, such objection shall be lodged within the above-named period.

(e) A new member shall during the currency of the probationary period be entitled to full membership privileges and responsibility in accordance with Rules.

(f) A new member shall pay on application for membership all moneys required to be paid by a new member - Entrance Fee, one half year's contribution.

(g) Applicants for membership shall be qualified workers of good character, and shall, when admitted to membership, enjoy all advantages of membership so long as they comply with the registered rules of the Union.

Half yearly terms shall be deemed to begin on the first day of April and October, respectively.

(h) On being admitted to membership of the Divisional Branch a member shall, ipso facto, be taken to have authorised the union and its officers and employees to seek and obtain any information from any industry scheme of which that member is also a member or participant, for the purpose of ensuring that the member has received or is receiving all of the benefits to which that member is entitled under such industry schemes.

For the purpose of this sub-rule a reference to "industry scheme/s" shall be taken to include any or all of the following;

(i) C+Bus or any state based equivalent superannuation scheme.

(ii) Australian Construction Industry Redundancy Trust or any State equivalent redundancy scheme, or predecessor scheme.

(iii) Any long service scheme established pursuant to legislation of any State or Territory for the benefit of persons in construction and related industries.

(iv) Any other scheme the benefits to which the member of the Divisional Branch is entitled pursuant to his/her contract of employment, or any legislation, or any award or certified agreement to which the union is a party.

(ii) APPRENTICES, IMPROVERS, TRAINEES AND LABOUR MARKET PROGRAMME WORKERS

(a) An apprentice (indentured or trainee), improver, trainee or other labour market programme worker may be admitted to this section. That person shall, on the completion of their apprenticeship or where they cease to be an improver, trainee or labour market programme worker, be transferred to the General Section and be subject to the provisions of the General Section membership.

(b) A person engaged in a pre-apprenticeship course at a technical college shall on application be admitted to the apprentices section without being required to pay any contributions (subject to payment of an enrolment fee to be determined by the Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time).

(c) The same provisions relating to the admission of members to the General Section shall apply to applicants to the Apprentices, Improvers, Trainees and Labour Market Programme Workers section.

(iii) Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch

(a) The record of members of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch shall classify each member into one or other of the following classifications:-

(i) carpenter;
(ii) labourer;
(iii) stonemason;
(iv) tilelayer;
(v) painter;
(vi) signwriter;
(vii) bricklayer
(viii) solid plasterer
(ix) roof-tiler
(x) fibrous plasterer/fibrous plaster industry worker

(xii) rigger/dogman
(xiii) plant and machine operations
(xiv) boiler attendant/engine driver
(xv) production worker (metal)
(xvi) concrete pump operations
(xvii) forklift/hoist operations
(xviii) driller
(xix) other

which shall be known as the member's designated classification.

(b) A person applying for membership shall on the membership application form, state which one of the classifications set out in paragraph (a) the applicant for membership considers to be his or her appropriate classification.

(c) In dealing with applications for membership the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee shall determine each new member's designated classification.

(d) The Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee may at any time change a member's designated classification provided that the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee shall not change a member's designated classification unless -

(i) the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee has received from the member a request in writing for a change to the member's designated classification setting out the reasons for the request; or

(ii) the member has been given a reasonable opportunity by the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee to state in writing the reasons why he or she should retain his or her designated classification or have a different designated classification.

As soon as practicable after the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee changes a member's designated classification in accordance with this paragraph the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee shall cause the member to be notified in writing and alter the record of members of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch accordingly.

(e) The Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee shall determine the designated classification of an applicant for membership in accordance with paragraph (d) or a change to an existing member's designated classification in accordance with paragraph (e) by reference to:-

(i) the trade or other qualifications held by the applicant for membership or existing member;

(ii) the award classification of the applicant for membership or existing member, or his or her last award classification; and

(iii) the work performed by the applicant for membership or existing member, or the last work performed by him or her.

(f) Where the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee considers that it does not have sufficient information available to determine the designated classification of an applicant for membership or to change an existing member's designated classification it shall request that the member provide such further information as the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee considers appropriate.

(g) The designated classification of each member determined in accordance with this sub-rule:

(i) shall be solely for the purpose of determining the eligibility of each member to nominate for election to any office within the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch where election to such office is dependent upon the member falling into one or other of the classifications set out in paragraph (a) hereof;

(ii) shall be conclusive; and

(iii) shall bind the Divisional Branch Returning Officer.

(h) For the purposes of determining length of membership of the Divisional Branch in rule 38(a) herein, previous financial membership of the VSBTU (PIWD) shall, where such member has obtained a clearance from the VSBTU in accordance with rule 9 of the National Rules of the CFMEU, count as financial membership of the Victorian Building Unions Divisional Branch.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(iv) Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch (Northern Territory Members)

The provisions of these rules relating to membership and applications for membership of the Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch shall apply with equal force and effect to persons residing and/or employed in the Northern Territory.

(v) Victorian FEDFA Divisional Branch

A period of prior membership of the former FEDFA Division Victorian Divisional Branch shall count as a period of membership of the Construction and General Division Victorian FEDFA Divisional Branch, for all purposes including the operation of divisional rule 38(a)(vii).

31 – ENTRANCE FEE

All applicants to the General Section shall pay an entrance fee that shall be any sum as the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee may decide.

All applicants to the Apprentice and Improvers' Section shall be admitted without the payment of an entrance fee.

The Divisional Branch Management Committee of each Divisional Branch shall determine such other circumstances, if any, in which an applicant shall be exempt from the requirement to pay an entrance fee.

32 – CONTRIBUTIONS

(a) A statement setting out all contributions, levies and fines due shall be forwarded to every member half-yearly not later than March 1, and September 1, of each year.

Such notice shall be deemed to have been received by the member unless the member personally advises the Divisional Branch Secretary by registered letter on or before the 1st day of April or the 1st day of October, as the case may be, in the current year that the member has not received such statement.

In no case shall the failure of the member to receive a notice entitle the member to be considered financial other than provided for in this Rule.

(b) Subject to the provisions of sub-clause (c) to (h) of this Rule, contributions shall be due and payable in advance as from the 1st day in April and the 1st day in October respectively in any year as follows:

GENERAL SECTION: Divisional Branch membership contributions shall be no less than 1% of the Building and Construction General On-Site Award 2010 (or any other award replacing that award) base rate for a carpenter multiplied by 26 unless decided otherwise by the Divisional Executive on application by the Divisional Branch concerned.

The Divisional Branch Management Committee shall calculate the amount of Union contributions based on the abovementioned formula.

The Divisional Branch contributions so fixed shall be applied from the following half year period commencing 1st October and 1st April respectively.

APPRENTICES, IMPROVERS, TRAINEES AND LABOUR MARKET PROGRAMME WORKERS: Divisional Branch contributions for apprentices shall be determined by the Divisional Branch Council concerned.

The apprentice shall be charged half yearly dues at the rate applying at the commencement of that financial half year, except in respect of the financial half year during which the apprentice becomes a tradesperson.

An improver, trainee or labour market programme worker shall be charged half yearly dues at a rate that is less than the general section and is determined from time to time by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

Arrangements for Deduction Schemes

(c) Subject to sub-rule (cA), notwithstanding anything elsewhere in the rules the union may make arrangements with an employer (including any Government Department) or any Bank, Building Society, Credit Union or other financial institution for the regular deduction, on the authority of a member, of amounts whether by way of contributions (rounded up, if necessary, to a multiple of five cents), levies or any other monies which may be payable by a member to the union pursuant to the Rules, from the wages or monies payable to the member or from any account maintained by the member as the case may be,

and then so long as an authority by the member for the deduction of contributions and other financial dues which is acceptable to the Divisional Branch remains in force, the member shall be deemed financial, notwithstanding that the payments are not made in advance as required by this Rule provided that, the member was financial immediately prior to arranging such deduction.

Provided however that in the alternative, a member may authorise such additional deductions as will repay all outstanding contributions over time and also, from the point at which any outstanding contributions are met in full, ordinary regular deductions thereafter in which case such member shall be regarded as fully financial at the point at which all previously outstanding contributions are met and a current authority to deduct remains in force.

Further provided that in the case of new members such members may either pay all joining fees and membership contributions necessary to become a member and provide an authority to deduct such contributions from the commencement of the first dues period after the date of joining, in which case the member shall be deemed to be financial, or alternatively, authorise the regular deduction of all such fees and contributions as will result in a nil balance owing to the union at the end of such dues period in which case such member shall be entitled to all the benefits of membership other than the right to vote which right shall only be conferred after a continuous period of 26 weeks of contributions are paid under such authority.

(i) This rule applies to members attached to the QNTDB and the SA Divisional Branch and applies notwithstanding the provisions of sub-rule (c).

(ii) Notwithstanding anything elsewhere in the rules, a member of the QNTDB or the SA Divisional Branch who:

(a) has paid the entrance fee;

(b) commenced on, and makes payment in accordance with, a Scheme, and

(c) either:

(A) has made payment of all Membership Contributions immediately prior to commencing on a Scheme; or will be a financial member and will be entitled to all the benefits of membership including the right to vote.

(B) has authorised the deduction of an amount that will result in the payment of all Membership Contributions within six (6) months of commencing on a Scheme or with such longer period as the Divisional Branch Secretary permits,

(iii) A member making payment of their Membership Contributions in accordance with:

(a) a payroll deduction scheme will be unfinancial if in arrears for a period of three (3) months after the last payment under the payroll deduction scheme was received; or

(b) a direct debit scheme will be unfinancial if in arrears of two (2) Periodic Payments.

(iv) For the purposes of this rule:

(a) 'Direct Debit Scheme' means a scheme where a member provides written authority for contributions payable to the QNTDB or the SA Divisional Branch to be deducted, on such regular basis as the respective Divisional Branch Secretary agrees, from the member's financial institution, similar debit account or credit card;

(b) 'Membership Contribution' means entrance fees, subscriptions and levies in accordance with these Divisional Rules;

(c) 'Payroll Deduction Scheme' means a scheme where a member provides written authority to their employer for contributions payable to the QNTDB or the SA Divisional Branch to be deducted, on such regular basis as the respective Divisional Branch Secretary agrees, from the member's salary;

(d) 'Periodic Payment' means a payment required to be made by a member of the QNTDB or the SA Divisional Branch at the frequency authorised in their written authority; and

(e) 'Scheme' means a Payroll Deduction Scheme or a Direct Debit Scheme.

Levies

(d) All levies required to be paid by members in accordance with these rules shall be paid in terms decided by Divisional Branch Council or the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

Fines

(e) Any fines required to be paid by a member in accordance with these rules shall be paid in terms decided by Divisional Branch Council of the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(f) All moneys paid by a member shall be credited in the following order:

1. In payment of any levies due; and

2. In payment of any fines due, and

3. In payment of any contributions due

Unfinancial Member

(g) Subject to Sub-rule (cA) and (i) herein, any member who has failed to pay all contributions, levies and fines imposed in accordance with the rules of the union shall be deemed to be unfinancial and shall not be eligible to receive any benefits, participate in any vote, nominate for official positions, propose or second any new applicant member for admission, or exercise any authority or any rights of membership as provided for in these rules.

From the date of payment of all such arrears or any cancellation, credit or waiver in accordance with these Rules, a member shall be deemed to be financial.

Credit to New Members

(h) Applicants joining the Divisional Branch during the currency of any half year shall be credited in the next half year for such period as has elapsed before they joined. Such credit shall be calculated on a monthly basis.

Cancellation/Waiver of Contributions etc

(i) Notwithstanding any other Rule to the contrary, a Divisional Branch Management Committee or such other official/s and/or employee/s within the Divisional Branch as the Divisional Branch Management Committee may authorise from time to time, may, in its discretion, cancel, waive, credit or otherwise diminish either in whole or in part, any contributions, fees, levies or other arrears, whether before or after the period to which the contribution, fee, levy or other arrear relates or before or after such contribution, fee, levy or other arrear falls due, or for or in relation to a period or amount arising before or after the certification of this sub-rule for such reason as the Divisional Branch Management Committee feels appropriate. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such grounds may include:

(a) absence from Australia;

(b) inability to carry on a member's vocation or calling through illness or injury;

(c) unemployment

(d) any other hardship whatsoever;

(e) periods on workers' compensations or because of any injury which, in the view of the Divisional Branch Management Committee ought properly have been compensable;

(f) The maximisation of participation of members in Union affairs and the maximisation of financial union membership

Provided however that any decision to cancel, waive, credit or otherwise diminish the contributions, fees, levies or other arrears of any member by any officer/s and/or employee/s authorised by the Divisional Branch Management Committee to do so, shall be presented to the Divisional Branch Management Committee for final ratification at the next meeting of that body or as soon as practicable thereafter.

Further provided that the Divisional Branch Management Committee may, in its discretion, either before or after the said cancellation, waiver, credit or diminution require from any such member such documentation or other evidence which shows, to the satisfaction of the said Divisional Branch Management Committee, the basis of such cancellation, waiver, diminution or credit.

For the purposes of this Rule and any other Rule of the Union, any period covered by or any amount deducted from any amounts owing or diluted by any cancellation, waiver, credit or diminution shall count for all purposes as if it were a payment of the fees and, in the case of an amount rendering the member otherwise financial shall count, if the period so covered is the only period of unfinanciality, for all purposes as continuous financial membership unless the member is, otherwise than for the cancellation, waiver, credit or diminution, unfinancial.

Provided however persons seeking to rely on the preceding paragraph to establish financial membership for the purpose of eligibility to nominate for office under Rule 38(a) herein, shall only be permitted to do so where the amount waived or sought to be waived on each occasion does not exceed one six-monthly period of membership contributions.

Continuous membership for the purpose of this Rule and wherever encountered in these Rules means membership without any break in the continuity of membership from the last date of acceptance into the Division.

Provided that for the purposes of this Rule continuous membership shall be and include unbroken membership with any Division, Union, Branch or District which amalgamated with the Union or preceded the formation of this Division.

33 – COPY OF RULES

All applicants shall be entitled to on admission receive free a copy of Rules of the Union applicable to such member upon request to the Divisional Branch Secretary.

34 – AGED, INFIRM, UNEMPLOYED OR UNFINANCIAL MEMBERS

(a) (i) A member with 10 years' continuous membership who is unable to follow their usual occupation, may on application to Divisional Branch Management Committee or other authorised Committee be granted retired membership at the discretion of the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

On payment of the amount of $2.00 per year or such other higher amount as a Divisional Branch may determine, retired members shall be treated as fully financial and entitled to all the benefits of membership including the right to vote.

Persons who have previously been granted retired membership or honorary life membership shall, if they have paid an amount of $2.00 per year or more since the granting of such membership, be and be treated as retired members in accordance with this sub-rule and fully financial in the union.

In the event that a retired member has paid more than the minimum amount the difference shall be credited to the members account.

(ii) A member, with a total of 40 years' membership in their former Union and this Union, providing that such member joined this Union within three months of arrival in Australia or came on transfer from another Union may apply for life membership.

Such members shall be treated as fully financial and entitled to all the benefits of membership including the right to vote, without the requirement of paying any dues. Persons who have already applied for and been granted life membership shall be treated as coming within this sub-rule.

(iii) In the case of the New South Wales Divisional Branch, Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch and the ACT Divisional Branch the forty (40) years mentioned in sub-rule (ii) shall be read as thirty (30) years.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

35 – FUNDS OF THE DIVISIONAL BRANCH

(a) All moneys subscribed shall be held for the administration of the Divisional Branch in accordance with Rules and banked by its officers in such bank or banks as the Divisional Branch Council shall decide.

(b) All expenditure from the funds shall be in accordance with the Rules of the Divisional Branch and no expenditure shall be permitted for any other purpose.

(c) APPLICATION OF FUNDS - The funds of the Divisional Branch shall be used only for the carrying out of the objects of the Union and in necessary expenses of management.

(d) INVESTMENT OF FUNDS - The surplus funds or other property of the Divisional Branch shall be invested from time to time in such manner as may be authorised by law and as may be determined by the Divisional Branch Council.

(e) All expenditure for ordinary purposes, i.e., incurred in directly furthering the objects and for expenses of management, may be disbursed by direction of the Divisional Branch Management Committee and any other expenditure by direction of the Divisional Branch Council.

(f) From the contributions of the members there may be established funds to be known as the Benefit Fund and Contingent Fund, which are to be used exclusively for the purpose set out in the rule covering these funds and not used for any other purpose.

(g) The Divisional Branch Secretary may be authorised by the Divisional Branch Committee to incur any expenditure on behalf of the Branch Division provided that the Divisional Branch Management Committee may withdraw such authorisation at any time or for any period it sees fit.
All expenditure incurred by this authorisation shall be placed before the Divisional Branch Management Committee for consideration and ratification.

(h) BENEFIT FUND - The credit balance of a Fund shall be maintained at a level determined by the Divisional Branch Council and shall be reimbursed from the General Fund quarterly.

(j) CONTINGENT FUND - The credit balance of a Fund shall be maintained at a level determined by the Divisional Branch Council and shall be reimbursed from the General Fund quarterly.

(k) Notwithstanding sub-rules (e) and (g) hereof, in the NSW Divisional Branch all expenditure for ordinary purposes, i.e. incurred in directly furthering the objects of the union and for expenses of management of the Divisional Branch may be disbursed by decision of the Divisional Branch Secretary or the Divisional Branch President and such other official of the Divisional Branch as the Divisional Branch Management Committee may from time to time authorise. Provided however that all expenditure so incurred shall be placed before the Divisional Branch Management Committee for consideration and ratification, and further provided that the Divisional Branch Management Committee may withdraw such authorisation at any time or for any period it sees fit. Expenditure for other purposes authorised by the rules may be disbursed by decision of the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

36 – AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS

(a) The accounts of the Divisional Branch shall be audited yearly by an approved auditor appointed by the Divisional Branch Council who shall produce and certify a financial statement and report setting out the financial position of the Divisional Branch every financial year to and including the last day of December of each financial year. Such auditor shall also produce and certify a yearly balance sheet. Provided however that the financial year for the Divisional Branches shall, on and from 1 April 2017, and for each year thereafter, commence on and from 1 April each year and end on 31 March of each following year.

The auditor shall have full and complete access to the books and documents of the Branch.

(b) Copies of the financial statement and balance sheet shall be forwarded to all district secretaries for the information of and inspection by financial members.

Upon receipt by the Divisional Branch Secretary of a petition, signed by not less than 5% of the members of the Divisional Branch, requesting that a general meeting of members of the Divisional Branch be called for the purpose of considering the auditor's report, the general purpose financial report and the operating report of the Divisional Branch, the Divisional Branch Secretary shall convene such meeting as soon as is practicable.

37 – OFFICERS

(i) In NSW the officers of the Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President, Divisional Branch Secretary, two Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, and Divisional Branch Management Committee members, together with such Organisers as may be deemed necessary and as the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time determine.

(ii) Without affecting the term of office of persons holding office as Divisional Branch Officers in the QNTDB and the QBLDB immediately prior to the date of certification of this sub-rule, in the QNTDB the officers of the Divisional Branch shall, on and from 3 January 2014 and as a result of the merger of the QNTDB and the QBLDB, consist of the Divisional Branch President, two (2) Divisional Branch Senior Vice-Presidents (which positions shall be honorary), two (2) Divisional Branch Vice-Presidents (which positions shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Secretary, the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries (the total number of which shall be determined in accordance with Rule 40 of these Divisional rules) which shall include a Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary (Plasterers) and may include a Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary (Painters), and two Divisional Branch Executive Members.

(iii) In the Australian Capital Territory, the officers of the Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President (which position shall be honorary), two Divisional Branch Vice Presidents (which positions shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Secretary/Treasurer, the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary, Divisional Branch Organisers, Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference and members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(iv) Without affecting the term of office of persons holding office as Divisional Branch Officers immediately prior to the date of certification of this sub-rule, the officers of the Western Australia Divisional Branch shall, on and from 2 January, 2001, or the declaration of the election in 2000, whichever is the later, consist of the Divisional Branch President, the Divisional Branch Senior Vice President, the Divisional Branch Vice President, the Divisional Branch Secretary, two (2) Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, three (3) Divisional Branch Trustees, the Divisional Branch Treasurer and Divisional Branch Management Committee members, together with such number of Organisers as the Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time determines.

Provided however that on and from the date of certification of this amendment there shall be only one (1) Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary in the Western Australian Divisional Branch.

(v) (a) [Deleted]

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(b) On and from 2 January 2013 or the declaration of the election in 2012 whichever is the later, the officers of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch shall be the Divisional Branch President, a Divisional Branch Vice-President (which position shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Secretary, two (2) Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, a Divisional Branch Senior Vice-President (FEDFA), (which shall be a paid, full-time position), the members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee, the members of the Divisional Branch Sub-Branch Management Committee referred to in Rule 42B(ii) herein, Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference, and such number of Organisers as may be decided by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(vi) The officers of the South Australia Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President, (which position shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Vice President, (which position shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Secretary, two Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, the Divisional Branch Treasurer (which position shall be honorary), two (2) Divisional Branch Trustees, (which positions shall be honorary) and the members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

Provided however that on and from the date of certification of this amendment there shall be one only Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary in the South Australian Divisional Branch.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

37A – EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS

Industrial agreements affecting the employment of members of a single Divisional Branch, or persons within the geographic area and occupational categories within the State or Territory for which a single Divisional Branch is responsible, and any other instruments concerning the affairs of a single Divisional Branch, shall be executed by the Divisional Branch Secretary, or such other Divisional Branch Officer as authorised by the Divisional Branch Executive.

38 – DIVISIONAL BRANCH ELECTIONS

(a) (i) Any member of the Divisional Branch who:

(A) is a financial member of the relevant Divisional Branch as provided for in Rule 6, at the time nominations are called,

(B) has had continuous membership of the Divisional Branch during the period immediately preceding the calling of nominations for the length of time specified in the scale in sub-rule (a)(vi) herein for the relevant offices and has not been unfinancial at any time during that period (irrespective of whether any outstanding contributions are subsequently repaid to render the member financial); and

(C) was,

(i) for not less than 9 months during the period of twelve months immediately preceding the calling of nominations employed as an employee in a trade or calling or branch thereof in or in connection with which the union is registered in the geographic area applicable to the relevant Divisional Branch, or engaged as an officer (as defined by Rule 37 herein) in the relevant Division or Divisional Branch (or in any state registered counterpart organisation thereto) or as an employee thereof after having been elected or appointed thereto; or may nominate for such positions according to that scale.

(iA) In relation to the South Australian Divisional Branch only, subrules (a)(i)(B) and (C) and the scale in sub-rule (a)(vi) will not apply to the filling of any casual vacancy that exists at the time of this rule change, or to any casual vacancy that may arise prior to nominations being called for the Divisional Branch election to be held in 2024.

For the avoidance of doubt, a casual vacancy occurs in any office under these rules as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason, and will be filled in accordance with r38(cc).

(ii) Provided further that no member shall be entitled to nominate for more than one full-time office.

(iii) Where a member nominates for more than one full-time position the Returning Officer shall seek from the member an election as to which position the member wishes to contest.

(iv) Where no election is made by the member the Returning Officer shall treat as valid only the nomination for the more senior position.

Seniority shall be determined in the following order:-
Secretary, Assistant Secretary, President, Organiser.

(v) Except in the Divisional Branches in the Australian Capital Territory, Queensland, South Australia and Victoria, a member who nominates for Organiser shall not be entitled to nominate for Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(vi) No member shall nominate for both Trade Management Committee member in accordance with Rule 42 - Divisional Branch Management Committee, and Trade or Zone Councillor in accordance with Rule 40 - Supreme Governing Body.

Where a member nominates for both, the Returning Officer shall seek from the member an election as to which position the member wishes to contest.

Where no election is made by the member the Returning Officer shall treat as valid only the nomination for the Divisional Branch Council, being the supreme governing body of the Divisional Branch.

The scale of continuous financial membership of the Branch necessary for members to be qualified to nominate for the following positions, is as follows:

Divisional Branch Secretary Divisional Branch Secretary/Treasurer Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary Divisional Branch President Divisional Branch Senior Vice-President and Vice President Divisional Branch Delegate to Divisional Conference	) 3 years' continuous financial membership
Divisional Branch Management Committee Member District Secretary/Organiser Organiser Sub-Branch Secretary, President, Or Management Committee Member Divisional Branch Trustee (South Australia and Queensland Builders Labourers' Divisional Branches)	) 1 year's continuous financial membership
Divisional Branch Councillor, representatives	) financial membership

(b) The term of office for the above positions shall be four years and such term shall commence from the 2 January, following the election. In the event that a delay in the conduct of an election means that the results for an office are not declared until after 2 January, the successful candidate(s) shall take up office on the Monday immediately following the declaration of their election. In circumstances where the results for an office are declared after 2 January, the term of the candidate will be reduced by the length of the delay to ensure that there is no disruption to the next scheduled Divisional Branch election under these rules.

(b)(i) In the event that there is a delay of the kind described in rule 38(b), the incumbent will hold over office beyond 2 January and until their successor takes up office on the Monday immediately following the declaration of their election. Any action taken by the incumbent while holding over office shall not be invalidated merely because they have been held over in the position in accordance with these rules.

(c) Nominations for the above positions shall be called by the Returning Officer by notification in the union journal and the Divisional and relevant Divisional Branch website. Where a Divisional Branch printed journal is not scheduled for publication within two weeks of the opening of nominations then the website notification shall suffice. Alternatively, notice may be given to members by publication in one daily newspaper circulating in the Divisional Branch area on or before the last day of August in the year of the election.

Provided that such notifications shall clearly indicate that the Divisional Executive members, the full-time Divisional Officers, the National Conference delegates and the National Officers are elected by and from Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference and not otherwise.

(d) Nominations must be lodged with the Returning Officer before the close of nominations at the address and by the methods specified on the notice of election. Nomination forms shall be signed by the candidate and by at least ten (in the case of those offices in (a)(vi) above for which 3 years continuous financial membership is required) and five (in all other cases) financial members of the Divisional Branch.

(e) Nominations shall be closed at 4 pm on the second last Friday of September, 1996 and each four years thereafter following that date. Nominations must be received by the Returning Officer by that time on the date to be eligible.

A member having nominated for any office in accordance with this Rule may withdraw the nomination by notifying the Returning Officer in writing of an intention to do so at any time up to seven (7) days after the closing of nominations. The Returning Officer on receipt of a notification from a member wishing to withdraw a nomination shall immediately take the appropriate steps to withdraw the member's name from the ballot papers prior to their distribution.

(f) Candidates may include with their nomination form, a statement not exceeding 200 words and in respect of Divisional Branch Councillor 50 words, containing only the candidate's personal history and only the candidate's policy statement.

(g) The Returning Officer shall examine all nominations to ensure that they are in order and if any nominations are found to be defective, the Returning Officer, before rejecting the nominations, shall notify the person concerned of the defect and where practicable to do so give them the opportunity of remedying the defect within a period of not less than seven days after being so notified.

(h) If at the closing date for nominations only sufficient nominations have been received by the Returning Officer to fill any vacancy or vacancies the Returning Officer shall thereupon declare person or persons so nominating elected and supply forthwith a report of the declaration of the ballot to the Divisional Branch Management Committee and candidates by submitting a Returning Officers' report to the Divisional Branch Secretary.

(j) If all nominations are received and there are more nominations than there are vacancies the Returning Officer shall conduct a draw for positions on the ballot paper and shall notify candidates of the time and place of the draw in sufficient time for a candidate or his nominee to attend the draw; such attendance shall be at the candidate's own costs and expense.

(k) The Returning Officer shall forthwith have printed ballot papers in sufficient quantities to enable him to supply a ballot paper for each member eligible to vote in the election and secure a certificate from the printer as to the number printed.

(l) Such ballot papers shall have printed thereon only the title of the office to be filled, method of voting and the name of the candidates for such office and a space for the required vote to be registered, provided however that where more than one candidate is required to be elected the number to be elected shall, be printed on the ballot paper. The position of the names of each candidate on the ballot paper shall be in order of the draw of positions for that ballot.

(m) Where a ballot is required, the Divisional Branch Secretary shall provide, within one day of the closing of nominations, a certified list of financial members entitled to vote to the Returning Officer.

(n) The Returning Officer shall, on a date which will enable the ballot paper to be posted not later than fourteen clear days before the closing date of the ballot, send by registered post to each member eligible to vote in the election at their address appearing on the list of members eligible to vote supplied to the Returning Officer by the Divisional Branch Secretary the following documents/materials only: -

(i) a ballot paper initialled by the Returning Officer in respect of each office to be filled at the election for which the member is eligible to vote.

(ii) a declaration envelope in such form as is prescribed by Regulation 5 of the Workplace Relations (Registration and Accountability of Organisations) Regulations 2003.

(iii) a prepaid envelope in such form as is prescribed by Regulation 6 of the Workplace Relations (Registration and Accountability of Organisations) Regulations 2003.

(iv) such printed instructions necessary for the completion of each of the ballot papers enclosed and any other instructions that the Returning Officer may consider necessary.

(v) the candidates statement provided for in accordance with sub-rule (f) of this rule.

(vi) provided that the Returning Officer shall post to each member eligible to vote by pre-paid post all ballot papers. The ballot papers shall be posted to ensure eligible members receive them not less than 14 days before the closing of the ballot.

(o) All financial members as defined in this rule shall be entitled to vote for all positions. Provided that in respect of voting for councillors members shall only be entitled to vote to elect the Councillor or Councillors within their Trade District or if they are not a member of a trade district, for the councillors within the zone district that they are attached to.

The zone that a member is attached to for the purpose of this rule shall be the zone that the member resides in according to the Divisional Branch records which shall be based upon the last address supplied to the Divisional Branch by the member up to and including the last working day of September in the year of the election.

(p) For the purpose of the election, the books of the Divisional Branches shall be deemed to have closed eight (8) days before the date on which nominations open (the electoral roll closure date). Only members who are shown in the records at the office of the Divisional Branch as having paid all contributions, levies and fines as at the electoral roll closure date shall be entitled to vote.

(q) The opening date of the ballot shall be at the 12th day of November and the closing date shall be noon on the 26th day of November in each year in which the ballot is held. All ballot papers shall be returned to the Returning Officer, c/- the post office box named on the reply envelope. The post office box to which the ballot papers are returned shall be hired by the Returning Officer prior to the dispatch of the ballot papers or if a box has been previously used by the union, they shall cause the lock to be changed.

(r) The Returning Officer shall collect the returned ballot papers and keep them securely under their custody until the commencement of the count.

(s) The Returning Officer shall advise scrutineer/s of a secure space and location where the count shall occur. If the AEC is conducting the election, the counting of the ballot shall take place on AEC premises. If it is necessary to interrupt the count for any purpose the papers shall be sealed in the ballot box to which any seals may be fixed by a scrutineer.

(t) Any candidate at their own expense, may appoint a financial member of the union to act as their scrutineer by notification in writing to the Returning Officer. Any scrutineers so appointed may be present at any stage of the counting of the ballot provided that the Returning Officer is also present.

(u) (i) The Returning Officer shall proceed to count the ballot on the preferential system provided for in Rule 3, Definitions, and the candidate or candidates receiving the necessary votes shall be declared elected. The counting of the ballot shall be completed not later than the first day of December following the closing of the ballot.

(ii) In any election for trade and/or zone councillors of the Divisional Branch Council the method of counting shall be that the candidate receiving the highest number of votes amongst candidates from the same trade in respect to trade councillors and amongst candidates who are from the relevant classifications relating to the respective representatives of each zone in respect to zone councillors, shall be declared elected.

(iii) In any election for the Divisional Branch Council where there is no candidate to fill the trade position of Bridge & Wharf Carpenters or Tilelayers or Slater & Tilers, Plate, Sheet and Ornamental Glass Worker or Stonemason, Marble Mason, Terrazzo Workers or where there are insufficient candidates to fill all the positions in any zone, any such position shall be filled by an election held in accordance with the provision for casual vacancies contained in Rule 38 sub-rule (cc), of which election shall be held not earlier than 6 weeks and not later than 6 months following the declaration of the poll for the election of other Divisional Branch Councillors.

(iv) In any election for the Divisional Branch Management Committee where there is no candidate or insufficient candidates to fill the positions, any such position shall be filled by an election held in accordance with provisions for casual vacancies contained in Rule 38 sub-rule (cc), of which elections shall be held not earlier than 6 weeks and not later than 6 months following the declaration of the poll for the election of other Divisional Branch Management Committee Members.

(w) In the case of equality of votes for any 2 or more candidates the Returning Officer shall determine which of the candidates is elected by their casting vote by casting lots.

(y) The Returning Officer shall declare the successful candidates elected and notify the Divisional Branch Management Committee of the result of the ballot and the Divisional Branch Management Committee shall issue instructions for the publication of same in their minutes.

The officer shall also notify each successful candidate by post.

The Returning Officer's report to the Divisional Executive shall contain all relevant information including the number of ballot papers printed, the number posted, the number returned, the number unused, the number of votes received by each candidate, the names of those nominated for each office and their proposers.

(z) The successful candidates shall take up their respective duties not later than the 2nd day of January following the conclusion of the ballot, or otherwise in accordance with rule 38(b), and shall remain elected until their successors take up office.

(aa) Any accidental or unavoidable omission or error in the carrying out or observance of this rule shall not invalidate an election if such omission or error appears not to have affected the result of an election.

(bb) In any election the Returning Officer and any Scrutineer shall do all things necessary to preserve the secrecy of the ballot and shall conduct themselves in a sober, proper and impartial manner. Scrutineers shall, as far as practicable, be present at all stages of the ballot.

They shall obey any directions given to them by the Returning Officer. If any Scrutineers or Scrutineer are not present at any stage or stages of the ballot the Returning Officer may proceed nonetheless.

(cc) Where a casual vacancy occurs in any office under these rules as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason, such vacancy may be filled by appointment by the Divisional Branch Management Committee provided that the person so appointed shall hold office for as much of the unexpired part of the term of the office as does not exceed -

(1) 12 months or

(2) three quarters of the term of the office, whichever is the greater.

Where the unexpired part of the term of office exceeds that specified in these rules, the Returning Officer shall conduct an election in accordance with the rules, with any necessary modifications to fill the vacant position, the person elected shall hold office for the remaining term of office.

(dd) In the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch only, where a casual or extraordinary vacancy occurs in a Zone Delegate's position which has the effect of reducing the number of tradesperson or labourer delegates below the minimum number of tradesperson or labourer delegates for that zone, such vacancy shall be filled by a member with the same designated classification in accordance with sub-rule 30 (iii) as the Zone Delegate who previously held the position.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(e) When a motion shall have been duly proposed and seconded, the Divisional Branch President shall proceed at once to take the votes thereon unless some member rises to oppose or to propose an amendment, but no amendment shall be in order unless notice is given to move the same before the proposer of the resolution has replied.

(f) No more than two members shall speak in succession on one side, either for or against any question before the meeting, and if at the conclusion of the second speaker's remarks no member rises to speak on the other side, the motion or amendment shall be put at once to the meeting.

(g) It shall be competent at any time during a debate for a member to move, without discussion, "That the question be now put," which, on being duly seconded and carried, shall necessitate the submission of the motion at once to the meeting after the mover has replied.

(h) In the event of a number of amendments being proposed and discussed the Divisional Branch President shall put them to the vote in the following order: The first amendment shall be voted on, if carried it becomes the motion. If defeated, the original motion stands. The second amendment is then voted on, if carried it becomes the motion. If defeated, the motion stands, that is, the original motion or the first amendment, if carried.

All subsequent amendments shall be dealt with in this order. After the vote on each succeeding amendment has been taken, the surviving proposition shall be put to the vote as the motion, and if carried, becomes a resolution of the meeting.

(i) No member shall be allowed to speak more than once on the motion, except strictly in explanation, excepting the mover of the original motion, who shall have the right of reply. The mover of the motion shall be allowed 10 minutes to move the motion and 5 minutes to reply. No other speaker shall occupy a longer period than 5 minutes.

The meeting may, however, grant an extension of time to any speaker. No further discussion shall take place nor shall questions be allowed after the mover has replied.

(j) A resolution may, during the meeting at which it was passed be recommitted on the affirmative vote of two-thirds of those present at such meeting. A resolution may be rescinded by the giving of one month's notice and a majority vote being cast at the meeting subsequent to the expiry of the month's notice.

(k) On any member rising to a point of order during discussion, the speaker shall sit down and such member on rising shall state the point of order when the Divisional Branch President shall rule thereon. Such ruling shall be final, provided that it is not disagreed with by a majority of those present.

(l) Questions of order shall be decided by the Chairman, whose ruling shall be final, unless it is challenged by a formal motion for that purpose.

(m) The Divisional Branch President or Chairman for the time being may speak only on questions in which the interests of the office they represent are directly involved. In the event of the Divisional Branch President or Chairman desiring to speak on any question they shall vacate the chair.

(n) Should any question have occupied the attention of the meeting for thirty (30) minutes, the discussion on such question shall be deemed to have closed, and the Divisional Branch President shall forthwith call on the mover to reply, unless the meeting decides by resolution (carried by a majority of the members present) to continue the discussion of the matter in question.

(o) At any meeting of the Divisional Branch any member entitled to be present may give notice of motion for a future meeting by (1) reading such notice to the meeting, or (2) handing a copy thereof to the Divisional Branch President. Such notice of motion shall take precedence in the order in which it stands in the minutes book in relation to other similar notices, unless otherwise ordered, and shall lapse if the member, or some member on their behalf, be not present when the order of the day for such notice is read.

No motion for the adjournment of the meeting shall be received while there is business before the Divisional Branch President.

MOVING DISSENT FROM CHAIRPERSON'S RULING

(p) Any member dissatisfied with the ruling of the Chairperson may move a motion of dissent as follows: "That the Chairperson's ruling be dissented from."

The motion shall then be put to the meeting by the Vice-Chairperson, without discussion, in the following manner. The question is, "That the Chairperson's ruling be upheld." Those in favour of upholding the Chairperson's ruling, say "Aye." Those against the Chairperson's ruling being upheld, say "No."

The mover only shall speak to the motion, except the Chairperson, who may explain the reasons for the ruling given.

The Vice-Chairperson shall not give a ruling on the question involved in the Chairperson's ruling.

The Vice-Chairperson's ruling shall only be dissented from by a direct appeal to the meeting, the question being put by the Vice-Chairperson without discussion.

(q) This Rule shall apply only to general meetings of members of the Divisional Branch and shall not apply to Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Committee of Management.

65 – INSPECTION OF BOOKS

The books of the Divisional Branch shall be available for inspection at any reasonable time by any member having an interest in the funds of the Divisional Branch on application being made to the Divisional Branch Secretary

Schedule 1 – Temporary Amalgamation of Victoria-Tasmania and South Australia Divisional Branches (2025 – 2029)

Operation of Scheme

1. This Schedule provide for the amalgamation of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch and the South Australia Divisional Branch.

2. The rules in this Schedule operate on and from 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the divisional elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is later.

3. However, for the purpose of the Divisional Branch election scheduled for 2024, the offices to be elected are those prescribed by Rule 8 (Divisional Conference Delegates) and Rules 37, 38, 40, 42B and 42C (for officers of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch) as amended by this Schedule;

4. To avoid doubt, for the purpose of the Divisional Branch election scheduled for 2024, the persons holding office as at the date the rule changes are certified by the Fair Work Commission, including offices that are abolished as a result of these rule changes, will continue to hold those offices until 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the Divisional Branch elections in 2024, whichever is the later.

Amended Rules

5. In Rule 4, insert new sub-rule (viiA) as follows:

> (vii) Any person who, at the date this sub-rule takes effect, is a member of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch or the South Australia Branch shall be and become a member of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch and shall have the same financial membership status within that Divisional Branch as they did within their former Divisional Branch at the time of their transfer. Any outstanding membership contributions owing to the Victoria-Tasmania Branch or the South Australia Divisional Branch as at the date this rule takes effect, shall become an amount owing to the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australian Divisional Branch. The period of membership of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch is, for each person who becomes a member of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch under this subrule, the same as that held by such members within the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch of South Australia Divisional Branch, as the case may be.

6. In Rule 8(ii), in the fifth paragraph down, the words “The Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary of the South Australian Divisional Branch shall, by virtue of the holding of such office, be a member of the Divisional Conference.” are deleted and replaced as follows:

> On and from 25 January 2025, or the declaration of the Divisional Branch elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is the later, the South Australia Sub-Branch Secretary and the South Australia Sub-Branch President shall, by virtue of the holding of such office, be a member of the Divisional Conference.

7. In Rule 8(iii), the existing sub-rule is retained and the following new paragraph is added immediately after the existing words:

In the case of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Branch, the calculation will be performed separately for members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the South Australia Branch and members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the Victoria-Tasmania Branch. The number of delegates that the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Branch is entitled to elect will be the combined total of these calculations.

Only members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the South Australia Branch will be entitled to vote for any delegates to which the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Branch is entitled by reason of the calculation performed in respect of members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the South Australia Branch.

Only members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the Victoria-Tasmania Branch will be entitled to vote for any delegates to which the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Branch is entitled by reason of the calculation performed in respect of members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the Victoria-Tasmania Branch.

To avoid doubt, the entitlements under this sub-rule are in addition to any entitlement the South Australia Sub-Branch Secretary and/or South Australia Sub-Branch President may have to be a member of the Divisional Conference by operation of 8(ii) above.

8. In Rule 8(iv), the existing sub-rule is retained, and a new paragraph is added after the third paragraph\, so that the sub-rule reads:

(iv) For the purpose of this rule the formula which shall apply to determine the number of members of a Divisional Branch shall be to divide the amount of Divisional Branch income referred to in Rule 14 (i) received each of the three years prior to the elections by the amount of the annual contribution for that year. Those amounts to be totalled then divided by three to obtain the average number of members on which the Divisional Branch is entitled to elect delegates.

Provided that where the Divisional Branch has not existed for three (3) years the divisor shall be twice the number of half years up to a maximum of six (6) that the Divisional Branch has existed and the Divisional Branch income referred to shall be for the corresponding period.

Further provided that where a Divisional Branch has been the subject of changes in its structure or membership by virtue of a restructuring in whole or part, or an amalgamation, which restructuring or amalgamation has occurred less than three years prior to the elections referred to in the first paragraph of this sub-rule, the Divisional Branch shall be treated, for the purposes of this sub-rule, as if it came into existence on the last such change in structure or amalgamation, and the calculation shall be made in accordance with the immediately preceding proviso.

Notwithstanding anything else in this sub-rule, in the case of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, the calculation shall be performed in accordance with paragraph 1 of this rule, as though the South Australia Divisional Branch and the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch continued to exist as separate Divisional Branches.

The Divisional Secretary and the Divisional Assistant Secretary/s shall have the same voting and other rights as other delegates to the Conference.

The existing elected officers of the Divisional Executive shall remain in office until the election of their successors.

9. In Rule 8(vii), the words "Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch" are replaced with "Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch" wherever they appear so that the sub-rule reads as follows:

(vii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding sub-rules, in the case of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch the Divisional Branch Secretary and the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary (FEDFA) shall, by virtue of being elected or otherwise holding such offices, automatically be among the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference. These ex-officio positions shall occupy the first two of the allocated number of delegates for the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch calculated in accordance with sub-rule (iii) hereof.

10. In Rule 9.1A, the existing sub-rule is retained and the following words are added at the end of the first paragraph:

On and from 2 January 2025, or the declaration of the Divisional Branch elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is the later, the South Australia Sub-Branch Secretary shall, by virtue of the holding of such office, be a member of the Divisional Executive.

11. In Rule 9, sub-rule 15(l)(iii), the existing sub-rule is retained and a new section is added so that the rule as amended reads:

(iii) Where a card vote is requested in accordance with (ii) above, each member of the Divisional Executive shall be entitled to exercise one vote provided however that any Divisional Branch Secretary shall be entitled to exercise additional ordinary votes based on the principle of one additional ordinary vote for each 2000 members or part thereof over and above the first 2000 members of the Divisional Branch from which the Divisional Branch Secretary derives.

Provided that, in the case of Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, the calculation shall be performed separately for members of the Division who reside or are employed in in South Australia, and members of the Division who reside or are employed in Victoria and Tasmania and:

(A) any additional ordinary votes which the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Secretary is entitled to exercise by reason of the calculation performed in respect of members who reside or are employed in Victoria or Tasmania will be exercised by the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Secretary; and

(B) any additional ordinary votes which the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Secretary is entitled to exercise by reason of the calculation performed in respect of members who reside or are employed in South Australia will be exercised by the South Australia Sub-Branch Secretary who will not, for the purposes of this rule, be entitled to exercise the vote to which he would otherwise be entitled by operation of this rule.

12. In Rule 18, delete sub-rule (b) and replace as follows:

(i) Subject to rule (iii) below, from 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the divisional elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is later, in Victoria, Tasmania and South Australia, the Divisional branch shall be known as the Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

(ii) Further:

(A) In the State of Tasmania there shall be a sub-branch of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch which will be known as the Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, Tasmania Sub-Branch; and

(B) In the State of South Australia there shall be a sub-branch of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch which will be known as the Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, South Australia Sub-Branch.

(iii) From 2 January 2029 or the declaration of the divisional elections scheduled to be held in 2028, whichever is the later, the South Australia Divisional Branch shall be re-established as a separate Divisional branch unless the Divisional Executive determines otherwise.

(iv) The Construction and General Divisional Branch Secretary must do all things reasonably necessary to give effect to rule (iii) above including, if necessary, by doing all things reasonably necessary to amend these rules to give effect to the re-establishment of the South Australia Divisional Branch (unless the Divisional Executive has, pursuant to (iii) above, determined otherwise).

13. In Rule 28, sub-rule (b) is amended to delete the ", and", add the words "and South Australia" after the word "Victoria" and append "-South Australia" to the word "Tasmania", so that the sub-rule reads as follows:

(b) In Tasmania, Victoria and South Australia, "The Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch".

14. In Rule 29, insert a new third para as follows:

Further provided that notwithstanding the provisions of any other rule, all persons who are members of or apply for membership of the Division, who are residing or employed in Victoria, Tasmania or South Australia shall, on and from the date of certification of this rule, be and remain members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

15. In Rule 30(i)(b), add the following paragraph, after the first paragraph in sub-rule 30(b):

> From 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the divisional elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is later, the South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee may deal with membership applications for prospective members who reside or are employed in the State of South Australia on behalf of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

16. In Rule 30, sub-rule (iii) is amended to replace "Victoria-Tasmania" with "Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia" wherever it appears, including in the sub-heading. Sub-rule (iii)(a) is amended to add the words "who resides or works in either the State of Victoria or the State of Tasmania" after the words "each member". The amended sub-rule reads:

(iii) Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch

(a) The record of members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall classify each member who resides or works in either the State of Victoria or the State of Tasmania into one or other of the following classifications:-

(i) carpenter;
(ii) labourer;
(iii) stonemason;
(iv) tilelayer;
(v) painter;
(vi) signwriter;
(vii) bricklayer
(viii) solid plasterer
(ix) roof-tiler
(xx) fibrous plasterer/fibrous plaster industry worker
(xxi) crane operations
(xxii) rigger/dogman
(xxiii) plant and machine operations
(xxiv) boiler attendant/engine driver
(xxv) production worker (metal)
(xxvi) concrete pump operations
(xxvii) forklift/hoist operations
(xxviii) driller

which shall be known as the member's designated classification.

(b) A person applying for membership shall on the membership application form, state which one of the classifications set out in paragraph (a) the applicant for membership considers to be his or her appropriate classification.

(c) In dealing with applications for membership the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall determine each new member's designated classification.

(d) The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee may at any time change a member's designated classification provided that the Victoria-Tasmania-

South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall not change a member's designated classification unless -

(i) the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee has received from the member a request in writing for a change to the member's designated classification setting out the reasons for the request; or

(ii) the member has been given a reasonable opportunity by the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee to state in writing the reasons why he or she should retain his or her designated classification or have a different designated classification.

As soon as practicable after the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee changes a member's designated classification in accordance with this paragraph the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall cause the member to be notified in writing and alter the record of members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch accordingly.

(e) The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall determine the designated classification of an applicant for membership in accordance with paragraph (d) or a change to an existing member's designated classification in accordance with paragraph (e) by reference to:-

(i) the trade or other qualifications held by the applicant for membership or existing member;

(ii) the award classification of the applicant for membership or existing member, or his or her last award classification; and

(iii) the work performed by the applicant for membership or existing member, or the last work performed by him or her.

(f) Where the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee considers that it does not have sufficient information available to determine the designated classification of an applicant for membership or to change an existing member's designated classification it shall request that the member provide such further information as the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee considers appropriate.

(g) The designated classification of each member determined in accordance with this sub-rule:

(i) shall be solely for the purpose of determining the eligibility of each member to nominate for election to any office within the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch where election to such office is dependent upon the member falling into one or other of the classifications set out in paragraph (a) hereof;

(ii) shall be conclusive; and

(iii) shall bind the Divisional Branch Returning Officer.

(h) For the purposes of determining length of membership of the Divisional Branch in rule 38(a) herein, previous financial membership of the VSBTU (PIWD) shall, where such member has obtained a clearance from the VSBTU in accordance with rule 9 of the National Rules of the CFMEU, count as financial membership of the Victorian Building Unions Divisional Branch.

17. In Rule 34, sub-rule (a)(iii) is amended to delete ", Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch", and a new sub-rule (iv) is inserted, so that sub-rule a(iii) and new sub-rule (a)(iv) read as follows:

(iii) In the case of the New South Wales Divisional Branch and the ACT Divisional Branch the forty (40) years mentioned in sub-rule (ii) shall be read as thirty (30) years.

(iv) In the case of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, the forty (40) years mentioned in sub-rule (ii) shall be read as thirty (30) years for members residing or employed in Victoria and Tasmania (but not South Australia).

18. In Rule 37(v), sub-rule (b) is deleted and replaced with the following:

(b) On and from 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the divisional branch election in 2024, whichever is later, the officers of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall be the Divisional Branch President, a Divisional Branch Vice-President (which position shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Secretary, two (2) Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, a Divisional Branch Senior Vice-President (FEDFA) (which shall be a paid, full-time position), the members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee, the members of the Divisional Branch Tasmania Sub-Branch Management Committee referred to in Rule 42B herein the members of the Divisional Branch South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee referred to in Rule 42C herein, Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference, and such number of Organisers as may be decided by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

19. In Rule 37(vi), the sub-rule is deleted, and reads as follows:

(vi) Deleted.

20. In Rule 38, sub-rule (a)(v) is amended as follo:

(v) Except in the Divisional Branches in the Australian Capital Territory, Queensland, and Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia, a member who nominates for Organiser shall not be entitled to nominate for Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee.

21. In Rule 38(dd), the sub-rule is amended to append "-South Australia" to the word "Tasmania" so that the sub-rule reads:

(dd) In the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch only, where a casual or extraordinary vacancy occurs in a Zone Delegate's position which has the effect of reducing the number of tradesperson or labourer delegates below the minimum number of tradesperson or labourer delegates for that zone, such vacancy shall be filled by a member with the same designated classification in accordance with sub-rule 30 (iii) as the Zone Delegate who previously held the position.

22. In Rule 40(2)(v)(a), the sub-rule is amended so that it reads:

(v)(a) The members of the Divisional Branch Council of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall consist of the members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee, the members of the Tasmania Sub-Branch Management Committee referred to in Rule 42B and the members of the South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee referred to in Rule 42C and Zone Delegates elected in accordance with the following:

23. In Rule 40(2)(vi), the sub-rule is deleted, and reads as follows:

(vi) Deleted.

24. In Rule 42, sub-rule (a)(v) is amended append the words "-South Australia" to the word "Tasmania", so that the sub-rule reads:

(v) The members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President, Divisional Branch Secretary, two (2) Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, the Divisional Branch Senior Vice-President (FEDFA), the Divisional Branch Vice-President, the Sub-Branch Secretary and Sub-Branch President referred to in Rule 42B(b) herein and 23 others consisting of 6 carpenters, 6 builders labourers, 2 painters/signwriters, 1 fibrous plasterer/fibrous plaster industry member, 6 others elected from the classifications of crane operations, rigger/dogman, plant and machine operators, boiler attendant/engine driver, production worker (metal), concrete pump operations, forklift operations, hoist operations and drilling/piling, and 2 other members elected from bricklayers, roof-tilers, stone masons, wall and floor tilers and solid plasterers, provided that at least one of whom shall be a bricklayer.

25. In Rule 42(a)(vi), the sub-rule is deleted, and reads as follows:

(vi) Deleted.

26. In Rule 42A, the heading and sub-rule (i) are amended as follows:

42A – DIVISIONAL BRANCH EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE (VICTORIA-TASMANIA-SOUTH AUSTRALIA)

(i) The Divisional Branch Executive Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President, the Divisional Branch Senior Vice-President, the Divisional Branch Vice-President, the Divisional Branch Secretary and the two Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries.

27. In Rule 42B, sub-rules (a), (b), (c) and (d) are amended so that "-South Australia" is appended to the word "Tasmania" in each place "Tasmania" appears; so that the sub-rules reads:

42B – TASMANIA SUB-BRANCH MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE (VICTORIA-TASMANIA-SOUTH AUSTRALIA DIVISIONAL BRANCH)

(a) There shall be a Tasmania Sub-Branch Management Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Sub-Branch.

(b) The Tasmania Sub-Branch Management Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall consist of the Sub-Branch Secretary, the Sub-Branch President and six (6) other persons all of whom shall be elected by and from members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch who are residing or employed in the State of Tasmania.

(c) The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Council and Divisional Branch Management Committee shall have the care, control superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business and funds and property of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

(d) Provided however that the Sub-Branch Management Committee shall have the power to make recommendations to the Divisional Branch Council and Divisional Branch Management Committee in respect of the administration, or matters affecting the interests of, the Divisional Branch in the State of Tasmania only.

27A. New Rule 42C is inserted as follows:

42C – SOUTH AUSTRALIA SUB-BRANCH MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

(a) On and from 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the divisional branch elections scheduled for 2024, whichever is the later, there shall be a South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

(b) Members of the South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall consist of the Sub-Branch Secretary, the Sub-Branch President and six (6) other persons all of whom shall be elected by and from members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch who are residing or employed in the State of South Australia.

(c) The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Council and Divisional Branch Management Committee shall have the care, control superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business and funds and property of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

(d) The South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee shall have the power to make recommendations to the Divisional Branch Council and Divisional Branch Management Committee in respect of the administration, or matters affecting the interests of, the Divisional Branch in the State of Tasmania only.

(e) The Secretary of the South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee shall have such duties and powers as are determined by the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time, along with any duties delegated under Rule 46(l).

28. In rule 43(b), sub-rule (ii) is amended to append "-South Australia" to the word "Tasmania" so that the sub-rule reads:

(ii) In the New South Wales Divisional Branch and the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, the Divisional Branch President shall be employed in a full-time capacity.

29. In rule 44, sub-rule (i) is deleted, so that the sub-rule reads:

(i) [Deleted].

30. In rule 44, sub-rule (ii) is deleted, so that the sub-rule reads:

(ii) [Deleted].

31. In rule 44, sub-rule (iii) and (iv) are amended to append "-South Australia" to the word "Tasmania" in each place in which it appears so that the rules read:

(iii) In Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia the Divisional Branch Vice-Presidents shall have such duties and responsibilities as may be determined from time to time by the Divisional Branch Council or the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(iv) In Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia the Divisional Branch Vice-President (FEDFA) shall, in addition to any other duties and responsibilities as may be determined from time to time by Divisional Branch Council or the Divisional Branch Management Committee and which may be applicable to the Divisional Branch Vice-Presidents generally, carry out such other functions, and exercise such other powers, in relation to the FEDFA Section of the Branch (where the Divisional Branch Council has created any such Section), as may be determined by the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time.

32. In rule 45, sub-rule (a) is amended to delete the words "Except in the case of the South Australia Divisional Branch the" and insert in their place "The"; and sub-rule (b) is deleted, so that rule 45 reads:

(a) The Divisional Branch Management Committee shall elect from among themselves, three trustees. The election shall be conducted in accordance with Rule 42(q). Provided however that there shall be no trustees in the New South Wales Divisional Branch.

On a written authority signed by the Divisional Branch President and the Divisional Branch Secretary any two of the three Divisional Branch Trustees shall sign cheques for such sums as may be voted by the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee in accordance with these Rules. Such cheques to be counter signed by the designated Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary. The designated Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary will be determined by the State Management Committee or equivalent body.

In the New South Wales Divisional Branch either the Divisional Branch Secretary and the Divisional Branch President, or the Divisional Branch Secretary or the Divisional Branch President and such other person as is nominated by the Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time, shall sign cheques for such sums as may be authorised in accordance with these rules. Provided however that the nomination referred to herein may be on such terms as determined by the Divisional Branch Management Committee and may be revoked at any time. Further provided that all expenditure of the Divisional Branch shall be placed before the Divisional Branch Management Committee for consideration and ratification.

33. In rule 46, new sub-rule (l) is inserted as follows:

(l) The Divisional Branch Secretary of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall have the power to delegate to the Secretary of the South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee, some or all of the duties of the Divisional Branch Secretary in connection with, and only in connection with, members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch residing or working in South Australia. A delegation under this sub-rule may be revoked by the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch at any time.

34. In rule 48A, sub-rule (a) is deleted, so that the sub-rule reads:

(a) [Deleted].

35. In rule 48B, the heading is amended to append "-SOUTH AUSTRALIA" to the word "TASMANIA" and in sub-rule 1 "-South Australia" is appended to the word "Tasmania" so that the heading and sub-rule 1 read as follows:

48B – DUTIES OF DIVISIONAL BRANCH SENIOR VICE-PRESIDENT (FEDFA) (VICTORIA-TASMANIA-SOUTH AUSTRALIA)

(1) This rule applies only in relation to the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

36. In rule 48C, sub-rule (1) is amended to append "-South Australia" to the word "Tasmania" so that the sub-rule reads:

(1) This rule applies only in relation to the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

37. In rule 69, sub-rule (ii), "-South Australia" is appended to the word "Tasmania" in the sub-heading and in sub-rule (ii)(a), so that the heading and subrule (ii)(a) read:

(ii) Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia - Divisional Branch Meetings

(a) Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch meetings shall be held on the first Thursday in each month or as the Divisional Branch Management Committee may from time to time determine. Meeting shall be held at 540 Elizabeth Street, Melbourne, or at such places as may be decided from time to time by the Divisional Branch Meeting or the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

38. In rule 69 sub-rule (iii), the sub-heading is amended so that "Divisional Branch" is deleted and replaced with "Sub-Branch". Sub-rules (iii)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) are amended so that "Divisional Branch" is replaced with "Sub-Branch" in each place in which it appears. Sub-rule (g) is deleted and replaced with "The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall have regard to decisions of the Sub-Branch meetings of members".

(iii) South Australia - Sub-Branch Meetings

(a) Sub-Branch meetings shall be held on the last Wednesday of each month or as the Sub-Branch Management Committee may from time to time determine. Meetings shall be held at 1/32 South Terrace, Adelaide, SA or at such places as may be decided by the Sub-Branch Management Committee.

(b) The Sub-Branch Management Committee shall, when deemed necessary, have power to call a special meeting, for any time at any place. The Sub-Branch President and Sub-Branch Secretary shall convene a special general meeting of the Sub-Branch members at the written request of 25 financial members.

(c) Not less than ten financial members of the Sub-Branch, not including members of the Sub-Branch Management Committee, shall constitute a quorum for any meeting of the Sub-Branch, otherwise the meeting shall lapse.

(d) Notice of any variations to the usual time or venue of Sub-Branch meetings or of any special meeting of the Sub-Branch shall be given in the Sub-Branch journal and/or local newspaper at least two (2) days prior to the time of the meetings.

(e) Sub-Branch meetings shall not commence earlier than 5.00pm nor continue later than 7.00 pm unless a motion to extend the time be agreed to by a majority of members present.

(f) The Sub-Branch meetings shall be conducted in accordance with the standing orders and rules of debate prescribed in these rules.

(g) The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall have regard to decisions of the Sub-Branch meetings of members.

CONSTRUCTION AND GENERAL DIVISION RULES

1 – NAME

The name of the Division shall be "the Construction and General Division".

2 – ELIGIBILITY FOR DIVISION

Every member who is a member of the union by virtue of Rule 2 Sub-rules (A), (B), (D), (DA) and (N) of the National Rules shall belong to this Division.

Further, every member who is a member of the Union by virtue of Rule 2 sub-rule (E) of the National Rules, shall also be eligible for membership of this Division.

3 – DEFINITIONS

Unless the context otherwise indicates, in these Rules:

"BRANCH" shall mean a Branch of the Union set up in accordance with the rules of the Union.

“commencement day” means the date provided by rule 69(iB)(c)

"CONSTRUCTION AND GENERAL DIVISIONAL BRANCH" or "DIVISIONAL BRANCH" shall mean a branch of this division established in accordance with these rules.

"FINANCIAL MEMBER" shall mean any member who has paid all subscriptions, fines, levies and dues in accordance with the rules of the Union and in relation to Construction and General Division is a member of this Division.

"MEMBER" shall mean a member of Construction and General Division and membership shall have a corresponding meaning.

"MEMBERSHIP YEAR" shall, for the purpose of Divisional Rule 19 herein, mean the period encompassing the two consecutive six month periods to which membership contributions are ordinarily attributable (i.e. 1 April to 30 September and 1 October to 31 March).

"C.O.M." (Committee of Management) or "Executive" shall be synonymous and shall mean in relation to a divisional branch the controlling and administrative body of such Divisional Branch.

"PREFERENTIAL VOTING" shall mean a system of voting in which the voter shall place the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom the member votes as first preference and shall place the number 2, 3, 4 (and so on, as the case requires) in the squares opposite the names of all the remaining candidates so as to indicate the order of the members preference for them.

In a ballot by the preferential system the valid ballot papers shall be separated into separate parcels, each such parcel containing all those papers on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate.

If on the first count a candidate receives an absolute majority of first preference votes of total valid votes cast the candidate shall be declared elected.

If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the candidate with the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded and the ballot papers on which a first preference is indicated for such candidate shall be counted to the remaining candidates next in the voters' order of preference.

If a candidate has then an absolute majority of votes he shall be elected, but if no candidate then has a majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and the distribution of the voters' preferences shall continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.

In cases where more than one position is to be filled the numbers placed opposite the candidates' names up to the number of positions to be filled shall be first preference votes and the procedure in respect to the distribution of preferences shall be the same as is above prescribed where a ballot is for a single position.

The candidate or candidates as the case may be, who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

"QBLDB" means the Queensland Builders Labourers Divisional Branch.

"QNTDB" means the Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch.

"UNFINANCIAL DIVISIONAL BRANCH" shall mean a Branch of the Division that has more than two of the monthly capitation payments or part thereof outstanding to the Divisional Office as at the relevant date applicable in the rule where that expression is used in these Rules.

4 – MEMBERSHIP

(i) A candidate for membership of the Division may make application to the Divisional Branch covering the area in which he or she resides or is employed, and such application shall be made and dealt with in the manner and subject to the conditions including conditions as to any probationary period required by the rules of the Divisional Branch to which it is made. Notwithstanding anything herein prescribed Divisional Branch rules may provide other methods of applying for membership.

(ii) (a) Candidates shall supply such information as to their identity and occupation, and such other particulars as to their eligibility for membership and the benefits of membership as the Divisional Branch may require, and shall, when requested, fill in and sign such application form as may be provided.

(b) The application form referred to above may be the form previously used by any union which has amalgamated to form this Union.

(iii) The Divisional Branch Secretary or other officer authorised under these or any other rules may refer any application for membership to the Divisional Executive for consideration or decision. Where in any case the admission to membership of any person applying is rejected such person shall have the right to appeal to the Divisional Executive the decision of which shall be final.

(iv) A member shall be deemed to be attached to the Divisional Branch covering the locality in which he resides, or, in the case of members employed in an industry for which a Divisional Branch has been established, then to such Divisional Branch. Where there is not a Divisional Branch covering the locality in which a member resides or the industry in which the member is employed, the member shall be attached to such Divisional Branch in either this Division or any other Division as the Divisional Executive of this Division may direct.

(v) [Deleted]

(vi) [Deleted]

(vii) [Deleted]

Note: On and from 25 January 2025, or the declaration of the Divisional Branch elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is the later, this rule is affected by operation of Schedule 1.

(viii) [Deleted]

5 – ENTRANCE FEES

Applicants for membership of Construction and General Division shall pay on application an entrance fee in accordance with Divisional Branch rules.

6 – CONTRIBUTIONS

1. The annual contribution payable by each member shall be fixed by the Divisional Executive on the basis that such contribution shall be no less than 1% of the carpenter base rate in the Building and Construction General On-Site Award 2020 or any award of the Fair Work Commission or any successor Commonwealth Tribunal replacing same, multiplied by 52, provided that the Divisional Executive may fix some other rate.

   For the purposes of the immediately preceding sentence and Rule 32(b) herein, base rate shall mean the sum of the award base rate, supplementary payment and arbitrated safety net adjustments as determined by the relevant industrial body or tribunal.

2. Any member who has failed to pay the entrance fee, all contributions, levies and fines imposed in accordance with these or the Divisional Branch rules on or before the date specified in the Divisional Branch rules, shall, subject to any deferral under Rule 32(j) herein, be deemed to be unfinancial, and shall not be eligible, provided that Divisional Branch rules may provide that such members or some class or classes of such members may vote in a ballot, to receive any benefits, participate in any deliberations, propose or second any new applicant member for admission, or exercise any authority or any membership rights.

   A member shall be deemed to be financial immediately upon payment of all arrears outstanding. Divisional Branch rules may provide that unfinancial members shall not be entitled to funeral, accident or any other benefits or to exercise any of the rights of members under Divisional Branch rules.

7 – SPECIAL MEMBERS

1. The Divisional Executive or the Divisional Branch Executive may fix a special or different rate of contribution and/or entrance fee for any class of members and any member within that class shall, on compliance with those conditions and subject to any rule, other than rules 5, 6 and/or 32(b), be entitled to all the benefits of membership.

8 – SUPREME GOVERNING BODY IN DIVISION

(i) The supreme governing body of the Division shall be the Divisional Conference.

(ii) The Divisional Conference shall consist of delegates including full time Divisional Officers elected as delegates. Provided that Divisional Branch Secretaries by virtue of being elected as such shall automatically be the Divisional Branch delegate or one of the Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference.

Provided further that existing elected officers of the Divisional Executive who are retiring from office and who have not been re-elected as delegates to Divisional Conference shall be entitled to attend the Divisional Conference which elects their successors and shall be entitled to all rights of a Conference delegate other than nominating and voting on any matter. Further provided that, if not otherwise a delegate to Divisional Conference by virtue of this sub-clause, members of the Divisional Executive shall, ipso facto, be delegates to the Divisional Conference and treated, in all respects, as delegates in the same way as any other member of the Divisional Executive.

Provided that any Delegate to the Divisional Conference from a Divisional Branch that has more than two of the monthly capitation payments or part thereof and/or interest thereon for which the Divisional Branch is liable under sub-rule 14(i) outstanding to the Divisional Office as at the date of any meeting of the Divisional Conference, shall not be entitled to attend any Divisional Conference (unless at the express invitation of one of the Divisional Officers), and in any event, shall not be entitled to move, amend or vote at any such meeting.

Any Assistant Divisional Branch Secretary designated for Painters shall be delegates to the Divisional Conference.

The Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary of the South Australian Divisional Branch shall, by virtue of the holding of such office, be a member of the Divisional Conference.

After 2 January 1997 the Assistant Secretary (Plasterers) of each Divisional Branch which has such a position shall by virtue of that office be a delegate to Divisional Conference.

Provided that if at any time there is no longer an office of Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary (Plasterer) in the Australian Capital Territory Divisional Branch, either of the following as determined by the ACT Branch Committee of Management at least three (3) months prior to the opening of nominations as prescribed by r.38 of these Rules, shall be a delegate to Divisional Conference:

- the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary; or
- a delegate to be elected at the divisional branch elections as prescribed by r.38 of these rules.

For the avoidance of doubt, on and from the date of certification of this sub-rule, any casual vacancy occurring in the relevant National Conference Delegate position as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason shall be filled either ex officio or via an election under Divisional Rule 38(cc) at the discretion of the ACT Branch Committee of Management.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(iii) Except as provided for in sub-clause (vi) and in sub-rule (viA), for the Divisional Branch elections scheduled for 2024 and onwards, Divisional Branches shall be entitled to elect, including the Divisional Branch Secretary, one delegate for the first one (1) thousand members or part thereof and one delegate for each succeeding one (1) thousand members or part thereof.

In addition, each Divisional Branch shall be entitled to elect one (1) additional delegate who must be a woman.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(iv) For the purpose of this Rule the formula which shall apply to determine the number of members of a Divisional Branch shall be to divide the amount of Divisional Branch income referred to in Rule 14 (i) received each of the three years prior to the elections by the amount of the annual contribution for that year. Those amounts to be totalled then divided by three to obtain the average number of members on which the Divisional Branch is entitled to elect delegates.

Provided that where the Divisional Branch has not existed for three (3) years the divisor shall be twice the number of half years up to a maximum of six (6) that the Divisional Branch has existed and the Divisional Branch income referred to shall be for the corresponding period.

Further provided that where a Divisional Branch has been the subject of changes in its structure or membership by virtue of a restructuring in whole or part, or an amalgamation, which restructuring or amalgamation has occurred less than three years prior to the elections referred to in the first paragraph of this sub-rule, the Divisional Branch shall be treated, for the purposes of this sub-rule, as if it came into existence on the last such change in structure or amalgamation, and the calculation shall be made in accordance with the immediately preceding proviso.

The Divisional Secretary and the Divisional Assistant Secretary/s shall have the same voting and other rights as other delegates to the Conference.

The existing elected officers of the Divisional Executive shall remain in office until the election of their successors.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(v) Should any delegate die or resign or otherwise cease to be a delegate, or for any other reason a Divisional Conference delegate's position is not filled, thus causing an extraordinary vacancy, the Divisional Branch Executive of the Divisional Branch of which the member is a delegate may forthwith cause an election for another member or where the unexpired part of the term of that vacant or unfilled office does not exceed three quarters of the term of office the Divisional Branch Executive may appoint another member to be the delegate of the Divisional Branch in place of the delegate who is deceased or has resigned or otherwise ceased to be a delegate or to fill the otherwise vacant position. Provided such delegate so elected shall hold office only for the residue of the term of the predecessor.

(vi) Divisional Branches, may where elected delegates to Divisional Conference agree, arrange multiple voting representation at a Divisional Conference by notifying the Divisional Secretary prior to the beginning of the Divisional Conference of the number of delegates to be credentialled and of the arrangements for proxy voting to be adopted by that/those delegate/s to Divisional Conference.

Where a delegate is unable to attend a meeting of the Divisional Conference or any part thereof that delegate may appoint another elected delegate to Divisional Conference from the same Divisional Branch as proxy to act in his stead. Where a delegate is the only representative of a Divisional Branch and is to be absent from Divisional Conference the delegate may appoint an elected delegate from another Divisional Branch of this Division, or any other Divisional Conference member as the delegate's proxy.

(viA) There shall be a Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch (Northern Territory) delegate to Divisional Conference.

(vii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding sub-rules, in the case of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch the Divisional Branch Secretary and the two Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries shall, by virtue of being elected or otherwise holding such offices, automatically be among the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference. These ex-officio positions shall occupy the first three of the allocated number of delegates for the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch calculated in accordance with sub-rule (iii) hereof.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(viii) The method of calling nominations and the election of Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall be under the provisions of Rule 17 of the National Rules.

Full time Divisional Officers, (Divisional Secretary, Divisional Assistant Secretaries) and Divisional President and full-time National Officers, may nominate in such elections, either in the Divisional Branch first elected from, or another Divisional Branch provided that each Divisional Officer shall notify his/her intentions in writing to the Divisional Branch Secretary concerned prior to the date of calling for nominations in such elections.

Provided further that the number of Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall, in relation to any Divisional Branch in which an officer or officers referred to in the immediately preceding subparagraph nominates, be increased by the number of such officers nominating in that Divisional Branch.

(x) Unless otherwise determined by the Divisional Executive, the Divisional Executive shall meet the cost of an economy plane fare for delegates and Divisional Officers attending Divisional Conference. All other expenses for delegates other than full time Divisional Officers shall be met by the Divisional Branches concerned.

(xi) The Divisional Conference shall have power:

(a) To take such steps, subject to the rules of the Union, as it shall think fit to carry out all or any of the objects of the Union as they relate to the Division and to raise or spend such funds as are necessary to carry out the objects.

(b) To decide the general policy of the Division and to take steps to enforce the carrying out of such policy.

(c) Subject to any other rule to impose penalties, (i.e. fines not exceeding the sum of twenty dollars, suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office), on officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates of the Division, for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules of the Union or decisions of the Divisional Conference, Divisional Executive or any Divisional Branch relevant to such person.

Provided that a copy of the rules, the decisions of Divisional Conference, Divisional Executive or relevant Divisional Branch are available to members at each Divisional Branch office.

No penalty shall be imposed unless -

(i) The officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting at least seven (7) days prior to the meeting;

(ii) Particulars are given in the summons of the offence alleged, including the time and place it is alleged the offence was committed;

(iii) He/she is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in their own defence, including an opportunity to cross-examine and to give and call evidence.

Period of suspension imposed under this rule shall not exceed six (6) months.

(d) To hear and decide any appeal from a Divisional Branch on an issue concerned solely with a matter affecting this Division, from a Divisional Branch or Sub-Branch or member. Any appeal from a member must be forwarded through the Divisional Branch Committee.

Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard. Provided that in the case of an appeal from a Branch of the Union, the Branch shall have the right to appeal any decision of the Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive to the National Executive.

(e) To settle disputes between Divisional Branches. Any Divisional Branch concerned shall be given reasonable notice of the meeting and an opportunity of being heard before any settlement is effected.

(f) To deal with and decide any matter submitted to it by any Divisional Branch of the Division.

(g) To confirm, over-rule or otherwise deal with decisions of the Divisional Executive or Divisional Branches of this Division.

(h) To establish Divisional Branches of the Division and subject to Rule 11 to close any Divisional Branch and deal with any Divisional Branch in a like manner as the Divisional Executive may.

(j) To hear and decide any appeal from the Divisional Executive. Reasonable notice of the time of the place of the hearing of such appeal shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard and/or placing submissions before the Divisional Conference.

(k) To make, alter and rescind rules of this Division or any Divisional Branch of this Division

(xii) A Divisional Conference shall be held biennially at such place and time as the Divisional Executive shall decide.

(xiii) The business to be dealt with by Divisional Conference shall be shown on the agenda paper, but matters may be added to the agenda paper if agreed to by the Divisional Conference in session. Any matter appearing on the agenda paper may be amended by Divisional Conference.

(xiv) Notice of every Divisional Conference, together with a copy of the agenda paper, shall be posted by the Divisional Secretary to each Divisional Branch Secretary at least one (1) week before the date of such meeting but failure to notify will not of itself vitiate a meeting. Notice shall also be posted to all delegates so as to give them at least the notice provided for herein.

(xv) A copy of the minutes containing all decisions and business of the Divisional Conference shall be forwarded to each Divisional Branch Secretary within one month of the conclusion of each Divisional Conference. Any member of the division may, upon request to the Divisional Branch Secretary, inspect a copy of the minutes of each Divisional Conference at the Divisional Branch Office during the ordinary hours in which the Divisional Branch Office is open.

(xvi) The Divisional Secretary on receipt of resolutions from a majority of Divisional Branches or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10 percent of the financial members of the Division calling for a Special Divisional Conference shall call such Divisional Conference within thirty (30) days. Members of Divisional Conference shall be given seven (7) days' notice if practicable.

Notice shall be given by telephone, letter, facsimile, email and/or any other form of communications.

The Divisional Secretary may at any time thought fit conduct a postal, telephonic, facsimile, electronic and/or any other form of vote of members of Divisional Conference to obtain a decision on any matter provided that any Delegate from a Divisional Branch that is an Unfinancial Divisional Branch as at the date of the vote or the date of conclusion of a vote, by the above manners of obtaining a decision shall not have his or her vote counted or shall not be able to vote, as the case may be.

(xvii) The Divisional Conference shall have and exercise all of the powers of the Divisional Executive and shall deal with any matter or matters referred to it by the Divisional Executive.

Where any matter or matters is/are referred to the Divisional Conference by the Divisional Executive in accordance with this sub-paragraph, the Divisional Secretary may call a Special Divisional

Conference in the same way as if he/she had received a resolution from a majority of Divisional Branches or a petition signed by not less than 10 per cent of the financial members of the Division calling for such Conference, in accordance with sub-paragraph xv) herein. In all other respects the provision of sub-paragraph xv) herein shall apply.

9 – DIVISIONAL EXECUTIVE

1.A For the purpose of the quadrennial Divisional elections to be held in 2013 and thereafter, the Divisional Executive shall be composed of one (1) Divisional President, one (1) Divisional Senior Vice President, one (1) Divisional Vice President, one (1) Divisional Secretary, two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries and such Divisional Branch Secretaries who are not elected to any of the aforementioned positions on the Divisional Executive.

Provided that where a Divisional Branch Secretary also holds the office of Divisional Secretary, the position he or she otherwise would have held on the Divisional Executive as Divisional Branch Secretary shall be held by a Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary from that Divisional Branch.

Further, provided that in addition to the Divisional Executive members referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph, there shall be an additional Divisional Executive member for any Divisional Branch with a financial membership exceeding 10,000 members, for each succeeding 10,000 financial members or part thereof within that Divisional Branch. For the purpose of this sub-rule the number of financial members shall be the number of such members as at 31 March in the year of the election. Such additional Divisional Executive members shall, notwithstanding sub-rule 2 herein, be nominated and elected by and from the Divisional Conference delegates from the relevant Divisional Branches to which those offices relate, such election to be conducted at the same time as the election of the Divisional Executive members referred to in the preceding paragraph.

Further provided that immediately following the declaration of the result of the election/ballot in accordance with sub-rules 7 or 11 herein, as the case may be, the Divisional Returning Officer shall call for nominations from the newly elected Divisional Executive members, other than the Divisional President, Divisional Senior Vice President, Divisional Secretary and Divisional Assistant Secretaries, for the office of Divisional Vice-President, and if necessary, conduct a ballot to determine that position.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

2. Except for the filling of extraordinary vacancies and the office of Divisional Vice-President, the Divisional Executive members and Divisional Officers shall be elected by and from the Divisional Conference held in 1993 and every subsequent four (4) years thereafter and shall hold office until the date referred to in sub-rule 9.13(a) hereof.

3. [Deleted]

4. Preceding such conferences the Divisional Executive shall appoint a person as Divisional Returning Officer, who shall not be the holder of any office in, and shall not be an employee of, the union or of any Branch, sub-Branch or section of the union. Such Divisional Returning Officer shall have the conduct of the election of the Divisional Executive members and Divisional Officers and three Divisional Trustees in accordance with these rules.

4A. In addition, the Divisional Returning Officer shall have the conduct of the election of two (2) members of the National Women's Committee in accordance with rule 13B of the National Rules of the Union and according to the process set out in sub-rules (5)-(12) below.

The two (2) National Women's Committee member positions must be held by women and shall be elected by and from the Divisional Conference held in 1993 and every subsequent four (4) years thereafter, and shall hold office until the date referred to in sub-rule 9.13(a) hereof.

To be clear, the two (2) National Women's Committee members are not members of the Divisional Executive.

5. Nominations shall be called for by the Returning Officer on a date fixed by the Returning Officer following the fixing by Divisional Executive pursuant to Divisional Rule 8 (xi) of a date and place for the holding of elections required under this rule and shall close fourteen days after nominations are called. Nominations shall be called by posting to each member of the Divisional Conference a notice of the opening of nominations. The Divisional Returning Officer shall call for nominations for all positions at the one time.

Nominations shall be made in writing by any member to Divisional Conference and submitted in accordance with these rules, by any delegate to Divisional Conference and such nominations must be agreed to by the candidate in writing.

The Divisional Returning Officer shall have the power in accordance with these rules to accept or reject such nominations, provided that if the Divisional Returning Officer rejects any nominations the following provisions shall have effect -

(a) The Divisional Returning Officer shall notify the person concerned of the defect in the nomination; and

(b) The Divisional Returning Officer shall, where it is practicable to do so, give the person concerned the opportunity if possible, of remedying the defect.

In any year in which an election under this rule is due the Divisional Executive, pursuant to its power under sub-rule 8 (xi) to fix the time and place for the holding of a Divisional Conference, shall fix the time and place for the Biennial Divisional Conference on any date in that year, provided that:

(i) any elections required in that year may be conducted at the Biennial Divisional Conference with the persons elected taking office on the date referred to in sub-rule 9.13(a) of these rules;

(ii) Divisional Executive may determine that the elections will be conducted at a Special Divisional Conference and may fix a time and place for the holding of a Special Divisional Conference for the purpose of conducting those elections with the persons elected taking office on the date referred to in sub-rule 9.13(a) of these rules; and

(iii) in the event that Divisional Executive determines to hold a Special Divisional Conference for the purpose of conducting elections under paragraph (ii) above, Divisional Executive shall also determine a date and place for the holding of Biennial Divisional Conference in that year.

(iv) Where the Biennial Divisional Conference or any Special Divisional Conference is to be held and/or fixed pursuant to this rule and the said Conference is to be conducted over more than one day, the Divisional Executive may fix the day of the Divisional Conference on which the election shall be held.

6. The ballot for Divisional Secretary shall be dealt with and completed. The ballot for the Divisional Assistant Secretaries shall be dealt with and completed. The ballot for the Divisional President shall be dealt with and completed. The ballot for the Divisional Senior Vice President shall be dealt with and completed. -The confirmation of election of such Divisional Branch Secretaries and Plasterers representatives who are not elected to any of the aforementioned positions on the Divisional Executive shall be dealt with and completed.

The ballot for the Additional Divisional Executive members as defined in sub-rule 1A hereof shall be dealt with and completed.

The ballot for the three (3) Divisional Trustees shall be dealt with and completed. Where a particular ballot is delayed subject to the operation of sub-clause (10) other ballots shall be proceeded with at Divisional Conference.

Following the election of three (3) trustees the Returning Officer shall call nominations to determine which of the two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries will be the designated Divisional Assistant Secretary and if necessary conduct a ballot to determine the election.

The ballot for the two (2) members of the National Women's Committee shall be dealt with and completed.

7. If the nominations are equal to the number of positions to be filled the Divisional Returning Officer shall forthwith declare to the Divisional Conference that such candidates are elected. An officer shall not hold more than one position on the Divisional Executive except the position of Trustee may be held by a member of the Divisional Executive other than a full-time Divisional Officer, and the Divisional Secretary may concurrently hold a full-time office in a Divisional Branch.

8. If there are more candidates than the number required for filling the office/s the Divisional Returning Officer shall prepare voting papers and conduct the ballot.

9. The election shall be by secret ballot and any candidate may appoint a Scrutineer by notification in writing to the Divisional Returning Officer prior to the commencement of the ballot whose duty it shall be to watch the interest of the candidate at all stages of the ballot. Such a scrutineer shall represent and may be present at any stage of the counting of the ballot provided that the Divisional Returning Officer is also present and shall do all things necessary to preserve the secrecy of the ballot and conduct themselves in a sober, proper and impartial manner and obey any directions given to them by the Divisional Returning Officer. If any scrutineer or scrutineers are not present at any stage or stages of the ballot the Divisional Branch Returning Officer may proceed nonetheless.

10. Any delegate to Divisional Conference who will not be present, either personally or by proxy, at the meeting at which an election is to be held, may lodge with the Divisional Returning Officer a request for an absentee vote together with an address where he can receive communications and, if any delegate has done so, the Divisional Returning Officer shall not declare the result of the ballot until he has given such delegates a reasonable opportunity to vote.

11. The Divisional Returning Officer shall declare to Divisional Conference the result of the ballot as soon as the count is completed. In the event of a tie, the Divisional Returning Officer shall determine the result by casting lots.

12. Except insofar as any Act from time to time provides otherwise, whenever any member has been declared elected to any office the member declared to be elected to such office, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity which may have occurred in or in connection with the calling for and dealing with nominations or the conduct of the ballot shall be recognised as validly entitled to hold such office on and from the date referred to in 13(a) of this rule.

13. (a) A Divisional Executive member shall hold office until 15 October in a year in which an election is required in accordance with these rules or until the Sunday immediately following the declaration of their successor's election at Divisional Conference (whichever is later).

14. (a) Where a casual vacancy occurs in any office under these rules as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason, such vacancy may be filled by appointment by the Divisional Executive provided that the person so appointed shall hold office for as much of the unexpired part of the term of the office as does not exceed -

(1) 12 months or

(2) three quarters of the term of the office whichever is the greater.

(b) Where the unexpired part of the term of office exceeds that specified in 14 (a) of this rule, the Divisional Returning Officer shall conduct an election of Divisional Conference delegates to fill the vacant position, the person elected shall hold office for the remaining term of office.

The Divisional Executive may decide that where sub-rule (b) applies such an election be conducted at a Special Divisional Conference or by a secret postal ballot of delegates t Divisional Conference in terms of Rule 17 of the National Rules of the Union as modified to suit the requirements of the election.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, on and from the date of certification of this sub-rule 14(c), the provisions of this sub-rule 14 shall apply to the filling of any casual vacancy occurring in the office of Senior Vice-President as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, on and from the date of certification of this sub-rule 14(d), the provisions of this sub-rule 14 shall apply to the filling of any casual vacancy occurring in the National Women's Committee positions as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason.

15. The Divisional Executive shall, have and may exercise, subject to the review of its actions by Divisional Conference, the care, control, superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business, Divisional funds and property of the Division and have and exercise all of the powers of the Divisional Conference, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing it may -

(a) Interpret and enforce the general policy of the Division.

(b) Control and conduct the business and affairs of the Division.

(c) Appoint the editor of any Divisional journal and manage and control the policy of the journal.

(d) Hear and decide any appeal from any Divisional Branch. Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

(e) Settle disputes between Divisional Branches. Any Divisional Branch concerned shall be given reasonable notice of the meeting and an opportunity of being heard before any settlement is effected.

(f) Expend such moneys by way of ordinary expenditure of the Division as may be necessary.

(g) Submit any matter to the members for decision by ballot.

(h) Ensure that officers, committee members, delegates or members of the Division and Divisional Branches carry out the rules and decisions of the union and subject to Rule 11 impose penalties (i.e., fines not exceeding the sum of twenty dollars, suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office,) on officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates of or to the Division for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules or the decisions of the Divisional Executive. Provided that the rules or the decisions of the Divisional Executive are available to members in the minutes of the Divisional Executive and the registered rules of the union and the Division are available at each Branch office. No penalty shall be imposed unless –

(i) The officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting seven (7) days prior to the meeting;

(ii) Notice of the charge or allegation is given sufficient to enable a reply.

(iii) He/she is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in their own defence, including an opportunity to cross-examine and to give and call evidence.

Period of suspension imposed under these rules shall not exceed six months.

(j) Take such action as may be necessary to secure the satisfactory working of any Divisional Branch of this Division and, subject to Rule 11, suspend or dismiss all or any members holding positions in, or for, a Divisional Branch and the appointment of a member of the Divisional Executive or any other member or members of the Union to conduct the affairs of such Divisional Branch. Provided that an election or appointment shall be held within three (3) months therefrom.

Reasonable notice of the time and place of the meeting shall be given to the Divisional Branch and to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard before any action is taken.

(k) Control and supervise the work of the Divisional Officers.

(l) (i) All decisions of the Divisional Executive shall be made by a majority of the members present at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules.

(ii) Where two (2) members of the Divisional Executive request, prior to a matter being put to a vote, that a card vote be conducted with respect to any matter, such a card vote shall be conducted in accordance with this rule. In the absence of such a request, the provisions of (i) above shall apply.

(iii) Where a card vote is requested in accordance with (ii) above, each member of the Divisional Executive shall be entitled to exercise one vote provided however that any Divisional Branch Secretary shall be entitled to exercise additional ordinary votes based on the principle of one additional ordinary vote for each 2000 members or part thereof over and above the first 2000 members of the Divisional Branch from which the Divisional Branch Secretary derives.

(iv) The manner of determining the number of members of any Divisional Branch for the purposes of (iii) above, shall be the same as the formula which applies in respect of membership numbers for the purposes of determining Divisional Branch representation to Divisional Conference as set out in rule 8(iv) of these Divisional rules.

(v) Where a card vote is conducted, the matter shall be determined by a majority of votes cast including additional votes as provided for in (ii) to (iv) herein.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(m) A loan, grant or donation of an amount exceeding $1,000 shall not be made by this Division unless the Divisional Executive -

(i) has satisfied itself -

(a) that the making of the loan, grant or donation would be in accordance with the other rules of the Union; and

(b) in relation to a loan - that, in the circumstances, the security proposed to be given for the repayment of the loan is adequate and the proposed arrangements for the repayment of the loan are satisfactory; and

(ii) has approved the making of the loan, grant or donation.

(n) To make, alter and rescind rules.

(o) Notwithstanding that a Divisional Executive member may occupy more than one office each of which would entitle them to be a member of the Divisional Executive, a member of the Divisional Executive shall be entitled to exercise one vote only (except where additional ordinary votes are cast in accordance with sub-rule (1) above).

Further provided that where a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary is also a member of the Divisional Executive by virtue of holding office as Divisional Branch Secretary, such Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary shall exercise their vote on the Divisional Executive in their capacity as a Divisional Officer only and any vote of such person as Divisional Branch Secretary [and, where applicable, any additional ordinary votes of the Divisional Branch], shall be exercised by the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary from that Divisional Branch provided that person is otherwise a member of the Divisional Executive.

16. Any member of the Divisional Executive (other than the Divisional Secretary, Divisional President, Divisional Assistant Secretaries, Divisional Senior Vice-President and Divisional Vice-President) from a Divisional Branch that has more than two of the monthly capitation payments or part thereof and/or interest thereon for which the Divisional Branch is liable under sub-rule 14(i) outstanding to the Divisional Office as at the date of any meeting of the Divisional Executive shall not be entitled to attend any Divisional Executive (unless at the express invitation of one of the Divisional Officers) and in any event, shall not be entitled to move, amend or vote at any such meeting.

17. Meetings of the Divisional Executive shall take place at least twice per year provided however that a meeting of the Divisional Conference shall be counted as a meeting of Divisional Executive for the purpose of this rule. Further, the members of the Divisional Executive may be summoned by the Divisional Secretary to a meeting to be held at such time and place as shall be decided by the Divisional Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the Divisional Executive may demand a meeting of such Divisional Executive which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members of the Divisional Executive. The quorum for any meeting shall be six. Notice of meetings may be given by letter, facsimile, email or other electronic means or otherwise in writing or by telephone or verbally, provided that in the latter two instances such is confirmed by letter or telegram or telex or facsimile or other writing.

(i) On a decision of a majority of Divisional Branches that are not Unfinancial Divisional Branches as at the date of the decision, or Divisional Branches that are not Unfinancial Divisional Branches and whose membership constitutes a majority of the members of the Division or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10 per cent of the financial members of the Division, Divisional Executive shall take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Division upon the matter or matters submitted by the Divisional Branches or members. A decision reached by a majority of the actual votes recorded shall be binding on the Divisional Conference Divisional Executive and the members of the Division.

Divisional Executive may at any time by its own motion take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Division upon any matter it thinks fit.

(ii) The referendum referred to in this rule shall be conducted as follows:

Divisional Executive shall:

(a) Determine the question to be submitted to the members and the form of the ballot paper.

(b) Fix the times for the despatch and return of ballot papers and give the necessary instructions for printing of same.

(c) Appoint a Divisional Returning Officer and Divisional Scrutineer in conjunction with Divisional Branch Returning Officers to conduct the ballot.

(d) No material other than that authorised by the Divisional Executive shall be enclosed in the envelope in which the ballot paper is posted to the member.

(e) In all other respects the referendum shall be held as nearly as practicable in the manner provided for the holding of elections of Divisional Branch Officers.

