Form 2 (regulations 3.27, 3.28 and 3.29)

Fair Work Regulations 2009, regulation 3.27

ENTRY NOTICE

I, Dean Mattas Hoani Edwards

of the Construction, Forestry, Maritime, Mining and Energy Union, and having been issued an entry permit under section 512 of the Fair Work Act 2009, give notice that I propose to enter:

Job Details: 450 Gregory Terrace Spring Hill Qld 4000 CPB Cross River Rail Northern Portal M&E

On: 25/05/2023

As the entry is authorised by section 484 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (which deals with entry to hold discussions), I declare that the Construction, Forestry, Maritime, Mining and Energy Union, under Rule 2, of the Union's Rules, is entitled to represent the industrial interests of an employee who performs work on the premises mentioned above.

Obligations of permit holders, occupiers of premises and affected employers

A permit holder has various obligations under the Fair Work Act 2009. In general terms, these include (but are not limited to) the following:

- to produce the permit holder's entry permit for inspection on request and before requiring access to records and documents (see section 489);
- to comply with any reasonable request from the occupier of premises to comply with occupational health and safety requirements that apply to the premises (see section 491);
- not to intentionally hinder or obstruct any person, or act in an improper manner (see section 500);
- not to intentionally or recklessly misrepresent things the permit holder is authorised to do (see section 503).

An occupier of premises, an affected employer or other person has various obligations under the Fair Work Act 2009. In general terms, these include (but are not limited to) the following:

- not to refuse or unduly delay entry to a permit holder (see section 501);
- not to intentionally hinder or obstruct a permit holder (see section 502);
- not to intentionally or recklessly misrepresent things the occupier, employer or person is authorised to do (see section 503).

For further information about all the rights and obligations that apply in relation to entry rights, see Part 3-4 of the Fair Work Act 2009 or contact the Fair Work Ombudsman (tel: 13 13 94) or the Australian Building and Construction Commission (tel: 1800 003 338).

Failure by a person to comply with an obligation under Part 3-4 of the Fair Work Act 2009 may result in a court ordering the person to pay a pecuniary penalty (see section 546).

As the entry is authorised by section 481 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (which deals with entry to investigate suspected contraventions), I declare that:

- the Construction, Forestry, Maritime, Mining and Energy Union, under Rule 2, of the Union's Rules, is entitled to represent the industrial interests of a member who performs work at the premises mentioned above; and
- the suspected contravention or contraventions relate to or affect that member.

Obligations of permit holders, occupiers of premises and affected employers

A permit holder has various obligations under the Fair Work Act 2009. In general terms, these include (but are not limited to) the following:

- to produce the permit holder's entry permit for inspection on request and before requiring access to records and documents (see section 489);
- to comply with any reasonable request from the occupier of premises to comply with occupational health and safety requirements that apply to the premises (see section 491);
- not to intentionally hinder or obstruct any person, or act in an improper manner (see section 500);
- not to intentionally or recklessly misrepresent things the permit holder is authorised to do (see section 503).

An occupier of premises, an affected employer or other person has various obligations under the Fair Work Act 2009. In general terms, these include (but are not limited to) the following:

- not to refuse or unduly delay entry to a permit holder (see section 501);
- not to intentionally hinder or obstruct a permit holder (see section 502);
- not to intentionally or recklessly misrepresent things the occupier, employer or person is authorised to do (see section 503).

For further information about all the rights and obligations that apply in relation to entry rights, see Part 3-4 of the Fair Work Act 2009 or contact the Fair Work Ombudsman (tel: 13 13 94) or the Australian Building and Construction Commission (tel: 1800 003 338).

Failure by a person to comply with an obligation under Part 3-4 of the Fair Work Act 2009 may result in a court ordering the person to pay a pecuniary penalty (see section 546).

ENTRY NOTICE

I, Dean Mattas

of the Construction, Forestry, Maritime, Mining and Energy Union, and having been issued an entry permit under section 512 of the Fair Work Act 2009, give notice that I propose to enter:

Job Details: CPB, CRR, ROMA ST TUNNEL, 171 ROMA ST BRISBANE QLD 4000

On: 12.7.23

As the entry is authorised by section 484 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (which deals with entry to hold discussions), I declare that the Construction, Forestry, Maritime, Mining and Energy Union, under Rule 2, of the Union's Rules, is entitled to represent the industrial interests of an employee who performs work on the premises mentioned above.

