The counting of the ballot shall be completed not later than the first day of December following the closing of the ballot.

18.10 In the case of an equality of votes for any two or more candidates the Returning Officer shall determine by casting his vote which of the candidates is elected, provided that where an electoral officer is the Returning Officer he shall determine his casting vote by casting lots.

18.14 In any election the Returning Officer and any Scrutineer shall do all things necessary to preserve the secrecy of the ballot and shall conduct themselves in a sober, proper and impartial manner. Scrutineers shall, as far as practicable, be present at all stages of the ballot. They shall obey any directions given to them by the Returning Officer. In a ballot by the preferential system the valid ballot papers shall be separated into separate parcels, each such parcel containing all those papers on which first preference is indicated for the same candidate. If on the first count a candidate receives an absolute majority of first preference votes of total valid votes cast he shall be declared elected.

18.16.1 If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the candidate with the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded and the ballot papers on which a first preference is indicated for such candidate shall be counted to the remaining candidates next in the voters' order of preference. If a candidate has then an absolute majority of votes he shall be elected, but if no candidate then has a majority of votes the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and the distribution of the voters' preferences shall continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes. In cases where more than one position is to be filled the numbers placed opposite the candidates' names up to the number of positions to be filled shall be first preference votes and the procedure in respect to the distribution of preferences shall be the same as is above prescribed where a ballot is for a single position. The candidates or candidate, as the case may be, who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

Dear Sir,

Please find enclosed an Application for a Rule Change of The Amalgamated Society of Carpenters, Joiners, Bricklayers and Plasterers of Australasia, Union of Employees, Queensland Branch.

You will note that the Union applied for an Application to change the Rules in a similar matter on the 12th March, 1991, but asked that the Rule changes not be registered until further notice.

We wish now to withdraw the earlier Application and proceed with a new Application which in essence shortens the term of the 1991 elections within The Amalgamated Society of Carpenters, Joiners, Bricklayers and Plasterers of Australasia, Union of Employees, Queensland, to 18 months to simultaneously line up with elections within the B.W.I.U. and Australian Timber Workers' Union in 1993.

We note your advice that the certifying barrister had approved our earlier Application and advise that this additional Application does no more than carry out the mechanics necessary to shorten the term to 18 months instead of 2 years as was proposed by our earlier Application.

Leave to withdraw granted

INDUSTRIAL REGISTRAR
18 MAR 1991
QUEENSLAND

The Registrar
State Industrial Commission
202 Adelaide Street
BRISBANE. Q. 4000

Dear Max,

Please find enclosed an application for a Rule Change of the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters, Joiners, Bricklayers and Plasterers of Australasia, Union of Employees, Queensland, as discussed with you in late February, 1991.

The ASCJB&P Queensland elections have always run concurrently with the Building Workers' Industrial Union, Queensland Branch elections, and simultaneous terms. Because of the current restructuring in the Australian Trade Union Movement where the Building Workers' Industrial Union is involved in various amalgamations, the first one of which being with the Australian Timber Workers' Union, it is likely that the 1991 elections within the BWIU will be postponed to line up simultaneously with the Australian Timber Workers' Union elections.

I understand that such a postponement or deferment will be two (2) years.

The effect of such a postponement would mean that the term of office of the officers who will be elected at the forthcoming 1991 ASCJB&P Queensland elections would be two years longer than the BWIU Queensland current officers.

In order to avoid such a possibility we are foreshadowing the enclosed rule change subject to the anticipated amalgamation with the Timber Workers going through and the successful application to the Australian Industrial Relations Commission for a two-year deferment of the BWIU 1991 elections, that our rules be changed to shorten the term of the 1991 elections, thereby ensuring that there are elections in the ASCJB&P simultaneously with the BWIU Queensland Branch in August of 1993.

Unfortunately, the time frame between having the knowledge that there is to be a deferment of the 1991 BWIU elections and the date for the calling of nominations in the ASCJB&P Queensland shall be short by approximately between four and eight weeks.

Therefore, we are requesting that you process the enclosed application for Rule Change but do not register the rule change until advised by the State Secretary of the ASCJB&P that the 1991 elections of the BWIU are to be postponed.

In the event that the elections in the BWIU are to go ahead be advised that we will be withdrawing the application for the attached changes to Rule 18.

The intent of this early application is to avoid any possible delays in the registering of the rule changes in the limited time available mid-year.

Seeking your co-operation in this matter.

With best wishes,

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

Please find enclosed an Application for a Rule Change of The Amalgamated Society of Carpenters, Joiners, Bricklayers and Plasterers of Australasia, Union of Employees, Queensland Branch.

You will note that the Union applied for an Application to change the Rules in a similar matter on the 12th March, 1991, but asked that the Rule changes not be registered until further notice.

We wish now to withdraw the earlier Application and proceed with a new Application which in essence shortens the term of the 1991 elections within The Amalgamated Society of Carpenters, Joiners, Bricklayers and Plasterers of Australasia, Union of Employees, Queensland, to 18 months to simultaneously line up with elections within the B.W.I.U. and Australian Timber Workers' Union in 1993.

We note your advice that the certifying barrister had approved our earlier Application and advise that this additional Application does no more than carry out the mechanics necessary to shorten the term to 18 months instead of 2 years as was proposed by our earlier Application.

Leave to withdraw granted

We would request that if there is any difficulty with the structure of our proposed Rule change that we be advised as soon as possible so we can make the necessary amendments so as to ensure that the Rule changes are registered prior to our forthcoming election in August of this year.

Seeking your co-operation in this matter.

With best wishes.