11 – REMOVAL OF OFFICERS

(a) (i) Any person elected to an office in the Division or a Divisional Branch may be removed from office by majority decision of the Divisional Executive of the Division in which the Officer holds office, provided that such officer shall not be dismissed from office unless the officer has been found guilty, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, of misappropriation of funds of the Union or a substantial breach of the Rules of the Union or gross misbehaviour or gross neglect of duty or has ceased according to the Rules of the Union to be eligible to hold office.

(ii) An elected officer may be charged by any member of the Division with the offences referred to 11(a)(i) above, whether the offence occurred before or after this sub-rule came into effect, and where the Divisional Executive is to consider whether or not any elected Divisional or Divisional Branch Officer is to be removed from office under sub-paragraph (i) herein, the Divisional Executive may take any, some or all of steps 1 – 5 below:

1. Determine that no further action be taken;

2. Determine that a person or persons be delegated to investigate the charge and provide a report to the Divisional Executive on matters in relation to the charge and any recommendations for dealing with the charge;

3. Determine that the charge not be dealt with pending the receipt of a report requested by the Divisional Executive under this rule;

4. Determine that an elected officer charged under this rule be directed not to carry out some or all of the duties attaching to their office pending the hearing or other consideration of any charge against that elected officer;

5. Resolve policies as to procedure and matters that may be observed prior to and during a meeting of the Divisional Executive to consider whether or not any elected Divisional or Divisional Branch Officer is to be removed from office, provided that:

   A. Notice of the charge or allegation is to be given sufficient to enable a reply by the elected officer charged;

   B. The elected officer charged may provide a reply to the charge, which may include submissions and evidence;

   C. The Divisional Executive may determine that such reply shall be provided at or by a time determined by the Divisional Executive:
      i. in person; and/or
      ii. in writing; and/or
      iii. by other electronic means; and/or
      iv. by a representative of the elected officer charged;

D. Should the Divisional Executive determine that a hearing should be held:

i. such hearing may in whole or in part take place using electronic means in more than one place;
ii. the Divisional Executive may determine that the elected officer charged, a member who has laid the relevant charge, or any other participant may be represented by another person at the hearing;
iii. the elected officer charged is to be provided at least 7 days' notice of such hearing;
iv. should the elected officer charged fail to appear at the hearing and fail to provide a satisfactory explanation for their non-attendance, the Divisional Executive may proceed with the hearing of in their absence provided it is first satisfied that notice of the hearing in accordance with this rule has been served on the elected officer;

E. Notwithstanding rule 49(e) of these rules, the Divisional Executive may:

i. direct the elected officer charged to attend an independent medical examination to determine the officer's fitness to face charges and/or perform the duties of their office;
ii. consider any report of the independent medical examiner or other evidence and determine whether or not to hold or proceed with a meeting or hearing under this rule to consider whether or not the elected officer charged is to be removed from office.

(b) Should any elected officer be removed from office the Divisional Executive may appoint a member to fill the vacancy until the next elections are held and a successor takes office in accordance with the rules, but no person shall be appointed to an office, otherwise than temporarily, where the remainder of the term of office is twelve (12) months or three quarters of the term whichever is the greater.

(c) Any elected officer so removed from office shall have the right of appeal to the Divisional Conference and therefrom to the National Executive or National Conference.

In the event of the appeal being upheld the Divisional Conference, National Executive or National Conference may order reinstatement to apply on such conditions as it considers the circumstances warrant.

(d) In the event of the re-election of an Officer removed from office under this rule, such elected officer shall be reimbursed by a payment of monies that represent the difference between such salary that would have received had the officer not been removed from office and the amount of salary the officer received during the period that the officer was removed from office.

(e) "Office" under this rule has the same meaning as provided in the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009.

12 – VACANCIES IN OFFICE

Subject to the Act and other rules dealing with this subject, if any vacancy shall occur by death, resignation or otherwise in any Divisional or Divisional Branch office such office may be filled by the Divisional Executive until a ballot can be held to fill the vacancy.

13 – DUTIES OF OFFICERS

(i) Divisional President:

The Divisional President shall preside at meetings of Divisional Executive and meetings convened by Divisional Executive.

The Divisional President shall have a deliberative vote only.

The Divisional President shall carry out such other functions as shall be determined from time to time by the Divisional Executive. In cases where he is a full time officer he shall be under the control of the Divisional Secretary.

(ii) Divisional Secretary:

The Divisional Secretary shall be responsible for the general correspondence of the Division, Divisional finance, filing of documents for the Division, industrial returns that are required to be made by the Division and the carrying out of decisions made by the Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive or by the National Conference or National Executive.

The Divisional Secretary shall have the power, subject to decisions of the Divisional Executive, Divisional Conference, National Executive and/or National Conference, to appoint, control and dismiss the staff of the Divisional Office.

The Divisional Secretary shall have prepared a properly audited financial statement of receipts and payments and all the funds and effects of the Divisional Office, together with a statement of the assets and liabilities of the Divisional Office for the year ending 31st December in each financial year. Such financial statement to be made available to Divisional Conference, Executive, National Conference, National Executive, National Secretary and Divisional Branches of this Division. Provided however that the financial year for the Division shall, on and from 1 April 2017, and for each year thereafter, commence on and from 1 April each year and end on 31 March of each following year.

The Divisional Secretary shall carry out such other functions as shall be determined from time to time by the Divisional Executive, National Conference or National Executive and allocate the duties of Divisional Officers.

The Divisional Secretary may concurrently hold a full-time office in a Divisional Branch.

(iii) Divisional Assistant Secretaries:

Divisional Assistant Secretaries and any other full-time Divisional Officer at the Divisional level shall perform all duties assigned to them by the Divisional Executive, National Conference or the National Executive.

They shall be under the control of the Divisional Secretary. They shall attend all meetings of Divisional Executive, National Conference and National Executive.

The Divisional Assistant Secretary who has been designated as the Divisional Senior Assistant Secretary in terms of Rule 9 sub-rule 6 shall fulfil all duties and responsibilities of the Divisional Secretary while on approved leave of absence except in respect of those duties decided otherwise by the Divisional Executive.

The office of Divisional Assistant Secretary may be resolved to be either a full-time or honorary office, by decision of the Divisional Executive made not less than 70 days prior to the calling of nominations for that office. Where a casual vacancy arises in that office, Divisional Executive may, prior to filling the vacancy under rule 12, resolve whether the office is to be filled on an honorary or full-time basis.

(iv) Divisional Senior Vice-President:

The Divisional Senior Vice-President shall assist the Divisional President in the conduct of meetings and shall preside in the absence of the Divisional President, and shall carry out such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Divisional Executive.

(v) Divisional Vice-President:

The Divisional Vice-President shall assist the Divisional President or Senior Vice-President in the conduct of meetings and, in the absence of both the abovementioned officers, shall act as President.

The Divisional Vice-President shall carry out such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Divisional Executive.

(vi) Divisional Trustees:

The Divisional Trustees shall, subject to control by the Divisional Executive, be responsible, together with the Divisional Secretary, for the finance, property and investments of the Division.

(vii) Members of Divisional Executive:

Other members of Divisional Executive shall attend meetings of the Divisional Executive when summoned so to do and perform functions allocated by the Divisional Executive.

14 – FUNDS AND PROPERTY

(i) Each Divisional Branch shall forward to the Divisional Office such percentage of the Divisional Branch income as may be apportioned from time to time by the Divisional Executive.

A Divisional Branch that does not remit to the Divisional Office the moneys or part thereof owed by it by the time after such moneys are due and payable so that it becomes an Unfinancial Divisional Branch within the meaning of rule 3, shall in addition to those moneys, also be liable to pay to the Divisional Office interest on the unpaid amount at the percentage rate for 90-day bank bills as at the date that Divisional Branch becomes an Unfinancial Divisional Branch, on and from the said date. Such a Branch will remain an Unfinancial Divisional Branch for all purposes under these Rules until the principal sum and interest thereon specified in this sub-rule are paid to the Divisional Office.

If the Divisional Executive is of a view that the reasons for the non-payment are genuine reasons of incapacity to pay, then such interest shall not be levied.

(ii) Banking and Withdrawal: All moneys received by the Divisional Office shall be paid to the credit of the Division on current account with a bank or financial institution approved by the Divisional Executive. All funds drawn from the bank shall be authorised in writing by the Divisional Secretary, Assistant Secretaries or Divisional President and one Divisional Trustee.

(iii) All expenditure for ordinary purposes, i.e., incurred in directly furthering the objects of the Union for members of this Division or in the expenses of management of this Division or in satisfying any debt to or of the National Office, may be disbursed by decision of the Divisional Secretary and one of the Assistant Divisional Secretaries.

Expenditure for other purposes authorised by the rules may be disbursed by a majority decision of the Divisional Executive, National Conference or National Executive.

(iv) Investment of Funds: The funds of the Division shall be invested wherever possible in the name of the Union. Where this is not possible, investments shall be made in the name of the Divisional Trustees.

The funds of the Division may be invested in such securities as are permitted by the laws of any State of the Commonwealth for the investment of funds by trustees.

(v) The property of the Division shall be under the control of the Divisional Executive and shall be in the name of the Union.

15 – AUDITOR

The Divisional Executive shall appoint an approved auditor who shall each financial year for the period ending 31 December audit the books and accounts of the Division and draw up a correct report on same. Provided however that the financial year for the Division shall, on and from 1 April 2017, and for each year thereafter, commence on and from 1 April each year and end on 31 March of each following year.

The auditor shall, in the report, draw attention of the Divisional Executive, National Conference and National Executive to any deficiencies or other matters which the auditor may think proper. The auditor shall have full and complete access to all the books and documents of the Division.

Upon receipt by the Divisional Secretary of a petition, signed by not less than 5% of the members of the Division, requesting that a general meeting of members of the Division be called for the purpose of considering the auditor's report, the general purpose financial report and the operating report of the Division, the Divisional Secretary shall convene such meeting as soon as is practicable.

16 – ALTERATION OF RULES

These Divisional Rules and any Divisional Branch Rules of this Division may be altered or rescinded or new rules made by the Divisional Executive. Proposals for alterations of such rules may also be proposed by Divisional Branches and shall be forwarded with the notice calling the Divisional Executive.

Provided that Divisional Executive in session may alter such rules although previous notice has not been given.

Nothing in this rule affects the right of the Divisional Executive to vote on any matter, including rules, otherwise than at a meeting assembled.

17 – RULES BINDING ON MEMBERS AND DIVISIONAL BRANCHES

These Divisional Rules, and all alterations, additions or rescissions thereof or thereto, shall apply to and be binding on all Divisional Branches of this Division and on all members who now, or who may hereafter, belong to the Division until they are made or become null and void according to law.

18 – DIVISIONAL BRANCHES

(a) There shall be Divisional Branches of the Division in each of the States and in the Australian Capital Territory, and in such other States or places as may be decided. The Divisional Executive may establish more than one Divisional Branch in any area and may do so on occupational or sub-industry bases, or may establish a single Divisional Branch for two or more States, Territories or places.

Such Divisional Branches shall be known as the Construction and General Division, New South Wales Divisional Branch, or as the case may be; or, with the approval of the National Executive or National Conference the Divisional Branch may be known by some other name.

(b) In Victoria and Tasmania, the Divisional Branch shall be known as the Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch. Further, in the State of Tasmania there shall be a sub-branch of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch which shall be known as the Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch, Tasmania Sub-Branch.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(c) In Western Australia, as a result of an agreement between the two Divisional Branch Secretaries prior to integration, the Divisional Branch Secretary of the integrated Divisional Branch shall be the principal officer and spokesperson for the Divisional Branch.

(d) [Deleted]

(e) All Divisional Branches mentioned herein shall for all purposes be and remain an inseparable part of the Division by which they are established.

19 – DIVISIONAL BRANCH RULES

(i) Divisional Branches shall have rules set out herein. Divisional Branches may in accordance with the Divisional Branch rules hereto, make By Laws not inconsistent with these Rules or the National Rules and not inconsistent with the Laws of the Commonwealth. In the event of any such inconsistency the Divisional Branch By Law shall be void to the extent of such inconsistency.

Where any rule of a Divisional Branch allows for representation for different classifications of membership within the union such representation shall be reviewed by the Divisional Secretary no later than two months prior to the calling of nominations in that election so that representation of the classifications is based on the principle that the will of the majority shall not be thwarted and that there is appropriate representation of each such classification in the decision making bodies of the Divisional Branch concerned.

For the purpose of determining the two principles outlined in paragraph two herein, the aggregate membership over the 4 completed membership years immediately preceding the opening of nominations shall be averaged for the purpose of calculating the percentage of membership belonging to that classification. The proportion and representation decided upon in the manner outlined herein shall be reflected in the positions outlined in the rules for which nominations are called and shall remain the same (subject to any further decision of the Divisional Executive) for the period of office of the persons elected thereat.

Provided that where the classification has existed for less than four (4) years such lesser time shall be used for the purposes of the calculation.

(ii) (a) Subject to sub-rule (c) hereof, unless expressly authorised by Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive, the powers and duties conferred by these Rules on Divisional Branch Council and Divisional Branch Executive Committees and the officers, organisers, full-time paid officials and employees thereof are exercisable only in respect of the members of those Divisional Branches and persons within the geographic area and occupational categories within the State or Territory for which the Divisional Branch is responsible.

(b) Subject to sub-rule (c) hereof, unless expressly authorised by Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive, no officer, organiser, full-time paid official or employee of any Divisional Branch shall be authorised or permitted to perform any of the functions or duties conferred on such officers, organisers, full-time paid officials or employees by these rules, or to hold themselves out as an officer, organiser, full-time paid official or employee of the Union, other than within the geographic area and occupational categories within the State or Territory for which the Divisional Branch is responsible.

(c) Nothing in sub-rules (a) and (b) hereof shall limit the rights of office holders to perform their duties as members of Divisional or National governing bodies in accordance with the rules, being those matters specified in rule 13 of these Rules and rule 22 of the National Rules of the Union. Further provided that sub-rule (b) hereof shall not apply where Divisional Branch officers, organisers, full-time paid officials or members carry out work in a Divisional Branch (other than a Divisional Branch in which such person is elected, appointed or engaged) pursuant to a resolution of the Divisional Branch Management Committee of the Divisional Branch in which such work is undertaken, and in accordance with the terms of that resolution.

20 – EXECUTION OF AGREEMENTS, ETC

Industrial Agreements and other instruments that may be needed by or on behalf of the Division shall be executed by the Divisional Secretary or such other Divisional Officer as authorised by the Divisional Executive.

21 – SUBMISSION OF INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES

An industrial dispute affecting the members of this Division may be submitted to conciliation or arbitration upon a resolution in favour of submitting such dispute carried by a majority of the members of the Divisional Executive or by the Divisional Secretary.

The Divisional Executive and the Divisional Secretary shall have full power to transact all business and do or authorise all acts and things in connection with such dispute and it or he may delegate it or his functions either generally or specifically.

22 – DIVISIONAL OFFICE

The office of the Division shall be the office of the Divisional Secretary and shall be at 12/276 Pitt Street, Sydney, or such place as Divisional Executive shall decide.

There shall be an annexe at 500 Swanston Street, Melbourne in the State of Victoria.

23 – PRINCIPAL OFFICER

(i) The Divisional Secretary shall be the Principal Officer of the Division.

(ii) In the case of a breach of legislation, Award or Agreement or other matter affecting a member of the Division, the Divisional Secretary or any Divisional Branch Secretary or other person or body authorised by Divisional Branch Rules to which the member belongs shall have the power to take such legal proceedings as are necessary to enforce the legislation, Award or Agreement, or to seek penalties against an employer for such breaches.

24 – RECOVERY OF DUES

All claims for contributions, levies, fines, fees or liabilities of any kind due or payable to the Union by members of the Division may be sued for in the name of the Union by the Divisional Secretary or by the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Branch to which the member is attached or by any person or body authorised by these rules or the rules of the Divisional Branch.

25 – LEVIES

(i) Levies may be imposed for the purpose of carrying out any of the objects of the Union and for assisting the members of this or any other Union or body having objects similar in whole or in part to those of this Union.

(ii) The amount of any levy may be decided by a majority of the Divisional Executive and when so decided shall be binding on all members or sections of members as the Divisional Executive may decide.

(iii) A Divisional Branch may impose a levy on its members.

(iv) A levy may be of one specific sum, payable at one specific time, or may be for a weekly, fortnightly or monthly period, payable for a certain specific period.

All levies shall be added to contributions and shall be a first charge against all payments made by members of the Divisional Branch.

26 – VOTING OTHER THAN AT MEETINGS

(a) If the Divisional Secretary shall consider it advisable to submit any matter, including the imposition of a levy or the alteration, rescission or making of rules to a vote of Divisional Executive members at any time he may submit a resolution dealing with such matter to the members by letter, facsimile, telephone, email, verbally and/or any other means of communication or any combination thereof.

(b) A copy of such resolution shall be sent at the same time to each Divisional Branch Secretary.

(c) The votes on such resolution shall be returnable to the Divisional Secretary at such time as the Divisional President and the Divisional Secretary shall fix. The result of such vote shall be binding and enforceable in the same manner as a decision arrived at in meeting assembled.

(d) No amendment shall be allowed on any such resolution, but if it is negatived any member may request the Divisional Secretary to submit in a like manner a further resolution bearing on the same matter. In the event of the Divisional Secretary being requested to submit more than one such resolution the order in which same shall be submitted shall be in his absolute discretion.

(e) The Divisional Secretary shall keep a register of names and addresses of delegates to Divisional Conference.

27 – STANDING ORDERS FOR MEETINGS

This Rule shall apply to all meetings in the Division, including Divisional Branch Management Committee meetings, but shall not apply to general Divisional Branch meetings and/or rank-and-file meetings to which Rule 64 shall apply.

This Rule operates as a guideline only and any meeting may expressly or impliedly determine a course and procedure not in accordance with these Standing Orders for Meetings. No departure from any or all parts of these Standing Orders, whether in form or substance, shall vitiate the calling of any meeting, or any resolution, discussion and decision made at any meeting or the continuation of any meeting.

(a) Motions - How Dealt With:

(i) All motions shall be of an affirmative character and must be moved and seconded by delegates. Such motions become the property of the meeting and can only be withdrawn by leave thereof. The discussion on any motion shall not exceed 60 minutes unless a majority of delegates present agree to an extension of time.

(ii) Unless a delegate rises to oppose a motion or propose an amendment thereto, the motion shall be immediately put to the meeting for decision.

(iii) A motion may be superseded at any time by another motion "that it be discharged from the agenda paper" or "that the next business be proceeded with" being resolved in the affirmative.

(iv) A motion may be amended at any time during the debate thereon always provided that the substance of the original motion be retained. If the amendment is carried it then takes the place of the motion.

(v) Any number of amendments may be proposed and discussed with the motion. For the purpose of the debate the motion shall be the question before the chair. Amendments shall be put to the vote in the order in which they are received. If there is no further discussion, or if the motion "that the question be now put" is carried, the mover of the original motion may reply.

(vi) All motions shall be put to the meeting by the chairperson in a clear manner by asking for the "ayes" to vote first and then the "noes". The chair's decision as to which has the majority will be final unless a show of hands is called for. The chairperson shall then count the votes for and against the question.

If the votes are equal the question is resolved in the negative.

(vii) A mover of a motion to be allowed 15 minutes to introduce and five minutes to reply. Other speakers 10 minutes unless a majority of the delegates present agree to an extension of time.

(viii) Right of Speaker: Any delegate desiring to speak shall rise and address the chairman. If two or more delegates rise at the same time the chairman shall call upon the one who, in his opinion, first rose.

Provided that no delegates can speak more than once upon any question (which shall include the original motion and all amendments thereto) before the meeting, except -

(a) In reply as the mover of the original motion.

(b) In explanation or correction of some matter during the debate.

(c) Upon a point of order raised during the debate.

(d) Upon a resolution being carried "that he now be heard".

(ix) A delegate will not be held to have spoken who simply used the words "I second the motion" or "amendment", as the case may be; but for the purpose of debate shall be considered the second speaker in favour of the proposal seconded by him.

(x) No more than two delegates shall be allowed to speak for or against any question in succession. If at the conclusion of the second speaker's remarks no member rises to speak on the other side of the motion or amendment, it shall be put to the vote.

(xi) Any delegate speaking shall at once resume his seat

(a) If the chairman rises to speak; or

(b) If a point of order is raised.

and shall not resume his speech until the point of order is decided.

(xii) No delegate may speak to any question after it has been put by the chairman or during the taking of the vote.

(b) REPORTS

A report containing a recommendation may be discussed on a motion being moved for its adoption which, upon being carried, will signify the will of Conference thereon.

If the report contains any recommendation it shall be competent for a delegate to move a resolution arising out of and relative to the report to obtain the opinion of the meeting on the matter.

(c) ADJOURNMENT OF MEETING OR DEBATE

A motion for the adjournment of the meeting may be proposed at any time or for the adjournment of the debate, and shall be at once put to the meeting by the chairman unless time is mentioned. An amendment to alter the time can be proposed upon a motion for adjournment only if time is mentioned as part of such motion and can apply thereto.

(d) ADJOURNMENT OF STATED TIME

When a motion for the adjournment of a debate to any stated day or time has been carried, such motion shall not be abrogated unless with the consent of the meeting.

(e) CHAIR'S RULINGS

The chair's rulings on all points of order shall be final unless at the time a motion is carried that such ruling be disagreed with. When a motion to disagree with the ruling of the chairperson has been duly proposed and seconded, the chairperson shall leave the chair until the motion has been disposed of by the meeting. The mover only shall speak to the motion and the chairperson may explain the reasons for the ruling given. The motion shall then be put to the meeting by the Vice-Chairperson.

(f) SUSPENSION OF ORDER OF BUSINESS

It shall be competent by a majority vote of the members present for the meeting to suspend the order of business.

(g) SITTING AS A COMMITTEE

Divisional Executive may at any time, by a resolution agreed to by a majority of members present, resolve itself into a committee of the whole. The rules governing the business of Divisional Executive shall be observed when in Committee.

(h) DEFINITION:

In this rule "delegate" shall include any person attending a meeting.

DIVISIONAL BRANCH RULES

28 – NAME

The name of the Divisional Branches of this Division shall be as follows:-

(a) In New South Wales, South Australia, Western Australia, and the Australian Capital Territory, "The Construction and General Division, X Divisional Branch" where X is the State or Territory concerned;

(b) In Tasmania and Victoria "The Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch".

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(c) In Queensland in accordance with Rule 18 of these rules.

29 – ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP

All persons who are members of or apply for membership in the Construction and General Division of the Union residing or employed in the State or Territory concerned shall be and remain members of the Divisional Branch or Divisional Branches within that State or Territory.

Provided that notwithstanding the provisions of any other rule, all persons who are members of or apply for membership of the Division, who are residing or employed in the Northern Territory shall, on and from 1 January 2012, be and remain members of the Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

30 – MEMBERSHIP

(i) General Section

(a) Applications for membership of the Union and/or Divisional Branch shall be on a form published by the Divisional Branch and shall be signed by the applicant. Divisional Branches may publish applications for membership on the internet.

No omission, irregularity or want of form shall invalidate an application for membership provided that the person applying intended the document to be so treated and the union treated the document as an application form for membership.

(b) A person applying for membership shall, on the membership application form, state which classification the applicant for membership considers to be his or her appropriate classification. All applications for membership shall be lodged with the Divisional Branch Secretary or such other person authorised by the Divisional Branch Council and such applications may be lodged via the internet or email. Applications for membership shall be dealt with by the Divisional Branch Management Committee or another committee authorised by Divisional Branch Council, who shall, if satisfied with the bona-fides and qualifications of the applicant, admit him or her to membership of the Divisional Branch and the Union.

The classification determined in accordance with this sub-rule:

(i) shall be solely for the purpose of determining the eligibility of each member to nominate for election to any office within the Division or Divisional Branch where election to such office is dependent upon the members falling into one or other classification;

(ii) shall be conclusive; and

(iii) shall bind the Divisional Branch Returning Officer.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(c) On being admitted to membership of the Divisional Branch a member shall, ipso facto, be and be deemed to be a member of the Construction and General Division, the Divisional Branch, and the Union.

(d) A period of thirteen weeks, together with any period from the date of admission that the member has not been working at the trade, shall be allowed for the purpose of any member objecting to the continuance of membership of new members. Any objection to the continuance of membership of a new member shall be lodged in writing with the Divisional Branch Secretary or authorised person entitled to receive such application, such objection shall be lodged within the above-named period.

(e) A new member shall during the currency of the probationary period be entitled to full membership privileges and responsibility in accordance with Rules.

(f) A new member shall pay on application for membership all moneys required to be paid by a new member - Entrance Fee, one half year's contribution.

(g) Applicants for membership shall be qualified workers of good character, and shall, when admitted to membership, enjoy all advantages of membership so long as they comply with the registered rules of the Union.

Half yearly terms shall be deemed to begin on the first day of April and October, respectively.

(h) On being admitted to membership of the Divisional Branch a member shall, ipso facto, be taken to have authorised the union and its officers and employees to seek and obtain any information from any industry scheme of which that member is also a member or participant, for the purpose of ensuring that the member has received or is receiving all of the benefits to which that member is entitled under such industry schemes.

For the purpose of this sub-rule a reference to "industry scheme/s" shall be taken to include any or all of the following;

(i) C+Bus or any state based equivalent superannuation scheme.

(ii) Australian Construction Industry Redundancy Trust or any State equivalent redundancy scheme, or predecessor scheme.

(iii) Any long service scheme established pursuant to legislation of any State or Territory for the benefit of persons in construction and related industries.

(iv) Any other scheme the benefits to which the member of the Divisional Branch is entitled pursuant to his/her contract of employment, or any legislation, or any award or certified agreement to which the union is a party.

(ii) APPRENTICES, IMPROVERS, TRAINEES AND LABOUR MARKET PROGRAMME WORKERS

(a) An apprentice (indentured or trainee), improver, trainee or other labour market programme worker may be admitted to this section. That person shall, on the completion of their apprenticeship or where they cease to be an improver, trainee or labour market programme worker, be transferred to the General Section and be subject to the provisions of the General Section membership.

(b) A person engaged in a pre-apprenticeship course at a technical college shall on application be admitted to the apprentices section without being required to pay any contributions (subject to payment of an enrolment fee to be determined by the Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time).

(c) The same provisions relating to the admission of members to the General Section shall apply to applicants to the Apprentices, Improvers, Trainees and Labour Market Programme Workers section.

(iii) Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch

(a) The record of members of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch shall classify each member into one or other of the following classifications:-

(i) carpenter;
(ii) labourer;
(iii) stonemason;
(iv) tilelayer;
(v) painter;
(vi) signwriter;
(vii) bricklayer
(viii) solid plasterer
(ix) roof-tiler
(x) fibrous plasterer/fibrous plaster industry worker
(xi) crane operations
(xii) rigger/dogman
(xiii) plant and machine operations
(xiv) boiler attendant/engine driver
(xv) production worker (metal)
(xvi) concrete pump operations
(xvii) forklift/hoist operations
(xviii) driller
(xix) other

which shall be known as the member's designated classification.

(b) A person applying for membership shall on the membership application form, state which one of the classifications set out in paragraph (a) the applicant for membership considers to be his or her appropriate classification.

(c) In dealing with applications for membership the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee shall determine each new member's designated classification.

(d) The Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee may at any time change a member's designated classification provided that the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee shall not change a member's designated classification unless -

(i) the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee has received from the member a request in writing for a change to the member's designated classification setting out the reasons for the request; or

(ii) the member has been given a reasonable opportunity by the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee to state in writing the reasons why he or she should retain his or her designated classification or have a different designated classification.

As soon as practicable after the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee changes a member's designated classification in accordance with this paragraph the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee shall cause the member to be notified in writing and alter the record of members of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch accordingly.

(e) The Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee shall determine the designated classification of an applicant for membership in accordance with paragraph (d) or a change to an existing member's designated classification in accordance with paragraph (e) by reference to:-

(i) the trade or other qualifications held by the applicant for membership or existing member;

(ii) the award classification of the applicant for membership or existing member, or his or her last award classification; and

(iii) the work performed by the applicant for membership or existing member, or the last work performed by him or her.

(f) Where the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee considers that it does not have sufficient information available to determine the designated classification of an applicant for membership or to change an existing member's designated classification it shall request that the member provide such further information as the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee considers appropriate.

(g) The designated classification of each member determined in accordance with this sub-rule:

(i) shall be solely for the purpose of determining the eligibility of each member to nominate for election to any office within the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch where election to such office is dependent upon the member falling into one or other of the classifications set out in paragraph (a) hereof;

(ii) shall be conclusive; and

(iii) shall bind the Divisional Branch Returning Officer.

(h) For the purposes of determining length of membership of the Divisional Branch in rule 38(a) herein, previous financial membership of the VSBTU (PIWD) shall, where such member has obtained a clearance from the VSBTU in accordance with rule 9 of the National Rules of the CFMEU, count as financial membership of the Victorian Building Unions Divisional Branch.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(iv) Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch (Northern Territory Members)

The provisions of these rules relating to membership and applications for membership of the Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch shall apply with equal force and effect to persons residing and/or employed in the Northern Territory.

(v) [Deleted]

31 – ENTRANCE FEE

All applicants to the General Section shall pay an entrance fee that shall be any sum as the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee may decide.

All applicants to the Apprentice and Improvers' Section shall be admitted without the payment of an entrance fee.

The Divisional Branch Management Committee of each Divisional Branch shall determine such other circumstances, if any, in which an applicant shall be exempt from the requirement to pay an entrance fee.

32 – CONTRIBUTIONS

(a) A statement setting out all contributions, levies and fines due shall be forwarded to every member half-yearly not later than March 1, and September 1, of each year.

Such notice shall be deemed to have been received by the member unless the member personally advises the Divisional Branch Secretary by registered letter on or before the 1st day of April or the 1st day of October, as the case may be, in the current year that the member has not received such statement.

In no case shall the failure of the member to receive a notice entitle the member to be considered financial other than provided for in this Rule.

(b) Subject to the provisions of sub-clause (c) to (h) of this Rule, contributions shall be due and payable in advance as from the 1st day in April and the 1st day in October respectively in any year as follows:

GENERAL SECTION: Divisional Branch membership contributions shall be no less than 1% of the Building and Construction General On-Site Award 2010 (or any other award replacing that award) base rate for a carpenter multiplied by 26 unless decided otherwise by the Divisional Executive on application by the Divisional Branch concerned.

The Divisional Branch Management Committee shall calculate the amount of Union contributions based on the abovementioned formula.

The Divisional Branch contributions so fixed shall be applied from the following half year period commencing 1st October and 1st April respectively.

APPRENTICES, IMPROVERS, TRAINEES AND LABOUR MARKET PROGRAMME WORKERS: Divisional Branch contributions for apprentices shall be determined by the Divisional Branch Council concerned.

The apprentice shall be charged half yearly dues at the rate applying at the commencement of that financial half year, except in respect of the financial half year during which the apprentice becomes a tradesperson.

An improver, trainee or labour market programme worker shall be charged half yearly dues at a rate that is less than the general section and is determined from time to time by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

Arrangements for Deduction Schemes

(c) Subject to sub-rule (cA), notwithstanding anything elsewhere in the rules the union may make arrangements with an employer (including any Government Department) or any Bank, Building Society, Credit Union or other financial institution for the regular deduction, on the authority of a member, of amounts whether by way of contributions (rounded up, if necessary, to a multiple of five cents), levies or any other monies which may be payable by a member to the union pursuant to the Rules, from

from any account maintained by the member as the case may be,

and then so long as an authority by the member for the deduction of contributions and other financial dues which is acceptable to the Divisional Branch remains in force, the member shall be deemed financial, notwithstanding that the payments are not made in advance as required by this Rule provided that, the member was financial immediately prior to arranging such deduction.

Provided however that in the alternative, a member may authorise such additional deductions as will repay all outstanding contributions over time and also, from the point at which any outstanding contributions are met in full, ordinary regular deductions thereafter in which case such member shall be regarded as fully financial at the point at which all previously outstanding contributions are met and a current authority to deduct remains in force.

Further provided that in the case of new members such members may either pay all joining fees and membership contributions necessary to become a member and provide an authority to deduct such contributions from the commencement of the first dues period after the date of joining, in which case the member shall be deemed to be financial, or alternatively, authorise the regular deduction of all such fees and contributions as will result in a nil balance owing to the union at the end of such dues period in which case such member shall be entitled to all the benefits of membership other than the right to vote which right shall only be conferred after a continuous period of 26 weeks of contributions are paid under such authority.

(i) This rule applies to members attached to the QNTDB, the WA Divisional Branch, the NSW Divisional Branch and the SA Divisional Branch and applies notwithstanding the provisions of sub-rule (c).

(ii) Notwithstanding anything elsewhere in the rules, a member of the QNTDB, WA Divisional Branch, NSW Divisional Branch or the SA Divisional Branch who:

(a) has paid the entrance fee;

(b) commenced on, and makes payment in accordance with, a Scheme, and

(c) either:

(A) has made payment of all Membership Contributions immediately prior to commencing on a Scheme; or will be a financial member and will be entitled to all the benefits of membership including the right to vote.

(B) has authorised the deduction of an amount that will result in the payment of all Membership Contributions within six (6) months of commencing on a Scheme or with such longer period as the Divisional Branch Secretary permits,

(iii) A member making payment of their Membership Contributions in accordance with:

(a) a payroll deduction scheme will be unfinancial if in arrears for a period of three (3) months after the last payment under the payroll deduction scheme was received; or

(b) a direct debit scheme will be unfinancial if in arrears of two (2) Periodic Payments.

(iv) For the purposes of this rule:

(a) 'Direct Debit Scheme' means a scheme where a member provides written authority for contributions payable to the QNTDB, WA, NSW or the SA Divisional Branch to be deducted, on such regular basis as the respective Divisional Branch Secretary agrees, from the member's financial institution, similar debit account or credit card;

(b) 'Membership Contribution' means entrance fees, subscriptions and levies in accordance with these Divisional Rules;

(c) 'Payroll Deduction Scheme' means a scheme where a member provides written authority to their employer for contributions payable to the QNTDB, WA, NSW or the SA Divisional Branch to be deducted, on such regular basis as the respective Divisional Branch Secretary agrees, from the member's salary;

(d) 'Periodic Payment' means a payment required to be made by a member of the QNTDB , WA, NSW or the SA Divisional Branch at the frequency authorised in their written authority; and

(e) 'Scheme' means a Payroll Deduction Scheme or a Direct Debit Scheme.

Levies

(d) All levies required to be paid by members in accordance with these rules shall be paid in terms decided by Divisional Branch Council or the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

Fines

(e) Any fines required to be paid by a member in accordance with these rules shall be paid in terms decided by Divisional Branch Council of the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(f) All moneys paid by a member shall be credited in the following order:

1. In payment of any levies due; and

2. In payment of any fines due, and

3. In payment of any contributions due

Unfinancial Member

(g) Subject to Sub-rule (cA), (i) and (j) herein, any member who has failed to pay all contributions, levies and fines imposed in accordance with the rules of the union shall be deemed to be unfinancial and shall not be eligible to receive any benefits, participate in any vote, nominate for official positions, propose or second any new applicant member for admission, or exercise any authority or any rights of membership as provided for in these rules.

From the date of payment of all such arrears or any cancellation, credit or waiver in accordance with these Rules, a member shall be deemed to be financial.

Credit to New Members

(h) Applicants joining the Divisional Branch during the currency of any half year shall be credited in the next half year for such period as has elapsed before they joined. Such credit shall be calculated on a monthly basis.

Cancellation/Waiver of Contributions etc

(i) Notwithstanding any other Rule to the contrary, a Divisional Branch Management Committee or such other official/s and/or employee/s within the Divisional Branch as the Divisional Branch Management Committee may authorise from time to time, may, in its discretion, cancel, waive, credit or otherwise diminish either in whole or in part, any contributions, fees, levies or other arrears, whether before or after the period to which the contribution, fee, levy or other arrear relates or before or after such contribution, fee, levy or other arrear falls due, or for or in relation to a period or amount arising before or after the certification of this sub-rule for such reason as the Divisional Branch Management Committee feels appropriate. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such grounds may include:

(a) absence from Australia;

(b) inability to carry on a member's vocation or calling through illness or injury;

(c) unemployment

(d) any other hardship whatsoever;

(e) periods on workers' compensations or because of any injury which, in the view of the Divisional Branch Management Committee ought properly have been compensable;

(f) The maximisation of participation of members in Union affairs and the maximisation of financial union membership

Provided however that any decision to cancel, waive, credit or otherwise diminish the contributions, fees, levies or other arrears of any member by any officer/s and/or employee/s authorised by the Divisional Branch Management Committee to do so, shall be presented to the Divisional Branch Management Committee for final ratification at the next meeting of that body or as soon as practicable thereafter.

Further provided that the Divisional Branch Management Committee may, in its discretion, either before or after the said cancellation, waiver, credit or diminution require from any such member such documentation or other evidence which shows, to the satisfaction of the said Divisional Branch Management Committee, the basis of such cancellation, waiver, diminution or credit.

For the purposes of this Rule and any other Rule of the Union, any period covered by or any amount deducted from any amounts owing or diluted by any cancellation, waiver, credit or diminution shall count for all purposes as if it were a payment of the fees and, in the case of an amount rendering the member otherwise financial shall count, if the period so covered is the only period of unfinanciality, for all purposes as continuous financial membership unless the member is, otherwise than for the cancellation, waiver, credit or diminution, unfinancial.

Provided however persons seeking to rely on the preceding paragraph to establish financial membership for the purpose of eligibility to nominate for office under Rule 38(a) herein, shall only be permitted to do so where the amount waived or sought to be waived on each occasion does not exceed one six-monthly period of membership contributions.

Continuous membership for the purpose of this Rule and wherever encountered in these Rules means membership without any break in the continuity of membership from the last date of acceptance into the Division.

Provided that for the purposes of this Rule continuous membership shall be and include unbroken membership with any Division, Union, Branch or District which amalgamated with the Union or preceded the formation of this Division.

(j) A Divisional Branch Management Committee may, in its discretion and for any reason it considers appropriate, defer for a maximum period of three months the date by which payment of contributions shall be due and payable under sub-clause (b) of this Rule. Any member whose contributions have been deferred will remain a financial member as provided for in Rule 6 for the duration of the deferral, save that the member will not be eligible to nominate for or hold office within the Union for the duration of the deferral. A Divisional Branch Management Committee may only defer the payment of contributions of a member who has paid membership contributions in full in each six-monthly period in which such contributions fell due and payable for at least the previous three years.

Any period covered by a deferral shall count for all purposes as continuous financial membership.

The Divisional Branch Management Committee may defer the payment of contributions either before or after they fall due and payable in accordance with sub-clause (b) of this Rule. If a payment of contributions is deferred after it falls due and payable, the period of the deferral must commence on the date that the contributions fell due and payable and at which the member would, but for the deferral, have become unfinancial. The Divisional Branch Management Committee may not decide to defer the payment of contributions more than three months after the contributions fell due and payable.

33 – COPY OF RULES

All applicants shall be entitled to on admission receive free a copy of Rules of the Union applicable to such member upon request to the Divisional Branch Secretary.

34 – AGED, INFIRM, UNEMPLOYED OR UNFINANCIAL MEMBERS

(a) A member with 10 years' continuous membership who is unable to follow their usual occupation, may on application to Divisional Branch Management Committee or other authorised Committee be granted retired membership at the discretion of the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

On payment of the amount of $2.00 per year or such other higher amount as a Divisional Branch may determine, retired members shall be treated as fully financial and entitled to all the benefits of membership including the right to vote.

Persons who have previously been granted retired membership or honorary life membership shall, if they have paid an amount of $2.00 per year or more since the granting of such membership, be and be treated as retired members in accordance with this sub-rule and fully financial in the union.

In the event that a retired member has paid more than the minimum amount the difference shall be credited to the members account.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

34A – LIFE MEMBERSHIP

(a) A member may apply for life membership, which will be granted at the discretion of the relevant Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(b) Such members shall be treated as fully financial and entitled to all the benefits of membership including the right to vote, without the requirement of paying any dues. Persons who have already applied for and been granted life membership shall be treated as coming within this sub-rule.

(c) Life membership which has been validly conferred prior to the date of this rule change, including life or honorary membership conferred by a union that subsequently amalgamated into the CFMEU, shall be recognised.

35 – FUNDS OF THE DIVISIONAL BRANCH

(a) All moneys subscribed shall be held for the administration of the Divisional Branch in accordance with Rules and banked by its officers in such bank or banks as the Divisional Branch Council shall decide.

(b) All expenditure from the funds shall be in accordance with the Rules of the Divisional Branch and no expenditure shall be permitted for any other purpose.

(c) APPLICATION OF FUNDS - The funds of the Divisional Branch shall be used only for the carrying out of the objects of the Union and in necessary expenses of management.

(d) INVESTMENT OF FUNDS - The surplus funds or other property of the Divisional Branch shall be invested from time to time in such manner as may be authorised by law and as may be determined by the Divisional Branch Council.

(e) All expenditure for ordinary purposes, i.e., incurred in directly furthering the objects and for expenses of management, may be disbursed by direction of the Divisional Branch Management Committee and any other expenditure by direction of the Divisional Branch Council.

(f) From the contributions of the members there may be established funds to be known as the Benefit Fund and Contingent Fund, which are to be used exclusively for the purpose set out in the rule covering these funds and not used for any other purpose.

(g) The Divisional Branch Secretary may be authorised by the Divisional Branch Committee to incur any expenditure on behalf of the Branch Division provided that the Divisional Branch Management Committee may withdraw such authorisation at any time or for any period it sees fit.

All expenditure incurred by this authorisation shall be placed before the Divisional Branch Management Committee for consideration and ratification.

(h) BENEFIT FUND - The credit balance of a Fund shall be maintained at a level determined by the Divisional Branch Council and shall be reimbursed from the General Fund quarterly.

(j) CONTINGENT FUND - The credit balance of a Fund shall be maintained at a level determined by the Divisional Branch Council and shall be reimbursed from the General Fund quarterly.

(k) Notwithstanding sub-rules (e) and (g) hereof, in the NSW Divisional Branch all expenditure for ordinary purposes, i.e. incurred in directly furthering the objects of the union and for expenses of management of the Divisional Branch may be disbursed by decision of the Divisional Branch Secretary or the Divisional Branch President and such other official of the Divisional Branch as the Divisional Branch Management Committee may from time to time authorise. Provided however that all expenditure so incurred shall be placed before the Divisional Branch Management Committee for consideration and ratification, and further provided that the Divisional Branch Management Committee may withdraw such authorisation at any time or for any period it sees fit. Expenditure for other purposes authorised by the rules may be disbursed by decision of the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

36 – AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS

(a) The accounts of the Divisional Branch shall be audited yearly by an approved auditor appointed by the Divisional Branch Council who shall produce and certify a financial statement and report setting out the financial position of the Divisional Branch every financial year to and including the last day of December of each financial year. Such auditor shall also produce and certify a yearly balance sheet. Provided however that the financial year for the Divisional Branches shall, on and from 1 April 2017, and for each year thereafter, commence on and from 1 April each year and end on 31 March of each following year.

The auditor shall have full and complete access to the books and documents of the Branch.

(b) Copies of the financial statement and balance sheet shall be forwarded to all district secretaries for the information of and inspection by financial members.

Upon receipt by the Divisional Branch Secretary of a petition, signed by not less than 5% of the members of the Divisional Branch, requesting that a general meeting of members of the Divisional Branch be called for the purpose of considering the auditor's report, the general purpose financial report and the operating report of the Divisional Branch, the Divisional Branch Secretary shall convene such meeting as soon as is practicable.

37 – OFFICERS

(i) In NSW the officers of the Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President, Divisional Branch Secretary, two Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, and Divisional Branch Management Committee members, together with such Organisers as may be deemed necessary and as the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time determine.

(ii) In the QNTDB the officers of the Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President, two (2) Divisional Branch Senior Vice-Presidents (which positions shall be honorary), two (2) Divisional Branch Vice-Presidents (which positions shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Secretary, the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries (the total number of which shall be determined in accordance with Rule 40 of these Divisional rules) which shall include a Divisional Branch

Assistant Secretary (Plasterers) and may include a Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary (Painters), and two Divisional Branch Executive Members.

(iii) In the Australian Capital Territory, the officers of the Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President (which position shall be honorary), two Divisional Branch Vice Presidents (which positions shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Secretary/Treasurer, the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary, Divisional Branch Organisers, Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference and members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(iv) Without affecting the term of office of persons holding office as Divisional Branch Officers immediately prior to the date of certification of this sub-rule, the officers of the Western Australia Divisional Branch shall, on and from 2 January, 2001, or the declaration of the election in 2000, whichever is the later, consist of the Divisional Branch President, the Divisional Branch Senior Vice President, the Divisional Branch Vice President, the Divisional Branch Secretary, two (2) Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, three (3) Divisional Branch Trustees, the Divisional Branch Treasurer and Divisional Branch Management Committee members, together with such number of Organisers as the Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time determines.

Provided however that on and from the date of certification of this amendment there shall be only one (1) Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary in the Western Australian Divisional Branch.

(v) (a) [Deleted]

(b) On and from 2 January 2013 or the declaration of the election in 2012 whichever is the later, the officers of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch shall be the Divisional Branch President, a Divisional Branch Vice-President (which position shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Secretary, two (2) Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, a Divisional Branch Senior Vice-President, (which shall be a paid, full-time position), the members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee, the members of the Divisional Branch Sub-Branch Management Committee referred to in Rule 42B(ii) herein, Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference, and such number of Organisers as may be decided by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(vi) The officers of the South Australia Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President, (which position shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Vice President, (which position shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Secretary, two Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, the Divisional Branch Treasurer (which position shall be honorary), two (2) Divisional Branch Trustees, (which positions shall be honorary) and the members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

Provided however that on and from the date of certification of this amendment there shall be one only Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary in the South Australian Divisional Branch.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

37A – EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS

Industrial agreements affecting the employment of members of a single Divisional Branch, or persons within the geographic area and occupational categories within the State or Territory for which a single Divisional Branch is responsible, and any other instruments concerning the affairs of a single Divisional Branch, shall be executed by the Divisional Branch Secretary, or such other Divisional Branch Officer as authorised by the Divisional Branch Executive.

38 – DIVISIONAL BRANCH ELECTIONS

(a) (i) Any member of the Divisional Branch who:

(A) is a financial member of the relevant Divisional Branch as provided for in Rule 6, at the time nominations are called,

(B) has had continuous membership of the Divisional Branch during the period immediately preceding the calling of nominations for the length of time specified in the scale in sub-rule (a)(vi) herein for the relevant offices and has not been unfinancial at any time during that period (irrespective of whether any outstanding contributions are subsequently repaid to render the member financial); and

(C) was,

(i) for not less than 9 months during the period of twelve months immediately preceding the calling of nominations employed as an employee in a trade or calling or branch thereof in or in connection with which the union is registered in the geographic area applicable to the relevant Divisional Branch, or engaged as an officer (as defined by Rule 37 herein) in the relevant Division or Divisional Branch (or in any state registered counterpart organisation thereto) or as an employee thereof after having been elected or appointed thereto; or may nominate for such positions according to that scale.

(iA) In relation to the South Australian Divisional Branch only, subrules (a)(i)(B) and (C) and the scale in sub-rule (a)(vi) will not apply to the filling of any casual vacancy that exists at the time of this rule change, or to any casual vacancy that may arise prior to nominations being called for the Divisional Branch election to be held in 2024.

For the avoidance of doubt, a casual vacancy occurs in any office under these rules as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason, and will be filled in accordance with r38(cc).

(ii) Provided further that no member shall be entitled to nominate for more than one full-time office.

(iii) Where a member nominates for more than one full-time position the Returning Officer shall seek from the member an election as to which position the member wishes to contest.

(iv) Where no election is made by the member the Returning Officer shall treat as valid only the nomination for the more senior position.

Seniority shall be determined in the following order:-
Secretary, Assistant Secretary, President, Organiser.

(v) Except in the Divisional Branches in the Australian Capital Territory, Queensland, South Australia and Victoria, a member who nominates for Organiser shall not be entitled to nominate for Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(vi) No member shall nominate for both Trade Management Committee member in accordance with Rule 42 - Divisional Branch Management Committee, and Trade or Zone Councillor in accordance with Rule 40 - Supreme Governing Body.

Where a member nominates for both, the Returning Officer shall seek from the member an election as to which position the member wishes to contest.

Where no election is made by the member the Returning Officer shall treat as valid only the nomination for the Divisional Branch Council, being the supreme governing body of the Divisional Branch.

The scale of continuous financial membership of the Branch necessary for members to be qualified to nominate for the following positions, is as follows:

Divisional Branch Secretary Divisional Branch Secretary/Treasurer Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary Divisional Branch President Divisional Branch Senior Vice-President and Vice President Divisional Branch Delegate to Divisional Conference	3 years' continuous financial membership
Divisional Branch Management Committee Member District Secretary/Organiser Organiser Sub-Branch Secretary, President, Or Management Committee Member Divisional Branch Trustee (South Australia and Queensland Builders Labourers' Divisional Branches)	1 year's continuous financial membership

(b) The term of office for the above positions shall be four years and such term shall commence from the 2 January, following the election. In the event that a delay in the conduct of an election means that the results for an office are not declared until after 2 January, the successful candidate(s) shall take up office on the Monday immediately following the declaration of their election. In circumstances where the results for an office are declared after 2 January, the term of the candidate will be reduced by the length of the delay to ensure that there is no disruption to the next scheduled Divisional Branch election under these rules.

(b)(i) In the event that there is a delay of the kind described in rule 38(b), the incumbent will hold over office beyond 2 January and until their successor takes up office on the Monday immediately following the declaration of their election. Any action taken by the incumbent while holding over office shall not be invalidated merely because they have been held over in the position in accordance with these rules.

(c) Nominations for the above positions shall be called by the Returning Officer by notification in the union journal and the Divisional and relevant Divisional Branch website. Where a Divisional Branch printed journal is not scheduled for publication within two weeks of the opening of nominations then the website notification shall suffice. Alternatively, notice may be given to members by publication in one daily newspaper circulating in the Divisional Branch area on or before the last day of August in the year of the election.

Provided that such notifications shall clearly indicate that the Divisional Executive members, the full-time Divisional Officers, the National Conference delegates and the National Officers are elected by and from Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference and not otherwise.

(d) Nominations must be lodged with the Returning Officer before the close of nominations at the address and by the methods specified on the notice of election. Nomination forms shall be signed by the candidate and by at least ten (in the case of those offices in (a)(vi) above for which 3 years continuous financial membership is required) and five (in all other cases) financial members of the Divisional Branch.

(e) Nominations shall be closed at 4 pm on the second last Friday of September, 1996 and each four years thereafter following that date. Nominations must be received by the Returning Officer by that time on the date to be eligible.

A member having nominated for any office in accordance with this Rule may withdraw the nomination by notifying the Returning Officer in writing of an intention to do so at any time up to seven (7) days after the closing of nominations. The Returning Officer on receipt of a notification from a member wishing to withdraw a nomination shall immediately take the appropriate steps to withdraw the member's name from the ballot papers prior to their distribution.

(f) Candidates may include with their nomination form, a statement not exceeding 200 words and in respect of Divisional Branch Councillor 50 words, containing only the candidate's personal history and only the candidate's policy statement.

(g) The Returning Officer shall examine all nominations to ensure that they are in order and if any nominations are found to be defective, the Returning Officer, before rejecting the nominations, shall notify the person concerned of the defect and where practicable to do so give them the opportunity of remedying the defect within a period of not less than seven days after being so notified.

(h) If at the closing date for nominations only sufficient nominations have been received by the Returning Officer to fill any vacancy or vacancies the Returning Officer shall thereupon declare person or persons so nominating elected and supply forthwith a report of the declaration of the ballot to the Divisional Branch Management Committee and candidates by submitting a Returning Officers' report to the Divisional Branch Secretary.

(j) If all nominations are received and there are more nominations than there are vacancies the Returning Officer shall conduct a draw for positions on the ballot paper and shall notify candidates of the time and place of the draw in sufficient time for a candidate or his nominee to attend the draw; such attendance shall be at the candidate's own costs and expense.

(k) The Returning Officer shall forthwith have printed ballot papers in sufficient quantities to enable him to supply a ballot paper for each member eligible to vote in the election and secure a certificate from the printer as to the number printed.

(l) Such ballot papers shall have printed thereon only the title of the office to be filled, method of voting and the name of the candidates for such office and a space for the required vote to be registered, provided however that where more than one candidate is required to be elected the number to be elected shall, be printed on the ballot paper. The position of the names of each candidate on the ballot paper shall be in order of the draw of positions for that ballot.

(m) Where a ballot is required, the Divisional Branch Secretary shall provide, within one day of the closing of nominations, a certified list of financial members entitled to vote to the Returning Officer.

(n) The Returning Officer shall, on a date which will enable the ballot paper to be posted not later than fourteen clear days before the closing date of the ballot, send by registered post to each member eligible to vote in the election at their address appearing on the list of members eligible to vote supplied to the Returning Officer by the Divisional Branch Secretary the following documents/materials only: -

(i) a ballot paper initialled by the Returning Officer in respect of each office to be filled at the election for which the member is eligible to vote.

(ii) a declaration envelope in such form as is prescribed by Regulation 5 of the Workplace Relations (Registration and Accountability of Organisations) Regulations 2003.

(iii) a prepaid envelope in such form as is prescribed by Regulation 6 of the Workplace Relations (Registration and Accountability of Organisations) Regulations 2003.

(iv) such printed instructions necessary for the completion of each of the ballot papers enclosed and any other instructions that the Returning Officer may consider necessary.

(v) the candidates statement provided for in accordance with sub-rule (f) of this rule.

(vi) provided that the Returning Officer shall post to each member eligible to vote by pre-paid post all ballot papers. The ballot papers shall be posted to ensure eligible members receive them not less than 14 days before the closing of the ballot.

(o) All financial members as defined in this rule shall be entitled to vote for all positions. Provided that in respect of voting for councillors members shall only be entitled to vote to elect the Councillor or Councillors within their Trade District or if they are not a member of a trade district, for the councillors within the zone district that they are attached to.

The zone that a member is attached to for the purpose of this rule shall be the zone that the member resides in according to the Divisional Branch records which shall be based upon the last address supplied to the Divisional Branch by the member up to and including the last working day of September in the year of the election.

(p) For the purpose of the election, the books of the Divisional Branches shall be deemed to have closed eight (8) days before the date on which nominations open (the electoral roll closure date). Only members who are shown in the records at the office of the Divisional Branch as having paid all contributions, levies and fines as at the electoral roll closure date shall be entitled to vote.

(q) The opening date of the ballot shall be at the 12th day of November and the closing date shall be noon on the 26th day of November in each year in which the ballot is held. All ballot papers shall be returned to the Returning Officer, c/- the post office box named on the reply envelope. The post office box to which the ballot papers are returned shall be hired by the Returning Officer prior to the dispatch of the ballot papers or if a box has been previously used by the union, they shall cause the lock to be changed.

(r) The Returning Officer shall collect the returned ballot papers and keep them securely under their custody until the commencement of the count.

(s) The Returning Officer shall advise scrutineer/s of a secure space and location where the count shall occur. If the AEC is conducting the election, the counting of the ballot shall take place on AEC premises. If it is necessary to interrupt the count for any purpose the papers shall be sealed in the ballot box to which any seals may be fixed by a scrutineer.

(t) Any candidate at their own expense, may appoint a financial member of the union to act as their scrutineer by notification in writing to the Returning Officer. Any scrutineers so appointed may be present at any stage of the counting of the ballot provided that the Returning Officer is also present.

(u) (i) The Returning Officer shall proceed to count the ballot on the preferential system provided for in Rule 3, Definitions, and the candidate or candidates receiving the necessary votes shall be declared elected. The counting of the ballot shall be completed not later than the first day of December following the closing of the ballot.

(ii) In any election for trade and/or zone councillors of the Divisional Branch Council the method of counting shall be that the candidate receiving the highest number of votes amongst candidates from the same trade in respect to trade councillors and amongst candidates who are from the relevant classifications relating to the respective representatives of each zone in respect to zone councillors, shall be declared elected.

(iii) In any election for the Divisional Branch Council where there is no candidate to fill the trade position of Bridge & Wharf Carpenters or Tilelayers or Slater & Tilers, Plate, Sheet and Ornamental Glass Worker or Stonemason, Marble Mason, Terrazzo Workers or where there are insufficient candidates to fill all the positions in any zone, any such position shall be filled by an election held in accordance with the provision for casual vacancies contained in Rule 38 sub-rule (cc), of which election shall be held not earlier than 6 weeks and not later than 6 months following the declaration of the poll for the election of other Divisional Branch Councillors.

(iv) In any election for the Divisional Branch Management Committee where there is no candidate or insufficient candidates to fill the positions, any such position shall be filled by an election held in accordance with provisions for casual vacancies contained in Rule 38 sub-rule (cc), of which elections shall be held not earlier than 6 weeks and not later than 6 months following the declaration of the poll for the election of other Divisional Branch Management Committee Members.

(w) In the case of equality of votes for any 2 or more candidates the Returning Officer shall determine which of the candidates is elected by their casting vote by casting lots.

(y) The Returning Officer shall declare the successful candidates elected and notify the Divisional Branch Management Committee of the result of the ballot and the Divisional Branch Management Committee shall issue instructions for the publication of same in their minutes.

The officer shall also notify each successful candidate by post.

The Returning Officer's report to the Divisional Executive shall contain all relevant information including the number of ballot papers printed, the number posted, the number returned, the number unused, the number of votes received by each candidate, the names of those nominated for each office and their proposers.

(z) The successful candidates shall take up their respective duties not later than the 2nd day of January following the conclusion of the ballot, or otherwise in accordance with rule 38(b), and shall remain elected until their successors take up office.

(aa) Any accidental or unavoidable omission or error in the carrying out or observance of this rule shall not invalidate an election if such omission or error appears not to have affected the result of an election.

(bb) In any election the Returning Officer and any Scrutineer shall do all things necessary to preserve the secrecy of the ballot and shall conduct themselves in a sober, proper and impartial manner. Scrutineers shall, as far as practicable, be present at all stages of the ballot.

They shall obey any directions given to them by the Returning Officer. If any Scrutineers or Scrutineer are not present at any stage or stages of the ballot the Returning Officer may proceed nonetheless.

(cc) Where a casual vacancy occurs in any office under these rules as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason, such vacancy may be filled by appointment by the Divisional Branch Management Committee provided that the person so appointed shall hold office for as much of the unexpired part of the term of the office as does not exceed -

(1) 12 months or

(2) three quarters of the term of the office, whichever is the greater.

Where the unexpired part of the term of office exceeds that specified in these rules, the Returning Officer shall conduct an election in accordance with the rules, with any necessary modifications to fill the vacant position, the person elected shall hold office for the remaining term of office.

(dd) In the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch only, where a casual or extraordinary vacancy occurs in a Zone Delegate's position which has the effect of reducing the number of tradesperson or labourer delegates below the minimum number of tradesperson or labourer delegates for that zone, such vacancy shall be filled by a member with the same designated classification in accordance with sub-rule 30 (iii) as the Zone Delegate who previously held the position.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

39 – PLACE OF MEETING OF THE DIVISIONAL BRANCH

The place of meeting and office of the Divisional Branch shall be such place determined by the Divisional Branch Council.

40 – SUPREME GOVERNING BODY - DIVISIONAL BRANCH COUNCIL

(1) Subject to these Rules, the highest governing body of each Divisional Branch, shall be the Divisional Branch Council convened by the Divisional Branch Management Committee no less frequently than every two years.

Provided however that in the Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch the Divisional Branch Council shall meet not less than three times per year.

(2) (i) In New South Wales,

(a) The Divisional Branch Council shall, on and from 2 January, 2013, or the declaration of the election in 2012, whichever is the later, consist of the members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee together with zone councillors as provided by sub-rule (b) herein.

(b) The Divisional Branch Councillors in New South Wales shall include the following Zone Councillors;

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(b) A quorum for any meeting shall be a majority of the members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee who actually hold a position at the time of the commencement of the meeting or ten (10) members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee, whichever is the lesser.

(c) The Divisional Branch Management Committee shall meet at least once each month and, subject to a review of their actions by the Divisional Branch Council shall have the care, control, superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, funds and property of the Divisional Branch and shall have all the powers of the Divisional Branch Council including, without limiting, the power, subject to rule 16 hereof, to amend or add to the rules.

Meetings of the Divisional Branch Management Committee shall be held at such time and place as shall be decided by the Divisional Branch Secretary and the Divisional Branch President, subject to the provisions of these rules.

The Divisional Branch Secretary shall arrange for notice of meetings to be given to each Divisional Branch Management Committee member by letter or any electronic means or telephone or verbally, provided that in the latter two instances, such is confirmed by letter, facsimile or electronic means.

(d) The Committee shall carry out any duties which they have been directed to perform by the Divisional Branch Council under Rule 13.

(e) They shall be responsible for the control and supervision of all officers. They may delegate this responsibility in respect to nominated classes of officers to the Divisional Branch Secretary for the exercise of this responsibility on a daily basis in between meetings of the Divisional Branch Management Committee on a temporary or ongoing basis and upon any terms or conditions they see fit; provided that such delegation may be revoked at any time by a subsequent meeting of the Divisional Branch Management Committee. They shall also deal with the proposed Divisional Branch Council Agenda prepared by the Divisional Branch Secretary.

(f) They shall deal with applications for membership, claims for Tool and Funeral Benefit, also grants from Contingent Funds.

(g) They shall issue instructions for prosecution for recovery of arrears and fines of members if, after due consideration such prosecution is deemed warranted; also for breaches of legislation, Awards, agreements and all matters in connection with Worker's Compensation Act.

(h) They shall make provision for the registration of members for employment and issue instructions to the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary for the supervision of the engagement of labour.

(j) They shall be responsible for convening and conducting general meetings of the members, as provided for in the Rules.

(k) They shall be responsible for the calling of any meetings necessary for the proper administration of the Divisional Branch, including meetings of members or stewards.

(l) (i) They may impose penalties, including fines not exceeding the sum of $100.00 on Divisional Branch Officers, councillors, members, committee persons or delegates representing the Divisional Branch for knowingly refusing to comply with the Rules, or the decisions of Divisional Branch Council or the Divisional Branch Management Committee, or knowingly refusing to carry out the policy of the Divisional Branch, provided that the Rules, decisions of Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee are available to members in the minutes of the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee at the Divisional Branch Office.

(ii) They may suspend, expel or dismiss from office, divisional branch officers, divisional branch councillors, members, committee members or delegates representing the Divisional Branch for misappropriation of the funds of the Divisional Branch or for a substantial breach of the rules of the Divisional Branch or for gross misbehaviour or gross neglect of duty.

(m) Upon a petition being forwarded to the Divisional Branch Secretary, signed by 10% of the financial members, in respect of any district or any zone, except in the case of the Sydney zone where the petition must be signed by 5% of the financial members convene a special meeting of the membership, in that zone or trade district. The financial members, signing the petition must come from the zone or craft district for which a special meeting is being petitioned.

(n) They shall satisfy themselves as to the integrity of employers of juvenile labour based upon a report of job or shop stewards or full-time officials.

(o) They shall inform Apprenticeship Councils of the unsuitability of an employer to train apprentices.

(p) A special meeting of the Divisional Branch Management Committee may be called by the Divisional Branch President and shall be called by the Divisional Branch President if he is so requested by not less than 40% of the representatives on the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(q) They shall from among themselves elect a Divisional Branch Vice President and Divisional Branch Trustees such Divisional Branch Vice Presidents and Divisional Branch Trustees shall be elected for a 4 year term of office (or otherwise in accordance with rule 38(b)). Any member of the Divisional Branch Management Committee may nominate themselves for any such position by notice in writing to the Returning Officer. In any election the procedure to be followed shall be, the necessary changes being made, the procedure for the election of Divisional Executive in accordance with Construction and General Divisional Rule 9 which shall occur at the first meeting of the Divisional Branch Management Committee after the assumption of office of that Committee following the general elections.

(r) The Divisional Branch Management Committee shall have the power to appoint temporary organisers whenever this is considered necessary. They shall not, by virtue only by their appointment as temporary organisers, be Officers of the Branch nor shall they, by virtue only by their appointment as temporary organisers, exercise any function of management, but shall act as directed by the Divisional Branch Secretary. Such appointments are subject to satisfactory performance of their allocated duties. Except where the context otherwise necessitates, the term 'organiser' where used in these Rules shall not include temporary organisers.

The Divisional Branch Management Committee may, with the consent of a state registered counterpart union and an officer or employee thereof, by resolution, appoint the said officer and/or employee, or any one of them, as an employee of the Divisional Branch, and for that purpose reach agreement with the said officer/employee and the said state registered counterpart union as to how much, if any, of the wages of the person/s so appointed shall be contributed by the Divisional Branch.

In such case such an appointee shall:-

(i) be an employee of the Divisional Branch if and only if, and only to the extent that they are performing functions that are necessarily and expressly functions of the Divisional Branch and not the state registered counterpart union;

(ii) during that period, be subject to the direction and control of the governing bodies of the Divisional Branch in accordance with these rules, but only when acting in that capacity, and

(iii) be entitled to those rights conferred on employees of a registered organisation by the Workplace Relations Act 1996 or any successor legislation thereto.

(s) A loan, grant or donation of an amount exceeding $1,000 shall not be made by this Divisional Branch unless the Divisional Branch Management Committee -

(a) has satisfied itself -

(i) that the making of the loan, grant or donation would be in accordance with the rules of the Union; and

(ii) in relation to a loan - that, in the circumstances, the security proposed to be given for the repayment of the loan is adequate and the proposed arrangements for the repayment of the loan are satisfactory; and

(b) has approved the making of the loan, grant or donation.

(t) The Divisional Branch Management Committee, on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10% of the financial members of the Divisional Branch, shall convene a special Divisional Branch Council meeting or conduct a ballot of Divisional Branch Council in respect of any matter determined by the Divisional Branch Management Committee, to which members are objecting.

Such notice shall be posted to the members last known place of abode not less than five (5) days, or in the case of a member whose last known place of abode is situated more than 100 miles from the place where the charge is to be heard, not less than ten (10) days, before the date of such meeting.

At the appointed time and place the charge shall be investigated either by the District Committee or Divisional Branch Management Committee, whether or not the member shall be in attendance.

The decision of the Committee or Management Committee shall be binding on the member, subject to right of appeal. A member charged shall be given a reasonable opportunity to be heard in their defence and may if the member desires answer the charges in writing.

Any member making a charge which upon investigation proves to be false or frivolous shall be dealt with as the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee may decide.

54 – PAYMENT OF FINES

A member who is fined for any offence under these Rules shall pay such fine within 21 days following the date of the imposition of the fine. Should the fine not be paid, the amount due shall be added to the member's annual account.

55 – APPEALS OF MEMBERS

(a) Any member or members finding themselves aggrieved or having any complaint against the officers or members of the Union may make a written appeal to the District Committee for redress, who shall in the case of appeals on any matter that does not relate to the District management forward the appeal to the Divisional Branch Management Committee within one month.

(b) Any members dissatisfied with the decision of the District Committee may appeal to the Divisional Branch Management Committee within one month of the decision being given.

(c) Any member dissatisfied with the decision of the Divisional Branch Management Committee may appeal against the decision to the Divisional Branch Council within one (1) month after the hearing of his case by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(d) An appeal shall be in writing and shall be lodged with the Divisional Branch Secretary. The appeal shall set forth concisely the grounds on which it is based and the Divisional Branch Management Committee or Divisional Branch Council shall review the evidence taken at the original hearing of the charge, whereupon the Divisional Management Committee or Divisional Branch Council may confirm, annul or modify the penalty.

Should the appellant desire to appear in person before the Divisional Branch Management Committee or Divisional Branch Council the appellant member shall be afforded the opportunity to do so.

56 – DISTRICT COMMITTEES

(a) District Committees shall be on a trade or zone basis as provided for in the rules.

Both Zone and Trade District Committees shall be regarded as District Committees and shall be established in accordance with the Rules for the purpose of carrying out organisational work and to co-operate with the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee in the administration of the Divisional Branch.

(b) The Divisional Branch Council may make such by-laws as it sees fit, not inconsistent with the rules of the Union, for the effective operation of Districts and District Committees including to the extent thought necessary the election of District Officers, their duties, the finances thereof and any other matter pertaining thereto.

57 – SHOP STEWARDS/JOB DELEGATES

Shop stewards/job delegates may be appointed by the Divisional Branch Management Committee or appointed by the members in such shop or job. They shall receive proper credentials from the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(a) It shall be the duty of all shop stewards/job delegates to endeavour to enrol appropriate workers in their respective shops or jobs into the Union.

(b) They may receive contributions from members in such shops or jobs and issue a receipt from a receipt book provided by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(c) They shall be responsible for the payments of all monies received by them to the Divisional Branch fortnightly.

(d) They shall from time to time furnish written reports to the Divisional Branch Management Committee of the industrial conditions pertaining in such shop or job.

(e) Immediately on conclusion of his employment as a shop steward/job delegate shall return the receipt book to the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary and obtain an acknowledgement of same.

Shop stewards/job delegates shall return the receipt book for audit twice each year in the months of January and July, or when so required by the Divisional Branch Management Committee to the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary.

58 – VICTIMISATION

Should any District Secretary, Town Steward, Shop or Job Steward be victimised or reasonably supposed to be victimised for carrying out any duties of the Union, the Divisional Branch Management Committee shall take all necessary steps to see that his interests are protected.

59 – ALLOWANCES

The Divisional Branch Council may determine in any year the allowances, if any, to be paid to persons representing the Divisional Branch or attending meetings at the request of the Divisional Branch or for its purposes.

60 – TOOL BENEFIT

The Divisional Branch Council may establish a tool benefit for the compensation of members whose tools are lost by fire, theft or accident.

61 – FUNERAL BENEFIT

The Divisional Branch may pay out of its funds a funeral benefit to representatives of deceased members. The criteria for eligibility of the funeral benefit to be determined by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

62 – CONTINGENT FUND

If the Divisional Branch establishes a Contingent Fund, it may be used for the payment of contributions of members who have been financial members for a period of 12 months, and whose payments have not been met due to unemployment, sickness or other reasonable cause.

63 – RULES OF DIVISIONAL BRANCHES AND BY-LAWS

1. Any Divisional Branch may make By-Laws in furtherance of any of the rules contained herein or for the proper functioning of the Divisional Branch or for the proper functioning of any District or Divisional Sub-Branch thereof.

2. Such By-Laws shall be effective and binding on any member to which they would apply.

3. Such By-Laws shall not be inconsistent with any of the rules of the union and shall, to the extent of any inconsistency, be void, ineffective and inoperative.

64 – STANDING ORDERS AND RULES OF DEBATE – GENERAL MEETINGS

(a) Order of Business:

1. Opening of meeting.
2. Reading and adoption of minutes of previous meeting.
3. Admission of new members.
4. Election of Officers.
5. Divisional Branch Management Committee minutes.
6. Adjourned business.
7. Reading of Correspondence.
8. Auditor's Report.
9. Report of delegates.
10. Secretary's Cash Account.
11. New business.

(b) The first member who attracts the attention of the Divisional Branch President shall have precedence in speaking.

(c) Members addressing the meeting shall direct their speech to the Presiding Officer and remain standing while so doing.

(d) No discussion shall be permitted unless there is a motion before the meeting. Any such motion shall be duly proposed and seconded. Any number of amendments may be proposed and discussed simultaneously with the original motion.

(e) When a motion shall have been duly proposed and seconded, the Divisional Branch President shall proceed at once to take the votes thereon unless some member rises to oppose or to propose an amendment, but no amendment shall be in order unless notice is given to move the same before the proposer of the resolution has replied.

(f) No more than two members shall speak in succession on one side, either for or against any question before the meeting, and if at the conclusion of the second speaker's remarks no member rises to speak on the other side, the motion or amendment shall be put at once to the meeting.

(g) It shall be competent at any time during a debate for a member to move, without discussion, "That the question be now put," which, on being duly seconded and carried, shall necessitate the submission of the motion at once to the meeting after the mover has replied.

(h) In the event of a number of amendments being proposed and discussed the Divisional Branch President shall put them to the vote in the following order: The first amendment shall be voted on, if carried it becomes the motion. If defeated, the original motion stands. The second amendment is then voted on, if carried it becomes the motion. If defeated, the motion stands, that is, the original motion or the first amendment, if carried.

All subsequent amendments shall be dealt with in this order. After the vote on each succeeding amendment has been taken, the surviving proposition shall be put to the vote as the motion, and if carried, becomes a resolution of the meeting.

(i) No member shall be allowed to speak more than once on the motion, except strictly in explanation, excepting the mover of the original motion, who shall have the right of reply. The mover of the motion shall be allowed 10 minutes to move the motion and 5 minutes to reply. No other speaker shall occupy a longer period than 5 minutes.

The meeting may, however, grant an extension of time to any speaker. No further discussion shall take place nor shall questions be allowed after the mover has replied.

(j) A resolution may, during the meeting at which it was passed be recommitted on the affirmative vote of two-thirds of those present at such meeting. A resolution may be rescinded by the giving of one month's notice and a majority vote being cast at the meeting subsequent to the expiry of the month's notice.

(k) On any member rising to a point of order during discussion, the speaker shall sit down and such member on rising shall state the point of order when the Divisional Branch President shall rule thereon. Such ruling shall be final, provided that it is not disagreed with by a majority of those present.

(l) Questions of order shall be decided by the Chairman, whose ruling shall be final, unless it is challenged by a formal motion for that purpose.

(m) The Divisional Branch President or Chairman for the time being may speak only on questions in which the interests of the office they represent are directly involved. In the event of the Divisional Branch President or Chairman desiring to speak on any question they shall vacate the chair.

(n) Should any question have occupied the attention of the meeting for thirty (30) minutes, the discussion on such question shall be deemed to have closed, and the Divisional Branch President shall forthwith call on the mover to reply, unless the meeting decides by resolution (carried by a majority of the members present) to continue the discussion of the matter in question.

(o) At any meeting of the Divisional Branch any member entitled to be present may give notice of motion for a future meeting by (1) reading such notice to the meeting, or (2) handing a copy thereof to the Divisional Branch President. Such notice of motion shall take precedence in the order in which it stands in the minutes book in relation to other similar notices, unless otherwise ordered, and shall lapse if the member, or some member on their behalf, be not present when the order of the day for such notice is read.

No motion for the adjournment of the meeting shall be received while there is business before the Divisional Branch President.

MOVING DISSENT FROM CHAIRPERSON'S RULING

(p) Any member dissatisfied with the ruling of the Chairperson may move a motion of dissent as follows: "That the Chairperson's ruling be dissented from."

The motion shall then be put to the meeting by the Vice-Chairperson, without discussion, in the following manner. The question is, "That the Chairperson's ruling be upheld." Those in favour of upholding the Chairperson's ruling, say "Aye." Those against the Chairperson's ruling being upheld, say "No."

The mover only shall speak to the motion, except the Chairperson, who may explain the reasons for the ruling given.

The Vice-Chairperson shall not give a ruling on the question involved in the Chairperson's ruling.

The Vice-Chairperson's ruling shall only be dissented from by a direct appeal to the meeting, the question being put by the Vice-Chairperson without discussion.

(q) This Rule shall apply only to general meetings of members of the Divisional Branch and shall not apply to Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Committee of Management.

1. This Schedule provide for the amalgamation of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch and the South Australia Divisional Branch.

2. The rules in this Schedule operate on and from 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the divisional elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is later.

3. However, for the purpose of the Divisional Branch election scheduled for 2024, the offices to be elected are those prescribed by Rule 8 (Divisional Conference Delegates) and Rules 37, 38, 40, 42B and 42C (for officers of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch) as amended by this Schedule;

4. To avoid doubt, for the purpose of the Divisional Branch election scheduled for 2024, the persons holding office as at the date the rule changes are certified by the Fair Work Commission, including offices that are abolished as a result of these rule changes, will continue to hold those offices until 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the Divisional Branch elections in 2024, whichever is the later.

Amended Rules

5. In Rule 4, insert new sub-rule (viiA) as follows:

> (vii) Any person who, at the date this sub-rule takes effect, is a member of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch or the South Australia Branch shall be and become a member of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch and shall have the same financial membership status within that Divisional Branch as they did within their former Divisional Branch at the time of their transfer. Any outstanding membership contributions owing to the Victoria-Tasmania Branch or the South Australia Divisional Branch as at the date this rule takes effect, shall become an amount owing to the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australian Divisional Branch. The period of membership of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch is, for each person who becomes a member of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch under this subrule, the same as that held by such members within the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch of South Australia Divisional Branch, as the case may be.

6. In Rule 8(ii), in the fifth paragraph down, the words "The Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary of the South Australian Divisional Branch shall, by virtue of the holding of such office, be a member of the Divisional Conference." are deleted and replaced as follows:

> On and from 25 January 2025, or the declaration of the Divisional Branch elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is the later, the South Australia Sub-Branch Secretary and the South Australia Sub-Branch President shall, by virtue of the holding of such office, be a member of the Divisional Conference.

7. In Rule 8(iii), the existing sub-rule is retained and the following new paragraph is added immediately after the existing words:

> In the case of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Branch, the calculation will be performed separately for members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the South Australia Branch and members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the Victoria-Tasmania Branch. The number of delegates that the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Branch is entitled to elect will be the combined total of these calculations.

Only members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the South Australia Branch will be entitled to vote for any delegates to which the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Branch is entitled by reason of the calculation performed in respect of members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the South Australia Branch.

Only members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the Victoria-Tasmania Branch will be entitled to vote for any delegates to which the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Branch is entitled by reason of the calculation performed in respect of members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the Victoria-Tasmania Branch.

To avoid doubt, the entitlements under this sub-rule are in addition to any entitlement the South Australia Sub-Branch Secretary and/or South Australia Sub-Branch President may have to be a member of the Divisional Conference by operation of 8(ii) above.

8. In Rule 8(iv), the existing sub-rule is retained, and a new paragraph is added after the third paragraph\, so that the sub-rule reads:

(iv) For the purpose of this rule the formula which shall apply to determine the number of members of a Divisional Branch shall be to divide the amount of Divisional Branch income referred to in Rule 14 (i) received each of the three years prior to the elections by the amount of the annual contribution for that year. Those amounts to be totalled then divided by three to obtain the average number of members on which the Divisional Branch is entitled to elect delegates.

Provided that where the Divisional Branch has not existed for three (3) years the divisor shall be twice the number of half years up to a maximum of six (6) that the Divisional Branch has existed and the Divisional Branch income referred to shall be for the corresponding period.

Further provided that where a Divisional Branch has been the subject of changes in its structure or membership by virtue of a restructuring in whole or part, or an amalgamation, which restructuring or amalgamation has occurred less than three years prior to the elections referred to in the first paragraph of this sub-rule, the Divisional Branch shall be treated, for the purposes of this sub-rule, as if it came into existence on the last such change in structure or amalgamation, and the calculation shall be made in accordance with the immediately preceding proviso.

Notwithstanding anything else in this sub-rule, in the case of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, the calculation shall be performed in accordance with paragraph 1 of this rule, as though the South Australia Divisional Branch and the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch continued to exist as separate Divisional Branches.

The Divisional Secretary and the Divisional Assistant Secretary/s shall have the same voting and other rights as other delegates to the Conference.

The existing elected officers of the Divisional Executive shall remain in office until the election of their successors.

9. In Rule 8(vii), the words "Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch" are replaced with "Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch" wherever they appear so that the sub-rule reads as follows:

(vii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding sub-rules, in the case of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch the Divisional Branch Secretary and the two Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries shall, by virtue of being elected or otherwise holding such offices, automatically be among the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference. These ex-officio positions shall occupy the first three of the allocated number of delegates for the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch calculated in accordance with sub-rule (iii) hereof.

10. In Rule 9.1A, the existing sub-rule is retained and the following words are added at the end of the first paragraph:

On and from 2 January 2025, or the declaration of the Divisional Branch elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is the later, the South Australia Sub-Branch Secretary shall, by virtue of the holding of such office, be a member of the Divisional Executive.

11. In Rule 9, sub-rule 15(l)(iii), the existing sub-rule is retained and a new section is added so that the rule as amended reads:

(iii) Where a card vote is requested in accordance with (ii) above, each member of the Divisional Executive shall be entitled to exercise one vote provided however that any Divisional Branch Secretary shall be entitled to exercise additional ordinary votes based on the principle of one additional ordinary vote for each 2000 members or part thereof over and above the first 2000 members of the Divisional Branch from which the Divisional Branch Secretary derives.

Provided that, in the case of Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, the calculation shall be performed separately for members of the Division who reside or are employed in in South Australia, and members of the Division who reside or are employed in Victoria and Tasmania and:

(A) any additional ordinary votes which the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Secretary is entitled to exercise by reason of the calculation performed in respect of members who reside or are employed in Victoria or Tasmania will be exercised by the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Secretary; and

(B) any additional ordinary votes which the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Secretary is entitled to exercise by reason of the calculation performed in respect of members who reside or are employed in South Australia will be exercised by the South Australia Sub-Branch Secretary who will not, for the purposes of this rule, be entitled to exercise the vote to which he would otherwise be entitled by operation of this rule.

12. In Rule 18, delete sub-rule (b) and replace as follows:

(i) Subject to rule (iii) below, from 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the divisional elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is later, in Victoria, Tasmania and South Australia, the Divisional branch shall be known as the Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

(ii) Further:

(A) In the State of Tasmania there shall be a sub-branch of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch which will be known as the Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, Tasmania Sub-Branch; and

(B) In the State of South Australia there shall be a sub-branch of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch which will be known as the Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, South Australia Sub-Branch.

(iii) From 2 January 2029 or the declaration of the divisional elections scheduled to be held in 2028, whichever is the later, the South Australia Divisional Branch shall be re-established as a separate Divisional branch unless the Divisional Executive determines otherwise.

(iv) The Construction and General Divisional Branch Secretary must do all things reasonably necessary to give effect to rule (iii) above including, if necessary, by doing all things reasonably necessary to amend these rules to give effect to the re-establishment of the South Australia Divisional Branch (unless the Divisional Executive has, pursuant to (iii) above, determined otherwise).

13. In Rule 28, sub-rule (b) is amended to delete the ", and", add the words "and South Australia" after the word "Victoria" and append "-South Australia" to the word "Tasmania", so that the sub-rule reads as follows:

(b) In Tasmania, Victoria and South Australia, "The Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch".

14. In Rule 29, insert a new third para as follows:

Further provided that notwithstanding the provisions of any other rule, all persons who are members of or apply for membership of the Division, who are residing or employed in Victoria, Tasmania or South Australia shall, on and from the date of certification of this rule, be and remain members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

15. In Rule 30(i)(b), add the following paragraph, after the first paragraph in sub-rule 30(b):

From 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the divisional elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is later, the South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee may deal with membership applications for prospective members who reside or are employed in the State of South Australia on behalf of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

16. In Rule 30, sub-rule (iii) is amended to replace "Victoria-Tasmania" with "Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia" wherever it appears, including in the sub-heading. Sub-rule (iii)(a) is amended to add the words "who resides or works in either the State of Victoria or the State of Tasmania" after the words "each member". The amended sub-rule reads:

(iii) Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch

(a) The record of members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall classify each member who resides or works in either the State of Victoria or the State of Tasmania into one or other of the following classifications:-

(i) carpenter;
(ii) labourer;
(iii) stonemason;
(iv) tilelayer;
(v) painter;
(vi) signwriter;
(vii) bricklayer
(viii) solid plasterer
(ix) roof-tiler
(xx) fibrous plasterer/fibrous plaster industry worker
(xxi) crane operations
(xxii) rigger/dogman
(xxiii) plant and machine operations
(xxiv) boiler attendant/engine driver
(xxv) production worker (metal)
(xxvi) concrete pump operations
(xxvii) forklift/hoist operations
(xxviii) driller

which shall be known as the member's designated classification.

(b) A person applying for membership shall on the membership application form, state which one of the classifications set out in paragraph (a) the applicant for membership considers to be his or her appropriate classification.

(c) In dealing with applications for membership the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall determine each new member's designated classification.

(d) The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee may at any time change a member's designated classification provided that the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall not change a member's designated classification unless -

(i) the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee has received from the member a request in writing for a change to the member's designated classification setting out the reasons for the request; or

(ii) the member has been given a reasonable opportunity by the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee to state in writing the reasons why he or she should retain his or her designated classification or have a different designated classification.

As soon as practicable after the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee changes a member's designated classification in accordance with this paragraph the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall cause the member to be notified in writing and alter the record of members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch accordingly.

(e) The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall determine the designated classification of an applicant for membership in accordance with paragraph (d) or a change to an existing member's designated classification in accordance with paragraph (e) by reference to:-

(i) the trade or other qualifications held by the applicant for membership or existing member;

(ii) the award classification of the applicant for membership or existing member, or his or her last award classification; and

(iii) the work performed by the applicant for membership or existing member, or the last work performed by him or her.

(f) Where the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee considers that it does not have sufficient information available to determine the designated classification of an applicant for membership or to change an existing member's designated classification it shall request that the member provide such further information as the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee considers appropriate.

(g) The designated classification of each member determined in accordance with this sub-rule:

(i) shall be solely for the purpose of determining the eligibility of each member to nominate for election to any office within the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch where election to such office is dependent upon the member falling into one or other of the classifications set out in paragraph (a) hereof;

(ii) shall be conclusive; and

(iii) shall bind the Divisional Branch Returning Officer.

(h) For the purposes of determining length of membership of the Divisional Branch in rule 38(a) herein, previous financial membership of the VSBTU (PIWD) shall, where such member has obtained a clearance from the VSBTU in accordance with rule 9 of the National Rules of the CFMEU, count as financial membership of the Victorian Building Unions Divisional Branch.

17. [Deleted]

18. In Rule 37(v), sub-rule (b) is deleted and replaced with the following:

(b) On and from 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the divisional branch election in 2024, whichever is later, the officers of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall be the Divisional Branch President, a Divisional Branch Vice-President (which position shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Secretary, two (2) Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, a Divisional Branch Senior Vice-President (which shall be a paid, full-time position), the members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee, the members of the Divisional Branch Tasmania Sub-Branch Management Committee referred to in Rule 42B herein the members of the Divisional Branch South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee referred to in Rule 42C herein, Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference, and such number of Organisers as may be decided by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

19. In Rule 37(vi), the sub-rule is deleted, and reads as follows:

(vi) Deleted.

20. In Rule 38, sub-rule (a)(v) is amended as follows:

(v) Except in the Divisional Branches in the Australian Capital Territory, Queensland, and Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia, a member who nominates for Organiser shall not be entitled to nominate for Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee.

21. In Rule 38(dd), the sub-rule is amended to append "-South Australia" to the word "Tasmania" so that the sub-rule reads:

(dd) In the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch only, where a casual or extraordinary vacancy occurs in a Zone Delegate's position which has the effect of reducing the number of tradesperson or labourer delegates below the minimum number of tradesperson or labourer delegates for that zone, such vacancy shall be filled by a member with the same designated classification in accordance with sub-rule 30 (iii) as the Zone Delegate who previously held the position.

22. In Rule 40(2)(v)(a), the sub-rule is amended so that it reads:

(v)(a) The members of the Divisional Branch Council of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall consist of the members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee, the members of the Tasmania Sub-Branch Management Committee referred to in Rule 42B and the members of the South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee referred to in Rule 42C and Zone Delegates elected in accordance with the following:

23. In Rule 40(2)(vi), the sub-rule is deleted, and reads as follows:

(vi) Deleted.

24. In Rule 42, sub-rule (a)(v) is amended append the words "-South Australia" to the word "Tasmania", so that the sub-rule reads:

(v) The members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President, Divisional Branch Secretary, two (2) Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, the Divisional Branch Senior Vice-President, the Divisional Branch Vice-President, the Sub-Branch Secretary and Sub-Branch President referred to in Rule 42B(b) herein and 23 others consisting of 6 carpenters, 6 builders labourers, 2 painters/signwriters, 1 fibrous plasterer/fibrous plaster industry member, 6 others elected from the classifications of crane operations, rigger/dogman, plant and machine operators, boiler attendant/engine driver, production worker (metal), concrete pump operations, forklift operations, hoist operations and drilling/piling, and 2 other members elected from bricklayers, roof-tilers, stone masons, wall and floor tilers and solid plasterers, provided that at least one of whom shall be a bricklayer.

25. In Rule 42(a)(vi), the sub-rule is deleted, and reads as follows:

(vi) Deleted.

26. In Rule 42A, the heading and sub-rule (i) are amended as follows:

42A – DIVISIONAL BRANCH EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE (VICTORIA-TASMANIA-SOUTH AUSTRALIA)

(i) The Divisional Branch Executive Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President, the Divisional Branch Senior Vice-President, the Divisional Branch Vice-President, the Divisional Branch Secretary and the two Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries.

27. In Rule 42B, sub-rules (a), (b), (c) and (d) are amended so that "-South Australia" is appended to the word "Tasmania" in each place "Tasmania" appears; so that the sub-rules reads:

42B – TASMANIA SUB-BRANCH MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE (VICTORIA-TASMANIA-SOUTH AUSTRALIA DIVISIONAL BRANCH)

(a) There shall be a Tasmania Sub-Branch Management Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Sub-Branch.

(b) The Tasmania Sub-Branch Management Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall consist of the Sub-Branch Secretary, the Sub-Branch President and six (6) other persons all of whom shall be elected by and from members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch who are residing or employed in the State of Tasmania.

(c) The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Council and Divisional Branch Management Committee shall have the care, control superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business and funds and property of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

(d) Provided however that the Sub-Branch Management Committee shall have the power to make recommendations to the Divisional Branch Council and Divisional Branch Management Committee in respect of the administration, or matters affecting the interests of, the Divisional Branch in the State of Tasmania only.

27A. New Rule 42C is inserted as follows:

42C – SOUTH AUSTRALIA SUB-BRANCH MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

(a) On and from 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the divisional branch elections scheduled for 2024, whichever is the later, there shall be a South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

(b) Members of the South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall consist of the Sub-Branch Secretary, the Sub-Branch President and six (6) other persons all of whom shall be elected by and from members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch who are residing or employed in the State of South Australia.

(c) The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Council and Divisional Branch Management Committee shall have the care, control superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business and funds and property of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

(d) The South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee shall have the power to make recommendations to the Divisional Branch Council and Divisional Branch Management Committee in respect of the administration, or matters affecting the interests of, the Divisional Branch in the State of Tasmania only.

(e) The Secretary of the South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee shall have such duties and powers as are determined by the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time, along with any duties delegated under Rule 46(l).

28. In rule 43(b), sub-rule (ii) is amended to append "-South Australia" to the word "Tasmania" so that the sub-rule reads:

(ii) In the New South Wales Divisional Branch and the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, the Divisional Branch President shall be employed in a full-time capacity.

29. In rule 44, sub-rule (i) is deleted, so that the sub-rule reads:

(i) [Deleted].

30. In rule 44, sub-rule (ii) is deleted, so that the sub-rule reads:

(ii) [Deleted].

31. In rule 44, sub-rule (iii) is amended to append "-South Australia" to the word "Tasmania" in each place in which it appears so that the rules read:

(iii) In Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia the Divisional Branch Vice-Presidents shall have such duties and responsibilities as may be determined from time to time by the Divisional Branch Council or the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

32. In rule 45, sub-rule (a) is amended to delete the words "Except in the case of the South Australia Divisional Branch the" and insert in their place "The"; and sub-rule (b) is deleted, so that rule 45 reads:

(a) The Divisional Branch Management Committee shall elect from among themselves, three trustees. The election shall be conducted in accordance with Rule 42(q). Provided however that there shall be no trustees in the New South Wales Divisional Branch.

On a written authority signed by the Divisional Branch President and the Divisional Branch Secretary any two of the three Divisional Branch Trustees shall sign cheques for such sums as may be voted by the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee in accordance with these Rules. Such cheques to be counter signed by the designated Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary. The designated Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary will be determined by the State Management Committee or equivalent body.