Obligations of permit holders, occupiers of premises and affected employers

A permit holder has various obligations under the Fair Work Act 2009. In general terms, these include (but are not limited to) the following:

- to produce the permit holder's entry permit for inspection on request and before requiring access to records and documents (see section 489);
- to comply with any reasonable request from the occupier of premises to comply with occupational health and safety requirements that apply to the premises (see section 491);
- not to intentionally hinder or obstruct any person, or act in an improper manner (see section 500);
- not to intentionally or recklessly misrepresent things the permit holder is authorised to do (see section 503).

434

An occupier of premises, an affected employer or other person has various obligations under the Fair Work Act 2009. In general terms, these include (but are not limited to) the following:

- not to refuse or unduly delay entry to a permit holder (see section 501);
- not to intentionally hinder or obstruct a permit holder (see section 502);
- not to intentionally or recklessly misrepresent things the occupier, employer or person is authorised to do (see section 503).

For further information about all the rights and obligations that apply in relation to entry rights, see Part 3-4 of the Fair Work Act 2009 or contact the Fair Work Ombudsman (tel: 13 13 94) or the Australian Building and Construction Commission (tel: 1800 003 338).

Failure by a person to comply with an obligation under Part 3-4 of the Fair Work Act 2009 may result in a court ordering the person to pay a pecuniary penalty (see section 546).

of the Construction, Forestry and Maritime Employees Union, and having been issued an entry permit under section 512 of the Fair Work Act 2009, give notice that I propose to enter:

Job Details: Mains Yard, 33 Lanham St, Bowen Hills Q 4006

On: 7th August 2024

As the entry is authorised by section 484 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (which deals with entry to hold discussions), I declare that the Construction, Forestry and Maritime Employees Union, under Rule 2, of the Union's Rules, is entitled to represent the industrial interests of an employee who performs work on the premises mentioned above.

Obligations of permit holders, occupiers of premises and affected employers

A permit holder has various obligations under the Fair Work Act 2009. In general terms, these include (but are not limited to) the following:

- to produce the permit holder's entry permit for inspection on request and before requiring access to records and documents (see section 489);
- to comply with any reasonable request from the occupier of premises to comply with occupational health and safety requirements that apply to the premises (see section 491);
- not to intentionally hinder or obstruct any person, or act in an improper manner (see section 500);
- not to intentionally or recklessly misrepresent things the permit holder is authorised to do (see section 503).

An occupier of premises, an affected employer or other person has various obligations under the Fair Work Act 2009. In general terms, these include (but are not limited to) the following:

- not to refuse or unduly delay entry to a permit holder (see section 501);
- not to intentionally hinder or obstruct a permit holder (see section 502);
- not to intentionally or recklessly misrepresent things the occupier, employer or person is authorised to do (see section 503).

For further information about all the rights and obligations that apply in relation to entry rights, see Part 3-4 of the Fair Work Act 2009 or contact the Fair Work Ombudsman (tel: 13 13 94) or the Australian Building and Construction Commission (tel: 1800 003 338).

Failure by a person to comply with an obligation under Part 3-4 of the Fair Work Act 2009 may result in a court ordering the person to pay a pecuniary penalty (see section 546).

ENTRY NOTICE

I, Dylan Howard Hayden Turner Brodie Wood SELECT NAME SELECT NAME

SELECT NAME SELECT NAME SELECT NAME SELECT NAME SELECT NAME

of the Construction, Forestry and Maritime Employees Union, and having been issued an entry permit under section 512 of the Fair Work Act 2009, give notice that I propose to enter:

Job Details: CRR CPB CBGUJV - Albert St Station, 110 Mary St, Brisbane Q 4000

On: 27.09.2024

As the entry is authorised by section 484 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (which deals with entry to hold discussions), I declare that the Construction, Forestry and Maritime Employees Union, under Rule 2, of the Union's Rules, is entitled to represent the industrial interests of an employee who performs work on the premises mentioned above.

Obligations of permit holders, occupiers of premises and affected employers

A permit holder has various obligations under the Fair Work Act 2009. In general terms, these include (but are not limited to) the following:

- to produce the permit holder's entry permit for inspection on request and before requiring access to records and documents (see section 489);
- to comply with any reasonable request from the occupier of premises to comply with occupational health and safety requirements that apply to the premises (see section 491);
- not to intentionally hinder or obstruct any person, or act in an improper manner (see section 500);
- not to intentionally or recklessly misrepresent things the permit holder is authorised to do (see section 503).

