Dear stakeholders,

I wish to advise you that Ms Kym Bancroft will be leaving her role as Deputy Director-General,

Office of Industrial Relations today.

I would like to thank Kym for her contribution to industrial relations in Queensland. I have genuinely appreciated Kym's leadership and wealth of experience and expertise in the health, safety and environment industry. Kym is looking forward to spending some dedicated time with her young family as she looks towards the next steps in her career.

Ms Megan Barry will act as Deputy Director-General, Office of Industrial Relations, from Monday, 24 April 2023.

From 22 June 2023, Mr Peter McKay will begin acting as Deputy Director-General, Office of Industrial Relations. Having held a range of senior executive roles across the Queensland Government in a range of departments including the former Department of Industrial Relations, the Department of the Premier and Cabinet and the Department of Employment, Small Business and Training, Peter brings a decade of experience from the Public Sector Commission where he has most recently worked as Deputy Commissioner.

A full recruitment process will be undertaken in due course.

Kind regards
Michael De'Ath

Director-General