In the New South Wales Divisional Branch either the Divisional Branch Secretary and the Divisional Branch President, or the Divisional Branch Secretary or the Divisional Branch President and such other person as is nominated by the Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time, shall sign cheques for such sums as may be authorised in accordance with these rules. Provided however that the nomination referred to herein may be on such terms as determined by the Divisional Branch Management Committee and may be revoked at any time. Further provided that all expenditure of the Divisional Branch shall be placed before the Divisional Branch Management Committee for consideration and ratification.

33. In rule 46, new sub-rule (l) is inserted as follows:

(l) The Divisional Branch Secretary of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall have the power to delegate to the Secretary of the South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee, some or all of the duties of the Divisional Branch Secretary in connection with, and only in connection with, members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch residing or working in South Australia. A delegation under this sub-rule may be revoked by the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch at any time.

34. In rule 48A, sub-rule (a) is deleted, so that the sub-rule reads:

(a) [Deleted].

35. In rule 48B, the heading is amended to append "-SOUTH AUSTRALIA" to the word "TASMANIA" and in sub-rule 1 "-South Australia" is appended to the word "Tasmania" so that the heading and sub-rule 1 read as follows:

48B – DUTIES OF DIVISIONAL BRANCH SENIOR VICE-PRESIDENT (VICTORIA-TASMANIA-SOUTH AUSTRALIA)

(1) This rule applies only in relation to the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

36. In rule 48C, sub-rule (1) is amended to append "-South Australia" to the word "Tasmania" so that the sub-rule reads:

(1) This rule applies only in relation to the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

37. In rule 69, sub-rule (ii), "-South Australia" is appended to the word "Tasmania" in the sub-heading and in sub-rule (ii)(a), so that the heading and subrule (ii)(a) read:

(ii) Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia - Divisional Branch Meetings

(a) Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch meetings shall be held on the first Thursday in each month or as the Divisional Branch Management Committee may from time to time determine. Meeting shall be held at 540 Elizabeth Street, Melbourne, or at such places as may be decided from time to time by the Divisional Branch Meeting or the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

38. In rule 69 sub-rule (iii), the sub-heading is amended so that "Divisional Branch" is deleted and replaced with "Sub-Branch". Sub-rules (iii)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) are amended so that "Divisional Branch" is replaced with "Sub-Branch" in each place in which it appears. Sub-rule (g) is deleted and replaced with "The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall have regard to decisions of the Sub-Branch meetings of members".

(iii) South Australia - Sub-Branch Meetings

(a) Sub-Branch meetings shall be held on the last Wednesday of each month or as the Sub-Branch Management Committee may from time to time determine. Meetings shall be held at 1/32 South Terrace, Adelaide, SA or at such places as may be decided by the Sub-Branch Management Committee.

(b) The Sub-Branch Management Committee shall, when deemed necessary, have power to call a special meeting, for any time at any place. The Sub-Branch President and Sub-Branch Secretary shall convene a special general meeting of the Sub-Branch members at the written request of 25 financial members.

(c) Not less than ten financial members of the Sub-Branch, not including members of the Sub-Branch Management Committee, shall constitute a quorum for any meeting of the Sub-Branch, otherwise the meeting shall lapse.

(d) Notice of any variations to the usual time or venue of Sub-Branch meetings or of any special meeting of the Sub-Branch shall be given in the Sub-Branch journal and/or local newspaper at least two (2) days prior to the time of the meetings.

(e) Sub-Branch meetings shall not commence earlier than 5.00pm nor continue later than 7.00 pm unless a motion to extend the time be agreed to by a majority of members present.

(f) The Sub-Branch meetings shall be conducted in accordance with the standing orders and rules of debate prescribed in these rules.

(g) The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall have regard to decisions of the Sub-Branch meetings of members.

CONSTRUCTION AND GENERAL DIVISION RULES

1 – NAME

The name of the Division shall be "the Construction and General Division".

2 – ELIGIBILITY FOR DIVISION

Every member who is a member of the union by virtue of Rule 2 Sub-rules (A), (B), (D), (DA) and (N) of the National Rules shall belong to this Division.

Further, every member who is a member of the Union by virtue of Rule 2 sub-rule (E) of the National Rules, shall also be eligible for membership of this Division.

3 – DEFINITIONS

Unless the context otherwise indicates, in these Rules:

"BRANCH" shall mean a Branch of the Union set up in accordance with the rules of the Union.

“commencement day” means the date provided by rule 69(iB)(c)

"CONSTRUCTION AND GENERAL DIVISIONAL BRANCH" or "DIVISIONAL BRANCH" shall mean a branch of this division established in accordance with these rules.

"FINANCIAL MEMBER" shall mean any member who has paid all subscriptions, fines, levies and dues in accordance with the rules of the Union and in relation to Construction and General Division is a member of this Division.

"MEMBER" shall mean a member of Construction and General Division and membership shall have a corresponding meaning.

"MEMBERSHIP YEAR" shall, for the purpose of Divisional Rule 19 herein, mean the period encompassing the two consecutive six month periods to which membership contributions are ordinarily attributable (i.e. 1 April to 30 September and 1 October to 31 March).

"C.O.M." (Committee of Management) or "Executive" shall be synonymous and shall mean in relation to a divisional branch the controlling and administrative body of such Divisional Branch.

"PREFERENTIAL VOTING" shall mean a system of voting in which the voter shall place the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom the member votes as first preference and shall place the number 2, 3, 4 (and so on, as the case requires) in the squares opposite the names of all the remaining candidates so as to indicate the order of the members preference for them.

In a ballot by the preferential system the valid ballot papers shall be separated into separate parcels, each such parcel containing all those papers on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate.

If on the first count a candidate receives an absolute majority of first preference votes of total valid votes cast the candidate shall be declared elected.

If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the candidate with the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded and the ballot papers on which a first preference is indicated for such candidate shall be counted to the remaining candidates next in the voters' order of preference.

If a candidate has then an absolute majority of votes he shall be elected, but if no candidate then has a majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and the distribution of the voters' preferences shall continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.

In cases where more than one position is to be filled the numbers placed opposite the candidates' names up to the number of positions to be filled shall be first preference votes and the procedure in respect to the distribution of preferences shall be the same as is above prescribed where a ballot is for a single position.

The candidate or candidates as the case may be, who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

"QBLDB" means the Queensland Builders Labourers Divisional Branch.

"QNTDB" means the Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch.

"UNFINANCIAL DIVISIONAL BRANCH" shall mean a Branch of the Division that has more than two of the monthly capitation payments or part thereof outstanding to the Divisional Office as at the relevant date applicable in the rule where that expression is used in these Rules.

4 – MEMBERSHIP

(i) A candidate for membership of the Division may make application to the Divisional Branch covering the area in which he or she resides or is employed, and such application shall be made and dealt with in the manner and subject to the conditions including conditions as to any probationary period required by the rules of the Divisional Branch to which it is made. Notwithstanding anything herein prescribed Divisional Branch rules may provide other methods of applying for membership.

(ii) (a) Candidates shall supply such information as to their identity and occupation, and such other particulars as to their eligibility for membership and the benefits of membership as the Divisional Branch may require, and shall, when requested, fill in and sign such application form as may be provided.

(b) The application form referred to above may be the form previously used by any union which has amalgamated to form this Union.

(iii) The Divisional Branch Secretary or other officer authorised under these or any other rules may refer any application for membership to the Divisional Executive for consideration or decision. Where in any case the admission to membership of any person applying is rejected such person shall have the right to appeal to the Divisional Executive the decision of which shall be final.

(iv) A member shall be deemed to be attached to the Divisional Branch covering the locality in which he resides, or, in the case of members employed in an industry for which a Divisional Branch has been established, then to such Divisional Branch. Where there is not a Divisional Branch covering the locality in which a member resides or the industry in which the member is employed, the member shall be attached to such Divisional Branch in either this Division or any other Division as the Divisional Executive of this Division may direct.

(vi) [Deleted]

(vii) [Deleted]

Note: On and from 25 January 2025, or the declaration of the Divisional Branch elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is the later, this rule is affected by operation of Schedule 1.

(viii) [Deleted]

5 – ENTRANCE FEES

Applicants for membership of Construction and General Division shall pay on application an entrance fee in accordance with Divisional Branch rules.

6 – CONTRIBUTIONS

1. The annual contribution payable by each member shall be fixed by the Divisional Executive on the basis that such contribution shall be no less than 1% of the carpenter base rate in the Building and Construction General On-Site Award 2020 or any award of the Fair Work Commission or any successor Commonwealth Tribunal replacing same, multiplied by 52, provided that the Divisional Executive may fix some other rate.

   For the purposes of the immediately preceding sentence and Rule 32(b) herein, base rate shall mean the sum of the award base rate, supplementary payment and arbitrated safety net adjustments as determined by the relevant industrial body or tribunal.

2. Any member who has failed to pay the entrance fee, all contributions, levies and fines imposed in accordance with these or the Divisional Branch rules on or before the date specified in the Divisional Branch rules, shall, subject to any deferral under Rule 32(j) herein, be deemed to be unfinancial, and shall not be eligible, provided that Divisional Branch rules may provide that such members or some class or classes of such members may vote in a ballot, to receive any benefits, participate in any deliberations, propose or second any new applicant member for admission, or exercise any authority or any membership rights.

   A member shall be deemed to be financial immediately upon payment of all arrears outstanding. Divisional Branch rules may provide that unfinancial members shall not be entitled to funeral, accident or any other benefits or to exercise any of the rights of members under Divisional Branch rules.

7 – SPECIAL MEMBERS

1. The Divisional Executive or the Divisional Branch Executive may fix a special or different rate of contribution and/or entrance fee for any class of members and any member within that class shall, on compliance with those conditions and subject to any rule, other than rules 5, 6 and/or 32(b), be entitled to all the benefits of membership.

8 – SUPREME GOVERNING BODY IN DIVISION

(i) The supreme governing body of the Division shall be the Divisional Conference.

(ii) The Divisional Conference shall consist of delegates including full time Divisional Officers elected as delegates. Provided that Divisional Branch Secretaries by virtue of being elected as such shall automatically be the Divisional Branch delegate or one of the Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference.

Provided further that existing elected officers of the Divisional Executive who are retiring from office and who have not been re-elected as delegates to Divisional Conference shall be entitled to attend the Divisional Conference which elects their successors and shall be entitled to all rights of a Conference delegate other than nominating and voting on any matter. Further provided that, if not otherwise a delegate to Divisional Conference by virtue of this sub-clause, members of the Divisional Executive shall, ipso facto, be delegates to the Divisional Conference and treated, in all respects, as delegates in the same way as any other member of the Divisional Executive.

Provided that any Delegate to the Divisional Conference from a Divisional Branch that has more than two of the monthly capitation payments or part thereof and/or interest thereon for which the Divisional Branch is liable under sub-rule 14(i) outstanding to the Divisional Office as at the date of any meeting of the Divisional Conference, shall not be entitled to attend any Divisional Conference (unless at the express invitation of one of the Divisional Officers), and in any event, shall not be entitled to move, amend or vote at any such meeting.

Any Assistant Divisional Branch Secretary designated for Painters shall be delegates to the Divisional Conference.

The Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary of the South Australian Divisional Branch shall, by virtue of the holding of such office, be a member of the Divisional Conference.

After 2 January 1997 the Assistant Secretary (Plasterers) of each Divisional Branch which has such a position shall by virtue of that office be a delegate to Divisional Conference.

Provided that if at any time there is no longer an office of Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary (Plasterer) in the Australian Capital Territory Divisional Branch, either of the following as determined by the ACT Branch Committee of Management at least three (3) months prior to the opening of nominations as prescribed by r.38 of these Rules, shall be a delegate to Divisional Conference:

- the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary; or
- a delegate to be elected at the divisional branch elections as prescribed by r.38 of these rules.

For the avoidance of doubt, on and from the date of certification of this sub-rule, any casual vacancy occurring in the relevant National Conference Delegate position as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason shall be filled either ex officio or via an election under Divisional Rule 38(cc) at the discretion of the ACT Branch Committee of Management.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(iii) Except as provided for in sub-clause (vi) and in sub-rule (viA), for the Divisional Branch elections scheduled for 2024 and onwards, Divisional Branches shall be entitled to elect, including the Divisional Branch Secretary, one delegate for the first one (1) thousand members or part thereof and one delegate for each succeeding one (1) thousand members or part thereof.

In addition, each Divisional Branch shall be entitled to elect one (1) additional delegate who must be a woman.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(iv) For the purpose of this Rule the formula which shall apply to determine the number of members of a Divisional Branch shall be to divide the amount of Divisional Branch income referred to in Rule 14 (i) received each of the three years prior to the elections by the amount of the annual contribution for that year. Those amounts to be totalled then divided by three to obtain the average number of members on which the Divisional Branch is entitled to elect delegates.

Provided that where the Divisional Branch has not existed for three (3) years the divisor shall be twice the number of half years up to a maximum of six (6) that the Divisional Branch has existed and the Divisional Branch income referred to shall be for the corresponding period.

Further provided that where a Divisional Branch has been the subject of changes in its structure or membership by virtue of a restructuring in whole or part, or an amalgamation, which restructuring or amalgamation has occurred less than three years prior to the elections referred to in the first paragraph of this sub-rule, the Divisional Branch shall be treated, for the purposes of this sub-rule, as if it came into existence on the last such change in structure or amalgamation, and the calculation shall be made in accordance with the immediately preceding proviso.

The Divisional Secretary and the Divisional Assistant Secretary/s shall have the same voting and other rights as other delegates to the Conference.

The existing elected officers of the Divisional Executive shall remain in office until the election of their successors.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(v) Should any delegate die or resign or otherwise cease to be a delegate, or for any other reason a Divisional Conference delegate's position is not filled, thus causing an extraordinary vacancy, the Divisional Branch Executive of the Divisional Branch of which the member is a delegate may forthwith cause an election for another member or where the unexpired part of the term of that vacant or unfilled office does not exceed three quarters of the term of office the Divisional Branch Executive may appoint another member to be the delegate of the Divisional Branch in place of the delegate who is deceased or has resigned or otherwise ceased to be a delegate or to fill the otherwise vacant position. Provided such delegate so elected shall hold office only for the residue of the term of the predecessor.

(vi) Divisional Branches, may where elected delegates to Divisional Conference agree, arrange multiple voting representation at a Divisional Conference by notifying the Divisional Secretary prior to the beginning of the Divisional Conference of the number of delegates to be credentialled and of the arrangements for proxy voting to be adopted by that/those delegate/s to Divisional Conference.

Where a delegate is unable to attend a meeting of the Divisional Conference or any part thereof that delegate may appoint another elected delegate to Divisional Conference from the same Divisional Branch as proxy to act in his stead. Where a delegate is the only representative of a Divisional Branch and is to be absent from Divisional Conference the delegate may appoint an elected delegate from another Divisional Branch of this Division, or any other Divisional Conference member as the delegate's proxy.

(viA) There shall be a Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch (Northern Territory) delegate to Divisional Conference.

(vii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding sub-rules, in the case of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch the Divisional Branch Secretary and the two Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries shall, by virtue of being elected or otherwise holding such offices, automatically be among the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference. These ex-officio positions shall occupy the first three of the allocated number of delegates for the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch calculated in accordance with sub-rule (iii) hereof.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(viiA) [Deleted]

(viii) The method of calling nominations and the election of Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall be under the provisions of Rule 17 of the National Rules.

Full time Divisional Officers, (Divisional Secretary, Divisional Assistant Secretaries) and Divisional President and full-time National Officers, may nominate in such elections, either in the Divisional Branch first elected from, or another Divisional Branch provided that each Divisional Officer shall notify his/her intentions in writing to the Divisional Branch Secretary concerned prior to the date of calling for nominations in such elections.

Provided further that the number of Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall, in relation to any Divisional Branch in which an officer or officers referred to in the immediately preceding subparagraph nominates, be increased by the number of such officers nominating in that Divisional Branch.

(x) Unless otherwise determined by the Divisional Executive, the Divisional Executive shall meet the cost of an economy plane fare for delegates and Divisional Officers attending Divisional Conference. All other expenses for delegates other than full time Divisional Officers shall be met by the Divisional Branches concerned.

(xi) The Divisional Conference shall have power:

(a) To take such steps, subject to the rules of the Union, as it shall think fit to carry out all or any of the objects of the Union as they relate to the Division and to raise or spend such funds as are necessary to carry out the objects.

(b) To decide the general policy of the Division and to take steps to enforce the carrying out of such policy.

(c) Subject to any other rule to impose penalties, (i.e. fines not exceeding the sum of twenty dollars, suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office), on officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates of the Division, for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules of the Union or decisions of the Divisional Conference, Divisional Executive or any Divisional Branch relevant to such person.

Provided that a copy of the rules, the decisions of Divisional Conference, Divisional Executive or relevant Divisional Branch are available to members at each Divisional Branch office.

No penalty shall be imposed unless -

(i) The officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting at least seven (7) days prior to the meeting;

(ii) Particulars are given in the summons of the offence alleged, including the time and place it is alleged the offence was committed;

(iii) He/she is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in their own defence, including an opportunity to cross-examine and to give and call evidence.

Period of suspension imposed under this rule shall not exceed six (6) months.

(d) To hear and decide any appeal from a Divisional Branch on an issue concerned solely with a matter affecting this Division, from a Divisional Branch or Sub-Branch or member. Any appeal from a member must be forwarded through the Divisional Branch Committee.

Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard. Provided that in the case of an appeal from a Branch of the Union, the Branch shall have the right to appeal any decision of the Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive to the National Executive.

(e) To settle disputes between Divisional Branches. Any Divisional Branch concerned shall be given reasonable notice of the meeting and an opportunity of being heard before any settlement is effected.

(f) To deal with and decide any matter submitted to it by any Divisional Branch of the Division.

(g) To confirm, over-rule or otherwise deal with decisions of the Divisional Executive or Divisional Branches of this Division.

(h) To establish Divisional Branches of the Division and subject to Rule 11 to close any Divisional Branch and deal with any Divisional Branch in a like manner as the Divisional Executive may.

(j) To hear and decide any appeal from the Divisional Executive. Reasonable notice of the time of the place of the hearing of such appeal shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard and/or placing submissions before the Divisional Conference.

(k) To make, alter and rescind rules of this Division or any Divisional Branch of this Division

(xii) A Divisional Conference shall be held biennially at such place and time as the Divisional Executive shall decide.

(xiii) The business to be dealt with by Divisional Conference shall be shown on the agenda paper, but matters may be added to the agenda paper if agreed to by the Divisional Conference in session. Any matter appearing on the agenda paper may be amended by Divisional Conference.

(xiv) Notice of every Divisional Conference, together with a copy of the agenda paper, shall be posted by the Divisional Secretary to each Divisional Branch Secretary at least one (1) week before the date of such meeting but failure to notify will not of itself vitiate a meeting. Notice shall also be posted to all delegates so as to give them at least the notice provided for herein.

(xv) A copy of the minutes containing all decisions and business of the Divisional Conference shall be forwarded to each Divisional Branch Secretary within one month of the conclusion of each Divisional Conference. Any member of the division may, upon request to the Divisional Branch Secretary, inspect a copy of the minutes of each Divisional Conference at the Divisional Branch Office during the ordinary hours in which the Divisional Branch Office is open.

(xvi) The Divisional Secretary on receipt of resolutions from a majority of Divisional Branches or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10 percent of the financial members of the Division calling for a Special Divisional Conference shall call such Divisional Conference within thirty (30) days. Members of Divisional Conference shall be given seven (7) days' notice if practicable.

Notice shall be given by telephone, letter, facsimile, email and/or any other form of communications.

The Divisional Secretary may at any time thought fit conduct a postal, telephonic, facsimile, electronic and/or any other form of vote of members of Divisional Conference to obtain a decision on any matter provided that any Delegate from a Divisional Branch that is an Unfinancial Divisional Branch as at the date of the vote or the date of conclusion of a vote, by the above manners of obtaining a decision shall not have his or her vote counted or shall not be able to vote, as the case may be.

(xvii) The Divisional Conference shall have and exercise all of the powers of the Divisional Executive and shall deal with any matter or matters referred to it by the Divisional Executive.

Where any matter or matters is/are referred to the Divisional Conference by the Divisional Executive in accordance with this sub-paragraph, the Divisional Secretary may call a Special Divisional

Conference in the same way as if he/she had received a resolution from a majority of Divisional Branches or a petition signed by not less than 10 per cent of the financial members of the Division calling for such Conference, in accordance with sub-paragraph xv) herein. In all other respects the provision of sub-paragraph xv) herein shall apply.

9 – DIVISIONAL EXECUTIVE

1.A For the purpose of the quadrennial Divisional elections to be held in 2013 and thereafter, the Divisional Executive shall be composed of one (1) Divisional President, one (1) Divisional Senior Vice President, one (1) Divisional Vice President, one (1) Divisional Secretary, two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries and such Divisional Branch Secretaries who are not elected to any of the aforementioned positions on the Divisional Executive.

Provided that where a Divisional Branch Secretary also holds the office of Divisional Secretary, the position he or she otherwise would have held on the Divisional Executive as Divisional Branch Secretary shall be held by a Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary from that Divisional Branch.

Further, provided that in addition to the Divisional Executive members referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph, there shall be an additional Divisional Executive member for any Divisional Branch with a financial membership exceeding 10,000 members, for each succeeding 10,000 financial members or part thereof within that Divisional Branch. For the purpose of this sub-rule the number of financial members shall be the number of such members as at 31 March in the year of the election. Such additional Divisional Executive members shall, notwithstanding sub-rule 2 herein, be nominated and elected by and from the Divisional Conference delegates from the relevant Divisional Branches to which those offices relate, such election to be conducted at the same time as the election of the Divisional Executive members referred to in the preceding paragraph.

Further provided that immediately following the declaration of the result of the election/ballot in accordance with sub-rules 7 or 11 herein, as the case may be, the Divisional Returning Officer shall call for nominations from the newly elected Divisional Executive members, other than the Divisional President, Divisional Senior Vice President, Divisional Secretary and Divisional Assistant Secretaries, for the office of Divisional Vice-President, and if necessary, conduct a ballot to determine that position.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

2. Except for the filling of extraordinary vacancies and the office of Divisional Vice-President, the Divisional Executive members and Divisional Officers shall be elected by and from the Divisional Conference held in 1993 and every subsequent four (4) years thereafter and shall hold office until the date referred to in sub-rule 9.13(a) hereof.

3. [Deleted]

4. Preceding such conferences the Divisional Executive shall appoint a person as Divisional Returning Officer, who shall not be the holder of any office in, and shall not be an employee of, the union or of any Branch, sub-Branch or section of the union. Such Divisional Returning Officer shall have the conduct of the election of the Divisional Executive members and Divisional Officers and three Divisional Trustees in accordance with these rules.

4A. In addition, the Divisional Returning Officer shall have the conduct of the election of two (2) members of the National Women's Committee in accordance with rule 13B of the National Rules of the Union and according to the process set out in sub-rules (5)-(12) below.

The two (2) National Women's Committee member positions must be held by women and shall be elected by and from the Divisional Conference held in 1993 and every subsequent four (4) years thereafter, and shall hold office until the date referred to in sub-rule 9.13(a) hereof.

To be clear, the two (2) National Women's Committee members are not members of the Divisional Executive.

5. Nominations shall be called for by the Returning Officer on a date fixed by the Returning Officer following the fixing by Divisional Executive pursuant to Divisional Rule 8 (xi) of a date and place for the holding of elections required under this rule and shall close fourteen days after nominations are called. Nominations shall be called by posting to each member of the Divisional Conference a notice of the opening of nominations. The Divisional Returning Officer shall call for nominations for all positions at the one time.

Nominations shall be made in writing by any member to Divisional Conference and submitted in accordance with these rules, by any delegate to Divisional Conference and such nominations must be agreed to by the candidate in writing.

The Divisional Returning Officer shall have the power in accordance with these rules to accept or reject such nominations, provided that if the Divisional Returning Officer rejects any nominations the following provisions shall have effect -

(a) The Divisional Returning Officer shall notify the person concerned of the defect in the nomination; and

(b) The Divisional Returning Officer shall, where it is practicable to do so, give the person concerned the opportunity if possible, of remedying the defect.

In any year in which an election under this rule is due the Divisional Executive, pursuant to its power under sub-rule 8 (xi) to fix the time and place for the holding of a Divisional Conference, shall fix the time and place for the Biennial Divisional Conference on any date in that year, provided that:

(i) any elections required in that year may be conducted at the Biennial Divisional Conference with the persons elected taking office on the date referred to in sub-rule 9.13(a) of these rules;

(ii) Divisional Executive may determine that the elections will be conducted at a Special Divisional Conference and may fix a time and place for the holding of a Special Divisional Conference for the purpose of conducting those elections with the persons elected taking office on the date referred to in sub-rule 9.13(a) of these rules; and

(iii) in the event that Divisional Executive determines to hold a Special Divisional Conference for the purpose of conducting elections under paragraph (ii) above, Divisional Executive shall also determine a date and place for the holding of Biennial Divisional Conference in that year.

(iv) Where the Biennial Divisional Conference or any Special Divisional Conference is to be held and/or fixed pursuant to this rule and the said Conference is to be conducted over more than one day, the Divisional Executive may fix the day of the Divisional Conference on which the election shall be held.

6. The ballot for Divisional Secretary shall be dealt with and completed. The ballot for the Divisional Assistant Secretaries shall be dealt with and completed. The ballot for the Divisional President shall be dealt with and completed. The ballot for the Divisional Senior Vice President shall be dealt with and completed. -The confirmation of election of such Divisional Branch Secretaries and Plasterers representatives who are not elected to any of the aforementioned positions on the Divisional Executive shall be dealt with and completed.

The ballot for the Additional Divisional Executive members as defined in sub-rule 1A hereof shall be dealt with and completed.

The ballot for the three (3) Divisional Trustees shall be dealt with and completed. Where a particular ballot is delayed subject to the operation of sub-clause (10) other ballots shall be proceeded with at Divisional Conference.

Following the election of three (3) trustees the Returning Officer shall call nominations to determine which of the two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries will be the designated Divisional Assistant Secretary and if necessary conduct a ballot to determine the election.

The ballot for the two (2) members of the National Women's Committee shall be dealt with and completed.

7. If the nominations are equal to the number of positions to be filled the Divisional Returning Officer shall forthwith declare to the Divisional Conference that such candidates are elected. An officer shall not hold more than one position on the Divisional Executive except the position of Trustee may be held by a member of the Divisional Executive other than a full-time Divisional Officer, and the Divisional Secretary may concurrently hold a full-time office in a Divisional Branch.

8. If there are more candidates than the number required for filling the office/s the Divisional Returning Officer shall prepare voting papers and conduct the ballot.

9. The election shall be by secret ballot and any candidate may appoint a Scrutineer by notification in writing to the Divisional Returning Officer prior to the commencement of the ballot whose duty it shall be to watch the interest of the candidate at all stages of the ballot. Such a scrutineer shall represent and may be present at any stage of the counting of the ballot provided that the Divisional Returning Officer is also present and shall do all things necessary to preserve the secrecy of the ballot and conduct themselves in a sober, proper and impartial manner and obey any directions given to them by the Divisional Returning Officer. If any scrutineer or scrutineers are not present at any stage or stages of the ballot the Divisional Branch Returning Officer may proceed nonetheless.

10. Any delegate to Divisional Conference who will not be present, either personally or by proxy, at the meeting at which an election is to be held, may lodge with the Divisional Returning Officer a request for an absentee vote together with an address where he can receive communications and, if any delegate has done so, the Divisional Returning Officer shall not declare the result of the ballot until he has given such delegates a reasonable opportunity to vote.

11. The Divisional Returning Officer shall declare to Divisional Conference the result of the ballot as soon as the count is completed. In the event of a tie, the Divisional Returning Officer shall determine the result by casting lots.

12. Except insofar as any Act from time to time provides otherwise, whenever any member has been declared elected to any office the member declared to be elected to such office, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity which may have occurred in or in connection with the calling for and dealing with nominations or the conduct of the ballot shall be recognised as validly entitled to hold such office on and from the date referred to in 13(a) of this rule.

13. (a) A Divisional Executive member shall hold office until 15 October in a year in which an election is required in accordance with these rules or until the Sunday immediately following the declaration of their successor's election at Divisional Conference (whichever is later).

14. (a) Where a casual vacancy occurs in any office under these rules as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason, such vacancy may be filled by appointment by the Divisional Executive provided that the person so appointed shall hold office for as much of the unexpired part of the term of the office as does not exceed -

(1) 12 months or

(2) three quarters of the term of the office whichever is the greater.

(b) Where the unexpired part of the term of office exceeds that specified in 14 (a) of this rule, the Divisional Returning Officer shall conduct an election of Divisional Conference delegates to fill the vacant position, the person elected shall hold office for the remaining term of office.

The Divisional Executive may decide that where sub-rule (b) applies such an election be conducted at a Special Divisional Conference or by a secret postal ballot of delegates t Divisional Conference in terms of Rule 17 of the National Rules of the Union as modified to suit the requirements of the election.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, on and from the date of certification of this sub-rule 14(c), the provisions of this sub-rule 14 shall apply to the filling of any casual vacancy occurring in the office of Senior Vice-President as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, on and from the date of certification of this sub-rule 14(d), the provisions of this sub-rule 14 shall apply to the filling of any casual vacancy occurring in the National Women's Committee positions as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason.

15. The Divisional Executive shall, have and may exercise, subject to the review of its actions by Divisional Conference, the care, control, superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business, Divisional funds and property of the Division and have and exercise all of the powers of the Divisional Conference, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing it may -

(a) Interpret and enforce the general policy of the Division.

(b) Control and conduct the business and affairs of the Division.

(c) Appoint the editor of any Divisional journal and manage and control the policy of the journal.

(d) Hear and decide any appeal from any Divisional Branch. Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

(e) Settle disputes between Divisional Branches. Any Divisional Branch concerned shall be given reasonable notice of the meeting and an opportunity of being heard before any settlement is effected.

(f) Expend such moneys by way of ordinary expenditure of the Division as may be necessary.

(g) Submit any matter to the members for decision by ballot.

(h) Ensure that officers, committee members, delegates or members of the Division and Divisional Branches carry out the rules and decisions of the union and subject to Rule 11 impose penalties (i.e., fines not exceeding the sum of twenty dollars, suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office,) on officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates of or to the Division for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules or the decisions of the Divisional Executive. Provided that the rules or the decisions of the Divisional Executive are available to members in the minutes of the Divisional Executive and the registered rules of the union and the Division are available at each Branch office. No penalty shall be imposed unless –

(i) The officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting seven (7) days prior to the meeting;

(ii) Notice of the charge or allegation is given sufficient to enable a reply.

(iii) He/she is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in their own defence, including an opportunity to cross-examine and to give and call evidence.

Period of suspension imposed under these rules shall not exceed six months.

(j) Take such action as may be necessary to secure the satisfactory working of any Divisional Branch of this Division and, subject to Rule 11, suspend or dismiss all or any members holding positions in, or for, a Divisional Branch and the appointment of a member of the Divisional Executive or any other member or members of the Union to conduct the affairs of such Divisional Branch. Provided that an election or appointment shall be held within three (3) months therefrom.

Reasonable notice of the time and place of the meeting shall be given to the Divisional Branch and to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard before any action is taken.

(k) Control and supervise the work of the Divisional Officers.

(l) (i) All decisions of the Divisional Executive shall be made by a majority of the members present at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules.

(ii) Where two (2) members of the Divisional Executive request, prior to a matter being put to a vote, that a card vote be conducted with respect to any matter, such a card vote shall be conducted in accordance with this rule. In the absence of such a request, the provisions of (i) above shall apply.

(iii) Where a card vote is requested in accordance with (ii) above, each member of the Divisional Executive shall be entitled to exercise one vote provided however that any Divisional Branch Secretary shall be entitled to exercise additional ordinary votes based on the principle of one additional ordinary vote for each 2000 members or part thereof over and above the first 2000 members of the Divisional Branch from which the Divisional Branch Secretary derives.

(iv) The manner of determining the number of members of any Divisional Branch for the purposes of (iii) above, shall be the same as the formula which applies in respect of membership numbers for the purposes of determining Divisional Branch representation to Divisional Conference as set out in rule 8(iv) of these Divisional rules.

(v) Where a card vote is conducted, the matter shall be determined by a majority of votes cast including additional votes as provided for in (ii) to (iv) herein.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(m) A loan, grant or donation of an amount exceeding $1,000 shall not be made by this Division unless the Divisional Executive -

(i) has satisfied itself -

(a) that the making of the loan, grant or donation would be in accordance with the other rules of the Union; and

(b) in relation to a loan - that, in the circumstances, the security proposed to be given for the repayment of the loan is adequate and the proposed arrangements for the repayment of the loan are satisfactory; and

(ii) has approved the making of the loan, grant or donation.

(n) To make, alter and rescind rules.

(o) Notwithstanding that a Divisional Executive member may occupy more than one office each of which would entitle them to be a member of the Divisional Executive, a member of the Divisional Executive shall be entitled to exercise one vote only (except where additional ordinary votes are cast in accordance with sub-rule (1) above).

Further provided that where a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary is also a member of the Divisional Executive by virtue of holding office as Divisional Branch Secretary, such Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary shall exercise their vote on the Divisional Executive in their capacity as a Divisional Officer only and any vote of such person as Divisional Branch Secretary [and, where applicable, any additional ordinary votes of the Divisional Branch], shall be exercised by the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary from that Divisional Branch provided that person is otherwise a member of the Divisional Executive.

16. Any member of the Divisional Executive (other than the Divisional Secretary, Divisional President, Divisional Assistant Secretaries, Divisional Senior Vice-President and Divisional Vice-President) from a Divisional Branch that has more than two of the monthly capitation payments or part thereof and/or interest thereon for which the Divisional Branch is liable under sub-rule 14(i) outstanding to the Divisional Office as at the date of any meeting of the Divisional Executive shall not be entitled to attend any Divisional Executive (unless at the express invitation of one of the Divisional Officers) and in any event, shall not be entitled to move, amend or vote at any such meeting.

17. Meetings of the Divisional Executive shall take place at least twice per year provided however that a meeting of the Divisional Conference shall be counted as a meeting of Divisional Executive for the purpose of this rule. Further, the members of the Divisional Executive may be summoned by the Divisional Secretary to a meeting to be held at such time and place as shall be decided by the Divisional Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the Divisional Executive may demand a meeting of such Divisional Executive which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members of the Divisional Executive. The quorum for any meeting shall be six. Notice of meetings may be given by letter, facsimile, email or other electronic means or otherwise in writing or by telephone or verbally, provided that in the latter two instances such is confirmed by letter or telegram or telex or facsimile or other writing.

(i) On a decision of a majority of Divisional Branches that are not Unfinancial Divisional Branches as at the date of the decision, or Divisional Branches that are not Unfinancial Divisional Branches and whose membership constitutes a majority of the members of the Division or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10 per cent of the financial members of the Division, Divisional Executive shall take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Division upon the matter or matters submitted by the Divisional Branches or members. A decision reached by a majority of the actual votes recorded shall be binding on the Divisional Conference Divisional Executive and the members of the Division.

Divisional Executive may at any time by its own motion take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Division upon any matter it thinks fit.

(ii) The referendum referred to in this rule shall be conducted as follows:

Divisional Executive shall:

(a) Determine the question to be submitted to the members and the form of the ballot paper.

(b) Fix the times for the despatch and return of ballot papers and give the necessary instructions for printing of same.

(c) Appoint a Divisional Returning Officer and Divisional Scrutineer in conjunction with Divisional Branch Returning Officers to conduct the ballot.

(d) No material other than that authorised by the Divisional Executive shall be enclosed in the envelope in which the ballot paper is posted to the member.

(e) In all other respects the referendum shall be held as nearly as practicable in the manner provided for the holding of elections of Divisional Branch Officers.

11 – REMOVAL OF OFFICERS

(a) (i) Any person elected to an office in the Division or a Divisional Branch may be removed from office by majority decision of the Divisional Executive of the Division in which the Officer holds office, provided that such officer shall not be dismissed from office unless the officer has been found guilty, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, of misappropriation of funds of the Union or a substantial breach of the Rules of the Union or gross misbehaviour or gross neglect of duty or has ceased according to the Rules of the Union to be eligible to hold office.

(ii) An elected officer may be charged by any member of the Division with the offences referred to 11(a)(i) above, whether the offence occurred before or after this sub-rule came into effect, and where the Divisional Executive is to consider whether or not any elected Divisional or Divisional Branch Officer is to be removed from office under sub-paragraph (i) herein, the Divisional Executive may take any, some or all of steps 1 – 5 below:

1. Determine that no further action be taken;

2. Determine that a person or persons be delegated to investigate the charge and provide a report to the Divisional Executive on matters in relation to the charge and any recommendations for dealing with the charge;

3. Determine that the charge not be dealt with pending the receipt of a report requested by the Divisional Executive under this rule;

4. Determine that an elected officer charged under this rule be directed not to carry out some or all of the duties attaching to their office pending the hearing or other consideration of any charge against that elected officer;

5. Resolve policies as to procedure and matters that may be observed prior to and during a meeting of the Divisional Executive to consider whether or not any elected Divisional or Divisional Branch Officer is to be removed from office, provided that:

   A. Notice of the charge or allegation is to be given sufficient to enable a reply by the elected officer charged;

   B. The elected officer charged may provide a reply to the charge, which may include submissions and evidence;

   C. The Divisional Executive may determine that such reply shall be provided at or by a time determined by the Divisional Executive:
      i. in person; and/or
      ii. in writing; and/or
      iii. by other electronic means; and/or
      iv. by a representative of the elected officer charged;

D. Should the Divisional Executive determine that a hearing should be held:

i. such hearing may in whole or in part take place using electronic means in more than one place;
ii. the Divisional Executive may determine that the elected officer charged, a member who has laid the relevant charge, or any other participant may be represented by another person at the hearing;
iii. the elected officer charged is to be provided at least 7 days' notice of such hearing;
iv. should the elected officer charged fail to appear at the hearing and fail to provide a satisfactory explanation for their non-attendance, the Divisional Executive may proceed with the hearing of in their absence provided it is first satisfied that notice of the hearing in accordance with this rule has been served on the elected officer;

E. Notwithstanding rule 49(e) of these rules, the Divisional Executive may:

i. direct the elected officer charged to attend an independent medical examination to determine the officer's fitness to face charges and/or perform the duties of their office;
ii. consider any report of the independent medical examiner or other evidence and determine whether or not to hold or proceed with a meeting or hearing under this rule to consider whether or not the elected officer charged is to be removed from office.

(b) Should any elected officer be removed from office the Divisional Executive may appoint a member to fill the vacancy until the next elections are held and a successor takes office in accordance with the rules, but no person shall be appointed to an office, otherwise than temporarily, where the remainder of the term of office is twelve (12) months or three quarters of the term whichever is the greater.

(c) Any elected officer so removed from office shall have the right of appeal to the Divisional Conference and therefrom to the National Executive or National Conference.

In the event of the appeal being upheld the Divisional Conference, National Executive or National Conference may order reinstatement to apply on such conditions as it considers the circumstances warrant.

(d) In the event of the re-election of an Officer removed from office under this rule, such elected officer shall be reimbursed by a payment of monies that represent the difference between such salary that would have received had the officer not been removed from office and the amount of salary the officer received during the period that the officer was removed from office.

(e) "Office" under this rule has the same meaning as provided in the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009.

12 – VACANCIES IN OFFICE

Subject to the Act and other rules dealing with this subject, if any vacancy shall occur by death, resignation or otherwise in any Divisional or Divisional Branch office such office may be filled by the Divisional Executive until a ballot can be held to fill the vacancy.

13 – DUTIES OF OFFICERS

(i) Divisional President:

The Divisional President shall preside at meetings of Divisional Executive and meetings convened by Divisional Executive.

The Divisional President shall have a deliberative vote only.

The Divisional President shall carry out such other functions as shall be determined from time to time by the Divisional Executive. In cases where he is a full time officer he shall be under the control of the Divisional Secretary.

(ii) Divisional Secretary:

The Divisional Secretary shall be responsible for the general correspondence of the Division, Divisional finance, filing of documents for the Division, industrial returns that are required to be made by the Division and the carrying out of decisions made by the Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive or by the National Conference or National Executive.

The Divisional Secretary shall have the power, subject to decisions of the Divisional Executive, Divisional Conference, National Executive and/or National Conference, to appoint, control and dismiss the staff of the Divisional Office.

The Divisional Secretary shall have prepared a properly audited financial statement of receipts and payments and all the funds and effects of the Divisional Office, together with a statement of the assets and liabilities of the Divisional Office for the year ending 31st December in each financial year. Such financial statement to be made available to Divisional Conference, Executive, National Conference, National Executive, National Secretary and Divisional Branches of this Division. Provided however that the financial year for the Division shall, on and from 1 April 2017, and for each year thereafter, commence on and from 1 April each year and end on 31 March of each following year.

The Divisional Secretary shall carry out such other functions as shall be determined from time to time by the Divisional Executive, National Conference or National Executive and allocate the duties of Divisional Officers.

The Divisional Secretary may concurrently hold a full-time office in a Divisional Branch.

(iii) Divisional Assistant Secretaries:

Divisional Assistant Secretaries and any other full-time Divisional Officer at the Divisional level shall perform all duties assigned to them by the Divisional Executive, National Conference or the National Executive.

They shall be under the control of the Divisional Secretary. They shall attend all meetings of Divisional Executive, National Conference and National Executive.

The Divisional Assistant Secretary who has been designated as the Divisional Senior Assistant Secretary in terms of Rule 9 sub-rule 6 shall fulfil all duties and responsibilities of the Divisional Secretary while on approved leave of absence except in respect of those duties decided otherwise by the Divisional Executive.

The office of Divisional Assistant Secretary may be resolved to be either a full-time or honorary office, by decision of the Divisional Executive made not less than 70 days prior to the calling of nominations for that office. Where a casual vacancy arises in that office, Divisional Executive may, prior to filling the vacancy under rule 12, resolve whether the office is to be filled on an honorary or full-time basis.

(iv) Divisional Senior Vice-President:

The Divisional Senior Vice-President shall assist the Divisional President in the conduct of meetings and shall preside in the absence of the Divisional President, and shall carry out such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Divisional Executive.

(v) Divisional Vice-President:

The Divisional Vice-President shall assist the Divisional President or Senior Vice-President in the conduct of meetings and, in the absence of both the abovementioned officers, shall act as President.

The Divisional Vice-President shall carry out such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Divisional Executive.

(vi) Divisional Trustees:

The Divisional Trustees shall, subject to control by the Divisional Executive, be responsible, together with the Divisional Secretary, for the finance, property and investments of the Division.

(vii) Members of Divisional Executive:

Other members of Divisional Executive shall attend meetings of the Divisional Executive when summoned so to do and perform functions allocated by the Divisional Executive.

14 – FUNDS AND PROPERTY

(i) Each Divisional Branch shall forward to the Divisional Office such percentage of the Divisional Branch income as may be apportioned from time to time by the Divisional Executive.

A Divisional Branch that does not remit to the Divisional Office the moneys or part thereof owed by it by the time after such moneys are due and payable so that it becomes an Unfinancial Divisional Branch within the meaning of rule 3, shall in addition to those moneys, also be liable to pay to the Divisional Office interest on the unpaid amount at the percentage rate for 90-day bank bills as at the date that Divisional Branch becomes an Unfinancial Divisional Branch, on and from the said date. Such a Branch will remain an Unfinancial Divisional Branch for all purposes under these Rules until the principal sum and interest thereon specified in this sub-rule are paid to the Divisional Office.

If the Divisional Executive is of a view that the reasons for the non-payment are genuine reasons of incapacity to pay, then such interest shall not be levied.

(ii) Banking and Withdrawal: All moneys received by the Divisional Office shall be paid to the credit of the Division on current account with a bank or financial institution approved by the Divisional Executive. All funds drawn from the bank shall be authorised in writing by the Divisional Secretary, Assistant Secretaries or Divisional President and one Divisional Trustee.

(iii) All expenditure for ordinary purposes, i.e., incurred in directly furthering the objects of the Union for members of this Division or in the expenses of management of this Division or in satisfying any debt to or of the National Office, may be disbursed by decision of the Divisional Secretary and one of the Assistant Divisional Secretaries.

Expenditure for other purposes authorised by the rules may be disbursed by a majority decision of the Divisional Executive, National Conference or National Executive.

(iv) Investment of Funds: The funds of the Division shall be invested wherever possible in the name of the Union. Where this is not possible, investments shall be made in the name of the Divisional Trustees.

The funds of the Division may be invested in such securities as are permitted by the laws of any State of the Commonwealth for the investment of funds by trustees.

(v) The property of the Division shall be under the control of the Divisional Executive and shall be in the name of the Union.

15 – AUDITOR

The Divisional Executive shall appoint an approved auditor who shall each financial year for the period ending 31 December audit the books and accounts of the Division and draw up a correct report on same. Provided however that the financial year for the Division shall, on and from 1 April 2017, and for each year thereafter, commence on and from 1 April each year and end on 31 March of each following year.

The auditor shall, in the report, draw attention of the Divisional Executive, National Conference and National Executive to any deficiencies or other matters which the auditor may think proper. The auditor shall have full and complete access to all the books and documents of the Division.

Upon receipt by the Divisional Secretary of a petition, signed by not less than 5% of the members of the Division, requesting that a general meeting of members of the Division be called for the purpose of considering the auditor's report, the general purpose financial report and the operating report of the Division, the Divisional Secretary shall convene such meeting as soon as is practicable.

16 – ALTERATION OF RULES

These Divisional Rules and any Divisional Branch Rules of this Division may be altered or rescinded or new rules made by the Divisional Executive. Proposals for alterations of such rules may also be proposed by Divisional Branches and shall be forwarded with the notice calling the Divisional Executive.

Provided that Divisional Executive in session may alter such rules although previous notice has not been given.

Nothing in this rule affects the right of the Divisional Executive to vote on any matter, including rules, otherwise than at a meeting assembled.

17 – RULES BINDING ON MEMBERS AND DIVISIONAL BRANCHES

These Divisional Rules, and all alterations, additions or rescissions thereof or thereto, shall apply to and be binding on all Divisional Branches of this Division and on all members who now, or who may hereafter, belong to the Division until they are made or become null and void according to law.

18 – DIVISIONAL BRANCHES

(a) There shall be Divisional Branches of the Division in each of the States and in the Australian Capital Territory, and in such other States or places as may be decided. The Divisional Executive may establish more than one Divisional Branch in any area and may do so on occupational or sub-industry bases, or may establish a single Divisional Branch for two or more States, Territories or places.

Such Divisional Branches shall be known as the Construction and General Division, New South Wales Divisional Branch, or as the case may be; or, with the approval of the National Executive or National Conference the Divisional Branch may be known by some other name.

(b) In Victoria and Tasmania, the Divisional Branch shall be known as the Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch. Further, in the State of Tasmania there shall be a sub-branch of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch which shall be known as the Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch, Tasmania Sub-Branch.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(c) In Western Australia, as a result of an agreement between the two Divisional Branch Secretaries prior to integration, the Divisional Branch Secretary of the integrated Divisional Branch shall be the principal officer and spokesperson for the Divisional Branch.

(d) [Deleted]

(e) All Divisional Branches mentioned herein shall for all purposes be and remain an inseparable part of the Division by which they are established.

19 – DIVISIONAL BRANCH RULES

(i) Divisional Branches shall have rules set out herein. Divisional Branches may in accordance with the Divisional Branch rules hereto, make By Laws not inconsistent with these Rules or the National Rules and not inconsistent with the Laws of the Commonwealth. In the event of any such inconsistency the Divisional Branch By Law shall be void to the extent of such inconsistency.

Where any rule of a Divisional Branch allows for representation for different classifications of membership within the union such representation shall be reviewed by the Divisional Secretary no later than two months prior to the calling of nominations in that election so that representation of the classifications is based on the principle that the will of the majority shall not be thwarted and that there is appropriate representation of each such classification in the decision making bodies of the Divisional Branch concerned.

For the purpose of determining the two principles outlined in paragraph two herein, the aggregate membership over the 4 completed membership years immediately preceding the opening of nominations shall be averaged for the purpose of calculating the percentage of membership belonging to that classification. The proportion and representation decided upon in the manner outlined herein shall be reflected in the positions outlined in the rules for which nominations are called and shall remain the same (subject to any further decision of the Divisional Executive) for the period of office of the persons elected thereat.

Provided that where the classification has existed for less than four (4) years such lesser time shall be used for the purposes of the calculation.

(ii) (a) Subject to sub-rule (c) hereof, unless expressly authorised by Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive, the powers and duties conferred by these Rules on Divisional Branch Council and Divisional Branch Executive Committees and the officers, organisers, full-time paid officials and employees thereof are exercisable only in respect of the members of those Divisional Branches and persons within the geographic area and occupational categories within the State or Territory for which the Divisional Branch is responsible.

(b) Subject to sub-rule (c) hereof, unless expressly authorised by Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive, no officer, organiser, full-time paid official or employee of any Divisional Branch shall be authorised or permitted to perform any of the functions or duties conferred on such officers, organisers, full-time paid officials or employees by these rules, or to hold themselves out as an officer, organiser, full-time paid official or employee of the Union, other than within the geographic area and occupational categories within the State or Territory for which the Divisional Branch is responsible.

(c) Nothing in sub-rules (a) and (b) hereof shall limit the rights of office holders to perform their duties as members of Divisional or National governing bodies in accordance with the rules, being those matters specified in rule 13 of these Rules and rule 22 of the National Rules of the Union. Further provided that sub-rule (b) hereof shall not apply where Divisional Branch officers, organisers, full-time paid officials or members carry out work in a Divisional Branch (other than a Divisional Branch in which such person is elected, appointed or engaged) pursuant to a resolution of the Divisional Branch Management Committee of the Divisional Branch in which such work is undertaken, and in accordance with the terms of that resolution.

20 – EXECUTION OF AGREEMENTS, ETC

Industrial Agreements and other instruments that may be needed by or on behalf of the Division shall be executed by the Divisional Secretary or such other Divisional Officer as authorised by the Divisional Executive.

21 – SUBMISSION OF INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES

An industrial dispute affecting the members of this Division may be submitted to conciliation or arbitration upon a resolution in favour of submitting such dispute carried by a majority of the members of the Divisional Executive or by the Divisional Secretary.

The Divisional Executive and the Divisional Secretary shall have full power to transact all business and do or authorise all acts and things in connection with such dispute and it or he may delegate it or his functions either generally or specifically.

22 – DIVISIONAL OFFICE

The office of the Division shall be the office of the Divisional Secretary and shall be at 12/276 Pitt Street, Sydney, or such place as Divisional Executive shall decide.

There shall be an annexe at 500 Swanston Street, Melbourne in the State of Victoria.

23 – PRINCIPAL OFFICER

(i) The Divisional Secretary shall be the Principal Officer of the Division.

(ii) In the case of a breach of legislation, Award or Agreement or other matter affecting a member of the Division, the Divisional Secretary or any Divisional Branch Secretary or other person or body authorised by Divisional Branch Rules to which the member belongs shall have the power to take such legal proceedings as are necessary to enforce the legislation, Award or Agreement, or to seek penalties against an employer for such breaches.

24 – RECOVERY OF DUES

All claims for contributions, levies, fines, fees or liabilities of any kind due or payable to the Union by members of the Division may be sued for in the name of the Union by the Divisional Secretary or by the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Branch to which the member is attached or by any person or body authorised by these rules or the rules of the Divisional Branch.

25 – LEVIES

(i) Levies may be imposed for the purpose of carrying out any of the objects of the Union and for assisting the members of this or any other Union or body having objects similar in whole or in part to those of this Union.

(ii) The amount of any levy may be decided by a majority of the Divisional Executive and when so decided shall be binding on all members or sections of members as the Divisional Executive may decide.

(iii) A Divisional Branch may impose a levy on its members.

(iv) A levy may be of one specific sum, payable at one specific time, or may be for a weekly, fortnightly or monthly period, payable for a certain specific period.

All levies shall be added to contributions and shall be a first charge against all payments made by members of the Divisional Branch.

26 – VOTING OTHER THAN AT MEETINGS

(a) If the Divisional Secretary shall consider it advisable to submit any matter, including the imposition of a levy or the alteration, rescission or making of rules to a vote of Divisional Executive members at any time he may submit a resolution dealing with such matter to the members by letter, facsimile, telephone, email, verbally and/or any other means of communication or any combination thereof.

(b) A copy of such resolution shall be sent at the same time to each Divisional Branch Secretary.

(c) The votes on such resolution shall be returnable to the Divisional Secretary at such time as the Divisional President and the Divisional Secretary shall fix. The result of such vote shall be binding and enforceable in the same manner as a decision arrived at in meeting assembled.

(d) No amendment shall be allowed on any such resolution, but if it is negatived any member may request the Divisional Secretary to submit in a like manner a further resolution bearing on the same matter. In the event of the Divisional Secretary being requested to submit more than one such resolution the order in which same shall be submitted shall be in his absolute discretion.

(e) The Divisional Secretary shall keep a register of names and addresses of delegates to Divisional Conference.

(f) Divisional Branch Secretaries shall within fourteen days of the election of delegates to Divisional Conference notify the Divisional Secretary of their names and addresses.

27 – STANDING ORDERS FOR MEETINGS

This Rule shall apply to all meetings in the Division, including Divisional Branch Management Committee meetings, but shall not apply to general Divisional Branch meetings and/or rank-and-file meetings to which Rule 64 shall apply.

This Rule operates as a guideline only and any meeting may expressly or impliedly determine a course and procedure not in accordance with these Standing Orders for Meetings. No departure from any or all parts of these Standing Orders, whether in form or substance, shall vitiate the calling of any meeting, or any resolution, discussion and decision made at any meeting or the continuation of any meeting.

(a) Motions - How Dealt With:

(i) All motions shall be of an affirmative character and must be moved and seconded by delegates. Such motions become the property of the meeting and can only be withdrawn by leave thereof. The discussion on any motion shall not exceed 60 minutes unless a majority of delegates present agree to an extension of time.

(ii) Unless a delegate rises to oppose a motion or propose an amendment thereto, the motion shall be immediately put to the meeting for decision.

(iii) A motion may be superseded at any time by another motion "that it be discharged from the agenda paper" or "that the next business be proceeded with" being resolved in the affirmative.

(iv) A motion may be amended at any time during the debate thereon always provided that the substance of the original motion be retained. If the amendment is carried it then takes the place of the motion.

(v) Any number of amendments may be proposed and discussed with the motion. For the purpose of the debate the motion shall be the question before the chair. Amendments shall be put to the vote in the order in which they are received. If there is no further discussion, or if the motion "that the question be now put" is carried, the mover of the original motion may reply.

(vi) All motions shall be put to the meeting by the chairperson in a clear manner by asking for the "ayes" to vote first and then the "noes". The chair's decision as to which has the majority will be final unless a show of hands is called for. The chairperson shall then count the votes for and against the question.

If the votes are equal the question is resolved in the negative.

(vii) A mover of a motion to be allowed 15 minutes to introduce and five minutes to reply. Other speakers 10 minutes unless a majority of the delegates present agree to an extension of time.

(viii) Right of Speaker: Any delegate desiring to speak shall rise and address the chairman. If two or more delegates rise at the same time the chairman shall call upon the one who, in his opinion, first rose.

Provided that no delegates can speak more than once upon any question (which shall include the original motion and all amendments thereto) before the meeting, except -

(a) In reply as the mover of the original motion.

(b) In explanation or correction of some matter during the debate.

(c) Upon a point of order raised during the debate.

(d) Upon a resolution being carried "that he now be heard".

(ix) A delegate will not be held to have spoken who simply used the words "I second the motion" or "amendment", as the case may be; but for the purpose of debate shall be considered the second speaker in favour of the proposal seconded by him.

(x) No more than two delegates shall be allowed to speak for or against any question in succession. If at the conclusion of the second speaker's remarks no member rises to speak on the other side of the motion or amendment, it shall be put to the vote.

(xi) Any delegate speaking shall at once resume his seat

(a) If the chairman rises to speak; or

(b) If a point of order is raised.

and shall not resume his speech until the point of order is decided.

(xii) No delegate may speak to any question after it has been put by the chairman or during the taking of the vote.

(b) REPORTS

A report containing a recommendation may be discussed on a motion being moved for its adoption which, upon being carried, will signify the will of Conference thereon.

If the report contains any recommendation it shall be competent for a delegate to move a resolution arising out of and relative to the report to obtain the opinion of the meeting on the matter.

(c) ADJOURNMENT OF MEETING OR DEBATE

A motion for the adjournment of the meeting may be proposed at any time or for the adjournment of the debate, and shall be at once put to the meeting by the chairman unless time is mentioned. An amendment to alter the time can be proposed upon a motion for adjournment only if time is mentioned as part of such motion and can apply thereto.

(d) ADJOURNMENT OF STATED TIME

When a motion for the adjournment of a debate to any stated day or time has been carried, such motion shall not be abrogated unless with the consent of the meeting.

(e) CHAIR'S RULINGS

The chair's rulings on all points of order shall be final unless at the time a motion is carried that such ruling be disagreed with. When a motion to disagree with the ruling of the chairperson has been duly proposed and seconded, the chairperson shall leave the chair until the motion has been disposed of by the meeting. The mover only shall speak to the motion and the chairperson may explain the reasons for the ruling given. The motion shall then be put to the meeting by the Vice-Chairperson.

(f) SUSPENSION OF ORDER OF BUSINESS

It shall be competent by a majority vote of the members present for the meeting to suspend the order of business.

(g) SITTING AS A COMMITTEE

Divisional Executive may at any time, by a resolution agreed to by a majority of members present, resolve itself into a committee of the whole. The rules governing the business of Divisional Executive shall be observed when in Committee.

(h) DEFINITION:

In this rule "delegate" shall include any person attending a meeting.

DIVISIONAL BRANCH RULES

28 – NAME

The name of the Divisional Branches of this Division shall be as follows:-

(a) In New South Wales, South Australia, Western Australia, and the Australian Capital Territory, "The Construction and General Division, X Divisional Branch" where X is the State or Territory concerned;

(b) In Tasmania and Victoria "The Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch".

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(c) In Queensland in accordance with Rule 18 of these rules.

29 – ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP

All persons who are members of or apply for membership in the Construction and General Division of the Union residing or employed in the State or Territory concerned shall be and remain members of the Divisional Branch or Divisional Branches within that State or Territory.

Provided that notwithstanding the provisions of any other rule, all persons who are members of or apply for membership of the Division, who are residing or employed in the Northern Territory shall, on and from 1 January 2012, be and remain members of the Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

30 – MEMBERSHIP

(i) General Section

(a) Applications for membership of the Union and/or Divisional Branch shall be on a form published by the Divisional Branch and shall be signed by the applicant. Divisional Branches may publish applications for membership on the internet.

No omission, irregularity or want of form shall invalidate an application for membership provided that the person applying intended the document to be so treated and the union treated the document as an application form for membership.

(b) A person applying for membership shall, on the membership application form, state which classification the applicant for membership considers to be his or her appropriate classification. All applications for membership shall be lodged with the Divisional Branch Secretary or such other person authorised by the Divisional Branch Council and such applications may be lodged via the internet or email. Applications for membership shall be dealt with by the Divisional Branch Management Committee or another committee authorised by Divisional Branch Council, who shall, if satisfied with the bona-fides and qualifications of the applicant, admit him or her to membership of the Divisional Branch and the Union.

The classification determined in accordance with this sub-rule:

(i) shall be solely for the purpose of determining the eligibility of each member to nominate for election to any office within the Division or Divisional Branch where election to such office is dependent upon the members falling into one or other classification;

(ii) shall be conclusive; and

(iii) shall bind the Divisional Branch Returning Officer.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(c) On being admitted to membership of the Divisional Branch a member shall, ipso facto, be and be deemed to be a member of the Construction and General Division, the Divisional Branch, and the Union.

(d) A period of thirteen weeks, together with any period from the date of admission that the member has not been working at the trade, shall be allowed for the purpose of any member objecting to the continuance of membership of new members. Any objection to the continuance of membership of a new member shall be lodged in writing with the Divisional Branch Secretary or authorised person entitled to receive such application, such objection shall be lodged within the above-named period.

(e) A new member shall during the currency of the probationary period be entitled to full membership privileges and responsibility in accordance with Rules.

(f) A new member shall pay on application for membership all moneys required to be paid by a new member - Entrance Fee, one half year's contribution.

(g) Applicants for membership shall be qualified workers of good character, and shall, when admitted to membership, enjoy all advantages of membership so long as they comply with the registered rules of the Union.

Half yearly terms shall be deemed to begin on the first day of April and October, respectively.

(h) On being admitted to membership of the Divisional Branch a member shall, ipso facto, be taken to have authorised the union and its officers and employees to seek and obtain any information from any industry scheme of which that member is also a member or participant, for the purpose of ensuring that the member has received or is receiving all of the benefits to which that member is entitled under such industry schemes.

For the purpose of this sub-rule a reference to "industry scheme/s" shall be taken to include any or all of the following;

(i) C+Bus or any state based equivalent superannuation scheme.

(ii) Australian Construction Industry Redundancy Trust or any State equivalent redundancy scheme, or predecessor scheme.

(iii) Any long service scheme established pursuant to legislation of any State or Territory for the benefit of persons in construction and related industries.

(iv) Any other scheme the benefits to which the member of the Divisional Branch is entitled pursuant to his/her contract of employment, or any legislation, or any award or certified agreement to which the union is a party.

(ii) APPRENTICES, IMPROVERS, TRAINEES AND LABOUR MARKET PROGRAMME WORKERS

(a) An apprentice (indentured or trainee), improver, trainee or other labour market programme worker may be admitted to this section. That person shall, on the completion of their apprenticeship or where they cease to be an improver, trainee or labour market programme worker, be transferred to the General Section and be subject to the provisions of the General Section membership.

(b) A person engaged in a pre-apprenticeship course at a technical college shall on application be admitted to the apprentices section without being required to pay any contributions (subject to payment of an enrolment fee to be determined by the Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time).

(c) The same provisions relating to the admission of members to the General Section shall apply to applicants to the Apprentices, Improvers, Trainees and Labour Market Programme Workers section.

(iii) Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch

(a) The record of members of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch shall classify each member into one or other of the following classifications:-

(i) carpenter;
(ii) labourer;
(iii) stonemason;
(iv) tilelayer;
(v) painter;
(vi) signwriter;
(vii) bricklayer
(viii) solid plasterer
(ix) roof-tiler
(x) fibrous plasterer/fibrous plaster industry worker
(xi) crane operations
(xii) rigger/dogman
(xiii) plant and machine operations
(xiv) boiler attendant/engine driver
(xv) production worker (metal)
(xvi) concrete pump operations
(xvii) forklift/hoist operations
(xviii) driller
(xix) other

which shall be known as the member's designated classification.

(b) A person applying for membership shall on the membership application form, state which one of the classifications set out in paragraph (a) the applicant for membership considers to be his or her appropriate classification.

(c) In dealing with applications for membership the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee shall determine each new member's designated classification.

(d) The Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee may at any time change a member's designated classification provided that the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee shall not change a member's designated classification unless -

(i) the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee has received from the member a request in writing for a change to the member's designated classification setting out the reasons for the request; or

(ii) the member has been given a reasonable opportunity by the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee to state in writing the reasons why he or she should retain his or her designated classification or have a different designated classification.

As soon as practicable after the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee changes a member's designated classification in accordance with this paragraph the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee shall cause the member to be notified in writing and alter the record of members of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch accordingly.

(e) The Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee shall determine the designated classification of an applicant for membership in accordance with paragraph (d) or a change to an existing member's designated classification in accordance with paragraph (e) by reference to:-

(i) the trade or other qualifications held by the applicant for membership or existing member;

(ii) the award classification of the applicant for membership or existing member, or his or her last award classification; and

(iii) the work performed by the applicant for membership or existing member, or the last work performed by him or her.

(f) Where the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee considers that it does not have sufficient information available to determine the designated classification of an applicant for membership or to change an existing member's designated classification it shall request that the member provide such further information as the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch Management Committee considers appropriate.

(g) The designated classification of each member determined in accordance with this sub-rule:

(i) shall be solely for the purpose of determining the eligibility of each member to nominate for election to any office within the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch where election to such office is dependent upon the member falling into one or other of the classifications set out in paragraph (a) hereof;

(ii) shall be conclusive; and

(iii) shall bind the Divisional Branch Returning Officer.

(h) For the purposes of determining length of membership of the Divisional Branch in rule 38(a) herein, previous financial membership of the VSBTU (PIWD) shall, where such member has obtained a clearance from the VSBTU in accordance with rule 9 of the National Rules of the CFMEU, count as financial membership of the Victorian Building Unions Divisional Branch.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(iv) Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch (Northern Territory Members)

The provisions of these rules relating to membership and applications for membership of the Queensland Northern Territory Divisional Branch shall apply with equal force and effect to persons residing and/or employed in the Northern Territory.

(v) [Deleted]

31 – ENTRANCE FEE

All applicants to the General Section shall pay an entrance fee that shall be any sum as the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee may decide.

All applicants to the Apprentice and Improvers' Section shall be admitted without the payment of an entrance fee.

The Divisional Branch Management Committee of each Divisional Branch shall determine such other circumstances, if any, in which an applicant shall be exempt from the requirement to pay an entrance fee.

32 – CONTRIBUTIONS

(a) A statement setting out all contributions, levies and fines due shall be forwarded to every member half-yearly not later than March 1, and September 1, of each year.

Such notice shall be deemed to have been received by the member unless the member personally advises the Divisional Branch Secretary by registered letter on or before the 1st day of April or the 1st day of October, as the case may be, in the current year that the member has not received such statement.

In no case shall the failure of the member to receive a notice entitle the member to be considered financial other than provided for in this Rule.

(b) Subject to the provisions of sub-clause (c) to (h) of this Rule, contributions shall be due and payable in advance as from the 1st day in April and the 1st day in October respectively in any year as follows:

GENERAL SECTION: Divisional Branch membership contributions shall be no less than 1% of the Building and Construction General On-Site Award 2010 (or any other award replacing that award) base rate for a carpenter multiplied by 26 unless decided otherwise by the Divisional Executive on application by the Divisional Branch concerned.

The Divisional Branch Management Committee shall calculate the amount of Union contributions based on the abovementioned formula.

The Divisional Branch contributions so fixed shall be applied from the following half year period commencing 1st October and 1st April respectively.

APPRENTICES, IMPROVERS, TRAINEES AND LABOUR MARKET PROGRAMME WORKERS: Divisional Branch contributions for apprentices shall be determined by the Divisional Branch Council concerned.

The apprentice shall be charged half yearly dues at the rate applying at the commencement of that financial half year, except in respect of the financial half year during which the apprentice becomes a tradesperson.

An improver, trainee or labour market programme worker shall be charged half yearly dues at a rate that is less than the general section and is determined from time to time by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

Arrangements for Deduction Schemes

(c) Subject to sub-rule (cA), notwithstanding anything elsewhere in the rules the union may make arrangements with an employer (including any Government Department) or any Bank, Building Society, Credit Union or other financial institution for the regular deduction, on the authority of a member, of amounts whether by way of contributions (rounded up, if necessary, to a multiple of five cents), levies or any other monies which may be payable by a member to the union pursuant to the Rules, from the wages or monies payable to the member or

from any account maintained by the member as the case may be,

and then so long as an authority by the member for the deduction of contributions and other financial dues which is acceptable to the Divisional Branch remains in force, the member shall be deemed financial, notwithstanding that the payments are not made in advance as required by this Rule provided that, the member was financial immediately prior to arranging such deduction.

Provided however that in the alternative, a member may authorise such additional deductions as will repay all outstanding contributions over time and also, from the point at which any outstanding contributions are met in full, ordinary regular deductions thereafter in which case such member shall be regarded as fully financial at the point at which all previously outstanding contributions are met and a current authority to deduct remains in force.

Further provided that in the case of new members such members may either pay all joining fees and membership contributions necessary to become a member and provide an authority to deduct such contributions from the commencement of the first dues period after the date of joining, in which case the member shall be deemed to be financial, or alternatively, authorise the regular deduction of all such fees and contributions as will result in a nil balance owing to the union at the end of such dues period in which case such member shall be entitled to all the benefits of membership other than the right to vote which right shall only be conferred after a continuous period of 26 weeks of contributions are paid under such authority.

(i) This rule applies to members attached to the QNTDB, the WA Divisional Branch, the NSW Divisional Branch and the SA Divisional Branch and applies notwithstanding the provisions of sub-rule (c).

(ii) Notwithstanding anything elsewhere in the rules, a member of the QNTDB, WA Divisional Branch, NSW Divisional Branch or the SA Divisional Branch who:

(a) has paid the entrance fee;

(b) commenced on, and makes payment in accordance with, a Scheme, and

(c) either:

(A) has made payment of all Membership Contributions immediately prior to commencing on a Scheme; or will be a financial member and will be entitled to all the benefits of membership including the right to vote.

(B) has authorised the deduction of an amount that will result in the payment of all Membership Contributions within six (6) months of commencing on a Scheme or with such longer period as the Divisional Branch Secretary permits,

(iii) A member making payment of their Membership Contributions in accordance with:

(a) a payroll deduction scheme will be unfinancial if in arrears for a period of three (3) months after the last payment under the payroll deduction scheme was received; or

(b) a direct debit scheme will be unfinancial if in arrears of two (2) Periodic Payments.

(iv) For the purposes of this rule:

(a) 'Direct Debit Scheme' means a scheme where a member provides written authority for contributions payable to the QNTDB, WA, NSW or the SA Divisional Branch to be deducted, on such regular basis as the respective Divisional Branch Secretary agrees, from the member's financial institution, similar debit account or credit card;

(b) 'Membership Contribution' means entrance fees, subscriptions and levies in accordance with these Divisional Rules;

(c) 'Payroll Deduction Scheme' means a scheme where a member provides written authority to their employer for contributions payable to the QNTDB, WA, NSW or the SA Divisional Branch to be deducted, on such regular basis as the respective Divisional Branch Secretary agrees, from the member's salary;

(d) 'Periodic Payment' means a payment required to be made by a member of the QNTDB , WA, NSW or the SA Divisional Branch at the frequency authorised in their written authority; and

(e) 'Scheme' means a Payroll Deduction Scheme or a Direct Debit Scheme.

Levies

(d) All levies required to be paid by members in accordance with these rules shall be paid in terms decided by Divisional Branch Council or the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

Fines

(e) Any fines required to be paid by a member in accordance with these rules shall be paid in terms decided by Divisional Branch Council of the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(f) All moneys paid by a member shall be credited in the following order:

1. In payment of any levies due; and

2. In payment of any fines due, and

3. In payment of any contributions due

Unfinancial Member

(g) Subject to Sub-rule (cA), (i) and (j) herein, any member who has failed to pay all contributions, levies and fines imposed in accordance with the rules of the union shall be deemed to be unfinancial and shall not be eligible to receive any benefits, participate in any vote, nominate for official positions, propose or second any new applicant member for admission, or exercise any authority or any rights of membership as provided for in these rules.

From the date of payment of all such arrears or any cancellation, credit or waiver in accordance with these Rules, a member shall be deemed to be financial.

Credit to New Members

(h) Applicants joining the Divisional Branch during the currency of any half year shall be credited in the next half year for such period as has elapsed before they joined. Such credit shall be calculated on a monthly basis.

Cancellation/Waiver of Contributions etc

(i) Notwithstanding any other Rule to the contrary, a Divisional Branch Management Committee or such other official/s and/or employee/s within the Divisional Branch as the Divisional Branch Management Committee may authorise from time to time, may, in its discretion, cancel, waive, credit or otherwise diminish either in whole or in part, any contributions, fees, levies or other arrears, whether before or after the period to which the contribution, fee, levy or other arrear relates or before or after such contribution, fee, levy or other arrear falls due, or for or in relation to a period or amount arising before or after the certification of this sub-rule for such reason as the Divisional Branch Management Committee feels appropriate. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such grounds may include:

(a) absence from Australia;

(b) inability to carry on a member's vocation or calling through illness or injury;

(c) unemployment

(d) any other hardship whatsoever;

(e) periods on workers' compensations or because of any injury which, in the view of the Divisional Branch Management Committee ought properly have been compensable;

(f) The maximisation of participation of members in Union affairs and the maximisation of financial union membership

Provided however that any decision to cancel, waive, credit or otherwise diminish the contributions, fees, levies or other arrears of any member by any officer/s and/or employee/s authorised by the Divisional Branch Management Committee to do so, shall be presented to the Divisional Branch Management Committee for final ratification at the next meeting of that body or as soon as practicable thereafter.

Further provided that the Divisional Branch Management Committee may, in its discretion, either before or after the said cancellation, waiver, credit or diminution require from any such member such documentation or other evidence which shows, to the satisfaction of the said Divisional Branch Management Committee, the basis of such cancellation, waiver, diminution or credit.

For the purposes of this Rule and any other Rule of the Union, any period covered by or any amount deducted from any amounts owing or diluted by any cancellation, waiver, credit or diminution shall count for all purposes as if it were a payment of the fees and, in the case of an amount rendering the member otherwise financial shall count, if the period so covered is the only period of unfinanciality, for all purposes as continuous financial membership unless the member is, otherwise than for the cancellation, waiver, credit or diminution, unfinancial.

Provided however persons seeking to rely on the preceding paragraph to establish financial membership for the purpose of eligibility to nominate for office under Rule 38(a) herein, shall only be permitted to do so where the amount waived or sought to be waived on each occasion does not exceed one six-monthly period of membership contributions.

Continuous membership for the purpose of this Rule and wherever encountered in these Rules means membership without any break in the continuity of membership from the last date of acceptance into the Division.

Provided that for the purposes of this Rule continuous membership shall be and include unbroken membership with any Division, Union, Branch or District which amalgamated with the Union or preceded the formation of this Division.

(j) A Divisional Branch Management Committee may, in its discretion and for any reason it considers appropriate, defer for a maximum period of three months the date by which payment of contributions shall be due and payable under sub-clause (b) of this Rule. Any member whose contributions have been deferred will remain a financial member as provided for in Rule 6 for the duration of the deferral, save that the member will not be eligible to nominate for or hold office within the Union for the duration of the deferral. A Divisional Branch Management Committee may only defer the payment of contributions of a member who has paid membership contributions in full in each six-monthly period in which such contributions fell due and payable for at least the previous three years.

Any period covered by a deferral shall count for all purposes as continuous financial membership.

The Divisional Branch Management Committee may defer the payment of contributions either before or after they fall due and payable in accordance with sub-clause (b) of this Rule. If a payment of contributions is deferred after it falls due and payable, the period of the deferral must commence on the date that the contributions fell due and payable and at which the member would, but for the deferral, have become unfinancial. The Divisional Branch Management Committee may not decide to defer the payment of contributions more than three months after the contributions fell due and payable.

33 – COPY OF RULES

All applicants shall be entitled to on admission receive free a copy of Rules of the Union applicable to such member upon request to the Divisional Branch Secretary.

34 – AGED, INFIRM, UNEMPLOYED OR UNFINANCIAL MEMBERS

(a) A member with 10 years' continuous membership who is unable to follow their usual occupation, may on application to Divisional Branch Management Committee or other authorised Committee be granted retired membership at the discretion of the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

On payment of the amount of $2.00 per year or such other higher amount as a Divisional Branch may determine, retired members shall be treated as fully financial and entitled to all the benefits of membership including the right to vote.

Persons who have previously been granted retired membership or honorary life membership shall, if they have paid an amount of $2.00 per year or more since the granting of such membership, be and be treated as retired members in accordance with this sub-rule and fully financial in the union.

In the event that a retired member has paid more than the minimum amount the difference shall be credited to the members account.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

34A – LIFE MEMBERSHIP

(a) A member may apply for life membership, which will be granted at the discretion of the relevant Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(b) Such members shall be treated as fully financial and entitled to all the benefits of membership including the right to vote, without the requirement of paying any dues. Persons who have already applied for and been granted life membership shall be treated as coming within this sub-rule.

(c) Life membership which has been validly conferred prior to the date of this rule change, including life or honorary membership conferred by a union that subsequently amalgamated into the CFMEU, shall be recognised.

35 – FUNDS OF THE DIVISIONAL BRANCH

(a) All moneys subscribed shall be held for the administration of the Divisional Branch in accordance with Rules and banked by its officers in such bank or banks as the Divisional Branch Council shall decide.

(b) All expenditure from the funds shall be in accordance with the Rules of the Divisional Branch and no expenditure shall be permitted for any other purpose.

(c) APPLICATION OF FUNDS - The funds of the Divisional Branch shall be used only for the carrying out of the objects of the Union and in necessary expenses of management.

(d) INVESTMENT OF FUNDS - The surplus funds or other property of the Divisional Branch shall be invested from time to time in such manner as may be authorised by law and as may be determined by the Divisional Branch Council.

(e) All expenditure for ordinary purposes, i.e., incurred in directly furthering the objects and for expenses of management, may be disbursed by direction of the Divisional Branch Management Committee and any other expenditure by direction of the Divisional Branch Council.

(f) From the contributions of the members there may be established funds to be known as the Benefit Fund and Contingent Fund, which are to be used exclusively for the purpose set out in the rule covering these funds and not used for any other purpose.

(g) The Divisional Branch Secretary may be authorised by the Divisional Branch Committee to incur any expenditure on behalf of the Branch Division provided that the Divisional Branch Management Committee may withdraw such authorisation at any time or for any period it sees fit.

All expenditure incurred by this authorisation shall be placed before the Divisional Branch Management Committee for consideration and ratification.

(h) BENEFIT FUND - The credit balance of a Fund shall be maintained at a level determined by the Divisional Branch Council and shall be reimbursed from the General Fund quarterly.

(j) CONTINGENT FUND - The credit balance of a Fund shall be maintained at a level determined by the Divisional Branch Council and shall be reimbursed from the General Fund quarterly.

(k) Notwithstanding sub-rules (e) and (g) hereof, in the NSW Divisional Branch all expenditure for ordinary purposes, i.e. incurred in directly furthering the objects of the union and for expenses of management of the Divisional Branch may be disbursed by decision of the Divisional Branch Secretary or the Divisional Branch President and such other official of the Divisional Branch as the Divisional Branch Management Committee may from time to time authorise. Provided however that all expenditure so incurred shall be placed before the Divisional Branch Management Committee for consideration and ratification, and further provided that the Divisional Branch Management Committee may withdraw such authorisation at any time or for any period it sees fit. Expenditure for other purposes authorised by the rules may be disbursed by decision of the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

36 – AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS

(a) The accounts of the Divisional Branch shall be audited yearly by an approved auditor appointed by the Divisional Branch Council who shall produce and certify a financial statement and report setting out the financial position of the Divisional Branch every financial year to and including the last day of December of each financial year. Such auditor shall also produce and certify a yearly balance sheet. Provided however that the financial year for the Divisional Branches shall, on and from 1 April 2017, and for each year thereafter, commence on and from 1 April each year and end on 31 March of each following year.

The auditor shall have full and complete access to the books and documents of the Branch.

(b) Copies of the financial statement and balance sheet shall be forwarded to all district secretaries for the information of and inspection by financial members.

Upon receipt by the Divisional Branch Secretary of a petition, signed by not less than 5% of the members of the Divisional Branch, requesting that a general meeting of members of the Divisional Branch be called for the purpose of considering the auditor's report, the general purpose financial report and the operating report of the Divisional Branch, the Divisional Branch Secretary shall convene such meeting as soon as is practicable.

37 – OFFICERS

(i) In NSW the officers of the Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President, Divisional Branch Secretary, two Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, and Divisional Branch Management Committee members, together with such Organisers as may be deemed necessary and as the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time determine.

(ii) In the QNTDB the officers of the Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President, two (2) Divisional Branch Senior Vice-Presidents (which positions shall be honorary), two (2) Divisional Branch Vice-Presidents (which positions shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Secretary, the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries (the total number of which shall be determined in accordance with Rule 40 of these Divisional rules) which shall include a Divisional Branch

Assistant Secretary (Plasterers) and may include a Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary (Painters), and two Divisional Branch Executive Members.

(iii) In the Australian Capital Territory, the officers of the Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President (which position shall be honorary), two Divisional Branch Vice Presidents (which positions shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Secretary/Treasurer, the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary, Divisional Branch Organisers, Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference and members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(iv) Without affecting the term of office of persons holding office as Divisional Branch Officers immediately prior to the date of certification of this sub-rule, the officers of the Western Australia Divisional Branch shall, on and from 2 January, 2001, or the declaration of the election in 2000, whichever is the later, consist of the Divisional Branch President, the Divisional Branch Senior Vice President, the Divisional Branch Vice President, the Divisional Branch Secretary, two (2) Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, three (3) Divisional Branch Trustees, the Divisional Branch Treasurer and Divisional Branch Management Committee members, together with such number of Organisers as the Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time determines.

Provided however that on and from the date of certification of this amendment there shall be only one (1) Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary in the Western Australian Divisional Branch.

(v) (a) [Deleted]

(b) On and from 2 January 2013 or the declaration of the election in 2012 whichever is the later, the officers of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch shall be the Divisional Branch President, a Divisional Branch Vice-President (which position shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Secretary, two (2) Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, a Divisional Branch Senior Vice-President, (which shall be a paid, full-time position), the members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee, the members of the Divisional Branch Sub-Branch Management Committee referred to in Rule 42B(b) herein, Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference, and such number of Organisers as may be decided by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(vi) The officers of the South Australia Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President, (which position shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Vice President, (which position shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Secretary, two Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, the Divisional Branch Treasurer (which position shall be honorary), two (2) Divisional Branch Trustees, (which positions shall be honorary) and the members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

Provided however that on and from the date of certification of this amendment there shall be one only Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary in the South Australian Divisional Branch.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

37A – EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS

Industrial agreements affecting the employment of members of a single Divisional Branch, or persons within the geographic area and occupational categories within the State or Territory for which a single Divisional Branch is responsible, and any other instruments concerning the affairs of a single Divisional Branch, shall be executed by the Divisional Branch Secretary, or such other Divisional Branch Officer as authorised by the Divisional Branch Executive.

38 – DIVISIONAL BRANCH ELECTIONS

(a) (i) Any member of the Divisional Branch who:

(A) is a financial member of the relevant Divisional Branch as provided for in Rule 6, at the time nominations are called,

(B) has had continuous membership of the Divisional Branch during the period immediately preceding the calling of nominations for the length of time specified in the scale in sub-rule (a)(vi) herein for the relevant offices and has not been unfinancial at any time during that period (irrespective of whether any outstanding contributions are subsequently repaid to render the member financial); and

(C) was,

(i) for not less than 9 months during the period of twelve months immediately preceding the calling of nominations employed as an employee in a trade or calling or branch thereof in or in connection with which the union is registered in the geographic area applicable to the relevant Divisional Branch, or engaged as an officer (as defined by Rule 37 herein) in the relevant Division or Divisional Branch (or in any state registered counterpart organisation thereto) or as an employee thereof after having been elected or appointed thereto; or may nominate for such positions according to that scale.

(iA) In relation to the South Australian Divisional Branch only, subrules (a)(i)(B) and (C) and the scale in sub-rule (a)(vi) will not apply to the filling of any casual vacancy that exists at the time of this rule change, or to any casual vacancy that may arise prior to nominations being called for the Divisional Branch election to be held in 2024.

For the avoidance of doubt, a casual vacancy occurs in any office under these rules as a result of death, resignation, retirement, dismissal or for any other reason, and will be filled in accordance with r38(cc).

(ii) Provided further that no member shall be entitled to nominate for more than one full-time office.

(iii) Where a member nominates for more than one full-time position the Returning Officer shall seek from the member an election as to which position the member wishes to contest.

(iv) Where no election is made by the member the Returning Officer shall treat as valid only the nomination for the more senior position.

Seniority shall be determined in the following order:-
Secretary, Assistant Secretary, President, Organiser.

(v) Except in the Divisional Branches in the Australian Capital Territory, Queensland, South Australia and Victoria, a member who nominates for Organiser shall not be entitled to nominate for Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee.

Note: This sub-rule is affected by the operation of Schedule 1.

(vi) No member shall nominate for both Trade Management Committee member in accordance with Rule 42 - Divisional Branch Management Committee, and Trade or Zone Councillor in accordance with Rule 40 - Supreme Governing Body.

Where a member nominates for both, the Returning Officer shall seek from the member an election as to which position the member wishes to contest.

Where no election is made by the member the Returning Officer shall treat as valid only the nomination for the Divisional Branch Council, being the supreme governing body of the Divisional Branch.

The scale of continuous financial membership of the Branch necessary for members to be qualified to nominate for the following positions, is as follows:

Divisional Branch Secretary Divisional Branch Secretary/Treasurer Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary Divisional Branch President Divisional Branch Senior Vice-President and Vice President Divisional Branch Delegate to Divisional Conference	3 years' continuous financial membership
Divisional Branch Management Committee Member District Secretary/Organiser Organiser Sub-Branch Secretary, President, Or Management Committee Member Divisional Branch Trustee (South Australia and Queensland Builders Labourers' Divisional Branches)	1 year's continuous financial membership

(b) The term of office for the above positions shall be four years and such term shall commence from the 2 January, following the election. In the event that a delay in the conduct of an election means that the results for an office are not declared until after 2 January, the successful candidate(s) shall take up office on the Monday immediately following the declaration of their election. In circumstances where the results for an office are declared after 2 January, the term of the candidate will be reduced by the length of the delay to ensure that there is no disruption to the next scheduled Divisional Branch election under these rules.

(b)(i) In the event that there is a delay of the kind described in rule 38(b), the incumbent will hold over office beyond 2 January and until their successor takes up office on the Monday immediately following the declaration of their election. Any action taken by the incumbent while holding over office shall not be invalidated merely because they have been held over in the position in accordance with these rules.

(c) Nominations for the above positions shall be called by the Returning Officer by notification in the union journal and the Divisional and relevant Divisional Branch website. Where a Divisional Branch printed journal is not scheduled for publication within two weeks of the opening of nominations then the website notification shall suffice. Alternatively, notice may be given to members by publication in one daily newspaper circulating in the Divisional Branch area on or before the last day of August in the year of the election.

Provided that such notifications shall clearly indicate that the Divisional Executive members, the full-time Divisional Officers, the National Conference delegates and the National Officers are elected by and from Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference and not otherwise.

(d) Nominations must be lodged with the Returning Officer before the close of nominations at the address and by the methods specified on the notice of election. Nomination forms shall be signed by the candidate and by at least ten (in the case of those offices in (a)(vi) above for which 3 years continuous financial membership is required) and five (in all other cases) financial members of the Divisional Branch.

(e) Nominations shall be closed at 4 pm on the second last Friday of September, 1996 and each four years thereafter following that date. Nominations must be received by the Returning Officer by that time on the date to be eligible.

A member having nominated for any office in accordance with this Rule may withdraw the nomination by notifying the Returning Officer in writing of an intention to do so at any time up to seven (7) days after the closing of nominations. The Returning Officer on receipt of a notification from a member wishing to withdraw a nomination shall immediately take the appropriate steps to withdraw the member's name from the ballot papers prior to their distribution.

(f) Candidates may include with their nomination form, a statement not exceeding 200 words and in respect of Divisional Branch Councillor 50 words, containing only the candidate's personal history and only the candidate's policy statement.

(g) The Returning Officer shall examine all nominations to ensure that they are in order and if any nominations are found to be defective, the Returning Officer, before rejecting the nominations, shall notify the person concerned of the defect and where practicable to do so give them the opportunity of remedying the defect within a period of not less than seven days after being so notified.

(h) If at the closing date for nominations only sufficient nominations have been received by the Returning Officer to fill any vacancy or vacancies the Returning Officer shall thereupon declare person or persons so nominating elected and supply forthwith a report of the declaration of the ballot to the Divisional Branch Management Committee and candidates by submitting a Returning Officers' report to the Divisional Branch Secretary.

(j) If all nominations are received and there are more nominations than there are vacancies the Returning Officer shall conduct a draw for positions on the ballot paper and shall notify candidates of the time and place of the draw in sufficient time for a candidate or his nominee to attend the draw; such attendance shall be at the candidate's own costs and expense.

(k) The Returning Officer shall forthwith have printed ballot papers in sufficient quantities to enable him to supply a ballot paper for each member eligible to vote in the election and secure a certificate from the printer as to the number printed.

(l) Such ballot papers shall have printed thereon only the title of the office to be filled, method of voting and the name of the candidates for such office and a space for the required vote to be registered, provided however that where more than one candidate is required to be elected the number to be elected shall, be printed on the ballot paper. The position of the names of each candidate on the ballot paper shall be in order of the draw of positions for that ballot.

(d) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules, no member shall be required to do or omit to do any act, which would be a breach of the Industrial Relations Act, or the Award governing his calling.

53 – MISCONDUCT OF MEMBERS

(a) A member knowingly violating any registered Rule or By-Law of the Divisional Branch may be fined a sum not exceeding $100 by the District Committee. Should, however, the matter be referred to the Divisional Branch Management Committee, they shall have the power to fine a sum not exceeding $100 expel or suspend from benefit for a period not exceeding six months for such offence.

(b) Any member acting in a disorderly manner during a meeting or acting in opposition to the ruling of the Presiding Officer may be fined a sum not exceeding $20 and should he persist the Presiding Officer shall have power to call on the members to expel that member from such meeting.

(c) It shall be competent for the Divisional Branch Management Committee to inflict a fine not exceeding $20.00, suspend from benefit for a period not exceeding six months, any member from the Divisional Branch upon satisfactory proof being given that such member has knowingly refused to comply with decisions of the Divisional Branch Council or the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(d) It shall be competent for the Divisional Branch Management Committee to expel any member for misappropriation of the fund of the Divisional Branch or for a substantial breach of the Rules of the Divisional Branch or for gross misbehaviour or gross neglect of duty.

(e) Charges under these Rules shall be made in writing within one (1) month of the discovery of the incident to which it refers, to the District Committee or the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

The members so charged shall be summoned to attend a meeting of Committee or Management Committee by a written notice giving the short substance of the charges and notifying the time and place of meeting. Such notice shall be posted to the members last known place of abode not less than five (5) days, or in the case of a member whose last known place of abode is situated more than 100 miles from the place where the charge is to be heard, not less than ten (10) days, before the date of such meeting.

At the appointed time and place the charge shall be investigated either by the District Committee or Divisional Branch Management Committee, whether or not the member shall be in attendance.

The decision of the Committee or Management Committee shall be binding on the member, subject to right of appeal. A member charged shall be given a reasonable opportunity to be heard in their defence and may if the member desires answer the charges in writing.

Any member making a charge which upon investigation proves to be false or frivolous shall be dealt with as the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee may decide.

54 – PAYMENT OF FINES

A member who is fined for any offence under these Rules shall pay such fine within 21 days following the date of the imposition of the fine. Should the fine not be paid, the amount due shall be added to the member's annual account.

55 – APPEALS OF MEMBERS

(a) Any member or members finding themselves aggrieved or having any complaint against the officers or members of the Union may make a written appeal to the District Committee for redress, who shall in the case of appeals on any matter that does not relate to the District management forward the appeal to the Divisional Branch Management Committee within one month.

(b) Any members dissatisfied with the decision of the District Committee may appeal to the Divisional Branch Management Committee within one month of the decision being given.

(c) Any member dissatisfied with the decision of the Divisional Branch Management Committee may appeal against the decision to the Divisional Branch Council within one (1) month after the hearing of his case by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(d) An appeal shall be in writing and shall be lodged with the Divisional Branch Secretary. The appeal shall set forth concisely the grounds on which it is based and the Divisional Branch Management Committee or Divisional Branch Council shall review the evidence taken at the original hearing of the charge, whereupon the Divisional Management Committee or Divisional Branch Council may confirm, annul or modify the penalty.

Should the appellant desire to appear in person before the Divisional Branch Management Committee or Divisional Branch Council the appellant member shall be afforded the opportunity to do so.

56 – DISTRICT COMMITTEES

(a) District Committees shall be on a trade or zone basis as provided for in the rules.

Both Zone and Trade District Committees shall be regarded as District Committees and shall be established in accordance with the Rules for the purpose of carrying out organisational work and to co-operate with the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee in the administration of the Divisional Branch.