An occupier of premises, an affected employer or other person has various obligations under the Fair Work Act 2009. In general terms, these include (but are not limited to) the following:

- not to refuse or unduly delay entry to a permit holder (see section 501);
- not to intentionally hinder or obstruct a permit holder (see section 502);
- not to intentionally or recklessly misrepresent things the occupier, employer or person is authorised to do (see section 503).

For further information about all the rights and obligations that apply in relation to entry rights, see Part 3-4 of the Fair Work Act 2009 or contact the Fair Work Ombudsman (tel: 13 13 94) or the Australian Building and Construction Commission (tel: 1800 003 338).

Failure by a person to comply with an obligation under Part 3-4 of the Fair Work Act 2009 may result in a court ordering the person to pay a pecuniary penalty (see section 546).

ENTRY NOTICE

I, Connor Rutene / Corey Taylor / Cody Budgeon / Dylan Howard / Eben Cox

SELECT NAME / SELECT NAME / SELECT NAME / SELECT NAME / SELECT NAME

of the Construction, Forestry and Maritime Employees Union, and having been issued an entry permit under section 512 of the Fair Work Act 2009, give notice that I propose to enter:

Job Details: CPB CRR Roma St, 171 Roma St, Brisbane Q 4000

On: 19.11.2024

As the entry is authorised by section 484 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (which deals with entry to hold discussions), I declare that the Construction, Forestry and Maritime Employees Union, under Rule 2, of the Union's Rules, is entitled to represent the industrial interests of an employee who performs work on the premises mentioned above.

Obligations of permit holders, occupiers of premises and affected employers

A permit holder has various obligations under the Fair Work Act 2009. In general terms, these include (but are not limited to) the following:

- to produce the permit holder's entry permit for inspection on request and before requiring access to records and documents (see section 489);
- to comply with any reasonable request from the occupier of premises to comply with occupational health and safety requirements that apply to the premises (see section 491);
- not to intentionally hinder or obstruct any person, or act in an improper manner (see section 500);
- not to intentionally or recklessly misrepresent things the permit holder is authorised to do (see section 503).

An occupier of premises, an affected employer or other person has various obligations under the Fair Work Act 2009. In general terms, these include (but are not limited to) the following:

- not to refuse or unduly delay entry to a permit holder (see section 501);
- not to intentionally hinder or obstruct a permit holder (see section 502);
- not to intentionally or recklessly misrepresent things the occupier, employer or person is authorised to do (see section 503).

For further information about all the rights and obligations that apply in relation to entry rights, see Part 3-4 of the Fair Work Act 2009 or contact the Fair Work Ombudsman (tel: 13 13 94) or the Australian Building and Construction Commission (tel: 1800 003 338).

Failure by a person to comply with an obligation under Part 3-4 of the Fair Work Act 2009 may result in a court ordering the person to pay a pecuniary penalty (see section 546).

Job Details: CPB CRR Roma St, 171 Roma St, Brisbane Q 4000

On: 09.12.2024

As the entry is authorised by section 484 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (which deals with entry to hold discussions), I declare that the Construction, Forestry and Maritime Employees Union, under Rule 2, of the Union's Rules, is entitled to represent the industrial interests of an employee who performs work on the premises mentioned above.

Obligations of permit holders, occupiers of premises and affected employers

A permit holder has various obligations under the Fair Work Act 2009. In general terms, these include (but are not limited to) the following:

- to produce the permit holder's entry permit for inspection on request and before requiring access to records and documents (see section 489);
- to comply with any reasonable request from the occupier of premises to comply with occupational health and safety requirements that apply to the premises (see section 491);
- not to intentionally hinder or obstruct any person, or act in an improper manner (see section 500);
- not to intentionally or recklessly misrepresent things the permit holder is authorised to do (see section 503).

An occupier of premises, an affected employer or other person has various obligations under the Fair Work Act 2009. In general terms, these include (but are not limited to) the following:

- not to refuse or unduly delay entry to a permit holder (see section 501);
- not to intentionally hinder or obstruct a permit holder (see section 502);
- not to intentionally or recklessly misrepresent things the occupier, employer or person is authorised to do (see section 503).

For further information about all the rights and obligations that apply in relation to entry rights, see Part 3-4 of the Fair Work Act 2009 or contact the Fair Work Ombudsman (tel: 13 13 94) or the Australian Building and Construction Commission (tel: 1800 003 338).

Failure by a person to comply with an obligation under Part 3-4 of the Fair Work Act 2009 may result in a court ordering the person to pay a pecuniary penalty (see section 546).