(b) The Divisional Branch Council may make such by-laws as it sees fit, not inconsistent with the rules of the Union, for the effective operation of Districts and District Committees including to the extent thought necessary the election of District Officers, their duties, the finances thereof and any other matter pertaining thereto.

57 – SHOP STEWARDS/JOB DELEGATES

Shop stewards/job delegates may be appointed by the Divisional Branch Management Committee or appointed by the members in such shop or job. They shall receive proper credentials from the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(a) It shall be the duty of all shop stewards/job delegates to endeavour to enrol appropriate workers in their respective shops or jobs into the Union.

(b) They may receive contributions from members in such shops or jobs and issue a receipt from a receipt book provided by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(c) They shall be responsible for the payments of all monies received by them to the Divisional Branch fortnightly.

(d) They shall from time to time furnish written reports to the Divisional Branch Management Committee of the industrial conditions pertaining in such shop or job.

(e) Immediately on conclusion of his employment as a shop steward/job delegate shall return the receipt book to the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary and obtain an acknowledgement of same.

Shop stewards/job delegates shall return the receipt book for audit twice each year in the months of January and July, or when so required by the Divisional Branch Management Committee to the Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary.

58 – VICTIMISATION

Should any District Secretary, Town Steward, Shop or Job Steward be victimised or reasonably supposed to be victimised for carrying out any duties of the Union, the Divisional Branch Management Committee shall take all necessary steps to see that his interests are protected.

59 – ALLOWANCES

The Divisional Branch Council may determine in any year the allowances, if any, to be paid to persons representing the Divisional Branch or attending meetings at the request of the Divisional Branch or for its purposes.

60 – TOOL BENEFIT

The Divisional Branch Council may establish a tool benefit for the compensation of members whose tools are lost by fire, theft or accident.

61 – FUNERAL BENEFIT

The Divisional Branch may pay out of its funds a funeral benefit to representatives of deceased members. The criteria for eligibility of the funeral benefit to be determined by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

62 – CONTINGENT FUND

If the Divisional Branch establishes a Contingent Fund, it may be used for the payment of contributions of members who have been financial members for a period of 12 months, and whose payments have not been met due to unemployment, sickness or other reasonable cause.

63 – RULES OF DIVISIONAL BRANCHES AND BY-LAWS

1. Any Divisional Branch may make By-Laws in furtherance of any of the rules contained herein or for the proper functioning of the Divisional Branch or for the proper functioning of any District or Divisional Sub-Branch thereof.

2. Such By-Laws shall be effective and binding on any member to which they would apply.

3. Such By-Laws shall not be inconsistent with any of the rules of the union and shall, to the extent of any inconsistency, be void, ineffective and inoperative.

64 – STANDING ORDERS AND RULES OF DEBATE – GENERAL MEETINGS

(a) Order of Business:

1. Opening of meeting.
2. Reading and adoption of minutes of previous meeting.
3. Admission of new members.
4. Election of Officers.
5. Divisional Branch Management Committee minutes.
6. Adjourned business.
7. Reading of Correspondence.
8. Auditor's Report.
9. Report of delegates.
10. Secretary's Cash Account.
11. New business.

(b) The first member who attracts the attention of the Divisional Branch President shall have precedence in speaking.

(c) Members addressing the meeting shall direct their speech to the Presiding Officer and remain standing while so doing.

(d) No discussion shall be permitted unless there is a motion before the meeting. Any such motion shall be duly proposed and seconded. Any number of amendments may be proposed and discussed simultaneously with the original motion.

(e) When a motion shall have been duly proposed and seconded, the Divisional Branch President shall proceed at once to take the votes thereon unless some member rises to oppose or to propose an amendment, but no amendment shall be in order unless notice is given to move the same before the proposer of the resolution has replied.

(f) No more than two members shall speak in succession on one side, either for or against any question before the meeting, and if at the conclusion of the second speaker's remarks no member rises to speak on the other side, the motion or amendment shall be put at once to the meeting.

(g) It shall be competent at any time during a debate for a member to move, without discussion, "That the question be now put," which, on being duly seconded and carried, shall necessitate the submission of the motion at once to the meeting after the mover has replied.

(h) In the event of a number of amendments being proposed and discussed the Divisional Branch President shall put them to the vote in the following order: The first amendment shall be voted on, if carried it becomes the motion. If defeated, the original motion stands. The second amendment is then voted on, if carried it becomes the motion. If defeated, the motion stands, that is, the original motion or the first amendment, if carried.

All subsequent amendments shall be dealt with in this order. After the vote on each succeeding amendment has been taken, the surviving proposition shall be put to the vote as the motion, and if carried, becomes a resolution of the meeting.

(i) No member shall be allowed to speak more than once on the motion, except strictly in explanation, excepting the mover of the original motion, who shall have the right of reply. The mover of the motion shall be allowed 10 minutes to move the motion and 5 minutes to reply. No other speaker shall occupy a longer period than 5 minutes.

The meeting may, however, grant an extension of time to any speaker. No further discussion shall take place nor shall questions be allowed after the mover has replied.

(j) A resolution may, during the meeting at which it was passed be recommitted on the affirmative vote of two-thirds of those present at such meeting. A resolution may be rescinded by the giving of one month's notice and a majority vote being cast at the meeting subsequent to the expiry of the month's notice.

(k) On any member rising to a point of order during discussion, the speaker shall sit down and such member on rising shall state the point of order when the Divisional Branch President shall rule thereon. Such ruling shall be final, provided that it is not disagreed with by a majority of those present.

(l) Questions of order shall be decided by the Chairman, whose ruling shall be final, unless it is challenged by a formal motion for that purpose.

(m) The Divisional Branch President or Chairman for the time being may speak only on questions in which the interests of the office they represent are directly involved. In the event of the Divisional Branch President or Chairman desiring to speak on any question they shall vacate the chair.

(n) Should any question have occupied the attention of the meeting for thirty (30) minutes, the discussion on such question shall be deemed to have closed, and the Divisional Branch President shall forthwith call on the mover to reply, unless the meeting decides by resolution (carried by a majority of the members present) to continue the discussion of the matter in question.

(o) At any meeting of the Divisional Branch any member entitled to be present may give notice of motion for a future meeting by (1) reading such notice to the meeting, or (2) handing a copy thereof to the Divisional Branch President. Such notice of motion shall take precedence in the order in which it stands in the minutes book in relation to other similar notices, unless otherwise ordered, and shall lapse if the member, or some member on their behalf, be not present when the order of the day for such notice is read.

No motion for the adjournment of the meeting shall be received while there is business before the Divisional Branch President.

MOVING DISSENT FROM CHAIRPERSON'S RULING

(p) Any member dissatisfied with the ruling of the Chairperson may move a motion of dissent as follows: "That the Chairperson's ruling be dissented from."

The motion shall then be put to the meeting by the Vice-Chairperson, without discussion, in the following manner. The question is, "That the Chairperson's ruling be upheld." Schedule 1 – Temporary Amalgamation of Victoria-Tasmania and South Australia Divisional Branches (2025 – 2029)

Operation of Scheme

1. This Schedule provide for the amalgamation of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch and the South Australia Divisional Branch.

2. The rules in this Schedule operate on and from 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the divisional elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is later.

3. However, for the purpose of the Divisional Branch election scheduled for 2024, the offices to be elected are those prescribed by Rule 8 (Divisional Conference Delegates) and Rules 37, 38, 40, 42B and 42C (for officers of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch) as amended by this Schedule;

4. To avoid doubt, for the purpose of the Divisional Branch election scheduled for 2024, the persons holding office as at the date the rule changes are certified by the Fair Work Commission, including offices that are abolished as a result of these rule changes, will continue to hold those offices until 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the Divisional Branch elections in 2024, whichever is the later.

Amended Rules

5. In Rule 4, insert new sub-rule (viiA) as follows:

> (vii) Any person who, at the date this sub-rule takes effect, is a member of the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch or the South Australia Branch shall be and become a member of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch and shall have the same financial membership status within that Divisional Branch as they did within their former Divisional Branch at the time of their transfer. Any outstanding membership contributions owing to the Victoria-Tasmania Branch or the South Australia Divisional Branch as at the date this rule takes effect, shall become an amount owing to the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australian Divisional Branch. The period of membership of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch is, for each person who becomes a member of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch under this subrule, the same as that held by such members within the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch of South Australia Divisional Branch, as the case may be.

6. In Rule 8(ii), in the fifth paragraph down, the words "The Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary of the South Australian Divisional Branch shall, by virtue of the holding of such office, be a member of the Divisional Conference." are deleted and replaced as follows:

> On and from 25 January 2025, or the declaration of the Divisional Branch elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is the later, the South Australia Sub-Branch Secretary and the South Australia Sub-Branch President shall, by virtue of the holding of such office, be a member of the Divisional Conference.

7. In Rule 8(iii), the existing sub-rule is retained and the following new paragraph is added immediately after the existing words:

> In the case of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Branch, the calculation will be performed separately for members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the South Australia Branch and members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the Victoria-Tasmania Branch. The number of delegates that the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Branch is entitled to elect will be the combined total of these calculations.

Only members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the South Australia Branch will be entitled to vote for any delegates to which the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Branch is entitled by reason of the calculation performed in respect of members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the South Australia Branch.

Only members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the Victoria-Tasmania Branch will be entitled to vote for any delegates to which the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Branch is entitled by reason of the calculation performed in respect of members who would, but for the amalgamation provided for in this Schedule 1, be members of the Victoria-Tasmania Branch.

To avoid doubt, the entitlements under this sub-rule are in addition to any entitlement the South Australia Sub-Branch Secretary and/or South Australia Sub-Branch President may have to be a member of the Divisional Conference by operation of 8(ii) above.

8. In Rule 8(iv), the existing sub-rule is retained, and a new paragraph is added after the third paragraph\, so that the sub-rule reads:

(iv) For the purpose of this rule the formula which shall apply to determine the number of members of a Divisional Branch shall be to divide the amount of Divisional Branch income referred to in Rule 14 (i) received each of the three years prior to the elections by the amount of the annual contribution for that year. Those amounts to be totalled then divided by three to obtain the average number of members on which the Divisional Branch is entitled to elect delegates.

Provided that where the Divisional Branch has not existed for three (3) years the divisor shall be twice the number of half years up to a maximum of six (6) that the Divisional Branch has existed and the Divisional Branch income referred to shall be for the corresponding period.

Further provided that where a Divisional Branch has been the subject of changes in its structure or membership by virtue of a restructuring in whole or part, or an amalgamation, which restructuring or amalgamation has occurred less than three years prior to the elections referred to in the first paragraph of this sub-rule, the Divisional Branch shall be treated, for the purposes of this sub-rule, as if it came into existence on the last such change in structure or amalgamation, and the calculation shall be made in accordance with the immediately preceding proviso.

Notwithstanding anything else in this sub-rule, in the case of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, the calculation shall be performed in accordance with paragraph 1 of this rule, as though the South Australia Divisional Branch and the Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch continued to exist as separate Divisional Branches.

The Divisional Secretary and the Divisional Assistant Secretary/s shall have the same voting and other rights as other delegates to the Conference.

The existing elected officers of the Divisional Executive shall remain in office until the election of their successors.

9. In Rule 8(vii), the words "Victoria-Tasmania Divisional Branch" are replaced with "Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch" wherever they appear so that the sub-rule reads as follows:

(vii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding sub-rules, in the case of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch the Divisional Branch Secretary and the two Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries shall, by virtue of being elected or otherwise holding such offices, automatically be among the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference. These ex-officio positions shall occupy the first three of the allocated number of delegates for the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch calculated in accordance with sub-rule (iii) hereof.

10. In Rule 9.1A, the existing sub-rule is retained and the following words are added at the end of the first paragraph:

On and from 2 January 2025, or the declaration of the Divisional Branch elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is the later, the South Australia Sub-Branch Secretary shall, by virtue of the holding of such office, be a member of the Divisional Executive.

11. In Rule 9, sub-rule 15(l)(iii), the existing sub-rule is retained and a new section is added so that the rule as amended reads:

(iii) Where a card vote is requested in accordance with (ii) above, each member of the Divisional Executive shall be entitled to exercise one vote provided however that any Divisional Branch Secretary shall be entitled to exercise additional ordinary votes based on the principle of one additional ordinary vote for each 2000 members or part thereof over and above the first 2000 members of the Divisional Branch from which the Divisional Branch Secretary derives.

Provided that, in the case of Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, the calculation shall be performed separately for members of the Division who reside or are employed in in South Australia, and members of the Division who reside or are employed in Victoria and Tasmania and:

(A) any additional ordinary votes which the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Secretary is entitled to exercise by reason of the calculation performed in respect of members who reside or are employed in Victoria or Tasmania will be exercised by the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Secretary; and

(B) any additional ordinary votes which the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Secretary is entitled to exercise by reason of the calculation performed in respect of members who reside or are employed in South Australia will be exercised by the South Australia Sub-Branch Secretary who will not, for the purposes of this rule, be entitled to exercise the vote to which he would otherwise be entitled by operation of this rule.

12. In Rule 18, delete sub-rule (b) and replace as follows:

(i) Subject to rule (iii) below, from 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the divisional elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is later, in Victoria, Tasmania and South Australia, the Divisional branch shall be known as the Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

(ii) Further:

(A) In the State of Tasmania there shall be a sub-branch of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch which will be known as the Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, Tasmania Sub-Branch; and

(B) In the State of South Australia there shall be a sub-branch of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch which will be known as the Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, South Australia Sub-Branch.

(iii) From 2 January 2029 or the declaration of the divisional elections scheduled to be held in 2028, whichever is the later, the South Australia Divisional Branch shall be re-established as a separate Divisional branch unless the Divisional Executive determines otherwise.

(iv) The Construction and General Divisional Branch Secretary must do all things reasonably necessary to give effect to rule (iii) above including, if necessary, by doing all things reasonably necessary to amend these rules to give effect to the re-establishment of the South Australia Divisional Branch (unless the Divisional Executive has, pursuant to (iii) above, determined otherwise).

13. In Rule 28, sub-rule (b) is amended to delete the ", and", add the words "and South Australia" after the word "Victoria" and append "-South Australia" to the word "Tasmania", so that the sub-rule reads as follows:

(b) In Tasmania, Victoria and South Australia, "The Construction and General Division, Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch".

14. In Rule 29, insert a new third para as follows:

Further provided that notwithstanding the provisions of any other rule, all persons who are members of or apply for membership of the Division, who are residing or employed in Victoria, Tasmania or South Australia shall, on and from the date of certification of this rule, be and remain members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

15. In Rule 30(i)(b), add the following paragraph, after the first paragraph in sub-rule 30(b):

From 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the divisional elections scheduled to be held in 2024, whichever is later, the South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee may deal with membership applications for prospective members who reside or are employed in the State of South Australia on behalf of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

16. In Rule 30, sub-rule (iii) is amended to replace "Victoria-Tasmania" with "Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia" wherever it appears, including in the sub-heading. Sub-rule (iii)(a) is amended to add the words "who resides or works in either the State of Victoria or the State of Tasmania" after the words "each member". The amended sub-rule reads:

(iii) Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch

(a) The record of members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall classify each member who resides or works in either the State of Victoria or the State of Tasmania into one or other of the following classifications:-

(i) carpenter;
(ii) labourer;
(iii) stonemason;
(iv) tilelayer;
(v) painter;
(vi) signwriter;
(vii) bricklayer
(viii) solid plasterer
(ix) roof-tiler
(xx) fibrous plasterer/fibrous plaster industry worker
(xxi) crane operations

(xxv) production worker (metal)
(xxvi) concrete pump operations
(xxvii) forklift/hoist operations
(xxviii) driller

which shall be known as the member's designated classification.

(b) A person applying for membership shall on the membership application form, state which one of the classifications set out in paragraph (a) the applicant for membership considers to be his or her appropriate classification.

(c) In dealing with applications for membership the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall determine each new member's designated classification.

(d) The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee may at any time change a member's designated classification provided that the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall not change a member's designated classification unless -

(i) the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee has received from the member a request in writing for a change to the member's designated classification setting out the reasons for the request; or

(ii) the member has been given a reasonable opportunity by the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee to state in writing the reasons why he or she should retain his or her designated classification or have a different designated classification.

As soon as practicable after the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee changes a member's designated classification in accordance with this paragraph the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall cause the member to be notified in writing and alter the record of members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch accordingly.

(e) The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee shall determine the designated classification of an applicant for membership in accordance with paragraph (d) or a change to an existing member's designated classification in accordance with paragraph (e) by reference to:-

(i) the trade or other qualifications held by the applicant for membership or existing member;

(ii) the award classification of the applicant for membership or existing member, or his or her last award classification; and

(iii) the work performed by the applicant for membership or existing member, or the last work performed by him or her.

(f) Where the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee considers that it does not have sufficient information available to determine the designated classification of an applicant for membership or to change an existing member's designated classification it shall request that the member provide such further information as the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee considers appropriate.

(g) The designated classification of each member determined in accordance with this sub-rule:

(i) shall be solely for the purpose of determining the eligibility of each member to nominate for election to any office within the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch where election to such office is dependent upon the member falling into one or other of the classifications set out in paragraph (a) hereof;

(ii) shall be conclusive; and

(iii) shall bind the Divisional Branch Returning Officer.

(h) For the purposes of determining length of membership of the Divisional Branch in rule 38(a) herein, previous financial membership of the VSBTU (PIWD) shall, where such member has obtained a clearance from the VSBTU in accordance with rule 9 of the National Rules of the CFMEU, count as financial membership of the Victorian Building Unions Divisional Branch.

17. [Deleted]

18. In Rule 37(v), sub-rule (b) is deleted and replaced with the following:

(b) On and from 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the divisional branch election in 2024, whichever is later, the officers of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall be the Divisional Branch President, a Divisional Branch Vice-President (which position shall be honorary), the Divisional Branch Secretary, two (2) Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries, a Divisional Branch Senior Vice-President (which shall be a paid, full-time position), the members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee, the members of the Divisional Branch Tasmania Sub-Branch Management Committee referred to in Rule 42B herein the members of the Divisional Branch South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee referred to in Rule 42C herein, Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference, and such number of Organisers as may be decided by the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

25. In Rule 42(a)(vi), the sub-rule is deleted, and reads as follows:

(vi) Deleted.

26. In Rule 42A, the heading and sub-rule (i) are amended as follows:

42A – DIVISIONAL BRANCH EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE (VICTORIA-TASMANIA-SOUTH AUSTRALIA)

(i) The Divisional Branch Executive Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall consist of the Divisional Branch President, the Divisional Branch Senior Vice-President, the Divisional Branch Vice-President, the Divisional Branch Secretary and the two Divisional Branch Assistant Secretaries.

27. In Rule 42B, sub-rules (a), (b), (c) and (d) are amended so that "-South Australia" is appended to the word "Tasmania" in each place "Tasmania" appears; so that the sub-rules reads:

42B – TASMANIA SUB-BRANCH MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE (VICTORIA-TASMANIA-SOUTH AUSTRALIA DIVISIONAL BRANCH)

(a) There shall be a Tasmania Sub-Branch Management Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Sub-Branch.

(b) The Tasmania Sub-Branch Management Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall consist of the Sub-Branch Secretary, the Sub-Branch President and six (6) other persons all of whom shall be elected by and from members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch who are residing or employed in the State of Tasmania.

(c) The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Council and Divisional Branch Management Committee shall have the care, control superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business and funds and property of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

(d) Provided however that the Sub-Branch Management Committee shall have the power to make recommendations to the Divisional Branch Council and Divisional Branch Management Committee in respect of the administration, or matters affecting the interests of, the Divisional Branch in the State of Tasmania only.

27A. New Rule 42C is inserted as follows:

42C – SOUTH AUSTRALIA SUB-BRANCH MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

(a) On and from 2 January 2025 or the declaration of the divisional branch elections scheduled for 2024, whichever is the later, there shall be a South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

(b) Members of the South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall consist of the Sub-Branch Secretary, the Sub-Branch President and six (6) other persons all of whom shall be elected by and from members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch who are residing or employed in the State of South Australia.

(c) The Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Council and Divisional Branch Management Committee shall have the care, control superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business and funds and property of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch.

(d) The South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee shall have the power to make recommendations to the Divisional Branch Council and Divisional Branch Management Committee in respect of the administration, or matters affecting the interests of, the Divisional Branch in the State of South Australia only.

(e) The Secretary of the South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee shall have such duties and powers as are determined by the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time, along with any duties delegated under Rule 46(l).

28. In rule 43(b), sub-rule (ii) is amended to append "-South Australia" to the word "Tasmania" so that the sub-rule reads:

(ii) In the New South Wales Divisional Branch and the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch, the Divisional Branch President shall be employed in a full-time capacity.

29. In rule 44, sub-rule (i) is deleted, so that the sub-rule reads:

(i) [Deleted].

30. In rule 44, sub-rule (ii) is deleted, so that the sub-rule reads:

(ii) [Deleted].

31. In rule 44, sub-rule (iii) is amended to append "-South Australia" to the word "Tasmania" in each place in which it appears so that the rules read:

(iii) In Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia the Divisional Branch Vice-Presidents shall have such duties and responsibilities as may be determined from time to time by the Divisional Branch Council or the Divisional Branch Management Committee.

32. In rule 45, sub-rule (a) is amended to delete the words "Except in the case of the South Australia Divisional Branch the" and insert in their place "The"; and sub-rule (b) is deleted, so that rule 45 reads:

(a) The Divisional Branch Management Committee shall elect from among themselves, three trustees. The election shall be conducted in accordance with Rule 42(q). Provided however that there shall be no trustees in the New South Wales Divisional Branch.

On a written authority signed by the Divisional Branch President and the Divisional Branch Secretary any two of the three Divisional Branch Trustees shall sign cheques for such sums as may be voted by the Divisional Branch Council or Divisional Branch Management Committee in accordance with these Rules. Such cheques to be counter signed by the designated Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary. The designated Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary will be determined by the State Management Committee or equivalent body.

In the New South Wales Divisional Branch either the Divisional Branch Secretary and the Divisional Branch President, or the Divisional Branch Secretary or the Divisional Branch President and such other person as is nominated by the Divisional Branch Management Committee from time to time, shall sign cheques for such sums as may be authorised in accordance with these rules. Provided however that the nomination referred to herein may be on such terms as determined by the Divisional Branch Management Committee and may be revoked at any time. Further provided that all expenditure of the Divisional Branch shall be placed before the Divisional Branch Management Committee for consideration and ratification.

33. In rule 46, new sub-rule (l) is inserted as follows:

(l) The Divisional Branch Secretary of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch shall have the power to delegate to the Secretary of the South Australia Sub-Branch Management Committee, some or all of the duties of the Divisional Branch Secretary in connection with, and only in connection with, members of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch residing or working in South Australia. A delegation under this sub-rule may be revoked by the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Victoria-Tasmania-South Australia Divisional Branch at any time.

34. In rule 48A, sub-rule (a) is deleted, so that the sub-rule reads:

(a) [Deleted].

35. In rule 48B, the heading is amended to append "-SOUTH AUSTRALIA" to the word "TASMANIA" and in sub-rule 1 "-South Australia" is appended to the word "Tasmania" so that the heading and sub-rule 1 read as follows:

Further provided that:

1. (a) Nothing in sub-rule (B)(3) shall render eligible for membership persons eligible for membership of the ASU as at 13th November 1998.

(b) For the purposes of sub-clause (a) above, the reference to business equipment in Rule 5 b Part V(a) of the rules of the ASU shall be taken to mean equipment of the kind referred to in the last sentence of that sub-rule.

2. Notwithstanding Clause 1 above, and subject to clause 4 below, employees of contractors referred to in Rule 5 B Part 1 i of the rules of the ASU, who are otherwise within the scope of this sub-rule (B)(3), shall be eligible for membership of the CFMEU pursuant to this sub-rule (B)(3) except where:

(a) such employees were, prior to the contracting out of services, employees of the relevant Councils, Authorities, Boards, Corporations, Commissions or Trusts or;

(b) such employees are employed by contractors who work predominantly for any of the relevant Councils, Authorities, Boards, Corporations, Commissions or Trusts, and are employed on any work for any of the relevant Councils, Authorities, Boards, Corporations, Commissions or Trusts; or

(c) such employees are employed by contractors who work predominantly for any of the relevant Councils, Authorities, Boards, Corporations, Commissions or Trusts.

3. Notwithstanding Clause 1 above, and subject to clause 4 below, employees of corporations referred to in Rule 5 Part 1 i of the rules of the ASU, who are otherwise within the scope of this sub-rule (B)(3), shall be eligible for membership of the CFMEU pursuant to this sub-rule (B)(3) except where such employees are employed by corporations which are appointed to carry out or appointed to be entrusted with the carrying out of works, operation or functions which were previously or usually performed by or on behalf of a Municipal or Shire Council or other Local Government Authority prior to their appointment.

4. Nothing in clause 2 or 3 of this rule shall operate to render ineligible for membership of the CFMEU employees engaged on new construction work in connection with services which have not passed to the relevant Council, Authority, Board, Corporation, Commission or Trust which on completion of such construction work is responsible for the provision and maintenance of those services.

5 - DEFINITIONS

In these rules, unless the contrary intention appears:

"UNION" shall mean this Union and shall include all its Divisions, Branches, Divisional Branches and/or any other section or part of the Union.

"DIVISION" shall mean a division of the Union established under these Rules or by the National Executive or National Conference and shall, as far as practicable, be on industry or occupational lines.

"BRANCH" shall mean a Branch of the Union established in accordance with these rules or by the National Conference or National Executive of the Union and shall cover a geographic area.

"DIVISIONAL BRANCH" shall mean a geographic branch established under Divisional Rules by a Division established in accordance with these rules. Provided that some such divisional branches may be on occupational and geographic bases.

"FINANCIAL MEMBER" shall mean any member who has paid all subscriptions, fines, levies and dues in accordance with the Rules of the Union.

"MEMBER" shall mean a member of this union, male or female.

"NATIONAL COLLEGIATE" shall mean the totality of delegates from all Divisions to each Divisional Conference.

"PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION" shall mean a system of representation at Committees, Conferences, Executives or the like which, as far as practicable, will provide for voting on a basis which reflects the number or percentage of financial members, as calculated in accordance with these rules, that each person on such Committee, Conference, Executive or the like, represents.

"DISTRICT" AND "SUB-BRANCH" AND "ZONE" where used in the Rules of the Union shall mean sectors of a Divisional Branch of the Union.

"RULES OF THE UNION" means all of the Rules of the Union as read and construed in totality while "NATIONAL RULES" shall refer to these rules, "BRANCH RULES" shall refer to the Rules of any Branch of the Union established under the Rules of the Union, "DIVISIONAL RULES" shall refer to the Rules of any Division established in accordance with the Rules of the union, and "DIVISIONAL BRANCH RULES" or "DIVISIONAL DISTRICT BRANCH RULES "shall refer to the rules of Divisional Branches, being a branch of a Division, established in accordance with the Rules of the union.

"MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE" and/or "EXECUTIVE" shall be synonymous and shall mean the controlling and administrative body of the organ so referred to, ie Division or Branch or Divisional Branch.

"PREFERENTIAL VOTING" shall mean a system of voting in which the voter shall place the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom they vote as first preference and shall place the number 2, 3, 4 (and so on, as the case requires) in the squares opposite the names of all the remaining candidates so as to indicate the order of preference for them.

> In a ballot by the preferential system the valid ballot papers shall be separated into separate parcels, each such parcel containing all those papers on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate.
> If on the first count a candidate receives an absolute majority of first preference votes of total valid votes cast then that candidate shall be declared elected.
> If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the candidate with the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded and the ballot papers on which a first preference is indicated for such candidate shall be counted to the remaining candidates next in the voters' order of preference.
> If a candidate has then an absolute majority of votes then that candidate shall be elected, but if no candidate then has a majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and the distribution of the vote preferences shall continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.
> In cases where more than one position is to be filled the numbers placed opposite the candidates' names up to the number of positions to be filled shall be first preference votes and the procedure in respect to the distribution of preferences shall be the same as is above prescribed where a ballot is for a single position.
> The candidate or candidates as the case may be, who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

"GENERAL ELECTIONS" shall mean the elections held every four years commencing in 1996 office to be taken on 2 January 1997 in accordance with the Rules of the Union, with the exception of the Mining and Energy Division, where office will be taken 1 July 1996.

"PLURAL/SINGULAR" every reference in these rules to the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.

6 - SEAL

(i) The Seal of the Union shall be oval in shape inscribed on the outer edge "Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union".

(ii) The Seal shall be kept in the custody of the National Secretary.

(iii) Any document required or permitted by the Workplace Relations Act to be under seal shall be executed on behalf of the Union by affixing the Seal of the Union thereto and by being signed by the National Secretary or in the absence of the National Secretary, either the National President or National Assistant Secretary.

(iv) Any document otherwise required by law to be under seal shall be executed by affixing the Seal of the Union thereto and by being signed by the National Secretary and either the National President or National Assistant Secretary.

7 - MEMBERSHIP

(i) A candidate for membership of the Union may make application to the National Secretary, the Division covering the occupation or industry in which the person is employed, the Branch covering the area in which the person is employed or resides, or the Divisional Branch covering the industry or occupation in which the person is employed, usually employed or desirous of being employed and the area in which the person resides or is employed, and such application shall be made and dealt with in the manner and subject to the conditions including conditions as to any probationary period required by the rules of the Division. Any application shall be forwarded to the office in the appropriate division which under the rules of that division deals with such applications. The decision to accept or reject that application shall be made in accordance with the Rules of that division by that office. Provided that where a person makes application to any officer of the Union that application shall be a valid application for membership of the Union and the Union shall, treat the member as a member of the Division to which the officer is attached, until transferred in accordance with the rules.

(ii) Candidates shall supply such information as to their identity and occupation, and such other particulars as to their eligibility for membership and the benefits of membership as the Rules of the Union may require, and shall, when requested, fill in and sign such application form as may be provided.

(iii) (a) Any application for membership may be referred to the National Executive by the Division, or Divisional Branch to whom application is made or by the member.

(b) Where in any case the admission to membership of the person applying is rejected, such person shall have the right to appeal to the National Executive, whose decision shall be final.

(iv) A member shall be attached to the Division of the Union covering the industry or employment of the member and shall be in only one such Division. Each member shall be notified of the Division to which such member is attached or any other classification relevant to the Rules of the Union and such Division or classification shall be entered on the record of the Union in relation to that member which record shall be conclusive proof of the Division and/or classification to which that member is assigned.

(v)(a) Notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in the Rules of the Union no application for membership of the union shall be void or irregular only for the reason that the form of application is not fully completed or completed at all, or that some other form of application is used, or any other procedure under the Rules has not been complied with provided that the person intended to, and did in fact, in some way or other, apply for membership and the Union treated the person as a member. A member may be transferred to another Division, Branch or Divisional Branch without loss of continuity of membership. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a person who, at the time of application for membership was not eligible to be or become a member, shall be and become a member as soon as the person is eligible to be and become a member or earlier if by any Act, law or other Rule the membership is otherwise validated provided that the person performs an act which evidences an intention to be or become a member. For all purposes the payment of union dues in whole or in part shall be taken to be, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a method by which a person intended to, and did in fact, in some way or other, apply for membership and/or evidences an intention to be or become a member.

(b) Without affecting or detracting from the requirements of sub-rules 42(iii) and 42(xii) and without limiting the rights of the member or a Division, Divisional Branch or authorised officer thereof, to seek or obtain a transfer of Division or Divisional Branch in accordance with the rules, no membership of the Union and no membership or attachment to a Division, Branch or Divisional Branch of the Union shall be invalidated, void or otherwise treated as irregular on account of the member being attached to a Division, Branch or Divisional Branch which, in accordance with the Rules, may not be the correct Division, Branch or Divisional Branch provided that the member was eligible for membership of the Union and the member was aware of the Division, Branch or Divisional Branch to which the member was attached. Every member of the Union who, on the records of the Union, is financial and is, on those records, attached to a Division, Branch or Divisional Branch shall be treated for all purposes as a financial member thereof and shall be entitled to all rights and required to comply with all obligations which attach thereto until transferred in accordance with the Rules.

(vi) Any Division or Branch or Divisional Branch may utilise for the purposes of application form for membership of this Union, an application form used for any previously registered organisation of employees which has become, upon amalgamation, part of this Union or any application form utilised jointly or otherwise with any trade union of employees registered under any legislation of a State or Territory.

(vii) A member shall, when applying for membership be informed of the financial obligations arising from membership and the circumstances, and the manner, in which a member may resign from the organisation and shall be informed of such in writing.

(viii) (a) Where a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary is of the view that a person in the Division or Divisional Branch of which she/he is an officer should be attached to another Division or Divisional Branch the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary shall contact the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary of the Division or Divisional Branch to which, in the view formed, the member should be attached, and seek to obtain agreement on the transfer of the said member. Where agreement cannot be reached the matter may be referred to the National Secretary and be determined by the National Executive or an officer designated by the National Executive.

(b) Further provided that where a Divisional Secretary or a Divisional Branch Secretary forms the view that a member of another Division or Divisional Branch ought to be a member of the Division or Divisional Branch to which the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary is attached, the Divsional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary shall contact the the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch to which the member is now attached and seek agreement that the member be transferred. Where agreement cannot be reached the matter may be referred to the National Secretary and be determined by the National Executive or an officer designated by the National Executive.

(c) In relation to the two immediately foregoing paragraphs contact between Divisions and/or Divisional Branches in relation to these issues may, by custom and practice or by agreement, be dealt with by an officer other than the Divisonal Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary or may be dealt with by members of staff. Where a member is transferred or determined to be transferred in accordance with either of the immediately preceding paragraphs the member shall be notified accordingly and the transfer shall be effective 14 days after the notification to the member. Within that period the member may object to said transfer and such objection will be determined by the National Executive. Pending such objection the member shall nevertheless be transferred in accordance with any of the aforesaid agreements and/or determinations.

(d) Any determination by the National Executive or officer designated by the National Executive shall use the principles established in and by sub-rules 42(i) and 42(iii) hereof.

Nothing in these paragraphs shall affect or detract from the provisions of subrule(s) 42(i), (iii) and (xii) and membership of a Division or a Divisonal Branch shall be valid notwithstanding an irregularity in, breach of or failure to comply with the procedures in either one or both paragraphs (a) or (b) herein.

8 - ENTRANCE FEES AND CONTRIBUTIONS

(i) Entrance fees and contributions payable by any person on application to join the union and/or for membership or continuous membership of the Union shall be in accordance with the Rules of the division to which, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, the person or member is to be or is assigned.

(ii) Any member who has failed to pay the entrance fees, or contributions, levies and fines imposed in accordance with the rules of the union on or before the date specified in such rules, shall be deemed to be unfinancial, and shall not be eligible to receive any benefits, participate in any deliberations, propose or second any new applicant for admission or exercise any authority or any membership rights, provided that the rules may provide that some members or some class or classes of members may vote in a ballot and/or may differentiate between classes of members as to the amount of any contribution and/or entrance fee.

(iii) A member shall be deemed to be financial immediately upon payment of all arrears outstanding.

(iv) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in Rules 7 and 8 of these National Rules or any Divisional Rules to the contrary, the Union may reach agreement with any organisation of employees, trade union, industrial union or organisation, whether incorporated or otherwise or whether registered under a law of the Commonwealth, State or Territory or unregistered (herein referred to as an "association"), which agreement may provide for automatic membership of this Union for members of any such association and may provide for the receipt and holding of moneys jointly or in common by the aforementioned association and this Union and conversely the automatic membership of members of this Union in such an association.

(b) The Union may, by agreement or unilaterally, grant to any class of members, who are members of another association of a kind referred to in paragraph (a) hereof, membership and waive the requirement to pay an entrance fee and/or contributions in whole or in part.

(c) Nothing in this Sub-Rule shall render eligible for membership any person not otherwise eligible for membership of the Union under the eligibility Rules or pursuant to S.202 of the Industrial Relations Act, or any other provision of that Act or any Act amending or replacing same. Further, "automatic membership" when used in this Sub-Rule shall mean membership granted to a member free of the payment of any entrance fee and contribution in circumstances where the person applying for membership has signified an intention to become a member or having been notified that membership would be granted unless objected to, has not signified objection to that membership.

9 - CLEARANCES

(i) A member desiring to transfer to any other union covering their calling shall make application to the Divisional Branch Secretary, or where the rules of the union so provide, Divisional Sub-Branch, in writing, and shall pay all dues owing to the union, and the transfer will be forwarded to the Secretary of the union to which the member desires to transfer. Such member shall cease to be a member of this Union as from the date on which the transfer is forwarded to the Secretary of such other union.

(ii) Any member of a kindred trade union, or any union whose Awards cover workers specified in Rule 2 of the rules of the union, may be admitted to membership on production to the Divisional Branch Secretary, or where the rules of the Division so provide, the Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District Secretary, of a clearance from such union showing that all dues, contributions and levies payable to such union have been paid. The membership of a person so admitted shall commence as from the date of the production of their clearance. The rules of the Union may provide for persons who had been members of any Division or Divisional Branch of this Union to be admitted without entrance fees or other special conditions.

(iii) A clearance shall not be granted to any member unless all moneys owing have first been paid.

10 - TRANSFERS

(1) A member attached to any Divisional Branch of any Division who is working within the area covered by another Divisional Branch may be transferred to the latter Divisional Branch. The member shall apply to the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch, or where the Divisional Branch rules so provide, of the Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District to which the member was attached for a clearance, and provided the member is financial, the Divisional Branch or Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District Secretary shall forward to the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch to which the member desires to be transferred, the clearance. A member shall be deemed to be attached to the new Divisional Branch as from the date of the receipt of the clearance by the Divisional Branch Secretary of such Divisional Branch, or where the Divisional Branch rules so provide, by the secretary of the Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District, and the member's length of membership of the new Divisional Branch shall be the length of the latest period of membership of the Union.

11 - RESIGNATION OF MEMBERS

(1) A member may resign from membership of the Union by a written notice addressed and delivered to the Divisional Branch Secretary or other officer of the Divisional Branch authorised to receive such correspondence.

(2) The notice of resignation will take effect where that member,

(a) ceases to be eligible to become a member of the Union:

(i) on the day on which the notice is received by the Union; or

(ii) on the day specified in the notice, which is a day not earlier than the day when the member ceases to be eligible to be a member;

whichever is later; or

(b) in any other case:

(i) at the end of 2 weeks after the notice is received by the Union; or

(ii) on the day specified in the notice;

whichever is later.

(3) All contributions and or levies due in relation to the period before the members resignation took effect are to be paid. Where the member fails to do so the Union may prosecute such member in the appropriate court for the recovery of that amount.

(4) A notice delivered to the person mentioned in sub-rule (1) shall be taken to have been received by the Union when it was delivered.

(5) A notice of resignation that has been received by the Union is not invalid because it was not addressed and delivered in accordance with sub-rule (1).

(6) A resignation from membership of the union is valid even if it is not effected in accordance with this rule if the member is informed in writing by or on behalf of the union that the resignation has been accepted.

12 - REGISTER OF MEMBERS

A register of members and any other records of the Union required to be kept by the Industrial Relations Act and the Regulations made thereunder shall be kept at the registered office of the Union and so far as such records relate to a Division or Divisional Branch at the registered office of that Division or Divisional Branch.

13 - SUPREME GOVERNING BODY IN UNION

(i) The supreme governing body of the union shall be the National Conference convened every two (2) years or specially in accordance with these National Rules.

(ii) The National Conference shall consist of all of the members of each and every Divisional Executive for every Division of the Union. Provided that existing elected officers of the National Executive who are retiring from office and who have not been re-elected as members of their Divisional Executive shall be entitled to attend the National Conference until their successors are elected and shall be entitled to all rights of a conference delegate other than nominating and voting on any matter. Further provided that, if not otherwise a delegate to National Conference by virtue of this sub-clause, members of the National Executive entitled to attend and vote thereat shall, ipso facto, be delegates to the National Conference and treated, in all respects, as delegates in the same way as a member of the Divisional Executive and for the purposes of sub-rule (iii) of this Rule be treated as a member of the Divisional Executive from the Division of which such person is a member. Further provided that any person not entitled to attend and/or vote at their Divisional Executive by virtue of the Rules of the Division shall not be entitled, notwithstanding any of the foregoing in this sub-rule, to attend and/or vote at National Conference.

(iii) Persons elected as members of a Divisional Executive shall be elected in accordance with the rules of the Division. Nothing in this sub-rule shall prevent the filling of a vacancy between ordinary elections or interfere with the transitional provisions which shall take effect on and from amalgamation. Each such member of a Divisional Executive shall exercise a vote on the National Conference equal to the percentage of financial members of the Union in the Division from which the member derives divided by the number of members of the Divisional Executive entitled to vote. Provided that nothing in this sub-rule prevents proxy voting or multiple voting.

(iv) The percentage of financial members belonging to any Division shall be the sum of the percentages of financial members of the Divisional Branches within that Division.

For the purposes of this rule, the percentage of financial members of any Divisional Branch shall be calculated by dividing the total income received by the Divisional Branch from contributions only, by the amount of contributions fixed for ordinary members for that Divisional Branch and determining that number as a percentage of total membership of the Union calculated in the same way. This calculation shall be performed for the first six month period of the financial year preceding the year in which the National Conference is held.

(v) Members of Divisional Executives and National Conference shall remain in office until the election of their successors.

(vi) Should any member of a Divisional Executive die or resign or should there be, for any other reason whatsoever, a vacant position as delegate or member to Divisional Executive and/or National Conference, the Divisional Branch Executive of the Divisional Branch in which the vacancy would otherwise be filled may forthwith cause an election for another member or, where the unexpired part of the term for that office until the next general elections does not exceed three quarters of the ordinary term of office, the Divisional Branch Executive may appoint a delegate to such Divisional Conference to be the member or delegate from or of the Divisional Branch in place of the member or delegate who is deceased or has resigned or to fill the position otherwise left vacant. Provided a person appointed by a Divisional Branch Executive in the manner mentioned herein shall hold office only for the residue of the period until the next general elections.

The method of such election or appointment shall be the same, the necessary changes being made, as the method of election or appointment (as the case may be) of the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch from which the vacancy is to be filled in accordance with the rules of the Divisional Branch.

(vii) Divisions or Divisional Branches may, where elected Divisional Branch delegates or members to or of National Conference agree, arrange multiple voting representation at a National Conference by notifying the National Conference of the number of divisional delegates or members to be credentialed and of the arrangements for proxy voting to be adopted by that Division or Divisional Branch at the National Conference.

(viii) Where a delegate is unable to attend a meeting of the National Conference or any part thereof that delegate may where the Divisional Executive agrees appoint another elected delegate to National Conference from the same Division as proxy to act in that delegate's stead. Where the Divisional Executive agrees, a delegate may appoint as the proxy to National Conference an elected delegate from another Division. Each member of the Divisional Executive shall be a delegate to the National Conference.

(ix) Six delegates, representing not less than two Divisions, shall form a quorum of the National Conference.

(x) The National Conference shall have power, unless any rule deprives the National Conference of power or grants to another body within the Union exclusive power over a subject matter, to:

(a) take such steps as it shall think fit to carry out all or any of the objects of the Union and to raise or spend such funds as are necessary to carry out the objects;

(b) decide the general policy of the Union and to take steps to enforce the carrying out of such policy;

(c) subject to the rules prescribing the procedure to be followed, impose penalties being fines not exceeding the sum of $100, suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office, on officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates, for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules of the Union or decisions of the National Conference or the National Executive.
Provided that:

* a copy of the rules of the Union of which there is an alleged breach, and/or the decisions of National Conference or National Executive of which there is an alleged breach are available to members at each Branch office;

* no penalties shall be imposed unless the officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting; particulars are given in the summons of the offence alleged (including the time and places alleged that the offence was committed); and that person charged is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in their own defence, including an opportunity to cross examine and to give and call evidence. Nothing in the preceding rule requires the procedures of court. A period of suspension imposed under this rule shall not exceed six (6) months;

(d) hear and decide any appeal from the National Executive or any Divisional Branch, or Branch or member. Any appeal from a member must be forwarded through the Divisional Branch Committee. Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard;

(e) settle disputes between Divisions;

(f) deal with and decide any matter submitted to it by any Division or Branch of the Union;

(g) confirm, overrule or otherwise deal with decisions of the National Executive;

(h) establish Divisions of the Union;

(j) exercise all or any of the powers of the National Executive;

(k) subject to Rule 25, make alter and rescind any of the Rules of the union, including Branch Rules, Divisional Rules and Divisional Branch Rules;

(l) confer life membership on a member of the Union.

(xi) A National Conference shall be held not later than twenty four (24) months after each general election of the Divisional Branch delegates to National Conference and at such place and time as the National Executive shall decide.

(xii) The business to be dealt with by National Conference shall be shown on the agenda paper, but matters may be added to the agenda paper if agreed to by a majority of delegates at the National Conference. Any matter appearing on the agenda paper may be amended by the National Conference.

(xiii) Notice of every National Conference, together with a copy of the agenda paper therefore shall be posted by the National Secretaries to each Divisional Secretary and each Branch Secretary one calendar month before the date of such meeting, or where agenda items have not been finalised one calendar month before the meeting then they shall be sent at the earliest practicable time.

Notice shall also be posted to all delegates so as to give them at least the notice provided for herein.

(xiv) A copy of the Minutes containing all decisions and business of the National Conference shall be forwarded to each Divisional Secretary and to each Divisional Branch Secretary within two (2) months of the conclusion of each National Conference. Any member of the Union may, upon request to the Divisional Branch Secretary, inspect a copy of the minutes of each National Conference at the Divisional Branch Office or Divisional Office during the ordinary hours in which the Divisional Branch or Division is open.

(xv) The National Secretary on receipt of resolutions from a majority of Divisions or from Divisional Branches representing a majority of members or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10% of the financial members of the Union calling for a special Conference shall call such Conference within thirty (30) days. Each Division, Divisional Branch and delegate to National Conference shall be advised by letter of National Conference business fourteen (14) days prior to the date of the Conference so fixed. The National Executive may direct the National Secretary to call a special conference at any time. Divisions, Divisional Branches and delegates to National Conference shall be given seven (7) days' notice if practicable. Notice shall be given by letter, facsimile, telegram or telex.

Notwithstanding anything contained in any other rule, the National Executive may direct the National Secretaries to conduct a postal, telephonic, telegraphic, telex, verbal and/or written vote (or combination thereof) of delegates to National Conference to obtain a decision on any matter.

14 - NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

(i) The National Executive Committee shall consist of the National Principal Officers, being the National Secretary of the CFMEU, the Divisional Secretary of the Construction and General Division, the Divisional Secretary of the Forestry, Furnishing, Building Products and Manufacturing Division, the General President of the Mining and Energy Division; together with the fulltime elected Officers of each Division who are fulltime at the National level and are not already one of the aforementioned National Principal Officers; two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries of the Forestry, Furnishing, Building Products and Manufacturing Division, one of whom shall be the Principal Officer of the Pulp and Paper Industry Sector and the other of whom shall be the Principal Officer of the Furnishing Industry Sector; and the Divisional President, and two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries of the Construction and General Division if not otherwise included.

(ii) The National Executive Committee shall, subject to the review of its actions by the National Executive, have the care, control, superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business, national funds of the Union and without limiting the generality of the foregoing it may:

(a) interpret and enforce the general policy of the Union as decided by National Executive and/or National Conference.

(b) decide questions of policy not covered by the National Executive and/or National Conference decisions.

(c) control and conduct the business and affairs of the Union while the National Executive or National Conference is not in session.

(d) Expend such moneys by way of ordinary expenditure as may be necessary.

(e) Submit any matter to the National Executive for decision.

(f) Control and supervise the work of the National Officers of the Union.

(g) All decisions of the National Executive Committee shall be made by a majority of the members present at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules.

(iii) Meetings of the National Executive and National Executive Committee shall be held at such time and place as shall be decided by the National President and the National Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the National Executive may demand a meeting of such National Executive which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members of the National Executive. The quorum for any meeting shall be six (6). A majority of the National Officers may demand a meeting of the National Executive Committee which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such National Officers. The quorum for any meeting of the National Executive Committee shall be four (4).

(iv) The National Secretary may take a telegraphic, telex, facsimile, telephonic, email, written and/or postal vote of members of the National Executive or National Executive Committee at any time. Members of the National Executive or National Executive Committee shall be advised of the details of the voting. Such vote shall have the same effect as a decision of such body made in meetings assembled.

(v) Notice of meetings may be given by letter or telegram or telex or facsimile or email or otherwise in writing or by telephone or verbally, provided that in the latter two instances such is confirmed by letter or telegram or telex or facsimile or email.

15 - NATIONAL EXECUTIVE

(i) There shall be a National Executive composed of the National Executive Committee, as defined in these rules, and the principal officer of each Divisional Branch of the Union that is not otherwise a member of the National Executive Committee. Provided that any such Principal Officer of a Divisional Branch shall not be entitled to attend and/or vote at any meeting of the National Executive or vote on any issue before the National Executive if such Principal Officer is not entitled to attend and/or vote, in that capacity, the Divisional Executive of the Division to which the Divisional Branch is attached.

(ii) The National officers shall be elected, except in the case of any vacancy occurring or arising between general elections, by and from the National Collegiate in 1994 and every subsequent four (4) years thereafter and shall hold office until their successors are elected.

(iii) Following the Divisional Conferences in 1993 and the Divisional Conferences following the general elections every four years thereafter the National Executive shall appoint a person as Returning Officer, who shall not be the holder of any office in, and shall not be an employee of, the Union or of any Division, Branch, Divisional Branch or any section of the Union. Such Returning Officer shall have the conduct of the election of the National Officers in accordance with these Rules.

(iv) The National Executive shall, unless its actions are overturned by the National Conference, have the care, control, superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business, national funds and property of the Union and shall have and may exercise no more and no less than all of the powers of the National Conference and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing may:

(a) Interpret and enforce the general policy of the union as decided by National Conference.

(b) Control and conduct the business and affairs of the union while National Conference is not in session.

(c) Appoint the editor of any national union journal and manage and control the policy of such journal.

(d) Hear and decide any appeal from any Division or Branch. Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

(e) Settle disputes between Divisions or Branches. Any Division or Branch concerned shall be given reasonable notice of the meeting and an opportunity of being heard before any settlement is effected.

(f) Expend such moneys by way of ordinary expenditure as may be necessary.

(g) Submit any matter to the members for decision by ballot.

(h) Ensure that officers, committee members, delegates or members and Divisions and Branches carry out the rules and decisions of the Union and subject to Rule 19 impose penalties [i.e. fines not exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars], suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office, upon any officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules or the decisions of the National Conference or the National Executive.

Provided that the rules, the decisions of National Conference or the National Executive are available to members in the minutes of the National Conference or the National Executive and the registered rules of the Union at each Branch office. No penalty shall be imposed unless -

* The officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting seven (7) days prior to the meeting;

* Particulars are given in the summons of the offence alleged, including the time and place it was alleged the offence was committed;

* The member is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in the member's own defence, including an opportunity to cross-examine and to give and call evidence.

Period of suspension imposed under these rules shall not exceed six months.

(j) Subject to rules relating to the autonomy of divisions, take such action as may be necessary to secure the satisfactory working of any Division or Branch or Divisional Branch in the event of the affairs of that Division, Branch or Divisional Branch being so conducted as to affect the proper functioning of the Union, as a registered organisation, or as to make the Union liable for a breach or breaches of the Industrial Relations Act. Subject to Rule 19 herein, such action may include the suspension or dismissal of all or any members holding positions in, or for, a Division or Branch and the appointment of a member of the National Executive or any other member or members of the Union to conduct the affairs of the such Division, Branch or Divisional Branch.

(k) Control and supervise the work of the National Officers of the union.

(l) All decisions of the National Executive shall be made by a majority of the votes cast at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules. The votes cast by members of the National Executive shall be on a card system and the value of the vote cast by any member of the National Executive, including National Officers, shall be determined in the same way, the necessary changes being made as the value of a vote cast by delegates to the National Conference with National Officers being included in the Division from which they derive. Provided that in the calculation of votes cast by members of the National Executive herein, no member of the National Executive who is not entitled to attend and/or vote at the National Executive meeting shall be included as a member for the purposes of the aforesaid calculations.

(m) A loan, grant or donation of an amount exceeding $1,000 shall not be made by this Union unless the National Executive -

(a) has satisfied itself -

* that the making of the loan, grant or donation would be in accordance with the other rules of the Union; and

* in relation to a loan - that, in the circumstances, the security proposed to be given for the repayment of the loan is adequate and the proposed arrangements for the repayment of the loan are satisfactory; and

(b) has approved the making of the loan, grant or donation.

(n) Subject to Rule 25, make, alter and rescind any of the rules of the Union, including Branch Rules, Divisional Rules and Divisional Branch Rules;

(o) Affiliate to any body on behalf of the Union, or, if any Division objects to any affiliation to affiliate on behalf of those Divisions which do not so object;

(p) appoint representatives of the Union to any body;

(q) to affiliate to the Australian Council of Trade Unions and appoint representatives thereto on the basis of proportional representation of each Division.

(r) confer life membership on a member of the Union.

(v) All acts and decisions of the National Executive shall have full force and effect and full validity unless and until such acts or decisions are reversed or amended by the National Executive or the National Conference.

16 - ELECTION OF NATIONAL OFFICERS

(i) The National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary and National President shall be elected by and from the National Collegiate, namely the delegates to all of the Divisional Conferences of the Union and the ballot for such positions shall be a secret postal ballot of delegates to all Divisional Conferences conducted, the necessary changes being made, in accordance with Rule 17 of these rules.

Provided that, for Divisions with more than one Divisional Branch, each Division shall be represented by at least one Officer.

Further provided that, for Division with more than one Divisional Branch, each Division shall hold at least one position of Joint Vice President as follows:

* Joint Vice President (Construction and General Division)
* Joint Vice President (FFPD Division)
* Joint Vice President (Mining & Energy Division)

Further provided that, each Division, prior to the calling for nominations, shall decide its nominees for the above positions by resolution from that Division's National Conference.

Further provided that there shall be a Principal Officer of the FFPD Division representing the former FFTS Division who shall be a National Senior Vice-President. Such officer shall be and remain a member of the National Executive and the National Executive Committee.

Further provided that the Construction & General Division Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers) shall be a National Senior Vice-President and shall be and remain a member of the National Executive and National Executive Committee.

Further provided that the Construction & General Division Senior Vice-President (former National Secretary of the OPDU) shall be a National Senior Vice-President and shall be and remain a member of the National Executive and National Executive Committee.

All full-time officers of each Division, not otherwise elected to any of the foregoing positions, shall be and remain members of the National Executive Committee.

(ii) If the nominations are equal to the number of positions to be filled the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare candidates elected. An officer shall not hold more than one position on the National Executive or National Executive Committee.

(iii) If there are more candidates than the number required for filling the office/s the Returning Officer shall prepare voting papers and conduct the ballot.

(iv) The Returning Officer shall declare the result of the ballot as soon as the count is completed. In the event of a tie, the Returning Officer shall determine the result by declaring a candidate who currently holds the office being contested being elected, should no candidate currently hold the office the Returning Officer shall declare the result by casting lots.

(v) Except in so far as any Act from time to time provides otherwise, whenever any member has been declared elected to any office the member declared to be elected to such office, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity which may have occurred in or in connection with the calling for and dealing with nominations or the conduct of a ballot shall be recognised as validly holding such office.

(vi) A National Executive member and National Executive Committee member and National Officer shall hold office until a successor to such person is elected.

(vii) (a) Where a vacancy occurs in any office under these rules for any reason whatsoever including but not limited to the death, resignation, retirement or dismissal of any officer, such vacancy may be filled by appointment by the Divisional Executive to which the office or officer relates provided that the person so appointed shall hold office for as much of the unexpired part of the term of the office as does not exceed the greater of twelve months or three quarters of the term of the office.

(b) Where the unexpired part of the term of office exceeds that specified in this sub-rule, the Returning Officer shall conduct an election of delegates to all Divisional Conferences to fill the vacancy and the person elected shall hold office for the remainder of the term of office.

(c) Such election shall, the necessary changes being made, be in accordance with Rule 17 (iii) hereof.

(viii) The Returning Officer in any election shall declare the result to members of the National Executive and may do so by post, letter, telegram, telephone, telex, facsimile and/or verbally as soon as the count is completed.

(ix) Provision to be made for the representatives of Divisions to cast votes proportionate to the membership of the respective Division in any ballot for the election of National Officers.

17 - ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO DIVISIONAL CONFERENCES

(i) The method of electing Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall be in accordance with the Rules of the Division every four (4) years in conjunction with the Divisional Branch elections. Such election shall be by direct ballot of the financial members of each Divisional Branch.

(ii) When an election is required to be conducted by these rules the Divisional Branch Executive shall appoint a Divisional Branch Returning Officer who shall not be the holder of an office in and shall not be an employee of, the Union or of any Division, Branch, Divisional Branch or sub-Branch or section of the Union.

(iii) Except in the case of the Mining & Energy Division elections for Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference shall be in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) The method of electing Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall be by secret postal ballot of the whole Divisional Branch financial members entitled to vote in such elections, which shall be held every four (4) years in conjunction with the Divisional Branch elections.

(b) When an election is required to be conducted by these rules the Divisional Branch Executive shall appoint a Divisional Branch Returning Officer who shall not be the holder of an office in and shall not be an employee of, the Union or of any Division, Branch, Divisional Branch or sub-Branch or section of the Union.

(c) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall have the conduct of such elections in accordance with these rules. Where practicable such election to be conducted in conjunction with Divisional Branch election of Officers.

(d) A Divisional Branch Returning Officer may, at any time in writing, resign his or her position and shall resign if they desire to become a candidate at any elections held under the rules of the Union.

Any casual vacancy of a Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall be filled by the Divisional Branch Executive.

(e) Nominations for the position of Divisional Branch delegates of the Divisional Conference shall be called for by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer by notification in the union journal or in one daily newspaper circulating in the capital city in each Branch on or before the last day of August of every fourth (4th) year commencing as on and from the last day of August 1996.

Provided that such advertisement shall clearly indicate that the Divisional Executive and full time Divisional Officers are elected by and from members of the Divisional Conference, that the members of the Divisional Executive make up the National Conference and that National Officers are made up of the principal officers of each Division.

(f) Any member of the Divisional Branch who is financial at the time nominations are called and has had not less than three years financial membership of the Union may nominate for the position of Divisional Branch delegate to Divisional Conference.

For the purpose of this rule and for the purpose of all provisions of the rules of the union relating to financial membership and the length of financial membership or length of membership, membership of an organization amalgamating with the union or which has amalgamated with the union shall be counted for all purposes as membership of the union and financial membership of this union or a union amalgamating with this union for all purposes. This provision relates to all rules of the Union relating to the membership, or length of financial membership, or length of continuous membership in the Union or in any Division thereof.

(g) Any member desiring to nominate for the position of Divisional Branch delegate to Divisional Conference shall apply either personally or in writing to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer for a nomination form. Such forms shall be signed by the candidate and by two financial members and forwarded by certified mail to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer or handed personally at the Divisional Branch office or, in the case of an election conducted by the Australian Electoral Commission, at the office nominated by it, and a receipt thereupon obtained.

Nominations shall be closed at 4pm on the last Friday of September 1996 or such other date as may be provided for in any Divisional Rules, and each four (4) years thereafter following that date. Nominations must be received by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer by that time on that date to be eligible.

A member having nominated for any office in accordance with this Rule may withdraw the nomination by notifying the Returning Officer in writing of an intention to do so at any time up to seven (7) days after the closing of nominations. The Returning Officer on receipt of a notification from a member wishing to withdraw a nomination shall immediately take the appropriate steps to withdraw the member's name from the ballot papers prior to their distribution.

(h) Candidates may include with their nomination form a statement or joint statement not exceeding 200 words containing only the candidate's personal history and only the candidate's policy statement or joint statement.

(i) Officers of all Divisional Branches holding such office at the date of amalgamation shall remain in office until the general election of officers held in 1996 and shall be eligible to nominate in that election. In this paragraph officers of all Divisional Branches shall mean officers of branches of the amalgamating unions being the persons listed in the schedule hereto.

(j) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall examine all nominations to ensure that they are in order and if any nominations are found to be defective the Divisional Branch Returning Officer, before rejecting the nomination, shall notify the person concerned of the defect and where practicable to do so give them the opportunity of remedying the defect within a period of not less than seven (7) days after being so notified.

(k) If at the closing date for nominations only sufficient nominations have been received by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer to fill any vacancy or vacancies the Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall thereupon declare the person or persons so nominating elected and supply forthwith a report of the declaration of the ballot to the Divisional Conference and candidates by submitting a Divisional Branch Returning Officers report to the National, Divisional, Divisional Branch, and Branch Secretaries.

(l) If all nominations are received and there are more nominations than there are vacancies the Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall conduct a draw for positions on the ballot paper and shall notify candidates of the time and place of the draw in sufficient time for a candidate or their nominee to attend the draw; such attendance shall be at the candidate's own cost and expense.

(m) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall forthwith have printed ballot papers in sufficient quantities to enable them to supply a ballot paper for each member eligible to vote in the election and secure a certificate from the printer as to the number printed.

(n) Such ballot papers shall have printed thereon only the title of the office to be filled, method of voting and the name of the candidates for such office and a space for the required vote to be registered, provided however that where more than one candidate is required to be elected the number to be elected shall be printed on the ballot paper. The position of the names of each candidate on the ballot paper shall be in order of the draw of positions for that ballot.

(o) Where a ballot is required, the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch concerned shall provide, within thirty five (35) days of the closing of nominations, a certified list of financial members entitled to vote to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer.

(p) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall on a date which will enable the ballot paper to be posted not later than fourteen (14) clear days before the closing date of the ballot, send by either certified mail or prepaid ordinary mail to each member eligible to vote in the election an envelope addressed to such member at their address appearing on the list of members eligible to vote supplied to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer by each Divisional Branch Secretary, and that envelope shall contain only the following documents:

(a) a ballot paper initialled by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer in respect of each office to be filled at the election for which the member is eligible to vote;

(b) an empty unsealed pre-paid post envelope addressed to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer, c/- the numbered mail box referred to in this rule;

(c) such printed instructions necessary for the completion of each of the ballot papers enclosed in the said envelope and any other instructions that the Divisional Branch Returning Officer may consider necessary;

(d) The candidates statement provided for in accordance with sub-rule (iii) (h) hereof.

(q) For the purpose of the election the books of the Divisional Branches shall be deemed to have closed as at 30th September. Only members who are shown in the records at the office of the Divisional Branch as having paid all contributions, levies and fines as at the 30th September shall be entitled to vote. Provided that any member who at any time prior to the closing of the ballot satisfies the Divisional Branch Returning Officer that they have paid all contributions, levies and fines prior to the 30th September shall be entitled to receive a ballot paper.

(r) The opening date of the ballot shall be at the 2nd day of November and the closing date shall be noon on the 16th day of November in each year in which the ballot is held. All ballot papers shall be returned to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer, c/- the post office box named on the reply envelope. The post office box to which the ballot papers are returned shall be hired by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer prior to the dispatch of the ballot papers or if a box has been previously used by the union, the officer shall cause the lock to be changed.

(s) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall collect the returned ballot papers from the post office box and deposit them in a ballot box kept at the post office or at the office of the Australian Electoral Commission until the commencement of the count of the ballot.

(t) At the conclusion of the ballot the ballot box shall be picked up by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer at a time reasonable notice of which has been given to the Scrutineers and taken to the Divisional Branch rooms or to the office of the Australian Electoral Commission and be opened in the presence of the Scrutineers and counting shall then proceed. If it is necessary to interrupt the count for any purpose the papers shall be sealed in the ballot box to which any seals may be fixed by a Scrutineer.

(u) Any candidate at their own expense, may appoint a financial member of the union to act as their Scrutineer by notification in writing to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer. Any Scrutineers so appointed may be present at any stage of the counting of the ballot provided that the Divisional Branch Returning Officer is also present.

(v) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall proceed to count the ballot on the preferential system provided for in this rule, and the candidate or candidates receiving the necessary quota shall be declared elected. The counting of the ballot shall commence no later than on the first working day after the closing of the ballot and shall be completed as soon as is practicable.

(w) In the case of an equality of votes for any two or more candidates the Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall determine which of the candidates is elected, by declaring the candidate who currently holds the office being contested being elected, should no candidate hold the current office the Returning Officer shall declare the result by casting lots.

(x) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall declare the successful candidates elected and notify the National, Divisional and Divisional Branch Executive of the result of the ballot. The Divisional Branch Executive shall issue instructions for the publication of same in their minutes and in the journal or newspaper of the Divisional Branch. The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall also notify each successful candidate by post and publish their names in at least one daily newspaper circulating in the Branch area. The date of completion of the ballot shall be the date of the declaration thereof.

(y) The successful candidate/s shall become the Divisional Branch delegate to the Divisional Conference.

(z) Should a vacancy occur of a Divisional Branch delegate to Divisional Conference Rule 13 sub-rule (vi) shall apply.

(aa) Any accidental or unavoidable omission or error in the carrying out or observance of this rule shall not invalidate an election if such omission or error appears not to have affected the result of an election.

(bb) In any election the Divisional Branch Returning Officer and any Scrutineer shall do all things necessary to preserve the secrecy of the ballot and shall conduct themselves in a sober, proper and impartial manner. Scrutineers shall, as far as practicable, be given the opportunity to be present at all stages of the ballot. They shall obey any directions given to them by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer. If any Scrutineers or Scrutineer are not present at any stage or stages of the ballot the Divisional Branch Returning Officer may proceed nonetheless.

(cc) Definitions:

"Preferential Voting" shall mean a system of voting in which the voter shall place the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom the voter gives as their first preference, and shall place the number 2, 3, 4 (and so on as the case requires) in the squares opposite the names of all the remaining candidates so as to indicate the order of the preference for them. In a ballot by the preferential system the valid ballot papers shall be separated into separate parcels, each such parcel containing all those papers on which first preference is indicated for the same candidate. If on the first count a candidate receives an absolute majority of first preference votes of total valid votes cast they shall be declared elected.

If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the candidate with the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded and the ballot papers on which a first preference is indicated for such candidate shall be counted to the remaining candidates next in the voters' order of preference. If a candidate has then an absolute majority of votes they shall be elected, but if no candidate then has a majority of votes the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and the distribution of the voters' preferences shall continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes. In cases where more than one position is to be filled the numbers placed opposite the candidates' names up to the number of positions to be filled shall be first preference votes and the procedure in respect to the distribution of preference shall be the same as is above prescribed where a ballot is for a single position. The candidates or candidate, as the case may be, who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

(dd) Those elected shall take office from 2 January in the year following the election.

(ee) This election rule shall apply to all divisions (except Mining and Energy Division) from 1996 and 1996 shall be the first year of such general elections.

18 - DIVISIONAL EXECUTIVE ELECTION

(i) There shall be a Divisional Executive composed in accordance with Divisional Rules and elected in accordance with such Divisional Rules.

(ii) Every Divisional Executive shall be elected either:

(a) by and from the Divisional Conference; or

(b) by direct ballot of the financial members of the Division.

(iii) The Divisional Officers at a national level shall be members of that Divisional Executive.

(iv) The position of delegate to National Conference is to be held by the same person as is holding the position as Divisional Branch member of the Divisional Executive and the election to one position is to be an election to the other position, a removal from one position shall be a removal from the other and they are, for all purposes under these rules to be one and the same person and/or position.

19 - REMOVAL OF OFFICERS

Any Officer may be removed from office by majority decision of the National Executive, provided that such officer shall not be dismissed from office unless found guilty, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, of misappropriation of funds of the Union or a substantial breach of the Rules of the Union or gross misbehaviour or gross neglect of duty or has ceased according to the Rules of the Union to be eligible to hold office.

Any officer so removed from office shall have the right of appeal to the National Conference. In the event of the appeal being upheld the National Conference may order reinstatement to apply on such conditions as it considers the circumstances warrant.

In the event of the re-election of an Officer removed from office under this rule, such officer shall be reimbursed by a payment of monies that represent the difference between such salary the officer would have received had the officer not been removed from office and the amount of salary the officer received during the period the officer was removed from office.

20 - REFERENDA

1. On a decision of a majority of Divisions or Branches or Branches whose membership constitutes a majority of the members or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10 per cent of the financial members of the Union, the National Executive shall take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Union upon the matter or matters in the decision of the Divisions or Branches or in the petition. A decision reached by a majority of the actual votes recorded shall be binding on the Union and the members of the Union provided that the decision shall not affect the autonomy of any Division.

2. National Executive or National Conference may at any time of its own motion take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Union upon any matter it thinks fit.

3. The referendum referred to in this rule shall be conducted as follows:

   National Executive shall:

   Determine the question to be submitted to the members and the form of the ballot paper.

   Fix the times for the despatch and return of ballot papers and give the necessary instructions for printing of same.

   Appoint a National Returning Officer and National Scrutineer in conjunction with Divisional Branch Returning Officers to conduct the ballot.

   No material other than that authorised by the National Conference or National Executive shall be enclosed in the envelope in which the ballot paper is posted to the member.

   In all other respects the referendum shall be held as nearly as practicable in the manner provided for the holding of elections of Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference as set out in Rule 17 (iii) except that the roll of voters shall be the financial membership at the end of the calendar month immediately preceding the holding of the referendum.

21 - VACANCIES IN OFFICE

Where in accordance with the Rules of the Union, a National Officer ceases to hold office as the Divisional Officer entitled to hold a position as National Officer under Rule 16(i) hereof, such officer shall on and from the same time cease to hold office as a National Officer. Provided that the member who replaces such a person in the Divisional Officer's position shall also fill the vacancy created in the position of National Officer until such time as the National Officer's position can be filled in accordance with the rules governing casual vacancy.

22 - DUTIES OF OFFICERS

1. The following sets out the duties of the National Officers outlined herein. The National Secretary shall be a full time position. The wages and costs relating to the office of the full time officer shall be borne by the Union.

2. National President:

   The National President shall preside at meetings of National Conference, National Executive and meetings convened by National Conference or National Executive if it is possible to be present.

   The National President shall have a deliberative vote only.

   The National President shall perform all duties assigned to him/her by the National Conference or National Executive and shall be responsible with the National Secretary for the allocation of duties and responsibilities arising from decisions of the National Conference or the National Executive.

3. National Secretary:

   The National Secretary shall be responsible for the general correspondence of the Union, National finance, filing of documents, industrial returns and the carrying out of decisions made by National Conference or National Executive.

   The National Secretary shall have the power, subject to decisions of the National Executive and/or National Conference, to appoint, control and dismiss the clerical, industrial, research and accountancy staff of the National Office and allocate duties and responsibilities within the National Office.

   The National Secretary shall have prepared a properly audited financial statement of receipts and payments and all the funds and effects of the National Office, together with a statement of the assets and liabilities of the National Office for the year ending 31st December in each year.

   Such financial statement shall be presented to the National Executive for its approval and be published within the journal of the National Union.

   The National Secretary shall carry out such other functions as shall be determined from time to time by the National Conference or National Executive.

   The National Secretary shall be a member of each and every Divisional Executive and shall be for all purposes a full member of any Divisional Executive but shall not exercise a vote at any Divisional Executive of which such National Secretary is not, otherwise than under this Rule, a member.

4. National Assistant Secretary:

   National Assistant Secretary shall perform all duties assigned to him/her by National Conference and National Executive. He/She shall attend all meetings of National Conference and National Executive.

5. Senior Vice-President:

   The Senior Vice-President shall assist the National President in the conduct of meetings and shall preside in the absence of the National President, and shall carry out such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the National Conference or the National Executive.

6. Vice-President/s:

The Vice-Presidents shall assist the National President/s or Senior Vice-President/s in the conduct of meetings and, in the absence of both the abovementioned officers, shall act as President.

They shall carry out such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the National Conference or National Executive.

7. Members of National Executive and Delegates to National Conference:

Members of National Executive and delegates to National Conference shall attend meetings of those bodies when summoned so to do.

8. Within the National Executive Committee and, subject to the Rules relating to card voting on certain committees, for all internal Union purposes, the National Principal Officers shall have, as between each and all of them, the same status. Each may perform different functions and may have different responsibilities in accordance with these Rules and/or decisions of the National Executive/National Conference not inconsistent with these Rules.

23 - FUNDS AND PROPERTY

(i) Each Division shall pay to the National Office and/or National Conference of the Union, on a basis which is proportionate to the respective financial membership of each Division, an amount that is determined by the National Conference or National Executive to enable it to fulfil its functions.

Provided that each Division/Divisional Branch is responsible to meet all costs associated with the operation of its Division/Divisional Branch, including all costs associated with the attendance and participation by their representatives at meetings, including National Conference, National Executive Committee unless decided otherwise by the National Executive Committee.

(ii) A capitation fee or sustentation fee shall be paid by each Divisional Branch to the Division in accordance with Divisional rules.

(iii) Each Divisional Branch shall pay to the Branch of the Union for the geographic area covered by the Divisional Branch, a pro rata amount calculated on the basis of the proportion of financial members of the Branch in that Divisional Branch, an amount determined by the State Executive to enable it to fulfil its functions.

(iv) All moneys received by the National Office shall be paid to the credit of the Union on current account with a Bank. No funds shall be drawn from the Bank except by cheque signed by two persons who are a National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary, National President or two (2) National Executive members as nominated by National Executive resolution.

(v) All expenditure for ordinary purposes, namely, incurred in directly furthering the objects of the Union or in the expenses of management, may be disbursed by decision of the National Secretary and either the National President or National Assistant Secretary. Expenditure for other purposes authorised by the rules may be disbursed by a majority decision of the National Conference or National Executive.

(vi) The funds of the Union shall be under the control of the body which receives such funds pursuant to the Rules of the Union and such bodies shall deal with the funds on behalf of the Union. The funds and property of the Union shall be invested wherever possible in the name of the Union. Any moneys may have the name of the body controlling the funds added to the name of the Union. In the case of Divisions, money received by the Divisions shall be under the control of the body in that Division which, by the rules of that Division is given control and shall be invested in the name of the Union, subject to the last immediately preceding sentence hereof. Where it is not possible or convenient to hold property in the name of the Union the property shall be held in the name of trustees under the Rules of such bodies.

The funds of the Union may be invested in such securities as are permitted by the laws of any State of the Commonwealth for the investment of funds by trustees. Nothing in this sub-rule prevents the Union, a Division, a Branch or a Divisional Branch from entering into an agreement with a trade or industrial union or organisation of employees registered under any legislation of any State of the Commonwealth for the investment of funds on a joint basis or a basis on which the funds are held in common so long as the funds are treated, for all purposes, at least as funds of this Union or such of the funds as represent pro rata membership are so treated.

(vii) The funds or property of the Union, under the control of the National Office or Branch or Division or Divisional Branch in accordance with the rules of the Union, shall be under the control of the National Executive, or Branch or Division or Divisional Branch Committee of Management and/or Executive respectively.

24 - AUDITOR

The National Conference or National Executive shall appoint as auditor a competent person resident in the city in which the National Office is located who shall each year for the period ending 31 December audit the books and accounts of the Union and draw up a correct report on same.

The Auditor shall, in the report, draw attention of the National Executive to any deficiencies or other matters which the Auditor may think proper. The Auditor shall have full and complete access to all the books and documents of the Union.

For the purpose of this Rule a competent person shall have the same meaning as in the Industrial Relations Act and the Regulations made thereunder.

25 - ALTERATION OF RULES

(a) The rules of the Union, or any of them, may be altered, rescinded, varied or made by the National Conference and/or National Executive. Proposals for alterations of rules may be forwarded by Divisions, Branches or any member of the National Executive or delegate to the National Conference and shall be forwarded to members and/or delegates with the notice calling the National Conference or National Executive, as the case may be, or so soon thereafter as is practicable. Provided that National Conference or National Executive may, in session, alter rules of which previous notice has not been given.

(b) Alterations to rules may be made, at the discretion of the National Secretary, by postal, telegraphic, telephonic, facsimile, email, written and/or any other means of communication as a ballot of National Conference or National Executive. Such a rule change will have the same effect as a change made in a session of the National Conference or National Executive.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this rule, the rules of the union and/or any of them may be repealed, altered and added to by the National Executive Committee on its own initiative and without any reference to National Conference or National Executive for the purpose of bringing rules into compliance with the Industrial Relations Act (Commonwealth) or the regulations thereto or to facilitate, assist in or give effect to an amalgamation decided upon by National Executive or National Conference or to overcome objections taken to an application by the Union for an alteration to its rules, for amalgamation or for registration under the Industrial Relations Act.

(d) Provided that no rule change shall be effected without the approval of a Division, by either the National Conference, National Executive or National Executive Committee which affects the existence of that Division or interferes with its autonomy under these rules, including the internal structures of a Division.

26 - RULES BINDING ON MEMBERS, BRANCHES AND DIVISIONS

These National Rules and all the rules of the Union, and all alterations, additions or rescissions thereof or thereto, shall apply to and be binding on all Divisions, Branches, and Divisional Branches and all sections of the Union and on all members who now, or who may hereafter, belong to the Union until they are made or become null and void according to the law.

27 - DIVISIONS

(i) There shall be Divisions of the Union established, in accordance with the rules of the Union. Such Divisions shall be established on a basis of industry or occupation.

(ii) Each Division shall have autonomy to decide matters which do not directly affect the members of another division without any interference by any other body within the Union, including but not limited to:

(a) The industrial interests of its members.

(b) The election of officers within the Division.

(c) Matters arising from the Objects of the Division.

(d) Structure of the Division.

(iii) Each division shall have autonomy in relation to its funds and property.

(iv) Each Division shall have rules and have power to make, alter or rescind such rules, to be called Divisional Rules. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing paragraph, each Division shall have power to determine policy for that Division, not inconsistent with the rules and policy of the Union as decided by National Conference or National Executive.

(v) If there is any environmental matter that directly affects the employment of members of one Division only, then that Division whose members are so affected shall have the power to determine the policy of the Union on that matter.

(vi) Divisions shall, in accordance with their rules, have Branches along a geographic, occupational or area basis which branches of a Division will be called Divisional Branches and may have more than one divisional branch in a State or Territory divided on a geographic or occupational basis.

(vii) Any Division may, in accordance with their rules, allocate any Branch of the Union or any other Divisional Branch of any Division of the Union the responsibility for a Divisional Branch or part of a Divisional Branch where it is, in the opinion of the Division not appropriate or economic to establish and/or maintain a separate Divisional Branch in that area.

(viii) Where any Division allocates any of its Divisional Branches to a Divisional Branch of another Division, the latter Divisional branch shall pay capitation fees to and be represented by the first mentioned Division on the basis of the number of members so allocated.

28 - BRANCHES

(i) There shall be branches of the Union in the States of Queensland, New South Wales, Victoria, Tasmania, Western Australia, South Australia, and in the Australian Capital Territory, and in such other States or places as may be decided.

Such Branches shall have the function of co-ordinating Divisional Branches at a State or Territory level, dealing with matters affecting only that State and more than one Division and any other matter that Divisions or Divisional Branches agree should be dealt with by such Branch.

(ii) Branches may make alter or rescind By-laws, not inconsistent with the Rules of the Union.

(iii) A Branch shall be bound by

(a) the decisions of the National Conference,

(b) National Executive and,

(c) in relation to any matter affecting one Division only, a Divisional Executive;

and Branch Officers shall be bound by directions of the National Executive Committee.

(iv) Provided that in the case of a decision of one Division affecting in any way the operation of a Branch, the Branch may appeal to the National Executive.

29 - AGREEMENTS WITH STATE UNIONS

(i) The Union, any Branch thereof may make agreements under s.202 of the Industrial Relations Act with any State Union to the effect that members of the State Union shall be eligible for membership of this union.

(ii) The Union, any Division thereof, any Divisional Branch thereof, may take all and any step which, as a matter of practice or law, may overcome the separation of state unions from any section of this Union with the same or substantially the same members and may take all or any step, including amalgamation to effect one union in the industry or industries covered by this Union.

30 - AGREEMENTS

(a) Subject to these Rules, any agreement may be executed by a National Secretary and either a National President, the National Assistant Secretary or a National Vice-President.

(b) Any agreement which directly affects the employment or conditions of employment of members of only one Division shall be executed by that Division in accordance with its rules.

(c) Any agreement which directly affects the employment or conditions of employment of members of only one Divisional Branch may be executed by the Divisional Branch in accordance with its rules.

(d) Any agreement which directly affects the employment of members of only one Branch may be executed by the Branch in accordance with its rules.

31 - CLAIMS AND INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES AND PROCEEDINGS

(a) Claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests of the Union or any part thereof may be compiled, made, served and/or otherwise propagated by a National Secretary or National President or National Assistant Secretary or any person authorised by a National Secretary or National President or National Assistant Secretary so to do.

(b) A Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary or any person authorised by a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary may make, compile, serve and/or otherwise propagate a claim, logs of claim, demands and/or requests of the Union in so far as it affects members of the Division of which the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary is an officer. To avoid any doubt, such claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests may affect, directly or indirectly, members of another Division so long as they are persons who are eligible to be members of the Division from which the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary emanates.

(c) Any of the officers referred to in paragraph (a) or, subject to the limitations contained in paragraph (b) and the necessary changes being made, any of the officers referred to in paragraph (b), may submit, on behalf of the Union for conciliation or arbitration or both, or authorise the submission or institution on behalf of the Union, any claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests or any industrial dispute arising therefrom or any other industrial dispute howsoever arising on behalf of the Union or otherwise institute any proceedings whatsoever on behalf of the Union.

(d) This Rule has effect notwithstanding any other Rule of the Union or any Division thereof and no claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests, shall be invalidated, rendered void or otherwise treated as void or unauthorised if issued by a National President, National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary, Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary, or any person authorised by any such officers and shall be taken for all purposes and at all times to be claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests of the Union for all purposes. Provided that, the National Executive, National Conference or, in the case of a claim, logs of claim, demands and/or requests issued by a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary or on such officer's authorisation, the relevant Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive may rescind and/or withdraw such claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests and upon such decision of the National Conference, National Executive, Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive, as the case may be, the claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests shall be withdrawn and thereafter treated as if it were null and void.

(e) The National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary, National President, Divisional Secretary and/or Divisional Assistant Secretary shall have full power to transact all business and do or authorise all acts and things in connection with any dispute arising from any claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests, howsoever made and by whomsoever made and such officer may delegate such functions either generally or specifically.

(f) For the purpose of the above provisions, in the case of the Mining & Energy Division, any reference to Divisional Secretary shall be taken to be a reference to Divisional President or Divisional Secretary, any reference to Divisional Assistant Secretary be taken to be a reference to Divisional Senior Vice President and any reference to Divisional Executive be taken to be a reference to Central Council.

32 - REGISTERED OFFICE

The registered office of the Union shall be the Office of the National Secretary and shall be at 361 Kent Street, Sydney in the State of New South Wales, or such place as National Conference or National Executive shall decide.

33 - REGISTERED OFFICER

(i) Without limiting the powers conferred by any State or Commonwealth law, the union shall, while it remains corporate, sue and be sued by its corporate name and style.

(ii) The proper officer of the Union shall, for all purposes, be the National Secretary.

(iii) Nothing in this rule affects the operation of any other rule relating to the powers of a Division or Divisional Branch Secretary.

34 - DISSOLUTION

The Union shall not be dissolved unless all of the existing Divisions agree. Provided that a Division shall cease to exist wherever the number of financial members of that Division is reduced to less than one thousand (1,000) members.

Where a Division ceases to exist and the Union continues, the property of that defunct Division shall be vested in the Division to which the members of the defunct Division are allocated.

Where the Union is dissolved the property of the Union shall be vested in the trustees of each existing Division at the time of dissolution for the benefit of the members thereof on the basis that each such Division will continue to hold its own property and funds and any property or funds not vested at the time of dissolution in a Division shall be divided between the existing Divisions on a basis proportionate to the membership of each such Division.

35 - RECOVERY OF DUES

All claims for contributions, levies, fines, fees or liabilities of any kind due or payable to the Union by members may be sued for in the name of the Union by the National Secretary or by the Divisional Secretary, or Divisional Branch Secretary to which the member is attached, or by any other person or body authorised by the rules of the Union including the rules of any Divisional Branch or the Rules of any Division.

36 - LEVIES

(i) Levies may be imposed for the purpose of carrying out any of the objects of the Union and for assisting the members of this or any other Union or body having objects similar in whole or in part to those of this Union.

(ii) The amount of any levy shall be decided by a majority of the National Conference or National Executive and shall not exceed $50.00 and when so decided shall be binding on all members or sections of members as National Conference or National Executive may decide.

(iii) A Division or Divisional Branch may impose a levy on its members.

(iv) A levy may be of one specific sum, payable at one specific time, or may be for a weekly, fortnightly or monthly period, payable for a certain specific period.

All levies shall be added to contributions and shall be a first charge against all payments made by members of the Divisional Branch.

37 - VOTING OTHERWISE THAN AT MEETINGS ASSEMBLED

(a) If the National Secretary shall consider it advisable to submit any matter, including the imposition of a levy or the alteration or rescission of a rule, to a vote of National Conference or National Executive at any time when it is inconvenient to call National Executive or National Conference together, the National Secretary may submit a resolution dealing with the matter to the delegates or members, by letter, facsimile, telegram, telephone, email, in writing, by computer link and/or by any other means of communication.

(b) A copy of such resolution shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, be sent to each Branch Secretary and each Divisional Secretary. The votes on such resolution shall be returnable to the National Secretary at such time as the National Secretary shall fix. The result of such vote shall be binding and enforceable in the same manner as a decision arrived at in meetings assembled.

(c) Provided that where no record can be kept of the vote and/or decision, such a record shall be created and a copy of that record sent to each person entitled to vote or, in the case of computer linkages, the record is such that it can be viewed and/or copied by the person entitled to vote.

(d) No amendment shall be allowed on any such resolution, but if it is negative any delegate may request the National Secretary to submit in a like manner a further resolution bearing on the same matter. In the event of the National Secretary being requested to submit more than one such resolution, the order in which same shall be submitted shall be in the absolute discretion of the National Secretary.

(e) The National Secretary shall keep a register of names and addresses of members of the National Executive and delegates to National Conference from the names submitted by Divisional Branch Returning Officers, Divisional Returning Officers and the National Returning Officer and such register shall be conclusive evidence of the correct name and address of such members and/or delegates.

(f) Divisional Secretaries and Divisional Branch Secretaries (as the case may be) shall within fourteen (14) days of the election of delegates to National Conference and members of the National and/or National Executive Committee notify the National Secretary of their names and addresses.

38 - STANDING ORDERS

Motions - How Dealt With:

1. All motions shall be of an affirmative character and must be moved and seconded by delegates or members. Such motions become the property of Conference or Executive and can only be withdrawn by leave thereof. The discussion on any motion shall not exceed 60 minutes unless a majority of delegates or members present agree to an extension of time.

2. Unless a delegate or member rises to oppose a motion or propose an amendment thereto, the motion shall be immediately put to the meeting for decision.

3. A motion may be superseded at any time by another motion "that it be discharged from the agenda paper" or "that the next business be proceeded with" being resolved in the affirmative.

4. A motion may be amended at any time during the debate thereon always provided that the substance of the original motion be retained. If the amendment is carried it then takes the place of the motion.

5. Any number of amendments may be proposed and discussed with the motion. For the purpose of the debate the motion shall be the question before the chair. Amendments shall be put to the vote in the order in which they are received. If there is no further discussion, or if the motion "that the question be now put" is carried, the mover of the original motion may reply.

6. All motions shall be put to the meeting by the chairperson in a clear manner by asking for the "ayes" to vote first and then the "noes". The chairperson's decision as to which has the majority will be final unless a show of hands is called for. The chairperson shall then count the votes for and against the question.

   If the votes are equal the question is resolved in the negative.

7. A mover of a motion to be allowed 15 minutes to introduce and five minutes to reply. Other speakers 10 minutes unless a majority of the delegates or members present agree to an extension of time.

8. Right of Speaker: Any delegate desiring to speak shall rise and address the chairperson. If two or more delegates or members rise at the same time the chairperson shall call upon the one who, in the Chairperson's opinion, first rose. Provided that no delegates or members can speak more than once upon any question (which shall include the original motion and all amendments thereto) before Conference or Executive, except -

   (a) In reply as the mover of the original motion.
   (b) In explanation or correction of some matter during the debate.
   (c) Upon a point of order raised during the debate.
   (d) Upon a resolution being carried "that the delegate now be heard".

9. A delegate or member will not be held to have spoken who simply used the words "I second the motion" or "amendment", as the case may be; but for the purpose of debate shall be considered the second speaker in favour of the proposal seconded by that delegate or member.

10. No more than two delegates or members shall be allowed to speak for or against any question in succession. If at the conclusion of the second speaker's remarks no member rises to speak on the other side of the motion or amendment, it shall be put to the vote.

11. Any delegate or member speaking shall at once resume their seat -

   (a) If the chairperson rises to speak; or
   (b) If a point of order is raised.

   and shall not resume their speech until the point of order is decided.

12. No delegate or member may speak to any question after it has been put by the chairman or during the taking of the vote.

REPORTS

A report containing a recommendation may be discussed on a motion being moved for its adoption which, upon being carried, will signify the will of Conference or Executive thereon.

If the report contains any recommendation it shall be competent for a delegate or member to move a resolution arising out of and relative to the report to obtain the opinion of Conference or Executive on the matter.

ADJOURNMENT OF CONFERENCE OR DEBATE

A motion for the adjournment of Conference or Executive may be proposed at any time during the meeting thereof or for the adjournment of the debate, and shall be at once put to the meeting by the chairperson unless time is mentioned. An amendment to alter the time can be proposed upon a motion for adjournment only if time is mentioned as part of such motion and can apply thereto.

ADJOURNMENT OF STATED TIME

When a motion for the adjournment of a debate to any stated day or time has been carried, such motion shall not be abrogated unless with the consent of Conference.

CHAIRPERSON'S RULINGS

The chairperson's rulings on all points of order shall be final unless at the time a motion is carried that such ruling be disagreed with. When a motion to disagree with the ruling of the chairperson has been duly proposed and seconded, the chairperson shall leave the chair until the motion has been disposed of by Conference or Executive. The mover only shall speak to the motion and the chairperson may explain the reasons for the ruling given. The motion shall then be put to the meeting by the Vice-Chairperson.

SUSPENSION OF ORDER OF BUSINESS

It shall be competent by a majority vote of the delegates or members present for Conference or Executive to suspend the order of business.

SITTING AS A COMMITTEE

Conference or Executive may at any time, by a resolution agreed to by a majority of delegates or members present, resolve itself into a committee of the whole. The rules governing the business of Conference or Executive shall be observed when in Committee.

39 - ABSENTEE VOTING

If a member who is entitled to vote at any election held under these rules or any other rules of the union will be absent from their usual address during a ballot such member may apply to the Returning Officer for a ballot paper to be sent to them at an address which they nominate.

40 - MANNER OF SUMMONING MEETINGS

The National Executive, the State Executive, a Divisional Executive or a Divisional Branch Management/Executive Committee may, in their absolute discretion, summon meetings of members over which they have authority and/or responsibility from time to time.

If such meeting is called notice shall be given in a union journal circulating in the area covering the members to which the meeting relates or in a mass circulation daily newspaper circulating in the area in which the meeting is to be held and such publication shall be issued at least fourteen days before the date of the meeting. The notice of such meeting shall specify the day, the date, the time and the place of such meeting.

41 - SPECIAL RULE AND AMALGAMATIONS

For all the purposes of the Industrial Relations Act 1988, as amended, and, without limiting the generality thereof, for the purposes of amalgamation of this organization with other organizations, the National Executive shall, notwithstanding any other rule to the contrary, be the Management Committee and shall be authorised to take all steps to effect an amalgamation and alter any rules for that purpose.

A vote of the National Executive for the above or any other purpose may be taken by the National Secretary by telephone, facsimile, telex, post or other means of delivery of written text, or orally, or any combination thereof and such vote shall be an effective and binding decision of the National Executive.

The National Executive is empowered to delegate to any officer the task of implementing such amalgamation.

42 - TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

(i) Upon Amalgamation

On and from the date of amalgamation there shall be five (5) Divisions of the Union, being the Building Unions Division, the ATAIU Division, the UMW Division, the FEDFA Division and the FFTS Union Division. The Building Unions division shall be the former BWIU/Plasterers Division together with members and officers of the OPDU.

The Building Unions Division shall consist of those persons eligible and continuing to be eligible for membership of the union under Rule 2 (A) and (B), the ATAIU Division shall consist of those persons eligible and continuing to be eligible for membership of the Union under Rule 2 (C), the UMW Division shall be those persons eligible for membership and continuing to be eligible for membership of the union under Rule 2 (D) and the FEDFA Division shall be those persons eligible for membership and continuing to be eligible for membership of the Union under Rule 2 (E). The FFTS Union Division shall consist of all persons eligible and continuing to be eligible for membership of the Union under Rule 2(F) including all former members of the previously registered FFTS.

While the FFTS Union Division continues its separate existence, the demarcation between the FFTS Union Division and the other Divisions of the CFMEU shall be in accordance with the above demarcation on the basis of the status quo and custom and practice of coverage as it existed between the previously registered The Federated Furnishing Trade Society of Australasia and the CFMEU including therein demarcation disputes which have been determined by either State or Federal industrial authorities. Where any disagreement occurs between the FFTS Union Division and any other Division of the Union the matter shall be referred to the National Executive which shall determine the demarcation appropriate but such determination shall be based on the principles enunciated in this paragraph.

(ii) Upon amalgamation no person who was previously a member of either the CFMEU or OPDU or FFTS shall be liable for any entrance fee over and above the entrance fee already paid by such financial members.

(iii) After Amalgamation

Subject to any changes made by unanimous decision of the National Executive Committee, following amalgamation, there shall be a restructuring of the Divisions on the following basis:

(a) There shall be created a restructured Mining and Energy Division which shall consist of all members of the union eligible to be members under Rule 2 (D) and all members, including members eligible under Sub-Rules 2 (A), (B), (C) and (E) employed in the Mining, Exploration and Energy Industries and all members employed in the County of Yancowinna:

(b) There shall be created a Forestry and Forest, Building Products Manufacturing Division (herein after referred to as the Forestry Division) which shall consist of all members of the union eligible to be members under Rule 2 (C) and all members, including members eligible under Sub-rules 2 (A), (B) and (E) employed in the following sectors of the industry (or occupations within them):

Forest and forest products industry,

Pulp and paper industry,

Timber and building related manufacturing industry including joinery, wall frame/roof trusses, furniture, aluminium windows, glass window manufacturing and any other sectors of manufacturing activity as agreed to between the ATAIU and the Building Unions and FEDFA Divisions of the union.

This sub-rule up until April 3rd 2000 shall be read subject to the agreement entitled CFMEU Forestry Division and CFMEU Construction & General Division Translation Agreement dated September 2nd 1998.

(c) There will be a Construction and General Division which shall consist of all members of the union employed in or in connection with the Construction industry (including shopfitting) and all other members of the Union not referred to in sub-rules (iii) (a) (b) and (d) herein.

(d) Provided that the restructuring referred to above shall not affect the separate existence of the FFTS Union Division and untranslated FEDFA Divisional Branches for the time specified in this Transitional Rule.

(iv) The transfer of members from any Division to any other Division in accordance with the restructuring proposals in sub-rule (iii) herein, shall be on terms as agreed to by the Divisions concerned in the transfer and sub-rule (iii) shall be used as the basis of an agreement.

(v) In the event of further amalgamations other Divisions may be established.

(vi) deleted
(vii) deleted

(viii) deleted

(x) Upon restructuring in accordance with this rule and on the transfer of members from one Division to any other Division an agreed number of officers of the Division from which the members are from shall transfer with such members, such officers to be agreed between the respective Divisions prior to transfer.

(xi) In any restructuring of any Division within the union the principle to be applied shall be that any officer or officers who, by agreement, are transferred to a Division from another Division as representative of or in conjunction with members so transferred shall be allocated positions on the appropriate decision making bodies of the Division of which such transferred Officer becomes a member. The determination of a position or positions referred to in this sub-rule shall have regard to the classifications and number of members transferred to a Division and the structure of the decision making bodies of the Division established in accordance with these Rules.

(xii) (a) The restructuring referred to herein shall be effected by 1st April 1997. Except in the case of the FEDFA Victorian Branch which shall become the CFMEU, FEDFA Victorian Divisional Branch such restructuring may be effected at a time later than 23 September 1995 but shall be effected before 1 July 2001. Further provided that in relation to the FFTS Union Division it may have a separate existence for a period of up to eight years which period shall be shortened only with the agreement of the Divisional Executive of the FFTS Union Division and the eight (8) years shall commence on the date of effect of amalgamation of the FFTS and CFMEU. If no agreement has been reached by the dates set out herein then, notwithstanding any other rule of the Union, the National Executive shall determine the changes necessary to effect such restructuring, including any and all rule changes therefor. It is the current intention that the FFTS Union Division will be restructured after a maximum of eight (8) years substantially into Forestry, Forest and Building Manufacturing Products Division.

(b) The alteration to sub-rule 42(xii) (a) which replaced the date 23 September 1999 with the date 1 July 2001 shall be taken to have effect retrospectively from 22 September 1999.

(c) In respect of the period of time between 22 September 1999 and the time on the Industrial Registrar's certification of this sub-rule, no action of the Union and its officers in relation to the FEDFA Victorian Divisional Branch nor any action of any member or members elected (or appointed) to be officers of that Branch shall be taken to have been invalid by reason only of the fact that the restructuring referred to in Rule 42 in relation to that Branch has not been effected before 23 September 1999. Any such actions which might otherwise be invalid are by this sub-rule adopted and ratified by the Union.

(xiii) deleted

(xiv) In this rule the CFMEU shall, where the context permits, mean the new CFMEU being the amalgamated organisation the Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union and where not otherwise permitting shall mean the old CFMEU being the Construction Forestry and Mining Employees Union prior to amalgamation.

FEDFA where it is not referring to a division of the amalgamated organisation shall mean The Federated Engine Drivers' and Firemens' Association of Australasia.

OPPWF shall mean The Operative Plasterers' and Plaster Workers' Federation of Australia.

UMFA shall mean the formerly registered United Mineworkers' Federation of Australia.

ATAIU where not referring to a division shall mean the formerly registered Australian Timber and Allied Industries Union.

Qld shall mean Queensland.

BWIU where not referring to a division shall mean the formerly registered The Building Workers' Industrial Union of Australia.

NSW where appearing shall mean New South Wales.

WA where appearing shall mean Western Australian.

SA where appearing shall mean South Australian or South Australia as the context permits.

FFTS means, where it is not accompanied by the term "Union Division", The Federated Furnishing Trade Society of Australasia.

OPDU shall mean "The Operative Painters and Decorators Union of Australia".

BLF shall mean "The Australian Building Construction Employees and Builders Labourers' Federation".

(xv) (a) Where an amalgamation has occurred, on or after the amalgamation day, all assets and liabilities of the deregistered organisation or of an association with which a merger takes place shall cease to be assets and liabilities of that organisation or association and become assets and liabilities of this Union.

(b) For all purposes and in all proceedings, an asset or liability of a deregistered organisation or association existing immediately before the date upon which the amalgamation took effect is taken to have become an asset or liability of this Union on that day.

(c) All agreements existing at the respective dates of amalgamation and/or merger of all unions which have amalgamated to form the CFMEU shall be binding on the CFMEU on the basis that the CFMEU shall, to the extent possible, fulfil the obligations and obtain the benefits through the Division of the Union corresponding to the Union that entered the agreement, or, where there is no corresponding Division, corresponding to the Division into which the amalgamated union has merged. Any reference to any such agreement to any union which has or shall amalgamate and/or merge with this Union shall be taken to be a reference to this Union operating through the Division or Divisional Branch corresponding to the former union or into which the former union has merged. Any reference to any officer or body in the former union shall be taken to be a reference to the same officer or body in the Division corresponding to the former union or into which the former union has merged. Any reference herein to the term "agreement" shall include, and be deemed always to have included, any instrument as defined in the Industrial Relations Act, 1988.

(d) For the purposes of the above and in accordance with the scheme of amalgamation in relation to each past amalgamation, the following shall be the rights and obligations of the Divisions and shall be deemed always to have been the case:

* The United Mineworkers Federation of Australia shall be and be deemed always to have been a union that corresponds to the UMW Division and/or the Mining and Energy Division;

* The Australian Timber and Allied Industries Union (ATAIU) shall be and be deemed always to have been a union that corresponds to the ATAIU Division and/or Forestry Division;

* The Federated Engine Drivers and Firemen's Association of Australasia shall be and be deemed always to have been a union that corresponds to the FEDFA Division;

* The Operative Plasterers and Plaster Workers Federation of Australia shall be and be deemed to be a union which has merged into what is now called the Building Unions Division of the CFMEU and any reference to an officer of the OPPWF shall be and be deemed always to have been always a reference to the corresponding office in the Building Unions Division, i.e. Federal Secretary shall be read Divisional Secretary, Branch shall be read as Divisional Branch, Branch Secretary shall be read as Divisional Branch Secretary in each case of the Divisional Branch of the Building Unions Division relevant thereto, etc.;

* The Federated Furnishing Trades Society of Australasia shall be and be deemed always to have been a union which corresponds to the FFTS Division of the CFMEU;

* The Operative Painters and Decorators Union of Australia shall be and be deemed to be a union which has merged into the Division now called the Building Unions

Division of the CFMEU and any reference to the Operative Painters and Decorators Union of Australia shall be deemed to have been and be a reference to the CFMEU, Building Unions Division. Any reference to an officer or body of the OPDU shall be read as a reference to the office or body of the Building Unions Division of the CFMEU equivalent thereto, e.g. Federal Secretary shall be read as Divisional Secretary, Branch shall be read as Divisional Branch, Branch Secretary shall be read as Divisional Branch Secretary, Branch Assistant Secretary shall be read as Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary, etc.

* The Builders Labourers Federation shall be and be deemed to be a Union which has merged into the Division now called The Construction and General Division of the CFMEU and any reference to the Builders Labourers' Federation shall be deemed to have been and be a reference to the CFMEU, Construction and General Division.

(e) Where, after amalgamation there is more than one officer holding a position to which a reference is made in any instrument, as defined in the Industrial Relations Act 1988, the body or bodies within the Union to which the officer answers shall, unless the context of the instrument otherwise necessitates, decide which of the number of officers shall exercise the functions, rights and/or responsibilities referred to in the instrument. For example, where the reference is by virtue of the foregoing provisions to a Divisional Officer at the national level, the Divisional Executive shall decide which of the number of officers filling the positions shall exercise those functions, rights and/or responsibilities. Where the officer is, in accordance with the above, a Divisional Branch officer, the Divisional Branch Management Committee (or its equivalent) shall decide which of the number of officers shall exercise the functions, rights and/or responsibilities given to that officer in any such instrument.

(xvi) (i) Any reference in this Rule to BWIU/Plasterers Division or Building Unions Division shall, where the context permits, be taken to be a reference to the Construction and General Division;

(ii) Any reference in this Rule to ATAIU Division shall, where the context permits, be taken to be a reference to the Forestry Division;

(iii) Any reference in this Rule to UMW Division shall, where the context permits, be taken to be a reference to the Mining & Energy Division.

42A - Divisional Restructuring (FEDFA)

1. Notwithstanding any other Rule of the Union to the contrary, the process of restructuring may be completed in steps which steps may deal with one Division at a time, Divisional Branches within a Division and/or the Divisional Office of any particular Division.

2. In relation to the above, the FEDFA Division shall be restructured in steps which shall involve:

(a) The abolition of full-time Divisional Officers at a national level and the allocation of responsibility for the FEDFA Division between the Building Unions Division and the UMW Division;

(b) The allocation of full-time Divisional Officers of the FEDFA Division to the Building Unions Division and the UMW Division;

(c) The continued operation of the Divisional Branches of the FEDFA Division with the intent, over time, of the restructuring of said Divisional Branches in accordance with Rule 42, into the Building Unions/Construction and General Division, UMW/Mining & Energy Division and the ATAIU/Forestry Division;

(d) The payment of capitation fees by FEDFA Divisional Branches to a designated fund which shall be administered by the Divisional Secretary of the FEDFA Division or, if or when that Office is abolished by the former Divisional Secretary and the Divisional Secretaries of the Building Unions and/or Construction and General Division and the UMW and/or Mining and Energy Division.

(e) The continued meeting of the Division Executive of the FEDFA Division for so long as is necessary before the complete restructuring of the FEDFA Division is effected in accordance with Rule 42.

3. On and from 27 September 1993, in accordance with the above procedure, the current Divisional Secretary of the FEDFA Division shall be and become the Divisional President of the Building Unions Division and the current Divisional Assistant Secretary of the FEDFA Division shall be and become a Divisional General Vice-President of the UMW Division and upon translation in accordance with Rule 42 (iii), shall hold the corresponding offices in the Construction and General Division and the Mining & Energy Division respectively.

4. The current Divisional Secretary and Divisional Assistant Secretary of the FEDFA Division shall continue to hold those positions in the FEDFA Division on an honorary basis until such time as the FEDFA Division no longer meets on a national basis.

5. This Rule shall come into force after its adoption by the National Executive and agreement thereto by the FEDFA Divisional Executive, UMW Divisional Executive and Building Unions Divisional Executive and thereupon shall be registered with the Australian Industrial Registry and shall take effect upon registration, or 27 September 1993, whichever is the later.

6. Further to the above provisions, and notwithstanding any other rule of the Union to the contrary, during the process of restructuring, any Divisional Branch of the FEDFA Division may reach agreement with any or all of the UMW Division/Mining & Energy Division and/or the Building Unions Division/Construction and General Division and/or the Forestry Division or the relevant Divisional Branches thereof to transfer members and officers of the FEDFA Division to any and/or all of the other aforementioned Divisions. Such agreement shall be reached with the approval of the Management Committee or its equivalent in each Divisional Branch and the officers concerned. Any such Divisional Branch may reach agreement on some or all of the matters relating to such transfer and, failing agreement on any or all of such matters, refer the matters by agreement to the National Executive for decision. Until such time as there no longer exists an FEDFA Division in accordance with the Rules of the Union, all such officers transferred shall, notwithstanding the holding of positions in other Divisions, continue to hold the office or position in the FEDFA Division on an honorary basis and shall, to the extent that the Rules require same, continue to perform the functions associated with that office in relation to the FEDFA Division. All agreements in relation to the transfer of members and officers shall be notified to the National Executive Committee and attached to the Minutes thereof. Such agreements shall have force and effect in accordance with the terms thereof and from the date of effect of that agreement as specified in that agreement, or failing any specification thereof, on the date of the agreement.

7. The following table shows the restructuring of the FEDFA Division, merging with the appropriate Union Division to create Industry Divsions:

(i) On and from 31 March 1994 the Australian Building Construction Employees and Builders Labourers Federation and, to the extent legally possible, the Australian Builders' Labourers' Federated Union of Workers - Western Australian Branch, the Australian Building and Construction Workers' Federation, the Australian Building, Construction Employees and Builders' Labourers' Federation (Queensland Branch) Union of Employees shall merge with and/or amalgamate with and/or into the CFMEU and become an integral, inseparable and inseverable part of the CFMEU and the Building Unions Division thereof.

(ii) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger in paragraph (i) herein, all assets and liabilities of the Australian Building Construction Employees and Builders' Labourers' Federation (the BLF) shall merge with the assets and liabilities of the CFMEU to be held and controlled in accordance with the rules of the CFMEU, by the Building Unions Division and/or Divisional Branches created by the Rules of the Union and shall be treated as if such assets and liabilities were, at all times, the assets and liabilities of the CFMEU. Such funds shall to the extent that prior to 31 March 1994 they were funds under the control of a BLF Branch, except in the case of the BLF Victorian Branch, be and become funds under the control of the respective Construction Labourers' Divisional Branch established consequent upon these Rules and, otherwise held by the Building Unions Division as Divisional Funds.

(iii) For all purposes and in all proceedings, an asset or liability of the BLF existing immediately before the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger is taken to have become and to have become and to have been at all times an asset or liability of the CFMEU on and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger. Provided that any liability of BLF Federal Fund to any Branch Fund or vice versa shall continue to be a liability of the Division or Divisional Branch Funds respectively.

(iv) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger an instrument in which the BLF is mentioned (other than the Builders' Labourers' Federation Cancellation of Registration Act, 1986 and the Builders' Labourers' Federation (Cancellation of Registration - Consequential Provisions) Act, 1986) continues in full force and effect. The instrument has effect, in relation to acts, omissions, transactions and matters done, entered into or occurring on or after the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger as if a reference in the instrument to the BLF were a reference to the amalgamated organisation. Provided that any instrument which is inconsistent with the Rules of the CFMEU shall have no force and effect except in so far as it prejudices the rights of a bona fide purchaser for value without notice.

(v) All officers of the CFMEU and BLF shall take all such steps as are necessary and/or desirable to ensure that the amalgamation and/or merger is fully effective including that holding of all necessary meetings, the passage of all necessary resolutions, the making of all necessary applications and the execution of all necessary documents to give effect to this agreement.

(vi) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger any and all members of the remaining branches of the BLF, if not already members of the CFMEU, shall be and become members of the CFMEU and be treated in the CFMEU as if all of the period of their membership in the BLF was membership in the CFMEU (except as otherwise provided for in the specific rules dealing with the merger in the rules of the Building Unions Division).

(vii) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger there shall be a National Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers) with the same status and standing as any other Senior Vice-President and whomsoever occupies the position of Divisional Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers) shall be the National Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers).

42C - AMALGAMATION WITH FBTPU

(i) On and from the date of amalgamation with the Federated Brick Tile and Pottery Industrial Union of Australia ("the FBTPU"), and notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 13(ii) herein, the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall be entitled to two delegates to National Conference, one of whom shall be the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary and the other shall be the Industry Divisional Branch President.

(ii) On and from the date of amalgamation with the FBTPU, the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary of the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall, ex officio, be a member of the National Executive of the CFMEU.

(iii) Delegates to the National Conference and National Executive of the Union from the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall, for the purposes of determining the vote which they are entitled to exercise on those bodies in accordance with Rule 13(iii) herein, be taken to have derived from the Construction and General Division and shall be counted as members of the Divisional Executive of that Division.

(iv) On and from the date of amalgamation, the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall be entitled to two delegates to the Divisional Conference of the Construction and General Division, one of whom shall be the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary and the other shall be the Industry Divisional Branch President (Honorary) of the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch.

(v) On and from the date of amalgamation, the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary of the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall, ex officio, be a member of the Divisional Executive of the Construction and General Division of the CFMEU.

(vi) The provisions of this rule shall not be altered or amended by the National Conference or National Executive or the Construction and General Division, Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive, whilst ever the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch exists, without the consent of the Management Committee of the Industry Divisional Branch.

42D - DIVISIONAL RESTRUCTURING (FFTS)

1. Notwithstanding any other Rule of the Union to the contrary, the process of restructuring may be completed in steps, such steps may deal with one Division at a time and/or Divisional Branches within a restructured Division at a time.

2. In relation to the above, the FFTS Division shall on and from the 11th February 2002, be restructured in the first instance into the Forestry Division to form "The Forestry, Furnishing, Building Products and Manufacturing Division" (FFPD) which shall result in:

   (a) The abolition of full-time FFTS Divisional Officers at a national level and the allocation of responsibility for the FFTS Division to the restructured Division.

   (b) The allocation of Divisional/Branch Office Holders of the FFTS Division to the Office Holders positions of the restructured Division.

   (c) The continued operation of the Victorian and Queensland Divisional Branches of the FFTS Division within the restructured Division of up to four years beyond the expiration of the eight years referred to in sub-rule 42(xii). This sub-rule shall not otherwise affect the operation of sub-rule 42(xii). For the avoidance of doubt, the four years referred to in this sub-rule shall expire on 26 March 2005.

3. Further to the above provisions and notwithstanding any other rule of the Union to the contrary, the FFTS Victorian Branch shall unless otherwise agreed by the FFTS Victorian Branch Management Committee maintain its current structure and existence within the restructured Division up until 26 March 2005.

4. Prior to the 26 March 2005, the FFPD (which shall include representatives of the former FFTS Division) and the Construction & General Division (which shall include representatives from the National Office and all interested Branches) will meet under the chairpersonship of the National Secretary of the CFMEU to reach agreement to finalise translation/integration provisions intended by the respective Schemes of Amalgamation and the Rules of the Union in respect to the Forestry, FFTS and C&G Divisions.

5. Should agreement not be reached between the Divisions the matter shall be referred to the CFMEU National Executive to determine in accordance with the Schemes of Amalgamation and Rules of the Union.

6. Until the elections scheduled to be held in August 2004 the FFPD shall be constituted and represented as follows:-

7. This rule shall come into force on and from 11 February 2002 in accordance with the unanimous decision of the National Executive and shall be registered with the Australian Industrial Registry.

BRANCH RULES

43 - NAME

The name of the branch shall be the "Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union, X Branch" where X is the State or Territory for which the Branch has been established.

44 - MEMBERSHIP AND CONSTITUTION

All members of all Divisional Branches within the State or Territory shall be members of the Branch with the same status of membership as is held in the Divisional Branch.

45 - SEAL

The seal of the Branch shall be oval in shape, inscribed on the outer edge "Construction Forestry, Mining and Energy Union" and the name of the Branch on the inside.

46 - STATE CONFERENCE

(i) The supreme governing body of the Branch shall, subject to the autonomy of the Divisional Branches, be the State Conference convened every two (2) years and especially in accordance with these Rules.

The State Conference shall meet no later than 30 December in the year following the elections in the Divisional Branches, being the general election and at least every two (2) years thereafter.

(ii) The State Conference shall consist of all of the members of each and every Divisional Branch Management Committee for every Divisional Branch of the Union within the State or Territory covered by the Branch.

(iii) Persons elected as members of a Divisional Branch Management Committee shall be elected in accordance with the Rules of the Union applicable to the particular Divisional Branch.

Nothing in this sub-rule shall interfere with the transitional provisions which shall take effect on and from amalgamation.

Each member of a Divisional Branch Management Committee shall exercise a vote on the State Conference equal to the percentage of financial members of the Union in the Divisional Branch from which the member derives divided by the number of members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee entitled to vote.

Provided that nothing in this sub-rule shall prevent proxy voting or multiple voting.

(iv) The method of calculation of financial members of any Divisional Branch shall be in accordance with Rule 13 of the National Rules of the Union, the necessary changes, if any, being made.

(v) Members of the Divisional Branch Management Committees or State Conference shall remain in office until the election of their successors.

(vi) Divisional Branches may, where elected Divisional Branch Delegates to State Conference agree, arrange multiple voting representation at a State Conference by notifying the State Conference of the number of Divisional Branch Delegates to be credentialed and the arrangements for proxy voting to be adopted by that Divisional Branch at the State Conference.

(vii) Where a delegate is unable to attend a meeting of the State Conference or any part thereof, that delegate may where the Divisional Branch Executive agrees appoint another elected delegate to State Conference from the same Divisional Branch as proxy to act in that delegate's stead.

Where the Divisional Branch Management Committee agrees, a delegate may appoint as the proxy to State Conference an elected delegate from another Divisional Branch within the State or Territory covered by the Branch. Each member of the Divisional Branch Management Committee shall be a delegate to the State Conference.

(viii) A majority of delegates to State Conference, representing not less than two Divisions, shall form a quorum of the State Conference.

(ix) (a) The State Conference shall have power, unless any rule deprives the State Conference of power or grants to another body within the area covered by the Branch exclusive power over a subject matter, to do all things necessary and/or desirable for the furtherance of the objects of Union, to co-ordinate Divisional Branches within the branch area and for the care, control and management of the Branch.

(b) The function of the State Conference shall be to coordinate the Divisional Branches in the area concerned and shall have the powers, subject to these Rules, necessary for that purpose and shall, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(A) perform such functions referred to it by the Divisional Branches.

(B) affiliate to any body for and on behalf of any Divisional Branch, or with the agreement of each Divisional Branch for and behalf of the Branch as a whole;

(C) Supervise the funds, if any, paid to the Branch office by Divisional Branches;

(D) Subject to the review of its actions by Divisional Executives and National Executive, settle disputes between Divisional Branches.

(c) Provided that the State Conference shall not have power over any matter which concerns the members of one Divisional Branch only unless that Divisional Branch consents thereto.

(x) Meetings of the State Conference and State Executive shall be held at such time and place as shall be decided by at least one State President and one State Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the State Executive may demand a meeting of such State Executive or State Conference which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members in such demand. The quorum for any meeting shall be three (3) a majority of the State Officers may demand a meeting of the State Executive which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such State Officers.

47 - STATE EXECUTIVE

(i) There shall be a State Executive composed of the full time elected officers, (other than organisers except where otherwise provided for in these rules), of each Divisional Branch within the Branch area, one of whom shall be the State President, another of whom shall be a State Senior Vice President, another of whom shall be the State Secretary and another of whom shall be State Assistant Secretary, provided that where a Division has more than one Divisional Branch in an area, the Division will determine its representation. The President of each Divisional Branch shall, if not otherwise a member of the State Executive, be such a member.

(ii) The State Executive shall have and exercise all of the powers of the State Conference, subject to the review thereof by the State Conference, but shall have no more powers than State Conference.

Any decision of the State Executive may be overturned by the State Conference and all decisions of the State Conference shall be binding on the State Executive.

(iii) The State Secretary may take a telegraphic, telex, facsimile, telephonic, written and/or postal vote of members of the State Executive or State Conference at any time.

Members of the State Executive or State Conference shall be advised of the details of the voting. Such votes shall have the same effect as a decision of such body made in meetings assembled.

(iv) The State Executive shall be held at such time and place as shall be decided by the State Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the State Executive may demand a meeting of such State Executive or State Conference which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members of the State Executive. The quorum for any meeting shall be a majority of the members entitled to vote thereat.

There shall be a State Executive meeting held before the meeting of State Conference in the year following the general elections of the Union.

(v) All decisions of the State Executive shall be made by a majority of votes cast at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules. The votes cast by members of the State Executive shall be on a card system and the value of the vote cast by any member of the State Executive, including State Officers, shall be determined in the same way, the necessary changes being made as the value of a vote cast by delegates to the State Conference with State Officers being included in the Division from which they derive.

48 - ELECTION OF STATE OFFICERS

(i) The State Officers, being the State Secretary, the State Assistant Secretary, the State President and the State Senior Vice-President shall be elected by and from the State Conference. The election shall be held, the necessary changes being made, in the same way as Divisional Officers are elected from the Divisional Conference under Rule 9 of the Construction & General Division Rules, provided that each Division shall be represented by at least one State Officer.

Provided that for the A.C.T. Branch (while that Branch has only one Divisional Branch) Officers elected to the Construction & General Division A.C.T. Branch, shall hold the equivalent position within the A.C.T. State Branch.

Further provided that, each Division shall hold at least one position of Joint Vice-President.

Further provided that, each Division, prior to the calling for nominations, shall decide its nominees for the above positions, by resolution from that Division's Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(ii) Where, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, an officer of a Divisional Branch within a Branch area ceases to hold office as an officer of the Divisional Branch such officer shall at the same time cease to hold office as a State officer in accordance with this rule. Provided that the member who replaces such a Divisional Branch officer in the office in the Divisional Branch shall also fill the vacancy created in the position of State officer only until such time as the State officer's position can be filled in accordance with the rules governing casual vacancy, or, if the vacancy occurs within 12 months of an ordinary election, by the ordinary election.

(iii) The term of office of officers of a Branch of the union shall be four (4) years.

49 - FUNDS OF THE BRANCH

(i) Each Divisional Branch in the area covered by the Branch of the Union shall pay to the Branch on a basis which is proportionate to the respective financial membership of each Divisional Branch, an amount that is determined by the State Executive as sufficient to enable it to fulfil its functions.

(ii) All moneys received by the Branch shall be paid to the credit of the Branch on current account with a bank. No funds shall be drawn from the Bank except by cheques signed by two (2) persons who are the State Secretary, State Assistant Secretary or State President and not from the same Divisional Branch.

(iii) All expenditure for ordinary purposes, namely incurred in directly furthering the objects of the Branch or in the expenses of management, may be dispersed by decision of the State Secretary and either the State President or State Assistant Secretary, provided that both signatories shall not be officers from the one Division.

Expenditure for other purposes authorised by the Rules may be disbursed by a majority decision of the State Conference or the State Executive.

(iv) The funds of the Branch shall be invested where possible in the name of the Branch. Where it is not possible to invest money or funds in such name, the investment shall be made in the name of Trustees under these Rules.

Nothing in this Rule prevents the Branch from entering into an agreement with a Trade or Industrial Union or organisation of employees registered under any legislation of any State of the Commonwealth for the investment of funds on a joint basis or on a basis on which the funds are held in common or jointly so long as the funds are treated, for all purposes, insofar as they relate to members of the Branch, as funds of the Branch.

(v) The property of the Branch, vested in the Branch in accordance with these rules and the other rules of the Union, shall be under the control of the State Executive.

(vi) In Western Australia no decision of the WA Branch shall adversely affect the Building Unions Division WA Plasterers Divisional Branch in relation to funds or any other matter without the consent of that Divisional Branch.

50 - AUDIT

The State Executive shall appoint as Auditor a competent person resident in the city in which the State Office is located who shall each year for the period ending 31 December audit the books and accounts of the Branch and draw up a correct report on same.

The Auditor shall, in the aforesaid report, draw attention of the State Executive to any deficiencies or other matters which the Auditor may think proper. The Auditor shall have full and complete access to all the books and documents of the Branch.

For the purpose of this Rule a competent person shall have the same meaning as in the Industrial Relations Act and the Regulations made pursuant thereto.

51 - OFFICERS

(i) The Officers of the Branch shall be the State President/s, the State Secretary, the State Senior Vice President, the State Vice President/s, the State Assistant Secretary/s and members of the State Executive.

(ii) And such rights and duties shall, the necessary changes being made, be the same in relation to the Branch concerned as the rights and duties of National Officers and National Executive Members are in relation to the Union as a whole.

52 - REFERENDA

(i) On a decision of a majority of Divisional Branches in the Branch area or Divisional Branches in a Branch area whose membership constitutes a majority of the members of that Branch, or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10% of the financial members of the Branch, the State Executive shall take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Branch upon a matter or matters submitted by the Divisional Branches or by the petition.

A decision reached by the majority of the actual votes recorded at such referendum shall be binding on the Branch, including the State Conference and State Executive thereof, and the members thereof provided that the decision shall not affect the autonomy of any Division.

(ii) The State Executive or State Conference may at any time of its own motion take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Branch or of the whole of the financial members of the Branch upon any matter it thinks fit.

(iii) The referendum referred to in this Rule shall be conducted on the basis that the State Executive shall determine the question to be submitted to the members entitled to vote and the form of the ballot paper, fix the time for the dispatch and return of the ballot paper and give the necessary instructions for printing the same, appoint a State Returning Officer and State Scrutineer in conjunction with Divisional Branch Returning Officers to conduct the ballot, no material other than that authorised by the State Conference or State Executive shall be enclosed in the envelope in which the ballot paper is posted to the member and in all other respects the referendum shall be held as nearly as practicable in the manner provided for the holding of election of Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference in accordance with Rule 17 (iii) except that the roll of voters shall be the financial membership at the end of the calendar month immediately preceding the holding of the referendum.

53 - RULES OF THE BRANCH

(a) The Rules of the Branch contained herein shall be binding on all Divisions and all members thereof. Such Rules may be altered, rescinded, varied or made by the National Conference and/or National Executive in accordance with Rule 25 of the National Rules.

(b) The State Conference and State Executive shall have power to make alter and rescind by laws for the working of the Branches, any Sub-Branches and any other matter over which such Branch has control under these or any other rules.

Provided that no such by laws shall be inconsistent with any other rule of the union and shall, to the extent of any such inconsistency, be void and inoperative.

54 - VOTING OTHERWISE THAN AT MEETINGS ASSEMBLED

Rule 37 of the National Rules of the Union shall apply, the necessary changes being made, to the Branch and the State Secretary shall in the same way as provided for the National Secretary under Rule 37 of the National Rules, take a vote of the State Executive or the State Conference in any manner whatsoever.

Such vote shall have the same effect in relation to the Branch as a vote taken under Rule 37 of the National Rules has in relation to the Union.

"NATIONAL COLLEGIATE" shall mean the totality of delegates from all Divisions to each Divisional Conference.

"PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION" shall mean a system of representation at Committees, Conferences, Executives or the like which, as far as practicable, will provide for voting on a basis which reflects the number or percentage of financial members, as calculated in accordance with these rules, that each person on such Committee, Conference, Executive or the like, represents.

"DISTRICT" AND "SUB-BRANCH" AND "ZONE" where used in the Rules of the Union shall mean sectors of a Divisional Branch of the Union.

"RULES OF THE UNION" means all of the Rules of the Union as read and construed in totality while "NATIONAL RULES" shall refer to these rules, "BRANCH RULES" shall refer to the Rules of any Branch of the Union established under the Rules of the Union, "DIVISIONAL RULES" shall refer to the Rules of any Division established in accordance with the Rules of the union, and "DIVISIONAL BRANCH RULES" or "DIVISIONAL DISTRICT BRANCH RULES "shall refer to the rules of Divisional Branches, being a branch of a Division, established in accordance with the Rules of the union.

"MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE" and/or "EXECUTIVE" shall be synonymous and shall mean the controlling and administrative body of the organ so referred to, ie Division or Branch or Divisional Branch.

"PREFERENTIAL VOTING" shall mean a system of voting in which the voter shall place the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom they vote as first preference and shall place the number 2, 3, 4 (and so on, as the case requires) in the squares opposite the names of all the remaining candidates so as to indicate the order of preference for them.

In a ballot by the preferential system the valid ballot papers shall be separated into separate parcels, each such parcel containing all those papers on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate.

If on the first count a candidate receives an absolute majority of first preference votes of total valid votes cast then that candidate shall be declared elected.

If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the candidate with the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded and the ballot papers on which a first preference is indicated for such candidate shall be counted to the remaining candidates next in the voters' order of preference.

If a candidate has then an absolute majority of votes then that candidate shall be elected, but if no candidate then has a majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and the distribution of the vote preferences shall continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.

In cases where more than one position is to be filled the numbers placed opposite the candidates' names up to the number of positions to be filled shall be first preference votes and the procedure in respect to the distribution of preferences shall be the same as is above prescribed where a ballot is for a single position.

The candidate or candidates as the case may be, who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

"GENERAL ELECTIONS" shall mean the elections held every four years commencing in 1996 office to be taken on 2 January 1997 in accordance with the Rules of the Union, with the exception of the Mining and Energy Division, where office will be taken 1 July 1996.

"PLURAL/SINGULAR" every reference in these rules to the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.

6 - SEAL

(i) The Seal of the Union shall be oval in shape inscribed on the outer edge "Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union".

(ii) The Seal shall be kept in the custody of the National Secretary.

(iii) Any document required or permitted by the Workplace Relations Act to be under seal shall be executed on behalf of the Union by affixing the Seal of the Union thereto and by being signed by the National Secretary or in the absence of the National Secretary, either the National President or National Assistant Secretary.

(iv) Any document otherwise required by law to be under seal shall be executed by affixing the Seal of the Union thereto and by being signed by the National Secretary and either the National President or National Assistant Secretary.

7 - MEMBERSHIP

(i) A candidate for membership of the Union may make application to the National Secretary, the Division covering the occupation or industry in which the person is employed, the Branch covering the area in which the person is employed or resides, or the Divisional Branch covering the industry or occupation in which the person is employed, usually employed or desirous of being employed and the area in which the person resides or is employed, and such application shall be made and dealt with in the manner and subject to the conditions including conditions as to any probationary period required by the rules of the Division. Any application shall be forwarded to the office in the appropriate division which under the rules of that division deals with such applications. The decision to accept or reject that application shall be made in accordance with the Rules of that division by that office. Provided that where a person makes application to any officer of the Union that application shall be a valid application for membership of the Union and the Union shall, treat the member as a member of the Division to which the officer is attached, until transferred in accordance with the rules.

(ii) Candidates shall supply such information as to their identity and occupation, and such other particulars as to their eligibility for membership and the benefits of membership as the Rules of the Union may require, and shall, when requested, fill in and sign such application form as may be provided.

(iii) (a) Any application for membership may be referred to the National Executive by the Division, or Divisional Branch to whom application is made or by the member.

(b) Where in any case the admission to membership of the person applying is rejected, such person shall have the right to appeal to the National Executive, whose decision shall be final.

(iv) A member shall be attached to the Division of the Union covering the industry or employment of the member and shall be in only one such Division. Each member shall be notified of the Division to which such member is attached or any other classification relevant to the Rules of the Union and such Division or classification shall be entered on the record of the Union in relation to that member which record shall be conclusive proof of the Division and/or classification to which that member is assigned.

(v)(a) Notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in the Rules of the Union no application for membership of the union shall be void or irregular only for the reason that the form of application is not fully completed or completed at all, or that some other form of application is used, or any other procedure under the Rules has not been complied with provided that the person intended to, and did in fact, in some way or other, apply for membership and the Union treated the person as a member. A member may be transferred to another Division, Branch or Divisional Branch without loss of continuity of membership. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a person who, at the time of application for membership was not eligible to be or become a member, shall be and become a member as soon as the person is eligible to be and become a member or earlier if by any Act, law or other Rule the membership is otherwise validated provided that the person performs an act which evidences an intention to be or become a member. For all purposes the payment of union dues in whole or in part shall be taken to be, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a method by which a person intended to, and did in fact, in some way or other, apply for membership and/or evidences an intention to be or become a member.

(b) Without affecting or detracting from the requirements of sub-rules 42(iii) and 42(xii) and without limiting the rights of the member or a Division, Divisional Branch or authorised officer thereof, to seek or obtain a transfer of Division or Divisional Branch in accordance with the rules, no membership of the Union and no membership or attachment to a Division, Branch or Divisional Branch of the Union shall be invalidated, void or otherwise treated as irregular on account of the member being attached to a Division, Branch or Divisional Branch which, in accordance with the Rules, may not be the correct Division, Branch or Divisional Branch provided that the member was eligible for membership of the Union and the member was aware of the Division, Branch or Divisional Branch to which the member was attached. Every member of the Union who, on the records of the Union, is financial and is, on those records, attached to a Division, Branch or Divisional Branch shall be treated for all purposes as a financial member thereof and shall be entitled to all rights and required to comply with all obligations which attach thereto until transferred in accordance with the Rules.

(vi) Any Division or Branch or Divisional Branch may utilise for the purposes of application form for membership of this Union, an application form used for any previously registered organisation of employees which has become, upon amalgamation, part of this Union or any application form utilised jointly or otherwise with any trade union of employees registered under any legislation of a State or Territory.

(vii) A member shall, when applying for membership be informed of the financial obligations arising from membership and the circumstances, and the manner, in which a member may resign from the organisation and shall be informed of such in writing.

(viii) (a) Where a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary is of the view that a person in the Division or Divisional Branch of which she/he is an officer should be attached to another Division or Divisional Branch the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary shall contact the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary of the Division or Divisional Branch to which, in the view formed, the member should be attached, and seek to obtain agreement on the transfer of the said member. Where agreement cannot be reached the matter may be referred to the National Secretary and be determined by the National Executive or an officer designated by the National Executive.

(b) Further provided that where a Divisional Secretary or a Divisional Branch Secretary forms the view that a member of another Division or Divisional Branch ought to be a member of the Division or Divisional Branch to which the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary is attached, the Divsional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary shall contact the the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch to which the member is now attached and seek agreement that the member be transferred. Where agreement cannot be reached the matter may be referred to the National Secretary and be determined by the National Executive or an officer designated by the National Executive.

(c) In relation to the two immediately foregoing paragraphs contact between Divisions and/or Divisional Branches in relation to these issues may, by custom and practice or by agreement, be dealt with by an officer other than the Divisonal Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary or may be dealt with by members of staff. Where a member is transferred or determined to be transferred in accordance with either of the immediately preceding paragraphs the member shall be notified accordingly and the transfer shall be effective 14 days after the notification to the member. Within that period the member may object to said transfer and such objection will be determined by the National Executive. Pending such objection the member shall nevertheless be transferred in accordance with any of the aforesaid agreements and/or determinations.

(d) Any determination by the National Executive or officer designated by the National Executive shall use the principles established in and by sub-rules 42(i) and 42(iii) hereof.

Nothing in these paragraphs shall affect or detract from the provisions of subrule(s) 42(i), (iii) and (xii) and membership of a Division or a Divisonal Branch shall be valid notwithstanding an irregularity in, breach of or failure to comply with the procedures in either one or both paragraphs (a) or (b) herein.

8 - ENTRANCE FEES AND CONTRIBUTIONS

(i) Entrance fees and contributions payable by any person on application to join the union and/or for membership or continuous membership of the Union shall be in accordance with the Rules of the division to which, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, the person or member is to be or is assigned.

(ii) Any member who has failed to pay the entrance fees, or contributions, levies and fines imposed in accordance with the rules of the union on or before the date specified in such rules, shall be deemed to be unfinancial, and shall not be eligible to receive any benefits, participate in any deliberations, propose or second any new applicant for admission or exercise any authority or any membership rights, provided that the rules may provide that some members or some class or classes of members may vote in a ballot and/or may differentiate between classes of members as to the amount of any contribution and/or entrance fee.

(iii) A member shall be deemed to be financial immediately upon payment of all arrears outstanding.

(iv) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in Rules 7 and 8 of these National Rules or any Divisional Rules to the contrary, the Union may reach agreement with any organisation of employees, trade union, industrial union or organisation, whether incorporated or otherwise or whether registered under a law of the Commonwealth, State or Territory or unregistered (herein referred to as an "association"), which agreement may provide for automatic membership of this Union for members of any such association and may provide for the receipt and holding of moneys jointly or in common by the aforementioned association and this Union and conversely the automatic membership of members of this Union in such an association.

(b) The Union may, by agreement or unilaterally, grant to any class of members, who are members of another association of a kind referred to in paragraph (a) hereof, membership and waive the requirement to pay an entrance fee and/or contributions in whole or in part.

(c) Nothing in this Sub-Rule shall render eligible for membership any person not otherwise eligible for membership of the Union under the eligibility Rules or pursuant to S.202 of the Industrial Relations Act, or any other provision of that Act or any Act amending or replacing same. Further, "automatic membership" when used in this Sub-Rule shall mean membership granted to a member free of the payment of any entrance fee and contribution in circumstances where the person applying for membership has signified an intention to become a member or having been notified that membership would be granted unless objected to, has not signified objection to that membership.

9 - CLEARANCES

(i) A member desiring to transfer to any other union covering their calling shall make application to the Divisional Branch Secretary, or where the rules of the union so provide, Divisional Sub-Branch, in writing, and shall pay all dues owing to the union, and the transfer will be forwarded to the Secretary of the union to which the member desires to transfer. Such member shall cease to be a member of this Union as from the date on which the transfer is forwarded to the Secretary of such other union.

(ii) Any member of a kindred trade union, or any union whose Awards cover workers specified in Rule 2 of the rules of the union, may be admitted to membership on production to the Divisional Branch Secretary, or where the rules of the Division so provide, the Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District Secretary, of a clearance from such union showing that all dues, contributions and levies payable to such union have been paid. The membership of a person so admitted shall commence as from the date of the production of their clearance. The rules of the Union may provide for persons who had been members of any Division or Divisional Branch of this Union to be admitted without entrance fees or other special conditions.

(iii) A clearance shall not be granted to any member unless all moneys owing have first been paid.

10 - TRANSFERS

(1) A member attached to any Divisional Branch of any Division who is working within the area covered by another Divisional Branch may be transferred to the latter Divisional Branch. The member shall apply to the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch, or where the Divisional Branch rules so provide, of the Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District to which the member was attached for a clearance, and provided the member is financial, the Divisional Branch or Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District Secretary shall forward to the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch to which the member desires to be transferred, the clearance. A member shall be deemed to be attached to the new Divisional Branch as from the date of the receipt of the clearance by the Divisional Branch Secretary of such Divisional Branch, or where the Divisional Branch rules so provide, by the secretary of the Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District, and the member's length of membership of the new Divisional Branch shall be the length of the latest period of membership of the Union.

11 - RESIGNATION OF MEMBERS

(1) A member may resign from membership of the Union by a written notice addressed and delivered to the Divisional Branch Secretary or other officer of the Divisional Branch authorised to receive such correspondence.

(2) The notice of resignation will take effect where that member,

(a) ceases to be eligible to become a member of the Union:

(i) on the day on which the notice is received by the Union; or

(ii) on the day specified in the notice, which is a day not earlier than the day when the member ceases to be eligible to be a member;

whichever is later; or

(b) in any other case:

(i) at the end of 2 weeks after the notice is received by the Union; or

(ii) on the day specified in the notice;

whichever is later.

(3) All contributions and or levies due in relation to the period before the members resignation took effect are to be paid. Where the member fails to do so the Union may prosecute such member in the appropriate court for the recovery of that amount.

(4) A notice delivered to the person mentioned in sub-rule (1) shall be taken to have been received by the Union when it was delivered.

(5) A notice of resignation that has been received by the Union is not invalid because it was not addressed and delivered in accordance with sub-rule (1).

(6) A resignation from membership of the union is valid even if it is not effected in accordance with this rule if the member is informed in writing by or on behalf of the union that the resignation has been accepted.

12 - REGISTER OF MEMBERS

A register of members and any other records of the Union required to be kept by the Industrial Relations Act and the Regulations made thereunder shall be kept at the registered office of the Union and so far as such records relate to a Division or Divisional Branch at the registered office of that Division or Divisional Branch.

13 - SUPREME GOVERNING BODY IN UNION

(i) The supreme governing body of the union shall be the National Conference convened every two (2) years or specially in accordance with these National Rules.

(ii) The National Conference shall consist of all of the members of each and every Divisional Executive for every Division of the Union. Provided that existing elected officers of the National Executive who are retiring from office and who have not been re-elected as members of their Divisional Executive shall be entitled to attend the National Conference until their successors are elected and shall be entitled to all rights of a conference delegate other than nominating and voting on any matter. Further provided that, if not otherwise a delegate to National Conference by virtue of this sub-clause, members of the National Executive entitled to attend and vote thereat shall, ipso facto, be delegates to the National Conference and treated, in all respects, as delegates in the same way as a member of the Divisional Executive and for the purposes of sub-rule (iii) of this Rule be treated as a member of the Divisional Executive from the Division of which such person is a member. Further provided that any person not entitled to attend and/or vote at their Divisional Executive by virtue of the Rules of the Division shall not be entitled, notwithstanding any of the foregoing in this sub-rule, to attend and/or vote at National Conference.

(iii) Persons elected as members of a Divisional Executive shall be elected in accordance with the rules of the Division. Nothing in this sub-rule shall prevent the filling of a vacancy between ordinary elections or interfere with the transitional provisions which shall take effect on and from amalgamation. Each such member of a Divisional Executive shall exercise a vote on the National Conference equal to the percentage of financial members of the Union in the Division from which the member derives divided by the number of members of the Divisional Executive entitled to vote. Provided that nothing in this sub-rule prevents proxy voting or multiple voting.

(iv) The percentage of financial members belonging to any Division shall be the sum of the percentages of financial members of the Divisional Branches within that Division.

For the purposes of this rule, the percentage of financial members of any Divisional Branch shall be calculated by dividing the total income received by the Divisional Branch from contributions only, by the amount of contributions fixed for ordinary members for that Divisional Branch and determining that number as a percentage of total membership of the Union calculated in the same way. This calculation shall be performed for the first six month period of the financial year preceding the year in which the National Conference is held.

(v) Members of Divisional Executives and National Conference shall remain in office until the election of their successors.

(vi) Should any member of a Divisional Executive die or resign or should there be, for any other reason whatsoever, a vacant position as delegate or member to Divisional Executive and/or National Conference, the Divisional Branch Executive of the Divisional Branch in which the vacancy would otherwise be filled may forthwith cause an election for another member or, where the unexpired part of the term for that office until the next general elections does not exceed three quarters of the ordinary term of office, the Divisional Branch Executive may appoint a delegate to such Divisional Conference to be the member or delegate from or of the Divisional Branch in place of the member or delegate who is deceased or has resigned or to fill the position otherwise left vacant. Provided a person appointed by a Divisional Branch Executive in the manner mentioned herein shall hold office only for the residue of the period until the next general elections.

The method of such election or appointment shall be the same, the necessary changes being made, as the method of election or appointment (as the case may be) of the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch from which the vacancy is to be filled in accordance with the rules of the Divisional Branch.

(vii) Divisions or Divisional Branches may, where elected Divisional Branch delegates or members to or of National Conference agree, arrange multiple voting representation at a National Conference by notifying the National Conference of the number of divisional delegates or members to be credentialed and of the arrangements for proxy voting to be adopted by that Division or Divisional Branch at the National Conference.

(viii) Where a delegate is unable to attend a meeting of the National Conference or any part thereof that delegate may where the Divisional Executive agrees appoint another elected delegate to National Conference from the same Division as proxy to act in that delegate's stead. Where the Divisional Executive agrees, a delegate may appoint as the proxy to National Conference an elected delegate from another Division. Each member of the Divisional Executive shall be a delegate to the National Conference.

(ix) Six delegates, representing not less than two Divisions, shall form a quorum of the National Conference.

(x) The National Conference shall have power, unless any rule deprives the National Conference of power or grants to another body within the Union exclusive power over a subject matter, to:

(a) take such steps as it shall think fit to carry out all or any of the objects of the Union and to raise or spend such funds as are necessary to carry out the objects;

(b) decide the general policy of the Union and to take steps to enforce the carrying out of such policy;

(c) subject to the rules prescribing the procedure to be followed, impose penalties being fines not exceeding the sum of $100, suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office, on officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates, for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules of the Union or decisions of the National Conference or the National Executive.
Provided that:

* a copy of the rules of the Union of which there is an alleged breach, and/or the decisions of National Conference or National Executive of which there is an alleged breach are available to members at each Branch office;

* no penalties shall be imposed unless the officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting; particulars are given in the summons of the offence alleged (including the time and places alleged that the offence was committed); and that person charged is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in their own defence, including an opportunity to cross examine and to give and call evidence. Nothing in the preceding rule requires the procedures of court. A period of suspension imposed under this rule shall not exceed six (6) months;

(d) hear and decide any appeal from the National Executive or any Divisional Branch, or Branch or member. Any appeal from a member must be forwarded through the Divisional Branch Committee. Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard;

(e) settle disputes between Divisions;

(f) deal with and decide any matter submitted to it by any Division or Branch of the Union;

(g) confirm, overrule or otherwise deal with decisions of the National Executive;

(h) establish Divisions of the Union;

(j) exercise all or any of the powers of the National Executive;

(k) subject to Rule 25, make alter and rescind any of the Rules of the union, including Branch Rules, Divisional Rules and Divisional Branch Rules;

(l) confer life membership on a member of the Union.

(xi) A National Conference shall be held not later than twenty four (24) months after each general election of the Divisional Branch delegates to National Conference and at such place and time as the National Executive shall decide.

(xii) The business to be dealt with by National Conference shall be shown on the agenda paper, but matters may be added to the agenda paper if agreed to by a majority of delegates at the National Conference. Any matter appearing on the agenda paper may be amended by the National Conference.

(xiii) Notice of every National Conference, together with a copy of the agenda paper therefore shall be posted by the National Secretaries to each Divisional Secretary and each Branch Secretary one calendar month before the date of such meeting, or where agenda items have not been finalised one calendar month before the meeting then they shall be sent at the earliest practicable time.

Notice shall also be posted to all delegates so as to give them at least the notice provided for herein.

(xiv) A copy of the Minutes containing all decisions and business of the National Conference shall be forwarded to each Divisional Secretary and to each Divisional Branch Secretary within two (2) months of the conclusion of each National Conference. Any member of the Union may, upon request to the Divisional Branch Secretary, inspect a copy of the minutes of each National Conference at the Divisional Branch Office or Divisional Office during the ordinary hours in which the Divisional Branch or Division is open.

(xv) The National Secretary on receipt of resolutions from a majority of Divisions or from Divisional Branches representing a majority of members or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10% of the financial members of the Union calling for a special Conference shall call such Conference within thirty (30) days. Each Division, Divisional Branch and delegate to National Conference shall be advised by letter of National Conference business fourteen (14) days prior to the date of the Conference so fixed. The National Executive may direct the National Secretary to call a special conference at any time. Divisions, Divisional Branches and delegates to National Conference shall be given seven (7) days' notice if practicable. Notice shall be given by letter, facsimile, telegram or telex.

Notwithstanding anything contained in any other rule, the National Executive may direct the National Secretaries to conduct a postal, telephonic, telegraphic, telex, verbal and/or written vote (or combination thereof) of delegates to National Conference to obtain a decision on any matter.

14 - NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

(i) The National Executive Committee shall consist of the National Principal Officers, being the National Secretary of the CFMEU, the Divisional Secretary of the Construction and General Division, the Divisional Secretary of the Forestry, Furnishing, Building Products and Manufacturing Division, the General President of the Mining and Energy Division; together with the fulltime elected Officers of each Division who are fulltime at the National level and are not already one of the aforementioned National Principal Officers; two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries of the Forestry, Furnishing, Building Products and Manufacturing Division, one of whom shall be the Principal Officer of the Pulp and Paper Industry Sector and the other of whom shall be the Principal Officer of the Furnishing Industry Sector; and the Divisional President, and two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries of the Construction and General Division if not otherwise included.

(ii) The National Executive Committee shall, subject to the review of its actions by the National Executive, have the care, control, superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business, national funds of the Union and without limiting the generality of the foregoing it may:

(a) interpret and enforce the general policy of the Union as decided by National Executive and/or National Conference.

(b) decide questions of policy not covered by the National Executive and/or National Conference decisions.

(c) control and conduct the business and affairs of the Union while the National Executive or National Conference is not in session.

(d) Expend such moneys by way of ordinary expenditure as may be necessary.

(e) Submit any matter to the National Executive for decision.

(f) Control and supervise the work of the National Officers of the Union.

(g) All decisions of the National Executive Committee shall be made by a majority of the members present at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules.

(iii) Meetings of the National Executive and National Executive Committee shall be held at such time and place as shall be decided by the National President and the National Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the National Executive may demand a meeting of such National Executive which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members of the National Executive. The quorum for any meeting shall be six (6). A majority of the National Officers may demand a meeting of the National Executive Committee which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such National Officers. The quorum for any meeting of the National Executive Committee shall be four (4).

(iv) The National Secretary may take a telegraphic, telex, facsimile, telephonic, email, written and/or postal vote of members of the National Executive or National Executive Committee at any time. Members of the National Executive or National Executive Committee shall be advised of the details of the voting. Such vote shall have the same effect as a decision of such body made in meetings assembled.

(v) Notice of meetings may be given by letter or telegram or telex or facsimile or email or otherwise in writing or by telephone or verbally, provided that in the latter two instances such is confirmed by letter or telegram or telex or facsimile or email.

15 - NATIONAL EXECUTIVE

(i) There shall be a National Executive composed of the National Executive Committee, as defined in these rules, and the principal officer of each Divisional Branch of the Union that is not otherwise a member of the National Executive Committee. Provided that any such Principal Officer of a Divisional Branch shall not be entitled to attend and/or vote at any meeting of the National Executive or vote on any issue before the National Executive if such Principal Officer is not entitled to attend and/or vote, in that capacity, the Divisional Executive of the Division to which the Divisional Branch is attached.

(ii) The National officers shall be elected, except in the case of any vacancy occurring or arising between general elections, by and from the National Collegiate in 1994 and every subsequent four (4) years thereafter and shall hold office until their successors are elected.

(iii) Following the Divisional Conferences in 1993 and the Divisional Conferences following the general elections every four years thereafter the National Executive shall appoint a person as Returning Officer, who shall not be the holder of any office in, and shall not be an employee of, the Union or of any Division, Branch, Divisional Branch or any section of the Union. Such Returning Officer shall have the conduct of the election of the National Officers in accordance with these Rules.

(iv) The National Executive shall, unless its actions are overturned by the National Conference, have the care, control, superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business, national funds and property of the Union and shall have and may exercise no more and no less than all of the powers of the National Conference and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing may:

(a) Interpret and enforce the general policy of the union as decided by National Conference.

(b) Control and conduct the business and affairs of the union while National Conference is not in session.

(c) Appoint the editor of any national union journal and manage and control the policy of such journal.

(d) Hear and decide any appeal from any Division or Branch. Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

(e) Settle disputes between Divisions or Branches. Any Division or Branch concerned shall be given reasonable notice of the meeting and an opportunity of being heard before any settlement is effected.

(f) Expend such moneys by way of ordinary expenditure as may be necessary.

(g) Submit any matter to the members for decision by ballot.

(h) Ensure that officers, committee members, delegates or members and Divisions and Branches carry out the rules and decisions of the Union and subject to Rule 19 impose penalties [i.e. fines not exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars], suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office, upon any officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules or the decisions of the National Conference or the National Executive.

Provided that the rules, the decisions of National Conference or the National Executive are available to members in the minutes of the National Conference or the National Executive and the registered rules of the Union at each Branch office. No penalty shall be imposed unless -

* The officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting seven (7) days prior to the meeting;

* Particulars are given in the summons of the offence alleged, including the time and place it was alleged the offence was committed;

* The member is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in the member's own defence, including an opportunity to cross-examine and to give and call evidence.

Period of suspension imposed under these rules shall not exceed six months.

(j) Subject to rules relating to the autonomy of divisions, take such action as may be necessary to secure the satisfactory working of any Division or Branch or Divisional Branch in the event of the affairs of that Division, Branch or Divisional Branch being so conducted as to affect the proper functioning of the Union, as a registered organisation, or as to make the Union liable for a breach or breaches of the Industrial Relations Act. Subject to Rule 19 herein, such action may include the suspension or dismissal of all or any members holding positions in, or for, a Division or Branch and the appointment of a member of the National Executive or any other member or members of the Union to conduct the affairs of the such Division, Branch or Divisional Branch.

(k) Control and supervise the work of the National Officers of the union.

(l) All decisions of the National Executive shall be made by a majority of the votes cast at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules. The votes cast by members of the National Executive shall be on a card system and the value of the vote cast by any member of the National Executive, including National Officers, shall be determined in the same way, the necessary changes being made as the value of a vote cast by delegates to the National Conference with National Officers being included in the Division from which they derive. Provided that in the calculation of votes cast by members of the National Executive herein, no member of the National Executive who is not entitled to attend and/or vote at the National Executive meeting shall be included as a member for the purposes of the aforesaid calculations.

(m) A loan, grant or donation of an amount exceeding $1,000 shall not be made by this Union unless the National Executive -

(a) has satisfied itself -

* that the making of the loan, grant or donation would be in accordance with the other rules of the Union; and

* in relation to a loan - that, in the circumstances, the security proposed to be given for the repayment of the loan is adequate and the proposed arrangements for the repayment of the loan are satisfactory; and

(b) has approved the making of the loan, grant or donation.

(n) Subject to Rule 25, make, alter and rescind any of the rules of the Union, including Branch Rules, Divisional Rules and Divisional Branch Rules;

(o) Affiliate to any body on behalf of the Union, or, if any Division objects to any affiliation to affiliate on behalf of those Divisions which do not so object;

(p) appoint representatives of the Union to any body;

(q) to affiliate to the Australian Council of Trade Unions and appoint representatives thereto on the basis of proportional representation of each Division.

(r) confer life membership on a member of the Union.

(v) All acts and decisions of the National Executive shall have full force and effect and full validity unless and until such acts or decisions are reversed or amended by the National Executive or the National Conference.

16 - ELECTION OF NATIONAL OFFICERS

(i) The National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary and National President shall be elected by and from the National Collegiate, namely the delegates to all of the Divisional Conferences of the Union and the ballot for such positions shall be a secret postal ballot of delegates to all Divisional Conferences conducted, the necessary changes being made, in accordance with Rule 17 of these rules.

Provided that, for Divisions with more than one Divisional Branch, each Division shall be represented by at least one Officer.

Further provided that, for Division with more than one Divisional Branch, each Division shall hold at least one position of Joint Vice President as follows:

* Joint Vice President (Construction and General Division)
* Joint Vice President (FFPD Division)
* Joint Vice President (Mining & Energy Division)

Further provided that, each Division, prior to the calling for nominations, shall decide its nominees for the above positions by resolution from that Division's National Conference.

Further provided that there shall be a Principal Officer of the FFPD Division representing the former FFTS Division who shall be a National Senior Vice-President. Such officer shall be and remain a member of the National Executive and the National Executive Committee.

Further provided that the Construction & General Division Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers) shall be a National Senior Vice-President and shall be and remain a member of the National Executive and National Executive Committee.

Further provided that the Construction & General Division Senior Vice-President (former National Secretary of the OPDU) shall be a National Senior Vice-President and shall be and remain a member of the National Executive and National Executive Committee.

All full-time officers of each Division, not otherwise elected to any of the foregoing positions, shall be and remain members of the National Executive Committee.

(ii) If the nominations are equal to the number of positions to be filled the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare candidates elected. An officer shall not hold more than one position on the National Executive or National Executive Committee.

(iii) If there are more candidates than the number required for filling the office/s the Returning Officer shall prepare voting papers and conduct the ballot.

(iv) The Returning Officer shall declare the result of the ballot as soon as the count is completed. In the event of a tie, the Returning Officer shall determine the result by declaring a candidate who currently holds the office being contested being elected, should no candidate currently hold the office the Returning Officer shall declare the result by casting lots.

(v) Except in so far as any Act from time to time provides otherwise, whenever any member has been declared elected to any office the member declared to be elected to such office, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity which may have occurred in or in connection with the calling for and dealing with nominations or the conduct of a ballot shall be recognised as validly holding such office.

(vi) A National Executive member and National Executive Committee member and National Officer shall hold office until a successor to such person is elected.

(vii) (a) Where a vacancy occurs in any office under these rules for any reason whatsoever including but not limited to the death, resignation, retirement or dismissal of any officer, such vacancy may be filled by appointment by the Divisional Executive to which the office or officer relates provided that the person so appointed shall hold office for as much of the unexpired part of the term of the office as does not exceed the greater of twelve months or three quarters of the term of the office.

(b) Where the unexpired part of the term of office exceeds that specified in this sub-rule, the Returning Officer shall conduct an election of delegates to all Divisional Conferences to fill the vacancy and the person elected shall hold office for the remainder of the term of office.

(c) Such election shall, the necessary changes being made, be in accordance with Rule 17 (iii) hereof.

(viii) The Returning Officer in any election shall declare the result to members of the National Executive and may do so by post, letter, telegram, telephone, telex, facsimile and/or verbally as soon as the count is completed.

(ix) Provision to be made for the representatives of Divisions to cast votes proportionate to the membership of the respective Division in any ballot for the election of National Officers.

17 - ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO DIVISIONAL CONFERENCES

(i) The method of electing Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall be in accordance with the Rules of the Division every four (4) years in conjunction with the Divisional Branch elections. Such election shall be by direct ballot of the financial members of each Divisional Branch.

(ii) When an election is required to be conducted by these rules the Divisional Branch Executive shall appoint a Divisional Branch Returning Officer who shall not be the holder of an office in and shall not be an employee of, the Union or of any Division, Branch, Divisional Branch or sub-Branch or section of the Union.

(iii) Except in the case of the Mining & Energy Division elections for Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference shall be in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) The method of electing Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall be by secret postal ballot of the whole Divisional Branch financial members entitled to vote in such elections, which shall be held every four (4) years in conjunction with the Divisional Branch elections.

(b) When an election is required to be conducted by these rules the Divisional Branch Executive shall appoint a Divisional Branch Returning Officer who shall not be the holder of an office in and shall not be an employee of, the Union or of any Division, Branch, Divisional Branch or sub-Branch or section of the Union.

(c) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall have the conduct of such elections in accordance with these rules. Where practicable such election to be conducted in conjunction with Divisional Branch election of Officers.

(d) A Divisional Branch Returning Officer may, at any time in writing, resign his or her position and shall resign if they desire to become a candidate at any elections held under the rules of the Union.

Any casual vacancy of a Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall be filled by the Divisional Branch Executive.

(e) Nominations for the position of Divisional Branch delegates of the Divisional Conference shall be called for by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer by notification in the union journal or in one daily newspaper circulating in the capital city in each Branch on or before the last day of August of every fourth (4th) year commencing as on and from the last day of August 1996.

Provided that such advertisement shall clearly indicate that the Divisional Executive and full time Divisional Officers are elected by and from members of the Divisional Conference, that the members of the Divisional Executive make up the National Conference and that National Officers are made up of the principal officers of each Division.

(f) Any member of the Divisional Branch who is financial at the time nominations are called and has had not less than three years financial membership of the Union may nominate for the position of Divisional Branch delegate to Divisional Conference.

For the purpose of this rule and for the purpose of all provisions of the rules of the union relating to financial membership and the length of financial membership or length of membership, membership of an organization amalgamating with the union or which has amalgamated with the union shall be counted for all purposes as membership of the union and financial membership of this union or a union amalgamating with this union for all purposes. This provision relates to all rules of the Union relating to the membership, or length of financial membership, or length of continuous membership in the Union or in any Division thereof.

(g) Any member desiring to nominate for the position of Divisional Branch delegate to Divisional Conference shall apply either personally or in writing to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer for a nomination form. Such forms shall be signed by the candidate and by two financial members and forwarded by certified mail to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer or handed personally at the Divisional Branch office or, in the case of an election conducted by the Australian Electoral Commission, at the office nominated by it, and a receipt thereupon obtained.

Nominations shall be closed at 4pm on the last Friday of September 1996 or such other date as may be provided for in any Divisional Rules, and each four (4) years thereafter following that date. Nominations must be received by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer by that time on that date to be eligible.

A member having nominated for any office in accordance with this Rule may withdraw the nomination by notifying the Returning Officer in writing of an intention to do so at any time up to seven (7) days after the closing of nominations. The Returning Officer on receipt of a notification from a member wishing to withdraw a nomination shall immediately take the appropriate steps to withdraw the member's name from the ballot papers prior to their distribution.

(h) Candidates may include with their nomination form a statement or joint statement not exceeding 200 words containing only the candidate's personal history and only the candidate's policy statement or joint statement.

(i) Officers of all Divisional Branches holding such office at the date of amalgamation shall remain in office until the general election of officers held in 1996 and shall be eligible to nominate in that election. In this paragraph officers of all Divisional Branches shall mean officers of branches of the amalgamating unions being the persons listed in the schedule hereto.

(j) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall examine all nominations to ensure that they are in order and if any nominations are found to be defective the Divisional Branch Returning Officer, before rejecting the nomination, shall notify the person concerned of the defect and where practicable to do so give them the opportunity of remedying the defect within a period of not less than seven (7) days after being so notified.

(k) If at the closing date for nominations only sufficient nominations have been received by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer to fill any vacancy or vacancies the Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall thereupon declare the person or persons so nominating elected and supply forthwith a report of the declaration of the ballot to the Divisional Conference and candidates by submitting a Divisional Branch Returning Officers report to the National, Divisional, Divisional Branch, and Branch Secretaries.

(l) If all nominations are received and there are more nominations than there are vacancies the Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall conduct a draw for positions on the ballot paper and shall notify candidates of the time and place of the draw in sufficient time for a candidate or their nominee to attend the draw; such attendance shall be at the candidate's own cost and expense.

(m) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall forthwith have printed ballot papers in sufficient quantities to enable them to supply a ballot paper for each member eligible to vote in the election and secure a certificate from the printer as to the number printed.

(n) Such ballot papers shall have printed thereon only the title of the office to be filled, method of voting and the name of the candidates for such office and a space for the required vote to be registered, provided however that where more than one candidate is required to be elected the number to be elected shall be printed on the ballot paper. The position of the names of each candidate on the ballot paper shall be in order of the draw of positions for that ballot.

(o) Where a ballot is required, the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch concerned shall provide, within thirty five (35) days of the closing of nominations, a certified list of financial members entitled to vote to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer.

(p) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall on a date which will enable the ballot paper to be posted not later than fourteen (14) clear days before the closing date of the ballot, send by either certified mail or prepaid ordinary mail to each member eligible to vote in the election an envelope addressed to such member at their address appearing on the list of members eligible to vote supplied to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer by each Divisional Branch Secretary, and that envelope shall contain only the following documents:

(a) a ballot paper initialled by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer in respect of each office to be filled at the election for which the member is eligible to vote;

(b) an empty unsealed pre-paid post envelope addressed to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer, c/- the numbered mail box referred to in this rule;

(c) such printed instructions necessary for the completion of each of the ballot papers enclosed in the said envelope and any other instructions that the Divisional Branch Returning Officer may consider necessary;

(d) The candidates statement provided for in accordance with sub-rule (iii) (h) hereof.

(q) For the purpose of the election the books of the Divisional Branches shall be deemed to have closed as at 30th September. Only members who are shown in the records at the office of the Divisional Branch as having paid all contributions, levies and fines as at the 30th September shall be entitled to vote. Provided that any member who at any time prior to the closing of the ballot satisfies the Divisional Branch Returning Officer that they have paid all contributions, levies and fines prior to the 30th September shall be entitled to receive a ballot paper.

(r) The opening date of the ballot shall be at the 2nd day of November and the closing date shall be noon on the 16th day of November in each year in which the ballot is held. All ballot papers shall be returned to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer, c/- the post office box named on the reply envelope. The post office box to which the ballot papers are returned shall be hired by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer prior to the dispatch of the ballot papers or if a box has been previously used by the union, the officer shall cause the lock to be changed.

(s) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall collect the returned ballot papers from the post office box and deposit them in a ballot box kept at the post office or at the office of the Australian Electoral Commission until the commencement of the count of the ballot.

(t) At the conclusion of the ballot the ballot box shall be picked up by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer at a time reasonable notice of which has been given to the Scrutineers and taken to the Divisional Branch rooms or to the office of the Australian Electoral Commission and be opened in the presence of the Scrutineers and counting shall then proceed. If it is necessary to interrupt the count for any purpose the papers shall be sealed in the ballot box to which any seals may be fixed by a Scrutineer.

(u) Any candidate at their own expense, may appoint a financial member of the union to act as their Scrutineer by notification in writing to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer. Any Scrutineers so appointed may be present at any stage of the counting of the ballot provided that the Divisional Branch Returning Officer is also present.

(v) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall proceed to count the ballot on the preferential system provided for in this rule, and the candidate or candidates receiving the necessary quota shall be declared elected. The counting of the ballot shall commence no later than on the first working day after the closing of the ballot and shall be completed as soon as is practicable.

(w) In the case of an equality of votes for any two or more candidates the Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall determine which of the candidates is elected, by declaring the candidate who currently holds the office being contested being elected, should no candidate hold the current office the Returning Officer shall declare the result by casting lots.

(x) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall declare the successful candidates elected and notify the National, Divisional and Divisional Branch Executive of the result of the ballot. The Divisional Branch Executive shall issue instructions for the publication of same in their minutes and in the journal or newspaper of the Divisional Branch. The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall also notify each successful candidate by post and publish their names in at least one daily newspaper circulating in the Branch area. The date of completion of the ballot shall be the date of the declaration thereof.

(y) The successful candidate/s shall become the Divisional Branch delegate to the Divisional Conference.

(z) Should a vacancy occur of a Divisional Branch delegate to Divisional Conference Rule 13 sub-rule (vi) shall apply.

(aa) Any accidental or unavoidable omission or error in the carrying out or observance of this rule shall not invalidate an election if such omission or error appears not to have affected the result of an election.

(bb) In any election the Divisional Branch Returning Officer and any Scrutineer shall do all things necessary to preserve the secrecy of the ballot and shall conduct themselves in a sober, proper and impartial manner. Scrutineers shall, as far as practicable, be given the opportunity to be present at all stages of the ballot. They shall obey any directions given to them by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer. If any Scrutineers or Scrutineer are not present at any stage or stages of the ballot the Divisional Branch Returning Officer may proceed nonetheless.

(cc) Definitions:

"Preferential Voting" shall mean a system of voting in which the voter shall place the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom the voter gives as their first preference, and shall place the number 2, 3, 4 (and so on as the case requires) in the squares opposite the names of all the remaining candidates so as to indicate the order of the preference for them. In a ballot by the preferential system the valid ballot papers shall be separated into separate parcels, each such parcel containing all those papers on which first preference is indicated for the same candidate. If on the first count a candidate receives an absolute majority of first preference votes of total valid votes cast they shall be declared elected.

If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the candidate with the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded and the ballot papers on which a first preference is indicated for such candidate shall be counted to the remaining candidates next in the voters' order of preference. If a candidate has then an absolute majority of votes they shall be elected, but if no candidate then has a majority of votes the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and the distribution of the voters' preferences shall continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes. In cases where more than one position is to be filled the numbers placed opposite the candidates' names up to the number of positions to be filled shall be first preference votes and the procedure in respect to the distribution of preference shall be the same as is above prescribed where a ballot is for a single position. The candidates or candidate, as the case may be, who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

(dd) Those elected shall take office from 2 January in the year following the election.

(ee) This election rule shall apply to all divisions (except Mining and Energy Division) from 1996 and 1996 shall be the first year of such general elections.

18 - DIVISIONAL EXECUTIVE ELECTION

(i) There shall be a Divisional Executive composed in accordance with Divisional Rules and elected in accordance with such Divisional Rules.

(ii) Every Divisional Executive shall be elected either:

(a) by and from the Divisional Conference; or

(b) by direct ballot of the financial members of the Division.

(iii) The Divisional Officers at a national level shall be members of that Divisional Executive.

(iv) The position of delegate to National Conference is to be held by the same person as is holding the position as Divisional Branch member of the Divisional Executive and the election to one position is to be an election to the other position, a removal from one position shall be a removal from the other and they are, for all purposes under these rules to be one and the same person and/or position.

19 - REMOVAL OF OFFICERS

Any Officer may be removed from office by majority decision of the National Executive, provided that such officer shall not be dismissed from office unless found guilty, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, of misappropriation of funds of the Union or a substantial breach of the Rules of the Union or gross misbehaviour or gross neglect of duty or has ceased according to the Rules of the Union to be eligible to hold office.

Any officer so removed from office shall have the right of appeal to the National Conference. In the event of the appeal being upheld the National Conference may order reinstatement to apply on such conditions as it considers the circumstances warrant.

In the event of the re-election of an Officer removed from office under this rule, such officer shall be reimbursed by a payment of monies that represent the difference between such salary the officer would have received had the officer not been removed from office and the amount of salary the officer received during the period the officer was removed from office.

20 - REFERENDA

1. On a decision of a majority of Divisions or Branches or Branches whose membership constitutes a majority of the members or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10 per cent of the financial members of the Union, the National Executive shall take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Union upon the matter or matters in the decision of the Divisions or Branches or in the petition. A decision reached by a majority of the actual votes recorded shall be binding on the Union and the members of the Union provided that the decision shall not affect the autonomy of any Division.

2. National Executive or National Conference may at any time of its own motion take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Union upon any matter it thinks fit.

3. The referendum referred to in this rule shall be conducted as follows:

   National Executive shall:

   Determine the question to be submitted to the members and the form of the ballot paper.

   Fix the times for the despatch and return of ballot papers and give the necessary instructions for printing of same.

   Appoint a National Returning Officer and National Scrutineer in conjunction with Divisional Branch Returning Officers to conduct the ballot.

   No material other than that authorised by the National Conference or National Executive shall be enclosed in the envelope in which the ballot paper is posted to the member.

   In all other respects the referendum shall be held as nearly as practicable in the manner provided for the holding of elections of Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference as set out in Rule 17 (iii) except that the roll of voters shall be the financial membership at the end of the calendar month immediately preceding the holding of the referendum.

21 - VACANCIES IN OFFICE

Where in accordance with the Rules of the Union, a National Officer ceases to hold office as the Divisional Officer entitled to hold a position as National Officer under Rule 16(i) hereof, such officer shall on and from the same time cease to hold office as a National Officer. Provided that the member who replaces such a person in the Divisional Officer's position shall also fill the vacancy created in the position of National Officer until such time as the National Officer's position can be filled in accordance with the rules governing casual vacancy.

22 - DUTIES OF OFFICERS

1. The following sets out the duties of the National Officers outlined herein. The National Secretary shall be a full time position. The wages and costs relating to the office of the full time officer shall be borne by the Union.

2. National President:

   The National President shall preside at meetings of National Conference, National Executive and meetings convened by National Conference or National Executive if it is possible to be present.

   The National President shall have a deliberative vote only.

   The National President shall perform all duties assigned to him/her by the National Conference or National Executive and shall be responsible with the National Secretary for the allocation of duties and responsibilities arising from decisions of the National Conference or the National Executive.

3. National Secretary:

   The National Secretary shall be responsible for the general correspondence of the Union, National finance, filing of documents, industrial returns and the carrying out of decisions made by National Conference or National Executive.

   The National Secretary shall have the power, subject to decisions of the National Executive and/or National Conference, to appoint, control and dismiss the clerical, industrial, research and accountancy staff of the National Office and allocate duties and responsibilities within the National Office.

   The National Secretary shall have prepared a properly audited financial statement of receipts and payments and all the funds and effects of the National Office, together with a statement of the assets and liabilities of the National Office for the year ending 31st December in each year.

   Such financial statement shall be presented to the National Executive for its approval and be published within the journal of the National Union.

   The National Secretary shall carry out such other functions as shall be determined from time to time by the National Conference or National Executive.

   The National Secretary shall be a member of each and every Divisional Executive and shall be for all purposes a full member of any Divisional Executive but shall not exercise a vote at any Divisional Executive of which such National Secretary is not, otherwise than under this Rule, a member.

4. National Assistant Secretary:

   National Assistant Secretary shall perform all duties assigned to him/her by National Conference and National Executive. He/She shall attend all meetings of National Conference and National Executive.

5. Senior Vice-President:

   The Senior Vice-President shall assist the National President in the conduct of meetings and shall preside in the absence of the National President, and shall carry out such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the National Conference or the National Executive.

6. Vice-President/s:

The Vice-Presidents shall assist the National President/s or Senior Vice-President/s in the conduct of meetings and, in the absence of both the abovementioned officers, shall act as President.

They shall carry out such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the National Conference or National Executive.

7. Members of National Executive and Delegates to National Conference:

Members of National Executive and delegates to National Conference shall attend meetings of those bodies when summoned so to do.

8. Within the National Executive Committee and, subject to the Rules relating to card voting on certain committees, for all internal Union purposes, the National Principal Officers shall have, as between each and all of them, the same status. Each may perform different functions and may have different responsibilities in accordance with these Rules and/or decisions of the National Executive/National Conference not inconsistent with these Rules.

23 - FUNDS AND PROPERTY

(i) Each Division shall pay to the National Office and/or National Conference of the Union, on a basis which is proportionate to the respective financial membership of each Division, an amount that is determined by the National Conference or National Executive to enable it to fulfil its functions.

Provided that each Division/Divisional Branch is responsible to meet all costs associated with the operation of its Division/Divisional Branch, including all costs associated with the attendance and participation by their representatives at meetings, including National Conference, National Executive Committee unless decided otherwise by the National Executive Committee.

(ii) A capitation fee or sustentation fee shall be paid by each Divisional Branch to the Division in accordance with Divisional rules.

(iii) Each Divisional Branch shall pay to the Branch of the Union for the geographic area covered by the Divisional Branch, a pro rata amount calculated on the basis of the proportion of financial members of the Branch in that Divisional Branch, an amount determined by the State Executive to enable it to fulfil its functions.

(iv) All moneys received by the National Office shall be paid to the credit of the Union on current account with a Bank or financial institution. No funds shall be drawn from the Bank or financial institution except by cheque signed by two persons who are a National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary, National President or two (2) National Executive members as nominated by National Executive resolution.

(v) All expenditure for ordinary purposes, namely, incurred in directly furthering the objects of the Union or in the expenses of management, may be disbursed by decision of the National Secretary and either the National President or National Assistant Secretary. Expenditure for other purposes authorised by the rules may be disbursed by a majority decision of the National Conference or National Executive.

(vi) The funds of the Union shall be under the control of the body which receives such funds pursuant to the Rules of the Union and such bodies shall deal with the funds on behalf of the Union. The funds and property of the Union shall be invested wherever possible in the name of the Union. Any moneys may have the name of the body controlling the funds added to the name of the Union. In the case of Divisions, money received by the Divisions shall be under the control of the body in that Division which, by the rules of that Division is given control and shall be invested in the name of the Union, subject to the last immediately preceding sentence hereof. Where it is not possible or convenient to hold property in the name of the Union the property shall be held in the name of trustees under the Rules of such bodies.

The funds of the Union may be invested in such securities as are permitted by the laws of any State of the Commonwealth for the investment of funds by trustees. Nothing in this sub-rule prevents the Union, a Division, a Branch or a Divisional Branch from entering into an agreement with a trade or industrial union or organisation of employees registered under any legislation of any State of the Commonwealth for the investment of funds on a joint basis or a basis on which the funds are held in common so long as the funds are treated, for all purposes, at least as funds of this Union or such of the funds as represent pro rata membership are so treated.

(vii) The funds or property of the Union, under the control of the National Office or Branch or Division or Divisional Branch in accordance with the rules of the Union, shall be under the control of the National Executive, or Branch or Division or Divisional Branch Committee of Management and/or Executive respectively.

24 - AUDITOR

The National Conference or National Executive shall appoint as auditor a competent person resident in the city in which the National Office is located who shall each year for the period ending 31 December audit the books and accounts of the Union and draw up a correct report on same.

The Auditor shall, in the report, draw attention of the National Executive to any deficiencies or other matters which the Auditor may think proper. The Auditor shall have full and complete access to all the books and documents of the Union.

For the purpose of this Rule a competent person shall have the same meaning as in the Industrial Relations Act and the Regulations made thereunder.

25 - ALTERATION OF RULES

(a) The rules of the Union, or any of them, may be altered, rescinded, varied or made by the National Conference and/or National Executive. Proposals for alterations of rules may be forwarded by Divisions, Branches or any member of the National Executive or delegate to the National Conference and shall be forwarded to members and/or delegates with the notice calling the National Conference or National Executive, as the case may be, or so soon thereafter as is practicable. Provided that National Conference or National Executive may, in session, alter rules of which previous notice has not been given.

(b) Alterations to rules may be made, at the discretion of the National Secretary, by postal, telegraphic, telephonic, facsimile, email, written and/or any other means of communication as a ballot of National Conference or National Executive. Such a rule change will have the same effect as a change made in a session of the National Conference or National Executive.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this rule, the rules of the union and/or any of them may be repealed, altered and added to by the National Executive Committee on its own initiative and without any reference to National Conference or National Executive for the purpose of bringing rules into compliance with the Industrial Relations Act (Commonwealth) or the regulations thereto or to facilitate, assist in or give effect to an amalgamation decided upon by National Executive or National Conference or to overcome objections taken to an application by the Union for an alteration to its rules, for amalgamation or for registration under the Industrial Relations Act.

(d) Provided that no rule change shall be effected without the approval of a Division, by either the National Conference, National Executive or National Executive Committee which affects the existence of that Division or interferes with its autonomy under these rules, including the internal structures of a Division.

26 - RULES BINDING ON MEMBERS, BRANCHES AND DIVISIONS

These National Rules and all the rules of the Union, and all alterations, additions or rescissions thereof or thereto, shall apply to and be binding on all Divisions, Branches, and Divisional Branches and all sections of the Union and on all members who now, or who may hereafter, belong to the Union until they are made or become null and void according to the law.

27 - DIVISIONS

(i) There shall be Divisions of the Union established, in accordance with the rules of the Union. Such Divisions shall be established on a basis of industry or occupation.

(ii) Each Division shall have autonomy to decide matters which do not directly affect the members of another division without any interference by any other body within the Union, including but not limited to:

(a) The industrial interests of its members.

(b) The election of officers within the Division.

(c) Matters arising from the Objects of the Division.

(d) Structure of the Division.

(iii) Each division shall have autonomy in relation to its funds and property.

(iv) Each Division shall have rules and have power to make, alter or rescind such rules, to be called Divisional Rules. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing paragraph, each Division shall have power to determine policy for that Division, not inconsistent with the rules and policy of the Union as decided by National Conference or National Executive.

(v) If there is any environmental matter that directly affects the employment of members of one Division only, then that Division whose members are so affected shall have the power to determine the policy of the Union on that matter.

(vi) Divisions shall, in accordance with their rules, have Branches along a geographic, occupational or area basis which branches of a Division will be called Divisional Branches and may have more than one divisional branch in a State or Territory divided on a geographic or occupational basis.

(vii) Any Division may, in accordance with their rules, allocate any Branch of the Union or any other Divisional Branch of any Division of the Union the responsibility for a Divisional Branch or part of a Divisional Branch where it is, in the opinion of the Division not appropriate or economic to establish and/or maintain a separate Divisional Branch in that area.

(viii) Where any Division allocates any of its Divisional Branches to a Divisional Branch of another Division, the latter Divisional branch shall pay capitation fees to and be represented by the first mentioned Division on the basis of the number of members so allocated.

28 - BRANCHES

(i) There shall be branches of the Union in the States of Queensland, New South Wales, Victoria, Tasmania, Western Australia, South Australia, and in the Australian Capital Territory, and in such other States or places as may be decided.

Such Branches shall have the function of co-ordinating Divisional Branches at a State or Territory level, dealing with matters affecting only that State and more than one Division and any other matter that Divisions or Divisional Branches agree should be dealt with by such Branch.

(ii) Branches may make alter or rescind By-laws, not inconsistent with the Rules of the Union.

(iii) A Branch shall be bound by

(a) the decisions of the National Conference,

(b) National Executive and,

(c) in relation to any matter affecting one Division only, a Divisional Executive;

and Branch Officers shall be bound by directions of the National Executive Committee.

(iv) Provided that in the case of a decision of one Division affecting in any way the operation of a Branch, the Branch may appeal to the National Executive.

29 - AGREEMENTS WITH STATE UNIONS

(i) The Union, any Branch thereof may make agreements under s.202 of the Industrial Relations Act with any State Union to the effect that members of the State Union shall be eligible for membership of this union.

(ii) The Union, any Division thereof, any Divisional Branch thereof, may take all and any step which, as a matter of practice or law, may overcome the separation of state unions from any section of this Union with the same or substantially the same members and may take all or any step, including amalgamation to effect one union in the industry or industries covered by this Union.

30 - AGREEMENTS

(a) Subject to these Rules, any agreement may be executed by a National Secretary and either a National President, the National Assistant Secretary or a National Vice-President.

(b) Any agreement which directly affects the employment or conditions of employment of members of only one Division shall be executed by that Division in accordance with its rules.

(c) Any agreement which directly affects the employment or conditions of employment of members of only one Divisional Branch may be executed by the Divisional Branch in accordance with its rules.

(d) Any agreement which directly affects the employment of members of only one Branch may be executed by the Branch in accordance with its rules.

31 - CLAIMS AND INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES AND PROCEEDINGS

(a) Claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests of the Union or any part thereof may be compiled, made, served and/or otherwise propagated by a National Secretary or National President or National Assistant Secretary or any person authorised by a National Secretary or National President or National Assistant Secretary so to do.

(b) A Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary or any person authorised by a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary may make, compile, serve and/or otherwise propagate a claim, logs of claim, demands and/or requests of the Union in so far as it affects members of the Division of which the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary is an officer. To avoid any doubt, such claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests may affect, directly or indirectly, members of another Division so long as they are persons who are eligible to be members of the Division from which the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary emanates.

(c) Any of the officers referred to in paragraph (a) or, subject to the limitations contained in paragraph (b) and the necessary changes being made, any of the officers referred to in paragraph (b), may submit, on behalf of the Union for conciliation or arbitration or both, or authorise the submission or institution on behalf of the Union, any claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests or any industrial dispute arising therefrom or any other industrial dispute howsoever arising on behalf of the Union or otherwise institute any proceedings whatsoever on behalf of the Union.

(d) This Rule has effect notwithstanding any other Rule of the Union or any Division thereof and no claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests, shall be invalidated, rendered void or otherwise treated as void or unauthorised if issued by a National President, National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary, Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary, or any person authorised by any such officers and shall be taken for all purposes and at all times to be claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests of the Union for all purposes. Provided that, the National Executive, National Conference or, in the case of a claim, logs of claim, demands and/or requests issued by a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary or on such officer's authorisation, the relevant Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive may rescind and/or withdraw such claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests and upon such decision of the National Conference, National Executive, Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive, as the case may be, the claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests shall be withdrawn and thereafter treated as if it were null and void.

(e) The National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary, National President, Divisional Secretary and/or Divisional Assistant Secretary shall have full power to transact all business and do or authorise all acts and things in connection with any dispute arising from any claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests, howsoever made and by whomsoever made and such officer may delegate such functions either generally or specifically.

(f) For the purpose of the above provisions, in the case of the Mining & Energy Division, any reference to Divisional Secretary shall be taken to be a reference to Divisional President or Divisional Secretary, any reference to Divisional Assistant Secretary be taken to be a reference to Divisional Senior Vice President and any reference to Divisional Executive be taken to be a reference to Central Council.

32 - REGISTERED OFFICE

The registered office of the Union shall be the Office of the National Secretary and shall be at 361 Kent Street, Sydney in the State of New South Wales, or such place as National Conference or National Executive shall decide.

33 - REGISTERED OFFICER

(i) Without limiting the powers conferred by any State or Commonwealth law, the union shall, while it remains corporate, sue and be sued by its corporate name and style.

(ii) The proper officer of the Union shall, for all purposes, be the National Secretary.

(iii) Nothing in this rule affects the operation of any other rule relating to the powers of a Division or Divisional Branch Secretary.

34 - DISSOLUTION

The Union shall not be dissolved unless all of the existing Divisions agree. Provided that a Division shall cease to exist wherever the number of financial members of that Division is reduced to less than one thousand (1,000) members.

Where a Division ceases to exist and the Union continues, the property of that defunct Division shall be vested in the Division to which the members of the defunct Division are allocated.

Where the Union is dissolved the property of the Union shall be vested in the trustees of each existing Division at the time of dissolution for the benefit of the members thereof on the basis that each such Division will continue to hold its own property and funds and any property or funds not vested at the time of dissolution in a Division shall be divided between the existing Divisions on a basis proportionate to the membership of each such Division.

35 - RECOVERY OF DUES

All claims for contributions, levies, fines, fees or liabilities of any kind due or payable to the Union by members may be sued for in the name of the Union by the National Secretary or by the Divisional Secretary, or Divisional Branch Secretary to which the member is attached, or by any other person or body authorised by the rules of the Union including the rules of any Divisional Branch or the Rules of any Division.

36 - LEVIES

(i) Levies may be imposed for the purpose of carrying out any of the objects of the Union and for assisting the members of this or any other Union or body having objects similar in whole or in part to those of this Union.

(ii) The amount of any levy shall be decided by a majority of the National Conference or National Executive and shall not exceed $50.00 and when so decided shall be binding on all members or sections of members as National Conference or National Executive may decide.

(iii) A Division or Divisional Branch may impose a levy on its members.

(iv) A levy may be of one specific sum, payable at one specific time, or may be for a weekly, fortnightly or monthly period, payable for a certain specific period.

All levies shall be added to contributions and shall be a first charge against all payments made by members of the Divisional Branch.

37 - VOTING OTHERWISE THAN AT MEETINGS ASSEMBLED

(a) If the National Secretary shall consider it advisable to submit any matter, including the imposition of a levy or the alteration or rescission of a rule, to a vote of National Conference or National Executive at any time when it is inconvenient to call National Executive or National Conference together, the National Secretary may submit a resolution dealing with the matter to the delegates or members, by letter, facsimile, telegram, telephone, email, in writing, by computer link and/or by any other means of communication.

(b) A copy of such resolution shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, be sent to each Branch Secretary and each Divisional Secretary. The votes on such resolution shall be returnable to the National Secretary at such time as the National Secretary shall fix. The result of such vote shall be binding and enforceable in the same manner as a decision arrived at in meetings assembled.

(c) Provided that where no record can be kept of the vote and/or decision, such a record shall be created and a copy of that record sent to each person entitled to vote or, in the case of computer linkages, the record is such that it can be viewed and/or copied by the person entitled to vote.

(d) No amendment shall be allowed on any such resolution, but if it is negative any delegate may request the National Secretary to submit in a like manner a further resolution bearing on the same matter. In the event of the National Secretary being requested to submit more than one such resolution, the order in which same shall be submitted shall be in the absolute discretion of the National Secretary.

(e) The National Secretary shall keep a register of names and addresses of members of the National Executive and delegates to National Conference from the names submitted by Divisional Branch Returning Officers, Divisional Returning Officers and the National Returning Officer and such register shall be conclusive evidence of the correct name and address of such members and/or delegates.

(f) Divisional Secretaries and Divisional Branch Secretaries (as the case may be) shall within fourteen (14) days of the election of delegates to National Conference and members of the National and/or National Executive Committee notify the National Secretary of their names and addresses.

38 - STANDING ORDERS

Motions - How Dealt With:

1. All motions shall be of an affirmative character and must be moved and seconded by delegates or members. Such motions become the property of Conference or Executive and can only be withdrawn by leave thereof. The discussion on any motion shall not exceed 60 minutes unless a majority of delegates or members present agree to an extension of time.

2. Unless a delegate or member rises to oppose a motion or propose an amendment thereto, the motion shall be immediately put to the meeting for decision.

3. A motion may be superseded at any time by another motion "that it be discharged from the agenda paper" or "that the next business be proceeded with" being resolved in the affirmative.

4. A motion may be amended at any time during the debate thereon always provided that the substance of the original motion be retained. If the amendment is carried it then takes the place of the motion.

5. Any number of amendments may be proposed and discussed with the motion. For the purpose of the debate the motion shall be the question before the chair. Amendments shall be put to the vote in the order in which they are received. If there is no further discussion, or if the motion "that the question be now put" is carried, the mover of the original motion may reply.

6. All motions shall be put to the meeting by the chairperson in a clear manner by asking for the "ayes" to vote first and then the "noes". The chairperson's decision as to which has the majority will be final unless a show of hands is called for. The chairperson shall then count the votes for and against the question.

   If the votes are equal the question is resolved in the negative.

7. A mover of a motion to be allowed 15 minutes to introduce and five minutes to reply. Other speakers 10 minutes unless a majority of the delegates or members present agree to an extension of time.

8. Right of Speaker: Any delegate desiring to speak shall rise and address the chairperson. If two or more delegates or members rise at the same time the chairperson shall call upon the one who, in the Chairperson's opinion, first rose. Provided that no delegates or members can speak more than once upon any question (which shall include the original motion and all amendments thereto) before Conference or Executive, except -

   (a) In reply as the mover of the original motion.
   (b) In explanation or correction of some matter during the debate.
   (c) Upon a point of order raised during the debate.
   (d) Upon a resolution being carried "that the delegate now be heard".

9. A delegate or member will not be held to have spoken who simply used the words "I second the motion" or "amendment", as the case may be; but for the purpose of debate shall be considered the second speaker in favour of the proposal seconded by that delegate or member.

10. No more than two delegates or members shall be allowed to speak for or against any question in succession. If at the conclusion of the second speaker's remarks no member rises to speak on the other side of the motion or amendment, it shall be put to the vote.

11. Any delegate or member speaking shall at once resume their seat -

   (a) If the chairperson rises to speak; or
   (b) If a point of order is raised.

   and shall not resume their speech until the point of order is decided.

12. No delegate or member may speak to any question after it has been put by the chairman or during the taking of the vote.

REPORTS

A report containing a recommendation may be discussed on a motion being moved for its adoption which, upon being carried, will signify the will of Conference or Executive thereon.

If the report contains any recommendation it shall be competent for a delegate or member to move a resolution arising out of and relative to the report to obtain the opinion of Conference or Executive on the matter.

ADJOURNMENT OF CONFERENCE OR DEBATE

A motion for the adjournment of Conference or Executive may be proposed at any time during the meeting thereof or for the adjournment of the debate, and shall be at once put to the meeting by the chairperson unless time is mentioned. An amendment to alter the time can be proposed upon a motion for adjournment only if time is mentioned as part of such motion and can apply thereto.

ADJOURNMENT OF STATED TIME

When a motion for the adjournment of a debate to any stated day or time has been carried, such motion shall not be abrogated unless with the consent of Conference.

CHAIRPERSON'S RULINGS

The chairperson's rulings on all points of order shall be final unless at the time a motion is carried that such ruling be disagreed with. When a motion to disagree with the ruling of the chairperson has been duly proposed and seconded, the chairperson shall leave the chair until the motion has been disposed of by Conference or Executive. The mover only shall speak to the motion and the chairperson may explain the reasons for the ruling given. The motion shall then be put to the meeting by the Vice-Chairperson.

SUSPENSION OF ORDER OF BUSINESS

It shall be competent by a majority vote of the delegates or members present for Conference or Executive to suspend the order of business.

SITTING AS A COMMITTEE

Conference or Executive may at any time, by a resolution agreed to by a majority of delegates or members present, resolve itself into a committee of the whole. The rules governing the business of Conference or Executive shall be observed when in Committee.

39 - ABSENTEE VOTING

If a member who is entitled to vote at any election held under these rules or any other rules of the union will be absent from their usual address during a ballot such member may apply to the Returning Officer for a ballot paper to be sent to them at an address which they nominate.

40 - MANNER OF SUMMONING MEETINGS

The National Executive, the State Executive, a Divisional Executive or a Divisional Branch Management/Executive Committee may, in their absolute discretion, summon meetings of members over which they have authority and/or responsibility from time to time.

If such meeting is called notice shall be given in a union journal circulating in the area covering the members to which the meeting relates or in a mass circulation daily newspaper circulating in the area in which the meeting is to be held and such publication shall be issued at least fourteen days before the date of the meeting. The notice of such meeting shall specify the day, the date, the time and the place of such meeting.

41 - SPECIAL RULE AND AMALGAMATIONS

For all the purposes of the Industrial Relations Act 1988, as amended, and, without limiting the generality thereof, for the purposes of amalgamation of this organization with other organizations, the National Executive shall, notwithstanding any other rule to the contrary, be the Management Committee and shall be authorised to take all steps to effect an amalgamation and alter any rules for that purpose.

A vote of the National Executive for the above or any other purpose may be taken by the National Secretary by telephone, facsimile, telex, post or other means of delivery of written text, or orally, or any combination thereof and such vote shall be an effective and binding decision of the National Executive.

The National Executive is empowered to delegate to any officer the task of implementing such amalgamation.

42 - TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

(i) Upon Amalgamation

On and from the date of amalgamation there shall be five (5) Divisions of the Union, being the Building Unions Division, the ATAIU Division, the UMW Division, the FEDFA Division and the FFTS Union Division. The Building Unions division shall be the former BWIU/Plasterers Division together with members and officers of the OPDU.

The Building Unions Division shall consist of those persons eligible and continuing to be eligible for membership of the union under Rule 2 (A) and (B), the ATAIU Division shall consist of those persons eligible and continuing to be eligible for membership of the Union under Rule 2 (C), the UMW Division shall be those persons eligible for membership and continuing to be eligible for membership of the union under Rule 2 (D) and the FEDFA Division shall be those persons eligible for membership and continuing to be eligible for membership of the Union under Rule 2 (E). The FFTS Union Division shall consist of all persons eligible and continuing to be eligible for membership of the Union under Rule 2(F) including all former members of the previously registered FFTS.

While the FFTS Union Division continues its separate existence, the demarcation between the FFTS Union Division and the other Divisions of the CFMEU shall be in accordance with the above demarcation on the basis of the status quo and custom and practice of coverage as it existed between the previously registered The Federated Furnishing Trade Society of Australasia and the CFMEU including therein demarcation disputes which have been determined by either State or Federal industrial authorities. Where any disagreement occurs between the FFTS Union Division and any other Division of the Union the matter shall be referred to the National Executive which shall determine the demarcation appropriate but such determination shall be based on the principles enunciated in this paragraph.

(ii) Upon amalgamation no person who was previously a member of either the CFMEU or OPDU or FFTS shall be liable for any entrance fee over and above the entrance fee already paid by such financial members.

(iii) After Amalgamation

Subject to any changes made by unanimous decision of the National Executive Committee, following amalgamation, there shall be a restructuring of the Divisions on the following basis:

(a) There shall be created a restructured Mining and Energy Division which shall consist of all members of the union eligible to be members under Rule 2 (D) and all members, including members eligible under Sub-Rules 2 (A), (B), (C) and (E) employed in the Mining, Exploration and Energy Industries and all members employed in the County of Yancowinna:

(b) There shall be created a Forestry and Forest, Building Products Manufacturing Division (herein after referred to as the Forestry Division) which shall consist of all members of the union eligible to be members under Rule 2 (C) and all members, including members eligible under Sub-rules 2 (A), (B) and (E) employed in the following sectors of the industry (or occupations within them):

Forest and forest products industry,

Pulp and paper industry,

Timber and building related manufacturing industry including joinery, wall frame/roof trusses, furniture, aluminium windows, glass window manufacturing and any other sectors of manufacturing activity as agreed to between the ATAIU and the Building Unions and FEDFA Divisions of the union.

This sub-rule up until April 3rd 2000 shall be read subject to the agreement entitled CFMEU Forestry Division and CFMEU Construction & General Division Translation Agreement dated September 2nd 1998.

(c) There will be a Construction and General Division which shall consist of all members of the union employed in or in connection with the Construction industry (including shopfitting) and all other members of the Union not referred to in sub-rules (iii) (a) (b) and (d) herein.

(d) Provided that the restructuring referred to above shall not affect the separate existence of the FFTS Union Division and untranslated FEDFA Divisional Branches for the time specified in this Transitional Rule.

(iv) The transfer of members from any Division to any other Division in accordance with the restructuring proposals in sub-rule (iii) herein, shall be on terms as agreed to by the Divisions concerned in the transfer and sub-rule (iii) shall be used as the basis of an agreement.

(v) In the event of further amalgamations other Divisions may be established.

(vii) deleted

(viii) deleted

(ix) deleted

(x) Upon restructuring in accordance with this rule and on the transfer of members from one Division to any other Division an agreed number of officers of the Division from which the members are from shall transfer with such members, such officers to be agreed between the respective Divisions prior to transfer.

(xi) In any restructuring of any Division within the union the principle to be applied shall be that any officer or officers who, by agreement, are transferred to a Division from another Division as representative of or in conjunction with members so transferred shall be allocated positions on the appropriate decision making bodies of the Division of which such transferred Officer becomes a member. The determination of a position or positions referred to in this sub-rule shall have regard to the classifications and number of members transferred to a Division and the structure of the decision making bodies of the Division established in accordance with these Rules.

(xii) (a) The restructuring referred to herein shall be effected by 1st April 1997. Except in the case of the FEDFA Victorian Branch which shall become the CFMEU, FEDFA Victorian Divisional Branch such restructuring may be effected at a time later than 23 September 1995 but shall be effected before 1 July 2001. Further provided that in relation to the FFTS Union Division it may have a separate existence for a period of up to eight years which period shall be shortened only with the agreement of the Divisional Executive of the FFTS Union Division and the eight (8) years shall commence on the date of effect of amalgamation of the FFTS and CFMEU. If no agreement has been reached by the dates set out herein then, notwithstanding any other rule of the Union, the National Executive shall determine the changes necessary to effect such restructuring, including any and all rule changes therefor. It is the current intention that the FFTS Union Division will be restructured after a maximum of eight (8) years substantially into Forestry, Forest and Building Manufacturing Products Division.

(b) The alteration to sub-rule 42(xii) (a) which replaced the date 23 September 1999 with the date 1 July 2001 shall be taken to have effect retrospectively from 22 September 1999.

(c) In respect of the period of time between 22 September 1999 and the time on the Industrial Registrar's certification of this sub-rule, no action of the Union and its officers in relation to the FEDFA Victorian Divisional Branch nor any action of any member or members elected (or appointed) to be officers of that Branch shall be taken to have been invalid by reason only of the fact that the restructuring referred to in Rule 42 in relation to that Branch has not been effected before 23 September 1999. Any such actions which might otherwise be invalid are by this sub-rule adopted and ratified by the Union.

(xiii) deleted

(xiv) In this rule the CFMEU shall, where the context permits, mean the new CFMEU being the amalgamated organisation the Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union and where not otherwise permitting shall mean the old CFMEU being the Construction Forestry and Mining Employees Union prior to amalgamation.

FEDFA where it is not referring to a division of the amalgamated organisation shall mean The Federated Engine Drivers' and Firemens' Association of Australasia.

OPPWF shall mean The Operative Plasterers' and Plaster Workers' Federation of Australia.

UMFA shall mean the formerly registered United Mineworkers' Federation of Australia.

ATAIU where not referring to a division shall mean the formerly registered Australian Timber and Allied Industries Union.

Qld shall mean Queensland.

BWIU where not referring to a division shall mean the formerly registered The Building Workers' Industrial Union of Australia.

NSW where appearing shall mean New South Wales.

WA where appearing shall mean Western Australian.

SA where appearing shall mean South Australian or South Australia as the context permits.

FFTS means, where it is not accompanied by the term "Union Division", The Federated Furnishing Trade Society of Australasia.

OPDU shall mean "The Operative Painters and Decorators Union of Australia".

BLF shall mean "The Australian Building Construction Employees and Builders Labourers' Federation".

(xv) (a) Where an amalgamation has occurred, on or after the amalgamation day, all assets and liabilities of the deregistered organisation or of an association with which a merger takes place shall cease to be assets and liabilities of that organisation or association and become assets and liabilities of this Union.

(b) For all purposes and in all proceedings, an asset or liability of a deregistered organisation or association existing immediately before the date upon which the amalgamation took effect is taken to have become an asset or liability of this Union on that day.

(c) All agreements existing at the respective dates of amalgamation and/or merger of all unions which have amalgamated to form the CFMEU shall be binding on the CFMEU on the basis that the CFMEU shall, to the extent possible, fulfil the obligations and obtain the benefits through the Division of the Union corresponding to the Union that entered the agreement, or, where there is no corresponding Division, corresponding to the Division into which the amalgamated union has merged. Any reference to any such agreement to any union which has or shall amalgamate and/or merge with this Union shall be taken to be a reference to this Union operating through the Division or Divisional Branch corresponding to the former union or into which the former union has merged. Any reference to any officer or body in the former union shall be taken to be a reference to the same officer or body in the Division corresponding to the former union or into which the former union has merged. Any reference herein to the term "agreement" shall include, and be deemed always to have included, any instrument as defined in the Industrial Relations Act, 1988.

(d) For the purposes of the above and in accordance with the scheme of amalgamation in relation to each past amalgamation, the following shall be the rights and obligations of the Divisions and shall be deemed always to have been the case:

* The United Mineworkers Federation of Australia shall be and be deemed always to have been a union that corresponds to the UMW Division and/or the Mining and Energy Division;

* The Australian Timber and Allied Industries Union (ATAIU) shall be and be deemed always to have been a union that corresponds to the ATAIU Division and/or Forestry Division;

* The Federated Engine Drivers and Firemen's Association of Australasia shall be and be deemed always to have been a union that corresponds to the FEDFA Division;

* The Operative Plasterers and Plaster Workers Federation of Australia shall be and be deemed to be a union which has merged into what is now called the Building Unions Division of the CFMEU and any reference to an officer of the OPPWF shall be and be deemed always to have been always a reference to the corresponding office in the Building Unions Division, i.e. Federal Secretary shall be read Divisional Secretary, Branch shall be read as Divisional Branch, Branch Secretary shall be read as Divisional Branch Secretary in each case of the Divisional Branch of the Building Unions Division relevant thereto, etc.;

* The Federated Furnishing Trades Society of Australasia shall be and be deemed always to have been a union which corresponds to the FFTS Division of the CFMEU;

* The Operative Painters and Decorators Union of Australia shall be and be deemed to be a union which has merged into the Division now called the Building Unions

Division of the CFMEU and any reference to the Operative Painters and Decorators Union of Australia shall be deemed to have been and be a reference to the CFMEU, Building Unions Division. Any reference to an officer or body of the OPDU shall be read as a reference to the office or body of the Building Unions Division of the CFMEU equivalent thereto, e.g. Federal Secretary shall be read as Divisional Secretary, Branch shall be read as Divisional Branch, Branch Secretary shall be read as Divisional Branch Secretary, Branch Assistant Secretary shall be read as Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary, etc.

* The Builders Labourers Federation shall be and be deemed to be a Union which has merged into the Division now called The Construction and General Division of the CFMEU and any reference to the Builders Labourers' Federation shall be deemed to have been and be a reference to the CFMEU, Construction and General Division.

(e) Where, after amalgamation there is more than one officer holding a position to which a reference is made in any instrument, as defined in the Industrial Relations Act 1988, the body or bodies within the Union to which the officer answers shall, unless the context of the instrument otherwise necessitates, decide which of the number of officers shall exercise the functions, rights and/or responsibilities referred to in the instrument. For example, where the reference is by virtue of the foregoing provisions to a Divisional Officer at the national level, the Divisional Executive shall decide which of the number of officers filling the positions shall exercise those functions, rights and/or responsibilities. Where the officer is, in accordance with the above, a Divisional Branch officer, the Divisional Branch Management Committee (or its equivalent) shall decide which of the number of officers shall exercise the functions, rights and/or responsibilities given to that officer in any such instrument.

(xvi) (i) Any reference in this Rule to BWIU/Plasterers Division or Building Unions Division shall, where the context permits, be taken to be a reference to the Construction and General Division;

(ii) Any reference in this Rule to ATAIU Division shall, where the context permits, be taken to be a reference to the Forestry Division;

(iii) Any reference in this Rule to UMW Division shall, where the context permits, be taken to be a reference to the Mining & Energy Division.

42A - Divisional Restructuring (FEDFA)

1. Notwithstanding any other Rule of the Union to the contrary, the process of restructuring may be completed in steps which steps may deal with one Division at a time, Divisional Branches within a Division and/or the Divisional Office of any particular Division.

2. In relation to the above, the FEDFA Division shall be restructured in steps which shall involve:

(a) The abolition of full-time Divisional Officers at a national level and the allocation of responsibility for the FEDFA Division between the Building Unions Division and the UMW Division;

(b) The allocation of full-time Divisional Officers of the FEDFA Division to the Building Unions Division and the UMW Division;

(c) The continued operation of the Divisional Branches of the FEDFA Division with the intent, over time, of the restructuring of said Divisional Branches in accordance with Rule 42, into the Building Unions/Construction and General Division, UMW/Mining & Energy Division and the ATAIU/Forestry Division;

(d) The payment of capitation fees by FEDFA Divisional Branches to a designated fund which shall be administered by the Divisional Secretary of the FEDFA Division or, if or when that Office is abolished by the former Divisional Secretary and the Divisional Secretaries of the Building Unions and/or Construction and General Division and the UMW and/or Mining and Energy Division.

(e) The continued meeting of the Division Executive of the FEDFA Division for so long as is necessary before the complete restructuring of the FEDFA Division is effected in accordance with Rule 42.

3. On and from 27 September 1993, in accordance with the above procedure, the current Divisional Secretary of the FEDFA Division shall be and become the Divisional President of the Building Unions Division and the current Divisional Assistant Secretary of the FEDFA Division shall be and become a Divisional General Vice-President of the UMW Division and upon translation in accordance with Rule 42 (iii), shall hold the corresponding offices in the Construction and General Division and the Mining & Energy Division respectively.

4. The current Divisional Secretary and Divisional Assistant Secretary of the FEDFA Division shall continue to hold those positions in the FEDFA Division on an honorary basis until such time as the FEDFA Division no longer meets on a national basis.

5. This Rule shall come into force after its adoption by the National Executive and agreement thereto by the FEDFA Divisional Executive, UMW Divisional Executive and Building Unions Divisional Executive and thereupon shall be registered with the Australian Industrial Registry and shall take effect upon registration, or 27 September 1993, whichever is the later.

6. Further to the above provisions, and notwithstanding any other rule of the Union to the contrary, during the process of restructuring, any Divisional Branch of the FEDFA Division may reach agreement with any or all of the UMW Division/Mining & Energy Division and/or the Building Unions Division/Construction and General Division and/or the Forestry Division or the relevant Divisional Branches thereof to transfer members and officers of the FEDFA Division to any and/or all of the other aforementioned Divisions. Such agreement shall be reached with the approval of the Management Committee or its equivalent in each Divisional Branch and the officers concerned. Any such Divisional Branch may reach agreement on some or all of the matters relating to such transfer and, failing agreement on any or all of such matters, refer the matters by agreement to the National Executive for decision. Until such time as there no longer exists an FEDFA Division in accordance with the Rules of the Union, all such officers transferred shall, notwithstanding the holding of positions in other Divisions, continue to hold the office or position in the FEDFA Division on an honorary basis and shall, to the extent that the Rules require same, continue to perform the functions associated with that office in relation to the FEDFA Division. All agreements in relation to the transfer of members and officers shall be notified to the National Executive Committee and attached to the Minutes thereof. Such agreements shall have force and effect in accordance with the terms thereof and from the date of effect of that agreement as specified in that agreement, or failing any specification thereof, on the date of the agreement.

7. The following table shows the restructuring of the FEDFA Division, merging with the appropriate Union Division to create Industry Divsions:

(i) On and from 31 March 1994 the Australian Building Construction Employees and Builders Labourers Federation and, to the extent legally possible, the Australian Builders' Labourers' Federated Union of Workers - Western Australian Branch, the Australian Building and Construction Workers' Federation, the Australian Building, Construction Employees and Builders' Labourers' Federation (Queensland Branch) Union of Employees shall merge with and/or amalgamate with and/or into the CFMEU and become an integral, inseparable and inseverable part of the CFMEU and the Building Unions Division thereof.

(ii) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger in paragraph (i) herein, all assets and liabilities of the Australian Building Construction Employees and Builders' Labourers' Federation (the BLF) shall merge with the assets and liabilities of the CFMEU to be held and controlled in accordance with the rules of the CFMEU, by the Building Unions Division and/or Divisional Branches created by the Rules of the Union and shall be treated as if such assets and liabilities were, at all times, the assets and liabilities of the CFMEU. Such funds shall to the extent that prior to 31 March 1994 they were funds under the control of a BLF Branch, except in the case of the BLF Victorian Branch, be and become funds under the control of the respective Construction Labourers' Divisional Branch established consequent upon these Rules and, otherwise held by the Building Unions Division as Divisional Funds.

(iii) For all purposes and in all proceedings, an asset or liability of the BLF existing immediately before the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger is taken to have become and to have become and to have been at all times an asset or liability of the CFMEU on and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger. Provided that any liability of BLF Federal Fund to any Branch Fund or vice versa shall continue to be a liability of the Division or Divisional Branch Funds respectively.

(iv) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger an instrument in which the BLF is mentioned (other than the Builders' Labourers' Federation Cancellation of Registration Act, 1986 and the Builders' Labourers' Federation (Cancellation of Registration - Consequential Provisions) Act, 1986) continues in full force and effect. The instrument has effect, in relation to acts, omissions, transactions and matters done, entered into or occurring on or after the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger as if a reference in the instrument to the BLF were a reference to the amalgamated organisation. Provided that any instrument which is inconsistent with the Rules of the CFMEU shall have no force and effect except in so far as it prejudices the rights of a bona fide purchaser for value without notice.

(v) All officers of the CFMEU and BLF shall take all such steps as are necessary and/or desirable to ensure that the amalgamation and/or merger is fully effective including that holding of all necessary meetings, the passage of all necessary resolutions, the making of all necessary applications and the execution of all necessary documents to give effect to this agreement.

(vi) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger any and all members of the remaining branches of the BLF, if not already members of the CFMEU, shall be and become members of the CFMEU and be treated in the CFMEU as if all of the period of their membership in the BLF was membership in the CFMEU (except as otherwise provided for in the specific rules dealing with the merger in the rules of the Building Unions Division).

(vii) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger there shall be a National Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers) with the same status and standing as any other Senior Vice-President and whomsoever occupies the position of Divisional Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers) shall be the National Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers).

42C - AMALGAMATION WITH FBTPU

(i) On and from the date of amalgamation with the Federated Brick Tile and Pottery Industrial Union of Australia ("the FBTPU"), and notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 13(ii) herein, the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall be entitled to two delegates to National Conference, one of whom shall be the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary and the other shall be the Industry Divisional Branch President.

(ii) On and from the date of amalgamation with the FBTPU, the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary of the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall, ex officio, be a member of the National Executive of the CFMEU.

(iii) Delegates to the National Conference and National Executive of the Union from the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall, for the purposes of determining the vote which they are entitled to exercise on those bodies in accordance with Rule 13(iii) herein, be taken to have derived from the Construction and General Division and shall be counted as members of the Divisional Executive of that Division.

(iv) On and from the date of amalgamation, the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall be entitled to two delegates to the Divisional Conference of the Construction and General Division, one of whom shall be the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary and the other shall be the Industry Divisional Branch President (Honorary) of the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch.

(v) On and from the date of amalgamation, the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary of the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall, ex officio, be a member of the Divisional Executive of the Construction and General Division of the CFMEU.

(vi) The provisions of this rule shall not be altered or amended by the National Conference or National Executive or the Construction and General Division, Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive, whilst ever the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch exists, without the consent of the Management Committee of the Industry Divisional Branch.

42D - DIVISIONAL RESTRUCTURING (FFTS)

1. Notwithstanding any other Rule of the Union to the contrary, the process of restructuring may be completed in steps, such steps may deal with one Division at a time and/or Divisional Branches within a restructured Division at a time.

2. In relation to the above, the FFTS Division shall on and from the 11th February 2002, be restructured in the first instance into the Forestry Division to form "The Forestry, Furnishing, Building Products and Manufacturing Division" (FFPD) which shall result in:

   (a) The abolition of full-time FFTS Divisional Officers at a national level and the allocation of responsibility for the FFTS Division to the restructured Division.

   (b) The allocation of Divisional/Branch Office Holders of the FFTS Division to the Office Holders positions of the restructured Division.

   (c) The continued operation of the Victorian and Queensland Divisional Branches of the FFTS Division within the restructured Division of up to four years beyond the expiration of the eight years referred to in sub-rule 42(xii). This sub-rule shall not otherwise affect the operation of sub-rule 42(xii). For the avoidance of doubt, the four years referred to in this sub-rule shall expire on 26 March 2005.

3. Further to the above provisions and notwithstanding any other rule of the Union to the contrary, the FFTS Victorian Branch shall unless otherwise agreed by the FFTS Victorian Branch Management Committee maintain its current structure and existence within the restructured Division up until 26 March 2005.

4. Prior to the 26 March 2005, the FFPD (which shall include representatives of the former FFTS Division) and the Construction & General Division (which shall include representatives from the National Office and all interested Branches) will meet under the chairpersonship of the National Secretary of the CFMEU to reach agreement to finalise translation/integration provisions intended by the respective Schemes of Amalgamation and the Rules of the Union in respect to the Forestry, FFTS and C&G Divisions.

5. Should agreement not be reached between the Divisions the matter shall be referred to the CFMEU National Executive to determine in accordance with the Schemes of Amalgamation and Rules of the Union.

6. Until the elections scheduled to be held in August 2004 the FFPD shall be constituted and represented as follows:-

7. This rule shall come into force on and from 11 February 2002 in accordance with the unanimous decision of the National Executive and shall be registered with the Australian Industrial Registry.

BRANCH RULES

43 - NAME

The name of the branch shall be the "Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union, X Branch" where X is the State or Territory for which the Branch has been established.

44 - MEMBERSHIP AND CONSTITUTION

All members of all Divisional Branches within the State or Territory shall be members of the Branch with the same status of membership as is held in the Divisional Branch.

45 - SEAL

The seal of the Branch shall be oval in shape, inscribed on the outer edge "Construction Forestry, Mining and Energy Union" and the name of the Branch on the inside.

46 - STATE CONFERENCE

(i) The supreme governing body of the Branch shall, subject to the autonomy of the Divisional Branches, be the State Conference convened every two (2) years and especially in accordance with these Rules.

The State Conference shall meet no later than 30 December in the year following the elections in the Divisional Branches, being the general election and at least every two (2) years thereafter.

(ii) The State Conference shall consist of all of the members of each and every Divisional Branch Management Committee for every Divisional Branch of the Union within the State or Territory covered by the Branch.

(iii) Persons elected as members of a Divisional Branch Management Committee shall be elected in accordance with the Rules of the Union applicable to the particular Divisional Branch.

Nothing in this sub-rule shall interfere with the transitional provisions which shall take effect on and from amalgamation.

Each member of a Divisional Branch Management Committee shall exercise a vote on the State Conference equal to the percentage of financial members of the Union in the Divisional Branch from which the member derives divided by the number of members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee entitled to vote.

Provided that nothing in this sub-rule shall prevent proxy voting or multiple voting.

(iv) The method of calculation of financial members of any Divisional Branch shall be in accordance with Rule 13 of the National Rules of the Union, the necessary changes, if any, being made.

(v) Members of the Divisional Branch Management Committees or State Conference shall remain in office until the election of their successors.

(vi) Divisional Branches may, where elected Divisional Branch Delegates to State Conference agree, arrange multiple voting representation at a State Conference by notifying the State Conference of the number of Divisional Branch Delegates to be credentialed and the arrangements for proxy voting to be adopted by that Divisional Branch at the State Conference.

(vii) Where a delegate is unable to attend a meeting of the State Conference or any part thereof, that delegate may where the Divisional Branch Executive agrees appoint another elected delegate to State Conference from the same Divisional Branch as proxy to act in that delegate's stead.

Where the Divisional Branch Management Committee agrees, a delegate may appoint as the proxy to State Conference an elected delegate from another Divisional Branch within the State or Territory covered by the Branch. Each member of the Divisional Branch Management Committee shall be a delegate to the State Conference.

(viii) A majority of delegates to State Conference, representing not less than two Divisions, shall form a quorum of the State Conference.

(ix) (a) The State Conference shall have power, unless any rule deprives the State Conference of power or grants to another body within the area covered by the Branch exclusive power over a subject matter, to do all things necessary and/or desirable for the furtherance of the objects of Union, to co-ordinate Divisional Branches within the branch area and for the care, control and management of the Branch.

(b) The function of the State Conference shall be to coordinate the Divisional Branches in the area concerned and shall have the powers, subject to these Rules, necessary for that purpose and shall, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(A) perform such functions referred to it by the Divisional Branches.

(B) affiliate to any body for and on behalf of any Divisional Branch, or with the agreement of each Divisional Branch for and behalf of the Branch as a whole;

(C) Supervise the funds, if any, paid to the Branch office by Divisional Branches;

(D) Subject to the review of its actions by Divisional Executives and National Executive, settle disputes between Divisional Branches.

(c) Provided that the State Conference shall not have power over any matter which concerns the members of one Divisional Branch only unless that Divisional Branch consents thereto.

(x) Meetings of the State Conference and State Executive shall be held at such time and place as shall be decided by at least one State President and one State Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the State Executive may demand a meeting of such State Executive or State Conference which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members in such demand. The quorum for any meeting shall be three (3) a majority of the State Officers may demand a meeting of the State Executive which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such State Officers.

47 - STATE EXECUTIVE

(i) There shall be a State Executive composed of the full time elected officers, (other than organisers except where otherwise provided for in these rules), of each Divisional Branch within the Branch area, one of whom shall be the State President, another of whom shall be a State Senior Vice President, another of whom shall be the State Secretary and another of whom shall be State Assistant Secretary, provided that where a Division has more than one Divisional Branch in an area, the Division will determine its representation. The President of each Divisional Branch shall, if not otherwise a member of the State Executive, be such a member.

(ii) The State Executive shall have and exercise all of the powers of the State Conference, subject to the review thereof by the State Conference, but shall have no more powers than State Conference.

Any decision of the State Executive may be overturned by the State Conference and all decisions of the State Conference shall be binding on the State Executive.

(iii) The State Secretary may take a telegraphic, telex, facsimile, telephonic, written and/or postal vote of members of the State Executive or State Conference at any time.

Members of the State Executive or State Conference shall be advised of the details of the voting. Such votes shall have the same effect as a decision of such body made in meetings assembled.

(iv) The State Executive shall be held at such time and place as shall be decided by the State Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the State Executive may demand a meeting of such State Executive or State Conference which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members of the State Executive. The quorum for any meeting shall be a majority of the members entitled to vote thereat.

There shall be a State Executive meeting held before the meeting of State Conference in the year following the general elections of the Union.

(v) All decisions of the State Executive shall be made by a majority of votes cast at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules. The votes cast by members of the State Executive shall be on a card system and the value of the vote cast by any member of the State Executive, including State Officers, shall be determined in the same way, the necessary changes being made as the value of a vote cast by delegates to the State Conference with State Officers being included in the Division from which they derive.

48 - ELECTION OF STATE OFFICERS

(i) The State Officers, being the State Secretary, the State Assistant Secretary, the State President and the State Senior Vice-President shall be elected by and from the State Conference. The election shall be held, the necessary changes being made, in the same way as Divisional Officers are elected from the Divisional Conference under Rule 9 of the Construction & General Division Rules, provided that each Division shall be represented by at least one State Officer.

Provided that for the A.C.T. Branch (while that Branch has only one Divisional Branch) Officers elected to the Construction & General Division A.C.T. Branch, shall hold the equivalent position within the A.C.T. State Branch.

Further provided that, each Division shall hold at least one position of Joint Vice-President.

Further provided that, each Division, prior to the calling for nominations, shall decide its nominees for the above positions, by resolution from that Division's Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(ii) Where, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, an officer of a Divisional Branch within a Branch area ceases to hold office as an officer of the Divisional Branch such officer shall at the same time cease to hold office as a State officer in accordance with this rule. Provided that the member who replaces such a Divisional Branch officer in the office in the Divisional Branch shall also fill the vacancy created in the position of State officer only until such time as the State officer's position can be filled in accordance with the rules governing casual vacancy, or, if the vacancy occurs within 12 months of an ordinary election, by the ordinary election.

(iii) The term of office of officers of a Branch of the union shall be four (4) years.

49 - FUNDS OF THE BRANCH

(i) Each Divisional Branch in the area covered by the Branch of the Union shall pay to the Branch on a basis which is proportionate to the respective financial membership of each Divisional Branch, an amount that is determined by the State Executive as sufficient to enable it to fulfil its functions.

(ii) All moneys received by the Branch shall be paid to the credit of the Branch on current account with a bank. No funds shall be drawn from the Bank except by cheques signed by two (2) persons who are the State Secretary, State Assistant Secretary or State President and not from the same Divisional Branch.

(iii) All expenditure for ordinary purposes, namely incurred in directly furthering the objects of the Branch or in the expenses of management, may be dispersed by decision of the State Secretary and either the State President or State Assistant Secretary, provided that both signatories shall not be officers from the one Division.

Expenditure for other purposes authorised by the Rules may be disbursed by a majority decision of the State Conference or the State Executive.

(iv) The funds of the Branch shall be invested where possible in the name of the Branch. Where it is not possible to invest money or funds in such name, the investment shall be made in the name of Trustees under these Rules.

Nothing in this Rule prevents the Branch from entering into an agreement with a Trade or Industrial Union or organisation of employees registered under any legislation of any State of the Commonwealth for the investment of funds on a joint basis or on a basis on which the funds are held in common or jointly so long as the funds are treated, for all purposes, insofar as they relate to members of the Branch, as funds of the Branch.

(v) The property of the Branch, vested in the Branch in accordance with these rules and the other rules of the Union, shall be under the control of the State Executive.

(vi) In Western Australia no decision of the WA Branch shall adversely affect the Building Unions Division WA Plasterers Divisional Branch in relation to funds or any other matter without the consent of that Divisional Branch.

50 - AUDIT

The State Executive shall appoint as Auditor a competent person resident in the city in which the State Office is located who shall each year for the period ending 31 December audit the books and accounts of the Branch and draw up a correct report on same.

The Auditor shall, in the aforesaid report, draw attention of the State Executive to any deficiencies or other matters which the Auditor may think proper. The Auditor shall have full and complete access to all the books and documents of the Branch.

For the purpose of this Rule a competent person shall have the same meaning as in the Industrial Relations Act and the Regulations made pursuant thereto.

51 - OFFICERS

(i) The Officers of the Branch shall be the State President/s, the State Secretary, the State Senior Vice President, the State Vice President/s, the State Assistant Secretary/s and members of the State Executive.

(ii) And such rights and duties shall, the necessary changes being made, be the same in relation to the Branch concerned as the rights and duties of National Officers and National Executive Members are in relation to the Union as a whole.

52 - REFERENDA

(i) On a decision of a majority of Divisional Branches in the Branch area or Divisional Branches in a Branch area whose membership constitutes a majority of the members of that Branch, or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10% of the financial members of the Branch, the State Executive shall take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Branch upon a matter or matters submitted by the Divisional Branches or by the petition.

A decision reached by the majority of the actual votes recorded at such referendum shall be binding on the Branch, including the State Conference and State Executive thereof, and the members thereof provided that the decision shall not affect the autonomy of any Division.

(ii) The State Executive or State Conference may at any time of its own motion take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Branch or of the whole of the financial members of the Branch upon any matter it thinks fit.

(iii) The referendum referred to in this Rule shall be conducted on the basis that the State Executive shall determine the question to be submitted to the members entitled to vote and the form of the ballot paper, fix the time for the dispatch and return of the ballot paper and give the necessary instructions for printing the same, appoint a State Returning Officer and State Scrutineer in conjunction with Divisional Branch Returning Officers to conduct the ballot, no material other than that authorised by the State Conference or State Executive shall be enclosed in the envelope in which the ballot paper is posted to the member and in all other respects the referendum shall be held as nearly as practicable in the manner provided for the holding of election of Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference in accordance with Rule 17 (iii) except that the roll of voters shall be the financial membership at the end of the calendar month immediately preceding the holding of the referendum.

53 - RULES OF THE BRANCH

(a) The Rules of the Branch contained herein shall be binding on all Divisions and all members thereof. Such Rules may be altered, rescinded, varied or made by the National Conference and/or National Executive in accordance with Rule 25 of the National Rules.

(b) The State Conference and State Executive shall have power to make alter and rescind by laws for the working of the Branches, any Sub-Branches and any other matter over which such Branch has control under these or any other rules.

Provided that no such by laws shall be inconsistent with any other rule of the union and shall, to the extent of any such inconsistency, be void and inoperative.

54 - VOTING OTHERWISE THAN AT MEETINGS ASSEMBLED

Rule 37 of the National Rules of the Union shall apply, the necessary changes being made, to the Branch and the State Secretary shall in the same way as provided for the National Secretary under Rule 37 of the National Rules, take a vote of the State Executive or the State Conference in any manner whatsoever.

Such vote shall have the same effect in relation to the Branch as a vote taken under Rule 37 of the National Rules has in relation to the Union.

"MEMBER" shall mean a member of this union, male or female.

"NATIONAL COLLEGIATE" shall mean the totality of delegates from all Divisions to each Divisional Conference.

"PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION" shall mean a system of representation at Committees, Conferences, Executives or the like which, as far as practicable, will provide for voting on a basis which reflects the number or percentage of financial members, as calculated in accordance with these rules, that each person on such Committee, Conference, Executive or the like, represents.

"DISTRICT" AND "SUB-BRANCH" AND "ZONE" where used in the Rules of the Union shall mean sectors of a Divisional Branch of the Union.

"RULES OF THE UNION" means all of the Rules of the Union as read and construed in totality while "NATIONAL RULES" shall refer to these rules, "BRANCH RULES" shall refer to the Rules of any Branch of the Union established under the Rules of the Union, "DIVISIONAL RULES" shall refer to the Rules of any Division established in accordance with the Rules of the union, and "DIVISIONAL BRANCH RULES" or "DIVISIONAL DISTRICT BRANCH RULES "shall refer to the rules of Divisional Branches, being a branch of a Division, established in accordance with the Rules of the union.

"MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE" and/or "EXECUTIVE" shall be synonymous and shall mean the controlling and administrative body of the organ so referred to, ie Division or Branch or Divisional Branch.

"PREFERENTIAL VOTING" shall mean a system of voting in which the voter shall place the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom they vote as first preference and shall place the number 2, 3, 4 (and so on, as the case requires) in the squares opposite the names of all the remaining candidates so as to indicate the order of preference for them.

> In a ballot by the preferential system the valid ballot papers shall be separated into separate parcels, each such parcel containing all those papers on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate.
> If on the first count a candidate receives an absolute majority of first preference votes of total valid votes cast then that candidate shall be declared elected.
>
> If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the candidate with the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded and the ballot papers on which a first preference is indicated for such candidate shall be counted to the remaining candidates next in the voters' order of preference.
>
> If a candidate has then an absolute majority of votes then that candidate shall be elected, but if no candidate then has a majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and the distribution of the vote preferences shall continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.
> In cases where more than one position is to be filled the numbers placed opposite the candidates' names up to the number of positions to be filled shall be first preference votes and the procedure in respect to the distribution of preferences shall be the same as is above prescribed where a ballot is for a single position.
> The candidate or candidates as the case may be, who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

"GENERAL ELECTIONS" shall mean the elections held every four years commencing in 1996 office to be taken on 2 January 1997 in accordance with the Rules of the Union, with the exception of the Mining and Energy Division, where office will be taken 1 July 1996.

"PLURAL/SINGULAR" every reference in these rules to the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.

6 - SEAL

(i) The Seal of the Union shall be oval in shape inscribed on the outer edge "Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union".

(ii) The Seal shall be kept in the custody of the National Secretary.

(iii) Any document required or permitted by the Workplace Relations Act to be under seal shall be executed on behalf of the Union by affixing the Seal of the Union thereto and by being signed by the National Secretary or in the absence of the National Secretary, either the National President or National Assistant Secretary.

(iv) Any document otherwise required by law to be under seal shall be executed by affixing the Seal of the Union thereto and by being signed by the National Secretary and either the National President or National Assistant Secretary.

7 - MEMBERSHIP

(i) A candidate for membership of the Union may make application to the National Secretary, the Division covering the occupation or industry in which the person is employed, the Branch covering the area in which the person is employed or resides, or the Divisional Branch covering the industry or occupation in which the person is employed, usually employed or desirous of being employed and the area in which the person resides or is employed, and such application shall be made and dealt with in the manner and subject to the conditions including conditions as to any probationary period required by the rules of the Division. Any application shall be forwarded to the office in the appropriate division which under the rules of that division deals with such applications. The decision to accept or reject that application shall be made in accordance with the Rules of that division by that office. Provided that where a person makes application to any officer of the Union that application shall be a valid application for membership of the Union and the Union shall, treat the member as a member of the Division to which the officer is attached, until transferred in accordance with the rules.

(ii) Candidates shall supply such information as to their identity and occupation, and such other particulars as to their eligibility for membership and the benefits of membership as the Rules of the Union may require, and shall, when requested, fill in and sign such application form as may be provided.

(iii) (a) Any application for membership may be referred to the National Executive by the Division, or Divisional Branch to whom application is made or by the member.

(b) Where in any case the admission to membership of the person applying is rejected, such person shall have the right to appeal to the National Executive, whose decision shall be final.

(iv) A member shall be attached to the Division of the Union covering the industry or employment of the member and shall be in only one such Division. Each member shall be notified of the Division to which such member is attached or any other classification relevant to the Rules of the Union and such Division or classification shall be entered on the record of the Union in relation to that member which record shall be conclusive proof of the Division and/or classification to which that member is assigned.

(v)(a) Notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in the Rules of the Union no application for membership of the union shall be void or irregular only for the reason that the form of application is not fully completed or completed at all, or that some other form of application is used, or any other procedure under the Rules has not been complied with provided that the person intended to, and did in fact, in some way or other, apply for membership and the Union treated the person as a member. A member may be transferred to another Division, Branch or Divisional Branch without loss of continuity of membership. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a person who, at the time of application for membership was not eligible to be or become a member, shall be and become a member as soon as the person is eligible to be and become a member or earlier if by any Act, law or other Rule the membership is otherwise validated provided that the person performs an act which evidences an intention to be or become a member. For all purposes the payment of union dues in whole or in part shall be taken to be, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a method by which a person intended to, and did in fact, in some way or other, apply for membership and/or evidences an intention to be or become a member.

(b) Without affecting or detracting from the requirements of sub-rules 42(iii) and 42(xii) and without limiting the rights of the member or a Division, Divisional Branch or authorised officer thereof, to seek or obtain a transfer of Division or Divisional Branch in accordance with the rules, no membership of the Union and no membership or attachment to a Division, Branch or Divisional Branch of the Union shall be invalidated, void or otherwise treated as irregular on account of the member being attached to a Division, Branch or Divisional Branch which, in accordance with the Rules, may not be the correct Division, Branch or Divisional Branch provided that the member was eligible for membership of the Union and the member was aware of the Division, Branch or Divisional Branch to which the member was attached. Every member of the Union who, on the records of the Union, is financial and is, on those records, attached to a Division, Branch or Divisional Branch shall be treated for all purposes as a financial member thereof and shall be entitled to all rights and required to comply with all obligations which attach thereto until transferred in accordance with the Rules.

(vi) Any Division or Branch or Divisional Branch may utilise for the purposes of application form for membership of this Union, an application form used for any previously registered organisation of employees which has become, upon amalgamation, part of this Union or any application form utilised jointly or otherwise with any trade union of employees registered under any legislation of a State or Territory.

(vii) A member shall, when applying for membership be informed of the financial obligations arising from membership and the circumstances, and the manner, in which a member may resign from the organisation and shall be informed of such in writing.

(viii) (a) Where a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary is of the view that a person in the Division or Divisional Branch of which she/he is an officer should be attached to another Division or Divisional Branch the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary shall contact the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary of the Division or Divisional Branch to which, in the view formed, the member should be attached, and seek to obtain agreement on the transfer of the said member. Where agreement cannot be reached the matter may be referred to the National Secretary and be determined by the National Executive or an officer designated by the National Executive.

(b) Further provided that where a Divisional Secretary or a Divisional Branch Secretary forms the view that a member of another Division or Divisional Branch ought to be a member of the Division or Divisional Branch to which the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary is attached, the Divsional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary shall contact the the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch to which the member is now attached and seek agreement that the member be transferred. Where agreement cannot be reached the matter may be referred to the National Secretary and be determined by the National Executive or an officer designated by the National Executive.

(c) In relation to the two immediately foregoing paragraphs contact between Divisions and/or Divisional Branches in relation to these issues may, by custom and practice or by agreement, be dealt with by an officer other than the Divisonal Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary or may be dealt with by members of staff. Where a member is transferred or determined to be transferred in accordance with either of the immediately preceding paragraphs the member shall be notified accordingly and the transfer shall be effective 14 days after the notification to the member. Within that period the member may object to said transfer and such objection will be determined by the National Executive. Pending such objection the member shall nevertheless be transferred in accordance with any of the aforesaid agreements and/or determinations.

(d) Any determination by the National Executive or officer designated by the National Executive shall use the principles established in and by sub-rules 42(i) and 42(iii) hereof.

Nothing in these paragraphs shall affect or detract from the provisions of subrule(s) 42(i), (iii) and (xii) and membership of a Division or a Divisonal Branch shall be valid notwithstanding an irregularity in, breach of or failure to comply with the procedures in either one or both paragraphs (a) or (b) herein.

8 - ENTRANCE FEES AND CONTRIBUTIONS

(i) Entrance fees and contributions payable by any person on application to join the union and/or for membership or continuous membership of the Union shall be in accordance with the Rules of the division to which, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, the person or member is to be or is assigned.

(ii) Any member who has failed to pay the entrance fees, or contributions, levies and fines imposed in accordance with the rules of the union on or before the date specified in such rules, shall be deemed to be unfinancial, and shall not be eligible to receive any benefits, participate in any deliberations, propose or second any new applicant for admission or exercise any authority or any membership rights, provided that the rules may provide that some members or some class or classes of members may vote in a ballot and/or may differentiate between classes of members as to the amount of any contribution and/or entrance fee.

(iii) A member shall be deemed to be financial immediately upon payment of all arrears outstanding.

(iv) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in Rules 7 and 8 of these National Rules or any Divisional Rules to the contrary, the Union may reach agreement with any organisation of employees, trade union, industrial union or organisation, whether incorporated or otherwise or whether registered under a law of the Commonwealth, State or Territory or unregistered (herein referred to as an "association"), which agreement may provide for automatic membership of this Union for members of any such association and may provide for the receipt and holding of moneys jointly or in common by the aforementioned association and this Union and conversely the automatic membership of members of this Union in such an association.

(b) The Union may, by agreement or unilaterally, grant to any class of members, who are members of another association of a kind referred to in paragraph (a) hereof, membership and waive the requirement to pay an entrance fee and/or contributions in whole or in part.

(c) Nothing in this Sub-Rule shall render eligible for membership any person not otherwise eligible for membership of the Union under the eligibility Rules or pursuant to S.202 of the Industrial Relations Act, or any other provision of that Act or any Act amending or replacing same. Further, "automatic membership" when used in this Sub-Rule shall mean membership granted to a member free of the payment of any entrance fee and contribution in circumstances where the person applying for membership has signified an intention to become a member or having been notified that membership would be granted unless objected to, has not signified objection to that membership.

9 - CLEARANCES

(i) A member desiring to transfer to any other union covering their calling shall make application to the Divisional Branch Secretary, or where the rules of the union so provide, Divisional Sub-Branch, in writing, and shall pay all dues owing to the union, and the transfer will be forwarded to the Secretary of the union to which the member desires to transfer. Such member shall cease to be a member of this Union as from the date on which the transfer is forwarded to the Secretary of such other union.

(ii) Any member of a kindred trade union, or any union whose Awards cover workers specified in Rule 2 of the rules of the union, may be admitted to membership on production to the Divisional Branch Secretary, or where the rules of the Division so provide, the Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District Secretary, of a clearance from such union showing that all dues, contributions and levies payable to such union have been paid. The membership of a person so admitted shall commence as from the date of the production of their clearance. The rules of the Union may provide for persons who had been members of any Division or Divisional Branch of this Union to be admitted without entrance fees or other special conditions.

(iii) A clearance shall not be granted to any member unless all moneys owing have first been paid.

10 - TRANSFERS

(1) A member attached to any Divisional Branch of any Division who is working within the area covered by another Divisional Branch may be transferred to the latter Divisional Branch. The member shall apply to the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch, or where the Divisional Branch rules so provide, of the Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District to which the member was attached for a clearance, and provided the member is financial, the Divisional Branch or Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District Secretary shall forward to the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch to which the member desires to be transferred, the clearance. A member shall be deemed to be attached to the new Divisional Branch as from the date of the receipt of the clearance by the Divisional Branch Secretary of such Divisional Branch, or where the Divisional Branch rules so provide, by the secretary of the Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District, and the member's length of membership of the new Divisional Branch shall be the length of the latest period of membership of the Union.

11 - RESIGNATION OF MEMBERS

(1) A member may resign from membership of the Union by a written notice addressed and delivered to the Divisional Branch Secretary or other officer of the Divisional Branch authorised to receive such correspondence.

(2) The notice of resignation will take effect where that member,

(a) ceases to be eligible to become a member of the Union:

(i) on the day on which the notice is received by the Union; or

(ii) on the day specified in the notice, which is a day not earlier than the day when the member ceases to be eligible to be a member;

whichever is later; or

(b) in any other case:

(i) at the end of 2 weeks after the notice is received by the Union; or

(ii) on the day specified in the notice;

whichever is later.

(3) All contributions and or levies due in relation to the period before the members resignation took effect are to be paid. Where the member fails to do so the Union may prosecute such member in the appropriate court for the recovery of that amount.

(4) A notice delivered to the person mentioned in sub-rule (1) shall be taken to have been received by the Union when it was delivered.

(5) A notice of resignation that has been received by the Union is not invalid because it was not addressed and delivered in accordance with sub-rule (1).

(6) A resignation from membership of the union is valid even if it is not effected in accordance with this rule if the member is informed in writing by or on behalf of the union that the resignation has been accepted.

12 - REGISTER OF MEMBERS

A register of members and any other records of the Union required to be kept by the Industrial Relations Act and the Regulations made thereunder shall be kept at the registered office of the Union and so far as such records relate to a Division or Divisional Branch at the registered office of that Division or Divisional Branch.

13 - SUPREME GOVERNING BODY IN UNION

(i) The supreme governing body of the union shall be the National Conference convened every two (2) years or specially in accordance with these National Rules.

(ii) The National Conference shall consist of all of the members of each and every Divisional Executive for every Division of the Union. Provided that existing elected officers of the National Executive who are retiring from office and who have not been re-elected as members of their Divisional Executive shall be entitled to attend the National Conference until their successors are elected and shall be entitled to all rights of a conference delegate other than nominating and voting on any matter. Further provided that, if not otherwise a delegate to National Conference by virtue of this sub-clause, members of the National Executive entitled to attend and vote thereat shall, ipso facto, be delegates to the National Conference and treated, in all respects, as delegates in the same way as a member of the Divisional Executive and for the purposes of sub-rule (iii) of this Rule be treated as a member of the Divisional Executive from the Division of which such person is a member. Further provided that any person not entitled to attend and/or vote at their Divisional Executive by virtue of the Rules of the Division shall not be entitled, notwithstanding any of the foregoing in this sub-rule, to attend and/or vote at National Conference.

(iii) Persons elected as members of a Divisional Executive shall be elected in accordance with the rules of the Division. Nothing in this sub-rule shall prevent the filling of a vacancy between ordinary elections or interfere with the transitional provisions which shall take effect on and from amalgamation. Each such member of a Divisional Executive shall exercise a vote on the National Conference equal to the percentage of financial members of the Union in the Division from which the member derives divided by the number of members of the Divisional Executive entitled to vote. Provided that nothing in this sub-rule prevents proxy voting or multiple voting.

(iv) The percentage of financial members belonging to any Division shall be the sum of the percentages of financial members of the Divisional Branches within that Division.

For the purposes of this rule, the percentage of financial members of any Divisional Branch shall be calculated by dividing the total income received by the Divisional Branch from contributions only, by the amount of contributions fixed for ordinary members for that Divisional Branch and determining that number as a percentage of total membership of the Union calculated in the same way. This calculation shall be performed for the first six month period of the financial year preceding the year in which the National Conference is held.

(v) Members of Divisional Executives and National Conference shall remain in office until the election of their successors.

(vi) Should any member of a Divisional Executive die or resign or should there be, for any other reason whatsoever, a vacant position as delegate or member to Divisional Executive and/or National Conference, the Divisional Branch Executive of the Divisional Branch in which the vacancy would otherwise be filled may forthwith cause an election for another member or, where the unexpired part of the term for that office until the next general elections does not exceed three quarters of the ordinary term of office, the Divisional Branch Executive may appoint a delegate to such Divisional Conference to be the member or delegate from or of the Divisional Branch in place of the member or delegate who is deceased or has resigned or to fill the position otherwise left vacant. Provided a person appointed by a Divisional Branch Executive in the manner mentioned herein shall hold office only for the residue of the period until the next general elections.

The method of such election or appointment shall be the same, the necessary changes being made, as the method of election or appointment (as the case may be) of the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch from which the vacancy is to be filled in accordance with the rules of the Divisional Branch.

(vii) Divisions or Divisional Branches may, where elected Divisional Branch delegates or members to or of National Conference agree, arrange multiple voting representation at a National Conference by notifying the National Conference of the number of divisional delegates or members to be credentialed and of the arrangements for proxy voting to be adopted by that Division or Divisional Branch at the National Conference.

(viii) Where a delegate is unable to attend a meeting of the National Conference or any part thereof that delegate may where the Divisional Executive agrees appoint another elected delegate to National Conference from the same Division as proxy to act in that delegate's stead. Where the Divisional Executive agrees, a delegate may appoint as the proxy to National Conference an elected delegate from another Division. Each member of the Divisional Executive shall be a delegate to the National Conference.

(ix) Six delegates, representing not less than two Divisions, shall form a quorum of the National Conference.

(x) The National Conference shall have power, unless any rule deprives the National Conference of power or grants to another body within the Union exclusive power over a subject matter, to:

(a) take such steps as it shall think fit to carry out all or any of the objects of the Union and to raise or spend such funds as are necessary to carry out the objects;

(b) decide the general policy of the Union and to take steps to enforce the carrying out of such policy;

(c) subject to the rules prescribing the procedure to be followed, impose penalties being fines not exceeding the sum of $100, suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office, on officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates, for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules of the Union or decisions of the National Conference or the National Executive.
Provided that:

* a copy of the rules of the Union of which there is an alleged breach, and/or the decisions of National Conference or National Executive of which there is an alleged breach are available to members at each Branch office;

* no penalties shall be imposed unless the officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting; particulars are given in the summons of the offence alleged (including the time and places alleged that the offence was committed); and that person charged is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in their own defence, including an opportunity to cross examine and to give and call evidence. Nothing in the preceding rule requires the procedures of court. A period of suspension imposed under this rule shall not exceed six (6) months;

(d) hear and decide any appeal from the National Executive or any Divisional Branch, or Branch or member. Any appeal from a member must be forwarded through the Divisional Branch Committee. Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard;

(e) settle disputes between Divisions;

(f) deal with and decide any matter submitted to it by any Division or Branch of the Union;

(g) confirm, overrule or otherwise deal with decisions of the National Executive;

(h) establish Divisions of the Union;

(j) exercise all or any of the powers of the National Executive;

(k) subject to Rule 25, make alter and rescind any of the Rules of the union, including Branch Rules, Divisional Rules and Divisional Branch Rules;

(l) confer life membership on a member of the Union.

(xi) A National Conference shall be held not later than twenty four (24) months after each general election of the Divisional Branch delegates to National Conference and at such place and time as the National Executive shall decide.

(xii) The business to be dealt with by National Conference shall be shown on the agenda paper, but matters may be added to the agenda paper if agreed to by a majority of delegates at the National Conference. Any matter appearing on the agenda paper may be amended by the National Conference.

(xiii) Notice of every National Conference, together with a copy of the agenda paper therefore shall be posted by the National Secretaries to each Divisional Secretary and each Branch Secretary one calendar month before the date of such meeting, or where agenda items have not been finalised one calendar month before the meeting then they shall be sent at the earliest practicable time.

Notice shall also be posted to all delegates so as to give them at least the notice provided for herein.

(xiv) A copy of the Minutes containing all decisions and business of the National Conference shall be forwarded to each Divisional Secretary and to each Divisional Branch Secretary within two (2) months of the conclusion of each National Conference. Any member of the Union may, upon request to the Divisional Branch Secretary, inspect a copy of the minutes of each National Conference at the Divisional Branch Office or Divisional Office during the ordinary hours in which the Divisional Branch or Division is open.

(xv) The National Secretary on receipt of resolutions from a majority of Divisions or from Divisional Branches representing a majority of members or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10% of the financial members of the Union calling for a special Conference shall call such Conference within thirty (30) days. Each Division, Divisional Branch and delegate to National Conference shall be advised by letter of National Conference business fourteen (14) days prior to the date of the Conference so fixed. The National Executive may direct the National Secretary to call a special conference at any time. Divisions, Divisional Branches and delegates to National Conference shall be given seven (7) days' notice if practicable. Notice shall be given by letter, facsimile, telegram or telex.

Notwithstanding anything contained in any other rule, the National Executive may direct the National Secretaries to conduct a postal, telephonic, telegraphic, telex, verbal and/or written vote (or combination thereof) of delegates to National Conference to obtain a decision on any matter.

14 - NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

(i) The National Executive Committee shall consist of the National Principal Officers, being the National Secretary of the CFMEU, the Divisional Secretary of the Construction and General Division, the Divisional Secretary of the Forestry, Furnishing, Building Products and Manufacturing Division, the General President of the Mining and Energy Division; together with the fulltime elected Officers of each Division who are fulltime at the National level and are not already one of the aforementioned National Principal Officers; two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries of the Forestry, Furnishing, Building Products and Manufacturing Division, one of whom shall be the Principal Officer of the Pulp and Paper Industry Sector and the other of whom shall be the Principal Officer of the Furnishing Industry Sector; and the Divisional President, and two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries of the Construction and General Division if not otherwise included.

(ii) The National Executive Committee shall, subject to the review of its actions by the National Executive, have the care, control, superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business, national funds of the Union and without limiting the generality of the foregoing it may:

(a) interpret and enforce the general policy of the Union as decided by National Executive and/or National Conference.

(b) decide questions of policy not covered by the National Executive and/or National Conference decisions.

(c) control and conduct the business and affairs of the Union while the National Executive or National Conference is not in session.

(d) Expend such moneys by way of ordinary expenditure as may be necessary.

(e) Submit any matter to the National Executive for decision.

(f) Control and supervise the work of the National Officers of the Union.

(g) All decisions of the National Executive Committee shall be made by a majority of the members present at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules.

(iii) Meetings of the National Executive and National Executive Committee shall be held at such time and place as shall be decided by the National President and the National Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the National Executive may demand a meeting of such National Executive which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members of the National Executive. The quorum for any meeting shall be six (6). A majority of the National Officers may demand a meeting of the National Executive Committee which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such National Officers. The quorum for any meeting of the National Executive Committee shall be four (4).

(iv) The National Secretary may take a telegraphic, telex, facsimile, telephonic, email, written and/or postal vote of members of the National Executive or National Executive Committee at any time. Members of the National Executive or National Executive Committee shall be advised of the details of the voting. Such vote shall have the same effect as a decision of such body made in meetings assembled.

(v) Notice of meetings may be given by letter or telegram or telex or facsimile or email or otherwise in writing or by telephone or verbally, provided that in the latter two instances such is confirmed by letter or telegram or telex or facsimile or email.

15 - NATIONAL EXECUTIVE

(i) There shall be a National Executive composed of the National Executive Committee, as defined in these rules, and the principal officer of each Divisional Branch of the Union that is not otherwise a member of the National Executive Committee. Provided that any such Principal Officer of a Divisional Branch shall not be entitled to attend and/or vote at any meeting of the National Executive or vote on any issue before the National Executive if such Principal Officer is not entitled to attend and/or vote, in that capacity, the Divisional Executive of the Division to which the Divisional Branch is attached.

(ii) The National officers shall be elected, except in the case of any vacancy occurring or arising between general elections, by and from the National Collegiate in 1994 and every subsequent four (4) years thereafter and shall hold office until their successors are elected.

(iii) Following the Divisional Conferences in 1993 and the Divisional Conferences following the general elections every four years thereafter the National Executive shall appoint a person as Returning Officer, who shall not be the holder of any office in, and shall not be an employee of, the Union or of any Division, Branch, Divisional Branch or any section of the Union. Such Returning Officer shall have the conduct of the election of the National Officers in accordance with these Rules.

(iv) The National Executive shall, unless its actions are overturned by the National Conference, have the care, control, superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business, national funds and property of the Union and shall have and may exercise no more and no less than all of the powers of the National Conference and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing may:

(a) Interpret and enforce the general policy of the union as decided by National Conference.

(b) Control and conduct the business and affairs of the union while National Conference is not in session.

(c) Appoint the editor of any national union journal and manage and control the policy of such journal.

(d) Hear and decide any appeal from any Division or Branch. Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

(e) Settle disputes between Divisions or Branches. Any Division or Branch concerned shall be given reasonable notice of the meeting and an opportunity of being heard before any settlement is effected.

(f) Expend such moneys by way of ordinary expenditure as may be necessary.

(g) Submit any matter to the members for decision by ballot.

(h) Ensure that officers, committee members, delegates or members and Divisions and Branches carry out the rules and decisions of the Union and subject to Rule 19 impose penalties [i.e. fines not exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars], suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office, upon any officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules or the decisions of the National Conference or the National Executive.

Provided that the rules, the decisions of National Conference or the National Executive are available to members in the minutes of the National Conference or the National Executive and the registered rules of the Union at each Branch office. No penalty shall be imposed unless -

* The officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting seven (7) days prior to the meeting;

* Particulars are given in the summons of the offence alleged, including the time and place it was alleged the offence was committed;

* The member is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in the member's own defence, including an opportunity to cross-examine and to give and call evidence.

Period of suspension imposed under these rules shall not exceed six months.

(j) Subject to rules relating to the autonomy of divisions, take such action as may be necessary to secure the satisfactory working of any Division or Branch or Divisional Branch in the event of the affairs of that Division, Branch or Divisional Branch being so conducted as to affect the proper functioning of the Union, as a registered organisation, or as to make the Union liable for a breach or breaches of the Industrial Relations Act. Subject to Rule 19 herein, such action may include the suspension or dismissal of all or any members holding positions in, or for, a Division or Branch and the appointment of a member of the National Executive or any other member or members of the Union to conduct the affairs of the such Division, Branch or Divisional Branch.

(k) Control and supervise the work of the National Officers of the union.

(l) All decisions of the National Executive shall be made by a majority of the votes cast at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules. The votes cast by members of the National Executive shall be on a card system and the value of the vote cast by any member of the National Executive, including National Officers, shall be determined in the same way, the necessary changes being made as the value of a vote cast by delegates to the National Conference with National Officers being included in the Division from which they derive. Provided that in the calculation of votes cast by members of the National Executive herein, no member of the National Executive who is not entitled to attend and/or vote at the National Executive meeting shall be included as a member for the purposes of the aforesaid calculations.

(m) A loan, grant or donation of an amount exceeding $1,000 shall not be made by this Union unless the National Executive -

(a) has satisfied itself -

* that the making of the loan, grant or donation would be in accordance with the other rules of the Union; and

* in relation to a loan - that, in the circumstances, the security proposed to be given for the repayment of the loan is adequate and the proposed arrangements for the repayment of the loan are satisfactory; and

(b) has approved the making of the loan, grant or donation.

(n) Subject to Rule 25, make, alter and rescind any of the rules of the Union, including Branch Rules, Divisional Rules and Divisional Branch Rules;

(o) Affiliate to any body on behalf of the Union, or, if any Division objects to any affiliation to affiliate on behalf of those Divisions which do not so object;

(p) appoint representatives of the Union to any body;

(q) to affiliate to the Australian Council of Trade Unions and appoint representatives thereto on the basis of proportional representation of each Division.

(r) confer life membership on a member of the Union.

(v) All acts and decisions of the National Executive shall have full force and effect and full validity unless and until such acts or decisions are reversed or amended by the National Executive or the National Conference.

16 - ELECTION OF NATIONAL OFFICERS

(i) The National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary and National President shall be elected by and from the National Collegiate, namely the delegates to all of the Divisional Conferences of the Union and the ballot for such positions shall be a secret postal ballot of delegates to all Divisional Conferences conducted, the necessary changes being made, in accordance with Rule 17 of these rules.

Provided that, for Divisions with more than one Divisional Branch, each Division shall be represented by at least one Officer.

Further provided that, for Division with more than one Divisional Branch, each Division shall hold at least one position of Joint Vice President as follows:

* Joint Vice President (Construction and General Division)
* Joint Vice President (FFPD Division)
* Joint Vice President (Mining & Energy Division)

Further provided that, each Division, prior to the calling for nominations, shall decide its nominees for the above positions by resolution from that Division's National Conference.

Further provided that there shall be a Principal Officer of the FFPD Division representing the former FFTS Division who shall be a National Senior Vice-President. Such officer shall be and remain a member of the National Executive and the National Executive Committee.

Further provided that the Construction & General Division Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers) shall be a National Senior Vice-President and shall be and remain a member of the National Executive and National Executive Committee.

Further provided that the Construction & General Division Senior Vice-President (former National Secretary of the OPDU) shall be a National Senior Vice-President and shall be and remain a member of the National Executive and National Executive Committee.

All full-time officers of each Division, not otherwise elected to any of the foregoing positions, shall be and remain members of the National Executive Committee.

(ii) If the nominations are equal to the number of positions to be filled the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare candidates elected. An officer shall not hold more than one position on the National Executive or National Executive Committee.

(iii) If there are more candidates than the number required for filling the office/s the Returning Officer shall prepare voting papers and conduct the ballot.

(iv) The Returning Officer shall declare the result of the ballot as soon as the count is completed. In the event of a tie, the Returning Officer shall determine the result by declaring a candidate who currently holds the office being contested being elected, should no candidate currently hold the office the Returning Officer shall declare the result by casting lots.

(v) Except in so far as any Act from time to time provides otherwise, whenever any member has been declared elected to any office the member declared to be elected to such office, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity which may have occurred in or in connection with the calling for and dealing with nominations or the conduct of a ballot shall be recognised as validly holding such office.

(vi) A National Executive member and National Executive Committee member and National Officer shall hold office until a successor to such person is elected.

(vii) (a) Where a vacancy occurs in any office under these rules for any reason whatsoever including but not limited to the death, resignation, retirement or dismissal of any officer, such vacancy may be filled by appointment by the Divisional Executive to which the office or officer relates provided that the person so appointed shall hold office for as much of the unexpired part of the term of the office as does not exceed the greater of twelve months or three quarters of the term of the office.

(b) Where the unexpired part of the term of office exceeds that specified in this sub-rule, the Returning Officer shall conduct an election of delegates to all Divisional Conferences to fill the vacancy and the person elected shall hold office for the remainder of the term of office.

(c) Such election shall, the necessary changes being made, be in accordance with Rule 17 (iii) hereof.

(viii) The Returning Officer in any election shall declare the result to members of the National Executive and may do so by post, letter, telegram, telephone, telex, facsimile and/or verbally as soon as the count is completed.

(ix) Provision to be made for the representatives of Divisions to cast votes proportionate to the membership of the respective Division in any ballot for the election of National Officers.

17 - ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO DIVISIONAL CONFERENCES

(i) The method of electing Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall be in accordance with the Rules of the Division every four (4) years in conjunction with the Divisional Branch elections. Such election shall be by direct ballot of the financial members of each Divisional Branch.

(ii) When an election is required to be conducted by these rules the Divisional Branch Executive shall appoint a Divisional Branch Returning Officer who shall not be the holder of an office in and shall not be an employee of, the Union or of any Division, Branch, Divisional Branch or sub-Branch or section of the Union.

(iii) Except in the case of the Mining & Energy Division elections for Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference shall be in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) The method of electing Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall be by secret postal ballot of the whole Divisional Branch financial members entitled to vote in such elections, which shall be held every four (4) years in conjunction with the Divisional Branch elections.

(b) When an election is required to be conducted by these rules the Divisional Branch Executive shall appoint a Divisional Branch Returning Officer who shall not be the holder of an office in and shall not be an employee of, the Union or of any Division, Branch, Divisional Branch or sub-Branch or section of the Union.

(c) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall have the conduct of such elections in accordance with these rules. Where practicable such election to be conducted in conjunction with Divisional Branch election of Officers.

(d) A Divisional Branch Returning Officer may, at any time in writing, resign his or her position and shall resign if they desire to become a candidate at any elections held under the rules of the Union.

Any casual vacancy of a Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall be filled by the Divisional Branch Executive.

(e) Nominations for the position of Divisional Branch delegates of the Divisional Conference shall be called for by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer by notification in the union journal or in one daily newspaper circulating in the capital city in each Branch on or before the last day of August of every fourth (4th) year commencing as on and from the last day of August 1996.

Provided that such advertisement shall clearly indicate that the Divisional Executive and full time Divisional Officers are elected by and from members of the Divisional Conference, that the members of the Divisional Executive make up the National Conference and that National Officers are made up of the principal officers of each Division.

(f) Any member of the Divisional Branch who is financial at the time nominations are called and has had not less than three years financial membership of the Union may nominate for the position of Divisional Branch delegate to Divisional Conference.

For the purpose of this rule and for the purpose of all provisions of the rules of the union relating to financial membership and the length of financial membership or length of membership, membership of an organization amalgamating with the union or which has amalgamated with the union shall be counted for all purposes as membership of the union and financial membership of this union or a union amalgamating with this union for all purposes. This provision relates to all rules of the Union relating to the membership, or length of financial membership, or length of continuous membership in the Union or in any Division thereof.

(g) Any member desiring to nominate for the position of Divisional Branch delegate to Divisional Conference shall apply either personally or in writing to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer for a nomination form. Such forms shall be signed by the candidate and by two financial members and forwarded by certified mail to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer or handed personally at the Divisional Branch office or, in the case of an election conducted by the Australian Electoral Commission, at the office nominated by it, and a receipt thereupon obtained.

Nominations shall be closed at 4pm on the last Friday of September 1996 or such other date as may be provided for in any Divisional Rules, and each four (4) years thereafter following that date. Nominations must be received by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer by that time on that date to be eligible.

A member having nominated for any office in accordance with this Rule may withdraw the nomination by notifying the Returning Officer in writing of an intention to do so at any time up to seven (7) days after the closing of nominations. The Returning Officer on receipt of a notification from a member wishing to withdraw a nomination shall immediately take the appropriate steps to withdraw the member's name from the ballot papers prior to their distribution.

(h) Candidates may include with their nomination form a statement or joint statement not exceeding 200 words containing only the candidate's personal history and only the candidate's policy statement or joint statement.

(i) Officers of all Divisional Branches holding such office at the date of amalgamation shall remain in office until the general election of officers held in 1996 and shall be eligible to nominate in that election. In this paragraph officers of all Divisional Branches shall mean officers of branches of the amalgamating unions being the persons listed in the schedule hereto.

(j) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall examine all nominations to ensure that they are in order and if any nominations are found to be defective the Divisional Branch Returning Officer, before rejecting the nomination, shall notify the person concerned of the defect and where practicable to do so give them the opportunity of remedying the defect within a period of not less than seven (7) days after being so notified.

(k) If at the closing date for nominations only sufficient nominations have been received by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer to fill any vacancy or vacancies the Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall thereupon declare the person or persons so nominating elected and supply forthwith a report of the declaration of the ballot to the Divisional Conference and candidates by submitting a Divisional Branch Returning Officers report to the National, Divisional, Divisional Branch, and Branch Secretaries.

(l) If all nominations are received and there are more nominations than there are vacancies the Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall conduct a draw for positions on the ballot paper and shall notify candidates of the time and place of the draw in sufficient time for a candidate or their nominee to attend the draw; such attendance shall be at the candidate's own cost and expense.

(m) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall forthwith have printed ballot papers in sufficient quantities to enable them to supply a ballot paper for each member eligible to vote in the election and secure a certificate from the printer as to the number printed.

(n) Such ballot papers shall have printed thereon only the title of the office to be filled, method of voting and the name of the candidates for such office and a space for the required vote to be registered, provided however that where more than one candidate is required to be elected the number to be elected shall be printed on the ballot paper. The position of the names of each candidate on the ballot paper shall be in order of the draw of positions for that ballot.

(o) Where a ballot is required, the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch concerned shall provide, within thirty five (35) days of the closing of nominations, a certified list of financial members entitled to vote to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer.

(p) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall on a date which will enable the ballot paper to be posted not later than fourteen (14) clear days before the closing date of the ballot, send by either certified mail or prepaid ordinary mail to each member eligible to vote in the election an envelope addressed to such member at their address appearing on the list of members eligible to vote supplied to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer by each Divisional Branch Secretary, and that envelope shall contain only the following documents:

(a) a ballot paper initialled by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer in respect of each office to be filled at the election for which the member is eligible to vote;

(b) an empty unsealed pre-paid post envelope addressed to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer, c/- the numbered mail box referred to in this rule;

(c) such printed instructions necessary for the completion of each of the ballot papers enclosed in the said envelope and any other instructions that the Divisional Branch Returning Officer may consider necessary;

(d) The candidates statement provided for in accordance with sub-rule (iii) (h) hereof.

(q) For the purpose of the election the books of the Divisional Branches shall be deemed to have closed as at 30th September. Only members who are shown in the records at the office of the Divisional Branch as having paid all contributions, levies and fines as at the 30th September shall be entitled to vote. Provided that any member who at any time prior to the closing of the ballot satisfies the Divisional Branch Returning Officer that they have paid all contributions, levies and fines prior to the 30th September shall be entitled to receive a ballot paper.

(r) The opening date of the ballot shall be at the 2nd day of November and the closing date shall be noon on the 16th day of November in each year in which the ballot is held. All ballot papers shall be returned to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer, c/- the post office box named on the reply envelope. The post office box to which the ballot papers are returned shall be hired by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer prior to the dispatch of the ballot papers or if a box has been previously used by the union, the officer shall cause the lock to be changed.

(s) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall collect the returned ballot papers from the post office box and deposit them in a ballot box kept at the post office or at the office of the Australian Electoral Commission until the commencement of the count of the ballot.

(t) At the conclusion of the ballot the ballot box shall be picked up by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer at a time reasonable notice of which has been given to the Scrutineers and taken to the Divisional Branch rooms or to the office of the Australian Electoral Commission and be opened in the presence of the Scrutineers and counting shall then proceed. If it is necessary to interrupt the count for any purpose the papers shall be sealed in the ballot box to which any seals may be fixed by a Scrutineer.

(u) Any candidate at their own expense, may appoint a financial member of the union to act as their Scrutineer by notification in writing to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer. Any Scrutineers so appointed may be present at any stage of the counting of the ballot provided that the Divisional Branch Returning Officer is also present.

(v) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall proceed to count the ballot on the preferential system provided for in this rule, and the candidate or candidates receiving the necessary quota shall be declared elected. The counting of the ballot shall commence no later than on the first working day after the closing of the ballot and shall be completed as soon as is practicable.

(w) In the case of an equality of votes for any two or more candidates the Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall determine which of the candidates is elected, by declaring the candidate who currently holds the office being contested being elected, should no candidate hold the current office the Returning Officer shall declare the result by casting lots.

(x) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall declare the successful candidates elected and notify the National, Divisional and Divisional Branch Executive of the result of the ballot. The Divisional Branch Executive shall issue instructions for the publication of same in their minutes and in the journal or newspaper of the Divisional Branch. The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall also notify each successful candidate by post and publish their names in at least one daily newspaper circulating in the Branch area. The date of completion of the ballot shall be the date of the declaration thereof.

(y) The successful candidate/s shall become the Divisional Branch delegate to the Divisional Conference.

(z) Should a vacancy occur of a Divisional Branch delegate to Divisional Conference Rule 13 sub-rule (vi) shall apply.

(aa) Any accidental or unavoidable omission or error in the carrying out or observance of this rule shall not invalidate an election if such omission or error appears not to have affected the result of an election.

(bb) In any election the Divisional Branch Returning Officer and any Scrutineer shall do all things necessary to preserve the secrecy of the ballot and shall conduct themselves in a sober, proper and impartial manner. Scrutineers shall, as far as practicable, be given the opportunity to be present at all stages of the ballot. They shall obey any directions given to them by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer. If any Scrutineers or Scrutineer are not present at any stage or stages of the ballot the Divisional Branch Returning Officer may proceed nonetheless.

(cc) Definitions:

"Preferential Voting" shall mean a system of voting in which the voter shall place the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom the voter gives as their first preference, and shall place the number 2, 3, 4 (and so on as the case requires) in the squares opposite the names of all the remaining candidates so as to indicate the order of the preference for them. In a ballot by the preferential system the valid ballot papers shall be separated into separate parcels, each such parcel containing all those papers on which first preference is indicated for the same candidate. If on the first count a candidate receives an absolute majority of first preference votes of total valid votes cast they shall be declared elected.

If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the candidate with the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded and the ballot papers on which a first preference is indicated for such candidate shall be counted to the remaining candidates next in the voters' order of preference. If a candidate has then an absolute majority of votes they shall be elected, but if no candidate then has a majority of votes the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and the distribution of the voters' preferences shall continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes. In cases where more than one position is to be filled the numbers placed opposite the candidates' names up to the number of positions to be filled shall be first preference votes and the procedure in respect to the distribution of preference shall be the same as is above prescribed where a ballot is for a single position. The candidates or candidate, as the case may be, who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

(dd) Those elected shall take office from 2 January in the year following the election.

(ee) This election rule shall apply to all divisions (except Mining and Energy Division) from 1996 and 1996 shall be the first year of such general elections.

18 - DIVISIONAL EXECUTIVE ELECTION

(i) There shall be a Divisional Executive composed in accordance with Divisional Rules and elected in accordance with such Divisional Rules.

(ii) Every Divisional Executive shall be elected either:

(a) by and from the Divisional Conference; or

(b) by direct ballot of the financial members of the Division.

(iii) The Divisional Officers at a national level shall be members of that Divisional Executive.

(iv) The position of delegate to National Conference is to be held by the same person as is holding the position as Divisional Branch member of the Divisional Executive and the election to one position is to be an election to the other position, a removal from one position shall be a removal from the other and they are, for all purposes under these rules to be one and the same person and/or position.

19 - REMOVAL OF OFFICERS

Any Officer may be removed from office by majority decision of the National Executive, provided that such officer shall not be dismissed from office unless found guilty, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, of misappropriation of funds of the Union or a substantial breach of the Rules of the Union or gross misbehaviour or gross neglect of duty or has ceased according to the Rules of the Union to be eligible to hold office.

Any officer so removed from office shall have the right of appeal to the National Conference. In the event of the appeal being upheld the National Conference may order reinstatement to apply on such conditions as it considers the circumstances warrant.

In the event of the re-election of an Officer removed from office under this rule, such officer shall be reimbursed by a payment of monies that represent the difference between such salary the officer would have received had the officer not been removed from office and the amount of salary the officer received during the period the officer was removed from office.

20 - REFERENDA

1. On a decision of a majority of Divisions or Branches or Branches whose membership constitutes a majority of the members or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10 per cent of the financial members of the Union, the National Executive shall take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Union upon the matter or matters in the decision of the Divisions or Branches or in the petition. A decision reached by a majority of the actual votes recorded shall be binding on the Union and the members of the Union provided that the decision shall not affect the autonomy of any Division.

2. National Executive or National Conference may at any time of its own motion take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Union upon any matter it thinks fit.

3. The referendum referred to in this rule shall be conducted as follows:

   National Executive shall:

   Determine the question to be submitted to the members and the form of the ballot paper.

   Fix the times for the despatch and return of ballot papers and give the necessary instructions for printing of same.

   Appoint a National Returning Officer and National Scrutineer in conjunction with Divisional Branch Returning Officers to conduct the ballot.

   No material other than that authorised by the National Conference or National Executive shall be enclosed in the envelope in which the ballot paper is posted to the member.

   In all other respects the referendum shall be held as nearly as practicable in the manner provided for the holding of elections of Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference as set out in Rule 17 (iii) except that the roll of voters shall be the financial membership at the end of the calendar month immediately preceding the holding of the referendum.

21 - VACANCIES IN OFFICE

Where in accordance with the Rules of the Union, a National Officer ceases to hold office as the Divisional Officer entitled to hold a position as National Officer under Rule 16(i) hereof, such officer shall on and from the same time cease to hold office as a National Officer. Provided that the member who replaces such a person in the Divisional Officer's position shall also fill the vacancy created in the position of National Officer until such time as the National Officer's position can be filled in accordance with the rules governing casual vacancy.

22 - DUTIES OF OFFICERS

1. The following sets out the duties of the National Officers outlined herein. The National Secretary shall be a full time position. The wages and costs relating to the office of the full time officer shall be borne by the Union.

2. National President:

   The National President shall preside at meetings of National Conference, National Executive and meetings convened by National Conference or National Executive if it is possible to be present.

   The National President shall have a deliberative vote only.

   The National President shall perform all duties assigned to him/her by the National Conference or National Executive and shall be responsible with the National Secretary for the allocation of duties and responsibilities arising from decisions of the National Conference or the National Executive.

3. National Secretary:

   The National Secretary shall be responsible for the general correspondence of the Union, National finance, filing of documents, industrial returns and the carrying out of decisions made by National Conference or National Executive.

   The National Secretary shall have the power, subject to decisions of the National Executive and/or National Conference, to appoint, control and dismiss the clerical, industrial, research and accountancy staff of the National Office and allocate duties and responsibilities within the National Office.

   The National Secretary shall have prepared a properly audited financial statement of receipts and payments and all the funds and effects of the National Office, together with a statement of the assets and liabilities of the National Office for the year ending 31st December in each year.

   Such financial statement shall be presented to the National Executive for its approval and be published within the journal of the National Union.

   The National Secretary shall carry out such other functions as shall be determined from time to time by the National Conference or National Executive.

   The National Secretary shall be a member of each and every Divisional Executive and shall be for all purposes a full member of any Divisional Executive but shall not exercise a vote at any Divisional Executive of which such National Secretary is not, otherwise than under this Rule, a member.

4. National Assistant Secretary:

   National Assistant Secretary shall perform all duties assigned to him/her by National Conference and National Executive. He/She shall attend all meetings of National Conference and National Executive.

5. Senior Vice-President:

   The Senior Vice-President shall assist the National President in the conduct of meetings and shall preside in the absence of the National President, and shall carry out such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the National Conference or the National Executive.

6. Vice-President/s:

The Vice-Presidents shall assist the National President/s or Senior Vice-President/s in the conduct of meetings and, in the absence of both the abovementioned officers, shall act as President.

They shall carry out such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the National Conference or National Executive.

7. Members of National Executive and Delegates to National Conference:

Members of National Executive and delegates to National Conference shall attend meetings of those bodies when summoned so to do.

8. Within the National Executive Committee and, subject to the Rules relating to card voting on certain committees, for all internal Union purposes, the National Principal Officers shall have, as between each and all of them, the same status. Each may perform different functions and may have different responsibilities in accordance with these Rules and/or decisions of the National Executive/National Conference not inconsistent with these Rules.

23 - FUNDS AND PROPERTY

(i) Each Division shall pay to the National Office and/or National Conference of the Union, on a basis which is proportionate to the respective financial membership of each Division, an amount that is determined by the National Conference or National Executive to enable it to fulfil its functions.

Provided that each Division/Divisional Branch is responsible to meet all costs associated with the operation of its Division/Divisional Branch, including all costs associated with the attendance and participation by their representatives at meetings, including National Conference, National Executive Committee unless decided otherwise by the National Executive Committee.

(ii) A capitation fee or sustentation fee shall be paid by each Divisional Branch to the Division in accordance with Divisional rules.

(iii) Each Divisional Branch shall pay to the Branch of the Union for the geographic area covered by the Divisional Branch, a pro rata amount calculated on the basis of the proportion of financial members of the Branch in that Divisional Branch, an amount determined by the State Executive to enable it to fulfil its functions.

(iv) All moneys received by the National Office shall be paid to the credit of the Union on current account with a Bank or financial institution. No funds shall be drawn from the Bank or financial institution except by cheque signed by two persons who are a National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary, National President or two (2) National Executive members as nominated by National Executive resolution.

(v) All expenditure for ordinary purposes, namely, incurred in directly furthering the objects of the Union or in the expenses of management, may be disbursed by decision of the National Secretary and either the National President or National Assistant Secretary. Expenditure for other purposes authorised by the rules may be disbursed by a majority decision of the National Conference or National Executive.

(vi) The funds of the Union shall be under the control of the body which receives such funds pursuant to the Rules of the Union and such bodies shall deal with the funds on behalf of the Union. The funds and property of the Union shall be invested wherever possible in the name of the Union. Any moneys may have the name of the body controlling the funds added to the name of the Union. In the case of Divisions, money received by the Divisions shall be under the control of the body in that Division which, by the rules of that Division is given control and shall be invested in the name of the Union, subject to the last immediately preceding sentence hereof. Where it is not possible or convenient to hold property in the name of the Union the property shall be held in the name of trustees under the Rules of such bodies.

The funds of the Union may be invested in such securities as are permitted by the laws of any State of the Commonwealth for the investment of funds by trustees. Nothing in this sub-rule prevents the Union, a Division, a Branch or a Divisional Branch from entering into an agreement with a trade or industrial union or organisation of employees registered under any legislation of any State of the Commonwealth for the investment of funds on a joint basis or a basis on which the funds are held in common so long as the funds are treated, for all purposes, at least as funds of this Union or such of the funds as represent pro rata membership are so treated.

(vii) The funds or property of the Union, under the control of the National Office or Branch or Division or Divisional Branch in accordance with the rules of the Union, shall be under the control of the National Executive, or Branch or Division or Divisional Branch Committee of Management and/or Executive respectively.

24 - AUDITOR

The National Conference or National Executive shall appoint as auditor a competent person resident in the city in which the National Office is located who shall each year for the period ending 31 December audit the books and accounts of the Union and draw up a correct report on same.

The Auditor shall, in the report, draw attention of the National Executive to any deficiencies or other matters which the Auditor may think proper. The Auditor shall have full and complete access to all the books and documents of the Union.

For the purpose of this Rule a competent person shall have the same meaning as in the Industrial Relations Act and the Regulations made thereunder.

25 - ALTERATION OF RULES

(a) The rules of the Union, or any of them, may be altered, rescinded, varied or made by the National Conference and/or National Executive. Proposals for alterations of rules may be forwarded by Divisions, Branches or any member of the National Executive or delegate to the National Conference and shall be forwarded to members and/or delegates with the notice calling the National Conference or National Executive, as the case may be, or so soon thereafter as is practicable. Provided that National Conference or National Executive may, in session, alter rules of which previous notice has not been given.

(b) Alterations to rules may be made, at the discretion of the National Secretary, by postal, telegraphic, telephonic, facsimile, email, written and/or any other means of communication as a ballot of National Conference or National Executive. Such a rule change will have the same effect as a change made in a session of the National Conference or National Executive.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this rule, the rules of the union and/or any of them may be repealed, altered and added to by the National Executive Committee on its own initiative and without any reference to National Conference or National Executive for the purpose of bringing rules into compliance with the Industrial Relations Act (Commonwealth) or the regulations thereto or to facilitate, assist in or give effect to an amalgamation decided upon by National Executive or National Conference or to overcome objections taken to an application by the Union for an alteration to its rules, for amalgamation or for registration under the Industrial Relations Act.

(d) Provided that no rule change shall be effected without the approval of a Division, by either the National Conference, National Executive or National Executive Committee which affects the existence of that Division or interferes with its autonomy under these rules, including the internal structures of a Division.

26 - RULES BINDING ON MEMBERS, BRANCHES AND DIVISIONS

These National Rules and all the rules of the Union, and all alterations, additions or rescissions thereof or thereto, shall apply to and be binding on all Divisions, Branches, and Divisional Branches and all sections of the Union and on all members who now, or who may hereafter, belong to the Union until they are made or become null and void according to the law.

27 - DIVISIONS

(i) There shall be Divisions of the Union established, in accordance with the rules of the Union. Such Divisions shall be established on a basis of industry or occupation.

(ii) Each Division shall have autonomy to decide matters which do not directly affect the members of another division without any interference by any other body within the Union, including but not limited to:

(a) The industrial interests of its members.

(b) The election of officers within the Division.

(c) Matters arising from the Objects of the Division.

(d) Structure of the Division.

(iii) Each division shall have autonomy in relation to its funds and property.

(iv) Each Division shall have rules and have power to make, alter or rescind such rules, to be called Divisional Rules. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing paragraph, each Division shall have power to determine policy for that Division, not inconsistent with the rules and policy of the Union as decided by National Conference or National Executive.

(v) If there is any environmental matter that directly affects the employment of members of one Division only, then that Division whose members are so affected shall have the power to determine the policy of the Union on that matter.

(vi) Divisions shall, in accordance with their rules, have Branches along a geographic, occupational or area basis which branches of a Division will be called Divisional Branches and may have more than one divisional branch in a State or Territory divided on a geographic or occupational basis.

(vii) Any Division may, in accordance with their rules, allocate any Branch of the Union or any other Divisional Branch of any Division of the Union the responsibility for a Divisional Branch or part of a Divisional Branch where it is, in the opinion of the Division not appropriate or economic to establish and/or maintain a separate Divisional Branch in that area.

(viii) Where any Division allocates any of its Divisional Branches to a Divisional Branch of another Division, the latter Divisional branch shall pay capitation fees to and be represented by the first mentioned Division on the basis of the number of members so allocated.

28 - BRANCHES

(i) There shall be branches of the Union in the States of Queensland, New South Wales, Victoria, Tasmania, Western Australia, South Australia, and in the Australian Capital Territory, and in such other States or places as may be decided.

Such Branches shall have the function of co-ordinating Divisional Branches at a State or Territory level, dealing with matters affecting only that State and more than one Division and any other matter that Divisions or Divisional Branches agree should be dealt with by such Branch.

(ii) Branches may make alter or rescind By-laws, not inconsistent with the Rules of the Union.

(iii) A Branch shall be bound by

(a) the decisions of the National Conference,

(b) National Executive and,

(c) in relation to any matter affecting one Division only, a Divisional Executive;

and Branch Officers shall be bound by directions of the National Executive Committee.

(iv) Provided that in the case of a decision of one Division affecting in any way the operation of a Branch, the Branch may appeal to the National Executive.

29 - AGREEMENTS WITH STATE UNIONS

(i) The Union, any Branch thereof may make agreements under s.202 of the Industrial Relations Act with any State Union to the effect that members of the State Union shall be eligible for membership of this union.

(ii) The Union, any Division thereof, any Divisional Branch thereof, may take all and any step which, as a matter of practice or law, may overcome the separation of state unions from any section of this Union with the same or substantially the same members and may take all or any step, including amalgamation to effect one union in the industry or industries covered by this Union.

30 - AGREEMENTS

(a) Subject to these Rules, any agreement may be executed by a National Secretary and either a National President, the National Assistant Secretary or a National Vice-President.

(b) Any agreement which directly affects the employment or conditions of employment of members of only one Division shall be executed by that Division in accordance with its rules.

(c) Any agreement which directly affects the employment or conditions of employment of members of only one Divisional Branch may be executed by the Divisional Branch in accordance with its rules.

(d) Any agreement which directly affects the employment of members of only one Branch may be executed by the Branch in accordance with its rules.

31 - CLAIMS AND INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES AND PROCEEDINGS

(a) Claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests of the Union or any part thereof may be compiled, made, served and/or otherwise propagated by a National Secretary or National President or National Assistant Secretary or any person authorised by a National Secretary or National President or National Assistant Secretary so to do.

(b) A Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary or any person authorised by a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary may make, compile, serve and/or otherwise propagate a claim, logs of claim, demands and/or requests of the Union in so far as it affects members of the Division of which the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary is an officer. To avoid any doubt, such claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests may affect, directly or indirectly, members of another Division so long as they are persons who are eligible to be members of the Division from which the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary emanates.

(c) Any of the officers referred to in paragraph (a) or, subject to the limitations contained in paragraph (b) and the necessary changes being made, any of the officers referred to in paragraph (b), may submit, on behalf of the Union for conciliation or arbitration or both, or authorise the submission or institution on behalf of the Union, any claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests or any industrial dispute arising therefrom or any other industrial dispute howsoever arising on behalf of the Union or otherwise institute any proceedings whatsoever on behalf of the Union.

(d) This Rule has effect notwithstanding any other Rule of the Union or any Division thereof and no claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests, shall be invalidated, rendered void or otherwise treated as void or unauthorised if issued by a National President, National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary, Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary, or any person authorised by any such officers and shall be taken for all purposes and at all times to be claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests of the Union for all purposes. Provided that, the National Executive, National Conference or, in the case of a claim, logs of claim, demands and/or requests issued by a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary or on such officer's authorisation, the relevant Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive may rescind and/or withdraw such claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests and upon such decision of the National Conference, National Executive, Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive, as the case may be, the claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests shall be withdrawn and thereafter treated as if it were null and void.

(e) The National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary, National President, Divisional Secretary and/or Divisional Assistant Secretary shall have full power to transact all business and do or authorise all acts and things in connection with any dispute arising from any claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests, howsoever made and by whomsoever made and such officer may delegate such functions either generally or specifically.

(f) For the purpose of the above provisions, in the case of the Mining & Energy Division, any reference to Divisional Secretary shall be taken to be a reference to Divisional President or Divisional Secretary, any reference to Divisional Assistant Secretary be taken to be a reference to Divisional Senior Vice President and any reference to Divisional Executive be taken to be a reference to Central Council.

32 - REGISTERED OFFICE

The registered office of the Union shall be the Office of the National Secretary and shall be at 361 Kent Street, Sydney in the State of New South Wales, or such place as National Conference or National Executive shall decide.

33 - REGISTERED OFFICER

(i) Without limiting the powers conferred by any State or Commonwealth law, the union shall, while it remains corporate, sue and be sued by its corporate name and style.

(ii) The proper officer of the Union shall, for all purposes, be the National Secretary.

(iii) Nothing in this rule affects the operation of any other rule relating to the powers of a Division or Divisional Branch Secretary.

34 - DISSOLUTION

The Union shall not be dissolved unless all of the existing Divisions agree. Provided that a Division shall cease to exist wherever the number of financial members of that Division is reduced to less than one thousand (1,000) members.

Where a Division ceases to exist and the Union continues, the property of that defunct Division shall be vested in the Division to which the members of the defunct Division are allocated.

Where the Union is dissolved the property of the Union shall be vested in the trustees of each existing Division at the time of dissolution for the benefit of the members thereof on the basis that each such Division will continue to hold its own property and funds and any property or funds not vested at the time of dissolution in a Division shall be divided between the existing Divisions on a basis proportionate to the membership of each such Division.

35 - RECOVERY OF DUES

All claims for contributions, levies, fines, fees or liabilities of any kind due or payable to the Union by members may be sued for in the name of the Union by the National Secretary or by the Divisional Secretary, or Divisional Branch Secretary to which the member is attached, or by any other person or body authorised by the rules of the Union including the rules of any Divisional Branch or the Rules of any Division.

36 - LEVIES

(i) Levies may be imposed for the purpose of carrying out any of the objects of the Union and for assisting the members of this or any other Union or body having objects similar in whole or in part to those of this Union.

(ii) The amount of any levy shall be decided by a majority of the National Conference or National Executive and shall not exceed $50.00 and when so decided shall be binding on all members or sections of members as National Conference or National Executive may decide.

(iii) A Division or Divisional Branch may impose a levy on its members.

(iv) A levy may be of one specific sum, payable at one specific time, or may be for a weekly, fortnightly or monthly period, payable for a certain specific period.

All levies shall be added to contributions and shall be a first charge against all payments made by members of the Divisional Branch.

37 - VOTING OTHERWISE THAN AT MEETINGS ASSEMBLED

(a) If the National Secretary shall consider it advisable to submit any matter, including the imposition of a levy or the alteration or rescission of a rule, to a vote of National Conference or National Executive at any time when it is inconvenient to call National Executive or National Conference together, the National Secretary may submit a resolution dealing with the matter to the delegates or members, by letter, facsimile, telegram, telephone, email, in writing, by computer link and/or by any other means of communication.

(b) A copy of such resolution shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, be sent to each Branch Secretary and each Divisional Secretary. The votes on such resolution shall be returnable to the National Secretary at such time as the National Secretary shall fix. The result of such vote shall be binding and enforceable in the same manner as a decision arrived at in meetings assembled.

(c) Provided that where no record can be kept of the vote and/or decision, such a record shall be created and a copy of that record sent to each person entitled to vote or, in the case of computer linkages, the record is such that it can be viewed and/or copied by the person entitled to vote.

(d) No amendment shall be allowed on any such resolution, but if it is negative any delegate may request the National Secretary to submit in a like manner a further resolution bearing on the same matter. In the event of the National Secretary being requested to submit more than one such resolution, the order in which same shall be submitted shall be in the absolute discretion of the National Secretary.

(e) The National Secretary shall keep a register of names and addresses of members of the National Executive and delegates to National Conference from the names submitted by Divisional Branch Returning Officers, Divisional Returning Officers and the National Returning Officer and such register shall be conclusive evidence of the correct name and address of such members and/or delegates.

(f) Divisional Secretaries and Divisional Branch Secretaries (as the case may be) shall within fourteen (14) days of the election of delegates to National Conference and members of the National and/or National Executive Committee notify the National Secretary of their names and addresses.

38 - STANDING ORDERS

Motions - How Dealt With:

1. All motions shall be of an affirmative character and must be moved and seconded by delegates or members. Such motions become the property of Conference or Executive and can only be withdrawn by leave thereof. The discussion on any motion shall not exceed 60 minutes unless a majority of delegates or members present agree to an extension of time.

2. Unless a delegate or member rises to oppose a motion or propose an amendment thereto, the motion shall be immediately put to the meeting for decision.

3. A motion may be superseded at any time by another motion "that it be discharged from the agenda paper" or "that the next business be proceeded with" being resolved in the affirmative.

4. A motion may be amended at any time during the debate thereon always provided that the substance of the original motion be retained. If the amendment is carried it then takes the place of the motion.

5. Any number of amendments may be proposed and discussed with the motion. For the purpose of the debate the motion shall be the question before the chair. Amendments shall be put to the vote in the order in which they are received. If there is no further discussion, or if the motion "that the question be now put" is carried, the mover of the original motion may reply.

6. All motions shall be put to the meeting by the chairperson in a clear manner by asking for the "ayes" to vote first and then the "noes". The chairperson's decision as to which has the majority will be final unless a show of hands is called for. The chairperson shall then count the votes for and against the question.

   If the votes are equal the question is resolved in the negative.

7. A mover of a motion to be allowed 15 minutes to introduce and five minutes to reply. Other speakers 10 minutes unless a majority of the delegates or members present agree to an extension of time.

8. Right of Speaker: Any delegate desiring to speak shall rise and address the chairperson. If two or more delegates or members rise at the same time the chairperson shall call upon the one who, in the Chairperson's opinion, first rose. Provided that no delegates or members can speak more than once upon any question (which shall include the original motion and all amendments thereto) before Conference or Executive, except -

   (a) In reply as the mover of the original motion.
   (b) In explanation or correction of some matter during the debate.
   (c) Upon a point of order raised during the debate.
   (d) Upon a resolution being carried "that the delegate now be heard".

9. A delegate or member will not be held to have spoken who simply used the words "I second the motion" or "amendment", as the case may be; but for the purpose of debate shall be considered the second speaker in favour of the proposal seconded by that delegate or member.

10. No more than two delegates or members shall be allowed to speak for or against any question in succession. If at the conclusion of the second speaker's remarks no member rises to speak on the other side of the motion or amendment, it shall be put to the vote.

11. Any delegate or member speaking shall at once resume their seat -

   (a) If the chairperson rises to speak; or
   (b) If a point of order is raised.

   and shall not resume their speech until the point of order is decided.

12. No delegate or member may speak to any question after it has been put by the chairman or during the taking of the vote.

REPORTS

A report containing a recommendation may be discussed on a motion being moved for its adoption which, upon being carried, will signify the will of Conference or Executive thereon.

If the report contains any recommendation it shall be competent for a delegate or member to move a resolution arising out of and relative to the report to obtain the opinion of Conference or Executive on the matter.

ADJOURNMENT OF CONFERENCE OR DEBATE

A motion for the adjournment of Conference or Executive may be proposed at any time during the meeting thereof or for the adjournment of the debate, and shall be at once put to the meeting by the chairperson unless time is mentioned. An amendment to alter the time can be proposed upon a motion for adjournment only if time is mentioned as part of such motion and can apply thereto.

ADJOURNMENT OF STATED TIME

When a motion for the adjournment of a debate to any stated day or time has been carried, such motion shall not be abrogated unless with the consent of Conference.

CHAIRPERSON'S RULINGS

The chairperson's rulings on all points of order shall be final unless at the time a motion is carried that such ruling be disagreed with. When a motion to disagree with the ruling of the chairperson has been duly proposed and seconded, the chairperson shall leave the chair until the motion has been disposed of by Conference or Executive. The mover only shall speak to the motion and the chairperson may explain the reasons for the ruling given. The motion shall then be put to the meeting by the Vice-Chairperson.

SUSPENSION OF ORDER OF BUSINESS

It shall be competent by a majority vote of the delegates or members present for Conference or Executive to suspend the order of business.

SITTING AS A COMMITTEE

Conference or Executive may at any time, by a resolution agreed to by a majority of delegates or members present, resolve itself into a committee of the whole. The rules governing the business of Conference or Executive shall be observed when in Committee.

39 - ABSENTEE VOTING

If a member who is entitled to vote at any election held under these rules or any other rules of the union will be absent from their usual address during a ballot such member may apply to the Returning Officer for a ballot paper to be sent to them at an address which they nominate.

40 - MANNER OF SUMMONING MEETINGS

The National Executive, the State Executive, a Divisional Executive or a Divisional Branch Management/Executive Committee may, in their absolute discretion, summon meetings of members over which they have authority and/or responsibility from time to time.

If such meeting is called notice shall be given in a union journal circulating in the area covering the members to which the meeting relates or in a mass circulation daily newspaper circulating in the area in which the meeting is to be held and such publication shall be issued at least fourteen days before the date of the meeting. The notice of such meeting shall specify the day, the date, the time and the place of such meeting.

41 - SPECIAL RULE AND AMALGAMATIONS

For all the purposes of the Industrial Relations Act 1988, as amended, and, without limiting the generality thereof, for the purposes of amalgamation of this organization with other organizations, the National Executive shall, notwithstanding any other rule to the contrary, be the Management Committee and shall be authorised to take all steps to effect an amalgamation and alter any rules for that purpose.

A vote of the National Executive for the above or any other purpose may be taken by the National Secretary by telephone, facsimile, telex, post or other means of delivery of written text, or orally, or any combination thereof and such vote shall be an effective and binding decision of the National Executive.

The National Executive is empowered to delegate to any officer the task of implementing such amalgamation.

42 - TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

(i) Upon Amalgamation

On and from the date of amalgamation there shall be five (5) Divisions of the Union, being the Building Unions Division, the ATAIU Division, the UMW Division, the FEDFA Division and the FFTS Union Division. The Building Unions division shall be the former BWIU/Plasterers Division together with members and officers of the OPDU.

The Building Unions Division shall consist of those persons eligible and continuing to be eligible for membership of the union under Rule 2 (A) and (B), the ATAIU Division shall consist of those persons eligible and continuing to be eligible for membership of the Union under Rule 2 (C), the UMW Division shall be those persons eligible for membership and continuing to be eligible for membership of the union under Rule 2 (D) and the FEDFA Division shall be those persons eligible for membership and continuing to be eligible for membership of the Union under Rule 2 (E). The FFTS Union Division shall consist of all persons eligible and continuing to be eligible for membership of the Union under Rule 2(F) including all former members of the previously registered FFTS.

While the FFTS Union Division continues its separate existence, the demarcation between the FFTS Union Division and the other Divisions of the CFMEU shall be in accordance with the above demarcation on the basis of the status quo and custom and practice of coverage as it existed between the previously registered The Federated Furnishing Trade Society of Australasia and the CFMEU including therein demarcation disputes which have been determined by either State or Federal industrial authorities. Where any disagreement occurs between the FFTS Union Division and any other Division of the Union the matter shall be referred to the National Executive which shall determine the demarcation appropriate but such determination shall be based on the principles enunciated in this paragraph.

(ii) Upon amalgamation no person who was previously a member of either the CFMEU or OPDU or FFTS shall be liable for any entrance fee over and above the entrance fee already paid by such financial members.

(iii) After Amalgamation

Subject to any changes made by unanimous decision of the National Executive Committee, following amalgamation, there shall be a restructuring of the Divisions on the following basis:

(a) There shall be created a restructured Mining and Energy Division which shall consist of all members of the union eligible to be members under Rule 2 (D) and all members, including members eligible under Sub-Rules 2 (A), (B), (C) and (E) employed in the Mining, Exploration and Energy Industries and all members employed in the County of Yancowinna:

(b) There shall be created a Forestry and Forest, Building Products Manufacturing Division (herein after referred to as the Forestry Division) which shall consist of all members of the union eligible to be members under Rule 2 (C) and all members, including members eligible under Sub-rules 2 (A), (B) and (E) employed in the following sectors of the industry (or occupations within them):

Forest and forest products industry,

Pulp and paper industry,

Timber and building related manufacturing industry including joinery, wall frame/roof trusses, furniture, aluminium windows, glass window manufacturing and any other sectors of manufacturing activity as agreed to between the ATAIU and the Building Unions and FEDFA Divisions of the union.

This sub-rule up until April 3rd 2000 shall be read subject to the agreement entitled CFMEU Forestry Division and CFMEU Construction & General Division Translation Agreement dated September 2nd 1998.

(c) There will be a Construction and General Division which shall consist of all members of the union employed in or in connection with the Construction industry (including shopfitting) and all other members of the Union not referred to in sub-rules (iii) (a) (b) and (d) herein.

(d) deleted

(iv) The transfer of members from any Division to any other Division in accordance with the restructuring proposals in sub-rule (iii) herein, shall be on terms as agreed to by the Divisions concerned in the transfer and sub-rule (iii) shall be used as the basis of an agreement.

(v) In the event of further amalgamations other Divisions may be established.

(vi) deleted

(vii) deleted

(viii) deleted

(ix) deleted

(x) Upon restructuring in accordance with this rule and on the transfer of members from one Division to any other Division an agreed number of officers of the Division from which the members are from shall transfer with such members, such officers to be agreed between the respective Divisions prior to transfer.

(xi) In any restructuring of any Division within the union the principle to be applied shall be that any officer or officers who, by agreement, are transferred to a Division from another Division as representative of or in conjunction with members so transferred shall be allocated positions on the appropriate decision making bodies of the Division of which such transferred Officer becomes a member. The determination of a position or positions referred to in this sub-rule shall have regard to the classifications and number of members transferred to a Division and the structure of the decision making bodies of the Division established in accordance with these Rules.

(xii) deleted

(xiii) deleted

(xiv) In this rule the CFMEU shall, where the context permits, mean the new CFMEU being the amalgamated organisation the Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union and where not otherwise permitting shall mean the old CFMEU being the Construction Forestry and Mining Employees Union prior to amalgamation.

FEDFA where it is not referring to a division of the amalgamated organisation shall mean The Federated Engine Drivers' and Firemens' Association of Australasia.

OPPWF shall mean The Operative Plasterers' and Plaster Workers' Federation of Australia.

UMFA shall mean the formerly registered United Mineworkers' Federation of Australia.

ATAIU where not referring to a division shall mean the formerly registered Australian Timber and Allied Industries Union.

Qld shall mean Queensland.

BWIU where not referring to a division shall mean the formerly registered The Building Workers' Industrial Union of Australia.

NSW where appearing shall mean New South Wales.

WA where appearing shall mean Western Australian.

SA where appearing shall mean South Australian or South Australia as the context permits.

FFTS means, where it is not accompanied by the term "Union Division", The Federated Furnishing Trade Society of Australasia.

OPDU shall mean "The Operative Painters and Decorators Union of Australia".

BLF shall mean "The Australian Building Construction Employees and Builders Labourers' Federation".

(xv) (a) Where an amalgamation has occurred, on or after the amalgamation day, all assets and liabilities of the deregistered organisation or of an association with which a merger takes place shall cease to be assets and liabilities of that organisation or association and become assets and liabilities of this Union.

(b) For all purposes and in all proceedings, an asset or liability of a deregistered organisation or association existing immediately before the date upon which the amalgamation took effect is taken to have become an asset or liability of this Union on that day.

(c) All agreements existing at the respective dates of amalgamation and/or merger of all unions which have amalgamated to form the CFMEU shall be binding on the CFMEU on the basis that the CFMEU shall, to the extent possible, fulfil the obligations and obtain the benefits through the Division of the Union corresponding to the Union that entered the agreement, or, where there is no corresponding Division, corresponding to the Division into which the amalgamated union has merged. Any reference to any such agreement to any union which has or shall amalgamate and/or merge with this Union shall be taken to be a reference to this Union operating through the Division or Divisional Branch corresponding to the former union or into which the former union has merged. Any reference to any officer or body in the former union shall be taken to be a reference to the same officer or body in the Division corresponding to the former union or into which the former union has merged. Any reference herein to the term "agreement" shall include, and be deemed always to have included, any instrument as defined in the Industrial Relations Act, 1988.

(d) For the purposes of the above and in accordance with the scheme of amalgamation in relation to each past amalgamation, the following shall be the rights and obligations of the Divisions and shall be deemed always to have been the case:

* The United Mineworkers Federation of Australia shall be and be deemed always to have been a union that corresponds to the UMW Division and/or the Mining and Energy Division;

* The Australian Timber and Allied Industries Union (ATAIU) shall be and be deemed always to have been a union that corresponds to the ATAIU Division and/or Forestry Division;

* The Federated Engine Drivers and Firemen's Association of Australasia shall be and be deemed always to have been a union that corresponds to the FEDFA Division;

* The Operative Plasterers and Plaster Workers Federation of Australia shall be and be deemed to be a union which has merged into what is now called the Building Unions Division of the CFMEU and any reference to an officer of the OPPWF shall be and be deemed always to have been always a reference to the corresponding office in the Building Unions Division, i.e. Federal Secretary shall be read Divisional Secretary, Branch shall be read as Divisional Branch, Branch Secretary shall be read as Divisional Branch Secretary in each case of the Divisional Branch of the Building Unions Division relevant thereto, etc.;

* The Federated Furnishing Trades Society of Australasia shall be and be deemed always to have been a union which corresponds to the FFTS Division of the CFMEU;

* The Operative Painters and Decorators Union of Australia shall be and be deemed to be a union which has merged into the Division now called the Building Unions Division of the CFMEU and any reference to the Operative Painters and Decorators Union of Australia shall be deemed to have been and be a reference to the CFMEU, Building Unions Division. Any reference to an officer or body of the OPDU shall be read as a reference to the office or body of the Building Unions Division of the CFMEU equivalent thereto, e.g. Federal Secretary shall be read as Divisional Secretary, Branch shall be read as Divisional Branch, Branch Secretary shall be read as Divisional Branch Secretary, Branch Assistant Secretary shall be read as Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary, etc.

* The Builders Labourers Federation shall be and be deemed to be a Union which has merged into the Division now called The Construction and General Division of the CFMEU and any reference to the Builders Labourers' Federation shall be deemed to have been and be a reference to the CFMEU, Construction and General Division.

(e) Where, after amalgamation there is more than one officer holding a position to which a reference is made in any instrument, as defined in the Industrial Relations Act 1988, the body or bodies within the Union to which the officer answers shall, unless the context of the instrument otherwise necessitates, decide which of the number of officers shall exercise the functions, rights and/or responsibilities referred to in the instrument. For example, where the reference is by virtue of the foregoing provisions to a Divisional Officer at the national level, the Divisional Executive shall decide which of the number of officers filling the positions shall exercise those functions, rights and/or responsibilities. Where the officer is, in accordance with the above, a Divisional Branch officer, the Divisional Branch Management Committee (or its equivalent) shall decide which of the number of officers shall exercise the functions, rights and/or responsibilities given to that officer in any such instrument.

(xvi) (i) Any reference in this Rule to BWIU/Plasterers Division or Building Unions Division shall, where the context permits, be taken to be a reference to the Construction and General Division;

(ii) Any reference in this Rule to ATAIU Division shall, where the context permits, be taken to be a reference to the Forestry Division;

(iii) Any reference in this Rule to UMW Division shall, where the context permits, be taken to be a reference to the Mining & Energy Division.

42A - Divisional Restructuring (FEDFA)

1. Notwithstanding any other Rule of the Union to the contrary, the process of restructuring may be completed in steps which steps may deal with one Division at a time, Divisional Branches within a Division and/or the Divisional Office of any particular Division.

2. In relation to the above, the FEDFA Division shall be restructured in steps which shall involve:

(a) The abolition of full-time Divisional Officers at a national level and the allocation of responsibility for the FEDFA Division between the Building Unions Division and the UMW Division;

(b) The allocation of full-time Divisional Officers of the FEDFA Division to the Building Unions Division and the UMW Division;

(c) The continued operation of the Divisional Branches of the FEDFA Division with the intent, over time, of the restructuring of said Divisional Branches in accordance with Rule 42, into the Building Unions/Construction and General Division, UMW/Mining & Energy Division and the ATAIU/Forestry Division;

(d) The payment of capitation fees by FEDFA Divisional Branches to a designated fund which shall be administered by the Divisional Secretary of the FEDFA Division or, if or when that Office is abolished by the former Divisional Secretary and the Divisional Secretaries of the Building Unions and/or Construction and General Division and the UMW and/or Mining and Energy Division.

(e) The continued meeting of the Division Executive of the FEDFA Division for so long as is necessary before the complete restructuring of the FEDFA Division is effected in accordance with Rule 42.

3. On and from 27 September 1993, in accordance with the above procedure, the current Divisional Secretary of the FEDFA Division shall be and become the Divisional President of the Building Unions Division and the current Divisional Assistant Secretary of the FEDFA Division shall be and become a Divisional General Vice-President of the UMW Division and upon translation in accordance with Rule 42 (iii), shall hold the corresponding offices in the Construction and General Division and the Mining & Energy Division respectively.

4. The current Divisional Secretary and Divisional Assistant Secretary of the FEDFA Division shall continue to hold those positions in the FEDFA Division on an honorary basis until such time as the FEDFA Division no longer meets on a national basis.

5. This Rule shall come into force after its adoption by the National Executive and agreement thereto by the FEDFA Divisional Executive, UMW Divisional Executive and Building Unions Divisional Executive and thereupon shall be registered with the Australian Industrial Registry and shall take effect upon registration, or 27 September 1993, whichever is the later.

6. Further to the above provisions, and notwithstanding any other rule of the Union to the contrary, during the process of restructuring, any Divisional Branch of the FEDFA Division may reach agreement with any or all of the UMW Division/Mining & Energy Division and/or the Building

Unions Division/Construction and General Division and/or the Forestry Division or the relevant Divisional Branches thereof to transfer members and officers of the FEDFA Division to any and/or all of the other aforementioned Divisions. Such agreement shall be reached with the approval of the Management Committee or its equivalent in each Divisional Branch and the officers concerned. Any such Divisional Branch may reach agreement on some or all of the matters relating to such transfer and, failing agreement on any or all of such matters, refer the matters by agreement to the National Executive for decision. Until such time as there no longer exists an FEDFA Division in accordance with the Rules of the Union, all such officers transferred shall, notwithstanding the holding of positions in other Divisions, continue to hold the office or position in the FEDFA Division on an honorary basis and shall, to the extent that the Rules require same, continue to perform the functions associated with that office in relation to the FEDFA Division. All agreements in relation to the transfer of members and officers shall be notified to the National Executive Committee and attached to the Minutes thereof. Such agreements shall have force and effect in accordance with the terms thereof and from the date of effect of that agreement as specified in that agreement, or failing any specification thereof, on the date of the agreement.

7. The following table shows the restructuring of the FEDFA Division, merging with the appropriate Union Division to create Industry Divsions:

(i) On and from 31 March 1994 the Australian Building Construction Employees and Builders Labourers Federation and, to the extent legally possible, the Australian Builders' Labourers' Federated Union of Workers - Western Australian Branch, the Australian Building and Construction Workers' Federation, the Australian Building, Construction Employees and Builders' Labourers' Federation (Queensland Branch) Union of Employees shall merge with and/or amalgamate with and/or into the CFMEU and become an integral, inseparable and inseverable part of the CFMEU and the Building Unions Division thereof.

(ii) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger in paragraph (i) herein, all assets and liabilities of the Australian Building Construction Employees and Builders' Labourers' Federation (the BLF) shall merge with the assets and liabilities of the CFMEU to be held and controlled in accordance with the rules of the CFMEU, by the Building Unions Division and/or Divisional Branches created by the Rules of the Union and shall be treated as if such assets and liabilities were, at all times, the assets and liabilities of the CFMEU. Such funds shall to the extent that prior to 31 March 1994 they were funds under the control of a BLF Branch, except in the case of the BLF Victorian Branch, be and become funds under the control of the respective Construction Labourers' Divisional Branch established consequent upon these Rules and, otherwise held by the Building Unions Division as Divisional Funds.

(iii) For all purposes and in all proceedings, an asset or liability of the BLF existing immediately before the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger is taken to have become and to have become and to have been at all times an asset or liability of the CFMEU on and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger. Provided that any liability of BLF Federal Fund to any Branch Fund or vice versa shall continue to be a liability of the Division or Divisional Branch Funds respectively.

(iv) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger an instrument in which the BLF is mentioned (other than the Builders' Labourers' Federation Cancellation of Registration Act, 1986 and the Builders' Labourers' Federation (Cancellation of Registration - Consequential Provisions) Act, 1986) continues in full force and effect. The instrument has effect, in relation to acts, omissions, transactions and matters done, entered into or occurring on or after the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger as if a reference in the instrument to the BLF were a reference to the amalgamated organisation. Provided that any instrument which is inconsistent with the Rules of the CFMEU shall have no force and effect except in so far as it prejudices the rights of a bona fide purchaser for value without notice.

(v) All officers of the CFMEU and BLF shall take all such steps as are necessary and/or desirable to ensure that the amalgamation and/or merger is fully effective including that holding of all necessary meetings, the passage of all necessary resolutions, the making of all necessary applications and the execution of all necessary documents to give effect to this agreement.

(vi) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger any and all members of the remaining branches of the BLF, if not already members of the CFMEU, shall be and become members of the CFMEU and be treated in the CFMEU as if all of the period of their membership in the BLF was membership in the CFMEU (except as otherwise provided for in the specific rules dealing with the merger in the rules of the Building Unions Division).

(vii) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger there shall be a National Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers) with the same status and standing as any other Senior Vice-President and whomsoever occupies the position of Divisional Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers) shall be the National Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers).

42C - AMALGAMATION WITH FBTPU

(i) On and from the date of amalgamation with the Federated Brick Tile and Pottery Industrial Union of Australia ("the FBTPU"), and notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 13(ii) herein, the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall be entitled to two delegates to National Conference, one of whom shall be the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary and the other shall be the Industry Divisional Branch President.

(ii) On and from the date of amalgamation with the FBTPU, the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary of the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall, ex officio, be a member of the National Executive of the CFMEU.

(iii) Delegates to the National Conference and National Executive of the Union from the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall, for the purposes of determining the vote which they are entitled to exercise on those bodies in accordance with Rule 13(iii) herein, be taken to have derived from the Construction and General Division and shall be counted as members of the Divisional Executive of that Division.

(iv) On and from the date of amalgamation, the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall be entitled to two delegates to the Divisional Conference of the Construction and General Division, one of whom shall be the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary and the other shall be the Industry Divisional Branch President (Honorary) of the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch.

(v) On and from the date of amalgamation, the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary of the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall, ex officio, be a member of the Divisional Executive of the Construction and General Division of the CFMEU.

(vi) The provisions of this rule shall not be altered or amended by the National Conference or National Executive or the Construction and General Division, Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive, whilst ever the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch exists, without the consent of the Management Committee of the Industry Divisional Branch.

42D - DIVISIONAL RESTRUCTURING (FFTS)

1. Notwithstanding any other Rule of the Union to the contrary, the process of restructuring may be completed in steps, such steps may deal with one Division at a time and/or Divisional Branches within a restructured Division at a time.

2. In relation to the above, the FFTS Division shall on and from the 11th February 2002, be restructured in the first instance into the Forestry Division to form "The Forestry, Furnishing, Building Products and Manufacturing Division" (FFPD) which shall result in:

   (a) The abolition of full-time FFTS Divisional Officers at a national level and the allocation of responsibility for the FFTS Division to the restructured Division.

   (b) The allocation of Divisional/Branch Office Holders of the FFTS Division to the Office Holders positions of the restructured Division.

   (c) The continued operation of the Victorian and Queensland Divisional Branches of the FFTS Division within the restructured Division of up to four years beyond the expiration of the eight years referred to in sub-rule 42(xii). This sub-rule shall not otherwise affect the operation of sub-rule 42(xii). For the avoidance of doubt, the four years referred to in this sub-rule shall expire on 26 March 2005.

3. Further to the above provisions and notwithstanding any other rule of the Union to the contrary, the FFTS Victorian Branch shall unless otherwise agreed by the FFTS Victorian Branch Management Committee maintain its current structure and existence within the restructured Division up until 26 March 2005.

4. Prior to the 26 March 2005, the FFPD (which shall include representatives of the former FFTS Division) and the Construction & General Division (which shall include representatives from the National Office and all interested Branches) will meet under the chairpersonship of the National Secretary of the CFMEU to reach agreement to finalise translation/integration provisions intended by the respective Schemes of Amalgamation and the Rules of the Union in respect to the Forestry, FFTS and C&G Divisions.

5. Should agreement not be reached between the Divisions the matter shall be referred to the CFMEU National Executive to determine in accordance with the Schemes of Amalgamation and Rules of the Union.

6. Until the elections scheduled to be held in August 2004 the FFPD shall be constituted and represented as follows:-

(a) Divisional Conference shall consist of:-

7. This rule shall come into force on and from 11 February 2002 in accordance with the unanimous decision of the National Executive and shall be registered with the Australian Industrial Registry.

BRANCH RULES

43 - NAME

The name of the branch shall be the "Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union, X Branch" where X is the State or Territory for which the Branch has been established.

44 - MEMBERSHIP AND CONSTITUTION

All members of all Divisional Branches within the State or Territory shall be members of the Branch with the same status of membership as is held in the Divisional Branch.

45 - SEAL

The seal of the Branch shall be oval in shape, inscribed on the outer edge "Construction Forestry, Mining and Energy Union" and the name of the Branch on the inside.

46 - STATE CONFERENCE

(i) The supreme governing body of the Branch shall, subject to the autonomy of the Divisional Branches, be the State Conference convened every two (2) years and especially in accordance with these Rules.

The State Conference shall meet no later than 30 December in the year following the elections in the Divisional Branches, being the general election and at least every two (2) years thereafter.

(ii) The State Conference shall consist of all of the members of each and every Divisional Branch Management Committee for every Divisional Branch of the Union within the State or Territory covered by the Branch.

(iii) Persons elected as members of a Divisional Branch Management Committee shall be elected in accordance with the Rules of the Union applicable to the particular Divisional Branch.

Nothing in this sub-rule shall interfere with the transitional provisions which shall take effect on and from amalgamation.

Each member of a Divisional Branch Management Committee shall exercise a vote on the State Conference equal to the percentage of financial members of the Union in the Divisional Branch from which the member derives divided by the number of members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee entitled to vote.

Provided that nothing in this sub-rule shall prevent proxy voting or multiple voting.

(iv) The method of calculation of financial members of any Divisional Branch shall be in accordance with Rule 13 of the National Rules of the Union, the necessary changes, if any, being made.

(v) Members of the Divisional Branch Management Committees or State Conference shall remain in office until the election of their successors.

(vi) Divisional Branches may, where elected Divisional Branch Delegates to State Conference agree, arrange multiple voting representation at a State Conference by notifying the State Conference of the number of Divisional Branch Delegates to be credentialed and the arrangements for proxy voting to be adopted by that Divisional Branch at the State Conference.

(vii) Where a delegate is unable to attend a meeting of the State Conference or any part thereof, that delegate may where the Divisional Branch Executive agrees appoint another elected delegate to State Conference from the same Divisional Branch as proxy to act in that delegate's stead.

Where the Divisional Branch Management Committee agrees, a delegate may appoint as the proxy to State Conference an elected delegate from another Divisional Branch within the State or Territory covered by the Branch. Each member of the Divisional Branch Management Committee shall be a delegate to the State Conference.

(viii) A majority of delegates to State Conference, representing not less than two Divisions, shall form a quorum of the State Conference.

(ix) (a) The State Conference shall have power, unless any rule deprives the State Conference of power or grants to another body within the area covered by the Branch exclusive power over a subject matter, to do all things necessary and/or desirable for the furtherance of the objects of Union, to co-ordinate Divisional Branches within the branch area and for the care, control and management of the Branch.

(b) The function of the State Conference shall be to coordinate the Divisional Branches in the area concerned and shall have the powers, subject to these Rules, necessary for that purpose and shall, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(A) perform such functions referred to it by the Divisional Branches.

(B) affiliate to any body for and on behalf of any Divisional Branch, or with the agreement of each Divisional Branch for and behalf of the Branch as a whole;

(C) Supervise the funds, if any, paid to the Branch office by Divisional Branches;

(D) Subject to the review of its actions by Divisional Executives and National Executive, settle disputes between Divisional Branches.

(c) Provided that the State Conference shall not have power over any matter which concerns the members of one Divisional Branch only unless that Divisional Branch consents thereto.

(x) Meetings of the State Conference and State Executive shall be held at such time and place as shall be decided by at least one State President and one State Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the State Executive may demand a meeting of such State Executive or State Conference which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members in such demand. The quorum for any meeting shall be three (3) a majority of the State Officers may demand a meeting of the State Executive which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such State Officers.

47 - STATE EXECUTIVE

(i) There shall be a State Executive composed of the full time elected officers, (other than organisers except where otherwise provided for in these rules), of each Divisional Branch within the Branch area, one of whom shall be the State President, another of whom shall be a State Senior Vice President, another of whom shall be the State Secretary and another of whom shall be State Assistant Secretary, provided that where a Division has more than one Divisional Branch in an area, the Division will determine its representation. The President of each Divisional Branch shall, if not otherwise a member of the State Executive, be such a member.

(ii) The State Executive shall have and exercise all of the powers of the State Conference, subject to the review thereof by the State Conference, but shall have no more powers than State Conference.

Any decision of the State Executive may be overturned by the State Conference and all decisions of the State Conference shall be binding on the State Executive.

(iii) The State Secretary may take a telegraphic, telex, facsimile, telephonic, written and/or postal vote of members of the State Executive or State Conference at any time.

Members of the State Executive or State Conference shall be advised of the details of the voting. Such votes shall have the same effect as a decision of such body made in meetings assembled.

(iv) The State Executive shall be held at such time and place as shall be decided by the State Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the State Executive may demand a meeting of such State Executive or State Conference which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members of the State Executive. The quorum for any meeting shall be a majority of the members entitled to vote thereat.

There shall be a State Executive meeting held before the meeting of State Conference in the year following the general elections of the Union.

(v) All decisions of the State Executive shall be made by a majority of votes cast at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules. The votes cast by members of the State Executive shall be on a card system and the value of the vote cast by any member of the State Executive, including State Officers, shall be determined in the same way, the necessary changes being made as the value of a vote cast by delegates to the State Conference with State Officers being included in the Division from which they derive.

48 - ELECTION OF STATE OFFICERS

(i) The State Officers, being the State Secretary, the State Assistant Secretary, the State President and the State Senior Vice-President shall be elected by and from the State Conference. The election shall be held, the necessary changes being made, in the same way as Divisional Officers are elected from the Divisional Conference under Rule 9 of the Construction & General Division Rules, provided that each Division shall be represented by at least one State Officer.

Provided that for the A.C.T. Branch (while that Branch has only one Divisional Branch) Officers elected to the Construction & General Division A.C.T. Branch, shall hold the equivalent position within the A.C.T. State Branch.

Further provided that, each Division shall hold at least one position of Joint Vice-President.

Further provided that, each Division, prior to the calling for nominations, shall decide its nominees for the above positions, by resolution from that Division's Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(ii) Where, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, an officer of a Divisional Branch within a Branch area ceases to hold office as an officer of the Divisional Branch such officer shall at the same time cease to hold office as a State officer in accordance with this rule. Provided that the member who replaces such a Divisional Branch officer in the office in the Divisional Branch shall also fill the vacancy created in the position of State officer only until such time as the State officer's position can be filled in accordance with the rules governing casual vacancy, or, if the vacancy occurs within 12 months of an ordinary election, by the ordinary election.

(iii) The term of office of officers of a Branch of the union shall be four (4) years.

49 - FUNDS OF THE BRANCH

(i) Each Divisional Branch in the area covered by the Branch of the Union shall pay to the Branch on a basis which is proportionate to the respective financial membership of each Divisional Branch, an amount that is determined by the State Executive as sufficient to enable it to fulfil its functions.

(ii) All moneys received by the Branch shall be paid to the credit of the Branch on current account with a bank. No funds shall be drawn from the Bank except by cheques signed by two (2) persons who are the State Secretary, State Assistant Secretary or State President and not from the same Divisional Branch.

(iii) All expenditure for ordinary purposes, namely incurred in directly furthering the objects of the Branch or in the expenses of management, may be dispersed by decision of the State Secretary and either the State President or State Assistant Secretary, provided that both signatories shall not be officers from the one Division.

Expenditure for other purposes authorised by the Rules may be disbursed by a majority decision of the State Conference or the State Executive.

(iv) The funds of the Branch shall be invested where possible in the name of the Branch. Where it is not possible to invest money or funds in such name, the investment shall be made in the name of Trustees under these Rules.

Nothing in this Rule prevents the Branch from entering into an agreement with a Trade or Industrial Union or organisation of employees registered under any legislation of any State of the Commonwealth for the investment of funds on a joint basis or on a basis on which the funds are held in common or jointly so long as the funds are treated, for all purposes, insofar as they relate to members of the Branch, as funds of the Branch.

(v) The property of the Branch, vested in the Branch in accordance with these rules and the other rules of the Union, shall be under the control of the State Executive.

(vi) In Western Australia no decision of the WA Branch shall adversely affect the Building Unions Division WA Plasterers Divisional Branch in relation to funds or any other matter without the consent of that Divisional Branch.

50 - AUDIT

The State Executive shall appoint as Auditor a competent person resident in the city in which the State Office is located who shall each year for the period ending 31 December audit the books and accounts of the Branch and draw up a correct report on same.

The Auditor shall, in the aforesaid report, draw attention of the State Executive to any deficiencies or other matters which the Auditor may think proper. The Auditor shall have full and complete access to all the books and documents of the Branch.

For the purpose of this Rule a competent person shall have the same meaning as in the Industrial Relations Act and the Regulations made pursuant thereto.

51 - OFFICERS

(i) The Officers of the Branch shall be the State President/s, the State Secretary, the State Senior Vice President, the State Vice President/s, the State Assistant Secretary/s and members of the State Executive.

(ii) And such rights and duties shall, the necessary changes being made, be the same in relation to the Branch concerned as the rights and duties of National Officers and National Executive Members are in relation to the Union as a whole.

52 - REFERENDA

(i) On a decision of a majority of Divisional Branches in the Branch area or Divisional Branches in a Branch area whose membership constitutes a majority of the members of that Branch, or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10% of the financial members of the Branch, the State Executive shall take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Branch upon a matter or matters submitted by the Divisional Branches or by the petition.

A decision reached by the majority of the actual votes recorded at such referendum shall be binding on the Branch, including the State Conference and State Executive thereof, and the members thereof provided that the decision shall not affect the autonomy of any Division.

(ii) The State Executive or State Conference may at any time of its own motion take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Branch or of the whole of the financial members of the Branch upon any matter it thinks fit.

(iii) The referendum referred to in this Rule shall be conducted on the basis that the State Executive shall determine the question to be submitted to the members entitled to vote and the form of the ballot paper, fix the time for the dispatch and return of the ballot paper and give the necessary instructions for printing the same, appoint a State Returning Officer and State Scrutineer in conjunction with Divisional Branch Returning Officers to conduct the ballot, no material other than that authorised by the State Conference or State Executive shall be enclosed in the envelope in which the ballot paper is posted to the member and in all other respects the referendum shall be held as nearly as practicable in the manner provided for the holding of election of Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference in accordance with Rule 17 (iii) except that the roll of voters shall be the financial membership at the end of the calendar month immediately preceding the holding of the referendum.

53 - RULES OF THE BRANCH

(a) The Rules of the Branch contained herein shall be binding on all Divisions and all members thereof. Such Rules may be altered, rescinded, varied or made by the National Conference and/or National Executive in accordance with Rule 25 of the National Rules.

(b) The State Conference and State Executive shall have power to make alter and rescind by laws for the working of the Branches, any Sub-Branches and any other matter over which such Branch has control under these or any other rules.

Provided that no such by laws shall be inconsistent with any other rule of the union and shall, to the extent of any such inconsistency, be void and inoperative.

54 - VOTING OTHERWISE THAN AT MEETINGS ASSEMBLED

Rule 37 of the National Rules of the Union shall apply, the necessary changes being made, to the Branch and the State Secretary shall in the same way as provided for the National Secretary under Rule 37 of the National Rules, take a vote of the State Executive or the State Conference in any manner whatsoever.

Such vote shall have the same effect in relation to the Branch as a vote taken under Rule 37 of the National Rules has in relation to the Union.

20. To raise political levies, donate to and/or affiliate with political parties and to partake in conciliation and/or arbitration systems in the States and for that purpose to have branches, divisions or divisional branches registered in the States.

5 - DEFINITIONS

In these rules, unless the contrary intention appears:

"UNION" shall mean this Union and shall include all its Divisions, Branches, Divisional Branches and/or any other section or part of the Union.

"DIVISION" shall mean a division of the Union established under these Rules or by the National Executive or National Conference and shall, as far as practicable, be on industry or occupational lines.

"BRANCH" shall mean a Branch of the Union established in accordance with these rules or by the National Conference or National Executive of the Union and shall cover a geographic area.

"DIVISIONAL BRANCH" shall mean a geographic branch established under Divisional Rules by a Division established in accordance with these rules. Provided that some such divisional branches may be on occupational and geographic bases.

"FINANCIAL MEMBER" shall mean any member who has paid all subscriptions, fines, levies and dues in accordance with the Rules of the Union.

"MEMBER" shall mean a member of this union, male or female.

"NATIONAL COLLEGIATE" shall mean the totality of delegates from all Divisions to each Divisional Conference.

"PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION" shall mean a system of representation at Committees, Conferences, Executives or the like which, as far as practicable, will provide for voting on a basis which reflects the number or percentage of financial members, as calculated in accordance with these rules, that each person on such Committee, Conference, Executive or the like, represents.

"DISTRICT" AND "SUB-BRANCH" AND "ZONE" where used in the Rules of the Union shall mean sectors of a Divisional Branch of the Union.

"RULES OF THE UNION" means all of the Rules of the Union as read and construed in totality while "NATIONAL RULES" shall refer to these rules, "BRANCH RULES" shall refer to the Rules of any Branch of the Union established under the Rules of the Union, "DIVISIONAL RULES" shall refer to the Rules of any Division established in accordance with the Rules of the union, and "DIVISIONAL BRANCH RULES" or "DIVISIONAL DISTRICT BRANCH RULES "shall refer to the rules of Divisional Branches, being a branch of a Division, established in accordance with the Rules of the union.

"MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE" and/or "EXECUTIVE" shall be synonymous and shall mean the controlling and administrative body of the organ so referred to, ie Division or Branch or Divisional Branch.

"PREFERENTIAL VOTING" shall mean a system of voting in which the voter shall place the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom they vote as first preference and shall place the number 2, 3, 4 (and so on, as the case requires) in the squares opposite the names of all the remaining candidates so as to indicate the order of preference for them.

In a ballot by the preferential system the valid ballot papers shall be separated into separate parcels, each such parcel containing all those papers on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate.

If on the first count a candidate receives an absolute majority of first preference votes of total valid votes cast then that candidate shall be declared elected.

If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the candidate with the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded and the ballot papers on which a first preference is indicated for such candidate shall be counted to the remaining candidates next in the voters' order of preference.

If a candidate has then an absolute majority of votes then that candidate shall be elected, but if no candidate then has a majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and the distribution of the vote preferences shall continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.

In cases where more than one position is to be filled the numbers placed opposite the candidates' names up to the number of positions to be filled shall be first preference votes and the procedure in respect to the distribution of preferences shall be the same as is above prescribed where a ballot is for a single position.

The candidate or candidates as the case may be, who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

"GENERAL ELECTIONS" shall mean the elections held every four years commencing in 1996 office to be taken on 2 January 1997 in accordance with the Rules of the Union, with the exception of the Mining and Energy Division, where office will be taken 1 July 1996.

"PLURAL/SINGULAR" every reference in these rules to the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.

6 - SEAL

(i) The Seal of the Union shall be oval in shape inscribed on the outer edge "Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union".

(ii) The Seal shall be kept in the custody of the National Secretary.

(iii) Any document required or permitted by the Workplace Relations Act to be under seal shall be executed on behalf of the Union by affixing the Seal of the Union thereto and by being signed by the National Secretary or in the absence of the National Secretary, either the National President or National Assistant Secretary.

(iv) Any document otherwise required by law to be under seal shall be executed by affixing the Seal of the Union thereto and by being signed by the National Secretary and either the National President or National Assistant Secretary.

7 - MEMBERSHIP

(i) A candidate for membership of the Union may make application to the National Secretary, the Division covering the occupation or industry in which the person is employed, the Branch covering the area in which the person is employed or resides, or the Divisional Branch covering the industry or occupation in which the person is employed, usually employed or desirous of being employed and the area in which the person resides or is employed, and such application shall be made and dealt with in the manner and subject to the conditions including conditions as to any probationary period required by the rules of the Division. Any application shall be forwarded to the office in the appropriate division which under the rules of that division deals with such applications. The decision to accept or reject that application shall be made in accordance with the Rules of that division by that office. Provided that where a person makes application to any officer of the Union that application shall be a valid application for membership of the Union and the Union shall, treat the member as a member of the Division to which the officer is attached, until transferred in accordance with the rules.

(ii) Candidates shall supply such information as to their identity and occupation, and such other particulars as to their eligibility for membership and the benefits of membership as the Rules of the Union may require, and shall, when requested, fill in and sign such application form as may be provided.

(iii) (a) Any application for membership may be referred to the National Executive by the Division, or Divisional Branch to whom application is made or by the member.

(b) Where in any case the admission to membership of the person applying is rejected, such person shall have the right to appeal to the National Executive, whose decision shall be final.

(iv) A member shall be attached to the Division of the Union covering the industry or employment of the member and shall be in only one such Division. Each member shall be notified of the Division to which such member is attached or any other classification relevant to the Rules of the Union and such Division or classification shall be entered on the record of the Union in relation to that member which record shall be conclusive proof of the Division and/or classification to which that member is assigned.

(v)(a) Notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in the Rules of the Union no application for membership of the union shall be void or irregular only for the reason that the form of application is not fully completed or completed at all, or that some other form of application is used, or any other procedure under the Rules has not been complied with provided that the person intended to, and did in fact, in some way or other, apply for membership and the Union treated the person as a member. A member may be transferred to another Division, Branch or Divisional Branch without loss of continuity of membership. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a person who, at the time of application for membership was not eligible to be or become a member, shall be and become a member as soon as the person is eligible to be and become a member or earlier if by any Act, law or other Rule the membership is otherwise validated provided that the person performs an act which evidences an intention to be or become a member. For all purposes the payment of union dues in whole or in part shall be taken to be, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a method by which a person intended to, and did in fact, in some way or other, apply for membership and/or evidences an intention to be or become a member.

(b) Without affecting or detracting from the requirements of sub-rules 42(iii) and 42(xii) and without limiting the rights of the member or a Division, Divisional Branch or authorised officer thereof, to seek or obtain a transfer of Division or Divisional Branch in accordance with the rules, no membership of the Union and no membership or attachment to a Division, Branch or Divisional Branch of the Union shall be invalidated, void or otherwise treated as irregular on account of the member being attached to a Division, Branch or Divisional Branch which, in accordance with the Rules, may not be the correct Division, Branch or Divisional Branch provided that the member was eligible for membership of the Union and the member was aware of the Division, Branch or Divisional Branch to which the member was attached. Every member of the Union who, on the records of the Union, is financial and is, on those records, attached to a Division, Branch or Divisional Branch shall be treated for all purposes as a financial member thereof and shall be entitled to all rights and required to comply with all obligations which attach thereto until transferred in accordance with the Rules.

(vi) Any Division or Branch or Divisional Branch may utilise for the purposes of application form for membership of this Union, an application form used for any previously registered organisation of employees which has become, upon amalgamation, part of this Union or any application form utilised jointly or otherwise with any trade union of employees registered under any legislation of a State or Territory.

(vii) A member shall, when applying for membership be informed of the financial obligations arising from membership and the circumstances, and the manner, in which a member may resign from the organisation and shall be informed of such in writing.

(viii) (a) Where a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary is of the view that a person in the Division or Divisional Branch of which she/he is an officer should be attached to another Division or Divisional Branch the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary shall contact the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary of the Division or Divisional Branch to which, in the view formed, the member should be attached, and seek to obtain agreement on the transfer of the said member. Where agreement cannot be reached the matter may be referred to the National Secretary and be determined by the National Executive or an officer designated by the National Executive.

(b) Further provided that where a Divisional Secretary or a Divisional Branch Secretary forms the view that a member of another Division or Divisional Branch ought to be a member of the Division or Divisional Branch to which the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary is attached, the Divsional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary shall contact the the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch to which the member is now attached and seek agreement that the member be transferred. Where agreement cannot be reached the matter may be referred to the National Secretary and be determined by the National Executive or an officer designated by the National Executive.

(c) In relation to the two immediately foregoing paragraphs contact between Divisions and/or Divisional Branches in relation to these issues may, by custom and practice or by agreement, be dealt with by an officer other than the Divisonal Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary or may be dealt with by members of staff. Where a member is transferred or determined to be transferred in accordance with either of the immediately preceding paragraphs the member shall be notified accordingly and the transfer shall be effective 14 days after the notification to the member. Within that period the member may object to said transfer and such objection will be determined by the National Executive. Pending such objection the member shall nevertheless be transferred in accordance with any of the aforesaid agreements and/or determinations.

(d) Any determination by the National Executive or officer designated by the National Executive shall use the principles established in and by sub-rules 42(i) and 42(iii) hereof.

Nothing in these paragraphs shall affect or detract from the provisions of subrule(s) 42(i), (iii) and (xii) and membership of a Division or a Divisonal Branch shall be valid notwithstanding an irregularity in, breach of or failure to comply with the procedures in either one or both paragraphs (a) or (b) herein.

8 - ENTRANCE FEES AND CONTRIBUTIONS

(i) Entrance fees and contributions payable by any person on application to join the union and/or for membership or continuous membership of the Union shall be in accordance with the Rules of the division to which, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, the person or member is to be or is assigned.

(ii) Any member who has failed to pay the entrance fees, or contributions, levies and fines imposed in accordance with the rules of the union on or before the date specified in such rules, shall be deemed to be unfinancial, and shall not be eligible to receive any benefits, participate in any deliberations, propose or second any new applicant for admission or exercise any authority or any membership rights, provided that the rules may provide that some members or some class or classes of members may vote in a ballot and/or may differentiate between classes of members as to the amount of any contribution and/or entrance fee.

(iii) A member shall be deemed to be financial immediately upon payment of all arrears outstanding.

(iv) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in Rules 7 and 8 of these National Rules or any Divisional Rules to the contrary, the Union may reach agreement with any organisation of employees, trade union, industrial union or organisation, whether incorporated or otherwise or whether registered under a law of the Commonwealth, State or Territory or unregistered (herein referred to as an "association"), which agreement may provide for automatic membership of this Union for members of any such association and may provide for the receipt and holding of moneys jointly or in common by the aforementioned association and this Union and conversely the automatic membership of members of this Union in such an association.

(b) The Union may, by agreement or unilaterally, grant to any class of members, who are members of another association of a kind referred to in paragraph (a) hereof, membership and waive the requirement to pay an entrance fee and/or contributions in whole or in part.

(c) Nothing in this Sub-Rule shall render eligible for membership any person not otherwise eligible for membership of the Union under the eligibility Rules or pursuant to S.202 of the Industrial Relations Act, or any other provision of that Act or any Act amending or replacing same. Further, "automatic membership" when used in this Sub-Rule shall mean membership granted to a member free of the payment of any entrance fee and contribution in circumstances where the person applying for membership has signified an intention to become a member or having been notified that membership would be granted unless objected to, has not signified objection to that membership.

9 - CLEARANCES

(i) A member desiring to transfer to any other union covering their calling shall make application to the Divisional Branch Secretary, or where the rules of the union so provide, Divisional Sub-Branch, in writing, and shall pay all dues owing to the union, and the transfer will be forwarded to the Secretary of the union to which the member desires to transfer. Such member shall cease to be a member of this Union as from the date on which the transfer is forwarded to the Secretary of such other union.

(ii) Any member of a kindred trade union, or any union whose Awards cover workers specified in Rule 2 of the rules of the union, may be admitted to membership on production to the Divisional Branch Secretary, or where the rules of the Division so provide, the Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District Secretary, of a clearance from such union showing that all dues, contributions and levies payable to such union have been paid. The membership of a person so admitted shall commence as from the date of the production of their clearance. The rules of the Union may provide for persons who had been members of any Division or Divisional Branch of this Union to be admitted without entrance fees or other special conditions.

(iii) A clearance shall not be granted to any member unless all moneys owing have first been paid.

10 - TRANSFERS

(1) A member attached to any Divisional Branch of any Division who is working within the area covered by another Divisional Branch may be transferred to the latter Divisional Branch. The member shall apply to the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch, or where the Divisional Branch rules so provide, of the Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District to which the member was attached for a clearance, and provided the member is financial, the Divisional Branch or Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District Secretary shall forward to the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch to which the member desires to be transferred, the clearance. A member shall be deemed to be attached to the new Divisional Branch as from the date of the receipt of the clearance by the Divisional Branch Secretary of such Divisional Branch, or where the Divisional Branch rules so provide, by the secretary of the Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District, and the member's length of membership of the new Divisional Branch shall be the length of the latest period of membership of the Union.

11 - RESIGNATION OF MEMBERS

(1) A member may resign from membership of the Union by a written notice addressed and delivered to the Divisional Branch Secretary or other officer of the Divisional Branch authorised to receive such correspondence.

(2) The notice of resignation will take effect where that member,

(a) ceases to be eligible to become a member of the Union:

(i) on the day on which the notice is received by the Union; or

(ii) on the day specified in the notice, which is a day not earlier than the day when the member ceases to be eligible to be a member;

whichever is later; or

(b) in any other case:

(i) at the end of 2 weeks after the notice is received by the Union; or

(ii) on the day specified in the notice;

whichever is later.

(3) All contributions and or levies due in relation to the period before the members resignation took effect are to be paid. Where the member fails to do so the Union may prosecute such member in the appropriate court for the recovery of that amount.

(4) A notice delivered to the person mentioned in sub-rule (1) shall be taken to have been received by the Union when it was delivered.

(5) A notice of resignation that has been received by the Union is not invalid because it was not addressed and delivered in accordance with sub-rule (1).

(6) A resignation from membership of the union is valid even if it is not effected in accordance with this rule if the member is informed in writing by or on behalf of the union that the resignation has been accepted.

12 - REGISTER OF MEMBERS

A register of members and any other records of the Union required to be kept by the Industrial Relations Act and the Regulations made thereunder shall be kept at the registered office of the Union and so far as such records relate to a Division or Divisional Branch at the registered office of that Division or Divisional Branch.

13 - SUPREME GOVERNING BODY IN UNION

(i) The supreme governing body of the union shall be the National Conference convened every two (2) years or specially in accordance with these National Rules.

(ii) The National Conference shall consist of all of the members of each and every Divisional Executive for every Division of the Union. Provided that existing elected officers of the National Executive who are retiring from office and who have not been re-elected as members of their Divisional Executive shall be entitled to attend the National Conference until their successors are elected and shall be entitled to all rights of a conference delegate other than nominating and voting on any matter. Further provided that, if not otherwise a delegate to National Conference by virtue of this sub-clause, members of the National Executive entitled to attend and vote thereat shall, ipso facto, be delegates to the National Conference and treated, in all respects, as delegates in the same way as a member of the Divisional Executive and for the purposes of sub-rule (iii) of this Rule be treated as a member of the Divisional Executive from the Division of which such person is a member. Further provided that any person not entitled to attend and/or vote at their Divisional Executive by virtue of the Rules of the Division shall not be entitled, notwithstanding any of the foregoing in this sub-rule, to attend and/or vote at National Conference.

(iii) Persons elected as members of a Divisional Executive shall be elected in accordance with the rules of the Division. Nothing in this sub-rule shall prevent the filling of a vacancy between ordinary elections or interfere with the transitional provisions which shall take effect on and from amalgamation. Each such member of a Divisional Executive shall exercise a vote on the National Conference equal to the percentage of financial members of the Union in the Division from which the member derives divided by the number of members of the Divisional Executive entitled to vote. Provided that nothing in this sub-rule prevents proxy voting or multiple voting.

(iv) The percentage of financial members belonging to any Division shall be the sum of the percentages of financial members of the Divisional Branches within that Division.

For the purposes of this rule, the percentage of financial members of any Divisional Branch shall be calculated by dividing the total income received by the Divisional Branch from contributions only, by the amount of contributions fixed for ordinary members for that Divisional Branch and determining that number as a percentage of total membership of the Union calculated in the same way. This calculation shall be performed for the first six month period of the financial year preceding the year in which the National Conference is held.

(v) Members of Divisional Executives and National Conference shall remain in office until the election of their successors.

(vi) Should any member of a Divisional Executive die or resign or should there be, for any other reason whatsoever, a vacant position as delegate or member to Divisional Executive and/or National Conference, the Divisional Branch Executive of the Divisional Branch in which the vacancy would otherwise be filled may forthwith cause an election for another member or, where the unexpired part of the term for that office until the next general elections does not exceed three quarters of the ordinary term of office, the Divisional Branch Executive may appoint a delegate to such Divisional Conference to be the member or delegate from or of the Divisional Branch in place of the member or delegate who is deceased or has resigned or to fill the position otherwise left vacant. Provided a person appointed by a Divisional Branch Executive in the manner mentioned herein shall hold office only for the residue of the period until the next general elections.

The method of such election or appointment shall be the same, the necessary changes being made, as the method of election or appointment (as the case may be) of the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch from which the vacancy is to be filled in accordance with the rules of the Divisional Branch.

(vii) Divisions or Divisional Branches may, where elected Divisional Branch delegates or members to or of National Conference agree, arrange multiple voting representation at a National Conference by notifying the National Conference of the number of divisional delegates or members to be credentialed and of the arrangements for proxy voting to be adopted by that Division or Divisional Branch at the National Conference.

(viii) Where a delegate is unable to attend a meeting of the National Conference or any part thereof that delegate may where the Divisional Executive agrees appoint another elected delegate to National Conference from the same Division as proxy to act in that delegate's stead. Where the Divisional Executive agrees, a delegate may appoint as the proxy to National Conference an elected delegate from another Division. Each member of the Divisional Executive shall be a delegate to the National Conference.

(ix) Six delegates, representing not less than two Divisions, shall form a quorum of the National Conference.

(x) The National Conference shall have power, unless any rule deprives the National Conference of power or grants to another body within the Union exclusive power over a subject matter, to:

(a) take such steps as it shall think fit to carry out all or any of the objects of the Union and to raise or spend such funds as are necessary to carry out the objects;

(b) decide the general policy of the Union and to take steps to enforce the carrying out of such policy;

(c) subject to the rules prescribing the procedure to be followed, impose penalties being fines not exceeding the sum of $100, suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office, on officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates, for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules of the Union or decisions of the National Conference or the National Executive.
Provided that:

* a copy of the rules of the Union of which there is an alleged breach, and/or the decisions of National Conference or National Executive of which there is an alleged breach are available to members at each Branch office;

* no penalties shall be imposed unless the officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting; particulars are given in the summons of the offence alleged (including the time and places alleged that the offence was committed); and that person charged is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in their own defence, including an opportunity to cross examine and to give and call evidence. Nothing in the preceding rule requires the procedures of court. A period of suspension imposed under this rule shall not exceed six (6) months;

(d) hear and decide any appeal from the National Executive or any Divisional Branch, or Branch or member. Any appeal from a member must be forwarded through the Divisional Branch Committee. Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard;

(e) settle disputes between Divisions;

(f) deal with and decide any matter submitted to it by any Division or Branch of the Union;

(g) confirm, overrule or otherwise deal with decisions of the National Executive;

(h) establish Divisions of the Union;

(j) exercise all or any of the powers of the National Executive;

(k) subject to Rule 25, make alter and rescind any of the Rules of the union, including Branch Rules, Divisional Rules and Divisional Branch Rules;

(l) confer life membership on a member of the Union.

(xi) A National Conference shall be held not later than twenty four (24) months after each general election of the Divisional Branch delegates to National Conference and at such place and time as the National Executive shall decide.

(xii) The business to be dealt with by National Conference shall be shown on the agenda paper, but matters may be added to the agenda paper if agreed to by a majority of delegates at the National Conference. Any matter appearing on the agenda paper may be amended by the National Conference.

(xiii) Notice of every National Conference, together with a copy of the agenda paper therefore shall be posted by the National Secretaries to each Divisional Secretary and each Branch Secretary one calendar month before the date of such meeting, or where agenda items have not been finalised one calendar month before the meeting then they shall be sent at the earliest practicable time.

Notice shall also be posted to all delegates so as to give them at least the notice provided for herein.

(xiv) A copy of the Minutes containing all decisions and business of the National Conference shall be forwarded to each Divisional Secretary and to each Divisional Branch Secretary within two (2) months of the conclusion of each National Conference. Any member of the Union may, upon request to the Divisional Branch Secretary, inspect a copy of the minutes of each National Conference at the Divisional Branch Office or Divisional Office during the ordinary hours in which the Divisional Branch or Division is open.

(xv) The National Secretary on receipt of resolutions from a majority of Divisions or from Divisional Branches representing a majority of members or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10% of the financial members of the Union calling for a special Conference shall call such Conference within thirty (30) days. Each Division, Divisional Branch and delegate to National Conference shall be advised by letter of National Conference business fourteen (14) days prior to the date of the Conference so fixed. The National Executive may direct the National Secretary to call a special conference at any time. Divisions, Divisional Branches and delegates to National Conference shall be given seven (7) days' notice if practicable. Notice shall be given by letter, facsimile, telegram or telex.

Notwithstanding anything contained in any other rule, the National Executive may direct the National Secretaries to conduct a postal, telephonic, telegraphic, telex, verbal and/or written vote (or combination thereof) of delegates to National Conference to obtain a decision on any matter.

14 - NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

(i) The National Executive Committee shall consist of the National Principal Officers, being the National Secretary of the CFMEU, the Divisional Secretary of the Construction and General Division, the Divisional Secretary of the Forestry, Furnishing, Building Products and Manufacturing Division, the General President of the Mining and Energy Division; together with the fulltime elected Officers of each Division who are fulltime at the National level and are not already one of the aforementioned National Principal Officers; two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries of the Forestry, Furnishing, Building Products and Manufacturing Division, one of whom shall be the Principal Officer of the Pulp and Paper Industry Sector and the other of whom shall be the Principal Officer of the Furnishing Industry Sector; and the Divisional President, and two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries of the Construction and General Division if not otherwise included.

(ii) The National Executive Committee shall, subject to the review of its actions by the National Executive, have the care, control, superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business, national funds of the Union and without limiting the generality of the foregoing it may:

(a) interpret and enforce the general policy of the Union as decided by National Executive and/or National Conference.

(b) decide questions of policy not covered by the National Executive and/or National Conference decisions.

(c) control and conduct the business and affairs of the Union while the National Executive or National Conference is not in session.

(d) Expend such moneys by way of ordinary expenditure as may be necessary.

(e) Submit any matter to the National Executive for decision.

(f) Control and supervise the work of the National Officers of the Union.

(g) All decisions of the National Executive Committee shall be made by a majority of the members present at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules.

(iii) Meetings of the National Executive and National Executive Committee shall be held at such time and place as shall be decided by the National President and the National Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the National Executive may demand a meeting of such National Executive which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members of the National Executive. The quorum for any meeting shall be six (6). A majority of the National Officers may demand a meeting of the National Executive Committee which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such National Officers. The quorum for any meeting of the National Executive Committee shall be four (4).

(iv) The National Secretary may take a telegraphic, telex, facsimile, telephonic, email, written and/or postal vote of members of the National Executive or National Executive Committee at any time. Members of the National Executive or National Executive Committee shall be advised of the details of the voting. Such vote shall have the same effect as a decision of such body made in meetings assembled.

(v) Notice of meetings may be given by letter or telegram or telex or facsimile or email or otherwise in writing or by telephone or verbally, provided that in the latter two instances such is confirmed by letter or telegram or telex or facsimile or email.

15 - NATIONAL EXECUTIVE

(i) There shall be a National Executive composed of the National Executive Committee, as defined in these rules, and the principal officer of each Divisional Branch of the Union that is not otherwise a member of the National Executive Committee. Provided that any such Principal Officer of a Divisional Branch shall not be entitled to attend and/or vote at any meeting of the National Executive or vote on any issue before the National Executive if such Principal Officer is not entitled to attend and/or vote, in that capacity, the Divisional Executive of the Division to which the Divisional Branch is attached.

(ii) The National officers shall be elected, except in the case of any vacancy occurring or arising between general elections, by and from the National Collegiate in 1994 and every subsequent four (4) years thereafter and shall hold office until their successors are elected.

(iii) Following the Divisional Conferences in 1993 and the Divisional Conferences following the general elections every four years thereafter the National Executive shall appoint a person as Returning Officer, who shall not be the holder of any office in, and shall not be an employee of, the Union or of any Division, Branch, Divisional Branch or any section of the Union. Such Returning Officer shall have the conduct of the election of the National Officers in accordance with these Rules.

(iv) The National Executive shall, unless its actions are overturned by the National Conference, have the care, control, superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business, national funds and property of the Union and shall have and may exercise no more and no less than all of the powers of the National Conference and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing may:

(a) Interpret and enforce the general policy of the union as decided by National Conference.

(b) Control and conduct the business and affairs of the union while National Conference is not in session.

(c) Appoint the editor of any national union journal and manage and control the policy of such journal.

(d) Hear and decide any appeal from any Division or Branch. Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

(e) Settle disputes between Divisions or Branches. Any Division or Branch concerned shall be given reasonable notice of the meeting and an opportunity of being heard before any settlement is effected.

(f) Expend such moneys by way of ordinary expenditure as may be necessary.

(g) Submit any matter to the members for decision by ballot.

(h) Ensure that officers, committee members, delegates or members and Divisions and Branches carry out the rules and decisions of the Union and subject to Rule 19 impose penalties [i.e. fines not exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars], suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office, upon any officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules or the decisions of the National Conference or the National Executive.

Provided that the rules, the decisions of National Conference or the National Executive are available to members in the minutes of the National Conference or the National Executive and the registered rules of the Union at each Branch office. No penalty shall be imposed unless -

* The officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting seven (7) days prior to the meeting;

* Particulars are given in the summons of the offence alleged, including the time and place it was alleged the offence was committed;

* The member is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in the member's own defence, including an opportunity to cross-examine and to give and call evidence.

Period of suspension imposed under these rules shall not exceed six months.

(j) Subject to rules relating to the autonomy of divisions, take such action as may be necessary to secure the satisfactory working of any Division or Branch or Divisional Branch in the event of the affairs of that Division, Branch or Divisional Branch being so conducted as to affect the proper functioning of the Union, as a registered organisation, or as to make the Union liable for a breach or breaches of the Industrial Relations Act. Subject to Rule 19 herein, such action may include the suspension or dismissal of all or any members holding positions in, or for, a Division or Branch and the appointment of a member of the National Executive or any other member or members of the Union to conduct the affairs of the such Division, Branch or Divisional Branch.

(k) Control and supervise the work of the National Officers of the union.

(l) All decisions of the National Executive shall be made by a majority of the votes cast at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules. The votes cast by members of the National Executive shall be on a card system and the value of the vote cast by any member of the National Executive, including National Officers, shall be determined in the same way, the necessary changes being made as the value of a vote cast by delegates to the National Conference with National Officers being included in the Division from which they derive. Provided that in the calculation of votes cast by members of the National Executive herein, no member of the National Executive who is not entitled to attend and/or vote at the National Executive meeting shall be included as a member for the purposes of the aforesaid calculations.

(m) A loan, grant or donation of an amount exceeding $1,000 shall not be made by this Union unless the National Executive -

(a) has satisfied itself -

* that the making of the loan, grant or donation would be in accordance with the other rules of the Union; and

* in relation to a loan - that, in the circumstances, the security proposed to be given for the repayment of the loan is adequate and the proposed arrangements for the repayment of the loan are satisfactory; and

(b) has approved the making of the loan, grant or donation.

(n) Subject to Rule 25, make, alter and rescind any of the rules of the Union, including Branch Rules, Divisional Rules and Divisional Branch Rules;

(o) Affiliate to any body on behalf of the Union, or, if any Division objects to any affiliation to affiliate on behalf of those Divisions which do not so object;

(p) appoint representatives of the Union to any body;

(q) to affiliate to the Australian Council of Trade Unions and appoint representatives thereto on the basis of proportional representation of each Division.

(r) confer life membership on a member of the Union.

(v) All acts and decisions of the National Executive shall have full force and effect and full validity unless and until such acts or decisions are reversed or amended by the National Executive or the National Conference.

16 - ELECTION OF NATIONAL OFFICERS

(i) The National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary and National President shall be elected by and from the National Collegiate, namely the delegates to all of the Divisional Conferences of the Union and the ballot for such positions shall be a secret postal ballot of delegates to all Divisional Conferences conducted, the necessary changes being made, in accordance with Rule 17 of these rules.

Provided that, for Divisions with more than one Divisional Branch, each Division shall be represented by at least one Officer.

Further provided that, for Division with more than one Divisional Branch, each Division shall hold at least one position of Joint Vice President as follows:

* Joint Vice President (Construction and General Division)
* Joint Vice President (FFPD Division)
* Joint Vice President (Mining & Energy Division)

Further provided that, each Division, prior to the calling for nominations, shall decide its nominees for the above positions by resolution from that Division's National Conference.

Further provided that there shall be a Principal Officer of the FFPD Division representing the former FFTS Division who shall be a National Senior Vice-President. Such officer shall be and remain a member of the National Executive and the National Executive Committee.

Further provided that the Construction & General Division Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers) shall be a National Senior Vice-President and shall be and remain a member of the National Executive and National Executive Committee.

Further provided that the Construction & General Division Senior Vice-President (former National Secretary of the OPDU) shall be a National Senior Vice-President and shall be and remain a member of the National Executive and National Executive Committee.

All full-time officers of each Division, not otherwise elected to any of the foregoing positions, shall be and remain members of the National Executive Committee.

(ii) If the nominations are equal to the number of positions to be filled the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare candidates elected. An officer shall not hold more than one position on the National Executive or National Executive Committee.

(iii) If there are more candidates than the number required for filling the office/s the Returning Officer shall prepare voting papers and conduct the ballot.

(iv) The Returning Officer shall declare the result of the ballot as soon as the count is completed. In the event of a tie, the Returning Officer shall determine the result by declaring a candidate who currently holds the office being contested being elected, should no candidate currently hold the office the Returning Officer shall declare the result by casting lots.

(v) Except in so far as any Act from time to time provides otherwise, whenever any member has been declared elected to any office the member declared to be elected to such office, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity which may have occurred in or in connection with the calling for and dealing with nominations or the conduct of a ballot shall be recognised as validly holding such office.

(vi) A National Executive member and National Executive Committee member and National Officer shall hold office until a successor to such person is elected.

(vii) (a) Where a vacancy occurs in any office under these rules for any reason whatsoever including but not limited to the death, resignation, retirement or dismissal of any officer, such vacancy may be filled by appointment by the Divisional Executive to which the office or officer relates provided that the person so appointed shall hold office for as much of the unexpired part of the term of the office as does not exceed the greater of twelve months or three quarters of the term of the office.

(b) Where the unexpired part of the term of office exceeds that specified in this sub-rule, the Returning Officer shall conduct an election of delegates to all Divisional Conferences to fill the vacancy and the person elected shall hold office for the remainder of the term of office.

(c) Such election shall, the necessary changes being made, be in accordance with Rule 17 (iii) hereof.

(viii) The Returning Officer in any election shall declare the result to members of the National Executive and may do so by post, letter, telegram, telephone, telex, facsimile and/or verbally as soon as the count is completed.

(ix) Provision to be made for the representatives of Divisions to cast votes proportionate to the membership of the respective Division in any ballot for the election of National Officers.

17 - ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO DIVISIONAL CONFERENCES

(i) The method of electing Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall be in accordance with the Rules of the Division every four (4) years in conjunction with the Divisional Branch elections. Such election shall be by direct ballot of the financial members of each Divisional Branch.

(ii) When an election is required to be conducted by these rules the Divisional Branch Executive shall appoint a Divisional Branch Returning Officer who shall not be the holder of an office in and shall not be an employee of, the Union or of any Division, Branch, Divisional Branch or sub-Branch or section of the Union.

(iii) Except in the case of the Mining & Energy Division elections for Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference shall be in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) The method of electing Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall be by secret postal ballot of the whole Divisional Branch financial members entitled to vote in such elections, which shall be held every four (4) years in conjunction with the Divisional Branch elections.

(b) When an election is required to be conducted by these rules the Divisional Branch Executive shall appoint a Divisional Branch Returning Officer who shall not be the holder of an office in and shall not be an employee of, the Union or of any Division, Branch, Divisional Branch or sub-Branch or section of the Union.

(c) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall have the conduct of such elections in accordance with these rules. Where practicable such election to be conducted in conjunction with Divisional Branch election of Officers.

(d) A Divisional Branch Returning Officer may, at any time in writing, resign his or her position and shall resign if they desire to become a candidate at any elections held under the rules of the Union.

Any casual vacancy of a Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall be filled by the Divisional Branch Executive.

(e) Nominations for the position of Divisional Branch delegates of the Divisional Conference shall be called for by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer by notification in the union journal or in one daily newspaper circulating in the capital city in each Branch on or before the last day of August of every fourth (4th) year commencing as on and from the last day of August 1996.

Provided that such advertisement shall clearly indicate that the Divisional Executive and full time Divisional Officers are elected by and from members of the Divisional Conference, that the members of the Divisional Executive make up the National Conference and that National Officers are made up of the principal officers of each Division.

(f) Any member of the Divisional Branch who is financial at the time nominations are called and has had not less than three years financial membership of the Union may nominate for the position of Divisional Branch delegate to Divisional Conference.

For the purpose of this rule and for the purpose of all provisions of the rules of the union relating to financial membership and the length of financial membership or length of membership, membership of an organization amalgamating with the union or which has amalgamated with the union shall be counted for all purposes as membership of the union and financial membership of this union or a union amalgamating with this union for all purposes. This provision relates to all rules of the Union relating to the membership, or length of financial membership, or length of continuous membership in the Union or in any Division thereof.

(g) Any member desiring to nominate for the position of Divisional Branch delegate to Divisional Conference shall apply either personally or in writing to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer for a nomination form. Such forms shall be signed by the candidate and by two financial members and forwarded by certified mail to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer or handed personally at the Divisional Branch office or, in the case of an election conducted by the Australian Electoral Commission, at the office nominated by it, and a receipt thereupon obtained.

Nominations shall be closed at 4pm on the last Friday of September 1996 or such other date as may be provided for in any Divisional Rules, and each four (4) years thereafter following that date. Nominations must be received by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer by that time on that date to be eligible.

A member having nominated for any office in accordance with this Rule may withdraw the nomination by notifying the Returning Officer in writing of an intention to do so at any time up to seven (7) days after the closing of nominations. The Returning Officer on receipt of a notification from a member wishing to withdraw a nomination shall immediately take the appropriate steps to withdraw the member's name from the ballot papers prior to their distribution.

(h) Candidates may include with their nomination form a statement or joint statement not exceeding 200 words containing only the candidate's personal history and only the candidate's policy statement or joint statement.

(i) Officers of all Divisional Branches holding such office at the date of amalgamation shall remain in office until the general election of officers held in 1996 and shall be eligible to nominate in that election. In this paragraph officers of all Divisional Branches shall mean officers of branches of the amalgamating unions being the persons listed in the schedule hereto.

(j) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall examine all nominations to ensure that they are in order and if any nominations are found to be defective the Divisional Branch Returning Officer, before rejecting the nomination, shall notify the person concerned of the defect and where practicable to do so give them the opportunity of remedying the defect within a period of not less than seven (7) days after being so notified.

(k) If at the closing date for nominations only sufficient nominations have been received by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer to fill any vacancy or vacancies the Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall thereupon declare the person or persons so nominating elected and supply forthwith a report of the declaration of the ballot to the Divisional Conference and candidates by submitting a Divisional Branch Returning Officers report to the National, Divisional, Divisional Branch, and Branch Secretaries.

(l) If all nominations are received and there are more nominations than there are vacancies the Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall conduct a draw for positions on the ballot paper and shall notify candidates of the time and place of the draw in sufficient time for a candidate or their nominee to attend the draw; such attendance shall be at the candidate's own cost and expense.

(m) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall forthwith have printed ballot papers in sufficient quantities to enable them to supply a ballot paper for each member eligible to vote in the election and secure a certificate from the printer as to the number printed.

(n) Such ballot papers shall have printed thereon only the title of the office to be filled, method of voting and the name of the candidates for such office and a space for the required vote to be registered, provided however that where more than one candidate is required to be elected the number to be elected shall be printed on the ballot paper. The position of the names of each candidate on the ballot paper shall be in order of the draw of positions for that ballot.

(o) Where a ballot is required, the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch concerned shall provide, within thirty five (35) days of the closing of nominations, a certified list of financial members entitled to vote to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer.

(p) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall on a date which will enable the ballot paper to be posted not later than fourteen (14) clear days before the closing date of the ballot, send by either certified mail or prepaid ordinary mail to each member eligible to vote in the election an envelope addressed to such member at their address appearing on the list of members eligible to vote supplied to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer by each Divisional Branch Secretary, and that envelope shall contain only the following documents:

(a) a ballot paper initialled by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer in respect of each office to be filled at the election for which the member is eligible to vote;

(b) an empty unsealed pre-paid post envelope addressed to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer, c/- the numbered mail box referred to in this rule;

(c) such printed instructions necessary for the completion of each of the ballot papers enclosed in the said envelope and any other instructions that the Divisional Branch Returning Officer may consider necessary;

(d) The candidates statement provided for in accordance with sub-rule (iii) (h) hereof.

(q) For the purpose of the election the books of the Divisional Branches shall be deemed to have closed as at 30th September. Only members who are shown in the records at the office of the Divisional Branch as having paid all contributions, levies and fines as at the 30th September shall be entitled to vote. Provided that any member who at any time prior to the closing of the ballot satisfies the Divisional Branch Returning Officer that they have paid all contributions, levies and fines prior to the 30th September shall be entitled to receive a ballot paper.

(r) The opening date of the ballot shall be at the 2nd day of November and the closing date shall be noon on the 16th day of November in each year in which the ballot is held. All ballot papers shall be returned to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer, c/- the post office box named on the reply envelope. The post office box to which the ballot papers are returned shall be hired by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer prior to the dispatch of the ballot papers or if a box has been previously used by the union, the officer shall cause the lock to be changed.

(s) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall collect the returned ballot papers from the post office box and deposit them in a ballot box kept at the post office or at the office of the Australian Electoral Commission until the commencement of the count of the ballot.

(t) At the conclusion of the ballot the ballot box shall be picked up by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer at a time reasonable notice of which has been given to the Scrutineers and taken to the Divisional Branch rooms or to the office of the Australian Electoral Commission and be opened in the presence of the Scrutineers and counting shall then proceed. If it is necessary to interrupt the count for any purpose the papers shall be sealed in the ballot box to which any seals may be fixed by a Scrutineer.

(u) Any candidate at their own expense, may appoint a financial member of the union to act as their Scrutineer by notification in writing to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer. Any Scrutineers so appointed may be present at any stage of the counting of the ballot provided that the Divisional Branch Returning Officer is also present.

(v) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall proceed to count the ballot on the preferential system provided for in this rule, and the candidate or candidates receiving the necessary quota shall be declared elected. The counting of the ballot shall commence no later than on the first working day after the closing of the ballot and shall be completed as soon as is practicable.

(w) In the case of an equality of votes for any two or more candidates the Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall determine which of the candidates is elected, by declaring the candidate who currently holds the office being contested being elected, should no candidate hold the current office the Returning Officer shall declare the result by casting lots.

(x) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall declare the successful candidates elected and notify the National, Divisional and Divisional Branch Executive of the result of the ballot. The Divisional Branch Executive shall issue instructions for the publication of same in their minutes and in the journal or newspaper of the Divisional Branch. The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall also notify each successful candidate by post and publish their names in at least one daily newspaper circulating in the Branch area. The date of completion of the ballot shall be the date of the declaration thereof.

(y) The successful candidate/s shall become the Divisional Branch delegate to the Divisional Conference.

(z) Should a vacancy occur of a Divisional Branch delegate to Divisional Conference Rule 13 sub-rule (vi) shall apply.

(aa) Any accidental or unavoidable omission or error in the carrying out or observance of this rule shall not invalidate an election if such omission or error appears not to have affected the result of an election.

(bb) In any election the Divisional Branch Returning Officer and any Scrutineer shall do all things necessary to preserve the secrecy of the ballot and shall conduct themselves in a sober, proper and impartial manner. Scrutineers shall, as far as practicable, be given the opportunity to be present at all stages of the ballot. They shall obey any directions given to them by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer. If any Scrutineers or Scrutineer are not present at any stage or stages of the ballot the Divisional Branch Returning Officer may proceed nonetheless.

(cc) Definitions:

"Preferential Voting" shall mean a system of voting in which the voter shall place the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom the voter gives as their first preference, and shall place the number 2, 3, 4 (and so on as the case requires) in the squares opposite the names of all the remaining candidates so as to indicate the order of the preference for them. In a ballot by the preferential system the valid ballot papers shall be separated into separate parcels, each such parcel containing all those papers on which first preference is indicated for the same candidate. If on the first count a candidate receives an absolute majority of first preference votes of total valid votes cast they shall be declared elected.

If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the candidate with the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded and the ballot papers on which a first preference is indicated for such candidate shall be counted to the remaining candidates next in the voters' order of preference. If a candidate has then an absolute majority of votes they shall be elected, but if no candidate then has a majority of votes the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and the distribution of the voters' preferences shall continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes. In cases where more than one position is to be filled the numbers placed opposite the candidates' names up to the number of positions to be filled shall be first preference votes and the procedure in respect to the distribution of preference shall be the same as is above prescribed where a ballot is for a single position. The candidates or candidate, as the case may be, who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

(dd) Those elected shall take office from 2 January in the year following the election.

(ee) This election rule shall apply to all divisions (except Mining and Energy Division) from 1996 and 1996 shall be the first year of such general elections.

18 - DIVISIONAL EXECUTIVE ELECTION

(i) There shall be a Divisional Executive composed in accordance with Divisional Rules and elected in accordance with such Divisional Rules.

(ii) Every Divisional Executive shall be elected either:

(a) by and from the Divisional Conference; or

(b) by direct ballot of the financial members of the Division.

(iii) The Divisional Officers at a national level shall be members of that Divisional Executive.

(iv) The position of delegate to National Conference is to be held by the same person as is holding the position as Divisional Branch member of the Divisional Executive and the election to one position is to be an election to the other position, a removal from one position shall be a removal from the other and they are, for all purposes under these rules to be one and the same person and/or position.

19 - REMOVAL OF OFFICERS

Any Officer may be removed from office by majority decision of the National Executive, provided that such officer shall not be dismissed from office unless found guilty, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, of misappropriation of funds of the Union or a substantial breach of the Rules of the Union or gross misbehaviour or gross neglect of duty or has ceased according to the Rules of the Union to be eligible to hold office.

Any officer so removed from office shall have the right of appeal to the National Conference. In the event of the appeal being upheld the National Conference may order reinstatement to apply on such conditions as it considers the circumstances warrant.

In the event of the re-election of an Officer removed from office under this rule, such officer shall be reimbursed by a payment of monies that represent the difference between such salary the officer would have received had the officer not been removed from office and the amount of salary the officer received during the period the officer was removed from office.

20 - REFERENDA

1. On a decision of a majority of Divisions or Branches or Branches whose membership constitutes a majority of the members or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10 per cent of the financial members of the Union, the National Executive shall take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Union upon the matter or matters in the decision of the Divisions or Branches or in the petition. A decision reached by a majority of the actual votes recorded shall be binding on the Union and the members of the Union provided that the decision shall not affect the autonomy of any Division.

2. National Executive or National Conference may at any time of its own motion take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Union upon any matter it thinks fit.

3. The referendum referred to in this rule shall be conducted as follows:

   National Executive shall:

   Determine the question to be submitted to the members and the form of the ballot paper.

   Fix the times for the despatch and return of ballot papers and give the necessary instructions for printing of same.

   Appoint a National Returning Officer and National Scrutineer in conjunction with Divisional Branch Returning Officers to conduct the ballot.

   No material other than that authorised by the National Conference or National Executive shall be enclosed in the envelope in which the ballot paper is posted to the member.

   In all other respects the referendum shall be held as nearly as practicable in the manner provided for the holding of elections of Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference as set out in Rule 17 (iii) except that the roll of voters shall be the financial membership at the end of the calendar month immediately preceding the holding of the referendum.

21 - VACANCIES IN OFFICE

Where in accordance with the Rules of the Union, a National Officer ceases to hold office as the Divisional Officer entitled to hold a position as National Officer under Rule 16(i) hereof, such officer shall on and from the same time cease to hold office as a National Officer. Provided that the member who replaces such a person in the Divisional Officer's position shall also fill the vacancy created in the position of National Officer until such time as the National Officer's position can be filled in accordance with the rules governing casual vacancy.

22 - DUTIES OF OFFICERS

1. The following sets out the duties of the National Officers outlined herein. The National Secretary shall be a full time position. The wages and costs relating to the office of the full time officer shall be borne by the Union.

2. National President:

   The National President shall preside at meetings of National Conference, National Executive and meetings convened by National Conference or National Executive if it is possible to be present.

   The National President shall have a deliberative vote only.

   The National President shall perform all duties assigned to him/her by the National Conference or National Executive and shall be responsible with the National Secretary for the allocation of duties and responsibilities arising from decisions of the National Conference or the National Executive.

3. National Secretary:

   The National Secretary shall be responsible for the general correspondence of the Union, National finance, filing of documents, industrial returns and the carrying out of decisions made by National Conference or National Executive.

   The National Secretary shall have the power, subject to decisions of the National Executive and/or National Conference, to appoint, control and dismiss the clerical, industrial, research and accountancy staff of the National Office and allocate duties and responsibilities within the National Office.

   The National Secretary shall have prepared a properly audited financial statement of receipts and payments and all the funds and effects of the National Office, together with a statement of the assets and liabilities of the National Office for the year ending 31st December in each year.

   Such financial statement shall be presented to the National Executive for its approval and be published within the journal of the National Union.

   The National Secretary shall carry out such other functions as shall be determined from time to time by the National Conference or National Executive.

   The National Secretary shall be a member of each and every Divisional Executive and shall be for all purposes a full member of any Divisional Executive but shall not exercise a vote at any Divisional Executive of which such National Secretary is not, otherwise than under this Rule, a member.

4. National Assistant Secretary:

   National Assistant Secretary shall perform all duties assigned to him/her by National Conference and National Executive. He/She shall attend all meetings of National Conference and National Executive.

5. Senior Vice-President:

   The Senior Vice-President shall assist the National President in the conduct of meetings and shall preside in the absence of the National President, and shall carry out such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the National Conference or the National Executive.

6. Vice-President/s:

The Vice-Presidents shall assist the National President/s or Senior Vice-President/s in the conduct of meetings and, in the absence of both the abovementioned officers, shall act as President.

They shall carry out such other duties as shall be determined from time to time by the National Conference or National Executive.

7. Members of National Executive and Delegates to National Conference:

Members of National Executive and delegates to National Conference shall attend meetings of those bodies when summoned so to do.

8. Within the National Executive Committee and, subject to the Rules relating to card voting on certain committees, for all internal Union purposes, the National Principal Officers shall have, as between each and all of them, the same status. Each may perform different functions and may have different responsibilities in accordance with these Rules and/or decisions of the National Executive/National Conference not inconsistent with these Rules.

23 - FUNDS AND PROPERTY

(i) Each Division shall pay to the National Office and/or National Conference of the Union, on a basis which is proportionate to the respective financial membership of each Division, an amount that is determined by the National Conference or National Executive to enable it to fulfil its functions.

Provided that each Division/Divisional Branch is responsible to meet all costs associated with the operation of its Division/Divisional Branch, including all costs associated with the attendance and participation by their representatives at meetings, including National Conference, National Executive Committee unless decided otherwise by the National Executive Committee.

(ii) A capitation fee or sustentation fee shall be paid by each Divisional Branch to the Division in accordance with Divisional rules.

(iii) Each Divisional Branch shall pay to the Branch of the Union for the geographic area covered by the Divisional Branch, a pro rata amount calculated on the basis of the proportion of financial members of the Branch in that Divisional Branch, an amount determined by the State Executive to enable it to fulfil its functions.

(iv) All moneys received by the National Office shall be paid to the credit of the Union on current account with a Bank or financial institution. No funds shall be drawn from the Bank or financial institution except by cheque signed by two persons who are a National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary, National President or two (2) National Executive members as nominated by National Executive resolution.

(v) All expenditure for ordinary purposes, namely, incurred in directly furthering the objects of the Union or in the expenses of management, may be disbursed by decision of the National Secretary and either the National President or National Assistant Secretary. Expenditure for other purposes authorised by the rules may be disbursed by a majority decision of the National Conference or National Executive.

(vi) The funds of the Union shall be under the control of the body which receives such funds pursuant to the Rules of the Union and such bodies shall deal with the funds on behalf of the Union. The funds and property of the Union shall be invested wherever possible in the name of the Union. Any moneys may have the name of the body controlling the funds added to the name of the Union. In the case of Divisions, money received by the Divisions shall be under the control of the body in that Division which, by the rules of that Division is given control and shall be invested in the name of the Union, subject to the last immediately preceding sentence hereof. Where it is not possible or convenient to hold property in the name of the Union the property shall be held in the name of trustees under the Rules of such bodies.

The funds of the Union may be invested in such securities as are permitted by the laws of any State of the Commonwealth for the investment of funds by trustees. Nothing in this sub-rule prevents the Union, a Division, a Branch or a Divisional Branch from entering into an agreement with a trade or industrial union or organisation of employees registered under any legislation of any State of the Commonwealth for the investment of funds on a joint basis or a basis on which the funds are held in common so long as the funds are treated, for all purposes, at least as funds of this Union or such of the funds as represent pro rata membership are so treated.

(vii) The funds or property of the Union, under the control of the National Office or Branch or Division or Divisional Branch in accordance with the rules of the Union, shall be under the control of the National Executive, or Branch or Division or Divisional Branch Committee of Management and/or Executive respectively.

24 - AUDITOR

The National Conference or National Executive shall appoint as auditor a competent person resident in the city in which the National Office is located who shall each year for the period ending 31 December audit the books and accounts of the Union and draw up a correct report on same.

The Auditor shall, in the report, draw attention of the National Executive to any deficiencies or other matters which the Auditor may think proper. The Auditor shall have full and complete access to all the books and documents of the Union.

For the purpose of this Rule a competent person shall have the same meaning as in the Industrial Relations Act and the Regulations made thereunder.

25 - ALTERATION OF RULES

(a) The rules of the Union, or any of them, may be altered, rescinded, varied or made by the National Conference and/or National Executive. Proposals for alterations of rules may be forwarded by Divisions, Branches or any member of the National Executive or delegate to the National Conference and shall be forwarded to members and/or delegates with the notice calling the National Conference or National Executive, as the case may be, or so soon thereafter as is practicable. Provided that National Conference or National Executive may, in session, alter rules of which previous notice has not been given.

(b) Alterations to rules may be made, at the discretion of the National Secretary, by postal, telegraphic, telephonic, facsimile, email, written and/or any other means of communication as a ballot of National Conference or National Executive. Such a rule change will have the same effect as a change made in a session of the National Conference or National Executive.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this rule, the rules of the union and/or any of them may be repealed, altered and added to by the National Executive Committee on its own initiative and without any reference to National Conference or National Executive for the purpose of bringing rules into compliance with the Industrial Relations Act (Commonwealth) or the regulations thereto or to facilitate, assist in or give effect to an amalgamation decided upon by National Executive or National Conference or to overcome objections taken to an application by the Union for an alteration to its rules, for amalgamation or for registration under the Industrial Relations Act.

(d) Provided that no rule change shall be effected without the approval of a Division, by either the National Conference, National Executive or National Executive Committee which affects the existence of that Division or interferes with its autonomy under these rules, including the internal structures of a Division.

26 - RULES BINDING ON MEMBERS, BRANCHES AND DIVISIONS

These National Rules and all the rules of the Union, and all alterations, additions or rescissions thereof or thereto, shall apply to and be binding on all Divisions, Branches, and Divisional Branches and all sections of the Union and on all members who now, or who may hereafter, belong to the Union until they are made or become null and void according to the law.

27 - DIVISIONS

(i) There shall be Divisions of the Union established, in accordance with the rules of the Union. Such Divisions shall be established on a basis of industry or occupation.

(ii) Each Division shall have autonomy to decide matters which do not directly affect the members of another division without any interference by any other body within the Union, including but not limited to:

(a) The industrial interests of its members.

(b) The election of officers within the Division.

(c) Matters arising from the Objects of the Division.

(d) Structure of the Division.

(iii) Each division shall have autonomy in relation to its funds and property.

(iv) Each Division shall have rules and have power to make, alter or rescind such rules, to be called Divisional Rules. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing paragraph, each Division shall have power to determine policy for that Division, not inconsistent with the rules and policy of the Union as decided by National Conference or National Executive.

(v) If there is any environmental matter that directly affects the employment of members of one Division only, then that Division whose members are so affected shall have the power to determine the policy of the Union on that matter.

(vi) Divisions shall, in accordance with their rules, have Branches along a geographic, occupational or area basis which branches of a Division will be called Divisional Branches and may have more than one divisional branch in a State or Territory divided on a geographic or occupational basis.

(vii) Any Division may, in accordance with their rules, allocate any Branch of the Union or any other Divisional Branch of any Division of the Union the responsibility for a Divisional Branch or part of a Divisional Branch where it is, in the opinion of the Division not appropriate or economic to establish and/or maintain a separate Divisional Branch in that area.

(viii) Where any Division allocates any of its Divisional Branches to a Divisional Branch of another Division, the latter Divisional branch shall pay capitation fees to and be represented by the first mentioned Division on the basis of the number of members so allocated.

28 - BRANCHES

(i) There shall be branches of the Union in the States of Queensland, New South Wales, Victoria, Tasmania, Western Australia, South Australia, and in the Australian Capital Territory, and in such other States or places as may be decided.

Such Branches shall have the function of co-ordinating Divisional Branches at a State or Territory level, dealing with matters affecting only that State and more than one Division and any other matter that Divisions or Divisional Branches agree should be dealt with by such Branch.

(ii) Branches may make alter or rescind By-laws, not inconsistent with the Rules of the Union.

(iii) A Branch shall be bound by

(a) the decisions of the National Conference,

(b) National Executive and,

(c) in relation to any matter affecting one Division only, a Divisional Executive;

and Branch Officers shall be bound by directions of the National Executive Committee.

(iv) Provided that in the case of a decision of one Division affecting in any way the operation of a Branch, the Branch may appeal to the National Executive.

29 - AGREEMENTS WITH STATE UNIONS

(i) The Union, any Branch thereof may make agreements under s.202 of the Industrial Relations Act with any State Union to the effect that members of the State Union shall be eligible for membership of this union.

(ii) The Union, any Division thereof, any Divisional Branch thereof, may take all and any step which, as a matter of practice or law, may overcome the separation of state unions from any section of this Union with the same or substantially the same members and may take all or any step, including amalgamation to effect one union in the industry or industries covered by this Union.

30 - AGREEMENTS

(a) Subject to these Rules, any agreement may be executed by a National Secretary and either a National President, the National Assistant Secretary or a National Vice-President.

(b) Any agreement which directly affects the employment or conditions of employment of members of only one Division shall be executed by that Division in accordance with its rules.

(c) Any agreement which directly affects the employment or conditions of employment of members of only one Divisional Branch may be executed by the Divisional Branch in accordance with its rules.

(d) Any agreement which directly affects the employment of members of only one Branch may be executed by the Branch in accordance with its rules.

31 - CLAIMS AND INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES AND PROCEEDINGS

(a) Claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests of the Union or any part thereof may be compiled, made, served and/or otherwise propagated by a National Secretary or National President or National Assistant Secretary or any person authorised by a National Secretary or National President or National Assistant Secretary so to do.

(b) A Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary or any person authorised by a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary may make, compile, serve and/or otherwise propagate a claim, logs of claim, demands and/or requests of the Union in so far as it affects members of the Division of which the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary is an officer. To avoid any doubt, such claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests may affect, directly or indirectly, members of another Division so long as they are persons who are eligible to be members of the Division from which the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary emanates.

(c) Any of the officers referred to in paragraph (a) or, subject to the limitations contained in paragraph (b) and the necessary changes being made, any of the officers referred to in paragraph (b), may submit, on behalf of the Union for conciliation or arbitration or both, or authorise the submission or institution on behalf of the Union, any claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests or any industrial dispute arising therefrom or any other industrial dispute howsoever arising on behalf of the Union or otherwise institute any proceedings whatsoever on behalf of the Union.

(d) This Rule has effect notwithstanding any other Rule of the Union or any Division thereof and no claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests, shall be invalidated, rendered void or otherwise treated as void or unauthorised if issued by a National President, National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary, Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary, or any person authorised by any such officers and shall be taken for all purposes and at all times to be claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests of the Union for all purposes. Provided that, the National Executive, National Conference or, in the case of a claim, logs of claim, demands and/or requests issued by a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Assistant Secretary or on such officer's authorisation, the relevant Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive may rescind and/or withdraw such claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests and upon such decision of the National Conference, National Executive, Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive, as the case may be, the claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests shall be withdrawn and thereafter treated as if it were null and void.

(e) The National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary, National President, Divisional Secretary and/or Divisional Assistant Secretary shall have full power to transact all business and do or authorise all acts and things in connection with any dispute arising from any claims, logs of claim, demands and/or requests, howsoever made and by whomsoever made and such officer may delegate such functions either generally or specifically.

(f) For the purpose of the above provisions, in the case of the Mining & Energy Division, any reference to Divisional Secretary shall be taken to be a reference to Divisional President or Divisional Secretary, any reference to Divisional Assistant Secretary be taken to be a reference to Divisional Senior Vice President and any reference to Divisional Executive be taken to be a reference to Central Council.

32 - REGISTERED OFFICE

The registered office of the Union shall be the Office of the National Secretary and shall be at 361 Kent Street, Sydney in the State of New South Wales, or such place as National Conference or National Executive shall decide.

33 - REGISTERED OFFICER

(i) Without limiting the powers conferred by any State or Commonwealth law, the union shall, while it remains corporate, sue and be sued by its corporate name and style.

(ii) The proper officer of the Union shall, for all purposes, be the National Secretary.

(iii) Nothing in this rule affects the operation of any other rule relating to the powers of a Division or Divisional Branch Secretary.

34 - DISSOLUTION

The Union shall not be dissolved unless all of the existing Divisions agree. Provided that a Division shall cease to exist wherever the number of financial members of that Division is reduced to less than one thousand (1,000) members.

Where a Division ceases to exist and the Union continues, the property of that defunct Division shall be vested in the Division to which the members of the defunct Division are allocated.

Where the Union is dissolved the property of the Union shall be vested in the trustees of each existing Division at the time of dissolution for the benefit of the members thereof on the basis that each such Division will continue to hold its own property and funds and any property or funds not vested at the time of dissolution in a Division shall be divided between the existing Divisions on a basis proportionate to the membership of each such Division.

35 - RECOVERY OF DUES

All claims for contributions, levies, fines, fees or liabilities of any kind due or payable to the Union by members may be sued for in the name of the Union by the National Secretary or by the Divisional Secretary, or Divisional Branch Secretary to which the member is attached, or by any other person or body authorised by the rules of the Union including the rules of any Divisional Branch or the Rules of any Division.

36 - LEVIES

(i) Levies may be imposed for the purpose of carrying out any of the objects of the Union and for assisting the members of this or any other Union or body having objects similar in whole or in part to those of this Union.

(ii) The amount of any levy shall be decided by a majority of the National Conference or National Executive and shall not exceed $50.00 and when so decided shall be binding on all members or sections of members as National Conference or National Executive may decide.

(iii) A Division or Divisional Branch may impose a levy on its members.

(iv) A levy may be of one specific sum, payable at one specific time, or may be for a weekly, fortnightly or monthly period, payable for a certain specific period.

All levies shall be added to contributions and shall be a first charge against all payments made by members of the Divisional Branch.

37 - VOTING OTHERWISE THAN AT MEETINGS ASSEMBLED

(a) If the National Secretary shall consider it advisable to submit any matter, including the imposition of a levy or the alteration or rescission of a rule, to a vote of National Conference or National Executive at any time when it is inconvenient to call National Executive or National Conference together, the National Secretary may submit a resolution dealing with the matter to the delegates or members, by letter, facsimile, telegram, telephone, email, in writing, by computer link and/or by any other means of communication.

(b) A copy of such resolution shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, be sent to each Branch Secretary and each Divisional Secretary. The votes on such resolution shall be returnable to the National Secretary at such time as the National Secretary shall fix. The result of such vote shall be binding and enforceable in the same manner as a decision arrived at in meetings assembled.

(c) Provided that where no record can be kept of the vote and/or decision, such a record shall be created and a copy of that record sent to each person entitled to vote or, in the case of computer linkages, the record is such that it can be viewed and/or copied by the person entitled to vote.

(d) No amendment shall be allowed on any such resolution, but if it is negative any delegate may request the National Secretary to submit in a like manner a further resolution bearing on the same matter. In the event of the National Secretary being requested to submit more than one such resolution, the order in which same shall be submitted shall be in the absolute discretion of the National Secretary.

(e) The National Secretary shall keep a register of names and addresses of members of the National Executive and delegates to National Conference from the names submitted by Divisional Branch Returning Officers, Divisional Returning Officers and the National Returning Officer and such register shall be conclusive evidence of the correct name and address of such members and/or delegates.

(f) Divisional Secretaries and Divisional Branch Secretaries (as the case may be) shall within fourteen (14) days of the election of delegates to National Conference and members of the National and/or National Executive Committee notify the National Secretary of their names and addresses.

38 - STANDING ORDERS

Motions - How Dealt With:

1. All motions shall be of an affirmative character and must be moved and seconded by delegates or members. Such motions become the property of Conference or Executive and can only be withdrawn by leave thereof. The discussion on any motion shall not exceed 60 minutes unless a majority of delegates or members present agree to an extension of time.

2. Unless a delegate or member rises to oppose a motion or propose an amendment thereto, the motion shall be immediately put to the meeting for decision.

3. A motion may be superseded at any time by another motion "that it be discharged from the agenda paper" or "that the next business be proceeded with" being resolved in the affirmative.

4. A motion may be amended at any time during the debate thereon always provided that the substance of the original motion be retained. If the amendment is carried it then takes the place of the motion.

5. Any number of amendments may be proposed and discussed with the motion. For the purpose of the debate the motion shall be the question before the chair. Amendments shall be put to the vote in the order in which they are received. If there is no further discussion, or if the motion "that the question be now put" is carried, the mover of the original motion may reply.

6. All motions shall be put to the meeting by the chairperson in a clear manner by asking for the "ayes" to vote first and then the "noes". The chairperson's decision as to which has the majority will be final unless a show of hands is called for. The chairperson shall then count the votes for and against the question.

   If the votes are equal the question is resolved in the negative.

7. A mover of a motion to be allowed 15 minutes to introduce and five minutes to reply. Other speakers 10 minutes unless a majority of the delegates or members present agree to an extension of time.

8. Right of Speaker: Any delegate desiring to speak shall rise and address the chairperson. If two or more delegates or members rise at the same time the chairperson shall call upon the one who, in the Chairperson's opinion, first rose. Provided that no delegates or members can speak more than once upon any question (which shall include the original motion and all amendments thereto) before Conference or Executive, except -

   (a) In reply as the mover of the original motion.
   (b) In explanation or correction of some matter during the debate.
   (c) Upon a point of order raised during the debate.
   (d) Upon a resolution being carried "that the delegate now be heard".

9. A delegate or member will not be held to have spoken who simply used the words "I second the motion" or "amendment", as the case may be; but for the purpose of debate shall be considered the second speaker in favour of the proposal seconded by that delegate or member.

10. No more than two delegates or members shall be allowed to speak for or against any question in succession. If at the conclusion of the second speaker's remarks no member rises to speak on the other side of the motion or amendment, it shall be put to the vote.

11. Any delegate or member speaking shall at once resume their seat -

   (a) If the chairperson rises to speak; or
   (b) If a point of order is raised.

   and shall not resume their speech until the point of order is decided.

12. No delegate or member may speak to any question after it has been put by the chairman or during the taking of the vote.

REPORTS

A report containing a recommendation may be discussed on a motion being moved for its adoption which, upon being carried, will signify the will of Conference or Executive thereon.

If the report contains any recommendation it shall be competent for a delegate or member to move a resolution arising out of and relative to the report to obtain the opinion of Conference or Executive on the matter.

ADJOURNMENT OF CONFERENCE OR DEBATE

A motion for the adjournment of Conference or Executive may be proposed at any time during the meeting thereof or for the adjournment of the debate, and shall be at once put to the meeting by the chairperson unless time is mentioned. An amendment to alter the time can be proposed upon a motion for adjournment only if time is mentioned as part of such motion and can apply thereto.

ADJOURNMENT OF STATED TIME

When a motion for the adjournment of a debate to any stated day or time has been carried, such motion shall not be abrogated unless with the consent of Conference.

CHAIRPERSON'S RULINGS

The chairperson's rulings on all points of order shall be final unless at the time a motion is carried that such ruling be disagreed with. When a motion to disagree with the ruling of the chairperson has been duly proposed and seconded, the chairperson shall leave the chair until the motion has been disposed of by Conference or Executive. The mover only shall speak to the motion and the chairperson may explain the reasons for the ruling given. The motion shall then be put to the meeting by the Vice-Chairperson.

SUSPENSION OF ORDER OF BUSINESS

It shall be competent by a majority vote of the delegates or members present for Conference or Executive to suspend the order of business.

SITTING AS A COMMITTEE

Conference or Executive may at any time, by a resolution agreed to by a majority of delegates or members present, resolve itself into a committee of the whole. The rules governing the business of Conference or Executive shall be observed when in Committee.

39 - ABSENTEE VOTING

If a member who is entitled to vote at any election held under these rules or any other rules of the union will be absent from their usual address during a ballot such member may apply to the Returning Officer for a ballot paper to be sent to them at an address which they nominate.

40 - MANNER OF SUMMONING MEETINGS

The National Executive, the State Executive, a Divisional Executive or a Divisional Branch Management/Executive Committee may, in their absolute discretion, summon meetings of members over which they have authority and/or responsibility from time to time.

If such meeting is called notice shall be given in a union journal circulating in the area covering the members to which the meeting relates or in a mass circulation daily newspaper circulating in the area in which the meeting is to be held and such publication shall be issued at least fourteen days before the date of the meeting. The notice of such meeting shall specify the day, the date, the time and the place of such meeting.

41 - SPECIAL RULE AND AMALGAMATIONS

For all the purposes of the Industrial Relations Act 1988, as amended, and, without limiting the generality thereof, for the purposes of amalgamation of this organization with other organizations, the National Executive shall, notwithstanding any other rule to the contrary, be the Management Committee and shall be authorised to take all steps to effect an amalgamation and alter any rules for that purpose.

A vote of the National Executive for the above or any other purpose may be taken by the National Secretary by telephone, facsimile, telex, post or other means of delivery of written text, or orally, or any combination thereof and such vote shall be an effective and binding decision of the National Executive.

The National Executive is empowered to delegate to any officer the task of implementing such amalgamation.

42 - TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

(i) Upon Amalgamation

On and from the date of amalgamation there shall be five (5) Divisions of the Union, being the Building Unions Division, the ATAIU Division, the UMW Division, the FEDFA Division and the FFTS Union Division. The Building Unions division shall be the former BWIU/Plasterers Division together with members and officers of the OPDU.

The Building Unions Division shall consist of those persons eligible and continuing to be eligible for membership of the union under Rule 2 (A) and (B), the ATAIU Division shall consist of those persons eligible and continuing to be eligible for membership of the Union under Rule 2 (C), the UMW Division shall be those persons eligible for membership and continuing to be eligible for membership of the union under Rule 2 (D) and the FEDFA Division shall be those persons eligible for membership and continuing to be eligible for membership of the Union under Rule 2 (E). The FFTS Union Division shall consist of all persons eligible and continuing to be eligible for membership of the Union under Rule 2(F) including all former members of the previously registered FFTS.

While the FFTS Union Division continues its separate existence, the demarcation between the FFTS Union Division and the other Divisions of the CFMEU shall be in accordance with the above demarcation on the basis of the status quo and custom and practice of coverage as it existed between the previously registered The Federated Furnishing Trade Society of Australasia and the CFMEU including therein demarcation disputes which have been determined by either State or Federal industrial authorities. Where any disagreement occurs between the FFTS Union Division and any other Division of the Union the matter shall be referred to the National Executive which shall determine the demarcation appropriate but such determination shall be based on the principles enunciated in this paragraph.

(ii) Upon amalgamation no person who was previously a member of either the CFMEU or OPDU or FFTS shall be liable for any entrance fee over and above the entrance fee already paid by such financial members.

(iii) After Amalgamation

Subject to any changes made by unanimous decision of the National Executive Committee, following amalgamation, there shall be a restructuring of the Divisions on the following basis:

(a) There shall be created a restructured Mining and Energy Division which shall consist of all members of the union eligible to be members under Rule 2 (D) and all members, including members eligible under Sub-Rules 2 (A), (B), (C) and (E) employed in the Mining, Exploration and Energy Industries and all members employed in the County of Yancowinna:

(b) There shall be created a Forestry and Forest, Building Products Manufacturing Division (herein after referred to as the Forestry Division) which shall consist of all members of the union eligible to be members under Rule 2 (C) and all members, including members eligible under Sub-rules 2 (A), (B) and (E) employed in the following sectors of the industry (or occupations within them):

Forest and forest products industry,

Pulp and paper industry,

Timber and building related manufacturing industry including joinery, wall frame/roof trusses, furniture, aluminium windows, glass window manufacturing and any other sectors of manufacturing activity as agreed to between the ATAIU and the Building Unions and FEDFA Divisions of the union.

This sub-rule up until April 3rd 2000 shall be read subject to the agreement entitled CFMEU Forestry Division and CFMEU Construction & General Division Translation Agreement dated September 2nd 1998.

(c) There will be a Construction and General Division which shall consist of all members of the union employed in or in connection with the Construction industry (including shopfitting) and all other members of the Union not referred to in sub-rules (iii) (a) (b) and (d) herein.

(d) deleted

(iv) The transfer of members from any Division to any other Division in accordance with the restructuring proposals in sub-rule (iii) herein, shall be on terms as agreed to by the Divisions concerned in the transfer and sub-rule (iii) shall be used as the basis of an agreement.

(v) In the event of further amalgamations other Divisions may be established.

(vi) deleted

(vii) deleted

(viii) deleted

(ix) deleted

(x) Upon restructuring in accordance with this rule and on the transfer of members from one Division to any other Division an agreed number of officers of the Division from which the members are from shall transfer with such members, such officers to be agreed between the respective Divisions prior to transfer.

(xi) In any restructuring of any Division within the union the principle to be applied shall be that any officer or officers who, by agreement, are transferred to a Division from another Division as representative of or in conjunction with members so transferred shall be allocated positions on the appropriate decision making bodies of the Division of which such transferred Officer becomes a member. The determination of a position or positions referred to in this sub-rule shall have regard to the classifications and number of members transferred to a Division and the structure of the decision making bodies of the Division established in accordance with these Rules.

(xii) deleted

(xiii) deleted

(xiv) In this rule the CFMEU shall, where the context permits, mean the new CFMEU being the amalgamated organisation the Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union and where not otherwise permitting shall mean the old CFMEU being the Construction Forestry and Mining Employees Union prior to amalgamation.

FEDFA where it is not referring to a division of the amalgamated organisation shall mean The Federated Engine Drivers' and Firemens' Association of Australasia.

OPPWF shall mean The Operative Plasterers' and Plaster Workers' Federation of Australia.

UMFA shall mean the formerly registered United Mineworkers' Federation of Australia.

ATAIU where not referring to a division shall mean the formerly registered Australian Timber and Allied Industries Union.

Qld shall mean Queensland.

BWIU where not referring to a division shall mean the formerly registered The Building Workers' Industrial Union of Australia.

NSW where appearing shall mean New South Wales.

WA where appearing shall mean Western Australian.

SA where appearing shall mean South Australian or South Australia as the context permits.

FFTS means, where it is not accompanied by the term "Union Division", The Federated Furnishing Trade Society of Australasia.

OPDU shall mean "The Operative Painters and Decorators Union of Australia".

BLF shall mean "The Australian Building Construction Employees and Builders Labourers' Federation".

(xv) (a) Where an amalgamation has occurred, on or after the amalgamation day, all assets and liabilities of the deregistered organisation or of an association with which a merger takes place shall cease to be assets and liabilities of that organisation or association and become assets and liabilities of this Union.

(b) For all purposes and in all proceedings, an asset or liability of a deregistered organisation or association existing immediately before the date upon which the amalgamation took effect is taken to have become an asset or liability of this Union on that day.

(c) All agreements existing at the respective dates of amalgamation and/or merger of all unions which have amalgamated to form the CFMEU shall be binding on the CFMEU on the basis that the CFMEU shall, to the extent possible, fulfil the obligations and obtain the benefits through the Division of the Union corresponding to the Union that entered the agreement, or, where there is no corresponding Division, corresponding to the Division into which the amalgamated union has merged. Any reference to any such agreement to any union which has or shall amalgamate and/or merge with this Union shall be taken to be a reference to this Union operating through the Division or Divisional Branch corresponding to the former union or into which the former union has merged. Any reference to any officer or body in the former union shall be taken to be a reference to the same officer or body in the Division corresponding to the former union or into which the former union has merged. Any reference herein to the term "agreement" shall include, and be deemed always to have included, any instrument as defined in the Industrial Relations Act, 1988.

(d) For the purposes of the above and in accordance with the scheme of amalgamation in relation to each past amalgamation, the following shall be the rights and obligations of the Divisions and shall be deemed always to have been the case:

* The United Mineworkers Federation of Australia shall be and be deemed always to have been a union that corresponds to the UMW Division and/or the Mining and Energy Division;

* The Australian Timber and Allied Industries Union (ATAIU) shall be and be deemed always to have been a union that corresponds to the ATAIU Division and/or Forestry Division;

* The Federated Engine Drivers and Firemen's Association of Australasia shall be and be deemed always to have been a union that corresponds to the FEDFA Division;

* The Operative Plasterers and Plaster Workers Federation of Australia shall be and be deemed to be a union which has merged into what is now called the Building Unions Division of the CFMEU and any reference to an officer of the OPPWF shall be and be deemed always to have been always a reference to the corresponding office in the Building Unions Division, i.e. Federal Secretary shall be read Divisional Secretary, Branch shall be read as Divisional Branch, Branch Secretary shall be read as Divisional Branch Secretary in each case of the Divisional Branch of the Building Unions Division relevant thereto, etc.;

* The Federated Furnishing Trades Society of Australasia shall be and be deemed always to have been a union which corresponds to the FFTS Division of the CFMEU;

* The Operative Painters and Decorators Union of Australia shall be and be deemed to be a union which has merged into the Division now called the Building Unions Division of the CFMEU and any reference to the Operative Painters and Decorators Union of Australia shall be deemed to have been and be a reference to the CFMEU, Building Unions Division. Any reference to an officer or body of the OPDU shall be read as a reference to the office or body of the Building Unions Division of the CFMEU equivalent thereto, e.g. Federal Secretary shall be read as Divisional Secretary, Branch shall be read as Divisional Branch, Branch Secretary shall be read as Divisional Branch Secretary, Branch Assistant Secretary shall be read as Divisional Branch Assistant Secretary, etc.

* The Builders Labourers Federation shall be and be deemed to be a Union which has merged into the Division now called The Construction and General Division of the CFMEU and any reference to the Builders Labourers' Federation shall be deemed to have been and be a reference to the CFMEU, Construction and General Division.

(e) Where, after amalgamation there is more than one officer holding a position to which a reference is made in any instrument, as defined in the Industrial Relations Act 1988, the body or bodies within the Union to which the officer answers shall, unless the context of the instrument otherwise necessitates, decide which of the number of officers shall exercise the functions, rights and/or responsibilities referred to in the instrument. For example, where the reference is by virtue of the foregoing provisions to a Divisional Officer at the national level, the Divisional Executive shall decide which of the number of officers filling the positions shall exercise those functions, rights and/or responsibilities. Where the officer is, in accordance with the above, a Divisional Branch officer, the Divisional Branch Management Committee (or its equivalent) shall decide which of the number of officers shall exercise the functions, rights and/or responsibilities given to that officer in any such instrument.

(xvi) (i) Any reference in this Rule to BWIU/Plasterers Division or Building Unions Division shall, where the context permits, be taken to be a reference to the Construction and General Division;

(ii) Any reference in this Rule to ATAIU Division shall, where the context permits, be taken to be a reference to the Forestry Division;

(iii) Any reference in this Rule to UMW Division shall, where the context permits, be taken to be a reference to the Mining & Energy Division.

42A - Divisional Restructuring (FEDFA)

1. Notwithstanding any other Rule of the Union to the contrary, the process of restructuring may be completed in steps which steps may deal with one Division at a time, Divisional Branches within a Division and/or the Divisional Office of any particular Division.

2. In relation to the above, the FEDFA Division shall be restructured in steps which shall involve:

(a) The abolition of full-time Divisional Officers at a national level and the allocation of responsibility for the FEDFA Division between the Building Unions Division and the UMW Division;

(b) The allocation of full-time Divisional Officers of the FEDFA Division to the Building Unions Division and the UMW Division;

(c) The continued operation of the Divisional Branches of the FEDFA Division with the intent, over time, of the restructuring of said Divisional Branches in accordance with Rule 42, into the Building Unions/Construction and General Division, UMW/Mining & Energy Division and the ATAIU/Forestry Division;

(d) The payment of capitation fees by FEDFA Divisional Branches to a designated fund which shall be administered by the Divisional Secretary of the FEDFA Division or, if or when that Office is abolished by the former Divisional Secretary and the Divisional Secretaries of the Building Unions and/or Construction and General Division and the UMW and/or Mining and Energy Division.

(e) The continued meeting of the Division Executive of the FEDFA Division for so long as is necessary before the complete restructuring of the FEDFA Division is effected in accordance with Rule 42.

3. On and from 27 September 1993, in accordance with the above procedure, the current Divisional Secretary of the FEDFA Division shall be and become the Divisional President of the Building Unions Division and the current Divisional Assistant Secretary of the FEDFA Division shall be and become a Divisional General Vice-President of the UMW Division and upon translation in accordance with Rule 42 (iii), shall hold the corresponding offices in the Construction and General Division and the Mining & Energy Division respectively.

4. The current Divisional Secretary and Divisional Assistant Secretary of the FEDFA Division shall continue to hold those positions in the FEDFA Division on an honorary basis until such time as the FEDFA Division no longer meets on a national basis.

5. This Rule shall come into force after its adoption by the National Executive and agreement thereto by the FEDFA Divisional Executive, UMW Divisional Executive and Building Unions Divisional Executive and thereupon shall be registered with the Australian Industrial Registry and shall take effect upon registration, or 27 September 1993, whichever is the later.

6. Further to the above provisions, and notwithstanding any other rule of the Union to the contrary, during the process of restructuring, any Divisional Branch of the FEDFA Division may reach agreement with any or all of the UMW Division/Mining & Energy Division and/or the Building

Unions Division/Construction and General Division and/or the Forestry Division or the relevant Divisional Branches thereof to transfer members and officers of the FEDFA Division to any and/or all of the other aforementioned Divisions. Such agreement shall be reached with the approval of the Management Committee or its equivalent in each Divisional Branch and the officers concerned. Any such Divisional Branch may reach agreement on some or all of the matters relating to such transfer and, failing agreement on any or all of such matters, refer the matters by agreement to the National Executive for decision. Until such time as there no longer exists an FEDFA Division in accordance with the Rules of the Union, all such officers transferred shall, notwithstanding the holding of positions in other Divisions, continue to hold the office or position in the FEDFA Division on an honorary basis and shall, to the extent that the Rules require same, continue to perform the functions associated with that office in relation to the FEDFA Division. All agreements in relation to the transfer of members and officers shall be notified to the National Executive Committee and attached to the Minutes thereof. Such agreements shall have force and effect in accordance with the terms thereof and from the date of effect of that agreement as specified in that agreement, or failing any specification thereof, on the date of the agreement.

(i) On and from 31 March 1994 the Australian Building Construction Employees and Builders Labourers Federation and, to the extent legally possible, the Australian Builders' Labourers' Federated Union of Workers - Western Australian Branch, the Australian Building and Construction Workers' Federation, the Australian Building, Construction Employees and Builders' Labourers' Federation (Queensland Branch) Union of Employees shall merge with and/or amalgamate with and/or into the CFMEU and become an integral, inseparable and inseverable part of the CFMEU and the Building Unions Division thereof.

(ii) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger in paragraph (i) herein, all assets and liabilities of the Australian Building Construction Employees and Builders' Labourers' Federation (the BLF) shall merge with the assets and liabilities of the CFMEU to be held and controlled in accordance with the rules of the CFMEU, by the Building Unions Division and/or Divisional Branches created by the Rules of the Union and shall be treated as if such assets and liabilities were, at all times, the assets and liabilities of the CFMEU. Such funds shall to the extent that prior to 31 March 1994 they were funds under the control of a BLF Branch, except in the case of the BLF Victorian Branch, be and become funds under the control of the respective Construction Labourers' Divisional Branch established consequent upon these Rules and, otherwise held by the Building Unions Division as Divisional Funds.

(iii) For all purposes and in all proceedings, an asset or liability of the BLF existing immediately before the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger is taken to have become and to have become and to have been at all times an asset or liability of the CFMEU on and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger. Provided that any liability of BLF Federal Fund to any Branch Fund or vice versa shall continue to be a liability of the Division or Divisional Branch Funds respectively.

(iv) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger an instrument in which the BLF is mentioned (other than the Builders' Labourers' Federation Cancellation of Registration Act, 1986 and the Builders' Labourers' Federation (Cancellation of Registration - Consequential Provisions) Act, 1986) continues in full force and effect. The instrument has effect, in relation to acts, omissions, transactions and matters done, entered into or occurring on or after the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger as if a reference in the instrument to the BLF were a reference to the amalgamated organisation. Provided that any instrument which is inconsistent with the Rules of the CFMEU shall have no force and effect except in so far as it prejudices the rights of a bona fide purchaser for value without notice.

(v) All officers of the CFMEU and BLF shall take all such steps as are necessary and/or desirable to ensure that the amalgamation and/or merger is fully effective including that holding of all necessary meetings, the passage of all necessary resolutions, the making of all necessary applications and the execution of all necessary documents to give effect to this agreement.

(vi) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger any and all members of the remaining branches of the BLF, if not already members of the CFMEU, shall be and become members of the CFMEU and be treated in the CFMEU as if all of the period of their membership in the BLF was membership in the CFMEU (except as otherwise provided for in the specific rules dealing with the merger in the rules of the Building Unions Division).

(vii) On and from the day fixed for the amalgamation and/or merger there shall be a National Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers) with the same status and standing as any other Senior Vice-President and whomsoever occupies the position of Divisional Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers) shall be the National Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers).

42C - AMALGAMATION WITH FBTPU

(i) On and from the date of amalgamation with the Federated Brick Tile and Pottery Industrial Union of Australia ("the FBTPU"), and notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 13(ii) herein, the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall be entitled to two delegates to National Conference, one of whom shall be the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary and the other shall be the Industry Divisional Branch President.

(ii) On and from the date of amalgamation with the FBTPU, the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary of the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall, ex officio, be a member of the National Executive of the CFMEU.

(iii) Delegates to the National Conference and National Executive of the Union from the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall, for the purposes of determining the vote which they are entitled to exercise on those bodies in accordance with Rule 13(iii) herein, be taken to have derived from the Construction and General Division and shall be counted as members of the Divisional Executive of that Division.

(iv) On and from the date of amalgamation, the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall be entitled to two delegates to the Divisional Conference of the Construction and General Division, one of whom shall be the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary and the other shall be the Industry Divisional Branch President (Honorary) of the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch.

(v) On and from the date of amalgamation, the Industry Divisional Branch Secretary of the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch shall, ex officio, be a member of the Divisional Executive of the Construction and General Division of the CFMEU.

(vi) The provisions of this rule shall not be altered or amended by the National Conference or National Executive or the Construction and General Division, Divisional Conference or Divisional Executive, whilst ever the Clay and Ceramics Industry Divisional Branch exists, without the consent of the Management Committee of the Industry Divisional Branch.

42D - DIVISIONAL RESTRUCTURING (FFTS)

1. Notwithstanding any other Rule of the Union to the contrary, the process of restructuring may be completed in steps, such steps may deal with one Division at a time and/or Divisional Branches within a restructured Division at a time.

2. In relation to the above, the FFTS Division shall on and from the 11th February 2002, be restructured in the first instance into the Forestry Division to form "The Forestry, Furnishing, Building Products and Manufacturing Division" (FFPD) which shall result in:

   (a) The abolition of full-time FFTS Divisional Officers at a national level and the allocation of responsibility for the FFTS Division to the restructured Division.

   (b) The allocation of Divisional/Branch Office Holders of the FFTS Division to the Office Holders positions of the restructured Division.

   (c) The continued operation of the Victorian and Queensland Divisional Branches of the FFTS Division within the restructured Division of up to four years beyond the expiration of the eight years referred to in sub-rule 42(xii). This sub-rule shall not otherwise affect the operation of sub-rule 42(xii). For the avoidance of doubt, the four years referred to in this sub-rule shall expire on 26 March 2005.

3. Further to the above provisions and notwithstanding any other rule of the Union to the contrary, the FFTS Victorian Branch shall unless otherwise agreed by the FFTS Victorian Branch Management Committee maintain its current structure and existence within the restructured Division up until 26 March 2005.

4. Prior to the 26 March 2005, the FFPD (which shall include representatives of the former FFTS Division) and the Construction & General Division (which shall include representatives from the National Office and all interested Branches) will meet under the chairpersonship of the National Secretary of the CFMEU to reach agreement to finalise translation/integration provisions intended by the respective Schemes of Amalgamation and the Rules of the Union in respect to the Forestry, FFTS and C&G Divisions.

5. Should agreement not be reached between the Divisions the matter shall be referred to the CFMEU National Executive to determine in accordance with the Schemes of Amalgamation and Rules of the Union.

6. Until the elections scheduled to be held in August 2004 the FFPD shall be constituted and represented as follows:-

7. This rule shall come into force on and from 11 February 2002 in accordance with the unanimous decision of the National Executive and shall be registered with the Australian Industrial Registry.

BRANCH RULES

43 - NAME

The name of the branch shall be the "Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union, X Branch" where X is the State or Territory for which the Branch has been established.

44 - MEMBERSHIP AND CONSTITUTION

All members of all Divisional Branches within the State or Territory shall be members of the Branch with the same status of membership as is held in the Divisional Branch.

45 - SEAL

The seal of the Branch shall be oval in shape, inscribed on the outer edge "Construction Forestry, Mining and Energy Union" and the name of the Branch on the inside.

46 - STATE CONFERENCE

(i) The supreme governing body of the Branch shall, subject to the autonomy of the Divisional Branches, be the State Conference convened every two (2) years and especially in accordance with these Rules.

The State Conference shall meet no later than 30 December in the year following the elections in the Divisional Branches, being the general election and at least every two (2) years thereafter.

(ii) The State Conference shall consist of all of the members of each and every Divisional Branch Management Committee for every Divisional Branch of the Union within the State or Territory covered by the Branch.

(iii) Persons elected as members of a Divisional Branch Management Committee shall be elected in accordance with the Rules of the Union applicable to the particular Divisional Branch.

Nothing in this sub-rule shall interfere with the transitional provisions which shall take effect on and from amalgamation.

Each member of a Divisional Branch Management Committee shall exercise a vote on the State Conference equal to the percentage of financial members of the Union in the Divisional Branch from which the member derives divided by the number of members of the Divisional Branch Management Committee entitled to vote.

Provided that nothing in this sub-rule shall prevent proxy voting or multiple voting.

(iv) The method of calculation of financial members of any Divisional Branch shall be in accordance with Rule 13 of the National Rules of the Union, the necessary changes, if any, being made.

(v) Members of the Divisional Branch Management Committees or State Conference shall remain in office until the election of their successors.

(vi) Divisional Branches may, where elected Divisional Branch Delegates to State Conference agree, arrange multiple voting representation at a State Conference by notifying the State Conference of the number of Divisional Branch Delegates to be credentialed and the arrangements for proxy voting to be adopted by that Divisional Branch at the State Conference.

(vii) Where a delegate is unable to attend a meeting of the State Conference or any part thereof, that delegate may where the Divisional Branch Executive agrees appoint another elected delegate to State Conference from the same Divisional Branch as proxy to act in that delegate's stead.

Where the Divisional Branch Management Committee agrees, a delegate may appoint as the proxy to State Conference an elected delegate from another Divisional Branch within the State or Territory covered by the Branch. Each member of the Divisional Branch Management Committee shall be a delegate to the State Conference.

(viii) A majority of delegates to State Conference, representing not less than two Divisions, shall form a quorum of the State Conference.

(ix) (a) The State Conference shall have power, unless any rule deprives the State Conference of power or grants to another body within the area covered by the Branch exclusive power over a subject matter, to do all things necessary and/or desirable for the furtherance of the objects of Union, to co-ordinate Divisional Branches within the branch area and for the care, control and management of the Branch.

(b) The function of the State Conference shall be to coordinate the Divisional Branches in the area concerned and shall have the powers, subject to these Rules, necessary for that purpose and shall, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(A) perform such functions referred to it by the Divisional Branches.

(B) affiliate to any body for and on behalf of any Divisional Branch, or with the agreement of each Divisional Branch for and behalf of the Branch as a whole;

(C) Supervise the funds, if any, paid to the Branch office by Divisional Branches;

(D) Subject to the review of its actions by Divisional Executives and National Executive, settle disputes between Divisional Branches.

(c) Provided that the State Conference shall not have power over any matter which concerns the members of one Divisional Branch only unless that Divisional Branch consents thereto.

(x) Meetings of the State Conference and State Executive shall be held at such time and place as shall be decided by at least one State President and one State Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the State Executive may demand a meeting of such State Executive or State Conference which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members in such demand. The quorum for any meeting shall be three (3) a majority of the State Officers may demand a meeting of the State Executive which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such State Officers.

47 - STATE EXECUTIVE

(i) There shall be a State Executive composed of the full time elected officers, (other than organisers except where otherwise provided for in these rules), of each Divisional Branch within the Branch area, one of whom shall be the State President, another of whom shall be a State Senior Vice President, another of whom shall be the State Secretary and another of whom shall be State Assistant Secretary, provided that where a Division has more than one Divisional Branch in an area, the Division will determine its representation. The President of each Divisional Branch shall, if not otherwise a member of the State Executive, be such a member.

(ii) The State Executive shall have and exercise all of the powers of the State Conference, subject to the review thereof by the State Conference, but shall have no more powers than State Conference.

Any decision of the State Executive may be overturned by the State Conference and all decisions of the State Conference shall be binding on the State Executive.

(iii) The State Secretary may take a telegraphic, telex, facsimile, telephonic, written and/or postal vote of members of the State Executive or State Conference at any time.

Members of the State Executive or State Conference shall be advised of the details of the voting. Such votes shall have the same effect as a decision of such body made in meetings assembled.

(iv) The State Executive shall be held at such time and place as shall be decided by the State Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the State Executive may demand a meeting of such State Executive or State Conference which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members of the State Executive. The quorum for any meeting shall be a majority of the members entitled to vote thereat.

There shall be a State Executive meeting held before the meeting of State Conference in the year following the general elections of the Union.

(v) All decisions of the State Executive shall be made by a majority of votes cast at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules. The votes cast by members of the State Executive shall be on a card system and the value of the vote cast by any member of the State Executive, including State Officers, shall be determined in the same way, the necessary changes being made as the value of a vote cast by delegates to the State Conference with State Officers being included in the Division from which they derive.

48 - ELECTION OF STATE OFFICERS

(i) The State Officers, being the State Secretary, the State Assistant Secretary (except in the State of Victoria, where there shall be two State Assistant Secretaries), the State President and the State Senior Vice-President shall be elected by and from the State Conference. The election shall be held, the necessary changes being made, in the same way as Divisional Officers are elected from the Divisional Conference under Rule 9 of the Construction & General Division Rules, provided that each Division shall be represented by at least one State Officer.

Provided that for the A.C.T. Branch (while that Branch has only one Divisional Branch) Officers elected to the Construction & General Division A.C.T. Branch, shall hold the equivalent position within the A.C.T. State Branch.

Further provided that, each Division shall hold at least one position of Joint Vice-President.

Further provided that, each Division, prior to the calling for nominations, shall decide its nominees for the above positions, by resolution from that Division's Divisional Branch Management Committee.

(ii) Where, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, an officer of a Divisional Branch within a Branch area ceases to hold office as an officer of the Divisional Branch such officer shall at the same time cease to hold office as a State officer in accordance with this rule. Provided that the member who replaces such a Divisional Branch officer in the office in the Divisional Branch shall also fill the vacancy created in the position of State officer only until such time as the State officer's position can be filled in accordance with the rules governing casual vacancy, or, if the vacancy occurs within 12 months of an ordinary election, by the ordinary election.

(iii) The term of office of officers of a Branch of the union shall be four (4) years.

49 - FUNDS OF THE BRANCH

(i) Each Divisional Branch in the area covered by the Branch of the Union shall pay to the Branch on a basis which is proportionate to the respective financial membership of each Divisional Branch, an amount that is determined by the State Executive as sufficient to enable it to fulfil its functions.

(ii) All moneys received by the Branch shall be paid to the credit of the Branch on current account with a bank. No funds shall be drawn from the Bank except by cheques signed by two (2) persons who are the State Secretary, State Assistant Secretary or State President and not from the same Divisional Branch.

(iii) All expenditure for ordinary purposes, namely incurred in directly furthering the objects of the Branch or in the expenses of management, may be dispersed by decision of the State Secretary and either the State President or State Assistant Secretary, provided that both signatories shall not be officers from the one Division.

Expenditure for other purposes authorised by the Rules may be disbursed by a majority decision of the State Conference or the State Executive.

(iv) The funds of the Branch shall be invested where possible in the name of the Branch. Where it is not possible to invest money or funds in such name, the investment shall be made in the name of Trustees under these Rules.

Nothing in this Rule prevents the Branch from entering into an agreement with a Trade or Industrial Union or organisation of employees registered under any legislation of any State of the Commonwealth for the investment of funds on a joint basis or on a basis on which the funds are held in common or jointly so long as the funds are treated, for all purposes, insofar as they relate to members of the Branch, as funds of the Branch.

(v) The property of the Branch, vested in the Branch in accordance with these rules and the other rules of the Union, shall be under the control of the State Executive.

(vi) In Western Australia no decision of the WA Branch shall adversely affect the Building Unions Division WA Plasterers Divisional Branch in relation to funds or any other matter without the consent of that Divisional Branch.

50 - AUDIT

The State Executive shall appoint as Auditor a competent person resident in the city in which the State Office is located who shall each year for the period ending 31 December audit the books and accounts of the Branch and draw up a correct report on same.

The Auditor shall, in the aforesaid report, draw attention of the State Executive to any deficiencies or other matters which the Auditor may think proper. The Auditor shall have full and complete access to all the books and documents of the Branch.

For the purpose of this Rule a competent person shall have the same meaning as in the Industrial Relations Act and the Regulations made pursuant thereto.

51 - OFFICERS

(i) The Officers of the Branch shall be the State President/s, the State Secretary, the State Senior Vice President, the State Vice President/s, the State Assistant Secretary/s and members of the State Executive.

(ii) And such rights and duties shall, the necessary changes being made, be the same in relation to the Branch concerned as the rights and duties of National Officers and National Executive Members are in relation to the Union as a whole.

52 - REFERENDA

(i) On a decision of a majority of Divisional Branches in the Branch area or Divisional Branches in a Branch area whose membership constitutes a majority of the members of that Branch, or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10% of the financial members of the Branch, the State Executive shall take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Branch upon a matter or matters submitted by the Divisional Branches or by the petition.

A decision reached by the majority of the actual votes recorded at such referendum shall be binding on the Branch, including the State Conference and State Executive thereof, and the members thereof provided that the decision shall not affect the autonomy of any Division.

(ii) The State Executive or State Conference may at any time of its own motion take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Branch or of the whole of the financial members of the Branch upon any matter it thinks fit.

(iii) The referendum referred to in this Rule shall be conducted on the basis that the State Executive shall determine the question to be submitted to the members entitled to vote and the form of the ballot paper, fix the time for the dispatch and return of the ballot paper and give the necessary instructions for printing the same, appoint a State Returning Officer and State Scrutineer in conjunction with Divisional Branch Returning Officers to conduct the ballot, no material other than that authorised by the State Conference or State Executive shall be enclosed in the envelope in which the ballot paper is posted to the member and in all other respects the referendum shall be held as nearly as practicable in the manner provided for the holding of election of Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference in accordance with Rule 17 (iii) except that the roll of voters shall be the financial membership at the end of the calendar month immediately preceding the holding of the referendum.

53 - RULES OF THE BRANCH

(a) The Rules of the Branch contained herein shall be binding on all Divisions and all members thereof. Such Rules may be altered, rescinded, varied or made by the National Conference and/or National Executive in accordance with Rule 25 of the National Rules.

(b) The State Conference and State Executive shall have power to make alter and rescind by laws for the working of the Branches, any Sub-Branches and any other matter over which such Branch has control under these or any other rules.

Provided that no such by laws shall be inconsistent with any other rule of the union and shall, to the extent of any such inconsistency, be void and inoperative.

54 - VOTING OTHERWISE THAN AT MEETINGS ASSEMBLED

Rule 37 of the National Rules of the Union shall apply, the necessary changes being made, to the Branch and the State Secretary shall in the same way as provided for the National Secretary under Rule 37 of the National Rules, take a vote of the State Executive or the State Conference in any manner whatsoever.

Such vote shall have the same effect in relation to the Branch as a vote taken under Rule 37 of the National Rules has in relation to the Union.

"FINANCIAL MEMBER" shall mean any member who has paid all subscriptions, fines, levies and dues in accordance with the Rules of the Union.

"MEMBER" shall mean a member of this union, male or female.

"NATIONAL COLLEGIATE" shall mean the totality of delegates from all Divisions to each Divisional Conference.

"PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION" shall mean a system of representation at Committees, Conferences, Executives or the like which, as far as practicable, will provide for voting on a basis which reflects the number or percentage of financial members, as calculated in accordance with these rules, that each person on such Committee, Conference, Executive or the like, represents.

"DISTRICT" AND "SUB-BRANCH" AND "ZONE" where used in the Rules of the Union shall mean sectors of a Divisional Branch of the Union.

"RULES OF THE UNION" means all of the Rules of the Union as read and construed in totality while "NATIONAL RULES" shall refer to these rules, "BRANCH RULES" shall refer to the Rules of any Branch of the Union established under the Rules of the Union, "DIVISIONAL RULES" shall refer to the Rules of any Division established in accordance with the Rules of the union, and "DIVISIONAL BRANCH RULES" or "DIVISIONAL DISTRICT BRANCH RULES "shall refer to the rules of Divisional Branches, being a branch of a Division, established in accordance with the Rules of the union.

"MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE" and/or "EXECUTIVE" shall be synonymous and shall mean the controlling and administrative body of the organ so referred to, ie Division or Branch or Divisional Branch.

"PREFERENTIAL VOTING" shall mean a system of voting in which the voter shall place the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom they vote as first preference and shall place the number 2, 3, 4 (and so on, as the case requires) in the squares opposite the names of all the remaining candidates so as to indicate the order of preference for them.

> In a ballot by the preferential system the valid ballot papers shall be separated into separate parcels, each such parcel containing all those papers on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate.
> If on the first count a candidate receives an absolute majority of first preference votes of total valid votes cast then that candidate shall be declared elected.
>
> If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the candidate with the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded and the ballot papers on which a first preference is indicated for such candidate shall be counted to the remaining candidates next in the voters' order of preference.
>
> If a candidate has then an absolute majority of votes then that candidate shall be elected, but if no candidate then has a majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and the distribution of the vote preferences shall continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.
>
> In cases where more than one position is to be filled the numbers placed opposite the candidates' names up to the number of positions to be filled shall be first preference votes and the procedure in respect to the distribution of preferences shall be the same as is above prescribed where a ballot is for a single position.
> The candidate or candidates as the case may be, who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

"GENERAL ELECTIONS" shall mean the elections held every four years commencing in 1996 office to be taken on 2 January 1997 in accordance with the Rules of the Union, with the exception of the Mining and Energy Division, where office will be taken 1 July 1996.

"PLURAL/SINGULAR" every reference in these rules to the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.

6 - SEAL

(i) The Seal of the Union shall be oval in shape inscribed on the outer edge "Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union".

(ii) The Seal shall be kept in the custody of the National Secretary.

(iii) Any document required or permitted by the Workplace Relations Act to be under seal shall be executed on behalf of the Union by affixing the Seal of the Union thereto and by being signed by the National Secretary or in the absence of the National Secretary, either the National President or National Assistant Secretary.

(iv) Any document otherwise required by law to be under seal shall be executed by affixing the Seal of the Union thereto and by being signed by the National Secretary and either the National President or National Assistant Secretary.

7 - MEMBERSHIP

(i) A candidate for membership of the Union may make application to the National Secretary, the Division covering the occupation or industry in which the person is employed, the Branch covering the area in which the person is employed or resides, or the Divisional Branch covering the industry or occupation in which the person is employed, usually employed or desirous of being employed and the area in which the person resides or is employed, and such application shall be made and dealt with in the manner and subject to the conditions including conditions as to any probationary period required by the rules of the Division. Any application shall be forwarded to the office in the appropriate division which under the rules of that division deals with such applications. The decision to accept or reject that application shall be made in accordance with the Rules of that division by that office. Provided that where a person makes application to any officer of the Union that application shall be a valid application for membership of the Union and the Union shall, treat the member as a member of the Division to which the officer is attached, until transferred in accordance with the rules.

(ii) Candidates shall supply such information as to their identity and occupation, and such other particulars as to their eligibility for membership and the benefits of membership as the Rules of the Union may require, and shall, when requested, fill in and sign such application form as may be provided.

(iii) (a) Any application for membership may be referred to the National Executive by the Division, or Divisional Branch to whom application is made or by the member.

(b) Where in any case the admission to membership of the person applying is rejected, such person shall have the right to appeal to the National Executive, whose decision shall be final.

(iv) A member shall be attached to the Division of the Union covering the industry or employment of the member and shall be in only one such Division. Each member shall be notified of the Division to which such member is attached or any other classification relevant to the Rules of the Union and such Division or classification shall be entered on the record of the Union in relation to that member which record shall be conclusive proof of the Division and/or classification to which that member is assigned.

(v)(a) Notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in the Rules of the Union no application for membership of the union shall be void or irregular only for the reason that the form of application is not fully completed or completed at all, or that some other form of application is used, or any other procedure under the Rules has not been complied with provided that the person intended to, and did in fact, in some way or other, apply for membership and the Union treated the person as a member. A member may be transferred to another Division, Branch or Divisional Branch without loss of continuity of membership. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a person who, at the time of application for membership was not eligible to be or become a member, shall be and become a member as soon as the person is eligible to be and become a member or earlier if by any Act, law or other Rule the membership is otherwise validated provided that the person performs an act which evidences an intention to be or become a member. For all purposes the payment of union dues in whole or in part shall be taken to be, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a method by which a person intended to, and did in fact, in some way or other, apply for membership and/or evidences an intention to be or become a member.

(b) Without affecting or detracting from the requirements of sub-rules 42(iii) and 42(xii) and without limiting the rights of the member or a Division, Divisional Branch or authorised officer thereof, to seek or obtain a transfer of Division or Divisional Branch in accordance with the rules, no membership of the Union and no membership or attachment to a Division, Branch or Divisional Branch of the Union shall be invalidated, void or otherwise treated as irregular on account of the member being attached to a Division, Branch or Divisional Branch which, in accordance with the Rules, may not be the correct Division, Branch or Divisional Branch provided that the member was eligible for membership of the Union and the member was aware of the Division, Branch or Divisional Branch to which the member was attached. Every member of the Union who, on the records of the Union, is financial and is, on those records, attached to a Division, Branch or Divisional Branch shall be treated for all purposes as a financial member thereof and shall be entitled to all rights and required to comply with all obligations which attach thereto until transferred in accordance with the Rules.

(vi) Any Division or Branch or Divisional Branch may utilise for the purposes of application form for membership of this Union, an application form used for any previously registered organisation of employees which has become, upon amalgamation, part of this Union or any application form utilised jointly or otherwise with any trade union of employees registered under any legislation of a State or Territory.

(vii) A member shall, when applying for membership be informed of the financial obligations arising from membership and the circumstances, and the manner, in which a member may resign from the organisation and shall be informed of such in writing.

(viii) (a) Where a Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary is of the view that a person in the Division or Divisional Branch of which she/he is an officer should be attached to another Division or Divisional Branch the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary shall contact the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary of the Division or Divisional Branch to which, in the view formed, the member should be attached, and seek to obtain agreement on the transfer of the said member. Where agreement cannot be reached the matter may be referred to the National Secretary and be determined by the National Executive or an officer designated by the National Executive.

(b) Further provided that where a Divisional Secretary or a Divisional Branch Secretary forms the view that a member of another Division or Divisional Branch ought to be a member of the Division or Divisional Branch to which the Divisional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary is attached, the Divsional Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary shall contact the the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch to which the member is now attached and seek agreement that the member be transferred. Where agreement cannot be reached the matter may be referred to the National Secretary and be determined by the National Executive or an officer designated by the National Executive.

(c) In relation to the two immediately foregoing paragraphs contact between Divisions and/or Divisional Branches in relation to these issues may, by custom and practice or by agreement, be dealt with by an officer other than the Divisonal Secretary or Divisional Branch Secretary or may be dealt with by members of staff. Where a member is transferred or determined to be transferred in accordance with either of the immediately preceding paragraphs the member shall be notified accordingly and the transfer shall be effective 14 days after the notification to the member. Within that period the member may object to said transfer and such objection will be determined by the National Executive. Pending such objection the member shall nevertheless be transferred in accordance with any of the aforesaid agreements and/or determinations.

(d) Any determination by the National Executive or officer designated by the National Executive shall use the principles established in and by sub-rules 42(i) and 42(iii) hereof.

Nothing in these paragraphs shall affect or detract from the provisions of subrule(s) 42(i), (iii) and (xii) and membership of a Division or a Divisonal Branch shall be valid notwithstanding an irregularity in, breach of or failure to comply with the procedures in either one or both paragraphs (a) or (b) herein.

8 - ENTRANCE FEES AND CONTRIBUTIONS

(i) Entrance fees and contributions payable by any person on application to join the union and/or for membership or continuous membership of the Union shall be in accordance with the Rules of the division to which, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, the person or member is to be or is assigned.

(ii) Any member who has failed to pay the entrance fees, or contributions, levies and fines imposed in accordance with the rules of the union on or before the date specified in such rules, shall be deemed to be unfinancial, and shall not be eligible to receive any benefits, participate in any deliberations, propose or second any new applicant for admission or exercise any authority or any membership rights, provided that the rules may provide that some members or some class or classes of members may vote in a ballot and/or may differentiate between classes of members as to the amount of any contribution and/or entrance fee.

(iii) A member shall be deemed to be financial immediately upon payment of all arrears outstanding.

(iv) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in Rules 7 and 8 of these National Rules or any Divisional Rules to the contrary, the Union may reach agreement with any organisation of employees, trade union, industrial union or organisation, whether incorporated or otherwise or whether registered under a law of the Commonwealth, State or Territory or unregistered (herein referred to as an "association"), which agreement may provide for automatic membership of this Union for members of any such association and may provide for the receipt and holding of moneys jointly or in common by the aforementioned association and this Union and conversely the automatic membership of members of this Union in such an association.

(b) The Union may, by agreement or unilaterally, grant to any class of members, who are members of another association of a kind referred to in paragraph (a) hereof, membership and waive the requirement to pay an entrance fee and/or contributions in whole or in part.

(c) Nothing in this Sub-Rule shall render eligible for membership any person not otherwise eligible for membership of the Union under the eligibility Rules or pursuant to S.202 of the Industrial Relations Act, or any other provision of that Act or any Act amending or replacing same. Further, "automatic membership" when used in this Sub-Rule shall mean membership granted to a member free of the payment of any entrance fee and contribution in circumstances where the person applying for membership has signified an intention to become a member or having been notified that membership would be granted unless objected to, has not signified objection to that membership.

9 - CLEARANCES

(i) A member desiring to transfer to any other union covering their calling shall make application to the Divisional Branch Secretary, or where the rules of the union so provide, Divisional Sub-Branch, in writing, and shall pay all dues owing to the union, and the transfer will be forwarded to the Secretary of the union to which the member desires to transfer. Such member shall cease to be a member of this Union as from the date on which the transfer is forwarded to the Secretary of such other union.

(ii) Any member of a kindred trade union, or any union whose Awards cover workers specified in Rule 2 of the rules of the union, may be admitted to membership on production to the Divisional Branch Secretary, or where the rules of the Division so provide, the Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District Secretary, of a clearance from such union showing that all dues, contributions and levies payable to such union have been paid. The membership of a person so admitted shall commence as from the date of the production of their clearance. The rules of the Union may provide for persons who had been members of any Division or Divisional Branch of this Union to be admitted without entrance fees or other special conditions.

(iii) A clearance shall not be granted to any member unless all moneys owing have first been paid.

10 - TRANSFERS

(1) A member attached to any Divisional Branch of any Division who is working within the area covered by another Divisional Branch may be transferred to the latter Divisional Branch. The member shall apply to the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch, or where the Divisional Branch rules so provide, of the Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District to which the member was attached for a clearance, and provided the member is financial, the Divisional Branch or Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District Secretary shall forward to the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch to which the member desires to be transferred, the clearance. A member shall be deemed to be attached to the new Divisional Branch as from the date of the receipt of the clearance by the Divisional Branch Secretary of such Divisional Branch, or where the Divisional Branch rules so provide, by the secretary of the Divisional Sub-Branch or Divisional District, and the member's length of membership of the new Divisional Branch shall be the length of the latest period of membership of the Union.

11 - RESIGNATION OF MEMBERS

(1) A member may resign from membership of the Union by a written notice addressed and delivered to the Divisional Branch Secretary or other officer of the Divisional Branch authorised to receive such correspondence.

(2) The notice of resignation will take effect where that member,

(a) ceases to be eligible to become a member of the Union:

(i) on the day on which the notice is received by the Union; or

(ii) on the day specified in the notice, which is a day not earlier than the day when the member ceases to be eligible to be a member;

whichever is later; or

(b) in any other case:

(i) at the end of 2 weeks after the notice is received by the Union; or

(ii) on the day specified in the notice;

whichever is later.

(3) All contributions and or levies due in relation to the period before the members resignation took effect are to be paid. Where the member fails to do so the Union may prosecute such member in the appropriate court for the recovery of that amount.

(4) A notice delivered to the person mentioned in sub-rule (1) shall be taken to have been received by the Union when it was delivered.

(5) A notice of resignation that has been received by the Union is not invalid because it was not addressed and delivered in accordance with sub-rule (1).

(6) A resignation from membership of the union is valid even if it is not effected in accordance with this rule if the member is informed in writing by or on behalf of the union that the resignation has been accepted.

12 - REGISTER OF MEMBERS

A register of members and any other records of the Union required to be kept by the Industrial Relations Act and the Regulations made thereunder shall be kept at the registered office of the Union and so far as such records relate to a Division or Divisional Branch at the registered office of that Division or Divisional Branch.

13 - SUPREME GOVERNING BODY IN UNION

(i) The supreme governing body of the union shall be the National Conference convened every two (2) years or specially in accordance with these National Rules.

(ii) The National Conference shall consist of all of the members of each and every Divisional Executive for every Division of the Union. Provided that existing elected officers of the National Executive who are retiring from office and who have not been re-elected as members of their Divisional Executive shall be entitled to attend the National Conference until their successors are elected and shall be entitled to all rights of a conference delegate other than nominating and voting on any matter. Further provided that, if not otherwise a delegate to National Conference by virtue of this sub-clause, members of the National Executive entitled to attend and vote thereat shall, ipso facto, be delegates to the National Conference and treated, in all respects, as delegates in the same way as a member of the Divisional Executive and for the purposes of sub-rule (iii) of this Rule be treated as a member of the Divisional Executive from the Division of which such person is a member. Further provided that any person not entitled to attend and/or vote at their Divisional Executive by virtue of the Rules of the Division shall not be entitled, notwithstanding any of the foregoing in this sub-rule, to attend and/or vote at National Conference.

(iii) Persons elected as members of a Divisional Executive shall be elected in accordance with the rules of the Division. Nothing in this sub-rule shall prevent the filling of a vacancy between ordinary elections or interfere with the transitional provisions which shall take effect on and from amalgamation. Each such member of a Divisional Executive shall exercise a vote on the National Conference equal to the percentage of financial members of the Union in the Division from which the member derives divided by the number of members of the Divisional Executive entitled to vote. Provided that nothing in this sub-rule prevents proxy voting or multiple voting.

(iv) The percentage of financial members belonging to any Division shall be the sum of the percentages of financial members of the Divisional Branches within that Division.

For the purposes of this rule, the percentage of financial members of any Divisional Branch shall be calculated by dividing the total income received by the Divisional Branch from contributions only, by the amount of contributions fixed for ordinary members for that Divisional Branch and determining that number as a percentage of total membership of the Union calculated in the same way. This calculation shall be performed for the first six month period of the financial year preceding the year in which the National Conference is held.

(v) Members of Divisional Executives and National Conference shall remain in office until the election of their successors.

(vi) Should any member of a Divisional Executive die or resign or should there be, for any other reason whatsoever, a vacant position as delegate or member to Divisional Executive and/or National Conference, the Divisional Branch Executive of the Divisional Branch in which the vacancy would otherwise be filled may forthwith cause an election for another member or, where the unexpired part of the term for that office until the next general elections does not exceed three quarters of the ordinary term of office, the Divisional Branch Executive may appoint a delegate to such Divisional Conference to be the member or delegate from or of the Divisional Branch in place of the member or delegate who is deceased or has resigned or to fill the position otherwise left vacant. Provided a person appointed by a Divisional Branch Executive in the manner mentioned herein shall hold office only for the residue of the period until the next general elections.

The method of such election or appointment shall be the same, the necessary changes being made, as the method of election or appointment (as the case may be) of the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch from which the vacancy is to be filled in accordance with the rules of the Divisional Branch.

(vii) Divisions or Divisional Branches may, where elected Divisional Branch delegates or members to or of National Conference agree, arrange multiple voting representation at a National Conference by notifying the National Conference of the number of divisional delegates or members to be credentialed and of the arrangements for proxy voting to be adopted by that Division or Divisional Branch at the National Conference.

(viii) Where a delegate is unable to attend a meeting of the National Conference or any part thereof that delegate may where the Divisional Executive agrees appoint another elected delegate to National Conference from the same Division as proxy to act in that delegate's stead. Where the Divisional Executive agrees, a delegate may appoint as the proxy to National Conference an elected delegate from another Division. Each member of the Divisional Executive shall be a delegate to the National Conference.

(ix) Six delegates, representing not less than two Divisions, shall form a quorum of the National Conference.

(x) The National Conference shall have power, unless any rule deprives the National Conference of power or grants to another body within the Union exclusive power over a subject matter, to:

(a) take such steps as it shall think fit to carry out all or any of the objects of the Union and to raise or spend such funds as are necessary to carry out the objects;

(b) decide the general policy of the Union and to take steps to enforce the carrying out of such policy;

(c) subject to the rules prescribing the procedure to be followed, impose penalties being fines not exceeding the sum of $100, suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office, on officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates, for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules of the Union or decisions of the National Conference or the National Executive.
Provided that:

* a copy of the rules of the Union of which there is an alleged breach, and/or the decisions of National Conference or National Executive of which there is an alleged breach are available to members at each Branch office;

* no penalties shall be imposed unless the officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting; particulars are given in the summons of the offence alleged (including the time and places alleged that the offence was committed); and that person charged is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in their own defence, including an opportunity to cross examine and to give and call evidence. Nothing in the preceding rule requires the procedures of court. A period of suspension imposed under this rule shall not exceed six (6) months;

(d) hear and decide any appeal from the National Executive or any Divisional Branch, or Branch or member. Any appeal from a member must be forwarded through the Divisional Branch Committee. Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard;

(e) settle disputes between Divisions;

(f) deal with and decide any matter submitted to it by any Division or Branch of the Union;

(g) confirm, overrule or otherwise deal with decisions of the National Executive;

(h) establish Divisions of the Union;

(j) exercise all or any of the powers of the National Executive;

(k) subject to Rule 25, make alter and rescind any of the Rules of the union, including Branch Rules, Divisional Rules and Divisional Branch Rules;

(l) confer life membership on a member of the Union.

(xi) A National Conference shall be held not later than twenty four (24) months after each general election of the Divisional Branch delegates to National Conference and at such place and time as the National Executive shall decide.

(xii) The business to be dealt with by National Conference shall be shown on the agenda paper, but matters may be added to the agenda paper if agreed to by a majority of delegates at the National Conference. Any matter appearing on the agenda paper may be amended by the National Conference.

(xiii) Notice of every National Conference, together with a copy of the agenda paper therefore shall be posted by the National Secretaries to each Divisional Secretary and each Branch Secretary one calendar month before the date of such meeting, or where agenda items have not been finalised one calendar month before the meeting then they shall be sent at the earliest practicable time.

Notice shall also be posted to all delegates so as to give them at least the notice provided for herein.

(xiv) A copy of the Minutes containing all decisions and business of the National Conference shall be forwarded to each Divisional Secretary and to each Divisional Branch Secretary within two (2) months of the conclusion of each National Conference. Any member of the Union may, upon request to the Divisional Branch Secretary, inspect a copy of the minutes of each National Conference at the Divisional Branch Office or Divisional Office during the ordinary hours in which the Divisional Branch or Division is open.

(xv) The National Secretary on receipt of resolutions from a majority of Divisions or from Divisional Branches representing a majority of members or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10% of the financial members of the Union calling for a special Conference shall call such Conference within thirty (30) days. Each Division, Divisional Branch and delegate to National Conference shall be advised by letter of National Conference business fourteen (14) days prior to the date of the Conference so fixed. The National Executive may direct the National Secretary to call a special conference at any time. Divisions, Divisional Branches and delegates to National Conference shall be given seven (7) days' notice if practicable. Notice shall be given by letter, facsimile, telegram or telex.

Notwithstanding anything contained in any other rule, the National Executive may direct the National Secretaries to conduct a postal, telephonic, telegraphic, telex, verbal and/or written vote (or combination thereof) of delegates to National Conference to obtain a decision on any matter.

14 - NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

(i) The National Executive Committee shall consist of the National Principal Officers, being the National Secretary of the CFMEU, the Divisional Secretary of the Construction and General Division, the Divisional Secretary of the Forestry, Furnishing, Building Products and Manufacturing Division, the General President of the Mining and Energy Division; together with the fulltime elected Officers of each Division who are fulltime at the National level and are not already one of the aforementioned National Principal Officers; two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries of the Forestry, Furnishing, Building Products and Manufacturing Division, one of whom shall be the Principal Officer of the Pulp and Paper Industry Sector and the other of whom shall be the Principal Officer of the Furnishing Industry Sector; and the Divisional President, and two (2) Divisional Assistant Secretaries of the Construction and General Division if not otherwise included.

(ii) The National Executive Committee shall, subject to the review of its actions by the National Executive, have the care, control, superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business, national funds of the Union and without limiting the generality of the foregoing it may:

(a) interpret and enforce the general policy of the Union as decided by National Executive and/or National Conference.

(b) decide questions of policy not covered by the National Executive and/or National Conference decisions.

(c) control and conduct the business and affairs of the Union while the National Executive or National Conference is not in session.

(d) Expend such moneys by way of ordinary expenditure as may be necessary.

(e) Submit any matter to the National Executive for decision.

(f) Control and supervise the work of the National Officers of the Union.

(g) All decisions of the National Executive Committee shall be made by a majority of the members present at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules.

(iii) Meetings of the National Executive and National Executive Committee shall be held at such time and place as shall be decided by the National President and the National Secretary, provided that a majority of the members of the National Executive may demand a meeting of such National Executive which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such members of the National Executive. The quorum for any meeting shall be six (6). A majority of the National Officers may demand a meeting of the National Executive Committee which shall be held at such time and place as stipulated by such National Officers. The quorum for any meeting of the National Executive Committee shall be four (4).

(iv) The National Secretary may take a telegraphic, telex, facsimile, telephonic, email, written and/or postal vote of members of the National Executive or National Executive Committee at any time. Members of the National Executive or National Executive Committee shall be advised of the details of the voting. Such vote shall have the same effect as a decision of such body made in meetings assembled.

(v) Notice of meetings may be given by letter or telegram or telex or facsimile or email or otherwise in writing or by telephone or verbally, provided that in the latter two instances such is confirmed by letter or telegram or telex or facsimile or email.

15 - NATIONAL EXECUTIVE

(i) There shall be a National Executive composed of the National Executive Committee, as defined in these rules, and the principal officer of each Divisional Branch of the Union that is not otherwise a member of the National Executive Committee. Provided that any such Principal Officer of a Divisional Branch shall not be entitled to attend and/or vote at any meeting of the National Executive or vote on any issue before the National Executive if such Principal Officer is not entitled to attend and/or vote, in that capacity, the Divisional Executive of the Division to which the Divisional Branch is attached.

(ii) The National officers shall be elected, except in the case of any vacancy occurring or arising between general elections, by and from the National Collegiate in 1994 and every subsequent four (4) years thereafter and shall hold office until their successors are elected.

(iii) Following the Divisional Conferences in 1993 and the Divisional Conferences following the general elections every four years thereafter the National Executive shall appoint a person as Returning Officer, who shall not be the holder of any office in, and shall not be an employee of, the Union or of any Division, Branch, Divisional Branch or any section of the Union. Such Returning Officer shall have the conduct of the election of the National Officers in accordance with these Rules.

(iv) The National Executive shall, unless its actions are overturned by the National Conference, have the care, control, superintendence, management and administration in all respects of the affairs, business, national funds and property of the Union and shall have and may exercise no more and no less than all of the powers of the National Conference and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing may:

(a) Interpret and enforce the general policy of the union as decided by National Conference.

(b) Control and conduct the business and affairs of the union while National Conference is not in session.

(c) Appoint the editor of any national union journal and manage and control the policy of such journal.

(d) Hear and decide any appeal from any Division or Branch. Reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to all parties involved, who shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

(e) Settle disputes between Divisions or Branches. Any Division or Branch concerned shall be given reasonable notice of the meeting and an opportunity of being heard before any settlement is effected.

(f) Expend such moneys by way of ordinary expenditure as may be necessary.

(g) Submit any matter to the members for decision by ballot.

(h) Ensure that officers, committee members, delegates or members and Divisions and Branches carry out the rules and decisions of the Union and subject to Rule 19 impose penalties [i.e. fines not exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars], suspension, expulsion or dismissal from office, upon any officers, members, representatives, committee members or delegates for knowingly refusing to comply with the rules or the decisions of the National Conference or the National Executive.

Provided that the rules, the decisions of National Conference or the National Executive are available to members in the minutes of the National Conference or the National Executive and the registered rules of the Union at each Branch office. No penalty shall be imposed unless -

* The officer, member, representative, committee member or delegate concerned has been summoned to attend the meeting seven (7) days prior to the meeting;

* Particulars are given in the summons of the offence alleged, including the time and place it was alleged the offence was committed;

* The member is afforded an opportunity of being present at the hearing and of being heard in the member's own defence, including an opportunity to cross-examine and to give and call evidence.

Period of suspension imposed under these rules shall not exceed six months.

(j) Subject to rules relating to the autonomy of divisions, take such action as may be necessary to secure the satisfactory working of any Division or Branch or Divisional Branch in the event of the affairs of that Division, Branch or Divisional Branch being so conducted as to affect the proper functioning of the Union, as a registered organisation, or as to make the Union liable for a breach or breaches of the Industrial Relations Act. Subject to Rule 19 herein, such action may include the suspension or dismissal of all or any members holding positions in, or for, a Division or Branch and the appointment of a member of the National Executive or any other member or members of the Union to conduct the affairs of the such Division, Branch or Divisional Branch.

(k) Control and supervise the work of the National Officers of the union.

(l) All decisions of the National Executive shall be made by a majority of the votes cast at the meeting unless otherwise provided by these rules. The votes cast by members of the National Executive shall be on a card system and the value of the vote cast by any member of the National Executive, including National Officers, shall be determined in the same way, the necessary changes being made as the value of a vote cast by delegates to the National Conference with National Officers being included in the Division from which they derive. Provided that in the calculation of votes cast by members of the National Executive herein, no member of the National Executive who is not entitled to attend and/or vote at the National Executive meeting shall be included as a member for the purposes of the aforesaid calculations.

(m) A loan, grant or donation of an amount exceeding $1,000 shall not be made by this Union unless the National Executive -

(a) has satisfied itself -

* that the making of the loan, grant or donation would be in accordance with the other rules of the Union; and

* in relation to a loan - that, in the circumstances, the security proposed to be given for the repayment of the loan is adequate and the proposed arrangements for the repayment of the loan are satisfactory; and

(b) has approved the making of the loan, grant or donation.

(n) Subject to Rule 25, make, alter and rescind any of the rules of the Union, including Branch Rules, Divisional Rules and Divisional Branch Rules;

(o) Affiliate to any body on behalf of the Union, or, if any Division objects to any affiliation to affiliate on behalf of those Divisions which do not so object;

(p) appoint representatives of the Union to any body;

(q) to affiliate to the Australian Council of Trade Unions and appoint representatives thereto on the basis of proportional representation of each Division.

(r) confer life membership on a member of the Union.

(v) All acts and decisions of the National Executive shall have full force and effect and full validity unless and until such acts or decisions are reversed or amended by the National Executive or the National Conference.

16 - ELECTION OF NATIONAL OFFICERS

(i) The National Secretary, National Assistant Secretary and National President shall be elected by and from the National Collegiate, namely the delegates to all of the Divisional Conferences of the Union and the ballot for such positions shall be a secret postal ballot of delegates to all Divisional Conferences conducted, the necessary changes being made, in accordance with Rule 17 of these rules.

Provided that, for Divisions with more than one Divisional Branch, each Division shall be represented by at least one Officer.

Further provided that, for Division with more than one Divisional Branch, each Division shall hold at least one position of Joint Vice President as follows:

* Joint Vice President (Construction and General Division)
* Joint Vice President (FFPD Division)
* Joint Vice President (Mining & Energy Division)

Further provided that, each Division, prior to the calling for nominations, shall decide its nominees for the above positions by resolution from that Division's National Conference.

Further provided that there shall be a Principal Officer of the FFPD Division representing the former FFTS Division who shall be a National Senior Vice-President. Such officer shall be and remain a member of the National Executive and the National Executive Committee.

Further provided that the Construction & General Division Senior Vice-President (Builders Labourers) shall be a National Senior Vice-President and shall be and remain a member of the National Executive and National Executive Committee.

Further provided that the Construction & General Division Senior Vice-President (former National Secretary of the OPDU) shall be a National Senior Vice-President and shall be and remain a member of the National Executive and National Executive Committee.

All full-time officers of each Division, not otherwise elected to any of the foregoing positions, shall be and remain members of the National Executive Committee.

(ii) If the nominations are equal to the number of positions to be filled the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare candidates elected. An officer shall not hold more than one position on the National Executive or National Executive Committee.

(iii) If there are more candidates than the number required for filling the office/s the Returning Officer shall prepare voting papers and conduct the ballot.

(iv) The Returning Officer shall declare the result of the ballot as soon as the count is completed. In the event of a tie, the Returning Officer shall determine the result by declaring a candidate who currently holds the office being contested being elected, should no candidate currently hold the office the Returning Officer shall declare the result by casting lots.

(v) Except in so far as any Act from time to time provides otherwise, whenever any member has been declared elected to any office the member declared to be elected to such office, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity which may have occurred in or in connection with the calling for and dealing with nominations or the conduct of a ballot shall be recognised as validly holding such office.

(vi) A National Executive member and National Executive Committee member and National Officer shall hold office until a successor to such person is elected.

(vii) (a) Where a vacancy occurs in any office under these rules for any reason whatsoever including but not limited to the death, resignation, retirement or dismissal of any officer, such vacancy may be filled by appointment by the Divisional Executive to which the office or officer relates provided that the person so appointed shall hold office for as much of the unexpired part of the term of the office as does not exceed the greater of twelve months or three quarters of the term of the office.

(b) Where the unexpired part of the term of office exceeds that specified in this sub-rule, the Returning Officer shall conduct an election of delegates to all Divisional Conferences to fill the vacancy and the person elected shall hold office for the remainder of the term of office.

(c) Such election shall, the necessary changes being made, be in accordance with Rule 17 (iii) hereof.

(viii) The Returning Officer in any election shall declare the result to members of the National Executive and may do so by post, letter, telegram, telephone, telex, facsimile and/or verbally as soon as the count is completed.

(ix) Provision to be made for the representatives of Divisions to cast votes proportionate to the membership of the respective Division in any ballot for the election of National Officers.

17 - ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO DIVISIONAL CONFERENCES

(i) The method of electing Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall be in accordance with the Rules of the Division every four (4) years in conjunction with the Divisional Branch elections. Such election shall be by direct ballot of the financial members of each Divisional Branch.

(ii) When an election is required to be conducted by these rules the Divisional Branch Executive shall appoint a Divisional Branch Returning Officer who shall not be the holder of an office in and shall not be an employee of, the Union or of any Division, Branch, Divisional Branch or sub-Branch or section of the Union.

(iii) Except in the case of the Mining & Energy Division elections for Divisional Branch Delegates to Divisional Conference shall be in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) The method of electing Divisional Branch delegates to Divisional Conference shall be by secret postal ballot of the whole Divisional Branch financial members entitled to vote in such elections, which shall be held every four (4) years in conjunction with the Divisional Branch elections.

(b) When an election is required to be conducted by these rules the Divisional Branch Executive shall appoint a Divisional Branch Returning Officer who shall not be the holder of an office in and shall not be an employee of, the Union or of any Division, Branch, Divisional Branch or sub-Branch or section of the Union.

(c) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall have the conduct of such elections in accordance with these rules. Where practicable such election to be conducted in conjunction with Divisional Branch election of Officers.

(d) A Divisional Branch Returning Officer may, at any time in writing, resign his or her position and shall resign if they desire to become a candidate at any elections held under the rules of the Union.

Any casual vacancy of a Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall be filled by the Divisional Branch Executive.

(e) That nominations are called in accordance with the rules of the Division.

(f) Any member of the Divisional Branch who is financial at the time nominations are called and has had not less than three years financial membership of the Union may nominate for the position of Divisional Branch delegate to Divisional Conference.

For the purpose of this rule and for the purpose of all provisions of the rules of the union relating to financial membership and the length of financial membership or length of membership, membership of an organization amalgamating with the union or which has amalgamated with the union shall be counted for all purposes as membership of the union and financial membership of this union or a union amalgamating with this union for all purposes. This provision relates to all rules of the Union relating to the membership, or length of financial membership, or length of continuous membership in the Union or in any Division thereof.

(g) That the nominations process, closure and receiving of, are in accordance with the rules of the Division.

(h) Candidates may include with their nomination form a statement or joint statement not exceeding 200 words containing only the candidate's personal history and only the candidate's policy statement or joint statement.

(i) Officers of all Divisional Branches holding such office at the date of amalgamation shall remain in office until the general election of officers held in 1996 and shall be eligible to nominate in that election. In this paragraph officers of all Divisional Branches shall mean officers of branches of the amalgamating unions being the persons listed in the schedule hereto.

(j) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall examine all nominations to ensure that they are in order and if any nominations are found to be defective the Divisional Branch Returning Officer, before rejecting the nomination, shall notify the person concerned of the defect and where practicable to do so give them the opportunity of remedying the defect within a period of not less than seven (7) days after being so notified.

(k) If at the closing date for nominations only sufficient nominations have been received by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer to fill any vacancy or vacancies the Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall thereupon declare the person or persons so nominating elected and supply forthwith a report of the declaration of the ballot to the Divisional Conference and candidates by submitting a Divisional Branch Returning Officers report to the National, Divisional, Divisional Branch, and Branch Secretaries.

(l) If all nominations are received and there are more nominations than there are vacancies the Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall conduct a draw for positions on the ballot paper and shall notify candidates of the time and place of the draw in sufficient time for a candidate or their nominee to attend the draw; such attendance shall be at the candidate's own cost and expense.

(m) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall forthwith have printed ballot papers in sufficient quantities to enable them to supply a ballot paper for each member eligible to vote in the election and secure a certificate from the printer as to the number printed.

(n) Such ballot papers shall have printed thereon only the title of the office to be filled, method of voting and the name of the candidates for such office and a space for the required vote to be registered, provided however that where more than one candidate is required to be elected the number to be elected shall be printed on the ballot paper. The position of the names of each candidate on the ballot paper shall be in order of the draw of positions for that ballot.

(o) Where a ballot is required, the Divisional Branch Secretary of the Divisional Branch concerned shall provide, within thirty five (35) days of the closing of nominations, a certified list of financial members entitled to vote to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer.

(p) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall on a date which will enable the ballot paper to be posted not later than fourteen (14) clear days before the closing date of the ballot, send by either certified mail or prepaid ordinary mail to each member eligible to vote in the election an envelope addressed to such member at their address appearing on the list of members eligible to vote supplied to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer by each Divisional Branch Secretary, and that envelope shall contain only the following documents:

(a) a ballot paper initialled by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer in respect of each office to be filled at the election for which the member is eligible to vote;

(b) an empty unsealed pre-paid post envelope addressed to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer, c/- the numbered mail box referred to in this rule;

(c) such printed instructions necessary for the completion of each of the ballot papers enclosed in the said envelope and any other instructions that the Divisional Branch Returning Officer may consider necessary;

(d) The candidates statement provided for in accordance with sub-rule (iii) (h) hereof.

(q) For the purpose of the election the books of the Divisional Branches shall be deemed closed in accordance with the rules of the Division.

(r) That the opening and closing of the ballot shall be in accordance with the rules of the Division.

(s) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall collect the returned ballot papers from the post office box and deposit them in a ballot box kept at the post office or at the office of the Australian Electoral Commission until the commencement of the count of the ballot.

(t) At the conclusion of the ballot the ballot box shall be picked up by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer at a time reasonable notice of which has been given to the Scrutineers and taken to the Divisional Branch rooms or to the office of the Australian Electoral Commission and be opened in the presence of the Scrutineers and counting shall then proceed. If it is necessary to interrupt the count for any purpose the papers shall be sealed in the ballot box to which any seals may be fixed by a Scrutineer.

(u) Any candidate at their own expense, may appoint a financial member of the union to act as their Scrutineer by notification in writing to the Divisional Branch Returning Officer. Any Scrutineers so appointed may be present at any stage of the counting of the ballot provided that the Divisional Branch Returning Officer is also present.

(v) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall proceed to count the ballot on the preferential system provided for in this rule, and the candidate or candidates receiving the necessary quota shall be declared elected. The counting of the ballot shall commence no later than on the first working day after the closing of the ballot and shall be completed as soon as is practicable.

(w) In the case of an equality of votes for any two or more candidates the Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall determine which of the candidates is elected, by declaring the candidate who currently holds the office being contested being elected, should no candidate hold the current office the Returning Officer shall declare the result by casting lots.

(x) The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall declare the successful candidates elected and notify the National, Divisional and Divisional Branch Executive of the result of the ballot. The Divisional Branch Executive shall issue instructions for the publication of same in their minutes and in the journal or newspaper of the Divisional Branch. The Divisional Branch Returning Officer shall also notify each successful candidate by post and publish their names in at least one daily newspaper circulating in the Branch area. The date of completion of the ballot shall be the date of the declaration thereof.

(y) The successful candidate/s shall become the Divisional Branch delegate to the Divisional Conference.

(z) Should a vacancy occur of a Divisional Branch delegate to Divisional Conference Rule 13 sub-rule (vi) shall apply.

(aa) Any accidental or unavoidable omission or error in the carrying out or observance of this rule shall not invalidate an election if such omission or error appears not to have affected the result of an election.

(bb) In any election the Divisional Branch Returning Officer and any Scrutineer shall do all things necessary to preserve the secrecy of the ballot and shall conduct themselves in a sober, proper and impartial manner. Scrutineers shall, as far as practicable, be given the opportunity to be present at all stages of the ballot. They shall obey any directions given to them by the Divisional Branch Returning Officer. If any Scrutineers or Scrutineer are not present at any stage or stages of the ballot the Divisional Branch Returning Officer may proceed nonetheless.

(cc) Definitions:

"Preferential Voting" shall mean a system of voting in which the voter shall place the number 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom the voter gives as their first preference, and shall place the number 2, 3, 4 (and so on as the case requires) in the squares opposite the names of all the remaining candidates so as to indicate the order of the preference for them. In a ballot by the preferential system the valid ballot papers shall be separated into separate parcels, each such parcel containing all those papers on which first preference is indicated for the same candidate. If on the first count a candidate receives an absolute majority of first preference votes of total valid votes cast they shall be declared elected.

If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the candidate with the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded and the ballot papers on which a first preference is indicated for such candidate shall be counted to the remaining candidates next in the voters' order of preference. If a candidate has then an absolute majority of votes they shall be elected, but if no candidate then has a majority of votes the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and the distribution of the voters' preferences shall continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes. In cases where more than one position is to be filled the numbers placed opposite the candidates' names up to the number of positions to be filled shall be first preference votes and the procedure in respect to the distribution of preference shall be the same as is above prescribed where a ballot is for a single position. The candidates or candidate, as the case may be, who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

(dd) Those elected shall take office from 2 January in the year following the election.

(ee) This election rule shall apply to all divisions (except Mining and Energy Division) from 1996 and 1996 shall be the first year of such general elections.

18 - DIVISIONAL EXECUTIVE ELECTION

(i) There shall be a Divisional Executive composed in accordance with Divisional Rules and elected in accordance with such Divisional Rules.

(ii) Every Divisional Executive shall be elected either:

(a) by and from the Divisional Conference; or

(b) by direct ballot of the financial members of the Division.

(iii) The Divisional Officers at a national level shall be members of that Divisional Executive.

(iv) The position of delegate to National Conference is to be held by the same person as is holding the position as Divisional Branch member of the Divisional Executive and the election to one position is to be an election to the other position, a removal from one position shall be a removal from the other and they are, for all purposes under these rules to be one and the same person and/or position.

19 - REMOVAL OF OFFICERS

Any Officer may be removed from office by majority decision of the National Executive, provided that such officer shall not be dismissed from office unless found guilty, in accordance with the Rules of the Union, of misappropriation of funds of the Union or a substantial breach of the Rules of the Union or gross misbehaviour or gross neglect of duty or has ceased according to the Rules of the Union to be eligible to hold office.

Any officer so removed from office shall have the right of appeal to the National Conference. In the event of the appeal being upheld the National Conference may order reinstatement to apply on such conditions as it considers the circumstances warrant.

In the event of the re-election of an Officer removed from office under this rule, such officer shall be reimbursed by a payment of monies that represent the difference between such salary the officer would have received had the officer not been removed from office and the amount of salary the officer received during the period the officer was removed from office.

20 - REFERENDA

1. On a decision of a majority of Divisions or Branches or Branches whose membership constitutes a majority of the members or on receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10 per cent of the financial members of the Union, the National Executive shall take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Union upon the matter or matters in the decision of the Divisions or Branches or in the petition. A decision reached by a majority of the actual votes recorded shall be binding on the Union and the members of the Union provided that the decision shall not affect the autonomy of any Division.

2. National Executive or National Conference may at any time of its own motion take a referendum of the whole of the members of the Union upon any matter it thinks fit.

3. The referendum referred to in this rule shall be conducted as follows:

   National Executive shall:

   Determine the question to be submitted to the members and the form of the ballot paper.

   Fix the times for the despatch and return of ballot papers and give the necessary instructions for printing of same.
